Mrs. EVA L. GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, was interviewed at her residence, 3929 Rawlins Street, Apartment I, Dallas, Texas, on 11/25/63.

As soon as the interviewing Agents announced their identity and while they were still exhibiting their credentials and before being asked one question, GRANT started talking in a rambling manner about various events and newspaper reports and advertisement pertaining to the assassination of President KENNEDY and subsequent related events. Mrs. GRANT stated she was very emotionally upset, explaining that "by nature" she is an emotional type person, which condition has been aggravated by recent major surgery and hospitalization, plus the tragic events of the last few days in connection with the death of President KENNEDY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. GRANT kept talking continuously and each time Agent asked a question in an attempt to get pertinent information and conduct interview in some logical sequence, GRANT would raise her hand and start talking louder, indicating she did not want to be interrupted. She stated on three or four occasions the taking of notes by the Agents was extremely annoying to her and, after approximately an hour, in a very positive manner, she instructed that no more notes be taken. It appeared to the Agents that GRANT was making a sincere effort to cooperate, but she was in an extremely nervous and emotional state. She was interviewed in the presence of Mrs. PAULINE HALL, a close personal friend, at Mrs. GRANT's specific insistence.

OSWALD had a police officer holding onto each arm and numerous police officers were behind him. There was no officer in that 5 to 6 feet area between FRITZ and OSWALD. Rt 7, R-Oak At about 11:25 AM the agents observed a man wearing a dark hat and suit jump into the clearing with a revolver in his right Texas hand and he moved directly toward OSWALD. A shot was heard and the TV announcer immediately screamed "OSWALD has been shot." He repeated this numerous times. OSWALD was observed falling forward and numerous officers jumped on top of him. The man who fired the shot was observed being grabbed by several officers and taken immediately back into the City Jail Office.

About 4 minutes later an ambulance appeared on the scene and agents observed OSWALD being brought out on a stretcher. He was entirely limp with his arms hanging over the side of the stretcher. He was lying on his back. He was immediately placed in the ambulance and taken to the hospital.

Within about 2 minutes of the shooting the announcer at the scene announced over the closed circuit TV that the man who shot OSWALD was well known to Dallas police officers. About 5 minutes after the shooting the announcer stated that the man who had shot OSWALD had been identified as JACK RUBY.

The TV announcer was observed interviewing an unknown French reporter immediately after the shooting and this French reporter claimed that he was standing directly next to RUBY at the time RUBY bolted through newsmen and cameramen and shot OSWALD.

At about 1:01 PM Mr. BARKER, in contact with his correspondent at Parkland Hospital, advised he had just learned that OSWALD had been shot in the left side of the abdomen just below the heart, had suffered severe abdominal injury and was at the time receiving heart massage in an effort to keep him alive. It was also being reported he was being given blood transfusions.

At the time the shooting first occurred it was reported that the man who shot OSWALD had posed as a Secret Service Agent to gain entrance. This was later determined to be an erroneous report.

Mr. EDDIE BARKER advised that newsreel film and video tape from the closed circuit TV would be made available to the FBI immediately upon processing.

Dallas Letter

At about 2:00 PM Mr. BARKER furnished SAs IVAN D. LEE and ROBERT M. BARRETT a roll of video tape depicting the shooting and a roll of 16 millimeter newsreel film taken by GEORGE ROBERT PHENIX, a KRLD news cameraman. This film was taken directly to Love Field where it was given to Braniff Air Lines Pilot ROBERT R. ROSS who resides at 1806 Glenbrook, Irving, Texas. Captain ROSS stated he would personally deliver this package to FBI Agents at National Airport, Washington, D. C. Captain ROSS was the pilot for Braniff Flight No. 110 which was scheduled to leave Dallas at 3:15 PM and arrive at Washington, D. C. at about 8:00 PM.

STEVE LANDREGAN, Personnel, Publicity and Public Relations Director of the Parkland Memorial Hospital advised that he was on duty at the hospital when a call was received from Mr. BOB STRUBEE, Assistant Administrator and Comptroller, who was at home watching the TV coverage of OSWALD's removal from the City to the County Jail in Dallas, Texas. Mr. STRUBEE advised that he felt the personnel should be alerted for any eventuality due to the large crowds reflected on TV, who were accumulating at the City and County Jails. Mr. LANDREGAN advised that this was immediately done with no anticipation that OSWALD would be killed, but merely as a precaution, should a number of people be injured in the large crowds. He stated that after OSWALD had been brought in the hospital, there were many reporters in the area and one had asked him why the hospital was so well prepared to receive OSWALD. He stated that he told them that this was due to the initiative of the Administrative Staff, who had been prepared for any eventuality. Mr. LANDREGAN stated that this had been misinterpreted by the newspapers to mean that the hospital had some knowledge of the fact that OSWALD would be killed, however, this was not true and that the newspapers were so advised.

JACK RUBY was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that he had a right to talk with a lawyer before making any statement, and any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law.

RUBY stated he was born March 25, 1911, at Chicago, Illinois, and attended the second year of high school but did not complete that year of school. He presently resides at Apartment 207, 223 South Ewing, Dallas, Texas. He operates the Carousel Club at 1312½ Commerce, and the Vegas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn, in Dallas, Texas. His name at birth was JACK RUBENSTEIN, but he had his name legally changed to JACK RUBY at Dallas, Texas, in 1948 or 1949. He has also used the name JACK LEON RUBY. He has lived in Dallas since 1947, living most of the time in Chicago, Illinois, before that time.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, after he heard that President KENNEDY had been assassinated, he placed signs on the doors of both of his clubs, that because of the death of the President, the clubs would be closed. He had not planned on opening them again until after the President's funeral, because he was ashamed that anyone would want to participate in dancing or any entertainment after the assassination. On Friday night, he went to his church, Congregation Shearith Israel Synagogue, for prayer, and remembered that Rabbi SILVERMAN told those present that this tragic event should make us all better people. He later went to a delicatessen and had some sandwiches made up, and drove downtown and called Detective SIMS at the Homicide and Robbery Bureau at the Police Department, to see if anyone there wanted the sandwiches. Mr. SIMS told him they had all eaten, and the sandwiches were not needed. RUBY explained that he has operated night clubs in Dallas since 1947, and during that time has become personally acquainted with many members of the Dallas Police Department. The officers have been very fair with him, and not one has ever put his hand out for even one dime. He knew that the police officers were working very hard, and he just wanted to do something for them, so he thought he could help them by getting them some food. After he talked with Detective SIMS, he decided to call Radio Station KLIF in Dallas, to see if anyone there wanted the sandwiches. He could not get anyone to answer the phone, so he walked over to the Police Department to find someone that could give him the phone number in the room where the broadcasts were being made at KLIF. While in a hallway at the Police Department, he saw the Officers escorting OSWALD, the man who killed President KENNEDY, down the hall to an assembly room. He had never seen OSWALD before, and did not know him. He noticed that OSWALD had a black eye, and his face was scratched, and heard OSWALD mumble something as he passed by him. OSWALD was in the assembly room for a few moments, then was brought back down the hall and taken upstairs. He later returned home, where he watched television broadcasts about President KENNEDY and the assassination, and read the newspaper articles about it. The following morning, he drove down to the spot where President KENNEDY was killed, and spent about an hour there, talking for some time with Police Officer CHANEY, who was on duty there. After that, he returned home where he read newspapers and watched television. When he was alone, he cried a great deal, because President KENNEDY was his idol, and he was grieved that this nut OSWALD did a thing that brought such grief to the people of Dallas and people all over the world.

On Saturday night, November 23, 1963, he called a friend, TOM O'GRADY, who was formerly a member of the Dallas Police Department, and talked with him about President KENNEDY's death, but he did not discuss with O'GRADY anything about shooting OSWALD, because such a thought had not occurred to him at that time.

RUBY declined to give a detailed account of his activities, or any other names of persons he had been in contact with during the past few days.

He was also upset over an advertisement by one BERNARD WEISSMAN in the Dallas Morning News newspaper of November 22, 1963, criticizing President KENNEDY. RUBY said he was proud of the fact that he was a Jew, and was ashamed that anyone named WEISSMAN would criticize the President.

RUBY said that many grievances built up, apparently, until he reached the point of insanity. He read in the newspaper about OSWALD having a trial, and he thought that President KENNEDY's wife would have to return to Dallas for the trial and he did not think she should have to undergo that ordeal. He recalled that not too long ago an officer of the Dallas Police Department was killed by a hotel man, and the hotel man beat the deal and was never even sentenced for the killing. Because of this, he was afraid that if OSWALD were tried in court, he might be turned loose. As he walked down the streets, he noticed that people were going about their regular activities, and at night they were in clubs dancing and having a good time, apparently not in mourning or grieving continuously as he had. He felt that the civic leaders of Dallas were very sincere in their sorrow, but were helpless to show how much they were grieving. He also knew that the officers of the Dallas Police Department were helpless to do anything to OSWALD for killing President KENNEDY. He said he saw Attorney General BOBBY KENNEDY on television, and thought how much he loved his brother, the President, and how much BOBBY KENNEDY would like to do something to OSWALD, but couldn't do anything to OSWALD. He read newspaper articles about the President's children, and he thought of the sorrow that had been brought to them. He said he was proud of the way the City of Dallas had handled racial problems, and he thought it was the greatest city in the world, so he wanted to be something, better than anyone else.

aka Little Lynn

RUBY said he thought about these things, and had become very emotional. On Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, he left his apartment at about 10:00 a.m. and drove his car downtown to a parking lot across the street north of the Western Union Office, at the corner of Main Street and North Central Expressway. Before he left home, he put his revolver in his right coat pocket. He had bought this revolver, a Smith and Wesson .38 special caliber hammerless revolver, two or three years ago, at Ray's Hardware on Singleton Avenue, in Dallas, Texas. After parking his car, he went to the Western Union Office, and sent a $25.00 money order to an employee, KAREN BENNETT, at Ft. Worth, Texas, so that she could go by the Western Union Office there and pick the money up, as she had requested him to do. KAREN BENNETT lives in Ft. Worth.

Karen Bennett Karlin

Sometime after sending the telegram, he entered the basement of the building where the Police Department in Dallas is located, entering from the Main Street side. RUBY said he did not wish to say how he got into the basement, or at what time he entered. He did say that no one helped him in any way to enter the basement of the building, and he did not use any press badge or help anyone move in camera or press equipment into the building to gain entrance. When OSWALD was brought out through the door to the basement, RUBY said he was standing among the press representatives. When OSWALD passed near him, RUBY pulled his revolver from his pocket, placed the revolver next to OSWALD, and fired one shot at OSWALD. RUBY was immediately grabbed by the Police Officers and taken into custody.

RUBY said he had not planned to do this when he went into the basement, but declined to say why he brought his revolver with him when he came downtown. He also declined to give any reason for shooting OSWALD, except to say that it was just a moment of insanity that overcame his sane reasoning when he saw OSWALD.

RUBY said that basically he was a humanitarian, and was not a joiner of organizations. He belongs to no clubs, or groups of any kind, and is not a member of any political group. He has no particular political philosophy, and when he votes, he votes for the man that he thinks will do the best job. He said he had not talked with anyone about shooting OSWALD, he made no telephone calls, or told anyone directly or indirectly that he intended to shoot OSWALD, and he made no plans to shoot OSWALD. He said that if OSWALD had confessed to shooting President KENNEDY, he probably would never have shot OSWALD, because he would have felt that OSWALD would have been convicted in court, but since OSWALD had not confessed to the assassination, he was afraid OSWALD might be turned loose. He said that hundreds of people had probably thought about wanting to kill OSWALD, but he knew that no one would do anything about it. Then, after he had shot OSWALD, he wondered whether he had not been a sucker, even though he had done what many people had probably wanted to do. He said he was not involved in any conspiracy with anyone, no one asked him or suggested to him that he shoot OSWALD, and no one gave him a shot in the arm or anything to give him courage to do this. It was simply a compulsive act.

RUBY described himself as a white male, born March 25, 1911, at Chicago, Illinois. He is five feet, nine inches weighs 175 pounds, has brown hair thinning on top, brown eyes, and medium complexion. His left forefinger has the first joint missing, which he said was bitten off in a fight at one of his clubs in Dallas a number of years ago. He furnished the following names and addresses of his relatives:

Parents	JOSEPH and FANNIE RUBENSTEIN, deceased
Brothers	EARL RUBY, in care of Cobo Cleaners, Livernois Street, Detroit, Michigan

RUBY said that at the time of the shooting of OSWALD, he, RUBY, was wearing a gray hat, charcoal brown suit, black shoes, white shirt, and charcoal black tie. His automobile is a white 1960 Oldsmobile tudor sedan, and his 1963 Texas license is believed to be PD 678. He said he had considerable money on his person when arrested, considerably over $1,000.00, and this was money that he had for his payroll at his clubs, as well as excise tax. He also had an unknown amount of money in the trunk of his automobile, and an unknown amount of money at his apartment house. He said that no one had given him any money for any reason whatsoever. He had this money because he owes a lot of bills, and did not want to put the money in his bank account.

RUBY said that he was not personally acquainted with officer TIPPITT, of the Dallas Police, who was reportedly shot by OSWALD.

At the time the interview with RUBY commenced, Detectives T. D. McMILLAN and B. S. CLARDY, Auto Theft Bureau, Dallas Police Department, were on duty as guards over RUBY in a cell on the fifth floor jail at the Dallas Police Department. Uniformed officer K. H. HAAKE, Badge No. 1107, was on duty at the outer door of the cellblocks.

JACK RUBY was observed by SA JOSEPH M. MYERS at the Dallas City Jail, Fifth Floor, from 5:06 p.m., November 24, 1963, to 1:20 a.m., November 25, 1963.

At 5:40 p.m., November 24, 1963, RUBY was taken by Jailer G. WILLIAMS, Badge #1098, to the Identification Bureau, where he was fingerprinted and photographed by ED CARLSON, Identification Bureau. He gave as his next of kin, EARL RUBY, Cobo Cleaners, Detroit, Michigan. He appeared to be extremely friendly with CARLSON and other officers around the Identification Bureau, calling them by their first names and he specifically inquired about an officer named BLANKENSHIP.

At 6:01 p.m., Dr. FRED BEAVERDORF administered a rectal finger test in search of any pills that he might have hidden. He was allowed to talk to two visitors through the visitors' room on a communication system and the permit allowing these visitors was signed by WILL FRITZ, 5:55 p.m. The visitors were PAULINE HALL and EVA L. GRANT. RUBY kept talking to his sister, EVA GRANT, about all of his attorneys, naming FRED BRUNER, TOM HOWARD, GEORGE SANDERS, JIM MARTIN and another named KAUFMAN. He made the following remarks to his sister:

"BRUNER is my man. I have friends here so don't worry about me. Something happens inside of you and then you crack and then it happens. FRED BRUNER will come down in the morning and arrange bonds and have a hearing. I have nothing else to say and I've got the strength to stand up. I got lots of friends here so don't make a scene and get hysterical. JACK came up and said 'we don't care how much the bonds are we'll make them.' You can't live forever so they will let any of my relatives come up to see me any time. The judge is real nice and they don't bother me here."

RUBY stated PAULINE HALL manages the Vegas Club, whose address is 1606 Pratt and his sister, EVA, resides at 3929 Rawlins, Dallas.

From about 6 p.m. to 1:20 a.m., RUBY slept off and on, both in a lying down and sitting position. He did not talk very much.

Detective EDWARD R. CARLSON, assigned to the Identification Bureau of the Dallas Police Department, furnished the following information: ED CARLSON

He has been acquainted with JACK RUBY since approximately 1952, at which time RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club at 1717 South Ervay. This club included a dance hall and beer was dispensed to patrons. CARLSON described RUBY as being a very friendly, gregarious person who was very well known to many members of the Dallas Police Department. CARLSON expressed his understanding that RUBY was from Chicago, Illinois. While he was in Chicago, Illinois, he was an organizer in the Unions.

CARLSON stated he had never known RUBY to have been involved in any felony investigations although CARLSON had arrested RUBY on December 5, 1954 at the Silver Spur Club on which occasion RUBY was charged with investigation of the violation of State Liquor Law. CARLSON described the offense by stating that RUBY was allowing two of the club's patrons to drink beer after curfew. Following CARLSON's arrest of RUBY and during an interrogation of RUBY, the latter denied having any previous criminal record. When the identification record of RUBY was made available to the Dallas Police Department, CARLSON noted that RUBY's denial of previous criminal history was correct.

CARLSON mentioned that he, personally, has always been rather favorably impressed by some of RUBY's traits. He mentioned that he has never known RUBY to lie and he has never known RUBY to make derogatory remarks about other individuals even when they are persons whom RUBY is known not to like. CARLSON also described RUBY as being an impulsive individual and a man of strong convictions. CARLSON stated RUBY would go to any lengths for a friend, but at the same time CARLSON stated he would not want RUBY to be his enemy. CARLSON stated from his knowledge of RUBY, he (CARLSON) does not find it difficult to believe that RUBY carried out the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD because if RUBY felt strongly enough in his own mind that what OSWALD had done appeared to warrant his own death, RUBY might very well take it on himself to kill OSWALD.

At no time during his acquaintance of RUBY was there any indication that RUBY had any homosexual or bisexual tendencies. He stated he had heard rumors from other officers that RUBY may be a sexual pervert. He stated on one occasion he actually confronted RUBY with the fact that he may be a homosexual which RUBY emphatically denied. CARLSON is of the opinion that RUBY enjoys the company of women and knows of several instances where he was extremely fond of two or three different women.

CARLSON was queried as to any association between JAMES ROBERT TODD. CARLSON advised that he was very well acquainted with TODD as TODD was a well known Dallas police character. CARLSON advised that RUBY was the type of individual who would not allow a person of TODD's status to frequent his clubs inasmuch as it would be harmful to his business as well as to bring to the attention of the local law enforcement agencies that this might be a known hangout for local police characters.

CARLSON was also queried as to RUBY's association with JOE BONDS. CARLSON advised that he knows of no association whatsoever between BONDS and RUBY and feels certain if there was such an association he, CARLSON, would be aware of it.

CARLSON advised he has no personal knowledge of any political or religious convictions on the part of RUBY.

CARLSON is of the opinion that he, CARLSON, knows more about RUBY than any other officer of the Dallas Police Department.

At 8:45 p.m., Mr. RAY BRANTLEY, Proprietor, Ray's Hardware Store, who resides at 103 Highland, advised his records reflected that JACK RUBY purchased a Colt Cobra revolver from his establishment which is located on Singleton Blvd., in Dallas, on January 19, 1960. When he purchased the gun he gave the address of 3508 Oaklawn, Dallas, Texas. The books reflected this Colt Cobra bore Serial No. 2744. The revolver had a 2" barrel and was blue in color.

It was BRANTLEY's recollection that RUBY was accompanied by a Dallas policeman at that time whose name he does not remember. It was also believed by him that a prize fighter was with them also. BRANTLEY had had no business dealings with JACK RUBY prior to that time but later, approximately one year ago, JACK RUBY came to his hardware store and requested that he clean a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver. The revolver was rusty and after cleaning the revolver, BRANTLEY held the gun for two or three months before RUBY called for it. He believed that it was during 1961 that this revolver was brought into his business establishment.

BRANTLEY advised he was only casually acquainted with RUBY but recalled that a few months ago RUBY had contacted him and requested that a gun be shipped to an individual in Las Vegas, Nevada. He made available the books of his store which reflected that on May 10, 1963, a .38 Smith and Wesson Centennial revolver with no hammer, bearing Serial No. 13810, had been shipped to L. C. McWILLIE, 3040 Kishner Drive, Apt. 204, Las Vegas, Nevada. This gun was later returned to him inasmuch as McWILLIE did not pay for the gun. BRANTLEY stated he had sent the gun C. O. D. and that it cost him about $7.00 to send this gun to McWILLIE who did not pay for it. He was only casually acquainted with RUBY and in fact did not recognize his picture on television on November 24, 1963. He could give no information concerning friends or relatives or background on RUBY.

BRANTLEY said that the Smith and Wesson revolver JACK RUBY had requested him to clean in 1961 was blue in color, but he could not remember exactly what model the revolver was. He believed that it was probably a Chief Special with a hammer.

Mr. RAY BRANTLEY, owner Ray's Hardware Store, 730 Singleton Boulevard, advised no number [illegible] invoices in his office disclose on January 19, 1960 he sold a Colt Cobra Revolver to one JACK RUBY, 3508 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas. The serial number of this revolver is reflected by the record to have been number 2744 and is described as a revolver with 2" barrel, blue in color. BRANTLEY stated the invoices indicated this sale was made by him, BRANTLEY, personally.

BRANTLEY advised prior to this sale, the purchaser JACK RUBY, was unknown to him and to his knowledge, he had never seen RUBY before. He stated, however, this same person, JACK RUBY, visited in his store or at least two subsequent occasions, to transact business and by virtue of such contacts, RUBY became known to him by sight.

BRANTLEY related that following the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on Sunday, November 24, 1963, he had occasion to view the picture of the accused killer, JACK RUBY, on both television and in local Dallas newspapers and he readily recognized this person as being the JACK RUBY who had frequented his place of business and purchased the aforementioned Colt Cobra Revolver.

BRANTLEY stated that he can testify positively that JACK RUBY, the accused slayer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and the person of the same name who purchased the above Colt Cobra from him are one and the same individual.

MRS. RAY BRANTLEY DALLAS, TEXAS

Mrs. LILLIAN BRANTLEY, 103 Highland Street, co-proprietor of Ray's Hardware Store in Dallas, Texas, attested to an entry in the books of the store which show that JACK RUBY purchased a Colt Cobra revolver from Ray's Hardware Store on January 19, 1960. The serial number listed was 2744 and RUBY gave the address of 3508 Oaklawn. It was her recollection that RUBY came to the store with a police officer whose name she does not recall. She also said the store records show that on May 10, 1963, a .38 Smith and Wesson Centennial revolver, Serial No. 13810, had been sent to Las Vegas, Nevada. JACK RUBY, when he called at their hardware store, said he had received a letter from a friend in Las Vegas who could not find a Smith and Wesson Centennial there. The friend, according to JACK RUBY, requested that RUBY find him one and forward it to him. The books show that this revolver had been sent to L. C. McWILLIE, 3040 Kishner Drive, Apt. 204, Las Vegas, Nevada. Mrs. BRANTLEY had marked "Void" over this entry in the books because the C. O. D. package sent to McWILLIE had been returned. The cost to Ray's Hardware Store was about $7.00 and it was her recollection that it was sold to some other person. She knew RUBY by sight but stated she did not know anything about his background.

SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS was assigned, immediately upon receipt of information that President JOHN F. KENNEDY had been assassinated, to establish liaison with the office of Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY.

Jesse Curry J. E. Curry

Upon arrival at Chief CURRY's office at 1:00 PM, it was learned he was out of the office. SA CLEMENTS made his presence known to Captain GLEN F. KING, Administrative Assistant to the Chief; Deputy Chief R. H. LUNDAY, and to Sergeant ART HAMMETT, Public Relations Officer.

Texas Dallas Police Dept. Dallas Police Dept. Texas

At instructions of SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN, the above officers were informed of the extreme interest of Director HOOVER in the investigation and that the full facilities of the FBI Laboratory, Identification Division, and other services were available, that any requests would be immediately relayed. During the course of the period from 1:00 PM, November 22, 1963, to 2:00 PM, November 23, 1963, the above officers and other ranking personnel advised SA CLEMENTS of developments coming to their attention which were relayed to the FBI Office.

During the period described above and following the apprehension of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, it was observed large numbers of news reporters, cameramen, and perhaps others, congregated in the third floor corridors of the City Hall, housing administrative offices of the Police Department and various bureau offices, including Homicide & Robbery, where OSWALD was in custody.

Upon arrival of Chief CURRY at his office during the afternoon of November 22, 1963, SA CLEMENTS advised him of Agent's presence to relay any requests for FBI assistance, of Director HOOVER's extreme interest, and of the availability of FBI facilities. Upon instructions of SAC SHANKLIN, Chief CURRY was informed Director HOOVER had expressed his concern that OSWALD should be afforded the utmost security.

SA CLEMENTS did not observe any officers stationed at the third floor elevators to prevent the entrance of persons to the third floor at the outset. However, later in the afternoon, it was observed uniformed officers were stationed at the elevator and were looking at identification offered by persons who happened to be observed by SA CLEMENTS.

During the above-mentioned period, OSWALD was removed, to the certain knowledge of SA CLEMENTS, on two occasions, once to be shown in a line-up, and a second time at about midnight, for the purpose of a press conference in the assembly room in the basement. It was observed that during such times the corridors were extremely crowded. SA CLEMENTS observed OSWALD being brought through the corridor to the assembly room, that the corridor and room itself were crowded to overflowing. Numerous individuals recognized to be newsmen and others who had camera equipment were observed. The only individual observed by Agent who was known not to be an officer or connected with the press was one GEORGE SCHEPPS, member of a prominent Dallas family.

Plans of the Dallas Police Department to remove OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail on the morning of Sunday, November 24, 1963, at 10:00 AM, received publicity through news media, on the basis of releases of information attributed to the Dallas Police Department. The Sunday morning edition of "The Dallas Times Herald", November 24, 1963, reported on the front page that Dallas Chief of Police JESSE CURRY had said that OSWALD would be placed in the custody of Sheriff J. E. BILL DECKER on Sunday, November 24, 1963. It was reported that when reporters asked when the transfer to the County Jail would take place, Chief CURRY stated "You better be around here about 10:00 AM."

HENRY WADE, Dallas County District Attorney, at the Dallas Police Department, volunteered the information that on November 22, 1963, approximately 200 photographers and news reporters were at the Dallas Police Department and some were implying that the police department was holding LEE HARVEY OSWALD incommunicado in a "dungeon" and in order to prove to the reporters that this was not true, WADE arranged for these reporters to view OSWALD, and during this period WADE observed that JACK RUBY was among the photographers and television cameramen.

WADE stated he asked Captain FRITZ that he arrange to have OSWALD moved from the Dallas Police Department to the Dallas Sheriff's Office on the evening of November 22, 1963, and Captain FRITZ declined, stating that Sheriff BILL DECKER did not like for prisoners to be moved in the nighttime and that he would handle this at a later date. Captain FRITZ subsequently announced to the press that he would be moved to the Dallas Sheriff's Office Jail at 10 A.M., on November 24, 1963.

Assistant Chief M. W. STEVENSON, Dallas Police Department, advised that on November 24, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who was being held at the Dallas City Jail on charge of murder of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, November 22, 1963, was to be transported from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail.

STEVENSON stated that, in preparation for this transfer, extensive security precautions had been put into effect which called for all pertinent areas to be cleared and secured; this phase to be under the control of Captain CECIL TOLBERT, Patrol Division, Dallas Police Department. After the area was secured, he instructed Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, to be in charge of placing additional detectives in the pertinent area. He stated that JONES had twenty-five detectives in his division. In addition to uniformed officers under TOLBERT's supervision and the detectives under JONES' supervision, homicide officers were in charge of the actual transporting of OSWALD to the transportation vehicle. STEVENSON advised that the transportation vehicle was to be an armored car driven by a Dallas County Deputy Sheriff. This vehicle was to be in the basement area of the City Hall in the immediate area of the jail office. STEVENSON stated instructions generally were for no one to be permitted on the west side of the basement driveway, which side is adjacent to the jail office entrance. News media were to be kept off of the drive ramp in the basement and were to be permitted in the garage area only. Only news media and officers were to be allowed in the pertinent area. STEVENSON estimated that there were from sixty to eighty officers stationed throughout the pertinent area.

STEVENSON advised that he, himself, had taken up a position at the edge of the ramp in the pertinent area at the time OSWALD was brought out of the basement jail office by homicide and robbery officers into the corridor leading to the ramp. STEVENSON added that he has no idea as to what caused the security breakdown and allow an unauthorized individual to enter the pertinent area. He stated that a full investigation is currently being conducted by the Dallas Police Department. STEVENSON further indicated that he is having a sketch of this pertinent area prepared and this will be available in the immediate future.

Captain O. A. JONES, Forgery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that on November 24, 1963, sometime shortly before noon, acting under the instructions of Assistant Chief M. W. STEVENSON, he reported to the basement of the City Hall building, along with all available detectives from various bureaus of the Police Department on the third floor. He stated his instructions were to help in securing area for the transportation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail. JONES stated that specific instructions given him were to see that the armored truck, which was to transport OSWALD, was placed into position in the basement. JONES stated that additional specific instructions from Chief STEVENSON and Chief BATCHELOR were to use the detectives under their supervision to keep the press and news media east of the basement driveway. JONES stated he instructed officers in getting press media back from the pertinent area and in keeping everyone back after this area was cleared.

JONES stated that subsequently Chief STEVENSON advised him that the armored truck is too large to get all the way down the ramp, and that they were going to place two cars behind the truck, which was to remain at the entrance of the ramp facing Commerce Street. JONES stated, accordingly, at this time two cars were moved onto the ramp behind the truck, and it was necessary for officers to clear the path for these cars to pull onto the ramp from the underground parking area and to back into position at the corridor entrance. JONES stated at this time he was standing approximately on the east side of the ramp and a little south at the point where the corridor enters the ramp or driveway. Someone said, "Here he comes." JONES assumed this was with reference to the prisoner and, accordingly, turned towards the car to be sure no unauthorized personnel approached them and that the stationed officers were in the area. He stated he then looked back toward the east, at which time he heard a shot. He did not see the actual shooting and had not seen JACK RUBY in the pertinent area. He stated he knew JACK RUBY some ten or twelve years ago, but did not know him well. JONES stated he had definitely not seen RUBY in the City Hall building during the pertinent period of November 22-23, 1963.

JONES added that when he had heard the shot he immediately shouted to officers to seal the exits and he ran to the scene of the shooting and observed RUBY in custody.

JONES stated that his specific instructions to the officers under his supervision were to protect the pertinent area and to let no one in the area. They were to protect prisoners and officers and were to allow no picture taking in the restricted area. JONES added that he does not know the reason for the security falling down.

Lt. VERNON S. SMART, Auto Theft Division, Dallas Police Department, advised that he was instructed by Assistant Chief JIM W. STEVENSON of the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963, to take all available detectives in SMART's Division and go to the basement of the Dallas Police Station to assist in handling the transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail.

Lt. SMART stated that he did not recall the exact time that he arrived in the basement of the Police Station but estimated that it was approximately fifteen minutes before OSWALD was shot. Lt. SMART stated that upon arrival in the basement he observed Captain JONES of the Forgery Detail, Dallas Police Department, who was handling the placing of members of the press and photographers at one end of the building.

Lt. SMART stated that Assistant Chief CHARLES BATCHELOR and Lt. SMART went to the ramp of the Dallas Police Station in the basement where the armored truck was being backed in to take the prisoner, OSWALD, to the County Jail. Lt. SMART stated he noticed the truck was having difficulty backing down the ramp due to the height of the truck and the fact that the truck was almost too wide to come down the ramp. He stated that the truck was approximately ten feet down the ramp when he and the Assistant Chief BATCHELOR decided with the driver that he could go no further. Lt. SMART stated that the newspaper photographers and other members of the various news media were lined up to the north and east side of the driveway in the basement of the building. When the Deputy Sheriff who was with the armored truck opened the door a Nehi soft drink bottle fell out of the truck and broke. SMART stated that he and BATCHELOR then searched the armored truck completely and found a coke bottle which they threw away and then planned the seating arrangement in the truck. He stated they decided the side they would put OSWALD in, and he observed that there was plenty of room for approximately six to eight people to stay in the back of the armored truck. SMART stated that there were numerous lights from TV cameras in the building making it difficult to see. He then stated that he and BATCHELOR went to each side of the truck and observed that a uniformed officer was on the inside of the building and one on the outside of the building, and after checking the sides of the truck to see that the officers were there he turned around and heard something which sounded to him like a firecracker going off. Lt. SMART stated he ran down the ramp from where the armored truck was parked, observed a scuffle and tried to be of assistance. Lt. SMART stated that at the time the sound went off which sounded like a firecracker he himself was not aware that OSWALD was being brought out of the building. He stated that when he got to the scuffle he noted that several officers had JACK RUBY down on the basement floor and were handcuffing him and did not need his immediate assistance. The officers got RUBY up on his feet and SMART assisted in getting him immediately to the elevator in the jail to be taken upstairs to another floor. He stated that he did not know JACK RUBY personally and asked Detective W. E. "BLACKIE" HARRISON of the Juvenile Bureau who the man was involved in the scuffle and was told by HARRISON that it was JACK RUBY.

Lt. SMART stated further that he did not recall seeing RUBY in the Dallas County City Hall anytime between Friday, November 22 to the time of the shooting of OSWALD on Sunday, November 24, 1963.

Lt. SMART stated that HARRISON told him that he saw RUBY as RUBY was pulling the gun from his pocket. Lt. SMART further stated he understood from some of the other officers the names of which he did not recall that Detective COMBEST was supposed to have yelled, "JACK, don't do it" prior to the shooting.

Lt. SMART stated that JACK RUBY must have told Homicide Captain WILL FRITZ of the Dallas Police Department that RUBY's 1960 Oldsmobile was parked at the Allright Parking Lot at the corner of Main and Pearl Streets across from the Western Union Building near the Dallas Police Station as he, SMART, was instructed by Assistant Chief STEVENSON to go to the lot and search RUBY's car, get the money out of it, put the car in the pound and return the money in the car to the Dallas Police Station. Lt. SMART also stated that he was also instructed to take a dog from the car and have it placed in an animal shelter. Lt. SMART checked his records and stated that RUBY's car is a 1960 Oldsmobile, two door, white in color, bearing 1963 Texas License PD-678. SMART stated he found the car unlocked but did not find a key in the car. He stated that he found RUBY's wallet in the glove compartment in the car with identification cards and a key that fit the trunk of the car. He stated that he searched the trunk of the car and found the keys to the ignition in the trunk and discovered approximately $873.50 in a big grocery bag in the trunk of the car. He stated that the money was in several denominations, approximately $73.50 in silver, and he recalled about $400.00 was in $5.00 bills. He stated that also in the car were a number of boxes of courtesy cards or passes to the Carousel Club operated by RUBY. He stated that he also observed but did not remove from the car a large box of 8 x 10 photographs of nearly nude girls, and he estimated that there were approximately 200 pictures in this box. He stated that these photographs showed these girls in various stages of undress. SMART added that there were three newspapers lying on the front seat of the car all from Dallas and having articles in them concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY. SMART stated that he took the money, the papers and wallet and other property which he removed and turned it over to Captain WILL FRITZ. He stated that the car still is as far as he knows at the Dallas Police Department Auto Pound where it has Pound Ticket No. 102653.

1 Date November 25, 1963

Captain CECIL TALBERT, Radio Patrol Divsion, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, stated that on November 24, 1963, he utilized 18 officers of the Dallas Police Department and 25 reserve officers for setting up the security of the removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail. He stated that the route to be taken was from the Dallas Police Building to North Central Expressway, left on North Central Expressway to Elm Street, left on Elm Street to Houston Street and left one-half block to the Dallas County Jail. He stated that no reserve officers were utilized in the basement of the Police Building and that he had made the following arrangements as to checking the security of the basement. In the Dallas Police Building, there is a jail elevator which stops in the basement of the Police Building and leads directly onto the loading ramp. This ramp is on the driveway that runs from Main Street to Commerce Street through the Police Building or under the Police Building partially under the City Hall Building. This ramp leads off of Main Street at street level, goes down an incline to the basement level where there is a parking area and a loading ramp. This drive exits on the Commerce Street side. There are two passenger elevators and one service elevator which comes from the sub-basement up to the basement in the parking area of the basement just off of the loading ramp.

Captain TALBERT stated that these were thoroughly secured by regular Dallas patrolmen in order to see that no one had hidden in them. He stated that two officers were placed on the Commerce Street side at the street level of the drive which extends into the basement of the Police Building. He stated that one officer was stationed at the entrance of the drive into the police building at the Main Street entrance. He stated that all cars except police cars were moved out of the parking area in the basement. He stated that the air conditioning dock was examined to see that no one was hidden in it.

Captain TALBERT said that all people were ordered out of the basement except newsmen and police officials. He estimated that at the time, Captain WILL FRITZ and his detectives brought down OSWALD from the jail to the basement where he was to be loaded into the vehicle which would carry him to the County Jail. There were approximately 150 news reporters and television camermen. Captain TALBERT stated that he had instructed his men to check all newspaper reporters and television men for their passes and to see that they had credit news media passes. He stated in the rush to get down into the basement where the loading ramp was located and OSWALD was being brought down from the jail, it is highly possible that JACK RUBY may have walked down the ramp with the newspaper men unnoticed. He stated there was a lot of confusion and pushing. Captain TALBERT stated that he knew of no exact time that Captain FRITZ was to move OSWALD since the United States Secret Service had been interviewing on the morning of November 24, 1963. According to Captain TALBERT, Captain WILL FRITZ was in charge of the removal of OSWALD to the Dallas County jail and the attempted removal of the prisoner OSWALD was about 11:20 A.M., November 24, 1963. Captain TALBERT stated that he had placed patrolmen along the route properly, City Jail to the County Jail, at what he considered strategic points, those points being where the automobile would have to slow down for corners.

Captain TALBERT stated that he had no idea as to how JACK RUBY got into the basement and was as close as he was to the prisoner, OSWALD. He stated that at the time OSWALD was shot, he was not in a position to see who shot him and he thought for a moment it might have been a Dallas Police Officer. Captain TALBERT stated that he had no idea as to what caused the security breakdown.

Captain J. W. FRITZ, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following information pertaining to the events regarding the planned transfer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas Police Department to the Dallas County Jail.

Captain FRITZ stated that on November 23, 1963, Chief JESSE CURRY discussed with him the question of when LEE HARVEY OSWALD would be ready for transfer to the Dallas County Jail. Captain FRITZ stated that he advised Chief CURRY that the questioning of OSWALD had not been completed and indicated that the logical time for transfer would be after questioning was completed. Subsequently, Chief CURRY called Captain FRITZ and wanted to know if he could have the questioning of OSWALD completed by 10:00 A.M., November 24, 1963. Captain FRITZ stated he told Chief CURRY that he thought the questioning could be completed by that time.

Captain FRITZ stated he does not recall who advised the Press of any specific time of planned transfer of OSWALD to Dallas County Jail.

Captain FRITZ stated during night of November 23, 1963 he received a telephone call from a uniform Captain W. B. FRAZIER who wanted to transfer OSWALD at that time to the Dallas County Jail stating a threatening call had been received with regard to OSWALD. Captain FRITZ told Captain FRAZIER that Captain FRAZIER would have to clear with Chief CURRY as no security had been set up at that time for the transfer of OSWALD. Captain FRITZ later called back and stated he had been unable to contact Chief CURRY and would therefore have to leave OSWALD where he was for the time being.

Captain FRITZ stated that the arrangement of the overall security plan for the transfer of OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail on November 24, 1963, was handled by Chief CURRY and the uniform Division and accordingly he does not know what instructions were given in this regard.

Office Inspector, FORREST SORRELS, Secret Service, TOM KELLY, Secret Service, and two homicide and robbery detectives, a little after 11:00 A.M., Chief CURRY came to the office and inquired if he was ready to transfer OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail. Captain FRITZ advised Chief CURRY that he was ready to start any time the security was completed in the pertinent area.

Leslie D. Montgomery L.D. Montgomery

Captain FRITZ stated that Chief CURRY advised that the large television cameras which had previously been noted to be to close to the jail door had been moved and that the people had been moved back across the street from the City Hall Building and only the news media were in the basement. Chief CURRY said the news media would be well back in the basement garage, away from the pertinent area. Chief CURRY talked about the use of an armor truck which someone had ordered for the transportation for OSWALD. Captain FRITZ stated he did not know who ordered the armored truck. It was agreed between Captain FRITZ and Chief CURRY that the armored truck could not be used as the actual prisoner transfer vehicle because it would be unhandy to maneuver and too slow in case of an emergency. It was agreed to use an unmarked Police car as the prisoner transfer vehicle, which car would be stationed in the basement a few feet from the jail door. The armored truck was to be used as a decoy and would leave the basement ramp being lead by a police car and would proceed by way of Elm Street in the direction of the County Jail. The transfer car following with the prisoner would make a left turn on Main Street and proceed to the County Jail where security had been set up for it to drive into a passageway leading directly into the jail.

Captain FRITZ stated OSWALD's hands were handcuffed in front of him and he instructed his Detective JAMES R. LEAVELLE to handcuff his left hand to the right hand of OSWALD and instructed his Detective L. C. GRAVES to walk on OSWALD's left side. Captain FRITZ stated he instructed his Detective LESLIE D. MONTGOMERY to follow behind OSWALD while he, FRITZ, walked in front of OSWALD. They proceeded in the above fashion from the Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department to the jail office in the basement by way of the jail elevator, it having been previously agreed between Chief CURRY and Captain

FRITZ that the best route out of the building would be through the jail and out of the left jail door, which would leave only a few feet for prisoner and officers to walk to the transfer car.

Captain FRITZ stated when he and his detail reached the exit of the jail he went out of the door first and inquired of some uniform officer stationed immediately to his right at the corridor double door if everything was secure. The officer replied "Yes" and accordingly Captain FRITZ advised his detectives with the prisoner, to follow him. Captain FRITZ stated he had just reached the transfer car and reached out to open the car door when he heard a shot. He looked to his left and saw his detectives and other officers forcing an individual to the pavement. Captain FRITZ stated Detective L. C. GRAVES took the pistol from the above individual, subsequently identified as JACK LEON RUBY. Captain FRITZ stated he had not observed RUBY dart from the crowd of news media and that he did not know RUBY at all.

Captain FRITZ stated that he did not know what instructions had been given to the officers on the security detail in the pertinent area as he did not handle this as indicated above.

Captain FRITZ stated that it was unknown at this time by him as to why the security fell down.

Capt. J. W. FRITZ, Homicide and Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following information with regard to whether or not anyone asked him to remove LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail on the night of November 22, 1963.

Capt. FRITZ stated he recalled that on the night of November 22, 1963, following the arrest of LEE HARVEY OSWALD during the afternoon of said date, OSWALD was first filed on for the murder of Dallas police officer J. D. TIPPIT and later the same evening, after discussion by Capt. FRITZ with HENRY WADE, District Attorney, Dallas County; BILL ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas County; and JAMES ALLEN, former chief prosecutor for HENRY WADE, as to whether or not there was enough evidence for the conviction of OSWALD for the murder of the President, Capt. FRITZ filed a complaint about 11:35 p.m., November 22, 1963, charging OSWALD with the murder of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

FRITZ stated thereafter and even before OSWALD was filed on, several individuals asked him when OSWALD was to be transferred to the Dallas County Jail. Capt. FRITZ stated he advised them the investigation was continuing in conjunction with the Secret Service and FBI.

FRITZ stated he recalled talking to Dallas County Sheriff BILL DECKER and that DECKER might have remarked "When are you going to transfer OSWALD?" FRITZ stated he told DECKER that OSWALD was still being questioned and DECKER stated "Go ahead" and he would have to make some arrangements in his jail for OSWALD to be safe and for FRITZ to let him know when OSWALD was to be removed so he (DECKER) could be ready for him.

Sheriff J. E. (BILL) DECKER, Dallas Sheriff's Office, advised to his knowledge there is no State law governing transferring of prisoners from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail. Sheriff DECKER states established procedure is as follows:

When charges filed with court of jurisdiction, upon issuance of a warrant to proper authority, prisoner then becomes subject to transfer to the County Jail within a reasonable time.

The Constables of all justice courts in which all felony cases originate, upon issuance of a warrant to them, may transfer prisoners from the City Jail to the County Jail. If warrant issued by the Justice of the Peace within the County, the Sheriff or appropriate Constable could serve process and remove prisoner from the City Jail to the County Jail. Dallas Police Department can also remove prisoners from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Jail.

Sheriff DECKER stated with regard to his knowledge of planned removal of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by the Dallas Police Department from the City Jail to the Dallas County Jail, that all during the day of November 23, 1963, he had heard rumors from news media that OSWALD was to be removed November 23rd. Someone called from the Dallas Police Department on November 23, 1963, maybe Captain J. W. FRITZ, and indicated questioning of OSWALD was not quite completed, but removal might be that day. DECKER stated he told him that he would make necessary security check of a cell for OSWALD. About 6:00 PM, November 23, DECKER heard from some source that the time of removal for OSWALD had been set for 10:00 AM, November 24, 1963. DECKER stated he had his office confirm from the Dallas Police Department that this was true. DECKER does not recall who confirmed this for him.

Sheriff DECKER stated on the morning of November 24, 1963, Chief JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas Police Department, called and said he was going to use an armored truck to move OSWALD and wanted to know what DECKER thought about it. DECKER stated he told Chief CURRY that it would be up to CURRY to make decision on this. DECKER added the Dallas Sheriff's Office had no plans for participating in removal until OSWALD was delivered to the County Jail.

Sheriff J. E. "BILL" DECKER, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, was contacted and inquiry was made as to when he was first notified that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was to be turned over to his custody by the Dallas Police Department.

Sheriff DECKER stated he first learned OSWALD was to be brought to his jail from some member of the press, whose identity he does not recall, on November 23, 1963. This person advised that OSWALD was to be brought to the jail the following day. Sheriff DECKER stated on the same day, exact time not recalled by him, he picked up the telephone and called the Dallas Police Department concerning this matter. He stated he probably talked to Chief CURRY and/or to Captain WILL FRITZ but he had no independent recollection as to who he talked to and made no record of the calls. He stated he does recall that who ever he talked to at the Police Department corroborated the information he had received from the press. He stated he and the Police Department both knew that OSWALD was a "hot potato".

Sheriff DECKER stated he has no desire to discuss this matter further and does not desire to furnish any details of conversations he had with the Police Department, and declined to state whether he advised the Police Department that he had a preference as to the time of day the transfer of the prisoner should be made.

All proceeded by way of the jail elevator from the third floor to the jail office located in the basement. SWAIN stated that after arriving in the jail office, he went through the door into the corridor first, upon instructions of Captain FRITZ, for purposes of assisting in protection of LEE HARVEY OSWALD while being placed in the transportation car. He stated that immediately he ascertained that news media had the ramp blocked so that the transportation car could not back into position. He stated that there were quite a few officers stationed in the area for security purposes but that the news media had been allowed to accumulate in the ramp area. SWAIN stated that he immediately cleared the area by pushing the crowd of news media to the edge of the ramp so that the transportation car could back into position. He stated that Captain FRITZ came out of the jail office, followed by Detectives LEAVELLE and GRAVES with OSWALD, followed by MONTGOMERY. SWAIN stated that at the time he heard a shot fired, he had his arms outstretched, restraining news media individuals who were trying to surge forward, and actually his back was toward OSWALD and therefore he did not see JACK LEON RUBY run at OSWALD.

SWAIN advised that reportedly the patrol had, at the outset, cleared and secured the basement area. He stated that Captain TALBERT and Lieutenant R. S. PIERCE were in charge of the patrol detail. Reportedly after the area had been secured, news media were allowed to come into the area.

LOWERY stated that following the shooting, the actions of the two cameramen who pushed the camera from the area was brought to the attention of Lieutenant R. E. LOWERY advised he was of the opinion JACK LEON RUBY probably entered pertinent area under the pretext of being with the above mentioned Channel 5 Television newsmen.

Mr. HAROLD B. DAWSON, Auto Theft Bureau, Dallas Police Department, home address, 428 Vernet, Richardson, Texas, informed that he has served on the Dallas Police Department for fourteen years.

Mr. DAWSON informed that about 11:25 AM, November 24, 1963, all members of the Auto Theft Bureau, except the desk man, went to the basement of the police courts building and waited in the corridor just outside the jail booking office.

Mr. DAWSON said his specific assignment was to stay at a double door on the Harwood Street side and not let anyone in. He stated that during the period that he was at the door no one came through from the outside and no one left from the inside. He stated that fifteen minutes after he arrived in the basement the prisoner was brought down to the jail office. He said he understood that the prisoner was to be brought through the jail office. He stated he closed the double doors to be certain no one would come through the doors, as the prisoner was being escorted out of the jail booking office.

Mr. DAWSON said he saw the prisoner for a few seconds through the door as the prisoner was being brought out. He stated that after he saw the prisoner he heard a shot, but could not then see the prisoner or the person who fired the shot.

Mr. DAWSON said he was instructed by Captain O. A. JONES to remain at the door until relieved and check everyone who entered or exited for their credentials. He was instructed to only allow press photographers, reporters and authorized police or City of Dallas personnel on duty to come in through the door or leave through the door.

Mr. DAWSON said he has known JACK RUBY by sight as a night club operator in Dallas for several years. He stated he is not personally acquainted with JACK RUBY and has never had any personal or official dealings with RUBY. He stated he did not see RUBY prior to 11:25 AM on November 24, 1963.

Detective JAMES C. WATSON, Auto Theft Bureau, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, furnished the following information:

On the morning of November 24, 1963, WATSON was in a group of detectives instructed by Lieutenant SMART and Captain JONES to assist in keeping the press men and photographers back while Captain WILL FRITZ and his men brought LEE HARVEY OSWALD down from the City Jail to the basement ramp to a waiting armored car. The Dallas Sheriff's Office was waiting with the armored car to take OSWALD to the Sheriff's Office for confinement. It is WATSON's recollection that he received this assignment from Lieutenant SMART sometime early on the morning of November 24, 1963.

After arriving at the basement, WATSON was stationed at the northwest corner of the driveway opening and east of the jail office door. As Captain FRITZ came out of the jail door, he was followed by OSWALD and two detectives holding OSWALD's arms and other detectives following behind. When they reached the corner where they would turn right to go up the ramp about seventy-five feet from the armored car, WATSON was looking to the right and back toward the jail office door and hallway. At that time, he heard a loud noise like a gun or firecracker. He never saw anyone at the time the shot was fired, as he was looking to the right. He looked back when he heard the sound and six or eight detectives had grabbed a man and were wrestling him to the floor. WATSON did not recognize the man at the time. They took OSWALD and this man into the jail office and WATSON stayed in the basement area to assist in keeping everyone there from leaving and to keep down any interference from the watching press men and photographers. He remained in the basement the next two or three hours on orders of Captain JONES and Lieutenant SMART and checked everyone coming or going.

WATSON did not see suspect JACK RUBY or the gun at any time before the shot was fired. He had seen JACK RUBY on several occasions three or four years ago at RUBY's club. He believes he would have recognized RUBY if he saw him in his club, but doubted that he would have recognized him had he observed him in the crowd in the basement of the City Hall.

WATSON advised he had no knowledge of the plans for transporting OSWALD from the City Jail to the County Sheriff's Office, and had received no prior information concerning the plans before receiving his instructions from Lieutenant SMART on the morning of November 24, 1963.

Detective B. S. CLARDY, Auto Theft Bureau, Police Department, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

On the morning of November 24, 1963, CLARDY was on duty in the Auto Theft Bureau. Lieutenant SMART, of the Auto Theft Bureau, advised him not to leave City Hall, as he was to be available when the prisoner, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was escorted from the City Jail.

At about 10:00 AM, Lieutenant SMART advised CLARDY and other detectives in the Auto Theft Bureau to report to the City Jail Office. It is CLARDY's recollection that, upon arrival at the jail office, Lieutenant SMART directed him to take up a position near the southwest corner of the hall leading into the driveway. About two minutes before the prisoner was brought down from the jail, CLARDY looked around over the crowd of press men and photographers and, at this time, he did not see JACK RUBY or anyone resembling JACK RUBY. CLARDY has known JACK RUBY for the past eight or ten years and believes he would have recognized him had he been among the crowd.

As word was relayed that subject OSWALD was being brought down the elevator to the City Jail Office, CLARDY was watching the driveway to the basement and the driveway to Commerce Street, where the armored car was located. As he was looking in this direction, he saw a fast blur out of the corner of his eye and before he could turn around he heard a shot. As he attempted to turn around, he partly lost his footing and was thereafter immediately bumped from both sides by people pressing forward to see what had happened. When he regained his balance, JACK RUBY was pinned under a pile of officers, who had been immediately adjacent to him at the time the shot was fired. CLARDY helped to keep the press back until the prisoner, OSWALD, and JACK RUBY were taken into the jail office. Thereafter, he went into the jail office and at that time Detective J. C. WATSON was at the door keeping other people from entering. Detectives McMILLION, ARCHER, BLACKIE HARRISON, Lieutenant SMART, and other officers were holding JACK RUBY on the floor. CLARDY took McMILLION's gun and placed McMILLION's gun and CLARDY's in a locker. Then McMILLION, HARRISON, and CLARDY took RUBY directly to the 5th floor, where they searched his clothing, removed the handcuffs from him, and stripped searched RUBY and his clothing. CLARDY stayed with JACK RUBY until the arrival of officers

CLARDY recalled that after they had taken RUBY to the 5th floor he asked RUBY why he had shot OSWALD and RUBY said, in effect, "Somebody had to do it. You all couldn't do it."

CLARDY advised that, although he has known JACK RUBY for the past eight or ten years, he has had only occasional contact with him; however, he has observed him on numerous occasions in the City Hall, either in the basement or the first floor. On these occasions, he would be talking to various police officers and other individuals.

CLARDY advised he could furnish no additional information.

W. J. HARRISON, 9223 Donnybrook, Dallas, Texas, Juvenile Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that on November 24, 1963, he was assigned to the Security Detail in the basement area of the Dallas City Hall Building in preparation of the transportation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail. HARRISON advised that during the pertinent period he was standing eight to ten feet to the left of Lieutenant R. E. SWAIN, JR. and was helping to hold the news media back on the north side of the ramp. As soon as LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought to the edge of the ramp, JACK LEON RUBY ran from the crowd of news media to the left of HARRISON and shot OSWALD. HARRISON stated that he dived for RUBY and tried to knock the gun from his hand but was too late. HARRISON stated that RUBY made the remark at the time, "I hope I killed the SOB and saved a lot of people some trouble".

HARRISON estimated that there were from between 60 - 80 news media in the ramp entrance and drive area at the time of the shooting.

DON RAY ARCHER, Detective, Auto Theft Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, residing at 2035 San Francisco, Dallas, Texas, advised that he was stationed on the north side door that exists into the basement from in front of the jail office and just south of the jail door in the basement garage corridor of the Dallas Police Department. As LEE HARVEY OSWALD was brought past ARCHER, he was being led by Capt. WILL FRITZ, who was approximately 5 feet in front of OSWALD. OSWALD was being led out by the two detectives. As they reached the edge of the ramp, ARCHER saw a man dressed in a suit and wearing a gray hat dart in front of OSWALD and just behind FRITZ. ARCHER heard this man shout a phrase, the only words he could make out were "son of a bitch".

Before he could move, ARCHER saw someone grab OSWALD's arm and ARCHER caught a glimpse of a pistol and heard a shot. OSWALD shouted "Oh,no!" and collapsed.

ARCHER assisted in dragging the person doing the shooting to the jail office where he was held on the floor until Det. MC MILLON could get the handcuffs on him. ARCHER asked "Who is it?" as did several others who were present. The suspect turned and headed towards the crowd and shouted, "You know me, I'm JACK RUBY" to those present.

ARCHER, along with Capt. KING, Det. CLARDY, and Det. MC MILLON took him to the jail elevator and went directly to the fifth floor where the jail is located. Det. ARCHER, CLARDY and MC MILLON put the suspect spread-eagled against the wall and searched him thoroughly for a weapon, putting all personal items found on his person into the suspect's hat. ARCHER stated he did not inventory the property taken from the person of the suspect. Dets. CLARDY, MC MILLON and ARCHER and Jailer HAAKE remained with RUBY until approximately 3:00 p.m., November 24, 1963, at which time RUBY was escorted to the Dallas Police Department Homicide Bureau, located on the third floor. ARCHER pointed out he was left with the prisoner as they were afraid he would do himself bodily harm. ARCHER advised he did not know nor had he ever met RUBY prior to November 24, 1963.

ARCHER stated he has no idea when or who made the decision to transfer OSWALD to the Dallas County Jail, Dallas,

ARCHER feels possibly the reason for security breakdown was the presence of such a large number of news media personnel allowed to cover the transfer of OSWALD present in the basement of the Dallas City Police Department. The brilliant illumination sent by lights set up for television camera made it impossible to see any distance, thus obscuring anyone's vision looking into these lights.

Detective C. A. GREESON, Auto Theft Bureau, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

At approximately 10:30 a.m. on November 24, 1963, GREESON was assigned by Captain JONES to help guard prisoner LEE HARVEY OSWALD from the City Jail to the Dallas County Sheriff's Office. GREESON was standing in the doorway by the telephone booth directly across from the City Jail Office windows and Captain JONES was giving instructions to keep an aisle open from the City Jail Office to the basement ramp. There were alot of newsmen and cameras moving in and out of the basement. GREESON was flanked by Detective CHAMBERS and Detective ARCHER on his left.

At about 11:25 a.m., Captain WILL FRITZ came out of the Jail Office followed by two Detectives from FRITZ' bureau who had the prisoner OSWALD between them. As soon as the prisoner and the two detectives moved out of the City Jail Office, GREESON and the other detectives closed rank behind the prisoner. At that time there was a sound of a gun shot, however GREESON's view was blocked by the detective immediately in front of him and he had been unable to see anything that transpired until he heard the gun shot. After the gun shot he saw a man holding a gun and several detectives were diving at him attempting to wrest the gun from him and subdue him. GREESON kept his eye on the man and jumped toward the man with the gun, but he was blocked out by other detectives who had moved and grabbed this man.

GREESON did not see either the man with the gun or see the shot fired. Eight or ten detectives wrestled the man to the floor and Captain TALBERT yelled to the detectives to block off all exits and entrances to the basement. After the man with the gun was subdued and this man and the prisoner OSWALD taken into the jail office, GREESON was instructed by Captain JONES to go to Parkland Hospital to assist in guarding the entrances and exits to the third floor of the hospital.

During the pertinent period he was stationed at the head of the basement drive ramp on Commerce Street side of the City Hall Building, and was standing beside an armored car. Present during this period were Chief BATCHELOR, Captain O. A. JONES of the Forgery Bureau, and Captain FRANK M. MARTIN, Juvenile Bureau. He stated that he heard a shot and saw the confusion when officers jumped on JACK LEON RUBY and observed the news media attempting to surge forward. BUTLER stated that he helped push the news media back and make room for an ambulance which arrived almost immediately.

BUTLER stated that he recalls as to the security afforded OSWALD, that there had been 35 to 50 officers concentrated in the pertinent area who stood almost shoulder to shoulder from the jail door to the parking area.

Mr. ROBIE LOVE, Constable, Dallas County, Texas, who resides at 5732 Velasco, Dallas, advised he received information on November 25, 1963, reflecting JACK RUBY possibly possessed a permit to carry a pistol or a Deputy Constable's card. Mr. LOVE, upon hearing this information, stated he immediately conducted a thorough search of the records of his office with negative results for any information indicating RUBY had ever received a Deputy Constable's Identification Card. Mr. LOVE explained there is no way a person can obtain a permit to carry a pistol in the State of Texas unless that person is a duly constituted officer in uniform and the pistol carried by the officer is exposed to the public view at all times. He stated there is no way a citizen can obtain a permit to carry a pistol when the pistol is to be used as a concealed weapon.

Mr. LOVE continued he has never known of a Dallas County Sheriff or a Dallas County Constable to issue any type permit for a civilian to carry a pistol. Mr. LOVE pointed out certain citizens are issued Deputy Constable Identification Cards; however, these cards are mainly issued for honorary purposes. These cards do not permit a person to carry a pistol as a concealed weapon.

Mr. LOVE concluded by advising his observation with regard to pistol permits covers the period of his service in office which dates back to January 1, 1947, in Dallas County, Texas. LOVE stated he did ascertain RUBY approached a Deputy Constable, BILLY J. PRESTON, who works for LOVE, at which time RUBY asked PRESTON if he could obtain a permit of some kind to carry a gun. PRESTON informed RUBY there was no such permit available unless a man is paid $40 a month by the state or local government, and he is duly authorized to carry a pistol. LOVE stated PRESTON told RUBY he could not obtain such a card because he was not in the position to issue one. LOVE explained bank guards and other officers of this type who carry guns are also issued Deputy Constable Cards so the guard can make an arrest if necessary in connection with his duties as a guard. SUBJECT: Shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald

Sir:

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, about 11:00 A.M., I was in the basement of the City Hall, Police Courts Building. Capatin O. A. Jones walked by and told me that some detectives from the third floor would be down shortly and for me to remain there and tell them to wait for him in fron the jail office window.

We were assigned to the basement hallway of the jail office by Captain O.A. Jones, evenly divided on each side of the hallway. Our instructions were to keep the hallway clear all the way to the armored car.

R.L. Lowery, B. H. Combest, Jerry Hutchinson, and myself and possibly some more, were assigned to the South side of the hallway directly across from the outside entrance to the jail office. On the other side of the hall were Charles Boolsby, James Watson, W. E. Chembers, W. J. Harrison and W. J. Cutshaw. I am not sure of the order of their stations.

Texas.

About ten minutes passed when Captain Jones came over with Sergeant Putnam and they both told the people of the press to clear the hallway completely and to move out into the drive North of the hallway and to the East of the ramp drive where the armored car was parked. They then told them not to ask Oswald any questions as he was leaving the building.

About 11:30 A.M. Lieutenant R. E. Swain came out of the door of the jail office followed by Captain Fritz. The lights from the many cameras came on immediately. Following Captain Fritz was J.R. Leavelle, Lee Harvey Oswald and L. C. Graves. Following these was L. D. Montgomery.

"About half way out to the hallway the press began to reach at Oswald with microphones asking him to make a statement.

"I took one step into the hall anticipating following Oswald, Graves and Leavelle to the armored car. I heard a shot and looked over to see many police officers subduing Jack Ruby. I saw L.C. Graves take a snub-nose pistol from Ruby's hand as he was forced to the floor.

"From where I was stationed, just inside the jail office hallway, I could see one police office and a reserve officer. They were stationed at the windows of the jail office and were checking everyone that came inad out of this entrance. I recall that either one or both had been there since 9:30 A.M., this date, and that on one occasion Melba Espinosa, an employee at the Information Desk, was refused admittance to the basement.

"Never during the entire operation did I see anyone enter or leave the basement without being properly identified and in many instances searched. I never did see Ruby until after I heard the shot.

"I would like to submit the following report regarding the incident occurring in the basement on November 24, 1963.

"On the morning of November 24, 1963 while on duty in the Auto Theft Bureau, Lieutenant Smart advised me not to leave the City Hall as I was to be available when the prisoner was escorted from the City Jail. About 10:00 a.m. Lieutenant Smart advised me and the other officers in the bureau to report to the jail office. Upon arrival I took a position near the southwest corner near the driveway. A couple of minutes before the prisoner was brought down, I had looked over the crowd, and, at this time, I did not see Jack Ruby in the crowd. I have known Jack Ruby for eight to ten years, and if I had seen him I would have recognized him.

"As word was heard that the subject was being brought down, I was watching the driveway to the basement and to the driveway to Commerce Street where the armored truck was. I saw a fast blur of movement out of the corner of my left eye, and, before I could turn, I heard a shot. As I turned I partly lost my footing and was bumped by people from both sides at the same time. Before I could get balanced, the subject, Jack Ruby, was under a pile of officers.

"I helped others try to keep the press back until both the prisoner and Jack Ruby were taken inside the jail

Detective McMillon, Detective Archer, Detective Blackie Harrison, and Lieutenant Smart, and another officer were holding Jack Ruby on the floor. I took Detective McMillon's gun and placed his gun and my gun in the locker. Then Detective McMillon, Detective Archer, Detective Blackie Harrison, and myself took Jack Ruby directly to the fifth floor where we searched him. Then I took the handcuffs off and gave them to Detective McMillon as they were his cuffs. We then stripped Jack Ruby to his skin and searched his clothing completely.

"Lieutenant Baker of homicide had been contacted and requested that we stay with the prisoner until the arrival of officers from the Homicide Bureau. Detective Harrison had left after helping take the prisoner up. Detective McMillon, Detective Archer, and myself were with the prisoner. Mr. Sorells of the Secret Service came to the jail office and talked to him briefly and left. Then F.B.I. Agent Hall came up and talked to Jack Ruby for some time, probably two hours or better.

"A jailer came back and told us that a lawyer was to see Jack Ruby and it had been okayed by the Homicide Bureau. I am not sure which jailer this was. We took the prisoner to the fourth floor, Detective Archer, Detective McMillon, F.B.I. Agent Hall, one of the jailers, and myself. He talked to a lawyer for about two minutes. Subject: Shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald

Sir:

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, I was working regular hours of 8:00 A.M. until 4:00 P.M. in the Special Service Bureau, Vice Section.

At approximately 10:50 A.M., I was in the basement of City Hall near the jail office. I was engaged in conversation with Detective B. L. Beaty and Officer J. D. Hutchinson. We were approached by Captain O. A. Jones. Captain Jones told us to remain in the basement near the jail office. He further stated that all the other available officers in City Hall would be down into the basement soon.

I overheard Sergeant J. A. Putnam reiterate his orders to the officer and the reserve officer working the passageway leading out of the basement into the parking basement. He stated very emphatically to the officer that no one but police and press members with press passes were to be admitted to the parking basement.

A short time later several officers and detectives came down from upstairs. Captain Jones took all officers out into the passageway just outside the jail office. He told all of us that we were to form a line on each side of the passageway in order to make a lane for the prisoner Oswald to be escorted. He told some officers to get all the newsmen out of the jail office booking room. He then cleared the passageway immediately outside the jail office. At this time Sergeant J. A. Putnam asked all the newsmen to move to the far side of the driveway, this being the side across from the jail office. Captain Jones then told officers to keep the lines that we had and for officers to fall in behind and to keep newsmen from rushing in.

Beside the above listed officers, other officers that I remember to be in the basement were:

R.L. Lowery #1081, Chief M. W. Stevenson #16, T.D. McMillon #1349, W.E. Chambers #1087, Sgt. P.T. Dean #882, L.D. Montgomery #1047, J.R. Icavello #736, J.C. Graves,

"I did not observe anyone that I knew who did not belong in the basement. Everyone that I saw were either police or people I thought to be newsmen. I did not observe Jack Ruby until just seconds before the shooting.

Subject: Shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald

Sir:

At the time that Oswald was being brought down the jail, I was stationed next to the door leading to the jail office. Prior to Oswald coming out, a T. V. Camera was pushed out of the basement lobby into the basement. There were three men pushing the camera. The man with the green shirt was on the right and the man with the black rain coat was on the left. The third person was in the center and had on a dark suit. He was bent over low behind the camera pushing on the base. The camera was pushed down the ramp into the parking area but was not hooked up. After the shooting the camera was being pushed up the ramp by two men. The man in the dark suit was not one of them. I stopped the two men and asked them where the other man was that helped them push the camera out. They stated that no one was with them.

After the shot, I jumped on the man and had him by the left arm. I held this position till we reached the jail office door where I had to release my hold so they could get inside the jail office. After they got inside I stood guard on the door.

"Sir:

Texas

"On Sunday, November 24, 1963 at approximately 9:00 A.M., I was advised by Lieutenant R. S. Pierce to take a group of men and thoroughly search the garage portion of the basement. This assignment was in preparation and security purposes in the transfer of Harvey Lee Oswald, W/M/24, to the County Jail from the City Jail.

"I then obtained thirteen (13) Reserve Officers from the Detail Room and with the aid of Sergeant J. A. Putnam, Officers L. E. Jez, and A. R. Brock we conducted a systematic search of the basement. The men were advised to check very carefully the cars, trucks, and the overhanging pipes, and air conditioning ducts. Before the search was started at the northern side of the basement, the following men were assigned at these locations:

Officers Dallas Police Dept.

B. G. Patterson	Top of ramp on Commerce
R. E. Vaughn	Top of ramp on Main
A. R. Brock	Basement Elevators
R. C. Nelson	Basement Entrance from City Hall
Reserve Officer	South Portion of Basement At The Engine Room Entrance

Texas

Roy E. Vaughn

"These men were advised to permit no one in the basement other than properly identified pressmen or law enforcement officers, and not to leave these assignments for any reason until relieved, by either myself or Sergeant Putnam.

"The above assignments were later supplemented by the officers as follows:

L. E. Jez	Top Commerce Street Ramp
L. C. Taylor	Top Commerce Street Ramp

"In addition numerous reserve officers (names of which I did not retain) were assigned to these locations.

"At approximately 11:00 A.M. an armored car was backed into the Commerce Street Exit to the basement.

"Shortly after, approximately 11:15 A.M., Lieutenant Pierce approached me just outside the Jail Office and advised me to ride in the Armored Car and to give him two (2) officers to go with him in his car. I advised Sergeant Putnam to get an unassigned man (Sergeant Maxey) and go with Lieutenant Pierce.

"I then went to the Armored Car and remained approximately five minutes until I heard the shot and saw the commotion at the bottom of the ramp which was approximately fifty (50) feet from me.

"I immediately ran to the location to assist the officers with the crowd.

"It was then, while the detectives had the suspect on the floor, that I recognized him (the suspect) as Jack Ruby.

"I knew Jack Ruby as the manager of the Carousel Club located in the 1300 block of Commerce. I met him while I was assigned as a sergeant on Zone 100 which includes the location of the Carousel Club.

"At no time during the day had I seen Jack Ruby either in or around the City Hall. In fact I have not seen him for several months.

"At approximately 12:00 Noon Chief Curry contacted me just outside his office and instructed me to escort Mr. Forrest V. Sorrells, Agent in charge of the local Secret Service, to the Fifth Floor Jail for Mr. Sorrells to interview Mr. Ruby.

"After Mr. Sorrells interrogated the subject I questioned Ruby as to how he had entered the basement and the length of time he had been there. Ruby then stated to me in the presence of Sorrells that he had entered the basement through the ramp entering on Main Street. He further stated that he would estimate his total time as about three minutes before the detectives brought Oswald into his view, then he immediately shot him (Oswald).

"As Captin Fritz, Detective Leavelle and Detective Graves emerged with the prisoner, a group of reporters fell in back of them as they walked. I overheard one of them aks, "What have you got to say now?" At this exact moment, I heard the shot. Due to the crowd having closed behind the men, I was unable to see anything. On November 24, 1963 at approximately 9 A.M., I was given a call to report to 511. I arrived at the Patrol office and remained in the Sergeant's room. About 10:15 A.M. we were instructed to report to the basement. After arriving in the basement Sgt. Dean told me to get my shot gun from my car and return to the basement. When I returned, I was told to place the shot gun in a squad car.

While I was waiting for further instructions I observed Sgt. Putnam looking in a Detective's car and then stop the Police Pattie Wagon as it came into the basement. He looked in the front and then opened the rear doors and looked in.

Sgt. Putnam then directed Officer Tolbert and myself to take a position at the bottom of the North ramp, and check all cars or trucks entering the basement. While we were there, approximately 20 or 30 minutes, no vehicles or persons came down the ramp.

Sgt. Putnam then directed us to come to a spot in the parking area of the basement. We were assigned traffic corners. I reported to my corner, Akard and Elm, and there remained about 20 minutes when a passer-by informed me that Oswold had been shot. About this time I heard several sirens. I went to my squad car and asked the dispatcher if there were any instructions for the men working Elm Street. I was directed to remain on my corner till otherwise informed.

"On Sunday, November 24, 1963, at around 11AM, Deputy Chief Stevenson approached me in the administration offices and directed me to place two officers at the Commerce Street entrance to the ramp leading into the basement of the City Hall. He said to instruct these two officers that an armored truck was enroute and for them to assist the truck back as far as possible down the ramp into the City Hall. He also told me to take any remaining detectives that were available on the third floor to the basement and place them any place they were needed in the basement to supplement the officers already stationed. Most of the detectives had previously been sent to the basement. I entered each of the bureaus except Homicide and Robbery and told the duty officer to have any available officers to report outside the jail office and went to the basement. Two or three detectives accompanied me and remained near the jail office. I went to the head of the ramp on Commerce Street and informed Patrolman Jez and one other patrolman to remain there and keep the way clear and to assist the armored truck in backing into the City Hall. I informed Captain Talbert of these instructions.

"I then returned to near the jail office and stationed some of the detectives at the doors leading into the building proper, and noticed the Press Media was inside the jail office, but outside the admitting desk. I saw Assistant Chief Batchelor and Deputy Chief Stevenson and called Chief Batchelor's attention to the people in the jail office. I accompanied him inside and upon his instructions this area was cleared. Upon leaving the jail office we also had all persons except security personnel moved north of a line running east from the brick corner of the jail office to the railing on the opposite side and on a line

"from this point running east to the exit lanes for cars from the basement to the ramp itself.

"Deputy Chief Stevenson then approached and said there had been a change in plans and, as the truck could not get into the City Hall, they were going to use two cars. At this time two police cars were started and brought up onto the ramp. Several officers had to move to allow the cars to get onto the ramp. I had given instructions to all officers near the jail office and at the doors to allow no one in the area from the jail to the cars and on down the route the prisoner would take, and that the press would not be allowed to approach or even to attempt to converse with the prisoner, and that no one was to follow until after the cars left the basement.

"I was about midway between the corner of the jail office and the back of the car on the ramp, when someone shouted 'here he comes!'. I turned to walk to the car on the ramp to make sure the way was clear and that officers were stationed on each side of the cars and all the way down the east side of the ramp to the cars. I saw officers along the route and officers on each side of the ramp near the cars and at the top of the ramp. I also saw Chief Stevenson on the ramp, so I turned to watch the parking area in the basement of the City Hall, when I heard a shot. This was sometime shortly before noon, but I don't remember the exact time. I turned toward the sound of the shot which had come from my left and to my rear. I shouted to the officers to bar all exits and all ramps. I saw the officers closing the exits and went toward the scuffle where apparently officers had a man in custody. As I approached the center of the scuffle several voices said 'It was Jack Ruby'. I do not know who said this, but as the prisoner was on his feet by this time I could see he was Jack Ruby, whom I had known 10 or 12 years before as the owner of the Silver Spur, a nightclub on South Ervay. I told the officers to take him to the jail and then had other officers assist Lt. Swain in keeping the crowd in the designated area. I assisted in this measure until after the ambulance left with Oswald and I then returned to the third floor after instructing the officers on "the doors to let only persons with identification come to the third floor. After returning to the third floor, I assisted in the administration offices.

"I had not seen a man that I recognized as Jack Ruby in the City Hall during the period of the investigation, until after the shooting in the basement.

Subject: Shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Sir:

Approximately three to five minutes before the prisoner was brought out, I observed a Channel 5 Camera mounted on tripod rollers come through the doors in front of the jail office to the ramp. I observed three men pushing the camera, one on each side and one man crouched down in rear head down as if pushing the camera. As the camera came down the slope from entrance to ramp, I grabbed one of the tripods to steady the camera. As the camera men pushed the camera into the ramp they turned slightly to the right, one attendant stated 'We can't get out this way', they then pushed the camera into the crowd of newsmen on the East side of the ramp area and disappeared into the rear of the crowd. At this time I heard someone in the jail office door state, 'Here he comes'. As I looked towards the jail office door, I saw Lieutenant Swain come out. Approximately ten to fifteen feet behind Lieutenant Swain, Captain Fritz came out, only six to eight feet behind Captain Fritz, Detective J. R. Leavelle leading Ozwald (handcuffed) by the right arm. I could not identify the detective on Ozwald's right. As both Leavelle, Ozwald and unknown detective approached entrance to the basement ramp, I saw Jack Ruby lunge from the Northeast corner of the ramp area. I saw what looked like a blue steel snub nose revolver, almost simultaneously Ruby fired. Ozwald let out a long 'O-o-o-h'. Several officers including myself attempted to grab the suspect. The suspect was then wrestled to the floor by several officers.

I know Jack Ruby and had not seen him in the crowd or building until I saw him lunge and fire at Oswald.

"On November 24, 1963, the Solo Motorcycle Section detail, consisting of 10 officers, reported to Elm and Houston Streets at 8:30 A.M. By 9:00 A.M. this detail had been augmented by eleven Police Reserve officers. Supervisors present, were Captain P. M. Lawrence, Captain J. M. Solomon, Lieutenant W. F. Southard, Sergeant S. Q. Fellah and myself. Shortly before the prisoner was to be transferred, Sergeant D. F. Steele reported to the location.

"The west side of Houston was roped off between Elm and Main Streets. A large number of persons were congregated behind the ropes along Houston and on both sides of Elm Street between Houston and the Triple Underpass. I would estimate the total crowd to be between 500 and 600 persons.

"Two officers were assigned at Elm and Houston and two at Main and Houston. One officer was assigned at Elm and Record and one at Main and Record. Four patrolmen, seven Reserve officers and five supervisors, including myself, were stationed at intervals along the west side of Houston between Elm and Main. Four Reserve officers were assigned along Elm Street between Houston and the Triple Underpass. All officers were instructed to keep a close watch on the crowd and to be particularly alert for any signs of violence.

"When radio stations announced that the prisoner had been shot, most of the crowd dispersed and approximately one-half of the officers were reassigned to other locations.

Sir:

At approximately 11:00 A.M., Sunday, November 24, 1963, I arrived at Central Station. I was working "16", Acting Lieutenant), Northeast Substation. The Patrol Officers were leaving for their traffic assignments, and there was a large group of reporters standing in the hall leading to the Jail Office.

I did not have an assignment at the time of my arrival and when Lieutenant Pierce came down and got into his car I asked him if I could help. Lieutenant Pierce advised me to ride with him and Sergeant Putnam to escort the Armored Car which had been backed partially onto the south ramp.

Lieutenant Pierce drove the car, I was sitting in the back seat, on the left side and Sergeant Putnam, after moving the crowd of reporters out of our path, got into the front seat on the right side. We traveled up the north ramp and made a left turn onto Main Street. Officer R. E. Vaughn was standing on our right side at the top of the ramp as we went out onto Main Street.

I did not see Jack Ruby or anyone else go down the ramp as we drove out. I knw Jack Ruby by sight and I also did not see him in the basement while I was at that location.

We proceeded to the top of the south ramp via Main Street to Harwood Street to Commerce Street and took a position in front of the Armored Car.

Apparently the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald had just happened because I did not hear the shot and officers were rushing to cover the exits of the Police and Courts Bilding and the City Hall as we pulled into position.

"I stationed myself inside the building just West of the exit door from the jail office. I had been at this position approximately 3 minutes when a man asked if he could go to the window of the jail office to get someone out of jail. Sgt. He told me to station myself by the first window of the jail office and let people use this window to contact jail office personnel.

We stayed in the Captain's office until approximately 9:45 A.M. when Captain Talbert advised us to report to the basement. When we got to the basement, Captain Talbert gave me the keys to his car and told me to pull the car out of the parking space and put it in a position to drive out.

I stayed with the Captain's car until approximately 10:45 A.M. when Captain Talbert came and told me to park the car back in a parking space and take a position at the base of the ramp leading out to Commerce Street.

He ordered me to watch the armored car when it backed down the ramp and not let it hit the over head.

After the armored car arrived and backed into the Commerce entrance, Captain Talbert ordered me to take a post at the front of the ramp leading out to Commerce Street and not let anyone onto the ramp when they carried the prisoner to the armored car. Dallas Police Dept. 1183

"Officer D. E. Jez came up the ramp to Commerce Street Exit to assist me at approximately 9:45 A.M.. There were also about three or four reserve officers at my location. Officer Jez went across Commerce Street with several other officers to search a building, then returned to his assignment. Subject: Security Of Parking Area

Of Lee Harvey Oswald

Sir:

At approximately 9:00 A.M., Sunday, November 24, 1963, I was instructed by Captain Talbert to call enough squads to the City Hall to assist in the transfer of Lee Harvey Oswald. I called thirteen (13) squads to report to Station 511. This was a total of nineteen (19) men.

When the officers started arriving I instructed Sergeant P. T. Dean to report to the parking area and remove all unauthorized persons from this area and keep this area free from such persons until after the transfer had been made.

At approximately 9:40 A.M. I instructed four (4) officers to report to Sergeant Dean for the purpose of securing this area and instructed the remainder of the officers who had been called to the station to remain in the Sergeant's Room of the Patrol Office to be used as a pool as needed.

I later checked the parking area at approximately 10:15 A.M. and found it to be free of unauthorized personnel.

I then went to the Homicide Bureau for additional information. I remained at this location until the interrogation had been completed. At this time Chief Curry and Chief Stevenson instructed me to secure a car and some uniform officers and escort the armored trucks via Elm Street to the Court House.

I rode the elevator to the basement and got equipment number 205. The exit ramp was blocked leading to Commerce Street by one of the armored trucks and it was necessary for me to exit on Main Street. Sergeants P. J. Maxey and J. A. Putnam were in the car with me. Sergeant Putnam was seated on the right front and Sergeant Maxey on left rear.

Dl 44-1639/eah

"At this time a large number of members of the press were located at the bottom of the ramp. Sergeant Putnam got out of the car and assisted me while getting through the crowd. He then returned to the right front of the car.

"I continued up the ramp where I observed Officer R. E. Vaughn at the top of the ramp. He was standing just outside the ramp on my right.

"No one entered the basement by the north ramp while we were leaving.

"We made a left turn from the basement on Main Street and stopped for a short time for the red light on Main and Harwood, then continued to the top of the ramp on Commerce Street.

"By the time we were in position in front of the armored car the shooting must have already occurred as officers were running to cover all exits of the City Hall.

At approximately 9:25 A.M. on Sunday, November 24, 1963, while working Squad 53, with M. F. Farris #1852, we received a call on the Radio to contact Station 511 by telephone. M. F. Farris at this time made contact with Station 511 on the telephone and Squad 53 was advised to report to Station 511 on markout.

On arrival at Station 511 we were advised by other officers present to stand by at Station 511 until approximately 10 A.M. when we would be needed to transfer Lee H. Oswald to County Jail. At approximately 10:15 A.M. I was ordered to report to the basement of City Hall. On arrival I was instructed by Sergeant J. A. Putnam to back Squad Car #122 out of marked off basement parking area and line it up behind the station wagon at the north end of the basement, then stand by to drive squad car number 122 to the County in escort for the transfer of Lee Harvey Oswald.

I was then advised by Sergeant Putnam to back squad car #122 into the parking area again and get three other officers to accompany me to the car. They were M. F. Farris, D. K. Erwin, and W. E. Hibbs. After I did this, I was advised by Sergeant Putnam to start by the bottom of north ramp to City Hall Basement and check any vehicle that came down the ramp. No cars came down the ramp while I was standing at this position.

At approximately 10:55 A.M. I was taken off of this position by Sergeant Putnam and was assigned to the Elm Street and Pearl Expressway to work traffic. I was told Lee Harvey Oswald was to be transferred by armored car. At this time I heard sirens and a squad car came down Pearl Expressway, and turned west on Elm to Harwood, running Code Three. A short time later I stopped traffic at this intersection to let an ambulance and squad car proceed west on Elm Street; Code 3. At this time I checked by Radio to see if any other emergency vehicles were in this vicinity and to see if we would be needed elsewhere. I was advised to stand by my present position. At approximately 11:21 A.M. I heard what sounded to be a shot, I stayed by the post and allowed no one to enter or leave the basement area. After the shooting, about five (5) police reserves were sent to this ramp to assist with the crowd and traffic.

At approximately 12:45 P.M. a white male approached me at this entrance and stated that he was an employee of Jack Ruby and would like to talk to someone about this. I escorted

"this person to the basement of the City Hall after being relieved on my post by a police reserve and called Captain Fritz's Office and Detective Boyd came to the basement and took custody of this person.

"I contacted Lieutenant Pierce in the Patrol Office and he advised me to secure the post and return to service with the Dispatcher.

A. Jones.

"I stayed in this general area until Captain Jones arrived and gave instructions to about twenty-five detectives including myself. We were placed in two lines to give maximum security to the prisoner.

"A blue detective's car was backed into position which blocked my view when the deceased was brought from the hallway. I saw a sudden movement from the suspect and heard a gun blast. There were so many reporters that pushed their way forward that I was unable to get to the suspect. I jumped across the trunk of the car and grabbed the suspect, and there were two other officers attempting to wrestle the gun away from him. We all fell to the floor where the suspect was subdued and disarmed.

"Subject: Murder of Lee H. Oswald

"Sir:

"On Sunday, November 24, 1963, my tour of duty was from 6:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. My assignment was the Jail Office and the Jail. I had no instructions to provide security outside the Jail and Jail Office.

"I received a call, and I do not remember who called me, which told me they were bringing Oswald down from the third floor. I had hung up the phone when I noticed the elevator was enroute to the basement, and as the elevator opened at approximately 11:20 a.m., Captain Fritz and four detectives brought Lee H. Oswald from the jail elevator taking him into the basement to transfer him to the County.

"Captain Fritz asked if everything was in readiness, and I stepped outside the Jail Office into the hallway leading to the basement where I stopped. Captain Fritz came out of the Jail Office, followed by the detectives and Oswald.

"They had passed where I was standing approximately six or seven feet when I saw a man lunge toward Oswald and heard a shot. I saw several officers grab the man with the pistol and wrestle him to the floor. Immediately, they picked him up and brought him into the Jail Office and disarmed him. They then brought Oswald into the Jail Office and laid him on the floor. I called for a doctor and an ambulance, Code 3.

"As they were taking the man who did the shooting from the floor, I recognized him as Jack Ruby, who is a night club operator and well known in police circles. Ruby was placed on the Jail elevator and taken upstairs.

"The Jail intern came into the Jail Office and tried to give Oswald some attention, but the ambulance arrived, he was placed in it and taken to Parkland Hospital.

"I have known Ruby for several years. I have been in his business, The Silver Spur, 1717 S. Ervay, and The Vagas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn, both on and off duty. My visits to his places of business while on duty were for police business. My visits to his places of business while off duty were for personal recreation for my wife, myself and friends.

On November 24, 1963, VERNON O. GLOSSUP, Clerk, FBI, Dallas, Texas, and C. C. McCOY, Deputy Sheriff, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, Dallas, Texas, were given an opportunity to listen to the voices of JACK LEON RUBY and RUBY's roommate, GEORGE SENATOR. Both said neither the voice of RUBY nor that of SENATOR was close enough in timbre and pronunciation to lead them to believe either might possibly have been one of the two individuals who spoke on the telephone to the Dallas Office and to the Sheriff's Office with respect to the fact OSWALD would be killed.

SA KENNETH C. HOWE was present on all occasions when GLOSSUP and McCOY were given opportunities to listen to the voices of RUBY and SENATOR.

Mr. JELLY ISOM, Deputy District Clerk, who resides at 3917 Havick Lane, after viewing his files, made available copies of an Application for Change of Name in a case styled, "In the Matter of: JACK RUBENSTEIN, Ex Parte," No. 17944-C, filed in the 68th Judicial District Court of Dallas County, Texas, on December 30, 1947. This Application for Change of Name alleged that JACK RUBENSTEIN resided in Dallas County, Texas, and filed the Application for Change of Name in order that he might adopt another name instead. It was alleged that he desired to change his surname and add a middle initial and to adopt the name of JACK L. RUBY instead of JACK RUBENSTEIN. It was alleged that the cause which induced him to change his name was because he had gone by the name of JACK L. RUBY and was well known by that name. In addition, the application stated that RUBENSTEIN was not a name understood and is a long name.

RUBY, in this petition, alleged that it would be for his interest and benefit to change his name and to adopt the name of JACK L. RUBY.

Texas

On the 30th Day of December, 1947, Judge KRAMER, whose initials were illegible on the record, as Judge of the 101st District Court, sitting for the Judge for the 68th District Court, signed an order stating that the application of JACK RUBENSTEIN for change of name had been considered and, after considering the application and the testimony of the applicant, he ordered that the name JACK RUBENSTEIN be changed to JACK L. RUBY, and that the adopted name JACK L. RUBY was to be substituted for the original name of the applicant.

This order and the Application for Change of Name are filed in Book R, Page 249, 68th District Court Records, Dallas, Texas.

The following is information concerning JACK RUBY, also known as Jack Rubenstein:

It is common knowledge among Dallas law enforcement agencies that there are three burlesque houses located in downtown Dallas, however no information has been developed that they are frequented by any known criminal element. These are night clubs catering to tourists and persons attending conventions in Dallas and features "striptease" dancers along with exorbitant prices for food, beer, wine and setups. These are the Theater Lounge, 1326 Jackson Street, operated by BARNEY WEINSTEIN; ABE's Colony Club, 1322½ Commerce Street, operated by ABE WEINSTEIN; and the Carousel, 1312½ Commerce Street, operated by JACK RUBY.

JACK RUBY was known to be an associate of EILEEN CURRY, a known prostitute who resided at the Shadyside Apartments, 1020 Shadyside Lane on April 4, 1956. RUBY owned or operated the Silver Spur, South Ervay and the Vegas Club, night clubs in Dallas, Texas.

During the period September 25 through October 3, 1950 the telephone number HA 3654 was called by RALPH EUGENE YOUNG, who was residing at the Ambassador Hotel, Dallas, Texas, room 321. This telephone number is listed to the Silver Spur, 1770 South Ervay and billed to NORMA MILLER and JACK RUBY. Eugene Young

On July 9, 1959 Lt. JACK REVILL, Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised that on April 2, 1959 the Dallas Police Department received a letter from the Oklahoma City Police Department advising that SIDNEY SIEDBEND, a Dallas gambler, had been arrested and in his possession was a lrge number of telephone numbers, and among them was included the name and number of JACK RUBY, telephone LA 8-4243, operator of the Vegas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas.

On September 9, 1963 TESSIE ALINE AXENFIELD, Detroit, Michigan, advised that she and HELEN AGNEW had brought BETHEL CRAMER to Dallas from Bossier City, Louisiana, and had obtained a job for her as a stripper at JACK RUBY's Carousel Club. According to AXENFIELD, RUBY was to obtain identification for BETHEL reflecting her age as 21 whereas she was actually 17 at the time.

On September 25, 1961 GENE BOSTICK, Carousel Club, 1312 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised "BABS" AXENFIELD was residing with her and HARVEY BOSTICK, a bartender at the Carousel Club. She said BABS was presently employed by JACK RUBY at the Carousel as a waitress.

On November 13, 1962 Mrs. SUE BROWN, 5319 Phillips, Dallas, Texas, advised SA W. HARLAN BROWN that EVA GRANT operates the Vegas Club in Dallas. She said that she had received information from her sister that EVA GRANT was formerly connected with the Al Capone gang in Chicago, Illinois. A brother of EVA GRANT currently owns and operates the Carousel Night Club in Dallas and that EVA GRANT formerly operated the Singapore Night Club in Dallas. She advised that EVA GRANT had spent some time in Chicago, Illinois, where her family still resides and that she had also lived on the West Coast. She had been in Dallas for about two or three years and during the war years had become involved in the sale of illegal sugar stamps which lead to the conviction of a man named JONES, who was associated with her.

On August 11, 1953 SA RALPH J. MILES was in the office of VINCENT LEE, branch manager, American Guild of Variety Artists, 1918 Live Oak Street, Dallas, Texas, when an individual, later identified by Mr. LEE as JACK RUBY, operator of the Silver Spur, 1717 South Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, came blustering into LEE's office and demanded of LEE that LEE supply

RUBY with some girls to put on entertainment at his Silver Spur. LEE told RUBY that RUBY would have to put up a cash bond whereupon RUBY began to curse LEE claiming that he was short of money and that LEE did not make his competitors put up such a cash bond. LEE maintained that he still could not furnish girl entertainers to RUBY unless RUBY put up some cash at which time RUBY arose and in a threatening tone of voice asked LEE "do you want to know whether or not I am packing a gun and what are you trying to do, be a tough guy in Dallas, well I am just as tough as they come" or words to that effect. After RUBY stormed out of LEE's office cursing all the while LEE advised SA MILES that RUBY considered himself a very tough Dallas character and was an associate of JOE BONDS, operator of the Sky Club, who was also a tough character and who bore a grudge against LEE because he at one time attempted to collect a $700 bad check BONDS had given a girl entertainer at which time either BONDS or one of his henchmen had struck LEE across the forehead with his pistol. LEE continued that both RUBY and BONDS always carried concealed pistols and were in constant association with JAMES ROBERT TODD, better known as JACK TODD, FBI number 1805883, Dallas Police Department number 22255, a well known Dallas safecracker. LEE further informed that RUBY, BONDS and TODD, together with other hoodlums and safecrackers whose identities were unknown to LEE, usually hung around Sue's Used Car Lot, 3400 Live Oak, Dallas, Texas.

JACK RUBY was advised he did not have to make a statement; that he had a right to talk with a lawyer before making any statement, and that any statement he made could be used against him in a court of law.

RUBY stated he was born March 25, 1911, at Chicago, Illinois, and attended the second year of high school but did not complete that year of school. He presently resides at Apt. 207, 223 South Ewing, Dallas, Texas. He operates the Carousel Club at 1312½ Commerce, and the Vegas Club, 3508 Oak Lawn in Dallas, Texas. His name at birth was JACK RUBENSTEIN but he had his name legally changed to JACK RUBY at Dallas, Texas, in 1948 or 1949. He has also used the name JACK LEON RUBY.

RUBY related that he was born on the West Side area of Chicago and grew up at unrecalled addresses on Maxwell and Holstead Streets in Chicago. As soon as he was large enough, he started working around rodeos and sporting events, selling refreshments. He also sold banners at conventions, and scalped tickets for various sporting events. Sometime in about 1933 or 1934, he went to California where he sold tip sheets at the race tracks on the West Coast. He lived in San Francisco most of the time and also sold subscriptions to the Hearst newspapers. For a short time in 1936 he went into business with SAM GORDON who is now a restaurant owner in Sacramento, California. He and GORDON bought small turtles, painted their backs, and sold them at the fair in Pomona, California. In about 1937, he returned to Chicago, Illinois, and contacted a friend, LEON COOK, an attorney, who had organized a Scrap Iron and Junk Handlers Union, A. F. of L. RUBY became Secretary and Treasurer of this Local at Chicago in 1937 and worked at this job until either the last month of 1939 or January, 1940, when LEON COOK was killed during an argument at a union meeting. As he was an official of the union, he was held in jail overnight for questioning but was never charged with any crime in connection with the shooting of LEON COOK. A man named JIM MARTIN was the person who shot LEON COOK and MARTIN was convicted of this shooting. After the death of LEON COOK, RUBY quit his job with the Scrap Iron and Junk Handlers Union. Since he had no middle name, he has frequently since the death of his friend LEON COOK, used the name LEON as his middle name. Early in 1940, he traveled throughout the Northeastern part of the United States, particularly in Connecticut, New York, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire, placing punchboards at manufacturing plants throughout that area. The punchboards gave prizes of candy, with the big prize as a cedar chest. He did this until he was inducted into the U. S. Army Air Corps, in 1943 at Rockford, Illinois. His Serial Number was possibly 1,076,666 or 3,076,666. While in the service, he took basic training at Keesler Field, Biloxi, Mississippi, then went to aircraft mechanic school at Seymour Johnson Air Base at Goldsboro, North Carolina. After he finished this school, he was sent to school at Farmingdale, New York, at the factory where the P-47 airplanes were manufactured. Following this school, he went back to Goldsboro, North Carolina, for a short time. He was subsequently assigned to Hunter and Drew Air Fields at Savannah, Georgia; Blumenthal Field, Wilmington, North Carolina, and McDill Field, Tampa, Florida. He was honorably discharged from the service in 1946 as a private first class. He said no disciplinary action was taken against him while he was in the military service. He worked around Chicago helping his brother EARL in a mail order business until he moved to Dallas, Texas, in June, 1947. His sister, EVA GRANT, was living in Dallas. He and EVA opened a nightclub known as the Singapore Club at 1717 S. Ervay and he worked there.

Late in 1947, he returned to Chicago for a few weeks but his sister, EVA GRANT, called for him to come back to Dallas to help her so he returned. They changed the name of the Singapore Club to the Silver Spur and he resumed working there. He lived in a room at 1719½ S. Ervay while working at the Silver Spur. In 1952, he took over the Bob Wills Ranch House Club, located at Corinth and Industrial Streets, and operated both places for a short time, but soon went broke and lost both clubs. MARTY GIMPLE, who is now dead, and WILLIE EPSTEIN, who now lives in New York City and with his father operates a millinery manufacturing shop, assumed some of the debts and took over the Silver Spur. He went back to Chicago but did not like living there so after a month or two he decided to return to Dallas because he owed a lot of money to people in Dallas and was depressed about this and wanted to return to Dallas and make some money and pay off his debts.

After returning to Dallas, he took the Silver Spur Club back from GIMPLE and EPSTEIN as by that time they were happy to get rid of it. In about 1953, he was able to interest JOE BONDS and IRVING ALKANAN into taking over the Vegas Club with him. They operated that club for a while, but RUBY and ALKANAN had some disagreements over managing the club and had a fight. ALKANAN gave up his interest in the club and now lives somewhere in California. BONDS is now serving a sentence in the Texas Prison System at Huntsville, Texas, for sodomy and rape. Sometime in 1955, RUBY got rid of the Silver Spur Club and continued operating the Vegas Club. In 1956, he opened a club named Hernando's Hideaway on Greenville Avenue in Dallas but it was not successful and he lost it after about three months. In 1960, he took over the Carousel Club in Dallas. RALPH PAUL, owner of the Bull Pen Restaurant, has helped him financially for a number of years and his brother, EARL RUBY, has also helped him financially. They have an interest in the Carousel Club. Recently, he has been trying to sell an item known as a "twist board" which is manufactured by Plasti-Lite Products, Inc., owned by LLOYD ADAMS of Fort Worth, Texas. This item is an exercising device.

RUBY regards the following persons in Dallas as his closest friends: Stanley F. Kaufman Jr.

STANLEY KAUFMAN, Attorney;
Rabbi SILVERMAN of Congregation Shearith Israel;
GEORGE SENATOR who shares an apartment with him;
ANDREW ARMSTRONG, an employee at the Carousel Club;
GORDON McLENDON, owner of KLIF Radio, and DEWEY GROOM, Manager of the Longhorn Ranch Club at Corinth and Industrial Streets. Texas

RUBY said he does his banking at the Merchants State Bank in Dallas, Texas, where he usually does business with bank officer JACK ETHRIDGE. RUBY's home telephone number is WHitehall 1-3601; his phone number at the Carousel Club is RIverside 7-2362, and his phone number at the Vegas Club is LAkeside 8-4775.

RUBY listed his employees at the Carousel Club as:

1 Date 11/25/63

Mrs. EVA L. GRANT, 3929 Rawlins Street (Apartment X), Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at her apartment in the presence of Mrs. PAULINE HALL, a close personal friend of Mrs. GRANT. Mrs. GRANT advised that she is the sister of JACK LEON RUBY.

Mrs. GRANT advised that she has been very upset over the events which have occurred in Dallas, Texas, beginning Friday, November 22, 1963, with the assassination of President KENNEDY. She informed that on Tuesday morning, November 19, 1963, she and her brother saw a picture in the local Dallas paper concerning President KENNEDY and his young son at the President's desk. She said that JACK RUBY called the picture to her attention and in very glowing terms was very enthusiastic about the President. He told her, for example, that "That man doesn't act like a President. He acts just like a normal everyday man with a family." She stated that on November 22, 1963, a Friday morning, her telephone rang at her apartment, and it was her brother, JACK RUBY, calling. RUBY asked her if she saw the advertisement in the morning paper which was a full-page ad addressed to "Mr. Kennedy" by BERNARD WEISMANN. She said that JACK RUBY was very upset about this article and, undoubtedly it bothered him a great deal, not only on that day but for the next two or three days. He called WEISMANN an "SOB" and also said that the newspaper was completely wrong in accepting the ad. She advised that he told her he had called the "Times Herald" newspaper in Dallas, and they had advised him that they had turned down and refused to accept the same advertisement. He was very commending in his statement regarding that paper refusing the advertisement.

Mrs. GRANT stated that he was most upset that the ad was addressed to Mr. KENNEDY and thought it should have been addressed to the Honorable President if it had to be in the paper. She stated that he came to her apartment that day and had the ad from his own paper and took the ad from her paper. She said she understood both copies of this ad were found in RUBY's automobile after his arrest by the Dallas Police Officers. She stated that JACK RUBY told her that he had contacted the paper which ran the advertisement and asked them "Where in the hell do you get off

"taking an ad like that? Are you money hungry?" She said that RUBY felt it was a rotten thing for any person to question the way the President was running this country. She said that RUBY made a statement regarding the advertisement and regarding WEISMANN, whose name appeared at the bottom of the ad, that "If that guy is a Jew they ought to whack the hell out of him." By that, she advised since RUBY is a Jew he felt that this reflected against the Jewish race.

She advised that RUBY told her that he went to the Post Office in downtown Dallas and looked at the box, which box number appears in the advertisement. He told her that the box was full of mail. According to Mrs. GRANT, after he told her this, he made the statement, "I bet Weismann is a Communist", or words to that effect.

Mrs. GRANT advised that she personally "had a crush on President Kennedy". She stated that she and her brother both had a great admiration for President KENNEDY and felt he was a wonderful President. She said that JACK RUBY is not greatly interested in political affairs as a rule, but he would fuss at her if she did not pay her poll tax, since he felt it was a patriotic thing to do. She informed that early Thursday morning, November 21, 1963, JACK RUBY, as was his custom, placed advertisements in both Dallas papers concerning the entertainment to be offered at the Carousel and Vegas Night Clubs, Dallas, Texas, which clubs he has an interest in. She advised that after President KENNEDY was assassinated on November 22, 1963, he called the newspapers to change the advertisements to show that the clubs would be closed Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, November 22, 23, and 24, 1963. She said that DON SAFFERN (PH), a newspaper reporter for the Dallas "Times Herald", called him and wanted to know if he was sure he was not going to operate those clubs on any of those three days. He pointed out that some of the other clubs apparently were not going to be closed for even one night. When RUBY heard that the other clubs were not going to be closed, he became quite upset and asked DON how anyone with any kind of conscience could dance and have a good time after the President had been killed. He ended up by telling DON that he did not care what anyone else did, that he was going to close for those three days.

Mrs. GRANT displayed a page from the Dallas "Morning News", dated Saturday, November 23, 1963, in Section 1, Page 19, containing a one-column ad, approximately four inches in length, stating the Carousel Club on Main Street, Dallas, would be closed "Friday, Saturday, and Sunday".

Mrs. GRANT recalled that on the day of the President's assassination, November 22, 1963, JACK RUBY telephoned her at least eight times and made three personal visits to her apartment. She said that he was most upset over the assassination of the President and described OSWALD as a "creep" and said, "He has no class." She said that the phrase "He has no class" was a phrase which RUBY used to indicate his complete dislike for a person.

Mrs. GRANT informed that her father passed away several years ago. She said that on Friday when JACK RUBY was in her apartment they had discussed both the death of her father and the assassination of President KENNEDY. She advised both she and her brother, JACK, stated that they were more upset over the assassination of President KENNEDY than they were over the death of their own father. She pointed out that when their father died, JACK RUBY seemed well composed and displayed very little outward emotion. She said, however, that on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, following the President's assassination, he was terribly upset. She also pointed out that on Saturday morning, when JACK RUBY was at her apartment, he cried very noticeably about the President's assassination. She stated that he discussed sending flowers to the place near the spot where the President was assassinated, and she feels sure that he did have flowers delivered to that spot.

Mrs. GRANT informed that JACK RUBY was in her apartment on November 22, 1963, from approximately 5:30 PM until approximately 7:15 PM, and then he dressed and went to the synagogue for prayer.

She stated that on Saturday morning he told her that he "bummed around with" a person whose first name is LARRY, an employee of the Carousel Club, all night Friday night. On Saturday morning he and LARRY drove out to a point on the North Central Expressway in Dallas, Texas, where there is a large billboard sign to the effect "Impeach Earl Warren" or some similar phraseology. He advised that he had shown LARRY how to take the picture, and LARRY had taken the picture of this sign. In connection with this sign, she stated that it has been situated there for some period of time, and that it has constantly bothered and annoyed RUBY. She stated that he did not like the sign and on numerous occasions had mentioned the sign to her.

D.C.

Mrs. GRANT informed that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, RUBY called STANLEY KAUFMAN, a Dallas attorney, and discussed with KAUFMAN the sign and the advertisement in the newspaper, as well as the assassination of President KENNEDY by OSWALD. In the conversation with KAUFMAN, he told KAUFMAN that "I don't know why I want to connect that sign and the mail box with Oswald, but I do." Also in the course of conversation, he explained to KAUFMAN that he had taken a picture of the sign and had gone and physically observed the mail box which was listed in the advertisement mentioned above.

Mrs. GRANT related that after RUBY made the telephone call to Attorney STANLEY KAUFMAN, he left her apartment and did not return thereto until approximately 4:00 PM, Saturday, November 23, 1963. She advised he remained at her apartment from about 4:00 PM to around 8:00 PM, November 23, 1963, when he again left in his automobile. She advised she did not hear from RUBY again until approximately 10:20 PM, at which time she received a telephone call from RUBY, stating that among other things he was going to Radio Station KLIF in Dallas, Texas. She stated that from remarks made by RUBY during the 10:20 PM telephone conversation that she gained the impression RUBY had been at his residence, 223 S. Ewing (Apartment 207), Dallas, Texas, since a short time after leaving her place around 8:00 PM the same date.

At 11:30 PM, that same night, he called and told her he had been at Radio Station KLIF where he had talked with HENRY WADE, District Attorney, Dallas County, Texas, and RUSS KNIGHT, of Radio Station KLIF, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. GRANT stated that she next heard from her brother, JACK RUBY, about 12:40 AM, Sunday, November 24, 1963, at which time he called her by telephone. She said she gained the impression that he was at his residence. She volunteered this was the last time that she heard from her brother, JACK RUBY, prior to contacting him at the City Jail, Dallas, Sunday afternoon, November 24, 1963, following the shooting of OSWALD. On this last call, RUBY was worried about her, GRANT's, health and told her "to go to bed".

Mrs. GRANT stated that although her brother has used her address, 3929 Rawlins Street, Dallas, for mailing purposes, he has never lived there.

Mrs. GRANT said, to the best of her knowledge, JACK RUBY has never been a "joiner" of organizations and does not belong to any group or organization of any kind and has no particular political philosophy. She described him as an "American" and a great admirer of President KENNEDY. She further advised she has never seen or heard anything which might indicate her brother, JACK RUBY, is connected or affiliated in any way with any Communist or Cuban organization. She was very emphatic in stating that she and JACK RUBY are very strongly opposed to any Communist organization or any group which they felt might be backed by Communists.

Mrs. GRANT further stated that she has heard through a television or news media that an individual made a remark to the effect that OSWALD had been seen in the night club operated by JACK RUBY. She stated in most emphatic terms that she is absolutely positive that RUBY has never had any connection with OSWALD in any way. She admitted that she did not know every individual her brother knew, but she is still certain he did not know OSWALD.

Mrs. GRANT said she was permitted to visit her brother, JACK RUBY, at the City Jail, Dallas, Texas, on the afternoon of Sunday, November 24, 1963; however, she did not engage him in any conversation as to why he shot OSWALD, nor did RUBY volunteer any information to her in this regard.

Robert Ruby · Mrs. Earl Rubenstein

MRS. EARL R. (initial only) RUBY was interviewed at his residence, 29925 Woodland Drive, Southfield, Michigan.

He stated he arrived in Detroit, Michigan, by airlines from Chicago, Illinois, at 11:30 A.M. on November 25, 1963, where he was met by his wife, MARGE, and Chief of Police, MILTON G. SACKETT, Southfield, Michigan, Police Department.

He stated he had been in Chicago visiting some of his brothers and sisters after he learned that his brother, JACK RUBY, was being held by the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, for the slaying of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RUBY said that his father, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, died about five years ago in Chicago, Illinois. He said his father was a Russian immigrant to this country, arriving in the United States about 1900. He said his mother, FANNY, was a Polish immigrant who came to this country the same time as her husband. He stated the only surviving immediate members of his family are his brothers and sisters. He said all of his uncles and aunts on both sides of the family are now deceased. He said there are four brothers and four married sisters in his family and that they are all living. He listed the following brothers and sisters with background data for each:

JACK, a bachelor, was born approximately May 15, 1911, in Chicago. He was in World War II, exact dates unknown. Prior to World War II, he was employed by Spartan Novelty Company, Chicago, now defunct, dates unknown. EARL RUBY could not recall the places of JACK's employment prior to Spartan, but did remember he was employed in Chicago at various places as a salesman. After leaving the service in about 1946, he (JACK) was employed by Earl Products for approximately six months in 1946 and 1947. Earl Products was owned by EARL RUBY, and JACK and his brother, SAM, were given equal shares in this business. EARL and SAM RUBY decided that JACK was not giving his full share of time in the partnership, and also there was a personality conflict existing between SAM and JACK, therefore SAM and EARL bought out JACK's interest in this business. JACK then received an offer from his sister, Mrs. EVE GRANT, to help her operate a night club in Dallas, Texas. JACK departed for Dallas for this purpose, which was approximately seventeen years ago. JACK has been in the night club business ever since and has made infrequent visits to Chicago, visiting only for deaths, marriages, etc. JACK's closest associates in Chicago are: BENJAMIN KAYE, owner, Rogers Park Ford Agency, in the 6600 block of Northwestern Avenue, Chicago., a life-long friend and a former Chicago policeman; HARRY EPSTEIN, who resides in the north end of Chicago and believed to operate the Lakeview Sales, a firm selling business gifts; and MIKE NEMZIN, owner Weiners Department Store, West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, home address unknown. EARL RUBY advised NEMZIN recently had a serious operation on November 20, 1963.

In Dallas, JACK's close associates are: RALPH PAUL, residence and business address unknown, but he is in the restaurant business, and an individual whose first name is believed to be FRANK HOWARD, whose business and residence are unknown. He said that JACK's sister, Mrs. GRANT, would know the identity, residence and employment of PAUL and HOWARD.

JACK went to grammar school, name unrecalled but in the 1100 block of Mozart, Chicago, with one LENNY PATRICK. PATRICK is known by EARL RUBY from publicity to be an infamous hoodlum in Chicago. EARL said he has no knowledge of JACK's association with PATRICK except on one occasion, date unknown, when JACK mentioned he had gone to grammar school with PATRICK. PATRICK is not generally known to the RUBY family. EARL did recall that LENNY PATRICK was the black sheep of the family. He said that PATRICK's father was a Chicago Policeman. LENNY's brother, JACK, who is allegedly respectable, married a distant cousin (about four times removed) of the RUBY's. Her name is (first name unknown) WEINBERG. EARL had no additional knowedge of the WEINBERGs.

EARL stated he believed ART PETACQUE, a reporter for the "Chicago Sun Times," knew JACK, but he does not know under what circumstances. EARL advised he first met PETACQUE on November 24, 1963, when PETACQUE came to the HY RUBENSTEIN's (brother of the RUBYs) residence in Chicago seeking an interview with the RUBY family concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK. EARL said the family was keeping out all reporters, however, when PETACQUE mentioned he knew JACK personally and mentioned the names, BEN KAYE and IZZY HORWITZ, as mutual friends, he admitted PETACQUE and gave him a formal press interview. EARL said this is the only indication he had ever had that JACK knew PETACQUE.

Irwin Weiner
Irwin S. Weiner aka Struck

EARL said he did not know of any individual named IRVING WEINER, however, he knew an ERWIN WEINER, a bondsman and insurance salesman, with whom he, EARL, went to high school. EARL had no knowledge that WEINER knew his brother JACK but may have had a speaking acquaintance.

EARL advised that as far as he knew, JACK did not know GUS ALEX in any way. EARL said ALEX is evidently well known in Chicago from the newspapers, but he, EARL, does not know him and reiterated he has no knowledge that JACK knows him.

EARL stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD is absolutely unknown to him, even after viewing OSWALD's photograph appearing in the press and on television and felt certain that OSWALD is unknown to his entire family, including JACK. He stated OSWALD is "a complete stranger" to the entire RUBY family.

EARL said he had no knowledge as to why JACK shot OSWALD. He said JACK is and always has been very emotional. EARL said that he talked to his sister, EVE GRANT, by telephone on November 24, 1963, at which time she advised that JACK, after hearing of President KENNEDY's death, proceeded to the synagogue to pray for President KENNEDY. He said JACK cried afterwards ... and was very depressed about the assassination. EARL said JACK is definitely a patriot and would defend any President of the United States, Democrat or Republican, if challenged verbally, even to the extent of fighting. EARL said JACK hated anything un-American. He said JACK had never been convicted of any crime he knew of, although he was aware there had been several charges (exact details unknown) of fighting and possession of a concealed weapon. EARL said so far as he knew, the fighting charges were dismissed since these charges arose because JACK evicted unruly customers from his business establishments. EARL said the only time he knew JACK to carry a gun was when he was carrying large sums of money in connection with his business. The only knowledge EARL had of this was from observation during the times EARL spent in Dallas with JACK. EARL said he visited JACK in Dallas on two occasions for about ten and seven days, respectively, about four years ago. The caliber and make of the weapon was unknown to EARL.

EARL stated the only reason he can think of as to why JACK shot OSWALD is JACK's patriotism and his grief over the President's death. EARL advised he could not state why JACK had a gun in his possession on this occassion when as far as he knew, JACK carried a gun only when he had large sums of money in his possession. EARL could not make a determination whether or not this shooting might have been premeditated.

EARL did not know the identity of any officers of the Dallas Police Department with whom JACK was acquainted, although he knew JACK was on friendly terms with this Police Department. Hyman R Rubenstein Hymie Rubenstein

EARL identified the following individuals as his brothers and sisters, giving background information concerning each: Hy Rubenstein H.y Rubenstein

Mr. RUBY advised he had his name legally changed in Cook County Superior Court, Chicago, Illinois, in about 1946 or 1947. His legal name had previously been SAMUEL DAVID RUBENSTEIN.

He furnished the following information regarding his brother, JACK LEON RUBENSTEIN, also known as Jack Ruby:

JACK was born at Chicago, Illinois, on April 25, 1910. All of his brothers and sisters were also born in Chicago, Illinois. JACK, as well as other members of the family, were reared in Chicago and JACK attended public school until about the tenth grade. After he left high school, JACK employed himself as a ticket scalper at various sporting events in the city of Chicago. During his late teens or early 20's, JACK went to San Francisco, California, where he worked in the circulation department of a San Francisco newspaper where he managed a crew of people selling newspaper subscriptions. It is not known how long he was in San Francisco but apparently made one or two lasting friendships while there. One of these friendships was formed with a man by the name of SAM GORDON who worked with him and who is now believed to operate an export-import business between the United States, the Philippine Islands, and the Hawaiian Islands. GORDON was originally from Chicago.

While in San Francisco, JACK met and became friendly with a girl whose last name was FITZGERALD. Her father is believed to have been connected in some way with the motion picture business. There may still be an occasional contact or correspondence between JACK and this girl however nothing specific is known about such contacts.

After JACK's return to Chicago from San Francisco, he continued scalping tickets for sporting events. He then was hired as an organizer by one LEON COOK who had formed a union in Chicago known as the Scrap Iron Handlers Union or a similar name. LEON COOK's father or family owns the Cook Scrap Iron Yard located on Taylor or Fillmore Street in Chicago. Shortly after JACK went to work for COOK, COOK was shot to death by another union official. JACK was employed by COOK as a union organizer for less than one year. This was in the late 1930's.

In about 1943 JACK was in the U. S. Air Force and served until 1946. He was an airplane mechanic in the Air Force. Shortly after his discharge, JACK went into business with him, SAM, and their brothers, HYMAN and EARL, in Chicago, Illinois. This was a small manufacturing business known as the Advertising Specialties Company. JACK remained in the business for about one year and then sold out to the other brothers taking as his share all of the cash assets of the business which amounted to approximately $14,000. He then left Chicago and came to Dallas, Texas.

The first member of the family to have made her home in Dallas, Texas, was his sister EVA. She had come to Dallas, Texas, during World War II after obtaining a divorce from her husband. She was employed in Dallas as a factory representative for the Harvey Phillips Machine Shop. While in Dallas EVA opened the Singapore Supper Club at 1717 S. Ervay Street. Beginning in about 1946 or early 1947 she was having trouble with the club. JACK arrived from Chicago after selling out his interest in the Advertising Specialties Company. He invested money in the club and later changed the name from the Singapore Supper Club to the Silver Spur. It is believed that for a short time one MARTIN GIMPLE (now deceased), a lifelong friend of JACK, was a partner with him in the Silver Spur. In about 1949, EVA dissolved her interest in the Silver Spur due to differences of opinion she had with JACK with regard to the operation of the club. EVA then left Dallas and went to Chicago where she remained for about one year. After that she traveled to Los Angeles, California, and spent quite some time traveling from Los Angeles to Chicago and Dallas, Texas.

In about 1955 JACK sold the Silver Spur to one ROCKY ROBINSON who had previously operated a similar business in Dallas County. ROBINSON was not able to obtain a license in the city of Dallas, Texas, and the Silver Spur was closed. During the time he owned the Silver Spur, JACK also owned two other clubs, one known as Hernando's Hideaway, and the other was the Club Vegas. One JOE BONDS was a partner with him in the Club Vegas and it is believed he also had a third partner whose name is not known.

In about 1960 or early 1961 JACK acquired ownership of the Sovereign Club which club catered to professional people, particularly doctors. This club was not making money as a private club and he therefore converted it to a public club some time during the Christmas season in 1961. This club is now called the Carousel Club and is still operated by JACK RUBENSTEIN.

With regard to JACK's methods of earning a living during his lifetime, Mr. RUBY characterized him as being independent, aggressive, and a "scrapper." JACK has always been reluctant to work for anyone else and is a promoter. He said that in recent years JACK has been interested in promoting various business enterprises other than the nightclub business. These include the promotion of Min-Iron, a dietary iron supplement. This activity took place in about 1955 in association with one JOHN JACKSON of Jackson, Mississippi.

He was also associated with MARTIN GIMPLE (now deceased) in promoting prefabricated log cabins. This was several years ago and they built a demonstration model at Grapevine Lake, north of Dallas, Texas.

Ned Weisbrod

He said JACK is presently interested in promoting a twist board which is being developed by a plastics manufacturer in Fort Worth, Texas.

Norman N. Weisbrod

JACK has been friendly for some time with one ADRIAN HIGH who is from somewhere in Oklahoma and who sells oil field equipment. He is also friendly with one NED WEISBROAD and one SAM LASSER. WEISBROAD and LASSER are partners in the wholesale distribution of sunglasses in Dallas. He believes JACK became acquainted with HIGH, WEISBROAD, and LASSER through their patronage of the Silver Spur Club which was operated by JACK.

JACK is also friendly with one RALPH PAUL who owns a drive-in restaurant in Arlington, Texas (possibly called the Bull Pit). JACK has known PAUL for several years. PAUL formerly owned a bar or club in Dallas (possibly known as the Bluebonnet Lounge).

JACK is reported to cultivate the friendship of professional men, particularly doctors, and to be widely acquainted among medical doctors in Dallas.

JACK's hobby is weight lifting and he is athletically inclined. He is a strong believer in physical fitness.

With regard to JACK's personality, Mr. RUBY advised that although he is not a vindictive man he seems to frequently get into fights and appears to enjoy an opportunity for physical combat. He said this may stem from the fact that the nightclub business presents many opportunities for fighting because of the number of drunks that frequent such places. He said JACK is an open-minded generous person when he has the desire to be so however he is rather irresponsible in the use of other people's money. He said that on one occasion in about 1955 JACK borrowed $5,500 from him and in about 1956 he had to sue JACK for the return of this money. On that occasion in the Dallas courts, JACK was represented by an attorney, HENRY KLEPAK. Texas

During the time this litigation was taking place, he, RUBY, visited with another attorney who had previously represented JACK in a court action. This attorney told him that at one time a few years previously JACK had come to his office when he was having trouble in his nightclub business. As he recalls, this trouble consisted of difficulties with a partner. On that occasion, JACK threatened to jump out the window of the lawyer's office.

During the time JACK has operated nightclubs in Dallas, Texas, he has become acquainted with many officers of the Dallas Police Department and it is believed he is very friendly with them and is liked by most of the officers who come into contact with him. From time to time he has employed off-duty officers in his club. One of these was WALLACE RASCH and RASCH's wife, JEAN. They worked in the Club Vegas in 1955 during RASCH's off-duty hours. At the Silver Spur Club JACK often employed off-duty police officers as special police to keep order at the club. Dall Tex. Rasch mr & mrs Wallace Rasch Jean Rasch

About two years ago, JACK had a man working as manager of the Carousel Club for about one year. This man's name was LEO, last name unknown. JACK fired this man because he said he was stealing from him. LEO was described as being a white male, of small stature, dark hair, and a swarthy complexion. He was supposed to have had a wife and five children.

Alice Rene Nichols Neel Small

JACK RUBENSTEIN has never married. He appears to be very fond of women and there has been only one woman who has retained his affection for any great length of time. This woman is ALICE NICHOLS, 8707 Redondo, Dallas, Texas, telephone DAvis 1-3687, who is employed as a private secretary for an executive of the Southland Life Insurance Company, Dallas. JACK kept company with ALICE NICHOLS for approximately ten years ending about two years ago.

Mrs. George Kermit Nichols

JACK has no excesses such as heavy drinking, heavy smoking, or other bad habits with the possible exception of woman chasing. He is not a joiner and does not readily make lasting friendships. He is a religious man and attends the Temple Shearith Israel located at the corner of Walnut Hill and Douglas Streets in Dallas. The Rabbi at that Temple is named SILVERMAN.

Mr. RUBY advised he knows nothing about JACK's political persuasions and has never heard him express any particular like or dislike of any political figure, party, or philosophy.

Mr. RUBY advised he and his family see JACK only occasionally averaging about two or three times a year particularly during the Jewish religious holidays. He also comes on occasion to see their children. He advised the family was last visited by JACK during the last week of October, 1963.

He advised that he knows of no acquaintanceship between JACK and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He expressed the opinion that if JACK shot OSWALD it was on impulse because he could think of no reason or motivation for such an action.

SAMUEL DAVID RUBY, 11516 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas, advised he has no interest, financial or administrative, in the S & R Corporation. He further advised he has no interest, financial or administrative, in the Carousel Club or the Club Vegas in Dallas, Texas, which clubs are operated by his brother, JACK RUBY. He further advised that he is not aware that his name has ever appeared on any document as an officer in the S & R Corporation or in any way in the operation of the Carousel Club or the Club Vegas.

He advised that JACK RUBY, sometime within the past few months, intended to "give him a piece of the Vegas Club" as a result of JACK RUBY having an argument with his sister, EVA RUBY, who had been managing the Club Vegas. He said, however, that JACK RUBY has never actually turned over any of the ownership of the Club Vegas to him.

He said that JACK RUBY still owes him a balance of about $1,300 on a $5,500 loan which he made to JACK in about 1955. He said the last payment JACK made on this loan was in about 1958, when their father, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, died in Chicago, and JACK RUBY paid his, SAM's, airplane fare from Dallas to Chicago to attend their father's funeral. He further advised that sometime during the fall or early winter of 1960 his sister, MARION CARPOLL, visited in Dallas and, while here, loaned JACK RUBY a fairly large sum of money. He said she later regretted making this loan and his brother, EARL, came to Dallas sometime in the Spring of 1961 for the purpose of recovering the amount of this loan for MARION. He said he does not know if EARL was successful in this attempt or if EARL paid MARION the amount of the loan and thereby became a creditor of JACK RUBY.

He said he does not know whether or not EARL RUBY has a financial interest in the Carousel Club or the Club Vegas at Dallas, but if he does have, this interest may have arisen out of the above-mentioned loan.

He concluded by stating that he has no knowledge of the financial or corporate structure of the S & R Corporation or of the Carousel Club or Club Vegas in Dallas, Texas.

PHYLLIS (Mrs. SAMUEL DAVID) RUBY, 11616 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas, telephone EM. 85083, telephonically furnished the following information: Phyllis Ruby

She does not believe that her husband, SAM, now has or has ever had any connection with, or financial interest in, the Carousel Club or the Club Vegas in Dallas, which clubs are operated by JACK RUBY. 111, 116 Rochelle, Dallas, Texas

She advised that she was not aware that her husband's name has ever appeared on any document as an officer of any corporation in which JACK RUBY or RALPH PAUL has an interest.

Sometime during the Christmas Season in 1960, her sister-in-law, MARION CARROLL, came to Dallas from Chicago, Illinois, for a visit. While in Dallas, JACK RUBY contacted MARION and obtained a loan from her amounting to several thousand dollars. She does not know the exact amount of this loan. She advised that MARION later regretted loaning JACK this money and, in the early Spring of 1961, her brother, EARL RUBY, also known as EARL RUBENSTEIN, came to Dallas for the purpose of arranging for the return of this money from JACK RUBY to MARION CARROLL. She stated she does not know if EARL was successful in this endeavor, but believes that EARL may have reimbursed MARION for the money and thereby became a creditor of JACK RUBY. She said she does not know whether or not EARL took a note from JACK RUBY reflecting this debt and does not know whether or not EARL RUBY has a claim or financial interest in the S & R Corporation or the Carousel or Vegas Clubs, as a result of this debt by JACK RUBY.

She said that she does not believe that her husband, SAM, has ever had an interest in the S & R Corporation or the night clubs operated by JACK RUBY in Dallas. She said JACK RUBY does owe her husband money, but they have received no payment on this debt for several years.

This resulted in JACK having a metal plate inserted in his skull.

She pointed out that this did not prevent JACK RUBY from entering the military service.

She advised she has no knowledge of any mental illness in the RUBY family. She said JACK's mother died from diabetic shock. She was told this by the family doctor, HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, a cousin of JACK.

HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, 1044 West Loyola Avenue, advised he was born December 28, 1901, in Warsaw, Poland, and he is the brother of JACK RUBY, who resides in Dallas. Texas, and who has been arrested for the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RUBENSTEIN stated he is a salesman for the Victory Products Company, operating out of his house, and travels throughout the Midwest approximately 240 days out of the year.

RUBENSTEIN advised he was greatly shocked to hear his brother was arrested in Dallas for shooting OSWALD and he personally is very much upset.

He stated he talked to JACK RUBY by phone on the night of November 22, 1963, at which time JACK was very shocked and disturbed over the President's assassination. JACK RUBY told him this would be a good time to "close up the joint and come back to Chicago." RUBENSTEIN said JACK indicated he was very disgusted and sick because of the events that took place in Dallas that day, which probably caused him to make that statement. RUBENSTEIN stated that JACK made no remark on the phone that he intended to take any action against LEE OSWALD nor did he indicate he was in any way acquainted with OSWALD.

By way of background, JACK RUBY worked for a junk collector's union in Chicago during the 1930's. The reason for quitting is unknown. He then had jobs as a salesman for several companies, believed to be Stanley Oliver Company and Sparten Company, now defunct. This was about 1938-41. JACK then served in the United States Army until about 1946 when he returned to Chicago.

During 1946, he went to Dallas, Texas, at the request of their sister, EVA GRANT, to help in the operation of a night club known as the Silver Spur. He has resided in Dallas since that time to his knowledge. He last saw JACK four or five years ago in Chicago and they discussed only business.

He said that to his knowledge JACK has not ever affiliated himself with any political party. He has heard from other relatives that JACK was very well acquainted with many Dallas policemen and many apparently visit and eat at his clubs. He would describe him as a generous, good-natured, very patriotic person, although highly emotional. He does not know of any police arrests of JACK and never know him to associate with hoodlums.

RUBENSTEIN advised personally he had never heard of GEORGE SENATOR, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, or "The Fair Play for Cuba Committee" until reading of them in the newspapers.

He feels that if his brother shot OSWALD, he did it simply through pent up emotions or he may have been a friend of the slain police officer.

RUBENSTEIN appeared to be in a highly emotional condition and stated he could not be more specific regarding the background of RUBY. He declined to furnish any additional information at this time.

Mr. HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, 1044 West Loyola Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised that he had discussed the agents' interview with his sisters and his brother, EARL RUBY, on the afternoon of November 27, 1963. He stated that to the best of his knowledge and belief, his brother and sisters were correct in their summary of the family's residence and of his brother, JACK's, adolescent period.

He advised that he had read that his brother, JACK, had been a waiter at some tavern or night club in Chicago and stated that he did not recall any such employment. He stated that his brother had sold pennants and souvenirs at Chicago sporting events but to his knowledge was not a waiter in any tavern. He stated that he could never recall his brother being connected in any way with a night club, tavern or restaurant in the Chicago area and that he was completely knew in this business when he moved to the Dallas, Texas area.

He stated that he thought it should be brought to the attention of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he had communicated with his brother's attorney in Dallas and that at the exact time of the shooting of the President of the United States, his brother, JACK, had been in the office of a newspaper, the name of which he could not recall, "raising hell" with them about a full page add which had appeared that day in a Dallas newspaper, criticizing the President of the United States. Accordingly, HYMAN RUBENSTEIN, JACK RUBY, his brother, had said "do you people need money so bad you have to accept advertisements like this. Other Dallas newspapers refused it". He stated that this information is all in the hands of his sister, EVE, in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. RUBENSTEIN stated that this had been a very trying time for him, with the continual questioning by newspapers, radio, television, and law enforcement agencies. He stated that he had tremendous admiration for the Federal Bureau of Investigation and would cooperate at any time, but he hoped that he and his sisters, his brother, and their families, could have a quiet Thanksgiving without being contacted about this unfortunate experience.

Mrs. MARIAN CARROLL, and Mrs. ANN VOLPERT, were interviewed at their home, 1044 West Loyola Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Both women expressed a desire to be interviewed together and would not submit to interview separately.

Both advised they have regained some of their composure and are able to furnish more details concerning the background of their family as well as the background of their brother, JACK RUBY. They stated they are still in seclusion and otherwise are admitting no visitors.

They stated that JACK RUBY was born April 25, 1911 in Chicago, and at thattime, the family resided near 14 and Newberry Streets where they lived for about one year, following which they moved to about 15 and Halsted Streets which they described as a Jewish Immigrant neighborhood. After residing there for sometime, they moved to Miller Street between 12th and 14th Streets. Following that, they lived at either 1232 or 1240 West Morgan Street across from the Holy Family School. They then moved to about 1109 Marshfield Street and after residing there for a short time, they moved to approximately 1120 Sacramento Boulevard where they lived for about two years. The family then moved to 1551 Clifton Park where they lived for a short time and then moved to 729 Kostner. Following this, they moved to 722 Independence Boulevard where they stayed for one and one half years and then moved to 624 Independence Boulevard where they resided from 1933 to 1941. In 1941, they moved to 3650 West Lexington where they lived until 1958. They then moved to their present address.

They said their brother, JACK, attended Smith Grammar School and started at Marshall High School where he dropped out after two years.

To the best of their recollection, JACK entered the United States Air Force in about 1942 or possibly 1943. He was released in 1946.

Pertaining to their mother, FANNIE, they advised she died in 1942 at the age of 68. They stated that in about on 11/27/63 at Chicago, Illinois File # 44-1639

by Special Agents RICHARD B. LEE, GEORGE H. PARFET and MAURICE J. WHITE/ss Date dictated 11/28/63

1938, their mother was a patient in the Elgin State Hospital at Elgin, Illinois where she was being treated for a nervous disorder which they believed to have been brought on by a Thyroid-Goiter condition which was aggravated by Menopause. They advised that this hospitalization was for a duration of approximately two months after which their mother returned to their home. They also commented that her mental condition was possibly further aggravated by the death of her last born son at the age of approximately two and one half years. This child, while sitting in a high chair, pulled a vat of boiling chicken soup onto himself and subsequently died from the burns. They stated that they knew of no other mental disorder of their mother. They both stated that they knew of no other nervous disorders suffered by any of the children. They advised she was not a diabetic.

Pertaining to their father, they advised that he had been a carpenter and followed this craft throughout his entire life until he died in 1958 at the age of 89 years.

Pertaining to any injuries of their brother, JACK, they stated they knew of no serious illnesses, either physical or mental, suffered by him. They stated that he had not been wounded during his military service, and that to the best of their knowledge, he spent most of his military career at Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, Mississippi. They advised that they did not believe that JACK had any type of a plate in his head and commented that inasmuch as he was nearly bald, they are sure they would have seen such a scar.

In regard to their brother, JACK's methods of making a livelihood, they recall that from the time he left high school until the time he entered the military service, he could be classified mainly as a peddler or salesman. He was always making or selling some new project in the novelty line, sold pennants at the ball games and scalped tickets. He sold miniature cedar chests and even after the war and while engaged in the night club business in Dallas, he always was interested in promoting new lines of this type. Mrs. CARROLL interjected that the days before the war were depression years and at one time prior to the war, JACK obtained a job selling magazines and journeyed to San Francisco with the crew where he stayed for only a short time.

Following his military service, JACK joined his brothers, HYMAN and EARL in the operation of the Earl Novelty Company, however, they had a falling out over the operation of this company as JACK, at times, would buy what they called queer merchandise for which there was no market and which would require an extensive outlay for manufacture. They then recalled that it was at approximately this time that JACK decided to move to Dallas, Texas to assist his sister, EVA, in the operation of the Silver Spur Night Club. Mrs. CARROLL stated that in this venture, she invested $1,000, but had never received any dividends in return for this investment. She commented though that JACK had always sent money to assist in the maintenance of their father until the time of his death in 1958.

Both women advised that they had been reading articles in the Chicago papers linking their brother, JACK, with nightclubs and hoodlums in the Chicago area prior to his going to Dallas, Texas. Both women emphatically stated that to their knowledge he was never affiliated with, operated, or owned or managed any nightclubs or taverns in the Chicago area. Furthermore, he never knowingly associated with any known hoodlums unless per chance they may have grown up with him in the neighborhood. Specifically, Mrs. CARROLL stated she has heard the name LEONARD PATRICK, who is considered to be a Chicago area hoodlum, and stated perhaps he grew up in the area with JACK but is quite sure they would have no more than a speaking acquaintance. Regarding other associations, and activities, they advised that in about 1939, he became acquainted with Mr. LEON COOK, an attorney who was the son of a junk dealer and organized a junk handlers union. They recalled that COOK felt that the junk handlers were not making enough money and JACK was hired by COOK to help organize the union. COOK was murdered in Chicago, according to the women, by a hoodlum named MARTIN and in this case Mrs. CARROLL stated possibly JACK was questioned by the police, but he most certainly was not arrested, nor detained in any manner in the case. They also pointed out that their brother JACK's association with this union did not exceed a period of two months.

They commented that during the period when he attended Marshall High School, he became known as Sparky because of his youthful appearance and energetic attitude.

Also, during the period before the war, they recalled that he had gotten into a fight with a group of Nazi sympathizers in the area of White City, a Chicago neighborhood. They stated JACK should not be considered a street brawler, however, he did not hesitate to take someone's part in a fight if he felt the individual was unjustly wronged. They also stated their brother, JACK, always had a strong feeling of affection and admiration for people in the public eye. They commented that he had had busts of ROOSEVELT and MAC ARTHUR made which he kept in his room, and they classified him "as a Patriotic kid".

Pertaining to his move to Dallas, they advised that the club he joined his sister in operating, was the Silver Spur and this was a "set up" Club, where dancing was promoted. Since that time he has branched out into other clubs and in fact he had the first key club in Dallas. The Key Club was frequented by many doctors, lawyers and was the favorite of many politicians. They stated that in this regard their brother, JACK, had recently staged a stag party for the benefit of the Texas Bar Association. They reiterated that their brother, JACK, was a very popular and well known figure among police officials in the city of Dallas, Texas.

As pointed out above, both women requested to be interviewed together and during the course of the interview corrected each other as to the times, dates, and events that took place in their collective lives, and therefore all statements set forth above, can be credited to each. It is noted MARIAN CARROLL at times would break into tears in discussing this situation in Dallas. Both stated they were great admirers of President KENNEDY and feel greatly for his widow and children. Once again they stated that they can offer no plausible reason why their brother shot LEE OSWALD, other than that he was a great admirer of the President and is an emotional man.

Both women commented that they feel their family are very patriotic Americans and are exceedingly happy that their parents had been admitted to this country from Poland, they have felt remorse for relatives that they know stayed behind in the Old Country, whom they have never heard from and assume were murdered by the Nazis.

Mrs. MARIAN CARROLL, 1044 West Loyola Street, sister of JACK RUBY, advised she was born June 30, 1906, at Chicago, Illinois, and has been employed by the United States Treasury, Savings Bond Division, Chicago, for 22 years. Her husband, NATHAN CARROLL, from whom she is separated, is a part time bartender, whose present whereabouts are unknown to her.

1044 W. Loyola St. Chicago, Ill.

She stated she last saw JACK RUBY last summer at the airport, Chicago, for a few hours, when he was returning to Dallas from a business trip to New York, where he was allegedly contacting actors' agents for entertainment for his night club. She saw him about two years ago in Dallas when she stayed there overnight with her brother, SAM RUBY. She visited the Carousel night club that night. She stated that JACK RUBY telephones their home almost every week to inquire about members of the family. He phoned on November 22, 1963, and spoke to her and her brother, HYMAN. He told her he was very upset about the President's assassination, stating that the President was a wonderful man who was doing so much good for everybody. He said he was going to close his place of business out of respect for the President and that he was going to a memorial service to pray for him. She said he did not mention LEE OSWALD and did not indicate that he intended to take any action against him.

She said she had never heard of OSWALD or the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" until the recent newspaper publicity and knew of no connection between her brother JACK and this organization. She said she knew JACK as an extremely patriotic man.

She said that prior to the time JACK entered the U. S. Army, he was a salesman of novelties in the Chicago area for the Earl Products Company owned by his brother EARL. She knew of no trouble which he had ever been in, nor did she ever know him to have any hoodlum associates.

Mrs. CARROLL appeared to be in a highly emotional condition and stated she could not be specific regarding the background of RUBY. She declined to furnish any additional information at this time.

Her husband has been deceased for 2½ years. Mrs. Ralph Volpert Anna Volpert Chicago, Ill. She said she had never visited JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, and the last time she saw him was last summer at the Chicago airport while he was passing through Chicago, going from New York to Dallas. Mrs. HAROLD KAMINSKY, also known as EILEEN KAMINSKY, nee RUBENSTEIN, 6724 North Talman, stated that on November 22, 1963, sometime between 1 and 3 p.m., her brother, JACK RUBY, called her from Dallas, Texas. He was emotionally upset and crying about the assassination of the President. He asked if she had heard the news and how the people in Chicago were taking it. He sounded completely unnerved about the incident and commented he was going to close his business that night. He made no threats against anyone. He thought very highly of the President. He is not known to have been active in politics. During the conversation which lasted about five minutes, she told RUBY to be at the home of their sister, EVA GRANT, about 9 p.m. and she would call. She called her sister later that night, but JACK had gone to the synagogue. B.M.F. 1916

Mrs. Harold Kaminsky Eilene Kaminsky

Mrs. KAMINSKY said JACK had resided in Dallas, Texas (Oak Cliff) for the last 17 or 18 years. He was in Chicago for short periods during the illness and decease of their father about five years ago. He also attended her wedding in 1947.

Ilene Kaminsky Eileen Kaminsky Ilene Kaminsky

According to Mrs. KAMINSKY, she visited JACK, her sister EVA GRANT, and brother SAMUEL RUBY in Dallas, Texas, during the last two weeks of August, 1963. She traveled round trip by Santa Fe railroad and stayed with her sister, EVA GRANT, while there. She left Chicago on about August 19, 1963, and returned to Chicago, September 1, 1963. While in Dallas, she heard JACK make no radical statements against anyone or any group. He mentioned on several occasions that one RALPH PAUL, a Dallas businessman, was a friend of his. Mrs. KAMINSKY said PAUL was not otherwise identified and that she never met him. JACK seemed to be friendly with and well known to Dallas police officers. While on an automobile ride, a number of policemen waved to him or would yell "Hi, JACK."

Eileen Kaminsky

Approximately a week before Mrs. KAMINSKY went to Dallas in August, 1963, JACK stopped through Chicago for an hour or so stopover between New York and Dallas. He had been in New York on business to obtain "talent." He was traveling via American Airlines and was visited for a short time at O'Hare Field, Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. KAMINSKY characterized her brother, JACK RUBY, as a patriotic American. To the best of her knowledge, JACK has not been a member of, or has never been associated with, any subversive group or the "Fair Play for Cuba Committee." He has never been known to have been arrested or to have associated with hoodlums. JACK RUBY has never mentioned LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she never heard the name until November 22, 1963.

Mrs. KAMINSKY said she had no knowledge why JACK would shoot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said it was not like him to do something like that. She suggested that he might have been so emotionally upset and disturbed that he suffered "temporary insanity." She said JACK never referred to possessing a firearm and she never saw a firearm in his possession when in Dallas.

Mrs. KAMINSKY said JACK assumed the surname "RUBY" in the late '40's or early '50's for business reasons. His true surname is RUBENSTEIN. He had a friend named LEON, full name unknown, who died. Out of respect and remembrance of him, he uses "LEON" as a middle name. JACK was born in Chicago, Illinois, and is 52 years of age. He is single and a "confirmed bachelor."

Mrs. KAMINSKY appeared in a highly emotional condition and stated she could not be more specific regarding the background of RUBY. She declined to furnish any additional information at this time.

Dr. JACOBSON stated that RUBY told him a number of years ago that he had a "metal plate" in his head but JACOBSON stated he knew none of the details concerning this and was only reminded of this after reading the reports of RUBY's background in the local newspapers.

Dr. JACOBSON stated that a number of years ago he learned RUBY was single, after which he occasionally invited RUBY to his home during holidays to visit. He stated RUBY appeared to be a very pleasant and congenial individual and insofar as he knew, honorable. Dr. JACOBSON stated he never noted anything impulsive about RUBY's personality and considered him very sentimental and sensitive, particularly concerning animals, as RUBY kept a number of dogs, which he seemed to love dearly. Dr. JACOBSON stated RUBY seemed to adore children and enjoyed associating with them very much.

Dr. JACOBSON stated that he knew of nothing "shady" about the endeavors of RUBY. He further stated that he had been in the night club operated by RUBY not more than an average of once a year, and the close acquaintances and associates of RUBY were unknown to Dr. JACOBSON. EARL RUBY, 29925 Woodlawn Drive, advised he has returned to Chicago to be with his brothers and sisters over the Thanksgiving Holiday. He is presently at the family residence at 1044 Loyola Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, where he intends to remain until Sunday, December 1, 1963.

He advised that he had been interviewed by Detroit Agents on November 26, 1963, and had advised them to the best of his knowledge of brother, JACK RUBY'S, background, places of residence and occupation at Chicago, from the time of his birth until he left for Dallas in about 1947.

He stated that he had discussed with his sisters, MARION and ANN, the subjects covered at their interview with FBI Agents on the afternoon of November 27, 1963, and felt that they were substantially correct in all places of residence and occupations engaged in by their brother JACK.

Regarding an allegation that JACK possibly had a metal plate in his head from some unknown injury, he stated that this was absolutely untrue and that JACK enjoyed good health to the best of his knowledge and belief.

He stated that his mother at one time was a patient at the Elgin State Hospital, Elgin, Illinois, where she was being treated for a mental disorder. He stated that he was reluctant to talk about this, but that this mental condition was brought on by the menopause, a thyroid condition and was possibly the result of her brooding over the death of her last born child, which occurred several years prior to her hospitalization. He stated her stay in Elgin Hospital was short, and that she returned home to the family and lived from about 1938 until her death in about 1942, when she died from a thrombosis coronary condition.

He stated that he, himself, had been a patient in the Veterans Hospital in Chicago, Illinois, located on the near north side of the lake, about three years ago, which would be about 1960. He said this hospitalization was the result of his mental depression about the failure of his business and general financial decline. "run away from things": He said that he was a patient at this hospital for approximately four weeks. At this time he advised that even though he had been a patient, he had never heard or considered that his brother JACK was in any way subject to mental illness or depression. Speaking of JACK, he stated that he had the usual childhood diseases, but suffered no serious illnesses or injuries. He reiterated that his brother, JACK, had never been connected in any way with a tavern or night club in the Chicago area, and that his only connection in this field had come about following JACK'S move to Dallas, Texas. He said that he, himself, had at one time been engaged in the tavern business for about two months in about 1950, when he took over a small neighborhood tavern at Madison and California in Chicago, Illinois. He said that he took this business over from an individual named BERNIE FELD, whose present whereabouts are completely unknown to him. He said he closed this business after "a couple of months", as he could not "make a go of it". Records of Elgin State and Veterans Hospitals will be checked.

Mr. EARL RUBY was specifically asked regarding his residence in New Haven, Connecticut in 1940. He stated that he had never been in New Haven, Connecticut in his life, and that at about that period he was engaged in the dry cleaning business on Cicero Avenue in Chicago, Illinois.

1 Date November 29, 1963

Mrs. RUTH SIKLWOOD, Assistant in Charge, Medical Records Section, Elgin State Hospital, Elgin, Illinois, advised that the following information is located in the medical records section files on microfilms under Elgin State Hospital number 46464, concerning Mrs. FANNIE RUBENSTEIN, also known as FANNY RUBENSTEIN:

FANNIE RUBENSTEIN, wife of JOSEPH R. RUBENSTEIN, living, age 63, was admitted to the Elgin State Hospital from the County Court of Cook County on July 16, 1937 with her mental illness being described as a senile deterioration, senile state, at the time of admission. She was described as being born in 1875, date not listed, in Russia, City or area not listed, and being of the Jewish religion and of the Hebrew race. She was 62 years old at the time of admission and resided at 624 South Independence Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, residing in Chicago the last 32 years. She was listed as having eight living children and one deceased child. The living children are as follows:

HYMAN R. RUBENSTEIN, son, age 35, residing at home;
ANNA VOLPORT, daughter (this name could possibly be spelled VOLPERT or VALPERT as it is not clear on the film), age 33, 2510 North Kedzie Avenue, Chicago, Illinois;
MARIAN RUBENSTEIN, daughter, age 31, residing at home;
EVA GRANT, daughter, age 28, Los Angeles, California;
JACK RUBENSTEIN, son, age 26, address not listed, however, listed as traveling salesman;
SAM RUBENSTEIN, son, age 24, residing at home;
EARL RUBENSTEIN, son, age 21, residing at home;
EILEEN RUBENSTEIN, daughter, age 20, residing at home.

RUBENSTEIN was brought to the Elgin State Hospital by the Cook County, Illinois Sheriff's Office, at the advice of a Doctor at the Michael Reese Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, where she had been attending clinics for many years. She was described as becoming unmanageable and gets into hysterics and shouts and screams both day and night. The hospital authorities received information from her daughter, MARIAN RUBENSTEIN, that the Michael Reese Hospital should have a complete record of FRANCES RUBENSTEIN.

In the family and personal history section of the file, it was reported that FRANCES RUBENSTEIN's parents died in Russia from old age and she has one brother, name not listed, living in Denver, Colorado. As to education, it was reported that she is illiterate and speaks little English.

MARIAN RUBENSTEIN, daughter, described FRANCES as being very temperamental, domineering and self willed and had to have her own way. According to MARIAN, if her mother's wishes were not granted, she went into a regular tantrum, became disagreeable and very unfair. She was described by MARIAN as never taking much interest in her children's welfare.

In a letter dated July 16, 1937, the Michael Reese Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, reported that FANNIE RUBENSTEIN has been known to the Michael Reese Hospital since 1926 due to her complaining of a sticking sensation in her throat over a 15 year period which she insisted was a fishbone. She was diagnosed at the psychiatry clinic of the hospital as having a psychoneurosis with marked anxiety state.

The letter further reported that since 1926, FANNIE RUBENSTEIN returned to the psychiatry clinic of the Michael Reese Hospital at intervals sometimes voluntarily and in the past four years at the request of her son and daughter. They found her behavior increasingly difficult in the house. During the past four years, according to the letter, FANNIE has been exceedingly quarrelsome, used profanity and was very markedly suspicious of the motives of her family and constantly expressed the idea that her sons are conspiring against her and influencing the other children to be impatient and cruel toward her.

In another report at the hospital dated August 12, 1937 it was stated that FANNIE in an interview with hospital authorities, gave her age as 62 and born in Poland in October, but could not give the year. This report, which differs from information in other sections of the file and which is set out above, states that FANNIE advised that she also has two sisters in Poland in addition to her brother in Denver. Two other sisters, according to FANNIE, died in infancy and another sister died in Poland of Malnutrition during the war. She claimed to be married to JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN at the age of 24 when he was then thirty and the match was made as customary through a professional match maker and her marriage to JOSEPH was an unhappy marriage.

The file reflected that FANNIE's deceased child died at the age of 29 months due to scalding. It was noted that FANNIE RUBENSTEIN was illiterate and that she speaks very little English. She was questioned at the hospital, according to the records in "Jewish" by a Doctor SHAPIRO, first name was not entered. In October, 1937, date not entered, FANNIE RUBENSTEIN was entered in the records as an "escape" from the hospital. She was then placed on parole for 90 days by the hospital on October 17, 1937 to her daughter, MARIAN RUBENSTEIN, 624 Independence Boulevard, Chicago. Mrs. SILKWOOD explained that apparently MARIAN RUBENSTEIN was located at the above Chicago address. Therefore, as was the custom of the authorities at the time, Mrs. RUBENSTEIN was placed on parole for 90 days in care of her daughter. She at that time, was entered in the records as improved, however, was still in a paranoid state.

On January 14, 1938, FANNIE was entered on the records as returned from escape and parole due to a request from her family because she was uncooperative and caused constant discord in the family and was noisy and using obscene language.

FANNIE RUBENSTEIN, on May 27, 1938, was again paroled for 90 days to her daughter, ANN VOLPORT, 3806 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, as improved. She was still described as being in a paranoid state with an unfavorable prognosis.

The last information in the files reflected a monthly progress report from the Illinois Department of Public Welfare dated August 23, 1938 which was at that time at the end of the 90 day parole and it was reported that MARIAN RUBENSTEIN, daughter, advised that she was now living with FANNIE at 3884 West End Avenue, Chicago, and that FANNIE was getting along much better, even going to the park during the day. The report stated that FANNIE, however, does not go back to 624 South Independence Boulevard, Chicago, where her husband and children live, therefore, much trouble has been avoided.

Mrs. SILKWOOD stated that her records reflect that FANNIE RUBENSTEIN on August 25, 1938, received an absolute discharge from the hospital as improved.

In addition to the above, FANNIE RUBENSTEIN was further described as white female, 4'6", 182 pounds, build obese, hair red, eyes blue.

He stated MAC worked on the morning shift at the hospital and had told him JACK RUBY and his wife, name unrecalled, were patients at the hospital two weeks ago and were noisy and troublesome.

GLADYS McKENNA, Gaston Episcopal Hospital, Dallas, Texas, stated she had been on duty at the hospital on the morning of November 24, 1963, and had recalled talking to Doctor HAWKINS about the shooting of President KENNEDY and the subsequent shooting of the man who was accused of shooting President KENNEDY.

Miss McKENNA stated she and the Doctor were conversing about the incident and the Doctor had told her, as she recalls, that RUBY "was a gangster from Chicago." She stated, however, she did not tell the Doctor that JACK RUBY and "his so-called wife were patients at the hospital.

Miss McKENNA stated JACK RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, had been a patient on her floor several weeks prior to this, and EVA had caused considerable confusion among the personnel at the hospital concerning her stay at the hospital. Miss McKENNA stated she had never seen RUBY visit EVA and it had been rumored among nurses at the hospital that EVA was using bad language while a patient and was causing trouble concerning her treatment at the hospital.

Miss McKENNA had no other information to furnish and did not know any other personnel at the hospital that might have had contact with RUBY while his sister, EVA GRANT, was a patient.

ABE COHN, President, Sangamon Paper Grading Company, 1613 West 15th Street, who resides at 7301 Sheridan Road, phone SHeldrake 3-2539, was interviewed and advised as follows:

T 1 7 A S

While all were approximately ten to twelve years of age, COHN resided at 1132 Sacramento Boulevard, JACK RUBENSTEIN at 1127 Sacramento, and LEON R. COOKE at 1132 Sacramento. RUBENSTEIN came from a large fatherless family, and was always hustling work. COHN and COOKE had fathers who made it possible for them to receive additional education, while RUBENSTEIN was always working to support his mother.

After COOKE received his law degree, he organized the Waste Material Handler's Union. COHN advised RUBENSTEIN was an organizer for COOKE and the only other employee of the union known to COHN.

COHN could not recall exact dates, but remembered the union was organized during the mid-thirties after the National Recovery Act was declared unconstitutional. COHN had lost track of RUBENSTEIN after the COHN family had moved from the area while they were still in school.

COHN took over his father's business and was running an open shop. RUBENSTEIN, without COHN'S knowledge, started organizing COHN'S employees into the union.

COHN discovered RUBENSTEIN talking to his employees in front of their place of business, and it was then he became aware that RUBENSTEIN was acting as an organizer for COOKE.

COHN'S business was organized as a union shop and thereafter RUBENSTEIN was in regular contact with COHN while acting as the union representative. This continued for a couple of years until COOKE was killed, probably during the late 1930's. After COOKE'S death, the union movement and the plant became disorganized, but some months later RUBENSTEIN appeared at the plant and advised COHN he was reorganizing the employees, presumably in the same union. RUBENSTEIN was at the plant regularly for a few weeks, but complained to COHN that his "heart was not in it" speaking of the new union. He told COHN he was going to quit the union. COHN did not know anyone besides RUBENSTEIN connected with the reorganization of the union.

COHN claimed only hearsay knowledge of RUBENSTEIN thereafter. He said he had not seen or talked with RUBENSTEIN since long before World War II. He had heard from an unrecalled source that after RUBENSTEIN got out of the service, he settled in Dallas. He seemed to recall that RUBENSTEIN had been in Texas while in the service and decided to settle there.

COHN said to his knowledge, RUBENSTEIN was not involved in organized crime or the rackets and pointed out that RUBENSTEIN always was a poor man, never lived expensively or wore good clothing or drove an automobile.

COHN said the only thing he knew RUBENSTEIN to do in addition to union organizing was to sell gadget and premium type objects. COHN observed that RUBENSTEIN always had been emotional and was "soft hearted", but never indicated he could be vicious. COHN considered RUBENSTEIN a true, loyal American, who had never had anything to do with movements such as Communism.

COHN commented that RUBENSTEIN had been fatherless, and the shock of the assassination and knowledge that the KENNEDY children would also be without a father, could have motivated the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ERWIN HORWITZ, 6922 Jeffery, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at his office room 1702, 130 North Wells Street. He advised that he is the building commissioner of Cook County Illinois. He furnished information concerning JACK RUBENSTEIN as follows:

He knows JACK RUBENSTEIN as SPARKY and last saw him and lost touch with him approximately 15 years ago. He was born in 1911, the same year of birth for RUBENSTEIN. Both lived in the same neighborhood in the vicinity of Peoria Street and Roosevelt Road and later in an area further west near Roosevelt Road in what became known as the Lawndale area.

He described SPARKY as a likeable and personable but terribly excitable person, not stable in temperament. He said that SPARKY was active physically and was prone to engage in arguments usually about sporting events and if the argument did not go to his liking, he was liable to use his fists or pick up a stick or any other weapon that came to his immediate attention. He said, in short, that SPARKY was quickly moved to violence but when the altercation was over, he immediately returned to his usual likeable self. He said that SPARKY was always a "hustler" and a good salesman. He said that he remembers SPARKY being present at almost all sporting events and particularly at the fights which years ago, were held at Marigold Gardens in Chicago. He said that SPARKY always had tickets to every sporting event and that as long as he can remember, SPARKY scalped tickets to fights, baseball and football games, etcetera. He said that SPARKY never, to his knowledge, stole anything, never carried a gun, nor did he associate with any of the persons from the old neighborhood who later became known in varying degrees as criminals.

He recalled one instance that probably occurred when SPARKY was age 15, when SPARKY attempted to sneak into the Dempey - Tunney fight and a police man hit him in the head causing a rather severe injury that required hospitalization. He said that his memory was indistinct but that he recalled that SPARKY had a metal plate installed in his head as a result of this injury. He said that SPARKY's older brother, TINY, is the only person that he knows that might have first hand information about this injury.

MORRIE KELLMAN, 6929 North Kenneth Avenue, Skokie, Illinois, Owner and President of Globe Glass Manufacturing Company, 235 East 33rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised SA GEORGE M. WOODLEY he was acquainted with JACK RUBENSTEIN but has not seen nor heard from him since 1946. He said he first met RUBENSTEIN about 1930 when they were both kids in the same neighborhood (Lawndale Avenue and Roosevelt Road), on the west side of Chicago. KELLMAN said he knew RUBENSTEIN only by this name and indicated the name JACK RUBY was not known to him. He said that during the late 1930's RUBENSTEIN would pick fights with anyone showing a Pro-Nazi attitude and whenever he would hear of a German Bund meeting being held, he would go to the place and attempt to break up the meeting. He would take on all comers and could hold his own against two or three others bigger than he. KELLMAN said he never knew RUBENSTEIN to carry a gun and never heard that he had ever carried a gun. He said RUBENSTEIN was in the novelty business in Chicago with his brother and was known to sell novelty items at various sporting events in Chicago, and was also known to be engaged in the scalping of tickets at various sporting events. He said that RUBENSTEIN spent a period of time in the U. S. Army and advised that he knows of no communist affiliation or connection on the part of RUBENSTEIN and to his knowledge he had no connection with the hoodlum element. KELLMAN said that RUBENSTEIN was a great admirer of former President FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT but knew nothing additional of his political feelings because he last saw RUBENSTEIN about 1946. KELLMAN said he has had no contact with RUBENSTEIN since he left Chicago and further stated that he does not know of any connection RUBENSTEIN may have had with a union in Chicago. He said the only business that he recalls RUBENSTEIN being in was that of the novelty business and the scalping of tickets. Knew nothing about any contacts EVE GRANT may have had.

BEN EPSTEIN, was interviewed at his residence, 4420 West Lunt, Lincolnwood, Illinois, and advised as follows:

EPSTEIN advised that he personally was a bookmaker until approximately 1951 and that he is now retired, managing real estate holdings. He has known JACK RUBENSTEIN, better known to him by the nickname Sparky, since his high school days. He believes Sparky may have been in the same high school class. Both lived in the old Roosevelt Road-Lawndale neighborhood, which is now occupied by Negro residents. He first recalled having become acquainted with Sparky at a barber shop and at the Lawndale Pool Room, both utilized as neighborhood hangouts.

Sometime in the early 1930's, he and Sparky were together on a joint business venture wherein they had radio programs printed and sold these programs from a newsstand at Van Buren and State Streets in Chicago. He advised that they did this with a City permit secured by a brother-in-law who was at that time a precinct captain in the old neighborhood. He said that he recalled that Sparky on one other occasion was involved in a minor amount of trouble for selling Christmas wreaths or something of this nature on the sidewalk without a permit.

EPSTEIN said that Sparky did not drink or smoke, but was "sort of a health nut", who spent a lot of time at the Young Men's Christian Association. He said that Sparky was likeable, personable and was the type who knew many many people. He said the most apt description would be the word "gregarious". He said also that Sparky had a quick temper, but was not likely to pick a fight, but on the other hand was quick to accept any challenge regardless of the odds against him. He said that after the war, possibly in 1945 or 1946, he heard that somebody in Chicago loaned Sparky a relatively small amount of money which Sparky planned to use in going into the candy business. He said he never did know any more about Sparky's business or personal affairs and to the best of his knowledge, he last saw Sparky or at least knew something about him in 1941 or 1952 in Chicago. He said that he was definitely aware that Sparky was in Dallas and he had heard that he was successful there and was under the impression that he owned one or more taverns in Dallas. He said that, because Sparky grew up in the old Lawndale neighborhood and because of Spark's gregarious nature, Sparky would undoubtedly know most of the persons of his immediate generation, both good and bad, who came from that area. He said, however, that Sparky, though he might become involved in things of a shady nature, was definitely not a hoodlum. He did not carry a gun, he did not become involved in burglaries or robberies and to his knowledge never expressed any particular interest in any political philosophy. He said that Sparky did have a tendency to be quick tempered, intense in his likes and dislikes and a strong affinity for being "where the action was".

EPSTEIN said that he was watching television when the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was portrayed and that he did not at first recognize RUBENSTEIN, but when the name was verified on news broadcasts and the program was replayed, he was able to recognize the person who shot OSWALD as his former acquaintance, RUBENSTEIN. He said that the realization that the prepetrator of this deed was a person within his acquaintance came as a physical blow. He said he knew nothing about EVA GRANT.

He advised as follows:

He grew up in the old Roosevelt Road-Halstead neighborhood, later moving to Lawndale, further west on Roosevelt Road. He advised that because he was the same age and from the same locality, he knew JACK RUBENSTEIN by his nickname, SPARKY. He characterized RUBENSTEIN as likeable, gregarious, physically active, unstable and tempermental, quickly moved to violent acts or words. He said that RUBENSTEIN was never criminally inclined or interested in politics to his knowledge. He said that he was simply a salesman of various products selling in a style usually referred to as "hustling" in the Chicago area. He said that he would find it inconceivable to believe that RUBENSTEIN had any criminal connections and he said that he had no knowledge of RUBENSTEIN's activities since he left the Chicago area a number of years ago.

SAM GORDON, 755 Crescent Drive, Palm Springs, California, owner of seven restaurants operated under the name, Sam's, in Sacramento and San Francisco, with office address, 1626 "J" Street, Sacramento, advised on November 26, 1963, as follows:

GORDON, in 1931, met JACK RUBENSTEIN, also known as SPARKY, working around the baseball park, Chicago, Illinois, where they were both selling novelties and scalping tickets to the games. SPARKY lived with his parents, names and address not recalled. SPARKY and GORDON double dated and went to dances together. GORDON could not recall the names of any of their associates.

In 1935, GORDON moved to San Francisco, and by chance, again ran into SPARKY, and they renewed their friendship. SPARKY lived in San Francisco with his sister, EVA (LNU), at some cheap apartment house, address not recalled, which apartments had a common dining room for all the tenants. GORDON recalled seeing EVA around the dining room, but did not know her associates or employment. During this period, SPARKY was employed as a door-to-door daily newspaper subscription solicitor, and had five or six boys working for him, who also resided at the same apartment house. GORDON could not recall any of their names. SPARKY returned to Chicago in 1940, and GORDON has not seen or heard from him since.

He did hear, some years ago, from an unrecalled source, that SPARKY had a "spot" called Silver Spur in Dallas, Texas, but GORDON has never been in Dallas, and does not know any of his associates there. SPARKY, during the time GORDON knew him, never exhibited any extremist or radical views, never carried a gun, was not mixed up in any illegal activity, never exhibited any particular interest in political activities, and never started any arguments or fights even though he was quite "good" with the fists. Neither SPARKY nor his sister, EVA, was ever mixed up with AL CAPONE or anyone in that group, and was not forced out of Chicago by the underworld. SPARKY always associated with "Jewish" people, but never exhibited any great interest in religion. GORDON recalled SPARKY as a clean cut, honest kid, and said he would stake his life that SPARKY had no connections or contacts with anyone concerning his killing LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

It is GORDON's belief that, because of his being upset emotionally over the death of the President and being in a position, he, without malice or forethought, had, on the spur of the moment, shot OSWALD. DON GLASS, Owner of Daniel Imports, Randolph and State Streets, Chicago, Illinois, furnished the following information:

Dan Glass

GLASS said he knew a SPARKY RUBENSTEIN or RUBY during the 1930's and part of the 1940's. He said this relationship was casual and developed when RUBENSTEIN used to drop into a novelty store which GLASS operated on State Street. He said RUBY was quick-tempered and would fight if insulted. RUBY was a known ticket scalper and primarily made his living by this means. On occasion, RUBY would peddle cheap costume jewelry. GLASS said that he was extremely surprised when RUBENSTEIN was named as OSWALD's killer.

GLASS described RUBY as a "character" and certainly not the type of person who would ever use firearms. He said RUBY was a "lone wolf" and fancied himself as a "lady's man." GLASS knew of no close associates RUBY might have had in Chicago and knows of no criminal element with whom RUBY might associate. GLASS said RUBY never discussed politics or belonged to any organizations as far as GLASS knew. GLASS said RUBY hated the name SPARKY and would fight if called it.

GLASS said he had no information regarding RUBY's past residence, employments, or family relationships, except for the aforementioned items. He said RUBY lived somewhere on Chicago's West Side and frequented a restaurant called Lawndale, located near Roosevelt and Independence Streets. RUBY was also seen at the Glass Hat Bar in the Hotel Congress.

GLASS said that a good friend of RUBY's during the 1930's was SAM GORDON, owner of a chain of restaurants in Sacramento and San Francisco, California, called "Sam's Haufbrau." GORDON is reportedly identical with the person who paid $5,000 for the baseball which ROGER MARIS hit for his 61st home run. GLASS said that GORDON is very wealthy. GLASS said that he recalled GORDON's name when someone remarked that a wealthy Californian was going to get RUBY out on bond. GLASS stated that this particular rumor reportedly originated from a radio newscast made on November 25, 1963. He said if this rumor were true GORDON would be the logical person because of his close relationship with RUBY in the past.

GLASS stated he has no information regarding RUBY's activities after he left Chicago in 1946.

On November 25, 1963, SOLLIE ZIV, co-owner of ZIV'S Theatre Ticket Sales, 159 North Dearborn, advised SA RICHARD BARRY SMITH and SANFORD A. MOEN that he was a casual acquaintance of RUBY's during the 1930's and early 1940's. ZIV said he became acquainted with RUBY when he (ZIV) had a ticket sales office at 111 North Clark.

ZIV said RUBY ran around with a crowd who never had any money but were always trying to "make a buck" by scalping tickets or peddling cheap watches or jewelry. ZIV described RUBY as a "small timer" who never had anything. He said RUBY was a "lone wolf" and had a quick temper. On one occasion in 1956, he hit ZIV's brother, LEO ZIV, without provocation.

RUBY reportedly lived on Chicago's West Side, near Morgan and Roosevele in the 1930's and attended Smyth Grammar school, 13th and Blue Island.

He allegedly was a gambler but his primary income was from ticket scalping at football and baseball games. RUBY was never in any difficulty while in Chicago so far as ZIV knew. He said RUBY worried about his dress and tried to be immaculate at all times.

ZIV said he never heard any rumors that RUBY was forced to leave Chicago. He said he doubted whether RUBY was the type that associated with Chicago's underworld. RUBY never discussed politics with ZIV nor did he appear interested in it.

ZIV emphasized that his relationship was most casual and he has no information regarding RUBY's family, close associates or other employment aside from that previously mentioned.

He said he has not seen RUBY since the middle 1940's, but heard he had gone to Dallas to work for his sister in a night club.

ZIV expressed surprise that RUBY was involved in any shooting as he, "is not the type."

HARRY SOLAVIT, 4754 Clarendon, advised that he has known JACK "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN and family practically all his life.

He related his most frequent contact with SPARKY occurred while both were employed as newspaper subscription salesmen in the San Francisco, California, area, between the years 1936 and 1939. He recalled that he met SPARKY and his sister EVA GRANT in San Francisco about 1936, at which time SPARKY and his sister were at first employed by the San Francisco Call - Bulletin Newspaper and later by the San Francisco Examiner Newspaper.

He related SPARKY left San Francisco about 1938 and he did not see him again until he saw him in Chicago right after World War II, where SPARKY was engaged in a business known as Earl Products, with his brothers EARL and SAM RUBENSTEIN. He stated Earl Products manufactured and sold miscellaneous items such as salt and pepper shakers, screw driver sets, etc. He said SPARKY subsequently left this business following a family dispute and went to Dallas, Texas, where his sister, EVA GRANT, had opened a night club. He related he is not certain when SPARKY went to Dallas, but believes it may have been in 1947 or 1948.

He recalled that he loaned EVA GRANT $500 to help her open the Dallas night club and SPARKY was not yet in Dallas when he went there in 1947 to see EVA and the club. He advised he did not see SPARKY again until SPARKY's father died and he saw SPARKY at the funeral in Chicago. He said his last personal contact with SPARKY occurred in Chicago about one year after the funeral.

He stated he has never known SPARKY to have had any hoodlum connections or associates and he related he has never known SPARKY to belong to any subversive or hate group type organization. He said to his knowledge SPARKY RUBENSTEIN never gambled, smoked or drank in excess. He said he heard that SPARKY had had some connection with a union in Chicago before he went to San Francisco, but he does not know what that connection may have been.

SOLAVIT was unable to furnish the identity of any associates of SPARKY not already known and interviewed.

MAURY CAHN, Twenty East Delaware, Chicago, advised SA ROBERT L. BUCKINGHAM on November 24, 1963, that he is a former associate of RUBY. Both, he and RUBY, used to double date. CAHN could not recall RUBY ever being associated with the union, nor could he recall RUBY being connected in any way with the shooting. CAHN advised that the name of LEON COOKE was unfamiliar to him. CAHN added that of all the people he knew, RUBY was the least likely to be associated with violence.

CAHN recalled that RUBY, at one time, worked for his uncle in approximately 1934 or 1936 in a clothing store located near Halsted Street and Roosevelt Road in Chicago. After this employment, he sold premium items, that is, such things as razor blades, and so forth.

CAHN used to see RUBY regularly as both would attend the fights at Marigold Gardens, Chicago, every Monday night. CAHN advised that HAROLD RYAN, member, Illinois State Boxing Commission, IRA COLITZ, owner of the Clover Bar, and LOUIS SCHNITZ were friends of RUBY. In fact, the last time CAHN saw RUBY was at the Clover Bar about five years ago. Date 11/29/63

HARRY M. EPSTEIN, 9141 Kilpatrick, advised that he became acquainted with JACK RUBY in Chicago, Ill. in the late 1920's, when they were both about 18 years of age. They were close friends until approximately 1940, when they drifted apart.

EPSTEIN stated he has seen RUBY no more than five times in the last 20 years, the last time being about five or six years ago when they had a very brief conversation upon the occasion of RUBY'S visit to Chicago to attend the funeral of RUBY'S father, JOSEPH.

EPSTEIN recalled that RUBY made his living as a young man in Chicago by scalping tickets, later becoming engaged in a business venture in Chicago with his brother, EARL, manufacturing aluminum salt and pepper shakers. This business was reportedly quite successful, but eventually RUBY sold out his interest to his brother EARL and went to Dallas where he went into business with his sister, EVA, who was already established there in the night club business.

EPSTEIN stated that RUBY was not a gambler and was never known by him to be involved in any gambling or other criminal activity or association and that to the best of his knowledge, he left Chicago for Dallas voluntarily. EPSTEIN described RUBY as a fairly even tempered individual and not one who would pick a fight with anyone, but who would rather avoid a fight if he could.

EPSTEIN stated he never visited RUBY in Dallas and has no direct knowledge of any of RUBY'S activities there. He stated the only other person known to him to have been close to RUBY was one MARTIN GIMPLE, who died approximately one and one-half years ago. EPSTEIN recalled that GIMPLE had maintained his friendship and association with RUBY until his death and was understood to have lived off and on with RUBY in Dallas prior to the time of his death.

HERSHEY COLVIN, Bartender, Vertigo Key Club, Lawrence and Broadway, owned by JOE BOCELINO, small-time Chicago hoodlum, advised he was long-time associate of JACK RUBENSTEIN and served in the U. S. Air Force with RUBENSTEIN while both stationed at Kessler, Mississippi. COLVIN stated, upon return from Air Force, he ran Show Time Lounge at Madison and Hamlin, during which time lounge was frequented by RUBENSTEIN'S sister, EVE GRANT and RUBENSTEIN. COLVIN described RUBENSTEIN as a "hustler", who sold numerous cheap types of merchandise in an attempt to make a profit. Chicago, Ills.

COLVIN stated RUBENSTEIN is definitely not connected with Chicago outfit and was a person of good moral standards, although he did display a quick temper on occasions. From his knowledge he, RUBENSTEIN, COLVIN stated in his opinion, was loyal to his country without qualification. He volunteered that RUBENSTEIN, who had a sensitive nature, most probably simply "flipped his lid", subsequent to the assassination of the President and in a fit of passion did what he thought was right in taking the life of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. COLVIN concluded by stating that RUBENSTEIN, during the time he had known him was positively not a radical or extremist, but a loyal citizen of the United States.

LEONARD PATRICK, 2820 West Jarlath, was interviewed regarding any knowledge of JACK RUBENSTEIN. (It is noted that on November 24, 1963, information was received to the effect that PATRICK ran RUBENSTEIN out of Chicago).

PATRICK advised he had known RUBENSTEIN as a neighborhood chum, who was about two years older than PATRICK. Both attended Shepherd Grammar School, located at Fillmore and Francisco Streets, but were not close friends.

PATRICK frequently saw RUBENSTEIN in the neighborhood and always spoke with him, as did everyone else who grew up in the west side.

PATRICK said he actually had little to do with RUBENSTEIN after they got out of grammar school. PATRICK was in prison from 1933 to 1940 and, upon his release, heard that RUBENSTEIN had been involved in the investigation into the murder of LEON COOKE "but had been cleared." He heard that this investigation was the reason RUBENSTEIN left Chicago in about 1939.

PATRICK claimed he knew nothing about RUBENSTEIN until after the war when he was selling premium items, such as salt shakers, with his brother, whose name PATRICK did not know. PATRICK did not know that RUBENSTEIN had been in the service during the war. He did state he was certain RUBENSTEIN had never operated a book or had anything else to do with any racket. PATRICK stated that "no matter how much you investigate, you'll never learn nothing, as he had nothing to do with nothing."

PATRICK denied having anything to do with running RUBENSTEIN out of Chicago after World War II and said RUBENSTEIN just found something better elsewhere. PATRICK said that if RUBENSTEIN had any racket he would never have left Chicago, and said further if RUBENSTEIN had been run out of town he would never have returned periodically as PATRICK said he heard RUBENSTEIN did. PATRICK said he had last seen RUBENSTEIN about ten or twelve years ago and had heard that he had been back to Chicago since that time to visit relatives. PATRICK said their friendship was not such that they would visit each other, but if they met on the street, they would visit.

PATRICK said he had never been in Dallas, Texas, but he had heard RUBENSTEIN had a joint there. He did not know RUBY's sister, and did not know whether RUBENSTEIN's sister was involved with him financially. PATRICK did not know the sister was in Dallas until he read it in the papers.

PATRICK has never heard of any connection RUBENSTEIN might have had at the Dallas Police Department.

MIKE NEMZIN, 6332 North Mozart, Chicago, sole proprietor, Weiner's Department Store, 1548 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, advsied that he knew JACK RUBENSTEIN, also known as Sparky, through RUBENSTEIN'S brother, EARL. NEMZIN stated JACK RUBENSTEIN frequented the New Lawndale Pool Room on Chicago's West Side and also frequented Marcy Center, Sixteenth and Avers and Sixteenth and Springfield Streets, where the West Side Jewish crowd gather.

NEMZIN stated that while he knew JACK RUBENSTEIN, JACK never was steadily employed, but was a ticket scalper and sold pennants and other peddler's items at sporting events. This was during a period from the late 1930's to early 1940's. The following people were in the New Lawndale Pool Room crowd: BARNEY ROSS, MARTY ERRIT, a used car dealer now known as the "Sultan of Swap" on a Chicago television station, and IRA COLITZ. NEMZIN could not further identify COLITZ.

NEMZIN knew of no hoodlum connection of JACK RUBENSTEIN and of no hoodlum activities on the part of JACK RUBENSTEIN. NEMZIN stated that he, JACK RUBENSTEIN and others in the New Lawndale Pool Room crowd had broken up Bundist meetings on the West Side during the late 1930's, but other than those activities, knew of no violence on the part of JACK RUBENSTEIN and stated that he never knew JACK RUBENSTEIN to carry a gun during this period. NEMZIN stated EVE RUBENSTEIN was in Dallas, Texas, at the time JACK RUBENSTEIN went to Dallas to be with his sister. NEMZIN knows no associate of EVE RUBENSTEIN past or present.

DONALD MEDLVEINE, Manager, New Chez Paree Corporation, 4000 North Wabash Avenue, residence, Apartment 52 0, 2801 North Sheridan, Chicago, advised he grew up with JACK RUBENSTEIN in the Maxwell Street area of Chicago and that he last saw RUBENSTEIN in 1948. He said he recalls RUBENSTEIN as an individual who was selling novelties on the streets in this area. He said RUBENSTEIN'S father was known as "Poppa Joe" and was a neighborhood carpenter and drunk.

Donald Medlevine

MEDLVEINE stated that he had heard that RUBENSTEIN had been a fanatic in regard to the late President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, however, was not aware of his feelings toward the late President KENNEDY.

MEDLVEINE states that RUBENSTEIN'S reason for leaving Chicago was that he was very close to his sister who resided in Dallas, and decided to go to Dallas to live with her.

MEDLVEINE had no knowledge of RUBENSTEIN'S political activities or any connection with a labor union in Chicago. MEDLVEINE was of the opinion that RUBENSTEIN was not the type of individual who could have perpetrated such an act as killing OSWALD and it was quite a shock to him to learn of this act. To his knowledge, the only individuals who might have some background on RUBENSTEIN would be JAY SCHATZ who is now the General Manager for radio station WYNR, Chicago, Illinois, and DAVE HALPER, who is working in some capacity at the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.

SOL WARSHAWSKY, Owner of the Playhouse Cafe, 550 North Clark Street, advised that he has been in the strip joint business in Chicago for over thirty years. He advised that he knew JACK RUBY about twenty-five years ago in Chicago and characterized him as a "small-time chiseler and banger on."

WARSHAWSKY said that RUBY liked to act the "big shot" but rarely could back himself up. WARSHAWSKY said RUBY never had any connection with organized crime or criminals in Chicago and had never been involved in any strip joint operation in Chicago either as an owner or employee.

WARSHAWSKY advised, however, that RUBY frequented a gambling place formerly operated by JOE TUCHMAN, now deceased, in the vicinity of Damen and Division Streets in Chicago. RUBY, according to WARSHAWSKY, was a small-time bettor and frequented the place more for the free food which was offered in those days, than for gambling activity. WARSHAWSKY said that RUBY would put down a "few bets" each week of small size. In those days, RUBY was considered to be a "loner" and that he had no close friends. WARSHAWSKY knew him as a loud and boisterous individual with a quick temper. WARSHAWSKY advised that, to his knowledge, RUBY has had no connection with anyone in Chicago for many years.

JERRY FEINGOLD, 2904 West Greenleaf, co-owner of Shoppers Corner, 150 North State Street, Chicago, Ill, furnished the following information:

FEINGOLD advised that he was a casual acquaintance of JACK RUBENSTEIN, also known to him as RUBY and SPARKY, from 1933 to 1941 and in 1946. He stressed that his acquaintanceship was only casual and consisted in seeing RUBY at various hangouts and in attendance at Chicago sporting events. FEINGOLD could not recall any hangout in particular, but recalled that these were restaurants, pool rooms and the like. FEINGOLD said RUBY was a reputed ticket scalper and this was his only source of income so far as he knew. He said RUBY used to frequent the Glass Hat, located in the Congress Hotel, 520 South Michigan, Chicago, but he does not know anyone there who would be acquainted with RUBY. RUBY also frequented the Lawndale Restaurant, located near Roosevelt and Independence Streets. Occasionally RUBY could be observed in attendance at the fights held in the Marigold Gardens. FEINGOLD stated RUBY fancied himself a "lady's man". He was also a reputed gate crasher at baseball and football games. FEINGOLD said that RUBY was always broke and never had any substantial funds. RUBY was described as a "nice fellow" who did not associate with any of the known hoodlums in Chicago's West Side where he lived nor was RUBY ever active in any political affairs. FEINGOLD knew of no organization or groups to which RUBY belonged.

FEINGOLD expressed surprise that RUBY was involved in any shooting incident as he had "too much common sense for that". FEINGOLD stated he knows of no one in Chicago who may know RUBY aside from FEINGOLD's former business partner, DAN GLASS, owner of Daniel's Imports near Randolph and State Streets. FEINGOLD also said he has no knowledge as to RUBY's past residence, employments, close associates, or family relationships.

THEODORE H. SHULMAN, President, Sanatex Corporation, 2321 North Wolcott, and Executive Director of the Waste Trade Industries, Chicago, advised that he became acquainted with JACK RUBENSTEIN approximately thirty years ago, at which time RUBENSTEIN was employed as an organizer with the Waste Material Handlers Federal Labor Union. RUBENSTEIN always exhibited a "highly emotional attitude", and seemed to get "overly excited about things that did not go his way". Specifically he recalled RUBENSTEIN advocated the union strike at the smallest provocation.

RUBENSTEIN, in late 1930's or early 1940's, left the union, after it was taken over by PAUL DORFMAN, and spent three or four years around Chicago, "scratching for a living". He recalled RUBENSTEIN, after leaving the union, sold tickets for sporting events and was known to him as a scalper. RUBENSTEIN had no connections with the organized criminal or hoodlum element, and was "very little" in his ticket selling operations. RUBENSTEIN once spoke of a sister in Dallas and indicated he had a brother in Chicago, names unknown.

He has seen RUBENSTEIN only on about two occasions in the last twenty years and on each occasion he ran into RUBENSTEIN in the Chicago Loop area. SHULMAN stated he has not seen or heard from RUBENSTEIN in the past five to ten years.

RUBENSTEIN had to leave the union because "of his temperament" in that he, RUBENSTEIN, would get so excited when he handled a complaint from a union member he would threaten to call a strike and shut down a company before the grievance could be discussed. SHULMAN said he could not furnish any further specific information regarding RUBENSTEIN, but commented RUBENSTEIN "had a good heart and seemed to do as much as he possibly could to help his family".

Benjamin Kaye

BEN KAY, a former Chicago Policeman and president of the Rogers Park Ford Agency, was contacted and KAY advised that he knew JACK (SPARKY) RUBY casually in the late 1930's as a person in his neighborhood. RUBY was known by KAY to frequent the Lawndale Pool Room and other neighborhood hangouts in the vicinity of Roosevelt Road and Lawndale Avenue.

Ben Kaye

KAY has not seen RUBY nor had any person contact with him since RUBY left Chicago in approximately 1947, but he has had contact with the Chicago members of the RUBENSTEIN family.

HAROLD KAMINSKY, a brother-in-law of JACK RUBY, is employed by KAY as an auditor on a one-day-a-month basis. Other members of the RUBENSTEIN family have been introduced as automobile purchasers.

In the late 1930's, RUBY was known to KAY as a scalper and a hustler who was always looking to "make a buck". KAY did not know RUBY to be a member of any "hate" group, subversive organization or a member of the Chicago hoodlum element. KAY stated that to the best of his knowledge, RUBY was "not connected".

Prior to departing the Chicago area, JACK RUBY was in business with EARL RUBENSTEIN, his brother. JACK and EARL had a falling out over business matters resulting in JACK'S divorcing himself from the business and leaving the Chicago area. JACK RUBY presumably traveled to the West Coast and remained there. KAY has not had any personal contact with JACK RUBY since his departure, but has been advised concerning him by members of the family.

According to KAY, EARL RUBENSTEIN was confined to the Hines Veterans Hospital, Chicago, for a one week period approximately a year ago. He was hospitalized due to a suicide threat. JACK RUBY'S sister, Mrs. KAMINSKY, made a trip to Dallas, Texas, and on returning to Chicago, remarked to KAY about the preferential treatment afforded her by the Dallas Police Department. She mentioned that due to her relationship with JACK RUBY, she was met at the place by the Dallas Police and given the "VIP treatment"

KAY stated that LOU GRAVERMAN, a former Chicago car dealer and tire dealer, was a close associate of JACK RUBY. GRAVERMAN, according to KAY, had hoodlum ties and can furnish details of JACK RUBY'S connection with the scrap iron and junk handlers union with which RUBY was associated in the Chicago area. GRAVERMAN is now in the Miami, Florida area and is in the automobile business. KAY could not state whether this was a new or used car automobile business.

MR. ART PETACQUE, reporter, Chicago Sun Times, advised relative to his article appearing on page 4 of November 25, 1963, issue of the Chicago Sun Times, captioned "Ruby a Misguided Patriot, Kin Say Here", he interviewed RUBY's brothers HYMAN and EARL RUBENSTEIN November 24, 1963. They told him their brother killed LEE OSWALD for only one reason, "He's a good patriotic American, and he got carried away". They said that they telephoned their sister, MRS. EVA GRANT in Dallas immediately after hearing that RUBY had slain OSWALD and she related RUBY came to her home immediately after President KENNEDY was assassinated. He broke down and cried at MRS. KENNEDY's anguish. They said he had no doubt that OSWALD killed the President and he believed OSWALD would be put in a mental institution. He felt this was not enough and he wanted to avenge MRS. KENNEDY. They related that RUBY had contributed to President KENNEDY's campaign fund and he believed President KENNEDY was the Nation's greatest leader. HYMAN told PETACQUE that RUBY would not kill OSWALD to become a hero, he did it to set an example of how a person like OSWALD should be punished. RUBY's brothers and other people acquainted with him related that RUBY was an ardent admirer of President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT and would fight with anyone who made a slurring remark about ROOSEVELT.

PETACQUE said he knew RUBY around 20 years and that about 17 years ago, he went to Dallas to manage a tavern for his sister and later became owner of this tavern. He believed RUBY changed his name because of anti-semitism in Dallas and not because of anything he had done in Chicago. He recalls that RUBY grew up in the Roosevelt Avenue area of Chicago where hoodlums lived and operated and that like anyone living in that area, he was acquainted with most of the hoodlums. He believes RUBY never closely associated with any hoodlums and recalls that he never got himself involved in any serious trouble; at most, he was involved in a punch board operation but never was arrested in this regard. He had the reputation of a street brawler. He never had a steady job but occupied himself as ticket scalper, salesman of assorted goods, small-time promoter, program hawker at sports events, etc.

From his personal knowledge and information from RUBY's acquaintances, he believes RUBY has always been a loyal patriotic American. He has no knowledge that RUBY or his sister, EVA GRANT, had any connections with the Dallas Police Department or with any hoodlums in Dallas. He had no personal knowledge concerning RUBY's union activities, however HYMAN RUBENSTEIN told him that RUBY was a labor organizer of the waste handlers union during the 1930's for a few months.

He advised that he knew practically every owner and male employee in such business over the years. He advised that JACK RUBY was never associated in the night club business in any way in Chicago for the past twenty-five years. Ill.

LEONARDI advised that he feels that it is likely that RUBY may be confused with one HARRY RUBENSTEIN, who was a successful strip joint owner from 1946 to sometime in the 1950's. HARRY RUBENSTEIN had a reputation for violence and was involved in at least one murder for which he was later acquitted. LEONARDI is positive that RUBY and HARRY RUBENSTEIN were never associated in any way.

MRS. GLADYS KERNES, owner, Klein's Restaurant, 4161 West Madison, residence 5732 North Christiana, both Chicago, advised that immediately subsequent to the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBENSTEIN, this was publicized on television broadcasts, and her husband LOUIS KERNES, while working at the cash register in this restaurant, exclaimed in a loud tone of voice, "I know that man". She said that apparently some customer called the newspapers and that since that offhand statement, she and her husband have been besieged by press inquiries.

Mr + Mrs

She advised that her husband greatly overstated his knowledge in that he would in all probability not recognize JACK RUBENSTEIN if he met him. She advised that in the 1930's, she resided at 3626 West Lexington, Chicago, and the RUBENSTEIN family lived three or four houses from her residence. The family consisted of four boys and four girls, and the elder MR. RUBENSTEIN was a retired carpenter. She said that she played cards three or four times with the sister whose first name was EVA and knew her to be a divorcee.

She said she last knew of the RUBENSTEIN family eight or nine years ago and was aware that JACK RUBENSTEIN resided in Dallas, because she had been told that his sister EVA had moved there and was associated with him in business in that city. She stated that she considered the RUBENSTEIN family to be normal, decent people, and that she has never heard anything that would indicate that JACK RUBENSTEIN has ever been associated with hoodlum elements. She stated she had no knowledge of connections that he may have had with the Dallas Police Department.

ALLEGRETTI said that if RUBY was active in the Chicago area, he may have seen him but does not remember the name. ALLEGRETTI made a point of stating if RUBY had been "connected", he would have known him. ALLEGRETTI was then asked whether RUBY could have been active in the Capone organization and ALLEGRETTI replied by stating, "I just told you he was not connected". In a further discussion concerning JACK RUBY on the murder of OSWALD, ALLEGRETTI was asked whether he had any knowledge of an association between RUBY and the Dallas Police Department. ALLEGRETTI stated that he had no knowledge of such associations and did not know anything concerning RUBY except what he had read in the newspapers and seen on television.

LEO DENET, Manager, Club Nineteen, advised SAs WILLIAM A. MEINCKE and JOSEPH G. SHEA on November 25, 1963, that he has been in the strip show business since 1939. He stated he does not know the subject. DENET said he is well acquainted with HARRY RUBENSTEIN, who formerly owned the Olympic Hotel on Chicago's near north side. HARRY RUBENSTEIN shot and killed a man in 1946 and has owned several bars in the Chicago Loop area. DENET stated, when he first heard of the shooting of OSWALD, he thought perhaps the JACK RUBY involved in the slaying was related to HARRY RUBENSTEIN. Since Sunday, November 24, 1963, he has compared notes with other mutual friends of HARRY RUBENSTEIN and now knows that HARRY is not related to the subject. HARRY RUBENSTEIN is from the Seattle, Washington, area originally.

HYMAN GODFREY, 903 New Castle, Westchester, Illinois, advised SAs JAMES D. DEWHIRST and THOMAS B. LANDESS on November 25, 1963, that he had never known the subject RUBY. He stated that he was well acquainted with the KEDZIE-ROOSEVELT area in Chicago, where RUBY purportedly had frequented during his years in Chicago. GODFREY admitted knowing BARNEY ROSS, a former champion prize fighter, who, according to previously received information, was acquainted with RUBY.

MITCH WOLCOFF, 3552 North Pine Grove, Chicago, a former restauranteur in the Chicago area, advised SAs ROBERT L. MALONE and JERRY H. BREIDENFELD on November 25, 1963, that he has known JACK "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN since about 1928, when they were both single and living in the Division and Western neighborhood. He stated that he was well acquainted with "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN on a social basis and worked with him selling penants at ball games. WOLCOFF stated he has stayed with him in WOLCOFF's home on many occasions. WOLCOFF stated that he moved to Florida in 1934 and since that time has seen him on a very infrequent basis. He stated that in 1939, "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN told him that he was working with LEO COOK in the Wastehandlers Union and when LEO COOK was killed, he wanted very badly to take over that union. WOLCOFF stated that was the last time he had ever seen RUBENSTEIN. He stated he has never known RUBENSTEIN to use the name RUBY.

WOLCOFF stated that he considered RUBENSTEIN to be a true patriot who would defend America at any time and that he loved America very strongly. He stated that his acquaintanceship with RUBENSTEIN was such that he could not believe that RUBENSTEIN could kill anyone and that he never knew him to be armed.

SAs WILLIAM R. BRODERICK and ROBERT A. COOK interviewed the following individuals on November 25, 1963:

LOUIS ARGER, operator of numerous strip shows in the Chicago Loop area;
IRVING DAVIES, Manager, Showboat Lounge, Chicago;
ROBERT TORNEBENE, Manager, Eddie Foys, Chicago;
TOM BAKER, Manager, Chez Dot, Chicago.

None of the above individuals were T/A, acquainted with the subject.

FRANK "BUTCH" LOVERDE advised that he does not know JACK RUBY. LOVERDE said that had RUBY been connected in any way with the organized criminal element of Chicago, he would have some knowledge of RUBY. LOVERDE advised that many people in Chicago have confused RUBY with HARRY RUBENSTEIN, an individual who formerly operated the Olympic Hotel and killed a man in 1946. He stated that HARRY RUBENSTEIN had gotten mixed up with wrong people and had been run out of Chicago. He believed that HARRY RUBENSTEIN had gone somewhere in Texas. LOVERDE declined to elaborate on the above remarks and did not furnish the date or other particulars concerning HARRY RUBENSTEIN's troubles.

LOVERDE indicated that he believed the agents were questioning him in the mistaken belief that the OSWALD killing had some organized crime overtones. He said, "Look at it our way. It's not logical to send a guy in to hit a guy who's stood up for 25 hours. You know you can trust a guy who can stand up for 25 hours, but how do you know you can trust the guy you send in to hit him. He might break in a half hour."

LOVERDE is active in the management of strip shows on Chicago's north side.

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Mrs. BERNADINE COLEMAN, Maple Manor Hotel, 65 West Maple, advised an Agent of the Chicago Office, on November 26, 1963, she was married to HARRY RUBENSTEIN from 1942 - 1960 and lived at the above address. She described HARRY RUBENSTEIN as a white male, age 68, 5'11", 180 lbs., dark hair, brown eyes, Catholic religion. He came to Chicago from Seattle, Washington, in 1927 and managed the Olympic Hotel, Chicago, 1927 - 1945.

HARRY RUBENSTEIN got into trouble in 1945 when he killed a bartender in his club, but was later exonerated. He next owned the Hollywood Show Lounge, Randolph Street, Chicago, from 1946 to 1960. He also owned the Randcraft Hotel, which has been demolished.

She stated positively HARRY RUBENSTEIN is no relation to JACK RUBY. She had never heard the name JACK RUBY before. She advised the names JACK RUBY and JACK RUBENSTEIN were never mentioned by anyone to them when they were in the business of operating night clubs. She recalls she once bought some tickets to the play "Oklahoma" through a ticket scalper named "SPARKY" approximately right after World War II, but never saw the man.

She denied HARRY was a close friend of the hoodlum element in Chicago, although she stated anyone in this business would have to associate with some. She would furnish no further details in this regard.

She stated HARRY's present address is unknown to her and he is believed to be clerking in some cheap hotel, Chicago, and broke. They no longer associate together. She stated she is attempting to contact HARRY RUBENSTEIN through mutual friends to set up interview.

DL 44-1639/cv

The following investigation was conducted in Chicago, Illinois, November 24, 1963:

NATE ZUCKERMAN, bartender at the "Front Page", a Chicago tavern owned by JAMES ALLEGRETTI, advised SA AUGUST C. KEMFF that he has known numerous members of the Chicago criminal element for the past twenty years but does not recall JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN. ZUCKERMAN stated that the only RUBENSTEIN he knew was HARRY RUBENSTEIN, the former owner of the Olympic Hotel.

IRVING "BUZZY" RIFKIN, Manager, "Le Bistro", a near northside Chicago night club, advised SA JOHN R. BASSETT that he was a good friend of JACK "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN. He stated that RUBENSTEIN had attended Marshall High School in Chicago many years ago at which time RIFKIN first made his acquaintance. According to RIFKIN, RUBENSTEIN was not connected with the criminal element in Chicago and made his living while in this city by the purchase and sale of low cost merchandise.

RIFKIN advised that RUBENSTEIN was a good friend of ART WAYNE, a singer whom he believed might reside in Hollywood, California. Another close friend of RUBENSTEIN was one YUDIE (phonetic) JACOBS, a small-time entertainer whose whereabouts is unknown to RIFKIN. U.S.A.

RIFKIN advised that a few years ago RUBENSTEIN came to Chicago accompanied by a young Negro boy seven or eight years old for whom RUBENSTEIN was acting as a manager. RIFKIN stated that the young Negro boy made a television appearance on some show, the identity of which he could not recall.

RIFKIN indicated that he had not seen RUBENSTEIN for the past two or three years, but frequently hears from him. He stated that he has frequently referred female friends, who are visiting Dallas, to RUBENSTEIN, and RUBENSTEIN occasionally refers girls to RIFKIN when they visit Chicago from the Dallas area.

Lt. HARRY SMITH, Chicago Police Department, advised SA JOHN R. BASSETT that he recalled "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN as having preceded him by a few years at Marshall High School. He stated that as long as he had known RUBENSTEIN, the latter was completely "legitimate" and had no known criminal connections.

FRANK KIERNAN, Special Assistant, United States Attorney, Chicago, advised the Chicago Office of the following information:

He had received on that date from JACK WILNER, a crime reporter on the Chicago Daily News, information that WILNER indicated he had received from his "syndicate sources" information reflecting that JACK RUBY in the mid 1930's, was associated with JOE KRASNOW and had been given to understand that RUBY, KRASNOW and SIMON had been involved in a "bookmaking" arrest in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, between 1933 and 1935. Following this arrest, RUBY returned to Chicago and according to WILNER's source was arrested with one SAMMY MENOSH on charges of "confidence games".

Mr. KIERNAN also furnished the following information received from JACK WILNER, above:

WILNER stated his "syndicate sources" reflect RUBY was reportedly involved in 1947 with NICK ST. JOHN, PAUL LABRIOLA, MARCUS LIPSKY and PAUL RONALD JONES, in effort to take over gambling in the Dallas, Texas area. Also involved allegedly were STEVE GUTHRIE, Sheriff of the county, and one GEORGE BUTLER. WILNER advised information on this situation appeared in the KEFAUVER hearings in 1950 and that several individuals were convicted in Dallas in the above connection. (In connection with the above, one GEORGE BUTLER, Dallas Police Department, is known to have been an investigator for the late Senator KEFAUVER in connection with his investigation of criminal activities a number of years ago.)

The Chicago Office has advised that DAVID BYRON, General Manager, Automotive Products Division, Federated Industries, Antioch, Illinois, appeared on a television program of ALEX DRIER on the afternoon of November 24, 1963, indicating knowledge of RUBY.

BYRON on interview by Special Agents of the FBI stated he met RUBY as JACK RUBENSTEIN as a neighborhood acquaintance in the Humboldt Park area of Chicago and knew him casually from about 1928 to 1931. He did not know his family or employment. He stated after his, BYRON's, absence from the neighborhood and state he returned to Chicago and sometime during the period 1939 to 1942 recalled reading in Chicago newspapers which had accompanying photographs of RUBENSTEIN, known also to BYRON as "SPARKY", that RUBENSTEIN had been president of some "junk dealers' union" in Chicago and outsiders were trying to "muscle him out" of the union. A shooting occurred, and RUBENSTEIN was charged with killing a man. He was arrested, convicted and sentenced in Chicago on this charge and served in prison on a location unknown for "a little over a year".

BYRON did not see RUBENSTEIN during this period in Chicago and understood he left Chicago about 1943 or 1944. In about 1946 when he intended a business trip to Dallas someone in Chicago suggested he look up JACK RUBENSTEIN who was said to be at the "Silver Spur" or "Golden Spur", South Ervay Street in Dallas. He did so and between 1946 and 1950 stopped in the "Silver Spur" on perhaps ten occasions.

In 1946, RUBENSTEIN told BYRON he had changed his name to JACK RUBY and asked BYRON not to tell anyone in Chicago of his whereabouts as he was "trying to live down" his Chicago background. He said RUBY mentioned that his sister, unnamed, owned the "Silver Spur". He said he never met relatives or business associates of RUBY in Dallas. He said he had no information that RUBY was involved with hoodlums in either Chicago or Dallas, that he had any form of subversive sympathies and that RUBY had no homosexual tendencies to his knowledge.

A check of records of the Chicago Police Department reflected one HARRY RUBENSTEIN, hotel owner, Chicago, was convicted of manslaughter in 1946, sentenced to one year probation.

Indices of the Chicago Office contains no information identifiable with LOU SIMON, JOSEPH KRASNOW, YUDIE JACOBS, ART WAYNE or SAMMY MENOSH.

JOHN ERMINO CAPONE, brother of ALFONSE CAPONE, (deceased), advised SA JOHN R. BASSETT on November 25, 1963, that he did not know JACK RUBY, also known as Jack Rubenstein, although he was generally acquainted with many of the "so called criminal element" in the Chicago area. CAPONE volunteered he was highly incensed over the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to his trial for the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said he felt RUBY must have been insane or motivated by subversive groups. He added that if such was not the case and that if this killing had any criminal overtones, he would attempt to elicit this information from associates and advise SA BASSETT should such be the case.

MANNY SADER, Manager of the 606 Club, a strip show in Chicago, advised SAs ROBERT A. COOK and WILLIAM R. He did not believe this individual was connected with any criminal element in Chicago.

JAMES HARRIS, NightClub Operator, New Port, Kentucky, advised that he knew subject twenty years ago in Chicago when subject was connected with various night clubs, names unrecalled, on State Street, Chicago. HARRIS considered RUBY "Nutty", who liked to play the big shot with club operators and police. According to HARRIS, RUBY's job at that time was to keep the club girls in line and to protect them and that he eventually got in trouble with club operators because of his "stealing" girls from other clubs.

HARRIS had no knowledge that RUBY knew or was connected with LEE OSWALD. Also RUBY is not connected as far as HARRIS knows, with big time racketeers in Chicago. Also no known association of RUBY with subversive element. HARRIS' opinion of the shooting of OSWALD was some sort of "grand stand play" by RUBY. HARRIS has no recent information regarding RUBY and no inkling as to what may have motivated alleged action on his part.

Mr. HARRY THOMAS, 705 Arizona Street, El Paso, Texas, advised he was associated with The Associated Press in Chicago, Illinois, in the early 1930's and resided for a time at The Olympic Hotel, 1060 North Cark Street, Chicago. The hotel was operated by a man named RUBENSTEIN, who used various first names, namely, HARRY, JACK and ABE.

Mr. THOMAS advised RUBENSTEIN had a violent temper and was seen beating up an unidentified individual on one occasion. RUBENSTEIN reportedly was part-owner of a number of night clubs up and down Clark Street, including McGovern's Liberty Inn, and was reportedly tied in tightly with the rackets in Chicago.

Mr. THOMAS said he did not know if the above-mentioned RUBENSTEIN was identical with the man who shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Dallas, Texas.

BILL POKOIK, Gotham Hotel, 835 Turk Street, San Francisco, advises he resides in San Francisco at the above address, is employed at the Fun Center Arcade, 723 Market Street, San Francisco.

He states he was born and attended school in Chicago, Illinois, residing in the vicinity of Peoria and Maxwell Streets. He stated he recently has seen the photograph of the man known as JACK RUBY in San Francisco newspapers and national television. He stated he immediately recognized this person as a man whom he knew for many years and who was known in Chicago as JACK RUBENSTEIN. He stated JACK was also known as "SPARKY". He stated RUBENSTEIN was four years younger than he and resided within a block or two of him in Chicago. He remembers meeting RUBY's father, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, who was a carpenter in Chicago. He stated he had not seen RUBY or RUBENSTEIN for many years until 1961 in Dallas. He advised he was traveling from Chicago to Miami, Florida and stopped at the Loma Alta Hotel, Dallas, and was recognized by RUBY on a Dallas street. He advised he visited with RUBY and told RUBY he was residing in San Francisco at that time. He advised he has never seen RUBY in San Francisco and does not know if RUBY has ever resided in San Francisco.

POKOIK stated he is aware RUBY was the owner or operator of the Vegas and Carousel Clubs, Dallas, and stated he would have no reason to think RUBY was connected with any subversive activities or activity contrary to the best interests of the United States.

POKOIK described RUBY as an outgoing, extroverted person who seemed to be quite nervous. He stated he was astonished to read RUBY was charged with the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and recalls nothing in connection with RUBY's background that would contribute to RUBY's actions in this matter.

POKOIK has met RUBY's sister, EVE or EVA, but he stated he cannot recall further information concerning RUBY's family. He stated he vaguely recalls hearing the possibility that RUBY and his sister did reside in Los Angeles, California, date and place of residence not known to POKOIK.

JOE KELLMAN, 2733 West Jarlath Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised he was in Durham, North Carolina, on November 27, 1963, undergoing tests at Duke Hospital. He furnished the following information:

About 1943 he met JACK RUBENSTEIN through his brother, MORRIE KELLMAN, and a cousin, ARTY WEINER, also known as ARTY WAYNE, in Chicago, Illinois. All together he saw RUBENSTEIN 5 or 6 times socially. He remembered RUBENSTEIN as a health fadist and KELLMAN exercised with him once at Postl's Gym in downtown Chicago. KELLMAN was not certain but said he thought RUBENSTEIN worked as a jeweler as a place KELLMAN could not remember.

Art Wayne

KELLMAN stated he never knew him to be connected with a night club profession and remembered him as such a mild mannered person that the idea of his connection at that time with any Chicago mobster or Capone group appeared preposterous.

KELLMAN said he never knew RUBENSTEIN's sister, EVA GRANT, or other relatives nor had he heard anything at all from RUBENSTEIN or other sources. KELLMAN said he was not aware that RUBENSTEIN had left Chicago until he recognized a full view photograph of RUBENSTEIN when he was identified as OSWALD's assailant. He never heard anything to indicate RUBENSTEIN had possibly been connected with hoodlum elements. KELLMAN knew of no groups, organizations, or associates of RUBENSTEIN's and said he never heard of OSWALD until the President's assassination.

KELLMAN advised that RUBENSTEIN had appeared to him to be a quiet, well mannered, almost effeminate type of man who lisped. The idea that he could become a strong armed bouncer and an affiliate of gangsters was totally at odds with the impression KELLMAN said he formed of RUBENSTEIN 20 years ago.

HARRY JACK GOLDBAUM, 4642 North 8th Drive, Phoenix, Ariz., telephone 279-3932, who is a real estate developer for self, advised he has known JACK RUBY for about 30 years. He said he and RUBY grew up in the same neighborhood on West Side of Chicago, and RUBY attended John Marshall High School at same time as GOLDBAUM'S wife.

GOLDBAUM said RUBY is known in Chicago as "Sparky" because of his volatile disposition, and inclination to fight — at least provocation, although RUBY was usually friendly and well-liked in neighborhood.

GOLDBAUM said he soon moved from the neighborhood, but heard from now unrecalled sources that RUBY became active in 24th Ward Democratic politics. He knew of no actual employment of RUBY in Chicago, but said RUBY seemed to be always well off financially, and former friends often wondered where he obtained his income.

GOLDBAUM said he further recalls having heard from unrecalled source that RUBY and other unknown persons formerly engaged in approaching couples parked in cars at Stickney, Illinois, and shining flashlights in cars. They would then reportedly "shanke down" the male occupant, leaving the implication that RUBY and friends might be police officers.

GOLDBAUM advised RUBY'S main hangout in Chicago was Lawndale Pool Room on Roosevelt Road east of Independence Boulevard, and believed RUBY would be well-known at this location.

GOLDBAUM stated he lost track of RUBY after moving to Phoenix in 1945, but later heard from a mutual acquaintance that RUBY had moved to Dallas. He said that when he and his family were en route from Memphis to Dallas in December, 1957, he recalled this information, and telephoned RUBY, who visited him and family at a Dallas motel. RUBY indicated he had moved to Dallas to make money, and told GOLDBAUM he was doing well operating a night club. He claimed he had some difficulty with hoodlums who frequent his type of establishment, but was able to take care of them.

11/25/63 Phoenix, Arizona File # DL 44-1639

GOLDBAUM said he last saw RUBY about three months ago, when in Dallas on business. He went to the Carousel during the afternoon, and walked upstairs to RUBY'S office, at which time he heard RUBY shouting in extremely vile and filthy language at a Negro carpenter. RUBY quietened down when he entered the office, and GOLDBAUM remained there talking with RUBY for about one hour. During this time, RUBY was taking care of three small dogs for an unknown doctor, and had dogs in the office. [The female dog was in heat, and RUBY told GOLDBAUM he would show him something interesting. RUBY then proceeded to sexually excite one of the male dogs by masturbation. GOLDBAUM objected, and told RUBY to cease as it was making him sick.]

GOLDBAUM said he has not seen or heard from RUBY since last visit to Dallas.

GOLDBAUM said he knows of no Un-American sympathies or activities on part of RUBY, and advised RUBY always expressed himself as ardent supporter of late Presidents ROOSEVELT and KENNEDY. He knew of no hoodlum associates of RUBY, but believed it possible he may have been associated with hoodlums in Chicago.

GOLDBAUM said he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and knows of no association between OSWALD and RUBY.

He further knew of no close associates or friends of RUBY in Phoenix area, and does not know of RUBY ever having even visited this area.

GOLDBAUM advised that CHILE PANITZ, a "box man" at Thunderbird Hotel, Las Vegas, formerly worked in Dallas, and is believed to be a close acquaintance of RUBY.

GOLDBAUM is of the opinion that shooting of OSWALD was motivated by anger of RUBY because of assassination of late President, and of the opinion that RUBY probably mentally unbalanced at times, [as exhibited during dog incident in RUBY'S office.]

JOSEPH P. ROSSI advised that he and JACK RUFY, whose real name is RUBENSTEIN, were both born and reared in the 24th Ward in Chicago. However, they did not know each other until about eleven years ago when they met in Dallas. RUBY had the Silver Spur Club and later the Vegas Club. Mr. ROSSI does not know any of RUFY's family but said they are Jews and that JACK RUFY observes Jewish religious customs. ROSSI knows of no connection between OSWALD and RUBY. He stated that RUFY is highly emotional and has a high temper. He has heard that RUBY cried when President ROOSEVELT died.

ROSSI described RUFY as being very anti-Communist but not a member of any hate group. He describes RUBY as a "24th Ward Chicago Jake Arvey Democrat". ROSSI knows of no connections RUBY has with gamblers or organized crime; however, he stated that RUFY knows some of these people personally. ROSSI knows of no close relations RUBY had with any police in Dallas. ROSSI last saw RUFY in Dallas November 20, 1963, at which time RUFY discussed opening a new club and wanted ROSSI to invest money in the club and perhaps help to manage it. RUFY talked of future plans in a manner leading ROSSI to believe that RUBY had not thought about getting into trouble. ROSSI stated that when RUFY was identified over television as the killer of OSWALD, that his first thought was that RUBY was the type to be emotional enough to do that sort of thing. ROSSI believes that RUBY's motive in killing OSWALD was an over simplified solution of a simple and emotional man for obtaining justice in this case.

Mr. MAURICE MEDLEVINE, also known as Frenchy Medlevine, advised he has residence telephone GR 77310. He furnished the following information concerning JACK LEON RUBY.

He was acquainted with RUBY in Chicago, Illinois, when both were children together and attended public schools in that city in the 1930's. He believes RUBY may have attended Smith School at the same time that MEDLEVINE attended Garfield High School in Chicago. As a youngster, RUBY was well liked, particularly by the female set in Chicago. MEDLEVINE has not seen or heard from RUBY for possibly the last six to eight years. Texas.

On the last occasion MEDLEVINE saw RUBY was at the Chez Paree Night Club in Chicago which was then owned by MEDLEVINE's brother, DON MEDLEVINE. At that time, RUBY was accompanied by a young male Negro boy who was entertaining as a singer and dancer. Calif.

MEDLEVINE knows of no gambling connections, business connections or associates of RUBY, or of any subversive interests on the part of RUBY. He has never known him to possess or espouse any radical or extremist views.

RUBY's older sister was believed by MEDLEVINE to own a salon in Dallas, Texas, and RUBY worked for her. MEDLEVINE was acquainted with RUBY's father who was a carpenter in Chicago but did not know his mother.

MEDLEVINE left Chicago in 1960 and although he has been to Dallas he has never seen RUBY in that community.

MEDLEVINE expressed the personal opinion that RUBY may have been "a little shell shocked" following military service. He has never known him, RUBY, to have a temper or engage in fist fights as a youngster.

When he heard about RUBY being charged with the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD following the assassination of President KENNEDY in Dallas, Texas, MEDLEVINE could not believe it because in his opinion conduct of this type was entirely foreign to RUBY's nature, as he knew him as a youngster.

He has had no contact with RUBY in his adult years and could furnish no information concerning criminal activities, hoodlum or gambling activities of RUBY, if any exist.

ALEXANDER P. GRUBER, 5222 West Olympic Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, on November 25, 1963, advised he has known JACK RUBY for approximately 40 years. He stated they lived in the 20th Ward of Chicago and attended the same grammar school. He advised that when they were approximately 20 years of age, they shared an apartment for about one year which was on the corner of Wilson Avenue and Claredon in Chicago. He stated that he always know RUBY as JAKE RUBENSTEIN. Ill. N.Y.

Al Gruber

He advised that after living in the apartment with RUBY that he, GRUBER, moved to New York and had no contact whatsoever with RUBY for many years. He stated about ten years ago, while he was passing through Dallas, Texas, he again met with RUBY, at which time RUBY owned a bar called the Silver Spur. GRUBER recalled on that occasion that he observed RUBY in a fight in the Silver Spur when RUBY ejected two men who he did not want on the premises. He recalled that RUBY told him he always stayed in shape. Tex.

GRUBER stated he last saw RUBY about two weeks ago when he was returning from the East and passed through Dallas. He again met with RUBY at his night club. He recalled that RUBY told him that the police liked him because he stays out of trouble and runs a good place. On the occasion of this last visit, RUBY told GRUBER that a number of years ago, a former prize fighter had a "beef" with RUBY and said he was going to get RUBY. RUBY stated he purchased a gun to protect himself and then notified friends on the Dallas Police Department that he had been threatened and that he had purchased a gun. The police officers told him to let them have the gun, that he did not need it because he could take care of himself and it would only get him into trouble. RUBY stated he gave the gun to the officers. Later the prize fighter appeared at RUBY's bar when Dallas police officers were present. RUBY and the fighter started to fight and Dallas police officers told observers to leave them alone and to let them settle it themselves. RUBY told GRUBER that he gave the prize fighter a good beating and after it was all over, Dallas police officers gave RUBY's gun back to him.

GRUBER stated that RUBY told him on the occasion of his last visit that he was having business trouble with his sister, EVE GRANT.

GRUBER stated he stayed in Dallas one night and part of the following day and returned directly to Los Angeles. He stated he had no further contact with RUBY until the day the President was shot. He stated that about twenty minutes after the news of the shooting was on television, he received a long distance telephone call from Dallas from JACK RUBY. He stated RUBY was very upset and talked "like a guy who had blown his top." GRUBER stated the conversation was as follows:

RUBY: "Did you hear what happened?"
GRUBER: "You mean the shooting of the President?"
RUBY: "Yes, ain't that a terrible thing. I'm all upset and my sister is hysterical. You don't know this AL, but I started all of my programs with a patriotic number."

GRUBER stated that at that point, RUBY began to cry and he told GRUBER, "I'm crying and I can't talk to you any more" whereupon he hung up the telephone.

GRUBER referred interviewing agents to Mr. AL DUNN as a person who was acquainted with RUBY.

GRUBER stated that at 12:45 a.m. on November 25, 1963, an anonymous telephone call was received at his residence asking for AL GRUBER. When advised that Mr. GRUBER was not home, the anonymous caller stated, "Ask him if he likes livin" then hung up. GRUBER stated he assumed this was an anonymous threat because his name had appeared in the newspapers as an acquaintance of JACK RUBY.

MORRIS BLOCK, 5510 Edgewood Place, Los Angeles, CALIFORNIA, stated that during the mid 1930s he operated a bar on the west side of Chicago, and intermittently worked in horse race bookmaking at Chicago before moving to Los Angeles some 20 years ago. He provided information as follows:

The moment he viewed RUBY's photo and saw his name in the newspapers, he recalled RUBY vaguely as a bar operator during the 1930s in the vicinity of Madison at Sacramento, Madison at Kelsey, or Madison at Crawford in Chicago. At that period, according to BLOCK, any bar operator was required to handle the Capone mob's "Canadian Ace" beer, and to pay tribute to the police captain commanding the area precinct. He cannot recall the name of the police captain with whom he personally dealt, but believes it would be the same official with jurisdiction over Madison Avenue at the above intersections. So long as the mob's beer was handled, the Capone mob furnished protection against assaults.

He has been away from Chicago for so long that the names of former friends there have slipped from his mind, except for one man who continued to operate a bar on the west side until recently. This man has remained as a personal friend, and visited BLOCK just last summer. His name is CY SCHWARTZ, 3858 North Kilpatrick Avenue, Chicago 47, Ill. He is now in the wholesale Christmas tree and watermelon business, and his brother is RUBY SCHWARTZ, some sort of official in the Democratic Party at Chicago. CY SCHWARTZ has an unusually wide acquaintanceship with bar operators there over a period of many years, and he has an excellent memory.

SAM MINKUS, 1132 West Lunt, Chicago, advised SA's FRANCIS M. HENWOOD and LOGAN C. PICKERL on November 25, 1963, that he did not know the subject. MINKUS formerly operated National Publications, Inc., a sports handicapping service and is generally acquainted with gambling people in the Chicago area.

IRVING GORDON, 7410 Keystone, Skokie, Illinois, on November 25, 1963, advised SA's JAMES A. ABBOTT and CHARLES L. BROWN, JR. he was not acquainted with JACK RUBENSTEIN, also known as JACK RUBY. GORDON claimed he had never heard of RUBENSTEIN until the publicity concerning the murder of LEE HARVEY OLWALD. GORDON is an associate of many ranking Chicago hoodlums.

Chicago columnist TONY WEITZEL advised on November 25, 1963, that RUBY may be an associate of DAVE "DINGY" HALPER, night club operator, Las Vegas, Nevada.

DAVID "DINGY" HALPER, 3478 Paradise Road, Apartment 139, Las Vegas, Nevada, temporarily domiciled at the Spa Hotel, Palm Springs, California, advised SA J. He continued that he does not know JACK LEON RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and cannot furnish any information concerning either of them.

BERNARD ROSENFIELD, 4324 Enfield, Skokie, Illinois, Owner, Minor Music Company, age 36, advised SA EUGENE I. SATHER on November 27, 1963, that he had never heard of JACK RUBY by that name or any of his aliases and knew of no one that could possibly furnish any background information concerning him. ROSENFELD pointed out that he had read the newspapers concerning the assassination of the President and also noted that RUBY had left Chicago in approximately 1947 or 1948. He said that RUBY's departure would have been when he had just turned 20 years of age and was not associating with any individuals who would be acquainted with RUBY.

ALICE REAVES NICHOLS, nee Small, 8707 Redondo Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone DAvis 1-3687, advised that she is the widow of GEORGE KERMIT NICHOLS. She advised that she is employed as a secretary for Mr. JOHN E. MANGRUM, Vice President and Treasurer, Southland Life Insurance Company, Southland Center, Dallas, Texas, business telephone RIverside 1-1321. She has been employed there for the past sixteen years.

She advised that she formerly associated with JACK LEON RUBY, also known to her as Jack Leon Rubenstein. She furnished the following information regarding their relationship and regarding her knowledge of JACK LEON RUBY:

She first met RUBY in about 1948 when he was the manager and owner of the Silver Spur Club in Dallas. They started going together and continued to date each other until about 1956 or 1957, when they started drifting apart. They finally stopped seeing each other altogether in about 1959 or 1960. She last saw JACK RUBY during the early spring of 1963 when he was driving down the street in Dallas. They waved to each other; however, since she was walking and he was driving they did not exchange greetings or talk with each other.

From the time she met RUBY until about August, 1952, RUBY operated the Silver Spur Club. In about August, 1952, RUBY sold the club to one MARTIN GIMPLE, who was from Chicago, Illinois, and a lifelong friend of JACK RUBY. RUBY then went to Chicago and returned to Dallas after about six weeks. He then bought the Silver Spur Club back from GIMPLE. MARTIN GIMPLE is now deceased.

Sometime in 1951, JACK RUBY bought the Bob Wills Ranch House Club in Dallas, and he lost this club in the late spring of 1952, inasmuch as it was too expensive to operate. She does not believe that RUBY had a partner in the operation of either the Silver Spur Club or the Bob Wills Ranch House Club. During the time RUBY operated the Silver Spur Club after she met him, he had no one associated with him by the name of NORMA MILLER. She does not know anyone by the name of NORMA MILLER.

During the time she was associated with JACK RUBY, RUBY was friendly with one JOE BONDS who operated the Sky Club on West Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas. She does not believe that RUBY and BONDS were ever associates in any business.

Sometime in 1953, RUBY bought the Club Vegas from ABE WEINSTEIN who operates the Colony Club in Dallas, Texas.

Sometime in 1953, RUBY sold the Silver Spur Club to one ROCKY ROBINSON who formerly had operated a club on Home Street in the Dallas area. She does not know whether this club was inside or outside the Dallas City Limits.

She met JACK RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, for the first time in about 1953 or 1954 when EVA was in Dallas on a visit. It was her understanding that EVA had previously lived in Dallas and had managed one of RUBY's clubs for him. EVA came back to Dallas permanently in about 1959 or 1960 and went to work as the manager of the Club Vegas, operated by JACK RUBY.

Other members of JACK RUBY's family, whom she has met, are his brother, SAMUEL RUBY, who resides in Dallas; his brother, EARL RUBY, who lives in Detroit, Michigan; and his sister, MARION, who resides in Chicago, Illinois. She also met JACK's father, who is now deceased. All of these people impressed her as being good people, and she knows nothing which would reflect unfavorably on the character of any of these people.

Some time during 1952 or 1953, JACK RUBY owned for a short time a club known as Hernando's Hideaway, which was located on Greenville Avenue, Dallas, Texas.

In about 1959 or early in 1960, Jack Ruby acquired the Carousel Club in Dallas. It was about that time that she and JACK RUBY parted company permanently. The Carousel Club had previously been known as the Sovereign Club and was operated as a private club. JACK RUBY converted it to a public club and changed the name to the Carousel Club.

During the time she went with him, JACK RUBY told her several things about himself and other things she was able to determine through her conversations with him. These things are as follows:

He was born at Chicago, Illinois, on March 25, 1911. His parents were either foreign born or were first generation Americans, one of them having been born in Poland and the other in Russia. She does not know which one was born in Poland and which one was born in Russia. He was reared in Chicago, Illinois, and the family was of modest economic circumstances. His father was a carpenter. JACK was devoted to his mother, and although he cared for his father he was not nearly as close to him as he was to his mother. JACK was inconsolable for several weeks after the death of his mother. Sometime during his young manhood, JACK RUBY went to San Francisco, California, where he was engaged in a punch board business. He told her that in San Francisco he met the only girl other than herself whom he would ever consider marrying. This girl's name was VIRGINIA FITZGERALD or FITZSIMMONS. She does not know if RUBY has ever maintained any kind of contact or correspondence with VIRGINIA. She does not know how long he remained in San Francisco, California. After he returned from San Francisco to Chicago, sometime in the late 1930's, he worked for a labor union in Chicago and was associated in this work with one LEON (LNU). LEON was later killed. JACK adopted the name LEON for his middle name, in honor of this person. During World War II, RUBY was in the United States Air Force and worked as a ground crewman on an aircraft. Shortly after the war when he was discharged from the Air Force, he went into business with two or three of his brothers in a firm called the Advertising Specialities Company in Chicago, Illinois. He remained in this business for only a short time and then sold out his interest in the company to his brothers. At that time his sister, EVA, was living in Dallas, Texas, and was operating a night club in Dallas. She apparently had some trouble in the management of this club, and JACK RUBY came to Dallas from Chicago, investing money in the club, and they started operating the club together. She believes that this club, name unknown to her, was re-named the Silver Spur Club after JACK RUBY became associated with it.

ALICE REAVES NICHOLS furnished the following information with regard to friends and acquaintances of JACK RUBY which she can recall:

MARTIN GIMPLE: Lifelong friend of RUBY who was originally from Chicago, Illinois, and who was associated with RUBY for a short time in the operation of the Silver Spur Club. GIMPLE is now deceased. B. 12-17-1899

RALPH PAUL: Raphael Paul A friend of RUBY of many years standing. PAUL loaned RUBY $2,500.00 which enabled RUBY to purchase the Club Vegas in Dallas, Texas. PAUL now has the Bull Pen Drive-In Restaurant in Arlington, Texas. PAUL and RUBY apparently first became acquainted through PAUL's patronage of the Silver Spur Club in Dallas, which RUBY operated. PAUL did not have any financial interest in the Club Vegas or any other business of RUBY's as a result of having loaned him money. He took a note instead as evidence of this debt owed by JACK RUBY. or 12-17-1904 B. Kiev, Russia

CECIL and JEAN HAMLIN, husband and wife: These people were friends of JACK RUBY beginning shortly after he arrived in Dallas, Texas, from Chicago, Illinois, and bought into the Silver Spur Club. They occasionally helped him with the Silver Spur when he needed extra help for a special occasion. Their present whereabouts are unknown, but CECIL HAMLIN is believed to be associated with a meat cutter's union or a baker's union in Dallas, Texas. Copeland Rest Arlington, Texas NFI

"LITTLE DADDY" NELSON: This man is a Negro entertainer. Dancing and drumming in a band are his specialities. JACK RUBY managed NELSON for a short time in about 1956, and on one occasion took him to Chicago, Illinois, where he secured a job for NELSON in a night club. This job lasted for about one month or six weeks after which RUBY and NELSON returned to Dallas, Texas.

NED WEISBROD and SAM LASSEN: These men are originally from Chicago, Illinois, and it is believed their families have been known to JACK RUBY for many years. WEISBROD and LASSEN have been around Dallas, Texas, for several years in the selling business. They were last known to be selling sporting goods, boats and other items of that nature. They frequented the Silver Spur Bar while JACK RUBY operated it. They were also habitues of the Club Vegas which was operated by RUBY.

ADRIAN HIGH: This man was from Tulsa, Oklahoma, and was in the oil business. He allegedly has a brother-in-law in Chicago, Illinois, who is very wealthy and who formerly owned a night club called the Chez Paree. This club is now closed. HIGH was friendly with JACK RUBY while RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club and also while he operated the Club Vegas. HIGH was a contemporary in association with RUBY of NED WEISBROD and SAM LASSEN.

JACK RUBY does not have any enemies of any importance to her knowledge. The only person she ever heard him express any animosity toward was the man who took over the operation of the Bob Wills Ranch House Club in Dallas when RUBY lost that club. RUBY told her that he considered this man to be unfair in his dealings and believed he had unfairly influenced O. L. NELMS, the owner of the property on which that club was located. This unfair influence was exerted in getting JACK RUBY out of business there.

AS,PLS:mam

She always got the impression that JACK RUBY was well liked by his employees and by the customers and other people with whom he had contact in the operation of his various night clubs. He was generous with his employees and would help them and other people financially whenever they were in need of help. She does not believe that such financial assistance ever amounted to a great deal of money in any individual situation, but he was always ready to come to someone's assistance.

During the time she associated with him, she never received the impression that JACK RUBY was afraid of anyone or anything. She never received any impression that JACK RUBY had any criminal or underworld connections either in Dallas, Texas, or Chicago, Illinois. He never expressed any fear for his well being or safety and never gave her any indication through his conversations that he had any worries, with the possible exception of his standing with the Federal Internal Revenue Service. He sometimes expressed concern about how much money he owed in taxes.

RUBY gave her the impression that he was not a very good business man. She got this impression from the fact that when he would open a club he would operate it until it was doing good business and then would turn his attention to expansion. She does not believe this is a sound business practice, in that a person should build his business on a solid foundation before he undertakes a new business.

She characterized JACK RUBY as a gregarious, openhanded extrovert, and there was nothing mysterious or conspiratorial in his personality makeup. He has a quick temper and on occasion can become physically violent on very short notice. However, he forgets such outbursts quickly, and his temper "cools off" quickly. She has never known him to harbor a grudge against anyone, with the possible exception of the person mentioned above who took over the management of the Bob Wills Ranch House Club.

While she knew him and associated with him, he dated other women on occasions, and on occasions she dated other men. JACK RUBY was not a woman-chaser, and she knows of no prostitutes or even promiscuous women with whom JACK RUBY was ever associated. She believes that there was a limited number of that type person who frequented some of RUBY's night clubs; however, he did not cater to that kind of trade, and she does not suppose that there were any more of those people frequenting his clubs than frequent other clubs in Dallas.

Over the years, JACK RUBY has lived in several different locations in Dallas, Texas, most of these being apartment houses. He has sometimes lived alone, sometimes living with his sister, EVA, and sometimes had a male roommate.

JACK RUBY's social and sexual habits and activities were normal, and she has never received any impression, indication or information to indicate that JACK RUBY has any homosexual tendencies.

While she associated with him, JACK RUBY gambled on occasions, and this is one of the principal reasons she never seriously considered marrying him. She does not believe he gambled in any large amounts of money, and that he confined the gambling activities to card games. He never discussed his gambling activities or preferences with her. The only club operated by JACK RUBY where any gamblers hung out was the Club Vegas. She recalled that one (FNU) MC WILLIE and one JOHNNY ROSS, who were both gamblers, frequented the Club Vegas. She does not believe, however, that these men had any close friendship or acquaintance with JACK RUBY. When RUBY wanted to gamble he usually went to the Artists' Club on St. Paul Street, Dallas, and played in a card game which went on there. The Artists' Club is now closed.

She has never known JACK RUBY to owe any gambling debt or to have any gambling debt owed to him.

From time to time RUBY employed off-duty policemen for security in the night clubs which he operated. He did not allow rowdyism of any sort in his clubs, and she has seen him, on a few occasions, forcibly remove rowdy people from the premises of his clubs. On one occasion while removing such a person, the person bit RUBY on one of his fingers and consequently a part of the finger had to be amputated.

JACK RUBY is a healthy physical specimen and keeps himself in good shape at all times. He worked out regularly at the YMCA in Dallas and particularly enjoyed swimming.

Other forms of recreation enjoyed by JACK RUBY were dinner dates, motion pictures and legitimate theater. He is a sports fan and particularly likes boxing. Whenever they did date they would engage in one of those activities.

RUBY never mentioned to her having had any trouble with any individual, group or organization in Chicago, Illinois, or Dallas, Texas. He would go to Chicago, Illinois, on an average of once a year. He always had a specific reason for going to Chicago, such as an illness in the family or a visit. She never knew of any business connection or business reason for his travel to Chicago, Illinois.

During the time she associated with JACK RUBY she would see him on an average of two times per week. JACK often told her that she was too good for him or that he was not good enough for her; however, he would never tell her why he was making such a statement. He always treated her well, and the only difficulties he had in his personal relationships with other people occurred with employees of the various night clubs which he operated.

RUBY appeared to be interested only casually in politics and did not appear to have any strong or definite political party affiliation. She never heard him discuss any particular political issues. She never heard him express any particular like or dislike for any political figure, party or philosophy.

She described him as being a highly emotional man, but she does not believe JACK RUBY is neurotic. She said he is religious and is very proud of his Jewish background and heritage. RUBY attends the Temple Emanuel in Dallas where the Rabbi is GERALD KLEIN and the Temple Shearith Israel, which is located on Douglas Street, Dallas, where the Rabbi is HILLEL SILVERMAN. RUBY does not speak Hebrew or Yiddish languages, and she does not believe he has any knowledge of any other foreign languages.

She advised that she was extremely shocked when she heard that JACK RUBY had shot and killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she could think of no reason or explanation for this crime. She said she considered it almost unbelievable that JACK RUBY would be capable of such an act, and after having thought much about it she still cannot understand how this came about.

ALICE REAVES NICHOLS was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She advised that OSWALD is unknown to her, and she does not believe she has ever seen him. She advised further that she does not recall anyone of his likeness or description having been associated with or acquainted with JACK RUBY during the time she associated with RUBY.

James E. Dunne

JAMES E. DUNNE II, 21 Indian Hills Trail, Louisville, Ky. advised he first met JACK RUBY in the summer of 1953 on a visit to Dallas. RUBY was then proprietor of the Vegas Club and a club with "Silver" in its name. DUNNE visited clubs as a customer. In 1954, DUNNE moved to Dallas, Tex. operating a lounge known as the Ritz Bar in 1955 and 1956. DUNNE has been in and out of Dallas since that time. His main interest is insurance. He was never a close associate of RUBY but came to know him as a "Guy you see around town". He would see RUBY in the business section of town and in various night spots. RUBY spoke to everyone and everyone knew RUBY.

In the late fall of 1959, DUNNE loaned JOE SLAYTON, a friend in Dallas, approximately $5,000 which SLAYTON was going to use to establish a private club in downtown Dallas. As preparations were being made to open this club, Dallas newspapers blasted private clubs as a result of gambling at one private club. SLAYTON felt that private clubs were in disrepute, that success of the club was doubtful, and that more capital would be needed. JACK RUBY had looked at the club during the time it was being decorated and equipped and expressed an interest in the club. As a result, JOE SLAYTON took RUBY in as a partner.

The club opened as the Soverign Club in January or February, 1960, to the best of DUNNE's recollection. It was not a success. SLAYTON, with DUNNE's consent, got out of the club, letting RUBY have the entire operation. DUNNE received nothing on his loan to SLAYTON. RUBY later changed it to a public club with strip tease acts and changed the name to the Carousel. DUNNE is of the opinion that RUBY put up $10,000 initially, and SLAYTON indicated that RUBY lost $5 to $10,000 in operation before he made it a public club.

DUNNE indicated that he frequented the Soverign Club during the period when SLAYTON was associated with the club which was only about a month and a half after it opened. He saw more of RUBY during this time than before or after.

DUNNE stated that he had no part in the management of the club.

RUBY impressed DUNNE as a man who came from very poor circumstances. He had a great inferiority complex and wanted to better himself. The Soverign Club, DUNNE believed, impressed RUBY as a step up from the type of clubs he had been operating. RUBY had a great respect for authority and for success as exemplified by a bankroll and good clothes. RUBY was at his worst in a crowd when he would be loud. Alone, he was quiet.

DUNNE noted that RUBY's treatment of policemen at his club was not an attempt on his part to buy favors but was merely an indication of his respect for authority. RUBY intimated but never directly stated that he had "Important" connections in Chicago. He dropped names of underworld figures who were mentioned in newspapers. DUNNE stated that he also was acquainted in Chicago although not in the underworld, and that he never found anyone in Chicago who knew RUBY.

RUBY once took periodic trips to Chicago. He would intimate that he had to go to Chicago to see his connections. DUNNE suspects that "RUBY was merely following Jewish custom" of paying his respects to his father.

DUNNE stated RUBY is not as rough as news reports indicate. He would eject any customer from his clubs if the customer was causing trouble and he would protect his interests but he was not aggressive or quarrelsome. To the contrary, he seemed to want everyone to like him.

While RUBY and SLAYTON had the Soverign Club, RUBY had a blue .38 caliber snub-nosed revolver which he carried in his money sack when he carried money. RUBY indicated he feared being robbed, that he had been robbed at one time or threats to rob him had been made, and that he was going to protect himself.

RUBY also intimated that he had had to leave Chicago because he had offended some of "the big boys" but actually, DUNNE believes RUBY was simply not smart enough to make a living in his field in Chicago.

DUNNE indicated he believed RUBY is basically a simple, lonely man who was easily motivated and swayed. He indicated that RUBY was easy to handle in business deals. DUNNE does not believe RUBY was "ribbed" into shooting OSWALD. DUNNE believes rather that RUBY may have been influenced by bitter talk he must have heard from police, plus the attitude evidenced by OSWALD. RUBY may have seen his shooting of OSWALD as the one great act in his life and his one great chance to amount to something.

DUNNE recalls no political comment by RUBY whatsoever. He is certain RUBY had no radical or extremist views. RUBY exhibited such admiration for financial success that he could have had no socialist sympathies whatsoever. DUNNE has no reason to believe RUBY had any connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee or any other organization of a similar character. DUNNE had never heard of OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and has no information as to any prior connection between OSWALD and RUBY.

DUNNE stated he did not know of RUBY's ever having dates with girls but he had never noticed anything which caused him to suspect RUBY of being a homosexual, although DUNNE particularly considered this possibility because RUBY did not seem to have dates with females.

DUNNE knows that the current roommate of RUBY, GEORGE SENATOR, did date girls.

Another associate of RUBY was a man named RALPH, whose last name DUNNE does not recall. This man, probably foreign born, operated a drive-in restaurant at Grand Prairie, Texas. During dealings with SLAYTON regarding the Soverign Club, RUBY indicated he was getting money from a brother in Chicago but DUNNE suspects that RALPH was furnishing RUBY money. RALPH is in his late sixties or seventies.

DUNNE recalled that during the Soverign Club period, RUBY was visited by a man from Miami, Florida, who talked like a millionaire but was apparently broke and who boasted of having operated night clubs in Florida.

RUBY employed a Dallas attorney named KAUFMAN to draw contracts regarding the Soverign Club.

DUNNE knows none of RUBY's relatives. He last saw RUBY about two years ago in Dallas and then only to say hello. DUNNE has never been in the Carousel Club since it has been so named.

GEORGE (NMN) SENATOR was interviewed at the Dallas Police Department and gave the following information:

He has known JACK LEON RUBY for approximately the past eight years, having met him when he (SENATOR) started going to the Vegas Club operated by RUBY on Oak Lawn Avenue in Dallas. He had only casual association with him, mostly only as a patron to his club, from that time on up until approximately three years ago. Thereafter, he considered himself to have been much closer to RUBY, but in this regard could not explain why he considered himself closer during the past three years than the time before that he knew RUBY. He added he occasionally, when low on funds, would be asked by RUBY to come and stay a day or two with him until he got back on his feet, but he claims he never actually lived with him until about November 1, 1963, when he moved into the apartment of RUBY, Apartment 207, 223 South Ewing, Dallas, Texas.

RUBY has never been married and has never shown any special interest in girls. He has never had a steady girl friend.

His employment throughout the time SENATOR has known him has been as a tavern operator. Shortly after SENATOR first met him, RUBY opened the Sovereign Club on the second floor of the building on the southeast corner of Field and Commerce in downtown Dallas. This venture was unsuccessful and about two or two and a half years ago the Sovereign Club was discontinued and the Carousel Club started as a "girlie" show establishment. RUBY had a partner in the operation of the Sovereign Club, but SENATOR is unable to furnish this individual's name. SENATOR can state only that he believes RUBY to be the sole owner and operator of the present Carousel Club.

RUBY actively manages the Carousel Club, although he still, so far as SENATOR knows, owns the Vegas Club. As to the latter, RUBY goes there only periodically to check on the management of the place or to take over occasionally as master of ceremonies.

by Special Agent KENNETH C. HOVE / kch Date dictated 11/24/63

RUBY belongs to no clubs, societies, or organizations of any type and has no "connections" anywhere outside Dallas. He travelled very, very infrequently and spent practically all his time in Dallas, having been here, as SENATOR understands, some 14 or 15 years.

RUBY never expressed any special political preferences and never even discussed political matters sufficiently to give any indication as to whether he might be to the right or to the left in his thinking. SENATOR was of the opinion RUBY, since he is Jewish, feels somewhat the same on things of this type as he (SENATOR) does; i. e., a Jew has no right to express opinions of any sort, especially when he is in business, since he has enough "strikes" against him just being a Jew. In pursuit of this idea, SENATOR was unable to state RUBY was materially affected so far as his personality was concerned, by his position as a member of a minority race.

When it was definitely decided President and Mrs. KENNEDY were going to visit Dallas, RUBY showed no special elation or exuberance and although he evidently thought it was a fine thing the President was coming to Dallas, he gave no indication of having any particularly strong feelings or attachments toward the KENNEDYS, and certainly never had any personal contact, knowledge, or acquaintanceship with them.

RUBY owned a revolver which SENATOR could describe only by saying it was black. This was kept at the Carousel Club, although occasionally RUBY would carry it back and forth between the club and his home because he usually carried a fairly large sum of money on him. SENATOR never had any special discussions concerning this weapon with RUBY, never heard him say he shot it, practiced with it, or had any special reason for having it, except for self-protection. He had no other firearms of any type known to SENATOR.

SENATOR on some occasions would refer to RUBY as a "boy friend" and described him as extremely good-hearted and considerate of others and in this regard SENATOR said RUBY would frequently take some acquaintance or casual friend home to stay with him for a short time because this individual was having a "bit of hard luck". SENATOR has no knowledge that RUBY would be inclined to be vicious or prone to cause physical harm to anyone.

On the morning of November 22, 1963, RUBY was still at the apartment when SENATOR left to go to work. When SENATOR returned to the apartment about 9 or 10 o'clock that evening, RUBY was not there. SENATOR went to bed and was awakened at about 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning of November 23, 1963, by RUBY, upon his (RUBY's) return to the apartment. SENATOR has no accurate idea as to where RUBY had been all day but does know that because of the shooting of the President, RUBY had, as had many businessmen in Dallas, closed his business. SENATOR had some recollection RUBY said he had been at his sister's home for awhile.

RUBY was patently upset and emotionally disturbed by the shooting of the President, gave the appearance of having been weeping, and as a matter of fact, did cry occasionally while he sat and talked with SENATOR about the shooting. SENATOR has no recollection of any special comments made by RUBY other than the shooting "was a terrible thing".

After SENATOR and RUBY talked for awhile in the apartment, they got into a car and came downtown to a coffee shop of the Southland Hotel for a cup of coffee, this being about 4:30 or 5 o'clock on the morning of November 23, 1963. They talked considerably during this time of the shooting and after spending 10 or 15 minutes at the coffee shop, they returned to the apartment on South Ewing and went to bed. SENATOR arose later on the morning of November 23, 1963, and left the apartment between 11 and 1 o'clock, to the best of his recollection, and at this time RUBY was still there. He does not recall any special conversation they had prior to his leaving, although RUBY was still apparently feeling very badly about the killing of the President.

When SENATOR returned to the apartment on the evening of November 23, 1963, RUBY was there. SENATOR describes his condition at that time as "brooding". They talked briefly, but SENATOR has no recollection of what they talked about. Shortly thereafter, RUBY left to "go down and see how things are at the club", although the club was closed. SENATOR went to bed and does not know when RUBY came in.

RUBY and SENATOR arose on November 24 and SENATOR noticed RUBY had brought one of four dogs which he ordinarily keeps at the Carousel Club home with him. At about 10:30 a.m., RUBY left the apartment with the statement he was going to "take the dog to the club". SENATOR denies any knowledge of subsequent activities of RUBY until he heard of his having shot OSWALD.

The only thing, therefore, SENATOR knew RUBY was going to do when he left the apartment was take the dog back down to the club.

At around 11 o'clock on the morning of November 24, 1963, SENATOR left the apartment and went downtown to the Eatwell Restaurant on Main Street to eat. He estimates he arrived there at approximately 11:30 and as he walked in the door he overheard one of the waitresses say OSWALD had been shot. He remembers asking the waitress "Who shot him?" and having the waitress answer she did not know. Shortly thereafter the waitress told SENATOR that OSWALD had been shot by a local tavern operator and a short while after that he learned the name of this individual to be JACK RUBY. He said he was dumbfounded and did not know what to do, but after a short while he went to the telephone and called JIM MARTIN, Gladiolus Street, Dallas, an attorney whom he knew. He said this attorney was not at home, so he got into his car and drove to the attorney's house to wait for his return. When he arrived there the attorney was present and had also learned JACK RUBY had been involved in the shooting of OSWALD. The attorney and SENATOR then proceeded to the City Jail to see what, if anything, they could do in connection with the situation.

SENATOR never saw RUBY so emotionally disturbed and upset by anything during the time he knew him as RUBY was by the killing of the President. SENATOR does not know why this had such an intense effect on RUBY since he had never heard RUBY make any remarks in the past which would indicate any closer feeling for the KENNEDYS than RUBY had for anyone else who might have been President of the United States. SENATOR was unable to give any reason for RUBY's killing of OSWALD other than to say "He must have thought an awful lot of President KENNEDY".

SENATOR helped out occasionally around the Carousel Club and occasionally visited the Vegas Club, but never knew LEE OSWALD and has no knowledge LEE OSWALD ever visited either of these places. In the many discussions with RUBY following the shooting of President KENNEDY, no mention was made of OSWALD's name at any time and RUBY gave no indication of having any knowledge of or acquaintanceship with OSWALD. He never heard RUBY say OSWALD had ever visited either one of the clubs in which RUBY was interested. There was nothing which happened between the shooting of President KENNEDY and RUBY's shooting of OSWALD which gave SENATOR any inkling RUBY had in mind the shooting of OSWALD when he left the apartment on the morning of November 24, 1963, or anytime prior to that. He is unable to state when RUBY's intention to shoot OSWALD might have been formulated. At no time when they were discussing the killing of KENNEDY did RUBY ever make any remark he thought someone should shoot OSWALD or anything special should happen to OSWALD, other than he be tried and given what he deserved.

SENATOR has no knowledge of RUBY's having had any confederates or confidants with respect to his action in shooting OSWALD. SENATOR has no reason to believe RUBY did have any confederates or confidants. He is of the opinion RUBY's actions were impulsive and not planned for any great length of time prior to their execution.

SENATOR believes most of RUBY's family lived in Chicago but, as earlier stated, he has no knowledge RUBY has any connection there or any other place in the United States in any kind of business way, legal or illegal. RUBY has a sister in Dallas, EVA GRANT, who is either divorced from her husband or a widow. SENATOR does not know the address of EVA GRANT.

According to SENATOR, at no time during the above chronology, from the shooting of President KENNEDY to the last time SENATOR saw RUBY before the shooting of OSWALD was there any evidence RUBY was under the influence of alcohol or narcotics. To SENATOR's knowledge, RUBY was a non-user of alcohol and was never known to use narcotics of any kind. SENATOR denied any knowledge of any mental disorder of any kind in RUBY's history.

MR. THOMAS STEWART PALMER, 2728 West Davis, telephone FE 1-3746, employed as branch manager, American Guild Variety Artists, Inc. (AGVA), 1500 Jackson Street, telephone RI 2-8292, voluntarily appeared at the Dallas Office and furnished the following information:

MR. PALMER has been branch manager of AGVA at Dallas since May, 1962. He was preceded in this position by JACK CONRAD BROWN who uses the stage name of ALTON SHARPE, who performs as a magician. BROWN currently resides at 1422 Sedgewick, Chicago, Ill. and was branch manager of AGVA, Chicago Branch, from May 1962 until approximately November 21, 1963. BROWN is also a cousin of WILMA E. HUGHES, Secretary AGVA, Dallas.

PALMER advised that at approximately 9 a.m. on November 24, 1963, MRS. HUGHES telephonically advised him she had just talked by telephone to JACK CONRAD BROWN who had asked her to contact PALMER and ask PALMER to deliver a message to JACK RUBY in Dallas. PALMER advised as nearly as he can recall, the exact request which he received was "tell JACK not to send the letter today, it would be awkward in Chicago"

PALMER advised he does not know the significance, if any, of this message and stated the most logical purpose for the message is that JACK CONRAD BROWN was discharged or suspended from his position as branch manager of AGVA in Chicago on about Thursday, November 21, 1963, and the letter referred to in this message may well be a letter which JACK RUBY may have offered to write to other officials of AGVA in behalf of JACK BROWN to petition AGVA to reinstate BROWN.

PALMER advised that in any event, regardless of the purpose, he did not contact and had no intention of contacting JACK RUBY to deliver this message.

He advised following the later incidents which occurred on November 24, 1963, he felt it advisable to contact the FBI and to report his receipt of the request to convey the above message to RUBY.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

He advised JACK CONRAD BROWN is a former resident of Dallas and it is his impression he was employed by the Veterans Administration in Dallas until about three years ago when he perfected a magician's act and became associated with AGVA.

He said he has known JACK RUBY for approximately one and one-half years as the operator of the Carousel Club and in this connection has had contact with RUBY in supplying performers for the entertainment offered by the Carousel Club. He said he has recently learned but cannot confirm that JACK RUBY is not the owner of the Carousel Club but is instead a front man for RALPH PAUL whom he described as a short-squat, elderly man who "shacks up" with a TAMMI TRUE. He said he does not know, but may be able to locate, the address of TAMMI TRUE in Fort Worth, Texas. He said he does not know if RALPH PAUL is the actual owner of the Carousel Club.

He advised he has heard from JACK RUBY indications that RUBY considers himself "quite a gambler" and a person who "knows all the angles" but in the only incident which he recalls hearing about involving RUBY's gambling activities was from some source which he does not now recall, he heard that on one particular night, date not recalled, RUBY lost $600 in a card game to an individual who had "shaded" a deck on RUBY and that RUBY was "not even smart enough to know it".

He advised JACK RUBY has a sister named EVE, whose last name is not known by him, who owns or operates the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn Avenue. He remembers one incident possibly six months or a year ago in which JACK RUBY had a disagreement with EVE in which he struck her or slapped her around. He does not remember the reason for this difference but he feels sure it was over money matters.

He advised the only known associates of JACK RUBY are associated with him in the operation of the Carousel Club, these being RALPH PAUL, previously mentioned; GEORGE SENATUR, a roommate of RUBY's who is employed as a doorman at the Carousel Club; and a "colored boy" whose name he cannot recall, but who tends bar at the Carousel Club and upon whom RUBY depends for administrative assistance in managing the business of the club.

He said he knows of no close association of RUBY with any law enforcement officer but he does know that RUBY has often boasted of his contacts at City Hall, as well as his contacts all over the country.

He said he does recall one incident in which RUBY was involved in a fight at the Burgundy Room at the Adolphus Hotel in which the other party in the fight was taken to the hospital and RUBY was taken to jail. He said later the same night RUBY was released either on bond or otherwise and after getting released was boasting around town about his contacts and stated "if you ever have any trouble (presumably with law enforcement officers) come to see me."

He said in the one and one-half years that he has known RUBY, he has never seen him with a gun and has never received any indiciation from RUBY that he owned or carried a gun.

He said he had never seen or heard any indication from RUBY of any political interests, either national or in city affairs, displayed or voiced, and had the definite feeling that RUBY had no political preferences whatever and was interested only in whether or not he lost any business or money to his competitors.

He said he has not seen or been in contact with RUBY since Monday night, November 18, 1963, when he went by the Carousel Club to pick up the wages due by RUBY to a performer. He said on this occasion RUBY was extremely cool to him and he could think of no reason for this attitude unless it was because he was there to pick up money.

He said he does not know when RUBY came to Dallas but that RUBY has stated he was formerly a labor organizer in Chicago.

He said RUBY is a peculiar person in that he has done many favors for people who were broke or "down and out" and yet he fears these favors were done primarily to impress these persons that he (RUBY) was a man of considerable influence. He said he considers JACK RUBY to be a "schemer" and that he "never does anything, except to engage in fights,

"without first thinking about it". To his knowledge, RUBY does not confide in anyone and possibly is closer to RALPH PAUL than to anyone else in this area. He said he has heard RUBY mention that he "is RALPH's boy" and that RALPH would like to have him as a son.

He said he has never seen anyone associated with the Carousel Club during his connection with AGVA whom he would consider as a "thug", except that about one year ago an alleged friend of RUBY from Chicago worked for about one week as a doorman and that he considered this fellow to be "a real sharpy". He said he does not remember this man's name but does recall that RUBY said he was a nice guy who was temporarily out of work.

PALMER advised he knows of no reason and can find no logic in the shooting of LEE OSWALD by JACK RUBY on November 24, 1963. He said he has never seen or heard of OSWALD prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and the ensuing publicity and knows of no association or acquaintances between OSWALD and RUBY.

PALMER advised it is inconceivable to him that JACK RUBY would shoot anyone as a result of any grief which he might feel as a result of the assassination of President KENNEDY since he feels it is not in keeping with the character of RUBY to have or to express any strong feelings in this regard, but that any strong feelings elicited from RUBY usually dealt with the question of whether someone tried to "chisel him out of money".

PALMER advised in the event he secures any additional information which may be helpful in this matter, he will gladly furnish it to this office.

TONY ZOPPI, a columnist for the Dallas Morning News, writes a daily column on entertainment life in the Dallas, Texas area with emphasis on amusement spots and night clubs.

ZOPPI has known JACK LEON RUBY, also known as Jack Rubenstein, for approximately 12 years. He stated RUBY first came to Dallas from Chicago, Illinois. ZOPPI is of the opinion that he was using the name, JACK RUBY, upon his arrival in Dallas.

ZOPPI stated RUBY at first associated with the Plantation Club where he would appear nightly dressed in a cowboy outfit and would at times act as Master of Ceremonies and came to be known as "the Chicago Cowboy".

After approximately one year RUBY obtained the Vegas Club and still owns this club which is allegedly managed by his sister, EVA GRAND or EVA GRANT.

In addition to the ownership of the Vegas Club, RUBY also now operates the Carousel Club, but has requested ZOPPI not to refer to him as the owner of the Carousel Club.

Recently ZOPPI stated that RUBY informed him, "Business is good and I have moved into a prestige apartment." RUBY's roommate is GEORGE SENATOR (who was picked up for questioning by the Dallas Police Department on the afternoon of November 24, 1963).

For approximately the past two years RUBY allegedly has been going with a Dallas girl (name unknown to ZOPPI).

ZOPPI "has heard rumors" as to the possibility of RUBY being a homosexual, but has no definite information on this.

ZOPPI described RUBY as "highly emotional" and stated that he could change from one mood to another instantly and when in an angry mood "would not reason".

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ZOPPI stated that RUBY had employed a Master of Ceremonies by the name of WALLY WESTON, with whom he had had a disagreement and presumably WESTON had left as a result of this disagreement. WESTON is presently believed to be in Louisville, Kentucky working in some club as a Master of Ceremonies.

ZOPPI also stated that "he believed" that IRVING MAZZIE, District Director of the AGVA, Los Angeles telephone number 2137661193 (up until three weeks ago when he was fired) to have information concerning RUBY.

ZOPPI stated that in his opinion RUBY had no political beliefs one way or another, and in his opinion was strictly a character out of "Guys and Dolls".

ZOPPI further informed that in his opinion RUBY was not the type of individual who would plan an act such as the shooting of LEE OSWALD, but was capable of doing such an act on the spur of the moment.

ZOPPI stated that he knows from recent conversations with RUBY that RUBY had been very concerned about the KENNEDY children, CAROLINE and JOHN, JR., and his sister, EVA GRAND or GRANT, allegedly had made the statement "someone ought to shoot him", refering to OSWALD.

ZOPPI also stated that he believed RALPH PAUL, age approximately 65, who formerly ran the Miramar Motel and now resides in either Irving or Grand Prairie, Texas, was, to some extent, financial backer of RUBY.

ZOPPI concluded that JACK RUBY was 52 years of age, single, and had recently had an argument with a night club stripper, JADA, who had gone to the Justice of the Peace Court in Dallas, Texas and through this court obtained her last week's salary which RUBY had refused to pay her because of her failure to show up for one night's work.

Sergeant JERRY HILL, Personnel Office, Dallas Police Department, advised that he became acquainted with JACK RUBY approximately ten years ago when he, HILL, was employed as an amusement writer for the Dallas Times Herald, and he advised RUBY ran the Silver Spur, also known as the Patti Club on South Ervay. He stated he had no close contact with RUBY for the first few years and became more closely acquainted with RUBY when he opened the Carousel Club on Commerce Street in Dallas, and he, HILL, was assigned duty in the downtown district. He stated that he recalled shortly after RUBY opened the Carousel Club he employed three Turkish dancers whose appearances only lasted two days. He stated the dancers were taken into custody and deported by immigration officials. He stated that he recalled having talked with EARL NORMAN, a former master of ceremonies for RUBY, who stated that one time the question on the Mississippi integration problems was being discussed and that RUBY expressed his opinion that any decisions which were made by the United States Government should be abided by and that anyone who opposed the government or took the law into their own hands was wrong.

HILL stated that RUBY is a man with a violent temper which he has often let explode toward patrons of the business and employees at the club. He said he only recalled one incident where RUBY ever used firearms. A man by the name of JOE BONDS a night club owner and known to be associated with lewd parties and homosexual acts, became engaged in a quarrel with JACK RUBY. He stated this involved the purchase of some air compressors and during the quarrel which ensued, RUBY got a pistol from the club and chased BONDS down an alley shooting at him two or three times but not hitting him. He stated as he recalls this was approximately nine years ago and was shortly before HILL became a policeman.

HILL stated that he was not present at the shooting by RUBY of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as he was in San Antonio, Texas, attending the Texas Municipal Police Officers Convention. He stated that upon returning to Dallas at about 6:30 p.m. on November 24, 1963, he began inquiring among members of his department and ascertained that two detectives, R. L. LOWERY and W. J. CUTSCHAW, both of the Juvenile Department, were present at the time of the shooting of OSWALD by RUBY. He stated that they related that just before the shooting, a television camera for Channel 5 was tipped over while being brought to the scene where OSWALD was shot. He stated that LOWERY and CUTSCHAW stated they recalled three men pushing the camera through a doorway leading into the basement area through which OSWALD was to be escorted. He stated that at approximately the same time RUBY dashed from the front and to the left of OSWALD and fired the fatal shot. He stated that Detectives LOWERY and CUTSCHAW recalled glancing in the direction of the camera for Channel 5 and noted that there were only two individuals with the camera at that time. He stated that they were of the opinion that possibly RUBY was one of the individuals who had accompanied the camera into the area and had made his move from this position. He said that he had contacted a man by the name of TIMMON (First Name Unknown), the sound engineer for the Channel 5 camera, who told him that the other individual assigned to the camera with him was one JOHN ALEXANDER and that he, TIMMON, recalled no other individual assisting them in placing the camera in the location before the fatal shot. TIMMON said it was very possible that someone else was present and immediately behind them. He stated that he had not had an opportunity to speak with ALEXANDER.

HILL said that not being present at the time of the incident, he would not know what security measures had been taken for the protection of OSWALD.

HILL said that he recalled a girl by the name of VINNIE (Last Name Unknown), who works at the Colony Club and was beat up by RUBY a few months ago. In talking to her, she had mentioned a girl by the name of ALICE who lived in North Dallas with whom RUBY had resided for a time. He stated he had further determined that this was not the ALICE who used to work at RUBY's club. HILL said he had been transferred from the downtown section to the Personnel Section of the Police Department in October of this year and had not seen RUBY since that time. He described RUBY as a person of many moods; an individual who could be very congenial or one who could explode in a moment's notice and seemingly without provocation. He said the first time he met RUBY after his Egyptian act had been broken up he had talked with him and RUBY had told him of the hard time he had getting started in Dallas after coming from Chicago. He said RUBY related that he was born and raised in a tough neighborhood where a person had to get along by fighting at an early age.

HILL said that he knew of no hoodlums with whom RUBY associated and knew of him to have no top hoodlum connections. He said he had no indication that RUBY was a homosexual. He did recall, however, that RUBY resides with a GEORGE SENATOR, a man of questionable reputation. He advised that SENATOR, in his opinion, would do anything for a dollar and always had some type of a gimmick which he was trying to operate to fleece the public. He stated that SENATOR worked for RUBY as a ticket taker and general assistant around his night club. He advised that he had never heard of any intimacies between RUBY and SENATOR; however, he considered this a possibility since learning that RUBY and SENATOR resided together. He stated he heard that RUBY had a silent partner by the name of RALPH PAUL who retained RUBY's present attorney after the shooting of OSWALD. He said he had never heard of RUBY giving gratuities to any officer other than the fact that he would let officers and close friends come into his club without paying the cover charge. He said that it is his opinion that RUBY is an individual who would do anything to gain public recognition. He offered as an example the fact that RUBY's business had been closed by authorities for three days sometime ago and that RUBY had published this in the paper apparently to gain publicity. He said that his association with JACK RUBY consisted strictly of contacts with RUBY on business matters.

WELDON MORGAN, 1837 North Grammercy Place, advised he has resided in Dallas, Texas for the past 25 years, having moved here in April of 1963. He stated that he is presently employed by the Financial Indemnity Company as a Claims Adjustor. He previously was employed by the Texas Insurance Claims Service at 722 North Pearl, Dallas, Texas.

He advised that he has known JACK RUBY since late 1959 or early 1960. He stated that he first met RUBY at the Vegas Club and became acquainted with him through this club. He stated that the Vegas Club in Dallas is a rock and roll dance hall, and that after the other clubs closed, the Vegas Club stayed open until three o'clock in the morning. He described RUBY as an individual who dresses very neatly, considers himself as a ladies' man, and a very meticulous individual. He stated he recalls RUBY used to search his patrons as they came in after midnight. He stated that RUBY did this to prevent individuals from bringing a bottle into the club.

He advised that he recalls on one occasion, RUBY called him and wanted him to come to the club and speak to one of his strippers who had recently had an automobile accident. He advised that he spoke to this stripper, and recommended that she contact an attorney if she was not satisfied with the settlement that the insurance adjustor offered her.

He stated that during the period of time that he knew RUBY, that he has never observed him in custody of any police officials. He is not familiar with the political beliefs of RUBY. He did comment that there appeared to be an unusual amount of petty criminals hanging around the Vegas Club.

He could offer no further information.

NORMAN N. WEISBROD, Partner, Mode Imports, 114 Parkhouse, residence 4500 Cedar Springs, advised he became acquainted with JACK RUBY during about 1948 or 1949, at which time RUBY operated the Silver Spur Lounge or night club in the 1700 block of South Ervay Street. WEISBROD advised he originally came from Chicago, Illinois and while he did not know JACK RUBY in Chicago, a mutual friend, just whom he does not immediately recall, advised him that JACK RUBY operated a night spot in Dallas, that he was having a hard time financially, and that WEISBROD should "stop by and give him some business". He advised at this time he was a traveling salesman, was a bachelor, and was in Dallas only on weekends.

Several months later while residing at the Ambassador Hotel, 1312 South Ervay, he decided that he and his roommate and business associate, SAM LASSER, would stop by this night club.

WEISBROD stated on this first visit to the Silver Spur, he met JACK RUBY and thereafter spent considerable time during the weekends when he was in Dallas at the Silver Spur because it was lively and always had lots of girls.

He advised JACK RUBY is an extrovert, is flamboyant, wanted to be friends with everyone, and eventually during about 1949 or 1950 when RUBY bought or obtained the night club in the industrial area known at that time as Bob Will's Ranch House, he offered WEISBROD and LASSER the opportunity to operate the concessions (popcorn, photographs, etc.). He advised that almost immediately after having made this offer to him, RUBY attempted to renege on this offer, but that HY FADER, who had apparently furnished the capital with which RUBY purchased the Ranch House, made RUBY stick with his promise that WEISBROD and LASSER be allowed to operate the concession. He stated because of this conflict, RUBY treated them very cooly and that this business association with RUBY lasted for about one year or less.

by Special Agent S ALFRED C. ELLINGTON & GARY S. WILSON/jt Date dictated 11/25/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your [illegible] it and its contents are not to be distributed outside [illegible].

WEISBROD advised that during this period he became convinced that RUBY was "crazy" in that he purchased western clothing, attempting to act as a Master of Ceremonies, got up on the stage and attempted to entertain the customers with a guitar, and otherwise attempted to imitate the former owner. He characterized RUBY as wanting more than anything else to be in the movies and stated RUBY seeks to always be in the spotlight and stated further he was a "show off" and a "Damon Runyan type character".

He advised he has never known RUBY to discuss politics and while he has had no contact with him during the past several years (he estimated he has seen RUBY five times in the past five years), he felt certain that RUBY has no political interest and has no subversive qualities or associations.

He said RUBY has always operated night clubs, and once had a lounge called Hernando's Hideaway which was located on Greenville Avenue, however, he does not recall specifically the period in which he operated this club.

WEISBROD advised he knows that JACK RUBY has a brother named SAM whom he believes also uses the name "RUBY", who resides near the Preston Forest Shopping Center in Dallas, and he does not believe that JACK RUBY "gets along" with this brother. He also knows that RUBY has a sister named EVA who manages or operates the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn Avenue, but he does not know her last name.

WEISBROD stated during the period when he first became acquainted with JACK RUBY, and during the period in which he spent considerable time at the Silver Spur Lounge, he knew one ADRIAN HIGH, whom he described as a "hanger on" at the Silver Spur who "mooched" drinks. He has not seen ADRIAN HIGH in several years, knows that he came from Chickasha, Oklahoma and that he possibly operates a liquor store in Oklahoma City. He does not feel that HIGH was closely associated with RUBY.

He does not know with whom RUBY may have associated closely within the past several years in view of his lack of contact with him and advised the only persons with whom he is acquainted who also associated with RUBY would have done so several years ago.

He advised RUBY had a girlfriend years ago whose name was ALICE and who was secretary or stenographer for some Dallas attorney whose name he did not know.

He believes RUBY is excitable, highly emotional, and a high-strung individual who acts spontaneously without thinking and who is later filled with deep remorse at having lost his temper. He explained that RUBY was in frequent fights with both patrons and employees during the period of their association, and on one occasion, following a fight he recalls that RUBY was so upset that, while not physically hurt during the fight, he held onto an automobile and vomited uncontrollably.

He advised in view of his former knowledge of RUBY and in view of publicity given by television and newspaper coverage pertaining to the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY on November 24, 1963, he feels it is logical that RUBY committed this crime due to a highly emotional state of mind into which he may have "worked himself".

WEISBROD advised that any rumor which indicates any connection by JACK RUBY with "Chicago gangsters" is, in his opinion, completely fictional and that this same opinion applies to any rumored suggestion that RUBY may have any subversive connections.

He stated he is certain that RUBY's only interest is in connection with the operation of his night club because of the nature of people that it brought him into contact with in show business. He further stated that during the entire time he was acquainted with RUBY that he, RUBY, "wanted to know everyone in town, and wanted everyone in town to know him". He explained that he has ridden in an automobile with RUBY on occasions when RUBY was driving during which, without any warning, RUBY would slam on the breakes, get out of the car, and hand a business card to someone on the street or sidewalk and introduce himself and invite that individual to his club.

He stated that RUBY has always appeared to do many favors for many people by giving them money or work, but that his own feeling is that RUBY always "had an angle" and that by these gestures RUBY hoped to ingratiate himself with the people whom he helped.

WEISBROD emphasized that he has had no current contacts with JACK RUBY and that his appraisal of RUBY is based on his acquaintance with him several years ago.

Mrs. PAULINE HALL, 1606 Pratt, Apartment 6, advised she has been acquainted with JACK RUBY for approximately 6 years. She stated she has worked for JACK RUBY and EVE GRANT, his sister on infrequent occasions over that period of time. Mrs. HALL said she is probably as close a friend as EVE GRANT has. She said her employment with them would have been mostly on weekends when, for reason or another, they needed her to help them.

Mrs. HALL pointed out that work has been quite infrequent and said she had seen very little of JACK RUBY during the past six years. She pointed out, however, that Mrs. GRANT had an operation on approximately November 6, 1963, and that she, Mrs. HALL, took over the operation of the Vegas Club, 3508 Oaklawn, until Mrs. GRANT recovered.

Mrs. HALL said since November 6, 1963, she has seen JACK RUBY more frequently and estimated she has seen him approximately three times a week since, November 6, 1963.

She said RUBY has been coming by the club since November 6, 1963, and would "MC" floor shows on Friday and Saturday nights at the Vegas Club. Mrs. HALL said she last saw JACK RUBY on the Thursday night before the President's assassination on Friday, November 22, 1963. She stated she has not seen him since that time.

Mrs. HALL, who had been present during the interview with Mrs. GRANT at Mrs. GRANT's request, said that she had talked with Mrs. GRANT on Friday and Saturday, November 22 and 23, 1963. She informed that Mrs. GRANT furnished her the same information on Friday and Saturday that she furnished to the interviewing Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents when Mrs. GRANT was interviewed.

Mrs. HALL said she never discussed political matters with JACK RUBY and did not know what his thinking was regarding political matters. She did state she never received any indication he had any foreign or communistic sympathy.

She advised that although she cannot swear that JACK RUBY did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she is positive that he never saw OSWALD before the assassination. She was most emphatic in this statement, although she admitted she could not definitely state he was not associated with OSWALD. She stated JACK RUBY is a highly emotional person and is almost as emotional as EVE GRANT, his sister. Mrs. HALL said that if RUBY hates a person he "really hates him", but "if he likes you, he will give you the shirt off his back." She stated it is a generally accepted fact among his acquaintances that on many occasions RUBY would start out with considerably money to pay bills but would end up being unable to pay them because he would give away about $100.00 a day to persons he felt were needy.

Mrs. HALL advised she never saw JACK RUBY with a gun but that he often carries money.

Mrs. HALL was questioned regarding an individual named "LARRY" who Mrs. GRANT had stated was with RUBY between the time of the President's assassination and the time RUBY allegedly shot OSWALD. She said she had talked with "LARRY" over the telephone on one or two occasions, and had seen him on approximately two occasions for a short period of time.

She said it is her understanding "LARRY' took $5.00 either from one of the businesses or from RUBY and left. She stated this apparently was Saturday morning, November 23, 1963.

She described him as being approximately 23-24 years, white male, 5'10", 155 pounds, brown hair and with no front teeth. She said he was "creepy" and, in effect, "looked like a bum."

Hammond, Jr.

Mrs. HARRY B. (SUE) HAMMOND, Jr., 1245 Selva Drive, advised she formerly operated Sue's Used Car Lot at 3400 Live Oak Street, Dallas, Texas from approximately 1951 through 1956.

Prior to forming the above business, HAMMOND stated she worked for a period of time as a secretary in the Loan Department of the Texas Bank and Trust Company, Dallas, Texas. During this period of time, she met JACK RUBY who was a customer of the bank. She stated in addition to her employment with the bank, she had a part-time job at the Tower Theater (a motion picture theater) in downtown Dallas as a clerk at the candy counter in the lobby of the theater. She had, subsequent to her initial meeting with RUBY, seen him periodically in the theater on occasions when he would patronize same. She emphasized these meetings with RUBY were only casual and that no close friendship ever existed and that she has never been in his company socially or otherwise.

In approximately 1955 or 1956 she started dancing lessons at an unrecalled dance studio in Dallas. As a promotional gimic, this studio put on free dance shows every Sunday evening at the Club Vegas located on Oak Lawn Avenue, which club was operated by JACK RUBY. She said although she was not a performer in these shows, she did attend them as a spectator and in so doing would see RUBY at the club. She emphasized again such meetings were only casual and no close friendship with RUBY ever arose through such contact.

Subsequent to closing her used car business, HAMMOND stated she secured employment as secretary at the Merchants State Bank, Dallas, Texas, and during such employment had occasion to see RUBY at the bank premises where he was doing business. According to HAMMOND, the last time she ever saw RUBY was while employed in this bank and estimated she has not seen him since about 1958.

HAMMOND stated while she operated Sue's Used Car Lot RUBY was never known by her to have frequented the car lot for any purpose whatsoever.

HAMMOND said the above were the only contacts she has ever had with RUBY and asserted she has no information concerning his reputation, background, associates, or habits. She pointed out, however, she was aware as a result of her casual meetings with him that he was the operator of the Club Vegas in Dallas and more recently operated the Carousel Club located on Commerce Street in Dallas.

HAMMOND volunteered the information that in her operations of Sue's Used Car Lot she employed one RAY BRONDO as her Sales Manager. She said BRONDO was formerly from San Antonio, Texas and it was rumored while in San Antonio BRONDO was known by the name of "Lucky Moran". She described BRONDO as a "wheeler-dealer" whose tactics in his sales operations caused the company considerable financial loss and eventual insolvency. She characterized BRONDO as questionable character and reputation, but was unable to state whether or not BRONDO was known to or otherwise associated with JACK RUBY. She stated BRONDO's whereabouts are unknown to her, although she did recall hearing approximately a year ago that he was then employed by Hine Pontiac in Dallas, Texas.

HAMMOND related during the late 1950's or early 1960's she recalled that one LEO ZAKARIAN, the former brother-in-law of her husband, was approached by JACK RUBY in an effort to interest ZAKARIAN in going into the night club business with him. She was unable to state whether any such business venture was entered into by ZAKARIAN and RUBY. She said ZAKARIAN currently resides at 1818 Whitley, Hollywood 28, California, and it is her understanding he is employed at that location as a clerk by an unknown hotel.

Mrs. WILMA E. HUGHES, Secretary-Representative, American Guild Variety Artists, Inc., (AGVA), 1500 Jackson Street, Dallas, Texas, residence 4413 Cornell Street, Garland, Texas, advised she has been connected with AGVA for a period of a little less than two years. In this capacity she has been acquainted with JACK RUBY, the owner and operator of the Carousel Club inasmuch as AGVA supplies performers for the Carousel Club.

Her contact with RUBY has been on a purely business basis, and she does not recall having ever had a personal conversation with him. In his dealings with her at the AGVA office she has never seen him display any "temper", and she characterized his actions in her office as being gentlemanly and gracious.

She advised she has not seen RUBY for a period of approximately one month, however, has talked with him by telephone possibly ten days ago on which occasion she accepted some message, the nature of which she does not recall, for delivery to TOM PALMER, Branch Manager of AGVA at Dallas.

Brown, who until last week had been more recently employed as the Branch Manager of the Chicago Branch of AGVA. ALTON SHARPE is a cousin of Mrs. HUGHES, and she received a telephone call from him on November 24, 1963, at which time SHARPE advised he had resided in Dallas for several years but was confused by the television publicity given the recent assassination of President KENNEDY in that the reports he had heard described the place of assassination as being at the intersection of Central Expressway and Elm Street. She said his primary purpose as best she can recall in making this call to her was to determine whether the assassination occurred at this intersection inasmuch as he could not recall the building which was described in the publicity given as being located in that vicinity.

During the telephone call from SHARPE and during a period in the call in which Mrs. HUGHES was talking with Mrs. SHARPE, she heard ALTON SHARPE in the background ask his wife to relay a message to Mrs. HUGHES and have her contact JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club and ask him to send a letter to his (SHARPE s) residence rather than to the AGVA office in Chicago inasmuch as SHARPE was no longer employed at the Chicago AGVA Branch. Carl Dolson

CARL A. "PAPPY" DOLSEN, 3930 Shorecrest Drive, Dallas, TEXAS advised he has been acquainted with JACK RUBY, owner and manager of the Carousel Club, Dallas, approximately 15 or 16 years. He said he had been thinking about RUBY killing LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever since he heard the news at noon on this date and he frankly believed RUBY might have committed this act for the publicity angle involved. He stated RUBY is a very hot-tempered individual and will act or fight on the spur of the moment. He said although he has known RUBY for 15 or 16 years, he has never been a close friend of RUBY because he was never able to get along with him very well.

DOLSEN said although he has not seen RUBY frequently during the last few weeks or months, possibly once a week, he has never known of any association between RUBY and OSWALD. He continued he knows RUBY came to Dallas from Chicago about 15 or 16 years ago and although he does not know any detailed information concerning RUBY's background, he had heard, from some unrecalled source, that RUBY had been shot by unidentified individuals for some unknown reason in Chicago and may have left Chicago through fear. DOLSEN advised RUBY may have had a brother living in Chicago before he left there.

DOLSEN advised he has never heard RUBY express any opinions regarding the United States Government or its leaders nor has he heard RUBY engaged in a discussion of politics at any time.

DOLSEN described RUBY as a difficult individual to talk with because of his "flighty" disposition.

He said he has heard that RUBY has a close friendship with many individuals in the Sheriff's Office, the Dallas Police Department, and the Dallas County District Attorney's Office. He continued RUBY has always made a practice of promoting his own interest by making contacts that might be of help to him. He gave as an example the fact RUBY gave free passes to his shows at the Carousel Club to police officers and other officials as well as offering free drinks to many individuals for their patronage.

Without provocation RUBY suddenly attacked these men and beat them severely. He did not know the identity of the individuals nor the reason for this unprovoked attack.

He described RUBY as a very impulsive individual and "when his mind snaps on something, he acts". He constantly has a feeling that he is being abused and has been involved in several disagreements with the American Guild of Variety Artists Union in Dallas.

DOLSEN was unable to furnish the identity of any organizations in which RUBY holds membership, stating he has never known RUBY to join organizations, although he did attempt to join the Variety Club in Dallas about 5 or 6 years ago and his application was turned down.

RUBY is known to TOM PALMER, American Guild of Variety Artists organizer in Dallas.

Mrs. LEONARD REPSKY, nee JUNE LAVERNE GRADY, 626 West 10th, first met JACK RUBY approximately 12 years ago when she was a teen-age usherette at the Tower Theater. She, in company with four companions, visited JACK RUBY's Vegas Club shortly after its opening or while in the preparation of opening. Ruby at this time closed the door and served beer to the five teenagers despite the fact they were minors.

Dallas Texas

Mrs. REPSKY later became a waitress at the B & B restaurant located two doors from the Vegas Club on Oaklawn which was frequented by JACK RUBY. She stated that he would come in in a jovial mood and 30 minutes to an hour later would return in an entirely different mood. On one occasion while she was in the Vegas Club, she was engaged in an argument with her escort. When RUBY passed the booth where they were sitting, RUBY stopped, picked up her boy friend, knocked him to the floor, cursed him, threw him out of the Vegas Club, and forbade his return.

On another occasion Mrs. REPSKY was at the Carousel Club owned by JACK RUBY and stated an elderly couple aged approximately 50, evidently got into an argument but were not making any loud disturbance, when JACK RUBY went over to the table, grabbed the woman by the arm, shook and jostled her to the head of the stairs and then gave her a shove down the stairs. RUBY then turned, knocked the gray-haired, slender, short male escort to the floor in the hallway and repeatedly kicked him.

Mrs. REPSKY stated she considered JACK RUBY to be "mean and violent tempered." She stated also in her opinion she did not feel that his shooting of OSWALD had been prompted by love of the KENNEDY family or anyone else, as she definitely felt him incapable of caring for anyone. She stated she had on occasion heard RUBY talk to his sister "like a dog."

Mrs. REPSKY also stated she had never heard JACK RUBY discuss politics in any way. She stated she did not know whether or not RUBY had known LEE OSWALD before shooting him but in her opinion, after reading of OSWALD since the assassination of the President, "they were two of a kind."

A. D. HODGE, owner of Buckhorn Bar and Trading Post, 217-19 South Ervay, residence 6573 Kenwood, Dallas, Texas, stated that he has known JACK LEON RUBY for over 20 years, that RUBY during that time has been very well known by most of the police officers in the Dallas Police Department, as well as the Sheriff's Office. HODGE stated that prior to seeing a photograph in the newspapers of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he had never known that individual before, nor had he ever heard of him.

Mr. HODGE stated he did not have any information concerning possible associations between OSWALD and RUBY. Mr. HODGE stated that on the evening of November 22, 1963, the same date of the assassination of President KENNEDY, he had been talking to some officers in the Dallas Police Department at their request concerning the assassination weapon, since he is somewhat of a gun collector in the Buckhorn Trading Post, and the Dallas Police Department wanted him to check all of his records concerning the sale of the assassination weapon to OSWALD.

Mr. HODGE stated that the only pertinent thing he wished to mention is that as he was going down on the elevator in the Dallas Police Department, City Hall, the elevator stopped either on the second or third floor, and JACK LEON RUBY got on. He stated that RUBY immediately shook hands with him and asked "Have they arrested you, HODGE?" HODGE stated he took this as a joke, that both laughed, and nothing further was said about it. He did not ask RUBY why he was there, nor did RUBY volunteer, but he thought RUBY was merely there as he was, attempting to assist the Dallas Police Department.

HODGE reiterated that he had no information concerning any connections between RUBY and OSWALD.

JAKE RIFKIN, 869 Faxon, Memphis, Tennessee, a professional gambler, telephonically advised that he, RIFKIN, formerly lived in Dallas, Texas, for a period of twenty years, ending in 1961. In approximately ten years he became casually acquainted with JACK RUBY and subsequently became friendly with him. Seven or eight years ago, RIFKIN underwent an operation at Lisbon Veterans Administration Hospital at Dallas, and at the time of his discharge he was without any money with which to maintain himself. In view of this, JACK RUBY took him in to live with him at RUBY's apartment, the address of which RIFKIN could not recall. He said he remained at this apartment for approximately two months.

According to RIFKIN, he has not seen RUBY since 1961 and had only seen him once or twice during a two or three year period before 1961. He last saw RUBY when RUBY opened a night club known as the Sovereign Club in Dallas.

He said he knew nothing concerning RUBY's parents, relatives or previous life except that RUBY was from Chicago, Illinois.

RIFKIN said he knew nothing of any subversive connections of RUBY. Specifically he knew nothing concerning any activity of RUBY in connection with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

Mr. RIFKIN stated he did not know OSWALD and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He likewise stated he was not aware of any racial or extremist views or activities of RUBY.

Mr. WALLACE R. RASH, President, Truth Verification, Inc., 2818 Maple Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised he has been acquainted with JACK RUEY for approximately twelve years during the time he, RASH, was a motorcycle traffic patrolman for the Dallas Police Department. RASH states RUBY was Manager of the Silver Spur night club on South Ervay Street in Dallas when they first became acquainted. He stated he and other officers occasionally dropped in to visit briefly with RUBY since he was particularly cordial to policemen. He recalled that RUBY and a man by the name of HYMAN FADER went into business together about 1953 at which time they opened what was called the Bob Wills Ranch House, a night club in Dallas, Texas. FADER soon thereafter severed his relationships with RUBY for reasons unknown to RASH. RASH stated not long after that RUBY and a DEWEY GROOM worked together in the operation of a place called the Plantation, at Corinth and Industrial Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, which was also a night club. RASH stated a short time after that RUBY started operating the Vegas Club which is presently still being operated by EVA GRANT, the sister of RUBY. RASH stated during his association with RUBY as a policeman he never heard him discuss politics and did not impress him as being a man of violence. He did say, however, that RUBY occasionally had trouble with some of his patrons which was not unusual in that business. He recalled that RUBY did carry a gun quite frequently because he normally carried a great deal of cash on his person and rarely did he use banking accommodations to take care of his money. RASH stated RUBY cooperated very well with the police and appeared to have no close contacts with elements of the underworld, primarily because in the opinion of RASH, RUBY could have been closed up without much provocation due to the type of business he was in. RASH stated policemen who frequented the establishment were always served without charge. He stated that sometime during the 1950's RUBY had a girl friend named ALICE (LNU) of whom he was very fond and had been engaged. RASH stated he had seen ALICE on occasion and personally knew that she did not work around the night clubs in the city but did not know where she lives or what type of work she may be engaged in. RASH described ALICE as white female, approximately 40 years of age, 5'7", medium build, light brown hair, neat and attractive. He further stated that SAM RUBY (brother of RUBY) or EVA GRANT (sister of RUBY) should know the identity of ALICE and perhaps her present location.

RASH stated RUBY was a man who sought publicity and liked recognition very much. He sought to associate himself with celebrities and frequently gave the appearance of being a "big shot".

RASH stated he terminated his employment with the Dallas Police Department in 1957 and since that time his contacts with RUBY have been extremely infrequent. He stated he is not aware of the present close associates of RUBY and has never known of any possible connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RASH denied ever having been employed for RUBY but stated that he had on a few occasions when business was very heavy helped out behind the bar at one of RUBY's establishments during the time the wife of RASH was employed as a waitress for RUBY. He stated the assassination of OSWALD by RUBY is completely out of character with the image that he had formed of RUBY during their association. RASH could offer no explanation for the actions of RUBY with regard to this event.

Rabbi HILLEL SILVERMAN, residence, 6146 Lupton Drive, Dallas, Texas, stated that he is the Rabbi of the Temple Shearith Israel, located at Walnut Hill and Douglas Streets, Dallas, Texas.

Rabbi SILVERMAN stated he has known JACK RUBY for approximately ten years. He was not closely associated with RUBY until RUBY's father died in 1958. After this time of his father's death, RUBY came to daily services at the synagogue for about eleven days, both day and night, to attend the services.

RUBY, according to Rabbi SILVERMAN, was a very quiet person in the chapel, said his prayers, and left. RUBY, he said, would attend services on special holidays and, after RUBY's father's death, his attendance became very infrequent. Rabbi SILVERMAN advised that RUBY was at the services on Friday night, November 22, 1963, to attend the special memorial service held for the late President KENNEDY. These services were from 8:30 PM to 10:00 PM and, upon greeting those present at the door, Rabbi SILVERMAN met JACK RUBY. At this time, Rabbi SILVERMAN recalls RUBY appeared very emotional, was shaking and crying. RUBY, according to Rabbi SILVERMAN, attended Saturday services, November 23, 1963, 9:00 AM to 12:00 Noon. He considered the attendance of RUBY to be unusual, in view of RUBY's past service record and the fact that RUBY normally attended services only on the high holidays.

Rabbi SILVERMAN said RUBY was a very emotional man, especially towards animals. RUBY would treat dogs like they were children. Rabbi SILVERMAN recalled RUBY was even so sentimental about his pets that he had brought his dog, SHEBA, to week-end services. Another recollection was that RUBY dropped by Rabbi SILVERMAN's one day and had seven dachshund dogs in his automobile. RUBY would not give the dogs away unless he was certain the animals would be well cared for. RUBY had kept his dogs in his apartment and when he left home he would nearly always let the dogs accompany him.

Rabbi SILVERMAN advised that JACK RUBY was a very shallow individual intellectually, in that his background contained little education. Rabbi SILVERMAN considered RUBY an individual who would not know the difference between a communistic philosophy and a totalitarian philosophy, in that he was not well read and, to his knowledge, spent little time concerning himself with this type of information. Rabbi SILVERMAN said he had never had any political conversation with RUBY, as RUBY was not a close follower of political involvements. Rabbi SILVERMAN said RUBY was highly complimentary toward all persons of notoriety or of office, such as police, priests, and elected officials, and liked to surround himself with knowing persons of high esteem in the public eye. To his personal knowledge of JACK RUBY, Rabbi SILVERMAN said RUBY thought the President of the United States was the greatest individual in the world; not because of the President himself, but due to RUBY's respect for the position involved and of his high respect for the American Government. RUBY had often spoken to him of his love for the United States and its people.

Rabbi SILVERMAN said, in his opinion, JACK RUBY is a highly emotional man. To further emphasize this statement, Rabbi SILVERMAN recalled that over the past Jewish Holidays the latter part of September, 1963, EVA GRANT, the sister of RUBY, did not set in church with RUBY during the first of the two-day religious ceremonies. RUBY became very upset emotionally and confided in Rabbi SILVERMAN concerning the fact that his sister did not set with him, inasmuch as RUBY was going with a girl whom his sister, EVA, considered too young for RUBY. EVA, in not approving of this relationship, had caused a scene which ended in a heated argument and, consequently, the sister would not go to church with RUBY. He stated RUBY came to him telling him of this problem and of his opinion that families should be together on such an occasion. RUBY begged Rabbi SILVERMAN to call EVA and ask her to have lunch with RUBY, which he, Rabbi SILVERMAN, did. He stated that, in this manner, he had patched up the quarrel between RUBY and EVA and they attended the rest of the services together. Rabbi SILVERMAN advised he is certain that JACK RUBY has no communist affiliations or beliefs, as RUBY is too proud of being an American and always boasted his patriotism for America. Rabbi SILVERMAN said another reason for this statement is that, in his opinion, RUBY is not a smart man and did not know enough about communism to adopt the communistic ideology. He said RUBY was very sentimental and has, in his words, a nostalgia for certain things. To emphasize this, he said RUBY cried more over the death of former President KENNEDY than RUBY did at the death of his own father.

Rabbi SILVERMAN said he did not know JACK RUBY carried a gun. He advised he heard RUBY carried a gun to protect large amounts of money which he carried on his person, however, could not confirm this information.

Rabbi SILVERMAN advised he did not know RUBY had a male roommate. He thought perhaps RUBY might have a female but not a male roommate. He described RUBY as a man who becomes highly emotional suddenly and will blow up then, when he gains his composure, feels sorry for his actions. This was evident in the occasion with his sister, EVA, during the Jewish Holidays in September.

Rabbi SILVERMAN stated he could not concede that RUBY had committed premeditated murder, based on his previous association with RUBY. He stated that it is his opinion RUBY's decision to shoot OSWALD was a spur of the moment act. He advised RUBY had never confided to him anything which he feels pertinent, other than the information already furnished. He said should any further information come to his attention he will advise of this, as he plans to make arrangements to see RUBY as his Rabbi. The only other individual whose name Rabbi SILVERMAN could furnish as being well acquainted with RUBY is that of Doctor COLEMAN JACOBSON, residence, 6121 Preston Haven, phone EM. 8-2526, business address, 3707 Gaston, phone TA. 4-2087. He advised the JACOBSONS are close friends of RUBY and had RUBY in their home for a number of years to celebrate the holiday seasons. He advised that RUBY would lunch with the JACOBSONS and became closely acquainted with them as he was a bachelor and the JACOBSONS felt sorry for him.

Mrs. JEAN HAMLIN, 3227 San Paula, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information.

Mrs. HAMLIN and her husband CECIL HAMLIN have known JACK RUBY since about 1948 or 1950 at which time RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club on Ervay Street, Dallas. They have been close friends of RUBY since that time and have assisted RUBY occasionally both at the Silver Spur Club, the Vegas and The Carousel Club. They knew that RUBY was originally from Chicago, Illinois but had never inquired to his background and knew little about his background prior to the time they became acquainted with him. RUBY is widely acquainted in Dallas, Texas, however, the HAMLIN's and RUBY have few mutual friends.

They considered JACK RUBY to be a religious individual who attended services at the Jewish Temple frequently. He was an emotional individual and quick tempered at times, however, he had always behaved as a gentleman on the occasions when the HAMLIN's and RUBY were together. Mrs. HAMLIN advised RUBY usually became angry when someone misbehaved at his club.

Mrs. HAMLIN said RUBY seemed to have a great admiration for the police officers in Dallas, Texas and was widely known among the police officers.

Mrs. HAMLIN recalled that a WARREN and ESTELLE COFFMAN were friends of JACK RUBY and ESTELLE COFFMAN had been employed by RUBY for about five years beginning in about 1948.

Mrs. HAMLIN advised RUBY seldom discussed politics with the HAMLIN's and to her knowledge, he was not interested in politics nor was he active in any organizations interested in political issues.

Mr. and Mrs. HAMLIN were deeply shocked when they learned that JACK RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. There was nothing, to their knowledge in RUBY's background or their knowledge of him, which would suggest that he would have been capable of doing such a thing.

Mrs. HAMLIN does not know of an individual by the name of NORMA MILLER and does not recall an individual by this name

She has been a waitress at Dallas for the past 30 years and has resided at the above address for the past three years, having moved from 10505 Maybank Drive, where she had resided for a number of years. She is presently married to L. J. AUGUSTINE, but is commonly known among her acquaintances as ALICE BOONE.

Mrs. AUGUSTINE advised that about seven to eight years ago, she saw JACK RUBY on a few occasions when she waited on RUBY as a customer in the Vesuvio Restaurant at 5120 W. Lovers Lane, Dallas, where she was employed as a waitress. She stated that she recalls RUBY as an unpredictable and extremely emotional individual, who on one occasion would be extremely difficult to wait on and on another occasion he would make her feel as if she "were the best waitress in the world." She added that she never had any social relationship with RUBY and never visited his place of business. She stated that he was not a regular customer in the restaurant and that she has not seen him to her knowledge in about seven years.

Mrs. AUGUSTINE advised that she has no additional information concerning RUBY's activities, associates or background and added that she may have given some other individuals the impression that she knew RUBY personally and has information concerning RUBY's recent activities, inasmuch as she recalls that during numerous conversations she has had with friends and acquaintances since the shooting of OSWALD, she has told a number of these people that she knew RUBY. Mr. J. L. "JAKE" CAMPBELL, Owner and Operator of Humble Service Station, 3501 Oak Lawn, Dallas, advised that he has known JACK RUBY for several years and while JACK was personally running the Veges Club, JACK was a regular customer of his service station which is located across the street from the Veges Club. JACK RUBY would leave his car parked at the service station when he came to work and he, CAMPBELL, kept the car serviced for RUBY.

CAMPBELL stated that in his opinion, RUBY is a homosexual and has a tendency to associate with young boys rather than with women. It is his opinion that the women who work for JACK RUBY as strippers in his club are merely employees and are treated as such by RUBY and there is little or no personal association between them and RUBY.

CAMPBELL stated that about six months to a year ago, RUBY opened the Carousel Club in downtown Dallas and turned the operation of the Vegas Club over to his sister EVA and since that time has spent very little time in the vicinity of the Vegas Club.

Mr. CAMPBELL advised he is not acquainted with any of the friends or associates of RUBY. He has, however, on a number of occasions, seen RUBY associating with Dallas police officers and riding with them in Dallas Police Department squad cars.

CAMPBELL stated that he has talked to RUBY on a number of occasions but RUBY has never indicated to him that he was opposed to the American way of life or had any liking for any foreign ideology. He stated that he did not feel in his opinion that RUBY was the type of person, however, who would have killed OSWALD for the sake of saving Mrs. KENNEDY any inconvenience since he appeared to be a self-centered person interested only in himself and making money.

After observing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he stated that he has never seen OSWALD with RUBY.

Mr. EDWIN CARRELL, 7123 Vivian Avenue, who is employed by the Robert Eastman Company, an advertising firm, advised he had known JACK RUBY for eight or nine years. He had business dealings with him in connection with a recording titled, "The Gila Monster," which was published by Cascade Records of California. This firm is now non-existent and was owned by AL KABELIN and FESS PARKER, the movie star. Neither KABELIN nor PARKER is known to be acquaintances of RUBY, however.

CARRELL stated that JACK RUBY was the manager of JOE JOHNSON, a band leader who recorded this record. JOHNSON and RUBY were supposed to get a cut of the proceeds from the sale of the record but, as no royalties were collected, they received no money. CARRELL stated that RUBY came from Chicago and, during conversations with him, impressed him as knowing several people in the musicians' union there. He is the type of individual who one minute would do anything for you and the next minute would get mad over some little thing. COFFMAN stated that in his opinion "you couldn't ask for a better man to be around" in that RUBY would do anything for you. COFFMAN continued that he felt he was acquainted with JACK RUBY more than a regular customer of his club due to the fact that his wife worked for him when he was running the Silver Spur. Miss ELSIE JOHNSON, also known as JOHNNIE JOHNSON, 6106 Singing Hills, advised that she was acquainted with JACK RUBY and members of his family. She said she was well acquainted with EVA GRANT, the sister of JACK RUBY, and had been acquainted with her for about 18 years. She stated shortly after EVA GRANT came to Dallas from Chicago, Illinois, she met her at Dunton's Cafeteria in downtown Dallas, being introduced to her by a friend. She was invited to live with EVA GRANT, she being single, and she lived with her for about 4 or 5 weeks at Melba and Bishop Streets in Dallas, exact address being unrecalled. While living with EVA GRANT, EVA told her that she had formerly worked for AL CAPONE in Chicago at the time he was a leading gangster of the Nation. Thereafter EVA GRANT operated the Singapore Club on South Ervay Street in Dallas, which club is now non-existent. It was her belief that this night club was probably owned by JACK RUBY and that EVA GRANT was probably fronting for him for some reason or another. Miss JOHNSON was a singer and song writer and sang at the Singapore Club. Since she could be of service to EVA GRANT, EVA GRANT became attached to her and they were friends for several years up until EVA GRANT left Dallas, moving to California, where she said she was employed by the Bing Crosby Enterprises. She was also supposed to have dealt with exports and imports in California. She now has a son, RONNIE GRANT, who is supposed to be employed as a draftsman by some firm in the Los Angeles, California, area.

During World War II, EVA GRANT was engaged in the illegal handling of sugar stamps with the sugar being shipped from Chicago to Dallas. It was her recollection that EVA was questioned concerning this illegal traffic in sugar stamps and pleaded innocence when interviewed. She does not remember whether EVA GRANT was ever indicted for the illegal sale of sugar stamps. She did remember that on one occasion, during World War II, she was asked by EVA to take a package to the Horse Shoe Bar in downtown Dallas and give the package to a man there. She did not recall the name of the man, but she did look into the package and stated that the package was "loaded with sugar stamps". On one occasion, EVA GRANT propositioned her to go to Chicago and secure sugar stamps for her, stating that no one would ever suspect her of such a thing.

Miss JOHNSON described EVA GRANT as a domineering person who was hard to get along with. She said that EVA currently resides somewhere in Dallas and that she had seen her picture on television, but had not been in contact with her for about four years. During the years of World War II and other years that she has known her, she has been in EVA GRANT's home on many occasions. She never had any discussion concerning politics with EVA GRANT or any of the RUBY family.

She described EVA GRANT as a dictator, but stated JACK RUBY was of a different temperament. JACK RUBY has a brother, SAM RUBY, whose wife's name is PHYLLIS, 11616 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas. SAM RUBY is believed to operate two laundramats, and as far as she knows, he is a good, law-abiding and loyal citizen. She said that he has a good disposition.

Miss JOHNSON said that the Soverign Club has been discontinued and stated it is her belief that the Paddy Club on South Ervay Street, Dallas, occupies the premises formerly occupied by the Soverign Club.

The Soverign Club about four years ago was moved to a point almost directly across the street from the Adolphus Hotel in downtown Dallas and its name was subsequently changed to the Carousel Club. It is her belief that JACK RUBY is part owner of this night club together with other people, whose names she does not know. JACK RUBY is also owner of the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn in Dallas.

She stated during her acquaintance with JACK RUBY, while she was living with EVA GRANT, and during other years, she knew RUBY to be friendly with a number of police officers. She did not know the names of any of the police officers, but she knew that the officers frequently came into the clubs operated by RUBY. She described RUBY as a person who was understanding and affable. She recalled that for two or three years he lived behind the Silver Spur on Ervay Street in Dallas. She said that JACK RUBY's mind frequently jumps from one subject to another and that when you get him mad he can really get you told. He was usually very secretive and on some occasions when she has visited his home, she had seen a rolled up package. Once she asked him what was in the package and he told her it was his laundry. She did not know where JACK RUBY currently resides and stated she had never heard RUBY talk about politics nor had she heard him mention anything about the Fair Play For Cuba. She said she had never seen him with any police characters, but that EVA GRANT, when she operated the Soverign Club, on South Ervay Street, knew LOIS GREEN, a Dallas hoodlum who was killed several years ago, and others whose names she does not recall.

She said she had never seen any firearms in the possession of JACK RUBY, and she knows nothing, she said, concerning RUBY's political background. She said she had never discussed Communism with him and did not know his ideas along those lines.

RALPH HENRY NEAL, 6702 Second Avenue, was interviewed at his residence and furnished the following information:

In about 1946, NEAL worked as a cook for Abe and Pappy's Showland operated by ABE WEINSTEIN and CARL "PAPPY" DOLSON at 1522 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas. This place had food, drinks, and female dancers. It was a "hang out" for several "rough characters" including LOIS GREEN, a man in his late 20's who drove a Cadillac and reputedly carried a machine gun. DEAN GAULDIN, a real estate man in Dallas, believed by NEAL to be of good reputation, and whose son NEAL has heard later became prosecuting attorney for Dallas County, came into the Showland about twice a month where he drank heavily and tipped very generously, sometimes giving $35.00 to a girl to have her sing a song. One day, LOIS GREEN brought in a man whom NEAL believes to be identical with JACK RUBY, killer of LEE OSWALD. This man was introduced as RUBENSTEIN. Present at this time were WEINSTEIN, DOLSON, GAULDIN and a Mr. FREEMAN, who operated a restaurant at the corner of West Commerce and the Fort Worth turnoff in Dallas. RUBENSTEIN, who said he was from Chicago, said he wanted to buy a night club. DOLSON said all he had to do was present the money. RUBENSTEIN produced a roll of $100.00 bills which was spread out on the meat block and amounted to $40,000. NEAL said GAULDIN, FREEMAN, WEINSTEIN and DOLSON would recall this incident.

DOLSON and WEINSTEIN later dissolved their partnership. All are believed to be in Dallas, WEINSTEIN operating Abe's Colony Club, 1522½ Commerce Street, DOLSON operating Pappy's Showland at the Fort Worth turnoff and FREEMAN operating a place across the street from Pappy's Showland. NEAL has heard that LOIS GREEN was shot dead at FREEMAN's place on New Years night seven or eight years ago. WEINSTEIN did not drink, fight or gamble. DOLSON was a "rough character."

NEAL recalled one incident when BILL DECKER, who is now sheriff of Dallas County, was present in the Showland in about 1946. DECKER threw a glass of wine on WILLIE, a little Negro boy who was in a dance team called "Pat and Little Willie." DOLSON immediately closed the place, refunded money to those present and then personally gave BILL DECKER a very thorough beating. Police were not called.

CARL L. MAYNARD, age 27, residing Space E6, Rex Trailer Park, 2709 North Ontario Street, Burbank, California, contacted Los Angeles Office at instigation of his work superior, to whom he mentioned he had known JACK RUBY. MAYNARD does not want his name in papers, but wishes to cooperate fully.

MAYNARD lived all of his adult life in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and resided for the past year until mid-July, 1963 at 322 Sumter Avenue, Walnut Hills, Texas.

He originally met RUBY about two years ago when MAYNARD accompanied a friend, GEORGE LOVE, Apartment 236, Timbers Apartments, Irving, Texas, to a twist contest held at the Vegas Club. RUBY's sister, EVE, was the manager of the Vegas Club. He also saw RUBY at the Longhorn Ranch Club, where RUBY seemed to know the owner, DEWEY GROOM. MAYNARD became friendly and RUBY gave him passes to the Carousel Club. The latter club catered to business, executive and convention trade.

Last June and July, MAYNARD operated the Alibi Club, 5516 Harry Hines Boulevard. He employed GEORGE LOVE and also hired DIANA (LNU), who formerly worked as a waitress for RUBY. In consulting DIANA as to RUBY's business practices, she told MAYNARD that RUBY paid off the Dallas Police Department, but did not specify whom. She told MAYNARD she had been sent on ahead to set up "champagne dates" for other girls at the Alibi Club, but did not say who sent her. The champagne date is a B girl operation wherein the customer buys champagne, the girls pretend to drink and then they get a cut.

When MAYNARD set up Alibi Club, Lieutenant GILMORE and another police officer from Vice Detail, checked out his operation, but did not ask for payoff and none was given. GILMORE's partner is described as a short, thin, sandy-headed officer, about 33 years old. MAYNARD heard that Lieutenant GILMORE had tried to close the Carousel several times, but never succeeded. However, MAYNARD personally saw GILMORE and his partner at the Carousel a great deal and felt he could have shut down the Carousel if he had desired for prostitution and liquor law violations.

RUBY had strict rules that strippers and waitresses should not leave the Carousel with dates, but DIANA said that all girls employed did fill $100 a night dates after work, particularly on convention nights. She did not say that RUBY received a cut as pimp, but MAYNARD's impression of RUBY is that he would do anything for money and undoubtedly got a percentage of prostitution dates.

He understood that stripper KATHY KAY (true name believed KATHY CLAYBORNE) went with a police department officer, but MAYNARD does not know identity. KATHY KAY resides in apartment house on South Ewing Boulevard, Oak Cliff, believed called North Hills Apartments.

Because of night work, MAYNARD was not aware until night of November 24, 1963 that it was RUBY who shot OSWALD. After viewing photograph of OSWALD in paper, it sticks in MAYNARD's mind that the person he associates with OSWALD's photograph went with a little 28 - 29 year old Mexican stripper at the Carousel, this being about mid-July, 1963. The person who can definitely identify this boy friend of the Mexican stripper would be DIANA (LNU), since DIANA worked for RUBY for past three to four years and knows all of his contacts and activities at Carousel. Telephone for DIANA is Franklin 2-2291 in Dallas. He does not know whether DIANA will be cooperative, particularly if she is fearful of getting involved, but she is fond of MAYNARD and he believes he could obtain information.

GEORGE LOVE can also give considerable information concerning RUBY.

WALLY WESTON was Master of Ceremonies at the Carousel. It is not generally known, but one of the strippers was WALLY's wife, whose stage name he thinks was SHAWNEE ANGEL.

At one time SHAWNEE was hospitalized, during which time the hospital called the Carousel for WALLY to come to the hospital immediately. RUBY did not deliver the message until the show was over, which angered WESTON. He thinks WESTON quit for awhile, but later returned. He may have information concerning activities at the Carousel.

MAYNARD has no knowledge as to any possible subversive, Cuban, racist, extremist, or political views of RUBY since they never discussed these things. He has no actual basis whatever, but MAYNARD feels there must be a connection of some kind between OSWALD and RUBY because he does not feel that RUBY is the type to have the depth of feeling for President KENNEDY to the extent he would sacrifice all of his financial wealth to shoot OSWALD, who would be executed in the long run. He stated RUBY does have a quick temper and has seen him bounce drunks or customers making passes at girls. He knows of no relatives of RUBY aside from his sister EVE, and no of no particular male or female associates. No police department connections are known other than those previously mentioned.

Carousel strippers known to MAYNARD were KATHY KAY, TAMMY TRUE, SHAWNEE ANGEL, previously referred to Mexican girl, name unrecalled, and a black-haired girl who was originally a waitress. RUBY's regular waitresses were DIANA, ALICE and NESSIE (phonetic).

JERRY JENSEN, Assistant Executive in Charge of Supervising Physical Education, YMCA, 605 North Ervay Street, furnished the following information:

JACK RUBY has been a member of the YMCA Health Club from time to time in the past several years, usually on a three-month membership basis. His last three-month membership expired in September, 1962.

JENSEN stated RUBY was always interested in weight lifting and usually chose to handle the weights during workouts.

There was nothing unusual about RUBY's actions around the YMCA and conversations between JENSEN and RUBY from time to time were short and general with no specific topic discussed.

JENSEN stated that since RUBY's membership had expired, his gym shoes, personal toiletry articles and related equipment were removed from the regular dressing room and placed in a box for storage following RUBY's arrest on November 24, 1963, by the Dallas Police Department on murder charges.

Examination of RUBY's personal effects by JENSEN in the presence of Special Agents WILLIAMS and SAYERS disclosed a slip of paper bearing the telephone number ME 1-1700 and "CHARLIE." No other information was developed from examination of each item in the box.

JENSEN stated he did not know RUBY other than through association with him at the YMCA.

RAYMOND H. MYERS, 431 Murdeaux Street, telephone EXchange 1-6942, Dallas, stated that he formerly was a bondsman and during 1954 made a $5,400 bond for a man named JOSEPH BONDS who is also known as JOE LECURTO who was charged at that time by Dallas County authorities for Sodomy and fled the Dallas area, resulting in MYERS having to pay the $5,400 bond. He stated that he searched for JOSEPH BONDS from 1954 until he was apprehended in the East during 1959 and, as far as he knows, JOSEPH BONDS is still in the Texas State Penitentiary, Huntsville, Texas, serving an eight-year sentence.

Joe N.Y. Texas

Mr. MYERS stated that regarding the connection between JOSEPH BONDS and JACK RUBY, BONDS, prior to 1959 definitely was associated with RUBY in various night club ventures and that another individual by the name of RALPH PAUL was associated with the same group who predominately hung out at the Sky Club. He stated he believes RALPH PAUL is living somewhere now in New York City and that as far as he knows, all three, JACK RUBY, JOSEPH BONDS, and RALPH PAUL are homosexuals.

Ruth Bonds

Mr. MYERS then stated that JOSEPH BOND's wife, RUTH COLLINS BONDS, may be in the Dallas area, and that she has performed in night clubs under the stage name of DALE BELMONT. He went on to say that RUTH BONDS, prior to 1954, was very closely associated with JACK RUBY and if she is in the Dallas area she would likely have much information concerning him. He stated that, as background information, JOSEPH BONDS' mother is VIRGINIA LECURTO, 333 East Mosholu Parkway North, Bronx, New York, and that RUTH BONDS' last known address in 1959 was 11736 College View Drive, Silver Springs, Maryland.

Mr. MYERS then stated that as to any possible connection or relationship between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to the assassination of late President KENNEDY, he had no information to offer and prior to the assassination he had never heard of OSWALD.

MYERS went on to state that he overheard from some source unrecalled (either radio or television) that OSWALD was allegedly seen in the Vegas Club about two nights prior

SAM LASSER, Partner, Mode Imports, 114 Parkhouse, who resides at 4500 Cedar Springs, advised that he and his partner, NORMAN N. (NED) WEISBROD, with whom he has been associated since approximately 1948, met JACK RUBY during either 1948 or 1949, at which time RUBY operated the Silver Spur Lounge at 1717 South Ervay Street in Dallas. He does not recall specifically how he may have been introduced to RUBY, but recalls that RUBY was originally from Chicago, as was he and WEISBROD, although they had never known each other in Chicago.

LASSER and WEISBROD were both bachelors, were traveling salesmen, and on weekends when in Dallas, Texas, spent considerable time at the Silver Spur. He recalls that a year or two after first meeting RUBY, that RUBY purchased or obtained control of the Bob Wills Ranch House, a night club located on Industrial Boulevard in Dallas, and offered WEISBROD and LASSER the concessions operated at this night club. He said he and WEISBROD invested considerable money in photographic equipment and instituted a photography concession, following which RUBY attempted to "kick them out". He said at the insistence of HY FADER, a partner or financial backer of RUBY in the operation of the Ranch House, he and WEISBROD were permitted to retain their operation of these concessions for a brief period of time, possibly one year or less. He stated their relations with RUBY were strained and that his recollection of this period of association is that RUBY insisted on thousands of photographs of himself be made and given to him at no cost. He said during this period RUBY wore western gear and attempted to act like a guitar-playing cowboy, but that RUBY could not speak, sing, or play the guitar.

He stated RUBY always attempted to impress everyone with whom he came into contact with the "connections" which he had in show business and sought the spotlight in all of his endeavors. He said he feels that "everyone in town" knows JACK RUBY and that this is the direct result of efforts by JACK RUBY to become well known.

During the period of time in which RUBY operated the Ranch House, he had "first class" entertainers, including TEX RITTER, a western singer, Tennessee ERNIE FORD, and "top-notch bands", including ARTIE SHAW and other well known entertainers. He recalls that RUBY attempted to short-change the performers and on one occasion had considerable trouble when he tried to cheat TEX RITTER out of $200 of the amount due him.

TENN.

He advised he does not know exactly how to contact HY FADER, but is of the opinion he is currently in California and is operating either an exterminating business or is engaged in the renovation of old hotels, and he does not recall the source of this information.

LASSER advised he has absolutely no use for JACK RUBY and characterized him as a man of high temper, a show off, and a "real tough guy". He says he has seen RUBY engage in fist fights which were not called for and said he believes RUBY "acts without thinking" and thinks afterwards and feels deep remorse at many of his actions.

He said he has had no recent contacts with RUBY although he saw him about three months ago in the Carousel Club and that while he had not seen him at the time in possibly a year or more, RUBY exhibited some degree of animosity toward him, and he left the Carousel Club. He pointed out that he and his partner, NED WEISBROD, have begun the manufacture of a device called "Tite-N-Temple", which is designed to cause eye glasses to fit more snugly on the wearer. He said they displayed this item on a display card which bears his, LASSER's photograph. He stated he had learned that JACK RUBY has attempted to market a very similar item using an identical display card except for the photograph of LASSER. He said he believes that RUBY saw one of these display cards and the product, and had recognized the photograph of LASSER, had decided it was a good product, and "those boys have a good thing going", and decided to steal the product.

LASSER stated he feels certain RUBY has no connection with any hoodlum element and no association with any subversive organization.

Based on his former association with RUBY, he believes it is entirely possible that RUBY could have extremely strong feelings of sympathy for the family of President KENNEDY, but that he cannot conceive RUBY having any political leanings one way or another. He stated he knows RUBY is a highly emotional individual and that RUBY cannot stand to be unable to dominate anyone in his presence.

LASSER advised in view of his lack of contact with RUBY during the past five or six years, he does not know anyone with whom RUBY might be closely associated at the present, and that the comments which he has made relative to the case of RUBY are based on his knowledge of RUBY during the period of their association from approximately 1948 to 1952, and on a casual basis from 1952 to 1956.

He furnished the following information.

He said that in 1954 he was employed for eight weeks just prior to Christmas 1954 as a piano player at the Blue Angel Bar, Blue Bonnet Hotel, Dallas, Texas, at which time he lived on Turtle Creek Street. He said he worked at the Blue Angel for one JOE BONDS, who was the manager there. He said that he felt BONDS was a front man for the actual owners.

He said there was a man who frequented the Blue Angel who he believed to be JACK RUBY, as everyone around the Blue Angel called him "RUBY." This RUBY seemed to have an interest in the Blue Angel and was consulted by BONDS on operations of the Blue Angel, in the opinion of GERARD. RUBY was an individual who GERARD considered to be anti-police due to his demeanor and association with individuals around the Blue Angel who GERARD characterized as police characters.

The conversation around the Blue Angel at the time concerned the shooting of LOIS GREEN, a man who was murdered before 1954, as was his brother CECIL GREEN, who were, as GERARD understands it, killed in "gang wars" in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

GERARD never saw a gun in the possession of RUBY, but it was taken for granted that all the individuals there were armed or could get armed.

Mrs. THELMA MC CULLUM, 934A San Saba, waitress, Ding How Restaurant, 6800 South Main Street, advised she was employed as a waitress at the Royal Grill, Dallas, Texas, for approximately one and one-half years in 1953 and 1954. The Royal Grill is owned by (FNU) WATSON, now retired and residing near Phoenix, Arizona, who later took in (FNU) SOL, bartender, as part-owner. JACK RUBY was a frequent customer at the Royal Grill and had the reputation among the waitresses as being loud-mouthed, complainer and hard to please.

OWNEY

Mrs. MC CULLUM stated the Royal Grill was a hangout after legal closing hours for gamblers in the Dallas area. Gamblers included JACK RUBY, CHICKEN LEWIS (PH), deceased, (FNU) SOL, (FNU) WATSON, and numerous others whose names she cannot recall. Sometime in 1954, WATSON sold the Royal Grill, which had been located across the street from the Adolphus Hotel, and it was later turned into a barbeque restaurant.

Mrs. MC CULLUM stated RUBY offered her a job as a waitress when he first purchased the Vegas Club sometime about 1954. She refused this offer because she did not like the way he treated waitresses. She stated she has not seen or heard from RUBY since she left the Royal Grill. She stated that since leaving the Royal Grill she has worked in numerous hotels and restaurants in the Dallas area until about March, 1963, at which time she moved to Houston, her original home.

Mrs. MC CULLUM stated she never heard of or saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never knew of any police connections which JACK RUBY may have had. She stated that it was her understanding that when RUBY first moved to Dallas he received a "hard time" from the Dallas Police Department, supposedly because he had underworld connections in Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. JESSIE FELMA GENTRY, 6106 Singing Hills, advised she had known EVA GRANT, the sister of JACK RUBY, for approximately 16 years. She said she does not like her inasmuch as she is domineering and has a bad personality. She said several years ago she worked at the Vegas Club for one night, which club is owned by JACK RUBY and located on Oak Lawn near the Esquire Theater in Dallas, Texas. She said that she never saw anything unusual happen at that time except JACK did come in and get behind the bar and later two policemen came in, one of them requesting that he cash a check for him. The check was cashed and she did not see RUBY until about four years ago at the Soverign Club. She said that during her association with EVA GRANT, she had never known JACK RUBY to be married. He was never considered as being a "ladies' man". She said that he had a good personality and if he killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he must have had a good reason to do so. She said that a close friend of JACK RUBY is her nephew WILLIAM EARL (PAT) O'DONNELL, JR., TEXAS who is a show business booking agent. O'DONNELL frequently placed people such as entertainers in the clubs operated by RUBY and probably knows more about him than anyone of her acquaintance. She did not know the current address of O'DONNELL, JR, but stated that WILLIAM EARL O'DONNELL, SR. resides at 4522 Lake Street in Dallas, TEXAS

She said that she had never had any discussion concerning politics with RUBY and did not know who his friends were in the police department. She had never heard him mention the Fair Play For Cuba Committee and had never heard him express himself favorably toward Communism at any time.

MRS. LORRAINE JORDAN, whose stage name is "Cleopatra", an exotic dancer, advised as follows:

"Cleopatra" was employed as the featured exotic dancer at the Colony Club, adjacent to the Carousel Club, in Dallas, Texas, two weeks in early August, 1963, and had frequent contact with JACK RUBY as a patron of his club. She described RUBY as a very nice and gentlemanly person, with a good reputation among other dancers, and doubted the veracity of the news report concerning his bragging about dating strippers at his night club. RUBY was never observed drinking nor being involved in any reprehensible conduct. JORDAN has observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the local press but stated she observed no such person in the Carousel or Colony Clubs with RUBY.

Dallas Police Department uniformed officers occasionally visited the Carousel and Colony Clubs. One (First Name Unknown) ANDERSON, described as a tall patrolman, married, with his residence in Garland, Texas, was observed in the Carousel Club on several occasions, but she knew of no irregular relations he might have had with RUBY.

MRS. JORDAN suggested GALE RAVEN, well acquainted with RUBY, who has worked in his club numerous times, and one JADA, a redhead exotic, also a past employee and well acquainted with RUBY, as sources for additional data. She advised that both may be located through JACK COLE, AGVA Agent, Dallas, Texas.

At 9:30 p.m., November 24, 1963 HAL H. COLLINS telephonically contacted San Diego Police Officer BILL LOTZ and advised that he desired to make a statement concerning JACK RUBY. San Diego Police Department relayed information to this office, and COLLINS was telephonically contacted at the home of his sister-in-law, in La Jolla, California. COLLINS identified himself as being the brother of Mrs. ROBERT CLARK, sister-in-law of Justice TOM CLARK. ROBERT CLARK is deceased. COLLINS had indicated to the San Diego Police Department that he was from Dallas, Texas, and mentioned names of his good friends JOHN F. KENNEDY and LYNDON B. JOHNSON.

COLLINS advised he desired to make a statement the night of November 24, 1963, concerning JACK RUBY. He stated he has been a close personal friend of RUBY's for many years, described him as " a hero worshipper in love with a hero, JOHN F. KENNEDY, good guy, always a gentleman, sincere, intellectual, and the shooting was his own idea".

COLLINS stated in his opinion RUBY shot OSWALD on impulse because of his personal animosity over the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated it was obvious RUBY "waited until all evidence against OSWALD was in before making his move". COLLINS stated he was both surprised and startled over RUBY's actions in this matter.

Hal H. COLLINS states he resides at 2713 Via Casa Loma, San Clemente, California.

At the beginning of the interview of COLLINS on November 24, 1963, he said he wanted to make a public statement immediately concerning the shooting of OSWALD. He was advised any statement he made to the Bureau was not a public statement. He said he considered the above information to be pertinent and he wanted it known that he made such a statement concerning RUBY.

Judge DEAN GAULDIN, 2014 Marydale Drive, furnished the following information:

He stated he has been Judge in the Second District Court, Dallas County, Dallas, Texas, for the past thirteen years, and that he was the District Attorney in Dallas County from 1941 to 1946. He stated his father was a physician in Dallas for more than forty years and that his father died in 1939. He stated he has no son, however, has one married daughter.

Judge GAULDIN stated he has never been to the Colony Club, Pappy's Show Land, or other night clubs in Dallas; however, through his years as District Attorney and the past thirteen years as Judge, he knows of ABE WEINSTEIN and PAPPY DOLSON, who have operated or are night club operators in Dallas.

Judge GAULDIN stated there is another family with the same name as his; however, this family name is spelled GAULDING.

Judge GAULDIN recalled that, in years past, there was a CECIL GAULDING in Dallas and, to the best of his recollection, he was in the insurance or mortgage loan business. He stated he had never heard of JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN until the recent newspaper and television news regarding a JACK RUBY who killed LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the reported killer of President KENNEDY.

CECIL GAULDING, 4626 South Lindhurst Street, furnished the following information:

He stated he presently operates an insurance and mortgage loan business, which was formerly owned and operated by his father, CECIL GAULDING, SR., until his death in 1953.

GAULDING maintained he knew nothing about a meeting between ABE WEINSTEIN, PAPPY DOLSON, and an individual by the name of FREEMAN, at Pappy's Show Land, in 1946, which was also attended by JACK RUBY.

GAULDING stated he has never heard of WEINSTEIN and PAPPY DOLSON and that he has never heard of an individual by the name of FREEMAN, who is reported to have formerly operated a restaurant at the corner of South Commerce Street and the Fort Worth Turnoff in Dallas. He further stated he had never heard of JACK RUBY, until Sunday, November 24, 1963, when he heard on the radio and television newscasts that an individual by the name of JACK RUBY had murdered LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the reported killer of President KENNEDY.

GAULDING stated that, since his father was in the mortgage loan business in 1946, it is conceivable that his father might have met with WEINSTEIN, DOLSON, RUBY and FREEMAN about the purchase of a night club and other property; however, this would be only speculation on his part. He pointed out that his father was a highly-respected and well-regarded businessman in Dallas, and it was doubtful his father would have ever participated in any deal in a night club.

GAULDING stated he did not become associated with his father in his business until approximately 1953 and he, therefore, would have had no reason to have had business dealings with the above-named people.

ALFRED DAVIDSON, JR., was personally contacted by the writer at his temporary residence, Hollywood Parkway Motel, 11034 Ventura Boulevard, North Hollywood, California, Room 7 (telephone 763-8803) at which time he furnished substantially the following information:

During late September-early October, he was in Dallas, Texas, on business promoting a radio show, "The World of Fashion." He represented OLEG CASSINI, Women's Fashions, New York City. He was first introduced by phone to JACK RUBY by the Credit Manager of the Neiman-Marcus Department Store in Dallas. He thereafter went over to see RUBY at his Carousel Night Club, and for approximately the next six weeks (until November 15 or thereabouts) was befriended by RUBY. He saw him many times both during the day and at night at his night club.

Although he never met RUBY before, RUBY extended every hospitality to DAVIDSON, and RUBY refused to allow him to pick up any checks. DAVIDSON was toured about the city in RUBY's car from time to time. DAVIDSON stated that RUBY was apparently known by everyone in Dallas, was a friend of anyone who needed any help, knew everyone on the police force, treated them to free drinks, had a press pass on his car, had a police pass, and carried a revolver in the glove compartment of his car at all times although he did not have a permit. He claimed that he needed this revolver for protection inasmuch as he carried large sums of money with him from time to time, paying off his employees in cash, and not believing in the use of checking accounts. RUBY also indicated that he had friends and financial interests in Las Vegas, no details, and also had friends in Los Angeles, no details. As to the club itself, DAVIDSON always observed it as well run and proper. He considers RUBY as well fixed financially.

DAVIDSON characterizes RUBY as a glad-hander and a crusader for anyone who was wronged. As to the killing of OSWALD, he, DAVIDSON, was not surprised when RUBY was identified as the killer, and in fact had stated to a motel acquaintance when he had only been indicated on television as a night club owner, "I'll bet that was JACK RUBY."

It is DAVIDSON's opinion that RUBY, being of the nature that he is, and an admirer of President KENNEDY, took it upon himself to avenge what he considered to be a personal wrong. DAVIDSON stated that RUBY does not have the intelligence, education, or foresight to look ahead to the consequences of his act. DAVIDSON is certain, however, that RUBY cannot be considered insane.

Contrary to published reports, during his acquaintance with RUBY, he never saw any acts of violence or violent temper or any other abusive conduct on the part of RUBY.

DAVIDSON is not aware whether RUBY was acquainted with OSWALD.

RUBY telephonically contacted DAVIDSON at his current residence about four days ago merely for a social call.

DAVIDSON will soon move into his own business to be known as Alfred Davidson and Associates, Suite 107, in a building next to the KLAC Building, 5800 block, Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. In about two weeks, he will also move to another residence address on Rodeo Drive, Beverly Hills, specific address not at hand immediately. Mrs. Paxton Harold Gray Ind.

Mrs. NONA GRAY, 211 Argo, San Antonio, Texas, who is employed as a waitress at the Chuck Wagon Restaurant at Joske's of Texas Department Store, San Antonio, furnished the following information:

Mrs. GRAY said that in about 1955 she married a man by the name of PAXTON HAROLD GRAY and that sometime before they were married she learned that PAXTON HAROLD GRAY was acquainted with a man known to her as BEN RUBY, whom she understood was connected with a private bottle club in Dallas, Texas, which was known as the University Club.

Mrs. GRAY stated that she had seen on television pictures of JACK RUBY, also known as JACK RUBENSTEIN, the alleged killer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. GRAY said that PAXTON HAROLD GRAY got a divorce from her in the State of Indiana in 1958 or 1959, and she believes that he is at this time living in Dallas, Texas, where he is an independent oil operator and she also believes that he has remarried his former wife, EUNICE Gray

Mrs. GRAY said she had no further information as to the extent of association by PAXTON HAROLD GRAY and the individual known to her as BEN RUBY nor was she certain that the individual known to her as BEN RUBY is identical with JACK RUBY, the alleged killer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD but that she thought that they resembled each other.

Mrs. IRVING KATZ, 6139 West San Vicente, Los Angeles, advised the following:

She and her husband knew JACK RUBY for about four years, from 1956 to 1959, in Dallas, Texas. RUBY operated a night club and Mr. and Mrs. KATZ owned a record recording and distributor business and were in contact with RUBY primarily in a business way.

She described RUBY as being anti-communist and anti-Russian, and proud to be an American; however, he was quick tempered and may have had connections with hoodlums because of his business activities. He came from a poor neighborhood in Chicago; was single and lived in Dallas with an older sister. He did not smoke or drink and claimed to be very religious. On occasion she has seen RUBY at the synagogue.

She understood that he was very well acquainted with officers in the Dallas Police Department and has heard him brag how close he was with the police. For that reason she described him as a braggart and ego-maniac and was not surprised because of his quick temper at what he did in shooting OSWALD.

Mr. IRVING KATZ, 6139 West San Vicente, Los Angeles, and employed at Audio Magnetics Corp., 2100 West Washington, advised the following:

He knew JACK RUBY from about 1955 to 1959 in Dallas, Texas when RUBY operated the Club Vegas. He had contact with RUBY because he was in the record recording and distributing business and RUBY would contact him on occasion to record a promising singer appearing at RUBY's club.

KATZ described RUBY as a lonely man and an extrovert who had come from a poor family from Chicago's south side and that RUBY bought friendship.

He knew RUBY to be friendly with many officers of the Dallas Police Department and was a name dropper who would mentioned their names and others at any opportunity.

He knew RUBY carried a pistol, either .22 or .38, like many people in Dallas and assumed it was because RUBY carried money from the club to the bank.

If RUBY liked a person he would do anything for them and often acted on impulse. He did not consider RUBY to have a killer instinct. RUBY disliked hoodlums and as far as he knew, had no connections with them. RUBY did associate with persons of poor reputation, but also was friends with legitimate people.

RUBY often spoke of his despising the communists or any anti-Americans. He also disliked super-Americans of the type of the American Legion in Dallas.

He occasionally saw RUBY at the synagogue and from conversations believed that RUBY had reembraced Judism. He believed RUBY to be sincere, honest and and outspoken American who ran a pretty clean operation at his club, but could become violent and on occasion when customers were out of line was known to have thrown them out of the club bodily.

Pat H. Morgan

PAT H. MORGAN, Route 2, Box 191, Edmond, Oklahoma, advised he is presently employed with Exline-Lowden Company, 1818 South Ervay, Dallas, as Oklahoma Sales Representative. MORGAN met RUBY about 2 years ago in Club Dallas, 206 1/2 Browder, Supper club in Dallas, Texas, owned by MORGAN. He met RUBY at the grand opening of the club. MORGAN and RUBY had business and social acquaintances, but were not intimate friends. MORGAN never visited RUBY's home nor was RUBY in MORGAN's home. MORGAN last saw RUBY about four months ago in RIBY's club when MORGAN stopped in to say hello.

MORGAN considers RUBY a gregarious, generous, and kind person whose only close friend was GEORGE SENATOR, his roommate. To MORGAN's knowledge, RUBY was never a member of any radical political group and in fact appeared to be very patriotic, though he never talked politics.

MORGAN recalls RUBY advising MORGAN, since MORGAN new to night club business, to run a straight and clean club and treat any "punks" as "poison" and not to tolerate any of hoodlum element, but to call Police Department if they appeared in club and made trouble. MORGAN knew RUBY had high regard for Dallas Police Department and RUBY took pride in knowing many officers. MORGAN knew of no association by RUBY with criminal element.

MORGAN advised he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never saw OSWALD in company of RUBY. He never saw RUBY carry a gun or show any violence out of the ordinary. MORGAN feels RUBY shot OSWALD because of love for country and President. MORGAN knows of no associates of RUBY in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

JAMES STROSBERG, age 22, 2608 North 17th Street, Lawton, Oklahoma, advised as follows:

He is employed in the mornings at the Stardust Club, 602 South 23rd Street, Lawton, to clean up the place. His mother, HELEN GLOWEINKI, works there at night as bartender.

On November 22, 1963, a Friday, he had just about completed his work and it was right around noon, as he recalls he had just heard a news flash over television channel 7 that President Kennedy had been shot in Dallas, Texas. Shortly after he heard this flash, a telephone call came in on the pay telephone in the Club, and he answered the ring. The caller was a woman, and he believes she stated her name and said she was calling from Texas; however, he cannot recall what name she stated or if she named a city in Texas. She asked for BENNYE BURNSIDE, whom STROSBERG knew to be the piano player in the band at the Club. He told the woman calling that BENNYE was not there at the time and she then asked if he had had the television turned on. He replied that he had, and she said that President Kennedy had been shot.

The woman calling asked that he give the message to BENNYE when he saw him, that President KENNEDY had been shot. STROSBERG said he definitely got the impression the woman asked that he tell BENNYE the President had been shot, and not that her message was just to tell BENNYE she had called.

He said the woman stated she would call back later that day to try and talk with BENNYE. She left no number or other message, and he could recall nothing further of this conversation.

At the time of this call, he said he did not know that BENNYE no longer worked at the Stardust Club so this information was not given to the woman caller. He does not know if she called back again later that day or not, as he left the Club soon after.

JACK D. LAGOW, Route 2, Box 87H, Louisville, Texas, telephone KE. 9-2290, self-employed builder and lumber dealer, voluntarily appeared at the Dallas FBI Office, accompanied by ALBERT J. BERGERON, 6256 Turner Way, Dallas, and provided information concerning JACK RUBY.

He first met JACK RUBY in 1958 when about a thousand lots, lake property, were auctioned off, JACK RUBY purchasing several of these lots, allegedly for spectulative purposes, intending to resell them. He said RUBY made a down payment of $200 or $300 and said he would have to get the balance of the amount out of Chicago. He does not remember who RUBY intended to obtain the money from, but presumed it was from a friend or a relative, the amount involved only $1,000 or $2,000. Within a short time after he made the down payment, he completed paying the purchase price and LAGOW signed the deeds pertaining to that property. He does not remember if all of the lots were deeded to RUBY. The deeds were recorded in Tarrant County, Texas. In connection with that transaction, he was in contact with JACK RUBY "half a dozen times" in 1958.

When he first met him, RUBY was accompanied by an unidentified man and woman. He recalled a dog was with them. LAGOW at that time was Vice President of Casa Linda Lumber Company, Zacha and Fuller Drive, Dallas.

The next time he had any contact with JACK RUBY was in 1959 at Club Vegas, Dallas. LAGOW then had become self-employed in the building business and was hiring a carpenter named BILL, last name not remembered. That carpenter got in jail following a fight at Brand's Tavern, Samuels Boulevard, Dallas, and was arrested by the Dallas Police Department. BILL called LAGOW to get him out of jail that night, which was at about 3:00 AM. In trying to locate a place to cash a check to obtain enough money to pay BILL's fine, or make his bond, he stopped at JACK RUBY's Club Vegas merely because it was about the only place still open. RUBY cashed the check for him. He has had no further contact with RUBY and never saw him again until he saw him on live television on the morning he shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LAGOW has no knowledge RUBY is affiliated with any subversive organizations and has no knowledge of any association between RUBY and OSWALD. LAGOW does not know OSWALD.

PETER JOSEPH PICCOLA, an employee at the Egyptian Lounge and who is known to SAs IVAN D. LEE and ROBERT M. BARRETT as a person who has operated as a bookmaker in the past, was interviewed in the Egyptian Lounge, 5610 Mockingbird Lane.

PICCOLA stated that he has known JACK RUBY for several years having seen him as a customer at the Egyptian Lounge and also having seen him at the fights and the football games at Dallas. PICCOLA advised he had never known RUBY to partake of gambling of any form. When asked to describe RUBY, PICCOLA answered "he is a nut." PICCOLA explained this by stating that RUBY was " a very moody, excitable person". PICCOLA advised that one time RUBY would be in an extremely happy mood and within minutes could become extremely depressed. He also stated that on one occasion when seeing RUBY he would greet PICCOLA as a "long lost friend" and then perhaps within two or three days when meeting again he would completely ignore PICCOLA.

PICCOLA stated he was not surprised when he heard that RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963. PICCOLA explained that this was the sort of thing RUBY might do because of his temperament.

PICCOLA further stated he did not know of any girl friends or close associates that RUBY had. He further stated he had never heard RUBY discuss politics at any time and had never heard RUBY express any dislikes or likes for any particular politician or political party.

Mrs Carme Pitrello.
Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. MILDRED PITRELLO, Westshore Trailer Park, Lot A-20, 4802 South Westshore Boulevard, telephone number 838-9424, advised that her husband, CARME PITRELLO and PAUL SALOS, worked together as a comedy team, under the name of CARME and PAUL, and they are presently engaged for at least two weeks at Great Falls, Montana, where they are staying at the Park Hotel. She said she was not sure, but it is possible that they were playing their engagement at this hotel.

Mrs. PITRELLO advised that she first met JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, when her husband played an engagement at the Theater Lounge from September 4, 1962, until about January 28, 1963, and that she had met RUBY at the Carousel, which is located near the Theater Lounge, and she believed is owned by RUBY.

She went on to say that she and her husband traveled with Mr. and Mrs. SALOS during engagements nearly all the time until September, 1963. She said that after the above engagements at the Theater Lounge, CARME and PAUL had an engagement for about a month at Witchita, Kansas, followed by a series of short engagements for about a month, and thereafter went to Houston, Texas, where they had an engagement for a month at a night club on Texas Street, and thereafter, returned to Dallas, and the Theater Lounge, for a two month engagement.

Mrs. PITRELLO advised that her social contact with RUBY was limited to her and Mrs. SOLAS having gone to the Carousel with their husbands between shows at the Theater Lounge. She went on to say that RUBY visited at their home on several occasions, and that the PITRELLOs had been out socially with him several times. She advised that RUBY always conducted himself as a gentleman, and she never saw him lose his temper. She said RUBY wanted people to like him, and she had observed that during the times RUBY had been at their home, he was very gentle with the PITRELLO's child, and seemed to like children very much.

by SAs ONNIE E. WALKER and JOHN D. MEDAGLIA /dk Date dictated 11/26/63

She went on to say that the only information she had concerning RUBY's temper was hearsay information as related to her by her husband, and felt that if her husband were interviewed, he would cooperate fully in furnishing information about RUBY.

Mrs. PITRELLO advised that she had never heard RUBY discuss politics, nor anything concerning President JOHN F. KENNEDY, nor had she ever heard him discuss the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

As to LEE OSWALD, she advised that to the best of her recollection, she had never seen this individual nor had she ever heard RUBY mention him, nor had she ever seen OSWALD in the company of RUBY.

As to RUBY's associates, she could only name:

ABE WEINSTEIN, the owner of the Colony Club in Dallas;

LOU KATZ.

She then went on to say that RUBY was well acquainted with the owners of a delicatessen. She said that LOU KATZ, whom she considered to be a "con man" and known to RUBY, borrowed the PITRELLO's car in the spring of 1962, and prior to taking the car, KATZ drove her home, and on the way stopped at the delicatessen for coffee, during which time LOU talked to a man in the delicatessen, and discussed RUBY, all the way back to his, RUBY's, childhood, wherein there was mention of RUBY having been raised in a section of Chicago, and had to fight for what he got, and that subsequently he had raised himself to his present position, where he is able to realize monetary security.

Mrs. PITRELLO said that her husband had worked out with RUBY at the YMCA in Dallas several times while they were in Dallas, weightlifting, playing handball, etc. She said that according to her husband, RUBY was a wonderful person.

Mrs. PITRELLO advised that during her visits to the Carousel Club, she had observed law enforcement officers in the club, both in uniform and in plain clothes, and that they usually stayed at the back of the club in an observant manner. She advised she never saw them taking a drink, and she did not know the identity of any of the officers.

ROBERT LEE SHORMAN, 332 Magnolia Avenue, Long Beach, Calif. operator of the Peppermint Pike, 337½ West Pike, Long Beach, advised he met JACK RUBY around Christmas time of 1961. SHORMAN was a musician in the Jan Garber Band, playing other engagements at the time, and would spend his off hours at RUBY's Carousel Bar and night club for a period of approximately four or five weeks, sometimes helping out in the band at the Carousel.

SHORMAN advised RUBY told him he was born and brought up on the northwest side of Chicago, Illinois. In later years, RUBY lived hand to mouth working floating crap games in the Chicago area. RUBY made vague reference to leaving Chicago in 1948 for Dallas, Texas "when things got too hot". An unrecalled source told SHORMAN RUBY had been dumped in a garbage can and left for dead in Chicago. Upon arrival in Dallas, RUBY changed his name from RUBENSTEIN to RUBY.

SHORMAN advised the only hoodlum connections known to him was a mention one time on the part of RUBY that he had known the brother of JOHN GALLO (phonetic), the lead alto for the Ralph Martiere Band. SHORMAN was a musician in the Martiere Band prior to playing for Garber. The brother of JOHN GALLO, name unknown, had several names, one of which was GALLO, and was under indictment in Chicago around 1948 for some unremembered offense. MARTIERE's recordings allegedly were pushed by the crime syndicate and MARTIERE received preferential treatment from unions, and received engagements because of the syndicate's monetary interests in his earnings.

SHORMAN advised police officers, uniform and plain clothed, on duty and off, frequented the Carousel, and SHORMAN never saw a police officer pay for a drink. The only police officer SHORMAN knew by name was an older detective, last name FRITZ, whom he saw on one occasion at a table in the Carousel. SHORMAN estimated he saw between 150 to 200 police officers at the Carousel at one time or another, however, some of these he identified as police officers because they were associating with known police officers off duty at the Carousel. Whenever there was a case of unusual interest in Dallas, RUBY would run down to the police station to find out what was going on. He told SHORMAN he was "in" with the police department. SHORMAN advised it was common knowledge RUBY had been arrested for carrying a concealed weapon but it was also common knowledge that RUBY still carried a .38 caliber revolver, although SHORMAN did not see RUBY with any weapons.

RUBY never gave any indication of being pro-communist or anti-American. His interests were entirely limited to making money. He was never heard to make mention of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee nor did SHORMAN ever hear of LEE HARVEY OSWALD during that period.

RUBY appeared to have no more or less the attitude of most individuals of his class and locale for Negroes. He spoke of them in disrespectful terms such as "spooks, spades, and niggers" and refused on one occasion observed by SHORMAN to admit to the Carousel a mixed group of Negro and white businessmen. However, SHORMAN never heard RUBY explicitly express hatred or make inflamatory remarks concerning Negroes.

SHORMAN did not know RUBY's family other than to hear RUBY state that his father was past 80 years. RUBY stated that he had several brothers and sisters and one brother, name unknown, who operated the Vegas Club for RUBY elsewhere in Dallas. RUBY was apparently on speaking terms with many apparently affluent individuals who came slumming to the Carousel but apparently had no close friends or associates. SHORMAN believed RUBY had approximately 50 ex-partners in and around Dallas and there appeared to be a constant turn over of partners. SHORMAN broke relations with RUBY when RUBY attempted to get SHORMAN to invest $6,000 in his business.

SHORMAN advised RUBY played the field and attempted to date various entertainers and waitresses employed by him. The girls were expected to mingle with the guests and to double as B girls. RUBY had no apparent lasting interest in any girl.

SHORMAN characterized RUBY as a JEKYL and HYDE personality, affable and genial when it served his purpose but apt to fly into a rage at the most insignificant remark or happening. SHORMAN stated that RUBY was a showoff who would often attract attention to himself by artificial loud laughter and by impromptu injection of himself into the floor show. RUBY apparently prided himself on the fact that he did not drink or smoke. RUBY had more than a passing interest in gambling and he bet heavily, made frequent telephone bets on horse races and basketball games. RUBY was, from time to time, sloppy and very careless in his dress and tended to show more consideration for animals than people. RUBY allegedly had three dogs. RUBY never showed interest in politics, national or international. He never gave any indication or having even a passing interest in religion. SHORMAN stated that as far as he could tell, RUBY's only goal in life was in making money, although he never appeared to have a surplus of this.

Mr. TONY CATARINE, Manager, Castaway Club, 5600 Mockingbird Lane, advised that he is acquainted with JACK RUBY, having met him, however, only on one or two occasions and knows very little about RUBY. He stated he has recently hired JOE JOHNSON who has a Negro orchestra, and JOHNSON had been employed by RUBY for about 7 years. He understands RUBY is quite angry at him for having taken this orchestra away from RUBY's Vegas Club.

Mr. CATARINE stated his Castaway Club is a private club with admission to members and guests only. He is certain that neither RUBY nor OSWALD are or have been members of the Castaway Club. He feels certain that RUBY would not come into his club since RUBY is "mad" at him about the orchestra. He is positive he has not seen RUBY in the club, and he is there practically all of the time the club is open.

Mr. CATARINE stated he is certain that JACK RUBY was not in the Castaway Club in an intoxicated condition within the last two weeks since he feels sure that had RUBY been in the club in such a condition he would have been told about it, even if he had been away from the club, had it happened.

Mr. CATARINE advised "RUSTY" is a fellow who occasionally helps out behind the bar at the Castaway Club but is not an employee of the club and gets no pay for the help he contributes. He stated "RUSTY's" last name is EDWARDS, but he does not know "RUSTY's" correct first name or his address. He stated he believes "RUSTY's" telephone number is FL 2-9691. He advised further he knows "RUSTY" to be a person inclined to brag and to make statements that are not true in order to try to build up his own importance or pretend to know things he does not actually know.

Mr. CATARINE, after observing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised he has no recollection of ever having seen OSWALD.

DONALD R. POOLE, 204½ West Windsor Road, Glendale, California, was interviewed at his residence and advised he is currently a chrome plater for Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, Burbank, California. Up to ten years ago he was a musician and owned a six piece western-type orchestra with two other men, now deceased. In approximately 1949 or 1950 this orchestra was on tour and played Dallas, Texas. The orchestra was hired by the owner of Steve's Roundup for a six to seven month period. The owner's name was not recalled. This nightclub was on the same street and a short distance from the Silver Spur, which was owned and operated by JACK RUBY.

POOLE visited the Silver Spur on his off hours to "catch" the entertainers who worked at the Silver Spur. The policy of the Silver Spur was to present name Western stars. POOLE was known to RUBY only as a customer of the Silver Spur and as an employee of one of RUBY's competitors. RUBY asked POOLE to work for him. POOLE declined because he was very satisfied with all conditions at his place of employment.

POOLE classifys RUBY as a friendly, courteous man, very firm in his opinion and a very business-like person. RUBY was extremely interested in his night club. He appeared to be the owner and manager. RUBY seemed to be liked and respected by his, RUBY's, employees.

Rumor at that time which was never verified by POOLE, was that RUBY worked for a syndicate which owned a chain of night clubs in various cities of the United States. POOLE believes that they rumors were based on the general attitude that most tavern and night club owners were owned by a syndicated club. POOLE advised that he had no personal knowledge of such a syndication or of its alleged activities.

POOLE knew nothing of RUBY's background, parents, close associates, girlfriends, personal activities, police department connections, political viewpoints, gangster tieups. POOLE did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

POOLE advised that he does not know the present whereabouts of any of the living members of his former orchestra.

Mr. RUEL W. ALEXANDER, 3701 Torre Street, Amarillo, Texas, a principal defendant in the BILLY SOL ESTES case and presently under conviction in the same case, contacted Special Agent WILLIAM R. JENKINS, today, and advised that in October or November of 1961, he frequented the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas and through frequent visits became intimately associated with one of the waitresses or employees of the club by the name of JEAN SIMS who at that time resided in Grand Prairie, Texas. He advised that during this period he met JACK RUBY at various times and just around the club there, did not talk to him. He advised that JEAN SIMS talked to ALEXANDER about buying part of the Carousel Club and stated that he went as far as to have a private investigator check on JACK RUBY. He advised that this investigator, whose name he could not remember, called him back and said that RUBY had a police record and was a "queer".

He advised that after this, he had no interest in the business deal about buying a part of the Carousel Club and had not seen or heard from JEAN SIMS or JACK RUBY since that time.

ALEXANDER advised that he was furnishing this information upon the suggestion of his attorney GEORGE McCARTHY of Amarillo, Texas, since he was afraid if the newspaper people secured the information, there would be publicity indicating connection between the BILLY SOL ESTES case and this matter.

Mr. ELIHU BERWALD, Attorney, offices, Dallas Federal Savings Building, residence 9636 Hollow Way Road, Dallas, advised he is, insofar as he knows, the only attorney in Dallas whose first name is ELIHU. He vaguely recalls JACK RUBY and RUBY's sister, whose name he does not recall. He recalls having done some civil legal work for RUBY about 12 or 13 years ago which would be in the early 1950s, and to the best of his recollection, this work consisted of some activity on his part in connection with a lease for the Silver Spur Club on South Ervay Street. At this late date he does not recall any of the details of the transaction and does not even recall the appearance of RUBY or RUBY's sister. He had very little contact with RUBY, knows nothing about RUBY's background or associates and is positive that RUBY at no time appeared distraught in his office and never made any threat to jump out of the window or to commit suicide.

TEXAS

Mr. BERWALD added that he was talking the other day with Mr. MARVIN SCHWIF who owns and operates the Lawyer's Building in the 700 block of Main Street in Dallas, and SCHWIF commented to him that sometime ago he was representing RUBY's brother in a civil suit against RUBY while RUBY was being represented by Mr. STANLEY KAUFMAN, another attorney. RUBY came to SCHWIF's office, which was at the time located on the ground floor of a building which he believes was located in the 600 block of Main Street, and wanted to discuss with SCHWIF the law suit. SCHWIF stated he told RUBY he could not discuss the matter with him and wanted RUBY out of his office. RUBY stepped out on the sidewalk immediately in front of SCHWIF's office and stood there for about 10 or 15 minutes loudly cursing SCHWIF.

RUBY visited Martin's frequently, and persuaded the trio to play one night at the Carousel.

SNIDER saw RUBY almost every day during the four weeks stay in Dallas, and sbusequently saw him on other visits to Dallas, but has not seen him for about eight months. RUBY was usually accompanied by GEORGE SENATOR, who appeared to be his only close friend.

SNIDER described RUBY as high strung, and very emotional, but said he never saw RUBY lose temper, and considered him a very nice person. He said RUBY never exhibited any Un-American sentiments, and expressed high regard for late President KENNEDY, and former President ROOSEVELT.

He said he knew of no hoodlum associates of RUBY, and that RUBY appeared to know most members of Dallas Police Department, probably due to fact that RUBY employed different members of Police Department at Carousel Club on Friday's and Saturday's. SNIDER said he recalled having seen RUBY in company of two Dallas Detectives at one time, but has no knowledge of identities of these detectives.

SNIDER said he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and knows of no association between RUBY and OSWALD. He also knows of no associates, or contacts which RUBY might have in Phoenix area.

He advised he was told by MILTON JOSEPH, a jeweler whose place of business is on Commerce Street, that RUBY was known in Chicago as "Sparky" because of his high temper. ALTON CONRAD SHARPE, 1422 North Sedgewick, advised RUBY telephoned him about one week ago complaining that other clubs in Dallas were giving "amateur shows" which was against the rules of the American Guild Variety Artists (AGVA). RUBY said he was in receipt of a letter from AGVA prohibiting "amateurs" which he was forwarding for SHARPE to read. RUBY stated THOMAS S. PALMER, Branch Manager, AGVA in Dallas, would not give him a fair shake so he was calling SHARPE for his help. SHARPE told RUBY to forward the letter to Chicago and he would see what could be done.

SHARPE said he became acquainted with RUBY in Dallas during the period 1961 to 1962. At this time SHARPE represented AGVA at Dallas. SHARPE said his relationship with RUBY was a business one and he was unacquainted with RUBY's associates other than entertainers at RUBY's club.

SHARPE described RUBY as a person who became excited when a disagreement occurred. He explained that during business discussions RUBY often began to shout and pound the table during disagreements, but he "cooled" down quickly and SHARPE never saw him cause physical violence.

SHARPE said he (SHARPE) was suspended by AGVA on Thursday, November 21, 1963, when a new group took over the guild. On Saturday, November 23, 1963, SHARPE and his wife called the Dallas Office of AGVA to see if PALMER had been suspended. While SHARPE's wife was talking to PALMER's secretary, WILMA HUGHES, SHARPE remembered the letter RUBY was forwarding. SHARPE said he was afraid that if the new AGVA representative in Chicago got RUBY's letter it might cause PALMER to lose his job. With this in mind, SHARPE told his wife to leave a message with HUGHES for RUBY to "Tell JACK not to send the letter today, it would be awkward in Chicago."

SHARPE said he did not know LEE OSWALD and does not know if RUBY knew him. He is not acquainted with any other members of RUBY's family.

SHARPE said for theatrical purposes he legally changed his name from BROWN to SHARPE at Denver, Colorado.

WILLIAM R. RAINBOLT, 722 South Beckley, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed in Apartment I, 3929 Rawlings Street, Dallas. RAINBOLT advised he has been acquainted with Mrs. EVA GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, approximately six months, having met her through Mrs. PAULINE HALL, 1606 Pratt, Dallas, Texas. He advised that he met JACK RUBY only about a month ago and has seen him some three or four times since then. He stated he has never engaged RUBY in any extensive conversation.

He described EVA GRANT as being "very emotional." He stated she was a very enthusiastic fan of President KENNEDY and on more than one occasion had made remarks as to his being a wonderful President. He advised that although he had known JACK RUBY for only a brief period of time he had gained the impression that RUBY was probably a highly emotional type individual. RAINBOLT advised he was present at 3929 Rawlings, Dallas, Texas, on the afternoon of November 24, 1963, when Mrs. GRANT spoke to certain newspaper and television representatives and heard Mrs. GRANT tell one such representative that her brother, JACK RUBY, was a great admirer of President KENNEDY. RAINBOLT was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (New Orleans, Louisiana, #112 723, 8/9/63), and he advised he was not acquainted with this individual and does not ever recall having seen him. RAINBOLT related further that Mrs. GRANT told him she did not know and had never heard of OSWALT until she heard he was the person accused of assassinating President KENNEDY. He added Mrs. GRANT also stated she felt certain her brother, JACK RUBY, did not know OSWALD and had never heard of him before the assassination of President KENNEDY.

RAINBOLT stated Mrs. GRANT in his presence and on more than one occasion had made statements definitely indicating she wondered why her brother had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He added that on one such occasion Mrs. GRANT remarked, "He must have been out of his mind."

Mrs. MARY SUE BROWN, 6106 Singing Hills, who is employed by H. L. Green Company, stated she had known EVA GRANT and JACK RUBY for a number of years. EVA GRANT is a sister of JACK RUBY and came to Dallas about 18 years ago from Chicago, Illinois. It was her understanding that the mother and father of the RUBY family immigrated to this country from Russia and that the RUBY family were reared in Chicago. She said that their name originally was RUBENSTEIN, but that they now all use the name RUBY, and it is her understanding that the name was legally changed.

She said EVA GRANT divorced her husband, whose first name is unknown, before she came to Dallas. She has one son, RONNIE GRANT, who lives in Los Angeles, California, at the present time, supposedly being a draftsman there. A brother, SAM RUBY, resides in Dallas and operates two laundramats in the city. She believed him to be a decent, law-abiding and kind person.

She said that JACK RUBY was connected with the Singapore Club in Dallas when she first knew him. EVA GRANT claimed she owned this club, but Mrs. BROWN thought that perhaps JACK RUBY actually owned it and that EVA was fronting for him. About 10 years ago JACK RUBY opened the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn in Dallas, and has operated it since that time. About four years ago, he opened the night club on Commerce Street in downtown Dallas now known as the Carousel Club, which is believed to be owned by RUBY and other persons who are not known to Mrs. BROWN. She stated it was her understanding also that JACK RUBY is the part-owner of a big night club located somewhere between Fort Worth and Dallas.

She never knew JACK RUBY to be married, but stated that he lived with a blonde-headed woman, name unknown, for several years on Cole Avenue in Dallas. She understood that he was going to marry this woman who had a small girl, but the marriage insofar as she knows never took place. She did not know any friends of JACK RUBY in the police department, but stated that he associated with officers at his clubs.

She has never discussed politics with JACK RUBY and has never heard him mention Communism or Fair Play For Cuba.

She said that she had been friends with EVA GRANT for a number of years until she moved to California where she is supposed to have worked for Bing Crosby Associates. She came back to Dallas four years ago and worked at the Vegas Club on Oak Lawn in Dallas. She said that prior to her leaving Dallas, she had several visitors from Chicago, but believed those persons were just discussing show business with her. She stated that EVA GRANT is supposed to live on Rawlins Street at Oak Lawn about three blocks east of the Esquire Theater. She recalled that in 1962 she was asked by EVA GRANT to spend the night with her. She did spend the night with EVA, during which time EVA GRANT claimed that she had a stone in a diamond ring stolen and reported it to the insurance company. A few days later a detective from the Dallas Police Department called on her and asked her if she would take a polygraph test. She consented, but later changed her mind when her brother's attorney advised her not to take the polygraph test. It was her opinion that EVA GRANT might have been trying to collect money for the ring which might not have been stolen.

Mrs. BROWN said that she had never had any recent contact with JACK RUBY and had not contacted EVA GRANT since EVA had accused her of stealing the ring.

A brother, EARL RUBY, is in the mail order business in Chicago, Illinois, and she said he is reputed to have considerable wealth.

She described JACK RUBY as being a handshaker and friendly. She knew of nothing which would reflect upon his loyalty and she had no information concerning any connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

At approximately 5:30 p.m., a contact was made with JOHN W. JACKSON who advised that he was the manager of the "Bull Pen" a drive-in restaurant, located at 1936 E. Abram, telephone number CR 5-8113, residence at 1602 Browning, Arlington telephone CR 5-8113.

JACKSON advised he manages the "Bull Pen" for RALPH PAUL, owner of the "Bull Pen", who resides on Copland Road, Arlington telephone number CR 5-5352.

John Jackson

At the time of this contact, inquiry was made of JACKSON as to the whereabouts of RALPH PAUL and he stated that soon after LEE HARVEY OSWALD had reportedly been shot at the Dallas Police Department by JACK RUBY, RALPH PAUL began to receive telephone calls principally from the Press, which PAUL declined to answer and gave instructions to JACKSON that he, PAUL, was going to Dallas, Texas, but did not divulge where he might be located, leaving no address or telephone number.

At the time of this initial contact with JACKSON, he made a telephone call to the residence of RALPH PAUL, this being about 5:50 p.m. which call was not answered.

JACKSON claimed his employer RALPH PAUL would contact him as customary by telephone sometime before the closing at midnight at which time he would seek to obtain information as to his location and advise him of the FBI's request that he might be located and interviewed.

At 6:30 p.m. JOHN W. JACKSON was again contacted in person at the "Bull Pen" at which time he stated he had not received any word from RALPH PAUL and still was without knowledge as to his whereabouts. At the time of this contact, JACKSON gave verbal direction as to the place of residence of RALPH PAUL, which he stated was situated in an isolated, rural area, North of the Dallas - Fort Worth Turn Pike and direction to location.

immediately prior to JACKSON's interview at 8:45 p.m., however indicated no one in residence.

At the time of this third contact with JACKSON at his place of business, he again denied he had any information as to the location of PAUL.

He was further interrogated at this time and did admit that he by telephone had called his home and there had talked with RALPH PAUL and had informed PAUL of the attempts of the Special Agents of the FBI to locate him for interview and said if PAUL were not found at JACKSON's place of residence, 1602 Browning, then PAUL must have departed following receipt of the telephone call.

After further ingerrogation, JACKSON said PAUL formerly could be located at the residence of his (JACKSON's) sister and he voluntarily called the residence of his sister to make inquiry, whereupon JACKSON was requested by the Special Agents to accompany them to the location of his sister's residence which he did voluntarily.

Accompanying the Special Agents of the FBI, he pointed out the residence of his sister, Mrs. JACK R. GABLE, 601 Daniel Street, Arlington, at which place PAUL was located at about 9:20 p.m. Texas

In the course of the interviews conducted with JOHN W. JACKSON at the "Bull Pen" information was developed as follows:

JACKSON said he has known JACK RUBY for the past six years first becoming acquainted with that individual at the time RUBY was the owner of the Silver Spur, a night club in Dallas. RALPH PAUL, the owner of the "Bull Pen" became a silent partner with JACK RUBY in the Carousel, a strip tease joint, Dallas, about a year ago. 1

JACKSON said RALPH PAUL had received a telephone call from TOM HARMON, an attorney in Dallas, shortly before noon, November 24, 1963, at which time HARMON had inquired of PAUL if he had knowledge of what had happened and informed PAUL of the fact JACK RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Dallas Police Department.

Following this call, shortly before noon, JACKSON said he accompanied RALPH PAUL to Dallas they going to the City Hall where they made an unsuccessful attempt to see JACK RUBY.

JACK RUBY. He had never heard that individual express any political views and does not know of any association RUBY might have had with any group.

Mr. BILL ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised at 5:37 p.m. that on November 21, 1963, JACK RUBY came to the District Attorney's Office regarding four bad checks which had been written by one ROBERT E. CRAVEN. He said that three of these checks were in the amount of $100.00 and one was in the amount of $122.59. He said they determined that CRAVEN had been arrested in Los Angeles recently but had made bond. However, CRAVEN's wife had written to them in an effort to make good the checks. He said that the letterhead for CRAVEN's wife was RITA CRAVEN, dba Craven Contracting Company, 407 E. Peco Boulevard, Room 800, Los Angeles, California, telephone 474-5866. He said that CRAVEN had been in Dallas in October, 1963, and had a display at the Texas State Fair entitled "How Hollywood Makes Movies". He advised that their office or members of the Check Squad of the Dallas Police Department, had contacted Los Angeles Police Department and verified that CRAVEN had been arrested in Los Angeles and had made bond. His whereabouts is unknown. He said he felt that RUBY had been in the office merely to make inquiry concerning CRAVEN, who was a friend of his, and that he possibly made the inquiries at the request of CRAVEN.

CURT HANS LECHER, Maitre D', Bon Vivant Room, Dallas Cabana Motor Hotel, on authority of Assistant Manager CHARLES E. ECK and General Manager HOLLIS A. HARLAN, made available all guests registration cards and charge tickets for Bon Vivant Club members, hotel guests charge tickets and all cash tickets in the Bon Vivant Room as well as Nero's Nook (bar) for November 21, 1963.

A review of these records relative to the names MARTIN, MARTENS, MARTINI, MARTILAS and other names closely resembling any of these names were pulled and discussed with LECHER.

LECHER stated he could not identify anyone of these tickets with the previously mentioned persons nor to associate them with JACK LEON RUBY.

LECHER reviewed all cash tickets with SA J. DOYLE WILLIAMS for the Bon Vivant Club and stated the occupants of Booth B26 were the parties in question, however, that the tickets contained no information identifying these persons. These checks were paid for in cash.

LECHER stated he knew of no other source of information that may assist in identifying the two individuals whom he had seen talking to RUBY on the night of November 21, 1963 in the Bon Vivant Room unless RUBY himself was contacted in this regard.

MRS. RICHARD AUSTIN

DALLAS, TEXAS

Mrs. ALICE AUSTIN, 2742 Wilton, advised she first became acquainted with ROBERT GEROME STUART, commonly known as BUDDY KING, in February, 1961, when her former husband, RICHARD AUSTIN, began taking her to the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce, Dallas. At that time STUART worked as an announcer and Master of Ceremonies for this club, which is owned by JACK RUBY. STUART used the stage name of BUDDY KING and was extremely proud of the fact he played a part in "Our Gang" comedy years ago. He is an alcoholic and has a heart condition due to his alcoholism. He is constantly in and out of hospitals due to his alcoholism and "won't work as he feels the world owes him a living". He was in Veterans Hospital in Dallas for about two months due to his alcoholic condition and she, at her husband's insistence, allowed him to stay in her home for some two months. In December, 1961, STUART was arrested by the police, Dallas, for writing insufficient funds checks and spent some three months in the city jail.

She stated she last heard from STUART in January or February, 1963, at which time he was in New Mexico or Arizona, and claimed he intended to "work his way to California". She has no idea as to his present whereabouts.

Mrs. AUSTIN advised she met JACK RUBY in February, 1961, and was in his club almost nightly during the remainder of 1961. RUBY is an arrogant, boastful man who is unable to control his temper. He has never given any impression he is sympathatic toward Communism and has never expressed his political beliefs to her, or in her presence. She has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel Club, or in RUBY's presence.

A. A. BROCKLES, JR., 6015 Belmont, DALLAS, TEXAS, advised in October, 1962, he hired BUDDY K. STUART, who used the name of BUDDY KING, to manage a night club, to be called "The Torro", in Dallas, and began organizing the club. He fired STUART three days later as STUART was an alcoholic and could not "stay sober long enough to manage anything". The club had not opened when he fired STUART so in reality, STUART never performed any work for him.

He advised he has seen STUART several times since he fired him and has received phone calls asking him to loan him (STUART) money but he refused. STUART's former wife, MARION PARRISH, writes a column for the Dallas Times Herald, Dallas, Texas, and has some children fathered by STUART. BERT PECK, theatrical agent in Chicago, Illinois, is a good friend of STUART's and was the God-Father of one of STUART's children.

HAROLD ANTON SWANSON, 921 North Fitzhugh, Dallas, Texas, on November 26, 1963, advised SA HENRY J. OLIVER that he usually has coffee daily at the Mayflower Coffee Shop located at Ervay and Elm Streets, Dallas. He always sits in the first section of this coffee shop where the waitress is WANDA (LNU). About six or seven months ago, he was having coffee at the Mayflower Coffee Shop and was sitting next to a man reading a New York Times newspaper. This man was reading about the racial strife in the South and became very angry at government officials over their participation in the racial matter. He specifically was very angry at President KENNEDY and Attorney General KENNEDY. This man made many derogatory statements about the KENNEDYs, but he cannot recall the exact statements other than he believes that the man stated that the KENNEDYs should be shot. This man continued after making this statement and stated that they could be shot easily with a rifle. He has seen this man in the coffee shop about once a month since this statement was made, but he has not now seen him in about six weeks. He believes that the waitress WANDA will know who the man is and stated he seems to recall that she on one occasion called him FRANK.

He stated he has seen a photograph of JACK RUBY on television, and he resembles this man very much. He stated the reason he wanted to bring this to the attention of the FBI was that he thought this man might be RUBY since RUBY now claims that he killed OSWALD because he thought so much of KENNEDY, and if he is the man he talked to, this could not be true. He described this man as a white male, about 40-48, 5'9", 200 pounds, dark hair, but could not see top of head as he always wore a hat. This man was always well dressed in a business suit.

WANDA CATINA, waitress, Mayflower Coffee Shop, Ervay and Elm Streets, Dallas, Texas, on November 27, 1963, advised SA HENRY J. OLIVER that she knows JACK RUBY when she sees him and stated he does not frequent the Mayflower Coffee Shop. She knows nothing about the background or activities of RUBY and only knows him as she has seen him several times in some of the clubs. She advised there is a man who daily frequents the coffee shop who is always complaining about the integration situation. She stated this man fits the description of the person referred to by SWANSON and undoubtedly is the same man. She does not know this man's name and cannot furnish any further identifying information about him. She stated she has heard him make many general remarks to the effect he does not like integration but stated she definitely had never heard him make any statements about shooting President KENNEDY or anyone else. This man is definitely not identical with RUBY.

At that time she was working as a stripper for BARNEY WEINSTEIN at the Theater Lounge. ARTHUR HUBERT GIBSON, Attorney, Oklahoma City, advised that on November 24, 1963, there were a number of people discussing the disgraceful actions taken against officials of this country, particularly the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. The discussion concerned the killing by JACK RUBY of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. A number of the people discussing this matter implied that RUBY should be given swift justice without due consideration of law, to which GIBSON objected, stating that this was the thing wrong about the assassination, and the second killing that we had to stop, and made the statement, "Everybody deserves to be represented by counsel." His concern was about people taking the law in their own hands.

He admittedly said that he probably "shot off his face" on this very point, stating in effect that anybody charged with a crime deserves counsel, even if the court has to appoint counsel, in which case the attorney gets no fee.

GIBSON stated that he has absolutely no intention whatsoever of defending RUBY, and in fact this would be impossible since he does not have authority to practice law in the State of Texas because he has not been admitted to the Bar of that state.

STERLING E. MOSSMAN, temporarily domiciled at the Knickerbocker Hotel, Hollywood, California, advised he is the owner of the Queens Surf Barefoot Bar, a night club at Waikakii, Honolulu, Hawaii. During the summer of 1961, RUBY, under the name of JACK RUBENSTEIN, invited MOSSMAN to the table occupied by RUBY and two unidentified white males in MOSSMAN's night club. The unidentified males were in their late forties, one was from Dallas, the other from Chicago. MOSSMAN said he assumes RUBY and the other two men stayed at the Royal Hawaiian or the Hilton Hawaiian Village Hotel in Honolulu.

MOSSMAN said the discussion he had with RUBY was not of a subversive or controversial character. RUBY told MOSSMAN he owned the Carousel Club at Dallas. The whole discussion related to the possible increase in the number of dancers at the Carousel Club and the possible use of the dancing girls by RUBY at his Dallas night club. RUBY did not drink any intoxicants. He appeared normal but talkative. MOSSMAN said this one occasion was the only time he has talked to RUBY and the conversation lasted only about 45 minutes.

MOSSMAN said he could not say whether the men who were with RUBY were business associates, and he knew of no way of identifying them.

MOSSMAN advised that in the event further interview of him is desired, he will be temporarily residing at the Lexington Hotel in New York City.

The "Honolulu Advertiser" ran a story on November 25, 1963, that STERLING E. MOSSMAN was interviewed on November 24, 1963. He stated he met JACK LEON RUBY when RUBY came to Honolulu in June, 1961, to seek talent. RUBY was with two unidentified persons who accompanied him. RUBY allegedly corresponded with MOSSMAN concerning a possible appearance at RUBY's night club in Dallas, and he saw RUBY later that year in Dallas.

STERLING E. MOSSMAN, temporarily domiciled at the Knickerbocker Hotel, Hollywood, California, was interviewed and advised he is the owner of the Queens Barefoot Bar, a night club at Waikiki, Honolulu, Hawaii. During the summer of 1961, RUBY, under the name of JACK RUBENSTEIN, invited MOSSMAN to the table occupied by RUBY and two unidentified white males in MOSSMAN's night club. The unidentified males were in their late forties, one was from Dallas, the other from Chicago. MOSSMAN said he assumes RUBY and the other two men stayed at the Royal Hawaiian or the Hilton Hawaiian Village Hotel in Honolulu.

MOSSMAN said the discussion he had with RUBY was not of a subversive or controversial character. RUBY told MOSSMAN he owned the Carousel Club at Dallas. The whole discussion related to the possible increase in the number of dancers at the Carousel Club and the possible use of the dancing girls by RUBY at his Dallas night club. RUBY did not drink any intoxicants. He appeared normal but talkative. MOSSMAN said this one occasion was the only time he has talked to RUBY and the conversation lasted only about forty-five minutes.

MOSSMAN said he could not say whether the men who were with RUBY were business associates, and he knew of no way of identifying them.

Mr. ALBERT DUNN, 154 North Arnaz Drive, Beverly Hills, California, advised that he grew up in the same neighborhood in Chicago with JACK RUBY and that years ago, he lived with RUBY in the San Francisco area for almost two years. He stated he considered RUBY a very lovable guy but that he is quick tempered and he does have certain peculiarities. For example, when DUNN would sleep late in the morning, he was awakened by RUBY on several occasions for sleeping with his mouth open and being accused of spreading germs throughout the apartment.

DUNN stated that it is his recollection that RUBY's mother was approximately "75 per cent insane." He stated as a young woman, she was in and out of mental institutions. He stated that RUBY's father was a heavy drinker and that as a result, RUBY was raised in a very poor environment and actually lived in a private home away from his own home. DUNN stated it is his recollection that the social service of Chicago financed JACK RUBY's living away from his home.

Mike Shore

MICHAEL SHORE was contacted at his place of business, Reprise Records, 1347 Cahuenga Boulevard, Los Angeles. He stated that his home address is 109 Almont Drive, Los Angeles, and that his telephone number is 274-0043. He stated he did recall receiving a telephone call from JACK RUBY at his home within the past several months, exact date not recalled. He stated he had never met JACK RUBY but that he knew his brother, EARL RUBY, in Chicago in the 1930's when they were growing up together. He stated he use to play baseball with EARL RUBY when they were about 12 - 14 years of age. When SHORE was about 14 years of age, he ran away from Chicago but periodically would return there and would see EARL RUBY, although he never visited in his home and never knew his parents. He stated he only vaguely recalled knowing that EARL had an older brother. SHORE stated that he had an office in Chicago in connection with "Mad Man Muntz" for whom he, SHORE, did the advertising. EARL RUBY had a novelty manufacturing business in Chicago and SHORE last saw him in about 1953 or 1954. EARL moved from Chicago where he set up a laundry business in Detroit.

SHORE stated that the ~~first~~ time he ever heard from JACK RUBY was about a year and a half ago when he received a telephone call from him in Dallas, when he identified himself as "SPARKY," EARL RUBY's brother. RUBY stated he owned an artist by the name of JOHNSON, who had a Negro band, and he stated he was going to send SHORE a record for him to play to see if he could promote the artist. RUBY did send the record under a Joel label, which SHORE played, but did nothing about because JOHNSON was already on a label. SHORE stated that RUBY seemed to want to promote something and to "make a buck" and on about a dozen occasions since that time, RUBY has called him in connection with some type of sales promotion with some product of which he had knowledge. On one occasion, RUBY sent him some Wilkinson razor blades and he called him on the telephone about the blades. Most of the time he called SHORE at his office telephone, Hollywood 6-8211.

SHORE stated he was staying at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City between October 23 and 25, 1963, and he received a call from Dallas from RUBY at that time. RUBY had first called Los Angeles to attempt to locate him. He was calling in connection with trouble he was having with the American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA), whose headquarters are in New York. AGVA had sent him communications, telling him he would be in trouble if he continued to use amateur talent at his club in Dallas. RUBY told SHORE that he had ceased using this talent but that his two competitors in Dallas had continued to use them and were hurting his business. He made the statement, "They are killing me." SHORE asked him if he did not have an attorney to handle the matter and RUBY stated he did, and that they were going to threaten his competitors with a law suit. RUBY seemed very upset about the AGVA situation and sounded "hyper-thyroid." RUBY stated, "I don't know what to do." He apparently felt that because SHORE was in show business, he might have the right connections.

RUBY called SHORE again in Los Angeles about the same situation and SHORE told him that he would contact BOBBIE PHILLIPS of Associated Booking Corporation in Beverly Hills, California, who could contact IRVING MAZZEI, President of AGVA in New York. PHILLIPS later told SHORE that MAZZEI is aware of the Dallas situation and he would make the other two clubs stop using the amateur strippers. SHORE stated PHILLIPS was not contacted by RUBY.

On one occasion, RUBY indicated he had flown from Dallas to New York to try to settle the AGVA problem. SHORE stated RUBY impressed him as being a man who wanted to "get things done."

During some of the conversations with RUBY, he indicated he was "well connected" in Dallas but he did not explain what connections he had. RUBY did tell SHORE that if he ever came to Dallas or ever needed anything, he, RUBY, would help him out.

SHORE stated he knew of no mutual acquaintances except that on one occasion when talking with RUBY he indicated he knew a well-known bondsman in Chicago by the name of IRWIN S. WEINER, Aka "Struck," who is also known to SHORE. RUBY asked if he should call WEINER about the trouble he was having with AGVA but SHORE replied, "What can he do?" SHORE did not know if RUBY did call WEINER. When SHORE learned RUBY was a bachelor, he intimated that he must be acquainted with some of the "broads" in Dallas, but RUBY replied, "Never mix pleasure with business."

SHORE stated he did not know any of the associates of RUBY.

SHORE stated he received an Air Mail - Special Delivery letter from JACK RUBY, postmarked October 30, 1963, in which RUBY wrote a letter outlining his troubles with AGVA. RUBY's return address was listed as 1312½ Commerce, Dallas, Texas.

SHORE stated that RUBY never indicated to him any radical or extremist views or any subversive connections on his part and he never indicated that he had known LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She said she is presently out on bond for an arrest by the Vice Squad of the Hartford Police Department November 19, 1963, on the charge of "Indecent and Immoral Exhibition", and must appear at Police Court in Hartford, December 4, 1963. She stated that she first met JACK RUBY early in April, 1963, when she played a similar strip tease dance engagement as a feature dancer for four to five weeks, April to May, 1963, at the Carousel Nightclub, Dallas, Texas, managed by JACK RUBY. She dated with RUBY several times during the period of her engagement there and visited at his bachelor apartment in Dallas. He told her at one time that he had come from Chicago but that he "Can't go back there", but did not explain such statement to her. He was friendly with an Italian man, GEORGE LNU, who frequented the Carousel Club and visited at Ruby's apartment. This man was a manufacturer of advertising novelties in Dallas, Texas. RUBY was friendly with uniform police officers who stopped in at the club from time to time but knew of no one officer that he was particularly friendly with. During her engagement there, a strip tease dancer "KATHY" LNU was dating a uniform policeman of the Dallas Police Department, who frequently called at the club and was friendly with RUBY, but she stated she did not know the policeman's name. She knew of no criminal, subversive, or unAmerican activities, statements or associates of RUBY. He reportedly had a violent temper when aroused and was of nervous and exciteable temperment, though not a dancer. He was not under medical care insofar as she knew. She never knew him to possess a gun or to engage in violent activity, though said he had the reputation of being very strong physically and well able to take care of himself. SALVADORE VINCENT GIAMBONE, professional name SAL VINCENT, night club comedian, presently performing at the Copper Squirrel, Minneapolis, and residing at the Imperial Hotel, advised he has been acquainted with JACK RUBY for approximately two and one-half years. He first met RUBY through a WALLY WESTON, who is supposedly a friend of RUBY. WESTON recently completed an engagement at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, and his present location was unknown by GIAMBONE. MINN.

GIAMBONE obtained an engagement at the Carousel Club, Dallas, October 21 to November 3, 1963, through "PAPPY" DOLSON, Theatrical Booking Agent, Dallas.

GIAMBONE described RUBY as an explosive and violent person, who is capable of extreme behavior when angered. RUBY was very strict about types of jokes comedians could use at his club and forbid ridicule of great persons and minority groups. During his last engagement at the Carousel Club, RUBY strongly reprimanded him for telling a joke about the late President KENNEDY.

RUBY frequently associated with and had utmost respect for Dallas Police Officers; however, GIAMBONE did not know the identity of any specific police officers. GIAMBONE never knew RUBY to have a gun. GIAMBONE does not know OSWALD and knows of no association between OSWALD and RUBY. GIAMBONE never heard RUBY make any comments of a political nature or give any indications of radical or extremist views or activities. Miss LILLIAN McCARDELL, 4201 Caroline, Suite 1, Houston, Texas, advised she has known JACK RUBY professionally about two years since she is a theatrical booking agent and has booked about three exotic dancers, one singer and two male masters of ceremony to RUBY at the Carousel Club in Dallas. She states RUBY never impressed her as being politically minded or highly patriotic but rather highly emotional, "a show-off" and was out to make a fast buck. b2-1-40 Dallas, Texas

Beatrice Colgrove Mrs Paul Colgrove

About two or three years ago RUBY had operated a private club in Dallas at the same location as where the Carousel Club is now, but it did not do well and he decided to open the Carousel Club and requested her to supply $35,000 to finance this venture. She stated the business was worth less than this and she refused because she was a booking agent. Miss McCARDELL states that BEATRICE ARNELL (whose stage name is NAJADA) has informed her that about a year ago RUBY slapped her in the Carousel Club where she was employed. NAJADA went to the Dallas Police Department to report the assault and was told to forget it. She then went to JIM DOLAN, Union Representative for the American Guild of Variety Artists, 510 Interurban Building, Dallas, and was reportedly told by DOLAN to forget the incident because RUBY had too much on the Dallas Police Department for such a trivial charge.

Miss McCARDELL also stated that CHUCK MITCHELL, a singer under this stage name presently located in a club at the Villa Capri Motor Hotel, Austin, Texas, should be acquainted with JACK RUBY. The location of NAJADA in Houston area presently unknown by Miss McCARDELL but she is attempting to locate her for interview by the FBI.

Mrs. J. B. WADLINGTON, Hampton and Pleasant Run Road (CA 3-6256), advised that she and her late husband owned the property of 1717 South Ervay Street for a number of years and recalled that in the early mid 1940's, they leased the property of 1717 South Ervay to EVA GRANT, who opened and operated the Singapore Club until mid 1947. At that time, EVA GRANT encountered financial troubles and brought her brother, JACK RUBY to Dallas from Chicago, Illinois and turned the club over to RUBY, who continued to operate the club as the Silver Spur. Mrs. WADLINGTON reported that her rent receipt book reflects that JACK RUBY started paying rent in mid 1947 which was probably the time he took over from his sister, EVA GRANT, and RUBY still had the property operating same as the Silver Spur when the WADLINGTON'S disposed of the property, in 1953.

Mrs. WADLINGTON stated that she and her husband reacquired the property of 1717 South Ervay in 1957 and she is confident that RUBY did not occupy the property at that time, therefore he had terminated the operation of the Silver Spur at that address sometime between 1953 and 1957.

Mrs. WADLINGTON stated the property of 1717 South Ervay, as well as neighboring properties, were sold to one RAY WOODS in August, 1953, and she does not know the present whereabouts of WOODS, but did recall that he has for a number of years operated an automobile sales company in Dallas.

Mrs. WADLINGTON stated that during the time RUBY occupied the above referred to property while owned by the WADLINGTON's, her late husband handled the business matters and she only met JACK RUBY on a few instances when he visited the WADLINGTON's office to pay rent or for other business transactions. She said she only knew him casually, and does not recall ever meeting any of his friends, acquaintances, or associates.

Mrs. WADLINGTON stated she does not know NORMA MILLER and has never heard of that person being associated with JACK RUBY and/or the Silver Spur Club.

ASSOCIATION WITH JACK RUBY,
ALSO KNOWN AS JACK RUBENSTEIN

RALPH PAUL stated he first became acquainted with JACK RUBY, also known to him as JACK RUBENSTEIN, in 1948 at Dallas, Texas and recounted the following manner in which they first became acquainted. RUBY had introduced himself to PAUL at the Mercantile National Bank, where he, PAUL, was then doing business. This he said was a chance meeting, at which time RUBY asked "Are you connected with the Sky Club" and when PAUL told him he was, RUBY asked if he could come out to see the show and PAUL extended the invitation. RUBY accepted this invitation, saw the show at the Sky Club, and then RUBY invited PAUL to see his show at the Silver Spur night club which was being operated by RUBY. PAUL accepted this invitation.

Their relationship afterwards continued on a personal basis, each seeing the other often. RUBY sold the Silver Spur in 1956 and continued to operate the Vegas Club, Dallas, and is still owner of that night spot. About 1959 or 1960, JACK RUBY opened the Carousel Club, being a partner with JOE SLATON, a bar business owner in Dallas. SLATON and RUBY had been friends, however in the operation of the Carousel Club business they had disagreed and following this falling out, RUBY came to him (PAUL) and requested a loan of $1,000 with which to carry on the business of the Carousel Club. This was about 1960 or 1961. Since that time, RUBY has continued to ask for loans which were granted by PAUL without security, no note or any evidence of this indebtedness to him, except cancelled checks reflecting the amount of loans made.

JACK RUBY has never repaid any money loaned to him and/or the Carousel Club.

PAUL stated he believes JACK RUBY transacts his business with the Bank of Commerce, Dallas, Texas.

RALPH PAUL considers himself as the closest friend of JACK RUBY. Any acquaintances or friends of JACK RUBY he could not recall, advising the man had no close associates or friends except possibly the two following persons who have worked for RUBY: WALLY WESTON and KARL NORMAN, both comics.

As to relatives of JACK RUBY, he had knowledge of only a sister, EVE GRANT, who operates the Vegas Club, Dallas, and a brother (FNU), who owns a washateria.

About 6 p.m., Friday, November 22, 1963, JACK RUBY called at the Bull Pen and asked PAUL to go to a synagogue with him, RUBY advising he was going there to pray for President KENNEDY, who had been assassinated about noon on that date. PAUL stated that he declined this invitation inasmuch as he does not attend any synagogue. He believes JACK RUBY attends a synagogue located on Northwest Highway, Dallas. At the time of this conversation, RUBY said "You are going to hate me for this, I'm going to be closed for three days". RUBY informed he had placed in both Dallas daily newspapers notices to the effect the Carousel Club would be closed Saturday, Sunday and Monday, November 23-25, 1963. RALPH PAUL reminded RUBY his competitors would be open and he (PAUL) considered this act of closing foolish but advised RUBY if he wanted to do it that way, to go ahead, whereupon RUBY stated that was the way he felt about the President.

RUBY next called by telephone about 3 p.m., Saturday, November 23, 1963, and asked if he (PAUL) had seen the advertisement in the papers and PAUL again reminded him he thought the closing of the Carousel Club foolish.

PAUL advised he had no further contacts with RUBY in any form since the above contacts, which were made by telephone.

JACK RUBY continued informing PAUL he thought the assassination of the President was a terrible thing and repeated this many times, to which PAUL agreed. RUBY did not in any way reveal any plans he might have or his intentions with relationship to what had happened to President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

PAUL advised RUBY had never discussed with him his political philosophy or views and in the past had objected to the master of ceremonies of the Carousel shows making any sarcastic remarks to the President personally.

PAUL said he regards RUBY as a loyal citizen of the United States and could not explain why RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He further advised that he found it difficult to believe the news when he first heard it and after being later informed by HOWARD (LNU) this was true, he, PAUL, attempted to call JACK RUBY's home in Dallas, telephone WH 1-6501, but was unable to get any answer.

PAUL then called TOM HARMON, his and JACK RUBY's attorney, Dallas, and informed HARMON of the news which had been received and requested HARMON to find out about the matter. Within about 45 minutes, HARMON returned the call and requested PAUL to come to his, HARMON's office. Accompanying him to HARMON's office that afternoon on November 24, 1963, were JOHN JACKSON, manager of the Bull Pen and TAMMY TRUE, a former entertainer at the Carousel Club, now residing in Fort Worth, Texas and who had come to the Bull Pen, she first calling PAUL and advising she wished to accompany him to the City Hall, Dallas. After arriving at the Dallas City Hall that afternoon on November 24, 1963, the three were informed by the Dallas Police Department they would not be permitted to see JACK RUBY. They then went to TOM HARMON's office, where they remained about two hours, this being between 1:30 and 2:30 p.m., after which JACKSON and TAMMY TRUE left Dallas and he, PAUL, went to the Majestic Theater, Dallas, where he saw a picture show, name of which he could not recall or the general theme, but in which he said JOHN WAYNE was an actor. He claimed he left the Majestic Theater about 7:30 p.m., drove to the home of JOHN JACKSON, 1602 Browning, Arlington, Texas, where he remained one hour and then drove to the residence of JOHN JACKSON's sister, Mrs. JACK R. GABLE, 1601 Daniel Street, Arlington. He remained there until he was contacted by SA's DAVID H. BARRY and ROBERT C. LISH.

RALPH PAUL described JACK RUBY as an emotional, impulsive individual who talked loudly and whom people think of as being a person of high temper, this being based on his reactions and loud speech.

He claimed that RUBY has taken needy people off the streets of Dallas, has fed them and taken them into his home and has provided jobs for persons without employment. PAUL said RUBY is not a wealthy person but has made the remark that he would divide what he has as long as he has a dollar.

He could not recall any particular hobbies of JACK RUBY except of his interest in dachounds, a breed of dogs.

He stated JACK RUBY never dates any girls performing at the club, however does date outside women but does not have a steady girl friend.

He commented that JOE BONDS, presently confined to the Texas Department of Corrections, and JACK RUBY were close friends at one time but later became enemies and it was JOE BONDS, who at New York City had induced him, PAUL, to come to Dallas originally. PAUL had known JOE BONDS in New York about one and one-half years, BONDS' wife being an entertainer known as DALE BELMONT. It was through her that he first met JOE BONDS in New York City.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, New Orleans Police Department No. 112723, was shown to RALPH PAUL. He claimed he does not know OSWALD, failed to identify the photograph, and said he had never heard of this person prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He maintained he had never seen OSWALD and JACK RUBY together, had never heard RUBY mention OSWALD's name or give any indication of any acquaintanceship with OSWALD.

The above interview was terminated at 11:55 p.m.

RALPH PAUL, 1936 E. Abrams, Arlington, Texas, advised the S&R, Inc., owns the Carousel, Dallas, that he owns 50 per cent of S&R Inc. He stated he received 500 shares of 50 per cent of S&R Inc. from RUBY as collateral as indebtedness of RUBY to him. He then stated that he does not own the stock but that it is rather collateral for RUBY's indebtedness.

PAUL said S&R Inc. was originally formed by one SLAYTON and JACK RUBY, that the Soverign Club, a private club was operated at the outset by S&R Inc., that it was terminated and the Carousel opened. He said he believes KARL RUBY, brother of JACK, owns the remaining 500 shares or 50 per cent of S &R Inc.

It was noted Mr. PAUL appears extremely confused as to the question of whether he owns shares of stock or whether it is merely collateral. He stated he can be reached at one of the following telephone numbers in Arlington:

PAUL said he lives at an un-numbered house on Copeland Road, Arlington, the Abrams Street address above being that of the "Bull Pen", his drive-in restaurant.

J. H. BRYANT, Supervisor, Texas Liquor Control Board, (TLCB), residence 10136 Suez Street, El Paso, Texas, advised he met JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, about eight years ago at which time he, BRYANT, was doing undercover work for the TLCB. This was in connection with RUBY's operation of a night club on South Ervay Street, Dallas. He advised RUBY also operated the Vegas Club in Dallas. BRYANT stated he did not know RUBY very well, but in the course of his business, which later was as an "open" inspector, got to know RUBY to speak to casually.

BRYANT advised he knew of no law enforcement or political contacts of RUBY nor did he know or hear of any subversive connections of RUBY. He advised he had never heard RUBY express any radical or extremist views and also advised that he has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD or heard RUBY mention him.

BRYANT advised RUBY always seemed pleasant and that he, BRYANT, never saw or heard of RUBY becoming violent.

BRYANT stated that RUBY was in trouble with TLCB, on one occasion that he can recall, which he believes occurred in 1955 or 1956. He believed that this was for selling or permitting consumption of beer after hours. BRYANT could not recall the name of the club involved but stated that the record may still be in the Dallas District Office. He advised that the TLCB is only required to keep records for two years but needs approval from Austin, Texas, before destroying any records. He advised that the Dallas District Office may have a copy of a personal history form on RUBY, which, though not mandatory, he believes the Dallas District required when receiving an application for a beer and wine license.

BRYANT advised he knows of no associates, friends or employees of RUBY now in the El Paso area. He stated that one JOE BONDS who formerly operated a club in Dallas, possibly the Blue Bonnet, apparently is a friend of RUBY's. He advised that in 1955 or 1956 he raided BONDS' club, and RUBY showed up to take the club money from BONDS to deposit in the bank. He believed BONDS was put in the Dallas City Jail on a charge of selling beer after hours. He stated that he heard that BONDS jumped bond and was later arrested in Washington, D. C., running another club.

JOE BONDS, Texas Department of Corrections Number 151515, upon interview at Wynne Prison Farm, advised as follows:

BONDS is serving a sentence on a sodomy charge out of Dallas, Texas.

He has known JACK RUBY from 1948 until 1954. Bonds introduced RUBY to the owner of the Silver Spur Night Club in Dallas, Texas in 1948, and RUBY subsequently bought this club. In 1952, RUBY became a partner with BONDS in the Vegas Club, Dallas, but bought BONDS out several months later for $2500. BONDS described RUBY as not interested in politics, but more interested in money and publicity in connection with business ventures. RUBY had a bad temper, would fight with night club customers, and considered himself a "tough guy". RUBY was very friendly with police officers, and this began when an officer names JOHNNY SIDES was killed. RUBY held a benefit for SIDES at his club and turned the proceeds over to the family of SIDES.

RUBY, according to BONDS, would encourage police officers to frequent his clubs, and he gave some of them off-duty paying jobs in his clubs. He would also give free dinners and drinks to officers, and made women available to officers who were both entertainers and customers. BONDS furnished no identities of police officers so favored, but indicated they were primarily members of the Dallas Police Department. BONDS further commented that during the Korean War RUBY welcomed service men at his club, and he treated them to free meals and drinks.

IRVING ALKANA, 26031 18th Street, advised that he was a resident of Dallas, Texas from approximately 1949 to 1955. He stated that he frequented various night clubs in Dallas in 1952. During one of these visits to an unrecalled night club, he was introduced to JACK RUBY. He purchased the Studio Lounge, 3508 Oaklawn Avenue, Dallas, and renamed it the Club Vegas. This purchase was made sometime in the latter part of 1952 or early 1953.

ALKANA stated that he was having difficulty running this club, and he was approximately $6,000 in debt to the United States Government. He agreed to a lease purchase sale agreement with RUBY whereby RUBY obtained one third interest in the Club Vegas. This sale was made in 1953. The lease purchase option ran until December of 1953. RUBY had complete control over the operations of the Club Vegas and he operated the club together with a close friend of his JOE BONDS. In September of 1953, RUBY advised ALKANA that he, RUBY, could not obtain funds needed for purchase of the Club Vegas prior to December of 1953, and he, therefore, offered to cancel his option for a one third interest in the Club. ALKANA stated that he agreed to this arrangement and he then took over the management of the Club. ALKANA stated that between September, 1953 and June 19, 1954, he had numerous disagreements with RUBY regarding the operation of the Club Vegas.

ALKANA stated that on one occasion in April or May, 1953, he had a fist fight with RUBY at the Club Vegas. RUBY was arrested and booked at the Dallas City Jail. ALKANA stated that he does not know the exact charge but believes that it was for carrying a concealed weapon since at the time of the fight, RUBY had a .38 caliber snub-nose revolver in his possession. ALKANA states that RUBY always carried a revolver with him, claiming that he did this since he carried large sums of money.

ALKANA states that after he sold his two third interest in the Club Vegas to RUBY on June 19, 1954, he saw RUBY on several occasions before leaving the Dallas, Texas area in 1955. ALKANA states that he has only seen RUBY once since 1955 that being on a visit he made to Dallas in 1960.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ALKANA states that RUBY is a very emotional and unstable individual. He seemed to know every policeman in Dallas and every important official and newspaper man. ALKANA states he does not know the names of any particular police officers, officials or newspaper men with whom RUBY is acquainted, but stated that RUBY seemed to know everyone who was anybody in the City of Dallas.

ALKANA stated that on one occasion, RUBY mentioned that he had a sister and a brother, but he does not know that RUBY ever mentioned their names. He stated that he cannot recall ever meeting any member of the RUBY family. He stated that RUBY had a girl friend named ALICE (last name unknown) during the period of time that he knew RUBY in Dallas from 1953 to 1955. He stated, however, that he cannot furnish any additional information concerning ALICE (last name unknown).

ALKANA states that he never met or saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD and does not know any connection that RUBY might have had with OSWALD. ALKANA stated that RUBY never appeared to have any particular interest in politics. He did not know of any political activity on his part. ALKANA stated that he knows of no information concerning the Fair Play for Cuba Committee or any other political organization in Dallas in which RUBY was associated.

ALKANA stated that RUBY intimated that he had contacts with various underworld figures but that the only specific individual ever mentioned by RUBY was MICKEY COHEN. He stated that on one occasion during the period 1952 - 1954, RUBY mentioned that he had known MICKEY COHEN in the past. He further advised that RUBY never made any direct statements concerning important individuals whom he might have known but often gave the insinuation that he knew everybody that was worth knowing. ALKANA stated that he never believed RUBY had any associations with important people but he liked to give that impression. He stated that the only individual he knew with whom RUBY was associated who might be able to furnish additional information concerning RUBY would be JOE BONDS. He stated that to his knowledge, JOE BONDS is still located in Dallas, Texas and should be well known to Dallas City Police files since he believes that BONDS was arrested on several occasions by the Dallas City Police Department.

ALKANA stated that RUBY had a violent temper and that he witnessed several fist fights between RUBY and customers at the Silver Slipper which was owned by RUBY and on one occasion a fist fight between RUBY and a customer at the Club Vegas. ALKANA stated that on all of these occasions, the customers were intoxicated and were attempting to disrupt entertainment activities at the clubs. He stated that on these occasions, RUBY would remove the customer by hitting him with anything at his disposal and immediately remove him from the premises. He stated he cannot recall ever seeing RUBY pull his revolver on anyone and has never heard that RUBY had, in fact, ever threatened anyone with a gun.

ALKANA stated that his only fist fight with RUBY occurred in April or May of 1954 and that the reason for this fight was that RUBY thought that he was making money with the Club Vegas and was not giving RUBY his share. He stated that RUBY telephonically contacted him at his residence in Dallas and told him that "if you're man enough, I'll meet you down at the Club Vegas and we'll settle this matter with our fists." ALKANA stated that he then called the Dallas Police Department, advised them of the statement made by RUBY and the fact that he was going to go to the Club Vegas and meet RUBY and that he expected trouble. He stated when he arrived at the Club, RUBY immediately began throwing punches and that after several minutes, he succeeded in securing a head lock on RUBY and held him until police arrived. He stated that during this altercation, RUBY at no time threatened him with the revolver which the police discovered on RUBY's person.

ALKANA stated that he considered RUBY to be an individual who always wanted to be the biggest man in Dallas and who is always looking for a "big score." He stated that by the words "big score" he means RUBY would always be looking for some way to own the biggest and best night club in the Dallas area. He stated that he knew of no criminal activities on the part of RUBY other than the various difficulties that RUBY had with city officials over violations of city ordinances concerning serving drinks at his club after curfew hours. He stated he did not believe that RUBY ever knowingly violated these regulations but that customers of his were responsible for the violations and since RUBY was the owner of the night club, he was held responsible by city officials. ALKANA stated he cannot furnish any specific information concerning these violations.

ALKANA stated that RUBY always appeared to him to be a person who sought the spot light in any matter in which he could possibly become involved. He stated that RUBY often frequented the Dallas Police Department and wanted to be in on every important matter concerning the City of Dallas.

ALKANA stated that his best description of RUBY would be that he is completely unpredictable in his actions.

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, JR., 3821 Dickson Circle, Apartment C, employed as bartender and who works as an assistant to JACK LEON RUBY in the management of the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, Dalas, Texas, advised he has been working there for about the past year for RUBY.

Dallas, Texas

ARMSTRONG advised he had engaged in conversation with RUBY on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, at which time RUBY appeared to be very much upset over the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. This contact was made shortly after noon on that date, was from the offices of The Dallas Morning News. ARMSTRONG advised he does not know whether or not his employer, RUBY, had witnessed the Presidential parade pass but at the time of the conversation on Friday, shortly after noon, RUBY did not make mention that he had witnessed the Presidential motorcade, however, did appear to be emotionally upset over the assassination.

ARMSTRONG advised that the last contact he had with RUBY was about 9:00 PM, Saturday, November 23, 1963, at which time RUBY did not make any mention as to his plans or intentions and seemed much more calm and settled in his conversation as compared to that on the previous day.

ARMSTRONG described RUBY as highly emotional, and one who would not allow jokes on the part of the master of ceremonies in the club which might be construed as being in an unfavorable light concerning certain races, religious faiths and political affiliations.

At the time of talking wo RUBY on Friday, November 22, 1963, he had informed the Carousel Club would be closed Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights. The club was open for business on Monday, November 25, 1963, he said upon the instructions of EVA GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY.

The photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown to ARMSTRONG and he failed to identify such as being a patron of the Carousel Club and claimed he could not recall ever having seen this person at the club or in the company of JACK RUBY.

ANDREW ARMSTRONG, JR., employed as bartender, the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, advised JACK RUBY had allowed one LARRY (LNU) to sleep at the Carousel Club and had seen that individual from about the time the State Fair of Texas had been in session at Dallas during October, 1963.

LARRY had been employed at a concession of some kind at the State Fair and after the business had been unsuccessful had lost his job and was taken in by RUBY. LARRY, further identification unknown, left the premises of the Carousel on Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, and has not been seen around the place since. His whereabouts or destination were unknown.

A list of names of the persons calling JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club had been maintained by LARRY in a small spiral notebook with blue cover, the purpose of his recording the names being to inform RUBY these individuals had called. The names, telephone numbers and addresses had been written in this book by LARRY, whose full name possibly is C. L. CRAWFORD or CRAFORD, as is evidenced by a handwritten letter left in the room which he occupied at the Carousel.

The original notebook described above was obtained from ANDREW ARMSTRONG, JR., Bartender, Carousel Club.

Mr. ARMSTRONG also made available a letter which he said had been written by C. L. CRAFARD. This letter was on the letterhead stationery of Jack Ruby Associates, Dallas, Texas. In the upper right hand corner was the name C. L. Crafard, 1912 1/2 Commerce. The letter is as follows:

"Dear Gail, C. L. Crafard C. L. Crawford

"I was pleased to hear from you, but surprized to hear that you were shoked at what I said as I thought that you could tell it by looking "at my face and the way I questioned you & talked to you. I guess that for some stupid reason I hoped that you might have felt the same way. Stupid of me I know but that just goes to show you that you can't trust yourself. Believe me you I tried to stop it from happing but there is no stopping something like that. You can lie to your mind but not to your heart. Well I guess thats enough of this foolishness now to get on to something of importance. First congradulations and best of luck. I hope you all the happyness in the world. Gail I've tried really tried to feel like a cousin but Darling it is very hard to do. Believe me you. You asked me what I'd been doing well as I told you I am working here in a club. It is called the Carosuel Club and to tell you the truth I don't really care for it but it is a living. I would like to see you real soon but think it would be best all the way around if I dont try. But Darling my heart cries out aganst this. If I do what I want to I'd be back there as quick as I can but I know that it would do no good."

WILLIS advised he has been employed as a drummer at the Club Carousel for approximately two years. During this period he has become well acquainted with JACK RUBY. RUBY's closest friends appear to be GEORGE SENATOR and RALPH PAUL. He believes PAUL may have a financial interest in the Club Carousel.

WILLIS is personally interested in history and has tried unsuccessfully to draw RUBY into conversations of history and politics. RUBY seemed to be uninterested in current events and politics. At one time he did become emotionally disturbed and was practically in tears over a discussion of the persecution of the Jews in Germany. WILLIS has heard RUBY speak of CASTRO in such a derogatory manner that it was obvious he did not like him and was not in sympathy with the CASTRO government in Cuba.

WILLIS advised that it has become common in the entertainment world to put on harmless skits making fun of the KENNEDY family and often after the presentation of such skits, RUBY would off-stage, openly express great admiration for President KENNEDY.

WILLIS talked by telephone to RUBY on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, and at that time, RUBY informed him the Club Carousel would be temporarily closed because of the President's assassination. RUBY said that the assassination was the most horrible thing that had ever happened and expressed great personal distress over the incident. He said, "Can you imagine what a miserable critter that OSWALD is". He was half sobbing during the conversation and WILLIS was amazed at the manner in which RUBY was affected by the tragedy. Nothing further was said about OSWALD and he did not see RUBY or talk to him again.

WILLIS stated that RUBY is a highly emotional person who has no control over his emotions. He was prone to argue with his employees and acquaintances over trivial matters and to fire his employees with the slightest provocation. He reacted violently when aroused and was often involved in brawls.

As an example of his highly explosive nature, about one year ago, he became angry with a patron who had ignored his request to pay his admission to the Club Carousel or leave and beat him severely and threw him down the stairs. This was done so quickly that Vice Squad officers on duty at the club, were not even aware of the incident.

WILLIS stated that he knows from personal recollection that RUBY was at the Club Carousel every night for approximately two weeks prior to November 22, 1963, inasmuch as RUBY participated in the shows on these nights. He would arrive at the club no later than 10:30 PM each night. He knew that RUBY had a .38 caliber revolver which he carried with him when handling proceeds from the operation of the club. He did not know whether RUBY carried the gun on other occasions.

WILLIS advised that he was aware of the statements made by BILL DeMAR, master of ceremonies at the Club Carousel to the effect that a patron, similar in appearance to OSWALD, had participated in the show recently at the club. WILLIS had talked to DeMAR and tried to pin him down as to the particular night the particular patron he had reference to, and had found DeMAR very vague and non-specific. WILLIS advised that he thought also that the photographs of OSWALD resembled a patron who had participated in the show a few nights ago. He recalled that this man was alone at a table near the front and was wearing a blue denim jacket and a white T-shirt. He came early and stayed late. At no time did he talk to JACK RUBY within WILLIS' presence. WILLIS stated he is not sure he has the same man in mind that DeMAR has referred to. He believes it is only remotely possible this man is identical to OSWALD, and is personally convinced there was only a superficial resemblance.

JOHN HAROLD ANDERSON, 2409 Atkinson Street, Irving, Texas, advised as follows:

ANDERSON stated that he has known JACK RUBY for about 1½ years but only casually until August 18, 1963, at which time he began working for RUBY as a trumpet player in a combo at RUBY's place of business, the Carousel Club in Dallas. They have played nightly from 9:00 PM until 1:30 AM. He stated that while working at the club, the strong lights are shining into their faces, making it difficult to clearly see the patrons in the place. He added that during intermissions, he usually steps into the rear of the establishment and very seldom sees or mixes with the patrons.

ANDERSON was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that he has never seen this individual to his knowledge and knows nothing about him except what he has seen on television and read in the papers since the assassination of President KENNEDY. He added that he has never seen this individual in the Carousel Club and has never heard anyone say that OSWALD has ever been there or has ever associated with RUBY.

ANDERSON then advised that he has never associated socially with RUBY and has carried on very little conversation with him, other than concerning business matters, but does not recall ever hearing RUBY say anything which would indicate that he might have had an unusually strong like or dislike for President KENNEDY. He stated that he in fact, obtained the impression that RUBY was an admirer of President KENNEDY but only as any other normal admirer. He stated that he has never known RUBY to express any extreme show of emotion concerning political matters.

ANDERSON stated that RUBY is undoubtedly a man of a quick temper, and explosive volatile personality, who is quick to become angry because of trivial matters and he has seen him on several occasions become extremely angry with various employees and on those occasions, he would shout at them.

ANDERSON stated he wished to add, however, that in his opinion, RUBY is a man with a big heart and also can show extreme emotion of friendship and kindness. He stated that inspite of RUBY's temper, and strong emotions, he could not consider him to be the type who would resort to murder.

Nancy Miss POWELL is a striptease dancer who dances under the name of TAMMI TRUE. During the past two years, with the exception of approximately four months, she has danced continually at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas.

Tami True Tammi True

Miss POWELL first became acquainted with JACK RUBY approximately five years ago when he was operating the Vegas Club in Dallas. Miss POWELL often went to the Vegas Club as a customer. Since she has been dancing at the Carousel Club she has become well acquainted with JACK RUBY who is the owner and operator of the Carousel Club and considers him a close personal friend. Tami True

Miss POWELL has never dated JACK RUBY and has never known RUBY to date girls from the show at the Carousel. However RUBY does date girls regularly some of whom appear in other clubs in Dallas. Miss POWELL said that RUBY was "definitely not homosexual". RUBY's general relationship with his employees was good, however, RUBY had the type of temperament that would cause him to loose his temper and yell at his employees but after he had gotten the grievance off his chest he would forget about it. Tammy True

Miss POWELL last saw JACK RUBY on the evening of November 19, 1963 and has not seen him or talked to him since that time. She quit her job at the Carousel on November 19 because of the difficulty she had commuting between Fort Worth and Dallas.

Miss POWELL never heard JACK RUBY discuss politics but indicated that he was an individual who felt very strongly about little things and could build himself up to a "breaking point" over things that did not amount to much. She never saw RUBY with a gun but assumed that he had one since he carried large sums of money each night from the Carousel Club to his apartment. She felt the club was solvent financially and knew that JACK RUBY had no financial difficulties.

RUBY has, what she believes, 50 per cent interest in the club, the other half being owned by RALPH PAUL who operates the Bull Pen in Arlington, Texas, and lives on a rural route in Arlington.

RUBY had an obsession concerning the operation of the Carousel Club and did everything possible to operate this club in the proper manner and would not tolerate his master of ceremonies telling religious, obscene, or political jokes nor would he allow his comics to ridicule any particular group. Miss POWELL knows of no real difficulty with the law that RUBY has been involved in with the exception of an incident that happened approximately four weeks ago. This incident involved a dancer by the name of JADA who was from New Orleans, Louisiana, and had been dancing at the club for two or three months. JACK RUBY had cautioned JADA concerning some obscenity in her act and had instructed her to clean up her act. One night RUBY was forced to turn off the lights on JADA's act when he felt that she was "way out of line". An argument ensued after this incident. JACK RUBY refused to pay JADA and according to JADA threatened to throw her down the stairs. JADA allegedly swore out a complaint against JACK RUBY for the above threats and this was settled before Dallas Night Judge RICHBERG and JACK RUBY paid JADA her back salary and she left Dallas.

Miss POWELL knows of no close relationship between RUBY and any particular newspapermen or policemen and indicated that RUBY was well known both at the Police Department and Sheriff's Office as well as being well acquainted with many newspapermen in the city of Dallas. Miss POWELL indicated that RUBY would be recognized by almost anyone on the Dallas Police Department and felt that he was most likely recognized by the police and ignored because they were acquainted with him.

Miss POWELL indicated that JACK RUBY's closest friend is RALPH PAUL and stated that she did not know any particular women with whom he was associated.

Miss POWELL was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that OSWALD was unknown to her. She was positive that she had never seen OSWALD in the Club Carousel.

She said she knew JACK RUBY in an employer-employee relationship. She said RUBY was not to her knowledge a gambler and to her knowledge never associated with carnival people. She said he formerly went with a woman for a number of years whose name she did not know and believed he had a slight acquaintanceship with an exotic dancer named TAWNY ANGEL, about a year previous. She thought TAWNY ANGEL was a member of the AGVA in Dallas, Texas. She said that in her opinion, GAIL RAVEN, real name BARBARA MURPHY, was never a girl friend of JACK RUBY. She said, however, GAIL was attending a beauty school in Woodsboro, Texas, and was about 19 years old. She said that she believed RUBY formerly had an associate named JOE SLAYTON in a club operation in Dallas about three years ago. She said she did not believe PAT MORGAN to be a very close friend of JACK RUBY although RUBY knew him because he was in the same business.

SHARI ANGEL WESTON, also known as SHARI ANGEL, Apartment 13, 4617 Samuels Boulevard, advised that she is 29 years old and has known JACK RUBY, also known as JACK RUBENSTEIN for over 14 years. She said her husband, WALLY WESTON, has worked for RUBY for about one year and two months and has known him for the past three years. She said that JACK runs the Carousel Club and his sister runs the Vegas Club, which is also owned by JACK presumably.

Mrs. WESTON said that she has observed that JACK RUBY is a very unusual person who has very few close friends or associates. He has a violent flaring temper which causes him to commit acts without reason and then to regret them. She recalled that he has a knack for promotional devices and executes them always for his selfish personal gain. She noted that he promotes the few friends that he has for his personal gain and in spite of his impetuous actions he is always sympathetic after he hurts anyone and tries to make amends with these persons whom he hurts.

She said that she had never heard him express anything about his political beliefs, but he has gone into "insane rages" on many occasions and rumor has it in the not too distant past, he beat his sister quite severely. She stated that she knows of no club membership or lodges or civic groups that he might belong to and he has never expressed any views which she would construe to be Un-American, pro-communist, or radical as far as political expressions are concerned. She said he has never critized the American form of Government or its leaders in any manner and has never been sympathetic toward any country which is not democratic in its form of Government. She recalled that he refused to allow jokes to be told by the players in his club which had to do with politics or racial matters and along this line she definitely recalled that he was extremely sensitive toward his "Jewish background". Mrs. WESTON said that RUBY has an extreme inferiority complex and it is her first impression after hearing of the murder of OSWALD that this act was occasioned by an intense desire on the part of RUBY to make a name for himself and obtain the nation-wide publicity which would accompany such a horrible situation. She said it was also possible that he may have built up a fit of anger against OSWALD by having observed OSWALD at the jail over an extended period of time and he may not have been able to control his emotions and impluses when he saw OSWALD and had a gun in his possession and murdered him without reason and premeditation.

She said RUBY had many close contacts with various members of the Dallas Police Department and some of his intense anger or whatsoever motivated him to murder OSWALD may have been occasioned by this friendship for members of the police department and as a result of OSWALD'S having murdered one of them, RUBY could have committed the act of murder. Mrs. WESTON stated she believed if RUBY had moved in a manner to create publicity for himself, she did not feel that he would have intended to murder OSWALD, but merely to have wounded him to attract attention for himself. She said her husband WALLY WESTON was presently in Dallas, but he spent most of his time at the "Kings Club" in Oklahoma City. She recalled that RUBY had no close personal friends to her knowledge, except her husband and one GEORGE (last name unknown), who lived next door to RUBY before he moved into his present apartment and she believed he might be helping RUBY'S sister in the management of the Vegas Club. She said RUBY formerly had a blonde haired middle-aged girl friend whom he went with rather steadily for sometime, but quit this acquaintanceship several years ago and she believed his sister would be able to identify this person.

She said that he had been known to go with some of the people who worked for him as entertainers very briefly and it seemed that he had no real desire to be with women, however, it was common knowledge that whenever he made acquaintance of a female he would ask her if she believed him to be masculine or to have a good physique. She said he seemed to be conscious of the fact that he is getting older, which has made him more eager to win the favor of women by asking them questions as to whether they thought he had a good physique. She said this more or less demonstrated his hidden inferiority complex in her opinion. She further advised that girls he had dated had commented about his uncouth manners and untidy dress and it was for this reason few girls desired to have any dates with him. She also stated as far as she personally was concerned, she found him an extremely difficult person to even talk to since he always spoke in a very loud manner which was irritating to the person he was talking to. She stated she presumed he carried a pistol with him because he always carried the club's receipts with him, but she had never observed him when he was carrying the gun. She said she was unable to name any of the persons who might add to information she had furnished about him except her husband, WALLY WESTON, who perhaps is his closest friend at the time. She stated it was her personal opinion that RUBY was a man with a "big heart" who would do anything for anyone if he liked them.

She said with regard to the information that BILL DE MAR, an entertainer presently appearing at the Carousel had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Carousel, that she personally felt this might be a publicity attempt on the part of DE MAR. Mrs. WESTON continued "you must remember we are all entertainers and some of us will do almost anything for publicity purposes." She said from her own experience working at the Carousel Club, it was difficult for her to understand how DE MAR could have recognized OSWALD by merely observing him as a customer at the Carousel, particularly when DE MAR was on the stage with a spotlight in his face and faces of persons in the audience were not clearly visible.

Ind.

Mrs. WESTON said she has not seen RUBY since the President's assassination on November 22, 1963 and she is unable to account for his whereabouts since that time.

JOYCE LEE WITHERSPOON MC DONALD, also known as "Joy Dale", of 424½ West Tenth Street, Apartment 3, was Dallas, Texas interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street where she is employed as an exotic dancer. Joyce Witherspoon Mc Donald

MC DONALD advised that she has known JACK RUBY for the past two years as two years ago she went to work for RUBY's sister as a waitress at the Vegas Club in Dallas. She began employment at the Carousel Club as a stripper in August, 1963.

MC DONALD described RUBY as a friendly, helpful person and stated that she had never heard him discuss politics other than that he made it known that he approved of President KENNEDY's physical fitness program. She advised that she last saw RUBY at 3 o'clock Friday evening, November 22, 1963, at which time she went to the Carousel Club. RUBY was sitting in the club crying. She mentioned to him what a terrible thing it was that the President had been killed, and he told her not to talk about it as it would only upset him further. She thought his actions to be strange at the time as she had never seen him cry before; that he usually attempted to project himself as a rough, tough individual.

MC DONALD was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she advised that she had never seen him in the Carousel Club and that she doubted very much if the Master of Ceremonies at the club, BILL DE MAR, had ever seen OSWALD there as it is very difficult to distinguish faces in the club due to the lighting arrangements.

MC DONALD stated Texas that RUBY knows numerous policemen; that he liked all policemen, however, personally knew Detective BOB CARROLL of the Dallas Police Department and also knew TONY ZALPY (phonetic), a reporter with the Dallas Morning News. She stated that she knew of RUBY's association with CARROLL and ZALPY as each had come to the club on numerous occasions and had gone to RUBY's office to discuss matters with him.

According to MC DONALD, around October 11, 1963, RUBY met a fellow by the name of LARRY (LNU) and got him a

After the fair had ended, JACK RUBY gave LARRY a job at the Carousel Club operating the stage lights from about the middle of October until November 23, 1963, when LARRY departed from Dallas, and his present whereabouts is unknown to Miss MC DONALD. She stated that she did not know LARRY's full name nor did she know anything concerning his background. Several days prior to his departure from Dallas, he had indicated that he was "getting itchy feet" and was ready to move on.

LARRY was described as white male American, about 23, sandy hair, 5'8" to 5'10", slender, and with four front upper teeth were missing.

Miss ELAINE ROGERS, 1728 North Fitzhugh, Apartment 101, furnished the following information:

Miss ROGERS has lived in Dallas, Texas, for the past three years and has been employed by the Bell Telephone Company in Dallas. Shortly after her arrival in Dallas, Miss ROGERS met JACK RUBY through a girl friend, MAYRILYN MOONE, who worked for RUBY.

Miss ROGERS was never an employee of RUBY's and saw him only infrequently when she went to the Carousel Club or the Vegas Club in Dallas to visit MAYRILYN MOONE. Miss ROGERS never dated RUBY, although on each occasion that she saw him he would ask her for a date. Soon after meeting RUBY, he started telephoning her several times each week. On each occasion, RUBY would ask Miss ROGERS to go out with him and read poetry to her over the telephone which was suggestive in nature but not obscene. Miss ROGERS could not recall the text of this poetry. As RUBY continued to call, his conversations over the phone became progressively more obscene. The obscenity of these calls progressed to the point where they were completely obscene, and Miss ROGERS felt that RUBY obtained some sexual gratification from the conversations had over the phone. RUBY began each obscene conversation with furnishing Miss ROGERS a detailed description of his privates. He told her that he had been circumcised and this would enable him to give her greater pleasure. RUBY would then describe in minute detail how he would have sexual intercourse with her and describe in great detail the pleasure she would derive from this act. Miss ROGERS indicated that the longer RUBY talked the more excited he became, and as indicated above, she felt that he derived sexual pleasure from these phone calls. RUBY made two or three additional calls, at which time very similar conversations took place as described above. He finally quit making these calls when Miss ROGERS refused to listen. In view of RUBY's almost continuous occupation with sex and his continuous attempts to impress all of the girls with how great a man he was, Miss RUBY feels very strongly that JACK RUBY is a homosexual.

Miss ROGERS was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that he was unknown to her. The last time Miss ROGERS saw RUBY was on Wednesday night, November 20, 1963, when she went to the Carousel Club with a date by the name of HERB KRAVITZ, 4039 Cole Avenue, Dallas, Texas. Prior to going to the Carousel Club, KRAVITZ told Miss ROGERS that he was well acquainted with JACK RUBY and was afraid to see RUBY because of some argument they had had. Mr. KRAVITZ did not explain the nature of the argument with RUBY to Miss ROGERS. Miss ROGERS does not think RUBY shot OSWALD because of any feeling of patriotic duty but feels that it is merely another attempt on the part of RUBY to be a "big man."

KAREN BENNETT-KARLIN, also known as "Little Lynn", 3809 Meadowbrook, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, where she is employed as an exotic dancer.

Mrs. KARLIN advised that three months ago she began dancing as an amateur; that she began this employment as she is pregnant and her common law husband, BRUCE KARLIN, is unemployed.

She stated that she last saw JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club on Thursday night, November 21, 1963. She did not talk to him at all the following day as the club was closed, however, she thought that the club would be open Saturday night so she went to work only to find the club closed. She called RUBY as she did not have enough money for transportation back to her home in Fort Worth. She asked RUBY for enough money for transportation, and RUBY called the man at the garage next door to his club and told him to give her $5.00 which he did. She called RUBY again on Sunday, November 24, 1963, at 10 or 10:30 a.m. as she needed money to pay her rent. He told her that he would send her $25.00 for her rent by Western Union. At about one or two p.m. on Sunday, November 24, 1963, Mrs. KARLIN called Western Union in Fort Worth and was told that the money order was waiting in the Western Union Office. Mrs. KARLIN accompanied by her husband, BRUCE, then went to Western Union in Fort Worth and obtained the $25.00 which had been forwarded to KAREN BENNETT, in care of Western Union, Fort Worth, Texas. KAREN used her Texas driver's license as identification.

At the time she talked with RUBY, Sunday morning, she asked him if the club was going to be open Sunday night. He became upset regarding this then talked harshly to her indicating that he did not feel she was showing the proper respect toward the deceased President. She stated that during her telephone conversation he sounded vague and preoccupied. Mrs. KARLIN advised that she knows nothing of JACK RUBY's social or private life; that he was thoughtful and respectful to her.

MAYRILYN MIRANDA MOONE, 3120 Healy Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, where she is employed as an exotic dancer.

MAYRILYN

Miss MOONE advised she has known JACK RUBY for approximately four years as she has worked as a waitress in numerous clubs in Dallas including the Vegas Club which is operated by RUBY's sister. She booked two weeks ago with RUBY as a stripper.

Miss MOONE described JACK RUBY as follows:

She said that he gave the first impression that he was a playboy and lady's man; that he "came on strong", however, she later thought him to have homosexual tendencies and was overly aggressive toward pebple to give the opposite impression and to cover up a bad inferiority complex. She stated that sometime after she had first met RUBY he began calling her on the telephone, and he would recite poetry to her which was very suggestive and almost obscene. She stated that he talked a great deal regarding sex but again she stated that she felt it was merely to cover up his homosexual tendencies. She said that RUBY also telephoned a girl friend of hers, ELAINE ROGERS, who presently lives at 1728 North Fitzhue Street, and talked to her over the telephone regarding sex in a similar manner.

Miss MOONE advised that she knew of no particular policeman or newsman whom RUBY knew personally as it was her understanding that he knew a number of Dallas police officers.

Miss MOONE was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she advised that she had never seen OSWALD. She said that it would be very difficult for anyone on stage at the club to recognize faces in the crowd due to the lighting arrangements. Miss MOONE advised that she did not feel that RUBY shot OSWALD out of any sense of patriotic duty but felt it was just another attempt on his part to make everyone think he was a "big man".

Houston, Texas MRS. BILLY CHESTER CARR

Mrs. BILLY (EMMA LOU) CARR, 6027 Ettrick, telephone PA 9-0891, advised that JACK RUBY telephonically contacted her Tuesday, November 19, 1963, in connection with the appearance of the "Impellas" at the Vegas Club in Dallas in the near future. She stated that RUBY offered to start the "Impellas" at $400.00 a week and indicated to her that it would be to the band's advantage to appear at his club prior to the release of their next record. She stated that she talked with RUBY at some length as she did not feel that the band should take the engagement for less than $500.00 a week. She stated that she told RUBY that she would contact the band leader and call him on November 20, 1963. She stated that she telephonically contacted RUBY at approximately 10:30 a.m. or 11:00 a.m. on November 20, 1963, at which time she played some tapes or recordings recently made by the "Impellas". She stated that RUBY raised his offer to $450.00 a week for the group. She stated she attempted to contact RUBY on the evening of November 20, 1963 without success.

She stated that on November 21, 1963 RUBY called her at about 2:30 p.m. or 3:00 p.m. and told her he wished the "Impellas" to appear for two weeks at his club at $450.00 a week and that he, RUBY, should be given eight two-week options on the band. She stated that she refused this offer, advising him that they would not appear for less than $500.00. She stated that RUBY at this time indicated he had a partner in the Vegas Club which he did not name, and told her to send him photos of the band as well as some of their records and that he might contact her later.

Mrs. CARR advised that on the morning of November 22, 1963 she mailed a package consisting of the "Impellas" record "Continental Whip" and several pictures of the band to RUBY at an unrecalled Oaklawn address in Dallas, Texas, and that this package possibly will be delivered on November 26, 1963.

REAGAN TURMAN was located at 7220 Hollywood Boulevard, in the apartment of BOB HOWARD. TURMAN advised that he is presently keeping his personal effects and receiving mail at that address, as HOWARD is presently the boxing manager for TURMAN. TURMAN said his home address is Route 8, Tyler, Texas, and he usually goes by the name of BUDDY TURMAN. He is presently training for boxing in the heavy weight ranks, he is 29 years old, 6', 195 pounds, brown hair, brown eyes, and has been a professional boxer for nine years.

He stated that around six or seven years ago, after a fight in Dallas, Texas, he had been invited to a party at the Vegas Club by JACK RUBY. RUBY was a avid fight fan, and a health faddist. He and RUBY became good friends about five or six years ago, and since that time, he has worked on many occasions, sometimes as long as six months at a time, managing the Vegas Club for RUBY. He stated that on several occasions, he had borrowed money, and called on the help of JACK RUBY financially. The last occasion was on January 1, 1963 when he, TURMAN, ended up in Dallas broke. He said RUBY immediately put him to work. On several occasions, he resided at RUBY's apartment. From January until July of 1963, he worked at the Vegas Club for RUBY. He spent several other times with RUBY in a social manner. He said RUBY does not smoke or drink, but that his main pastime was "chasing the girls."

During the time that he has known RUBY, it appears to him that RUBY was acquainted with at least 75 per cent, and probably 90 per cent, of the police officers on the Dallas Police Department. He stated that on many occasions, RUBY has told him that the only way a night club business can be operated successfully, is with the friendship of the police department and other city officials. He knows that many police officers dropped by the Carousel which was located on the corner of Commerce and Field Streets in Dallas, and that RUBY has obtained the confidence of these officers. He stated that he believed he had heard the name J. D. TIPPETT mentioned by RUBY, and knows that RUBY is acquainted with the Chief of Police and several other higher-ups in the police department, although he does not know whether it is beyond a casual acquaintance. He knows that he is quite good friends with one Lieutenant ARNETT, whose first name he believes is GEORGE. BARNETT

He stated he was not surprised when he heard that JACK RUBY had gained entrance to the police building in Dallas, and had shot LEE HARVEY OLSWALD. He said that this is based on two thoughts; one, that RUBY could gain entrance because of having so many police officers' confidence, and the second reason being that RUBY was an extremely emotional and excitable individual. TURMAN recalled that he has seen RUBY on several occasions become violent and aggressive over what appeared to him, TURMAN, to be some minor issue not even warranting a comment. He stated that RUBY fought continually, meaning five or six times a week when operating his club, and although he was quick tempered and somewhat unstable, he seemed to pretty well "pick his shots." TURMAN explained this by stating that usually the victim of a RUBY assault was a person who had been drinking too heavily, or someone that RUBY could easily subdue due to the physical condition of both RUBY and the other person.

He stated that RUBY's closest associates and friends were GEORGE SENATOR, who lived right next door to RUBY, RALPH PAUL, who is the silent financial backer on some of RUBY's business ventures, and BILL HOWARD, who presently operates the Stork Club, located at Oaklawn and Cedar Springs in Dallas.

TURMAN advised that he believes RUBY's actions in killing OSWALD were caused by the death of Officer TIPPETT of the Dallas Police Department, as well as by the death of the President. He stated that RUBY had had a high regard for KENNEDY, but had also had a high regard for President EISENHOWER, and that RUBY had never really been affiliated with any political group to his knowledge. He said that RUBY was not a member of any organizations or groups that he knew of concerning politics, business, or civic activity.

TURMAN stated that he had been with RUBY a lot during the first six months of 1963. He never heard him mention the name OSWALD. He had never seen the LEE HARVEY OSWALD that had been shown on television at either of the clubs operated by RUBY.

He stated that RUBY is acquainted with practically all of the known gamblers in the Dallas area, but that he has no business dealings with them at all. He pointed out that RUBY had on several occasions cautioned him, TURMAN, about setting up a "sucker" for any of the gamblers, stating that this would cause difficulty with the police department and, therefore, hurt their might club business in many ways. He stated that he had never known of RUBY being a procurer of women, and that he had engaged in several physical fights with known pimps in the Dallas area who had tried to recruit or enlist the girls that RUBY had working at his club.

TURMAN stated that he is surprised that RUBY has lived as long as he has due to his extremely short and high temper, and due to the fact that for some unknown reason, RUBY thinks that it is somewhat his duty to correct any wrong that he sees take place. He said that RUBY has an odd outlook, and that on one hand he has a high regard for most of the police officers, and yet on the other hand, will attempt to take the law into his own hands on many occasions.

AL BRIGHT, Corpus Christi, Texas, contacted the Corpus Christi FBI Resident Agency on November 25, 1963, and said he knows a former bookkeeper of the Carousel Club, which was operated by JACK RUBY, who is the alleged murderer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. BRIGHT said the bookkeeper is known as MIKE RYAN, also as RAY PIKE, and furnished information that RUBY is friendly with JAMES HOFFA and "the syndicate." BRIGHT also said that RYAN had told him that RUBY is the payoff man for the Dallas Police Department and whenever liquor and gambling raids were to be made on the Dallas underworld RUBY would always be contacted first by some unknown person from the Police Department in Dallas. BRIGHT said he had been in the company of RYAN about March, 1963, but had not seen him since that time.

Mr. PIKE stated he came to the Dallas area approximately ten years ago and exhibited a birth certificate showing his name to be ROY WILLIAM PIKE, date of birth January 10, 1921, Eastport, Maine.

Mr. PIKE stated he has been in and out of the Dallas area for the past ten years.

He stated about one and one-half years ago he had just returned to the City of Dallas and was at the Carousel Club, where he met the owner, whom he later came to know as JACK RUBY, and who was also known as JACK RUBENSTEIN.

Mr. PIKE stated while in the club he approached RUBY for employment, as he had just returned to Dallas and he was without employment or money. PIKE stated when RUBY asked him what his name was he told him it was MIKE RYAN and told RUBY that his name was RYAN because he was ashamed of being broke and unemployed and did not want RUBY to know what his true name was. Mr. PIKE stated he later told RUBY thathis name was PIKE; however, RUBY continued to call him RYAN or MIKE.

Mr. PIKE stated RUBY put him to work as a bookkeeper, bartender, ticket taker, and he did other odd jobs around the club, but the total time of his employment would not be more than 30 days. Mr. PIKE stated that the 30 days employment was over a period of months and was not during one period.

Mr. PIKE stated RUBY was very good to him during the time he worked for him although RUBY was an emotional and unstable person and was always trying to get ahead of or out smart the next person; however, he did not believe that RUBY was really dishonest.

Mr. PIKE stated it is common knowledge or rumored around Dallas, the Cabana Motor Hotel in Dallas was built with funds controlled by the Teamsters Union and everyone knows that HOFFA is the head of the Teamsters Union. PIKE said that he believes he has had conversations with RUBY about the Cabana Motor Hotel and possibly talked with RUBY about HOFFA, but does not believe RUBY has any real or actual knowledge or contact with JAMES HOFFA or any organization known as "the syndicate". Mr. PIKE stated even though RUBY is emotional and unstable he was a very friendly person and that while the Carousel Club was operating, he had seen RUBY feed or give free drinks to any number of people who came to the club to watch the performers. He said police officers and other persons he believed to be officers from time to time had come to the club and he had seen RUBY offer or give them coffee; however, he has no information that RUBY is a payoff man or informant of the Police Department or any other police agency. Mr. PIKE stated he has not seen RUBY in contact with anyone that he believes to be an underworld figure and has never known RUBY to be connected with illegal liquor or gambling or raids on establishments dealing in illegal liquor and gambling.

Mr. PIKE stated that he has borrowed sums of money from RUBY on various occasions; however, none of the loans have exceeded $100.00. PIKE said he has never known RUBY to carry huge sums of money around with him and has never seen RUBY in possession of more than several hundred dollars. He stated during the time he kept books for RUBY he had known RUBY to have a checking account at one bank; however, he could not recall at this time which bank it was.

Mr. PIKE stated he believes RUBY has a silent partner or business associate known to him as RALPH, but he did not have any other information concerning RALPH.

Mr. PIKE stated while he has been friendly with RUBY, he really does not known much about him, although he does know that RUBY came from Chicago a number of years ago. Mr. PIKE stated any other information he might have concerning RUBY would be the same general type information as set out above and had nothing further to add.

MRS. PAUL CALGROVE was interviewed at 6829 Peerless Steet, Apartment 3. MRS. CALGROVE advised that she is also known as BEATRICE CALGROVE and has the theatrical stage name of NAJADA. She stated she is presently residing at 2906 Inez Street, Pasadena, Texas; however, she is moving within two days to 6825 Peerless Street, Apartment 3, Houston. She gave her age as 23, stating she was born February 1, 1940, at El Ranchito, Texas. She advised as follows:

She went to Dallas, Texas, to the Carrousel Club as a featured exotic dancer in the winter of 1961 and worked for JACK RUBY about six months under the name of NAJADA.

She had an argument with RUBY at the bar of the Carrousel about New Years Eve, 1961, about the confused manner in which RUBY carried on his entertainment business. He slapped her and she then spoke to a Lieutenant or Captain of the Dallas Police Department Vice Squad who was in the club at the time, stating she wanted to press charges against RUBY. In the presenc of RUBY, the officer laughed at her and told her she was crazy; she then took her problem to JACK COLE, American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA) representative and booking agent, who said the problem was not in his jurisdiction. From time to time she noticed numerous police officers enter the Carrousel Club and go to RUEY's office, after which they would be observed leaving the club with bottles of whiskey under their arm.

She recalled that one dancer, CATHY KAY, white female, about 23, blond headed, from England, was given a car by RUBY and he went with her a period of time. She stated KAY could be traced by JACK COLE of AGVA.

RUEY had a so-called mistress, who was not employed at the club but who came and went at will and frequented the club. She was described as white female, light brown hair, cut long in a pony tail, five feet five inches tall, 115 pounds, late twenties, reportedly a secretary in Dallas, Texas, that RUBY claimed he had been keeping for some five to six years. RUBY failed to ever disclose this woman's identity.

Salos

MR + Mrs. PAUL (MARION) SALOS, who resides at the Westshore Trailer Court, Lot B-19, 4802 South Westshore Boulevard, Tampa, and whose telephone number is 837-4242, was interviewed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. TOM RAY TAGGART, 701 West Juneau, Tampa, Fla.

Wichita, Kansas Texas

She advised that she was interviewed on November 24, 1963 by "The Tampa Tribune" reporter, DUANE BRADFORD, at the newspaper office, after her father had gotten in touch with the newspaper, on the basis the he, her father, is a commercial photographer, and felt that such an interview might be of assistance in the situation.

Mrs. SALOS is a registered nurse, and licensed to practice in the State of Florida, and she advised she has not worked in her profession since June, 1961, at which time she and her husband moved from Tampa to Cocoa Beach, Florida. She went on to say that her husband is "PAUL" of the comedy team "CARME AND PAUL", and that they entertain in night clubs around the country. She said the team has operated as such since December 8, 1960.

She advised that CARME is CARME PITRELLO, whose wife is Mrs. MILDRED PITRELLO, who resides in a trailer on Lot A-20 in the Westshore Trailer Park, 4802 South Westshore Boulevard, Tampa.

Mrs. SALOS advised that CARME and PAUL opened on the night of November 24, 1963, in a night club in Great Falls, Montana, the name of which is unknown to her, and the length of the engagement is also unknown. However, CARME and PAUL will be there for at least a week, and are staying at the Park Hotel in that city.

Mrs. SALOS related that she and Mrs. PITRELLO have traveled with their husbands nearly all the time until September, 1963, during which time CARME and PAUL played an engagement in Dallas, Texas, in the Theater Lounge from September 4, 1962 until about January 28, 1963. She went on to say that after this engagement, they left Dallas, and did a month's engagement in Witchita, Kansas, followed by a series of short engagements for about a month

They thereafter went to Houston, Texas for a month, and played at a night club on Texas Avenue, and then returned to Dallas, and the Theater Lounge for a two month engagment, ending September, 1963.

She advised the Theater Lounge is owned by BARNEY WEINSTEIN.

Mrs. SALOS advised she met JACK RUBY at Ruby's Carousel Lounge, which is located across from the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, Texas. She said that she and her husband met RUBY through a WALLY WESTON, a comedian, whose wife, having the stage name of SHARI ANGEL, is an exotic dancer at RUBY's place. Mrs. SALOS said the WESTONs reside in Dallas as far as she knows.

She went on to relate that she and Mrs. PITRELLO would visit the Carousel to observe the performers, sometimes with their husbands, and sometimes while their husbands, CARME and PAUL were performing in the Theater Lounge nearby. Mrs. SALOS advised that she had very little social contact with RUBY, and that RUBY had come by the SALOS' residence for about an hour on Cristmas Eve after working hours, in 1962; that she, Mrs. SALOS, MILDRED PITRELLO, CARME and PAUL had been ice skating at the fair grounds on one occasion with RUBY. She said she always found RUBY to be polite, courteous, considerate, and always the gentleman. She said he was a bachelor, but she knew nothing of any of his girl friends, or if he had any, and that RUBY did not impress her as being the "shady type".

Mrs. SALOS advised she could not recall any discussion concerning politics on the part of RUBY, and never heard him mention anything about the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

In connection with the name of LEE OSWALD, Mrs. SALOS advised that the name seemed to be familiar, but she could not associate it with having ever seen him with anybody or any place, and felt that possibly the familiar note was through recent events and articles in the paper. She said she did not associate OSWALD with RUBY, and could not recall ever having seen OSWALD and RUBY together. She went on to relate that when she first heard about OSWALD having been shot, and before learning that RUBY was the assailant, the only person to come to her mind who might have committed this act, was WALLY WESTON, and the only reason being that he had rather a loud mouth, was gregarious, argumentative, and had had frequent altercations with his wife.

As to RUBY's associates, she could only name the following:

CARMEN and PAUL (during the time of engagements at Dallas)
ABE and BARNEY WEINSTEIN
TAMMY TRUE (who worked for RUBY)
WALLY WESTON and his wife.

Mrs. SALOS advised that she would see law enforcement officers come to the Carousel in Dallas, both in uniform and in plain clothes, but they appeared to be on duty. She had never seen any of them taking a drink, and they stayed at the back of the club, looking around. She advised that she also saw officers at the Theater Lounge in the same manner, and that the officers never stayed long.

She went on to say that she did not know the identity of any of the officers except one, a TRUITT WALTON, of the Dallas Police Department, who is a friend of theirs (the SALOS'), and that WALTON used to appear at the Carousel during off-duty times, and was observed to have dates (girls) with him. She said that WALTON appeared to know RUBY quite well.

Mrs. SALOS advised she never heard RUBY say he had any influence with the police, but he appeared to know the officers.

Mrs. SALOS advised that she has had no contact with RUBY since she left Dallas, and she felt that her husband and CARMEL PITRELLO could furnish more information concerning RUBY, and she also felt that they would cooperate during interview.

Mrs. JEAN RASH, 5734 Old Ox Road, Dallas, Texas, advised that she had worked for JACK RUBY as a waitress for approximately three years, from 1954 to 1957. She stated that this employment was at the Vegas Club, which to her knowledge was owned by JACK RUBY. She stated that she recalled RUBY as a very kind man but a person who became angry when anyone acted up in the club or did anything which might cause him difficulty with local authorities.

She said that RUBY was engaged to a woman by the name of ALICE (LNU), who had a teen-age daughter. She said he had gone so far as to give ALICE an engagement ring, and to her knowledge this was the only woman RUBY was ever really closely associated with.

She said she had never known RUBY to carry a gun, nor had she ever seen him with a gun in his possession. She described RUBY as an individual who always wanted people around him and gave the impression he was an individual who felt insecure. She said that if he liked people he would open the doors of the club to them and furnish them with everything on the house.

She recalled that he and his sister, EVA GRANT, and brother, SAM, were very emotional and high-strung people. Although very close to each other, they would often shout at each other and give the impression they were on the verge of a knock-down drag-out fight. Apparently, however, such emotional scenes which often took place in her presence would die down as soon as they had started, and the impression she gained was that there was not anything that they would not do for each other.

She said RUBY had never made any comments concerning politics in her presence, nor had he ever expressed an opinion as to the function of Government. She never knew of his having been associated with any police characters but had seen him refuse many characters with police records from gaining admission to the club. Although these individuals would beg for entrance into the club, once RUBY had made up his mind he stood firm and was seemingly afraid of no one.

Mrs. RASH said RUBY impressed her as a person who wanted to be associated with the most important and socially prominent individuals. Seemingly, this made him appear more important in the eyes of those who knew him and whom he considered to be his friends. He is a very energetic type of person who was continuously keeping busy. She said she never saw RUBY take a drink, smoke or use profanity during the time she worked for him at the Vegas Club. She stated that this was the only time she had a chance to observe RUBY.

She advised that to her personal knowledge RUBY often carried large sums of money with him. She said she would take the proceeds from the Vegas Club to him; however, she did not know what he did with the total sum of money, whether he banked it, retained it on the premises or kept the money on his person.

She observed the action of JACK RUBY in shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD in her opinion was out of character for RUBY. She said her impression of RUBY was that he was a kind person, this being deepened in her mind through the fact that he kept a number of stray cats and dogs at his place at the Vegas Club and made sure that the animals were always well provided for. He is a person who in her opinion loves people and especially people with children. The only explanation she was able to find in her own mind was that the shooting could have been for publicity alone.

She stated she applied for a job as a waitress and was hired by JACK RUBINSTEIN and his sister, ROSE, last name unknown. She stated she had never known him before. She knew his name to be JACK RUBY. She advised she was under age. She pretended to be eighteen years of age in order to get the waitress job. She worked there one night, during which time RUBINSTEIN attempted to rape her in the cafe kitchen. She stated she finished the night as a waitress but never returned to collect her pay. She advised she did not see RUBINSTEIN again until 1956 when she ran into him at the Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas, for a moment.

Mrs. SIMS stated she has no information to indicate that LEON HARVEY OSWALD and RUBINSTEIN were acquainted. She knows very little about RUBINSTEIN's background except that he came from Chicago, Illinois. He told her the Silver Spur Cafe was the first place he opened in Dallas, Texas. She advised she knew of no hoodlum or gambling connections or Dallas Police Department connections RUBINSTEIN may have had. She likewise stated that she did not know of any subversive connections that RUBINSTEIN might have had.

She related that she knew none of his relatives except his sister, ROSE, last name unknown, who helped him run the Silver Spur Bar where she was cashier. She knew of no friends, associates or girlfriends he may have had.

She stated that she knows nothing regarding RUBINSTEIN's parents and advised that inasmuch as he attempted to rape her when he hired her in 1946, she considered him a thug and a vulgar person with whom she would never want to again be associated. JACK RUBY first hired him as a western musician at the Silver Spur Night Club in the early 1950's. He would periodically play in RUBY's club until 1963. RUBY, according to SIMONS, was known as a "fink" by the Dallas, Texas Police Department, an individual who would inform on others. RUBY carried a pistol and a commission card indicating he was an honorary police officer.

SIMONS related police officers frequented RUBY's night club, and were given free meals and drinks. Women were also made available. RUBY had a bad temper, and would fight with customers. He was interested primarily in making money, and he liked personal publicity. RUBY was not involved in politics, and he did not manifest unusual patriotism. SIMMONS has known JACK RUBY since 1958 and worked for RUBY as a piano player at the Club Carousel for two weeks in 1958 and for a two month period sometime during 1960. On September 17, 1963 SIMMONS, who presently works for a combo headed by JOHN ANDERSON, 2409 Atkinson Street, Irving, Texas, and BILL WILLIS, address unknown, went to work for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas, and has worked for him since that time. Frank Richard Ferraro

FRANK FERRARO, 53 Parmelee Street, New Haven, Connecticut, a bus driver for Cousins Bus Sales, 500 Washington Avenue, North Haven, Connecticut, advised the following:

He was unemployed and temporarily in Dallas, Texas, about August, 1962, and recalled stopping in the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, operated by JACK RUBY. He had little money and RUBY offered him room and board in return for small odd jobs. He did work as handy man, and received small and irregular pay.

FERRARO described RUBY as a likeable person, but he would become angry very quick and had a violent temper. To the best of his knowledge RUBY never made any statements regarding politics, political philosophies or any politicians. He never heard RUBY express any opinion concerning any foreign governments or foreign causes.

FERRARO had never heard of OSWALD being in the Club Carousel or having any contact with RUBY.

FERRARO described the main interest of RUBY as being women. He said that RUBY was a very aggressive "wolf" but he never had a steady girl, and he never dated any of the help. To his knowledge there were no illegal activities in businesses operated by RUBY, that is in way of prostitution, narcotics, gambling, etc.

He had heard from a negro carpenter, name unknown, who was working for RUBY at that time, that RUBY, while in Chicago, Illinois, was associated with a union and had been entrusted with $50,000. RUBY allegedly skipped with the money and came to Dallas, Texas, where he started his present business.

FERRARO named the following as associates of RUBY: RALPH (LNU), operator of the Bull Pen Restaurant, Arlington, Texas; FRANK (LNU), White, male, Italian, in oil business, Dallas, Texas; HARRY (RED) LEFKOWITZ, who sold novelties in stall in the Merchandise Mart, Dallas, Texas.

FERRARO stated that on a Tuesday night, during September, 1962, he had become involved in an arguement in the Horse Shoe Bar, Dallas, Texas, located near the Carousel Club. He returned to the Club Carousel where he changed his shirt and coat. At that time RUBY warned FERRARO not to get in any fight as the operator was his friend. FERRARO told RUBY to mind his own business.

RUBY became angry, and later followed FERRARO to the Lasso Club located near by. At the Lasso Club, RUBY walked in and told FERRARO not to threaten him or cause his friends any trouble. RUBY then struck FERRARO three or four times with brass knuckles. FERRARO received an open wound over his left eye and he had to go to the Parkland Hospital for emergency treatment.

JOHN WILSON, Attorney, Dallas, Texas, witnessed this fight and advised FERRARO to bring suit against RUBY. FERRARO decided later not to press charges concerning this matter, as RUBY gave him money to pay the hospital bill. FERRARO said he quit a few days later and left Dallas and has had no contact with RUBY since that date.

The file reflects that he was "hit in the head" and suffered a one centimeter laceration over his left eye. He was not unconscious, but was bleeding profusely. X-rays revealed no bone fractures. He left the hospital at 12:39 AM, on September 19, 1962, after the emergency treatment. He returned on September 21, 1962, to have the suture removed. At that time, he filled out some papers at the request of the hospital in which he listed the Carousel Club as his employer and JACK RUBY as a friend. The file reflected that he lived and worked at the Carousel Club for his room and board, and a small salary.

in a show called "Bottoms Up". He advised that another individual, possibly RUBY's closest friend, an individual named PAUL, about 60 years of age, short, medium build, of Jewish extraction, and a banker possibly associated with the Republic National Bank, may have had a financial interest in the club in that RUBY occasionally obtained operating funds from this individual. This individual also counter-signed payroll checks of the club drawn on the Republic National Bank. He advised that EDWARD CASTRO, a busboy, was employed at the Soverign Club during the time and after KELLY was there and that this individual's father is chef at the Dallas City Club. He stated he belives that LEO (LNU), bartender at the Soverign Club had been an associate and acquaintance of RUBY for a number of years. He advised he belives that ABE WEINSTEIN, operator of the Colony Club, located near the Soverign Club, is well acquainted with RUBY even though a competitor in the supper club business. KELLY stated he was of the opinion that RUBY had no close friends although he associated with many individuals. He advised that RUBY was particularly friendly with law enforcement officers and went out of his way to greet officers where ever he met them. KELLY advised he was unable to identify any officer by name whom he observed in the company of RUBY. He stated that law enforcement officers, both plainclothes and uniformed police and deputy sheriffs, frequently came to the Soverign Club to converse with RUBY and on numerous occasions after receiving a telephone call RUBY would go to the police station, not too far distance from the Soverign Club.

With regard to RUBY's association with police officers in Dallas, KELLY stated that during 1959 when he was associated with RUBY, each Sunday night RUBY had what was termed "Celebrity Night" when he would endeavor to obtain name entertainers appearing in Dallas to come to the Soverign Club as his guests and hoped they would provide free entertainment. KELLY stated that each Sunday night RUBY would also entertain as many as eight law enforcement officers, furnishing them gratis expensive dinners and drinks. He said he complained on several occasions to RUBY explaining that the entertainment of these law enforcement officers was very expensive and hard on the club finances. He said he pointed out that the latter did not have to cull the favor of the law enforcement officers in Dallas as he was not engaging in any illegal activities. KELLY said RUBY would reply in effect that he wanted to do this as he liked law enforcement officers and these men did not make salarys which would enable them to have this kind of entertainment.

KELLY described RUBY as being hot tempered and very impulsive. In explaining this KELLY said that RUBY would become angered over some incident and hit another person not thinking of the consequences of his act or developments which might result from these acts. He stated that on one occasion he hit KEITH WILLIAMS, a promoter with the Williams Oil Company, because WILLIAMS had given him a $60.00 worthless check when WILLIAMS was in the club one evening with two other oil men. KELLY stated that on one occasion JOE PETERSON, one of the two entertainers who may have had an interest in the club, insisted to RUBY that he be allowed to examine the club finance records since he did not believe he was getting a fair shake. RUBY became extremely angry and hit PETERSON. He advised that RUBY was not the brooding type who would plan an act of violence against another individual, nor was he the type who would hold a grudge subsequent to such an incident.

KELLY stated that RUBY's hot temper is well known among RUBY's associates and in fact he had heard about this prior to the time he became associated with RUBY. He stated that he went so far as to purchase his own sidearm which he retained for a short time after going to work for RUBY and he was guarded in his comments to RUBY during the earlier period of his association with RUBY because he did not want to incur RUBY's anger. KELLY said he since found out that he could actually argue with RUBY over differences of opinion in the operation of the business without RUBY loosing his temper.

In this regard KELLY stated that RUBY was extremely sensitive about his Jewish background and resented derogatory remarks concerning Jews. He said he felt RUBY had an extreme persecution complex and thought that everybody was against him. He stated that RUBY resented anyone using personal vulgarities when addressing RUBY.

KELLY stated that during his association with RUBY the latter had a .38 caliber snub-nose Smith & Wesson revolver which was hammerless. He said he learned this because RUBY showed it to him saying it was the very latest thing and it could actually be fired from ones coat pocket because it did not have a hammer. KELLY said he did not believe RUBY ever carried this revolver on his person but had it for protection in transporting the club's cash receipts each night.

In this regard, KELLY said that it was RUBY's habit to close up the Soverign Club and then go to the Vegas Club carrying the Soverign Club cash receipts in a small valise and usually this revolver was in the valise with the cash. He said that many times he would go with RUBY to the Vegas Club and stay with him until RUBY closed the Vegas Club each night. RUBY would then take the cash receipts of both clubs in the valise to his home and at this time RUBY was living in an apartment with his sister who lives in Dallas.

With regard to RUBY's personal habits, KELLY said RUBY did not use tobacco and seldom used intoxicants, however, on occasion he would have several highballs. He said that RUBY was extremely well dressed and neat and loved to eat. He said on many occasions he had fixed RUBY a steak early in the evening and RUBY would be hungry later before the club closed and would want another one. He stated there was no indication that RUBY was a gambler or associated with hoodlum type characters nor was he involved in prostitution activities. He advised that on infreqent occasions he would entertain female companions in his apartment. In this regard KELLY did not believe RUBY had any homosexual tendencies although there had been thought from time to time among people with whom KELLY was in contact that RUBY might be gay. KELLY said he did feel that RUBY was probably under sexed, but he did not think RUBY had homosexual tendencies.

With regard to the Vegas Club, KELLY said RUBY had employed a retired policeman as the bouncer at that club. KELLY did not know this individuaIs name.

With regard to the extent of RUBY's contacts with municipal employees associated with RUBY, KELLY said he knew of no city officials who were ever entertained by RUBY or friendly with him, claiming that RUBY was a "police buff" who had a natural likeness for police officers. He desired to be friendly with men in this profession and RUBY's associations were restricted to law enforcement officers and no other municipal officials. KELLY stated that RUBY was extremely desirious of making as much money as he could and actually "worshiped a dollar". He said that RUBY liked to hold on to his money and in many instances would not pay his employees each weekend but would sometimes wait as late as the following Wednesday before issuing weekly pay checks. KELLY could not reconcile this trait on the part of RUBY with the latter's generosity in dealing with law enforcement officers. KELLY said RUBY had no interest in current affairs and never kept abreat of these through reading daily newspapers and periodicals. He said RUBY would not be capable of discussing such current affairs as United States interest in Viet Nam or the nation's missle program. He said RUBY's only interest in reading Dallas newspapers was to determim all local crime news.

KELLY stated that he did not consider RUBY to be a patriotic person yet on the other hand RUBY was not sympathetic to Communism and was in fact very much a capitolist in that he seemed interested only in financial gain. He said that as a result of RUBY's lack of interest in current affairs, RUBY had no political interest. KELLY said based on his knowledge of RUBY's thinking on current affairs it was inconceivable to him that RUBY would have shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD because the latter had assassinated the president. KELLY said that on the contrary he believed that RUBY shot OSWALD on a impulse and any motive would be that RUBY resented OSWALD having killed Dallas policeman TIPPIT.

With regard to RUBY's views concerning President KENNEDY, KELLY recalled that in 1959 when KENNEDY was campaigning in Texas, he went with RUBY as did many Dallas citizens to the Dallas airport to see President KENNEDY. KELLY recalled that RUBY commented in effect after seeing KENNEDY and listening to his speech, that KENNEDY was young and vigorous and the type of president this country needed. KELLY said this is the only comment he ever heard RUBY make about President KENNEDY.

Concerning RUBY's background, KELLY stated that in conversations with RUBY the latter mentioned he had been in Dallas about 15 years having come to Dallas from the Chicago area. From various comments made by RUBY, KELLY gathered that RUBY may have been active in union work in the Chicago area and may have had to leave Chicago because of some difficulty arising out of this union work, although KELLY could recall no specific comments made by RUBY in this regard.

With regard to RUBY's family, KELLY could recall that on one occasion RUBY remarked that he had an older brother in Chicago who was quite wealthy. Later when the club was undergoing a financial crises, KELLY aggested to RUBY that the latter could borrow money from his older brother in Chicago and RUBY replied that he could not do so as he already owed this brother too much money.

With regard to RUBY's financial condition, KELLY believed that during the period he was associated with RUBY the latter may have had some difficulty with the United States Internal Revenue Service as he believed RUBY had to go to Internal Revenue Service on two different occasions concerning his income taxes.

After coming to New Orleans KELLY advised he had no further contact with RUBY until about the middle of October, 1963, when he contacted RUBY at the Carousel Club in Dallas. He stated the purpose of this contact was to determine whether or not he could purchase restaurant fixtures and equipment from RUBY to be used in a restaurant venture KELLY was then considering in Dallas. He advised that no fixtures were available from RUBY and no restaurant was opened.

With regard to any possible association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, KELLY said he had never heard RUBY mention this individual and he had never seen OSWALD in the Soverign Club, the Vegas Club, or in the company of RUBY. KELLY stated that because of RUBY's lack of interest in politics he did not think RUBY would have been compatable with OSWALD as KELLY has read news accounts that OSWALD was politically minded and was a Marxist and sympathetic to Communist Cuba.

EARN NORMAN, Master of Ceremonies at the Largo Night Club, 9009 Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, advised he had worked for JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, for a total of 14 to 15 months. He stated he opened at RUBY's club in June or July, 1960. He stopped working regularly for him in late 1961, month not recalled. He stated he worked for RUBY for one or two weeks thereafter and sometimes worked on Saturdays when he was in Dallas. The last times he worked for RUBY at his Carousel Club were one week in July, 1963, and one week in August, 1963.

Calif.

NORMAN stated he was aware only of RUBY's activities in Dallas and knew nothing about his background in Chicago, RUBY's parents, or their origins or background. He stated he had no knowledge of any underworld connections of RUBY's in Chicago and claimed he had no knowledge of such connections in the Dallas area.

Regarding RUBY's connections with the Dallas Police Department, NORMAN stated RUBY was the type of person who always tried to be acquainted with police but was more apt to be acquainted with the officers on the beat and the officers who checked night clubs in automobile units. NORMAN could not recall any police officers who regularly frequented the club and especially did not recall any high placed officers who frequented the club. He stated RUBY was not the type of man police officers would have mingled with socially to any great extent, and he had no further knowledge concerning them.

NORMAN stated most of RUBY's newspaper connections appeared to be with the men in the press and printing room and anyone else who could assist him in getting his advertisements placed on the entertainment pages in the most favorable location. NORMAN believed RUBY knew most of the newspaper reporters but stated it was possible some of the reporters might not have known him by sight, although NORMAN was of the opinion that most of them would have known RUBY. He stated that while RUBY always tried to maintain friendly relations with the press, he had never seen Entertainment Reporter DON SAFARIN of the Dallas Times-Herald in the club and had only seen TONY ZOPPI of the Dallas Morning News in the club on two or three occasions while he worked there. NORMAN characterized RUBY as a man who forced himself to be gregarious and tried to maintain contacts with the newspaper, the police, and with prominent people such as doctors and lawyers.

NORMAN stated RUBY appeared to always carry a gun when he was taking large amounts of money to the bank and would place the money in a flat plastic zipper-type bank case and then carry a gun in a blue cloth bank bag. NORMAN stated he would not have known this excepting he once saw RUBY take the gun out of the bag and thereafter was of the opinion that RUBY always had the gun in this bag. He stated he never saw RUBY carry the gun on his person or in a holster but only in the bag when handling money. He described the gun as a blue steel revolver, make and caliber unknown.

NORMAN stated he had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD and did not recognize him from pictures in the paper and on television and had no knowledge that RUBY knew OSWALD or had any connection with him. NORMAN stated he had never heard RUBY make any statement which would suggest RUBY had any left wing or subversive connections of any kind, and his only interest in politics appeared to be his interest in President KENNEDY. NORMAN stated he had never heard of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and had never heard RUBY mention the organization.

NORMAN stated he was not aware RUBY had any particular interest in politics as such; however, he knew RUBY admired President KENNEDY greatly and on occasion stated he had to go home to watch President KENNEDY's news conference on television.

NORMAN stated he had mentioned in his interview on a Los Angeles television station that he had had an argument with RUBY. He stated you could not work for RUBY without having an argument but stated that this argument was due to the fact that NORMAN was on the board of the American Guild of Variety Artists in Dallas, and the Guild had made several decisions contrary to RUBY's interests. RUBY blamed NORMAN for these decisions although they were board decisions. NORMAN stated he had gone to RUBY's club the last time, he believed on Friday, November 13, 1963, and RUBY met him at the door and stated he did not want NORMAN to come to the club any more as he felt NORMAN was not a friend. They had a few words of argument and NORMAN left. NORMAN stated they did not engage in an actual physical fight.

NORMAN stated the closest associate of RUBY's he knew outside of personnel at the club was RALPH PAUL who operates a drive-in restaurant in Arlington, Texas. NORMAN believed PAUL must have had an investment in RUBY's club, because PAUL would show up at the club, usually on the week ends, and RUBY would give him money which NORMAN believed to be a cut from the club. NORMAN stated another individual who was a close friend of RUBY's was a man named GEORGE (LNU) who lived in the same apartment house as RUBY in the Oak Cliffs section of Dallas and was frequently in the club.

NORMAN characterized RUBY as a "loner," even though he went out of his way to meet people, and was not close to many people. NORMAN stated he had no knowledge that RUBY had homosexual tendencies, although he had heard gossip to this effect, and stated RUBY had never approached him in this manner. He stated RUBY frequently dated show girls and other girls at the club and appeared normal in this respect.

NORMAN stated he could always be located through his home address, 6013 Reiger Street, Dallas, telephone TAylor 7-8424, or through the American Guild of Variety Artists.

GLADYS CRADDOCK, 710 North Ewing Street, Apartment 112, has been employed in the Classified Ad Department of the Dallas Morning News since August 29, 1962.

DALLAS, TEXAS

In this capacity she became acquainted with JACK RUBY who frequently placed an advertisement with that paper. Beginning approximately six months ago RUBY began asking her for dates. At first she was incensed over these offers knowing that he ran a "girlie stripper show".

Approximately one month ago GLADYS, in seeking night employment to supplement her wages, asked RUBY where she could get night work. He invited her to work for him at the Carousel Club as a hostess at this time telling her that "despite what she had heard all she had to do was keep an open mind".

During the first week of November beginning on November 4, 1963 she went to the club at night and worked as a hostess for three nights then missed Wednesday and Thursday nights, worked Friday night and again the following Monday, November 11, 1963 at which time she left the club and informed RUBY she could not continue this work.

During her work at the club she stated RUBY's only association and contact with the "strippers" was strictly business, that he did not date any of the girls, did not associate with them on a social scale and did not even introduce her to these girls.

CRADDOCK stated that the argument with "JADA" arose when RUBY had to turn off the lights during JADA's act when JADA took off her "G" string which would have caused RUBY to lose his license. She also stated that RUBY informed her that JADA was using the club to prostitute.

On the second date CRADDOCK had with RUBY he discussed his great admiration for President KENNEDY, his wife and family, and she stated that she knew he was a great admirer of the KENNEDY family as well as the United States having frequently made statements as to his childhood in the "tough part" of Chicago where he had at one time lived on noodles and water and it would be a day of feasting when the family secured a spoiled herring. CRADDOCK stated that RUBY had a healthy respect for authority and police and that she definitely did not believe that he did or ever would have any connection, tie-up with any organization which was against the American Government.

CRADDOCK further stated that in her opinion his shooting of OSWALD was purely an impulsive and emotional act and if RUBY could have foreseen the criticism his action would bring against the City of Dallas that he would never have shot OSWALD.

CRADDOCK stated that he always was seeking "class" and was considering opening a private club on Maple Avenue in order to get away from the girlie shows.

She further stated that he had always treated her as a lady and on one occasion had kissed her on the cheek and patted her on the back when telling her good night and had never made any amorous advances.

CRADDOCK also stated she did not believe RUBY knew OSWALD and his only male friend known to her was RALPH PAUL.

CRADDOCK last saw RUBY around 11:00 a.m., Friday, November 22, 1963 when he was in the Classified Ad Section preparing advertisements for his Carousel Club, and she had received no message of any sort from him since the assassination of President KENNEDY.

JAMES WADE MYERS, inmate, Jackson County Jail, Pascagoula, Mississippi, advised that he is being held on charges of obtaining goods by false pretense and escape. He said that he was discharged from the U. S. Air Force, Bergstrom Air Force Base in March, 1961, and thereafter went to Dallas, Texas, where he worked at the Capri Theater as head usher for a few weeks. He said the man who owned a tie and shirt shop next to the Capri Theater, and whose name he cannot recall, told him he could help him get a better job. This man took him to the Carousel Club and introduced him to JACK RUBY as a friend. Two or three days later, RUBY hired him as a maintenance man and general handyman. MYERS said that he lived at the club and became well acquainted with RUBY and that he stayed in this job for six or seven months. MYERS said that RUBY seemed non-committal about the KENNEDY administration but disapproved of the EISENHOWER administration which had just left office. He was a moody individual and was very unpredictable. When he was angry he tended to become violent. He did not seem to have any strong or well-defined political viewpoint.

MYERS said after he had been at the club about six months, he lost one of RUBY's dogs while walking it and RUBY became angry at him and dismissed him from his employment.

MYERS said that while he worked for RUBY there was an old foreign-made rifle with bolt action which always stood in a corner behind the bar near the cash register. He said that JACK also had a snub nosed blue metal pistol which he carried most of the time.

MYERS said he believes JACK RUBY has contacts or connections with underworld characters but MYERS could not furnish specifics. He said that JACK received many long distance calls at the club from men who described themselves as friends of JACK. He said that on more than one occasion he heard JACK talking to a man on the telephone whom he addressed as MAISEL. MYERS said that most of RUBY's personal friends were Jewish.

"I, Helen Harper, make the following voluntary statement to James Allen Benbrook and William S. Brown, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have been advised that this statement may be used in a court of law.

"For the last seven years I have been a stripper and my stage name is Honey Harper. I am 38 years of age having been born April 5, 1925 at Winston County, Alabama. I presently reside at the Comodore Hotel, Portland, Oregon.

"While at Des Moines, Iowa in December, 1961, I received a booking through the Mike Riaff Agency, St. Louis, Mo. to go to the Carousel in Dallas, Texas. I started to work for Jack Ruby at the Carousel, Dallas, about two days after Christmas, 1961 on a week to week contract. After about two and one half weeks of working for Ruby I quit, mainly because JACK RUBY was always getting upset, and on some occasions would bawl out another employee or bawl me out, and then turn around and apologize for his actions. Because of these actions I thought RUBY was kooky and changeable.

"During this period of time while I was at the Carousel the master of ceremonies and comic was Bobby O'Day and on a couple of occasions in the middle of his act, RUBY would go up to the raised stage and bawl him out for one thing or another and then later apologize, but would then turn around and do the same thing again.

Mrs MARION PARRISH KING, 2634 South Beckley, advised she married ROBERT GEROME STUART, better known as BUDDY KING, in Dallas, Texas, in 1962, and obtained a divorce from him in July, 1963. She stated STUART uses the stage name of BUDDY KING and likes to be called by that name. He worked, as a child, in "Our Gang Comedy" and later became a singer and impressionist. He is 44 years of age, a white male, 5'4" tall, 140 pounds, blue eyes, dyed red hair, receding forehead. He is an alcoholic and has a heart condition due to this alcoholism. She last heard from STUART in February, 1963, when he was employed by the Milne Circulation Sales Corporation, 112 North Central, phone 258-8158, but when she filed for a divorce she had to publish her suit as STUART could not be found for service.

JOE CAMPISI, 4445 Ashford Drive, Dallas, TEXAS, partner in the ownership of the Egyptian Lounge, 5610 Mockingbird Lane, furnished the following information concerning his knowledge of JACK RUBY, owner and operator of the Carousel Club in Dallas:

CAMPISI stated he has known JACK RUBY since about 1949 when RUBY was operating the Spur Club in Dallas, also known as the Silver Spur. CAMPISI described RUBY as a "very high-strung, very excitable person" who would "belt someone at the drop of a hat." CAMPISI stated that if RUBY disagreed with somebody or had trouble with them concerning anything, RUBY would immediately take the offensive and assault the person with his fists.

CAMPISI stated RUBY is probably well known to every businessman and restaurant owner in Dallas, through RUBY's operation of night clubs since his arrival in Dallas in about 1949. CAMPISI cited that RUBY goes to every football game in the Cotton Bowl simply for the purpose of meeting people, "glad-handing" and promoting his night club, by inviting these people to come to them. CAMPISI stated that RUBY does not know the first thing about football. RUBY would also, according to CAMPISI, attend the fights and the musicals for the same purpose. CAMPISI described RUBY as "one hell of a hustler who would do anything to earn a buck."

CAMPISI advised that RUBY had a great love for dogs and would have as many as three dogs living with him at his apartment or house. Also CAMPISI described RUBY as quite a "ladies man" but that for a few years in about 1955 to about 1958 RUBY spent most of his social time with one particular girl whose name CAMPISI could not recall. CAMPISI was of the opinion that this girl's name would be known to CAMPISI's partner RALPH PAUL.

CAMPISI stated that during the 14 years he has known RUBY, RUBY has never mentioned politics and has never expressed any great dislikes or likes concerning any particular political party. He further stated that RUBY "operated out of his hip pocket" meaning that RUBY would carry money received at the club in his pocket and pay his bills with this money in cash.

This was CAMPISI's explanation of why RUBY had over $2,000 in his pocket at the time of his arrest on November 24, 1963. CAMPISI stated that when it was announced that RUBY had shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, this announcement did not surprise CAMPISI based on his knowledge of RUBY and RUBY's temperament.

CAMPISI stated that RUBY made a practice of becoming acquainted with all police officers and he, RUBY, would cooperate with the police in the operation of his night club. CAMPISI stated RUBY did this for his own protection as police officers would, at RUBY's request and cooperation, keep undesirable characters and prostitutes out of RUBY's club. Police officers would also advise RUBY whenever he would hire a girl to work as a stripper who also had a record for prostitution. CAMPISI was of the opinion RUBY gained entrance to the City Hall basement on November 24, 1963, through this friendship with and knowledge of numerous Dallas police officers.

CAMPISI stated that he has been in RUBY's clubs, both the Carousel on Commerce Street and the Vegas on Oak Lawn Avenue, numerous times and he had never observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD at either place. He had never heard RUBY ever mention anyone by the name of LEE or LEE HARVEY OSWALD or O. D. LEE or ALEK HIDELL.

CAMPISI was asked to identify persons that he knew were acquainted with RUBY. He again stated that RUBY would be known to every night club operator and beer hall operator in Dallas and probably numerous Dallas businessmen. When asked if RUBY was ever known to partake in gambling CAMPISI stated he had never heard of RUBY ever gambling or engaging in bookmaking either as a bookie or a person placing bets. CAMPISI did state that RUBY was acquainted with Dallas gamblers JOHNNIE ROSS PATRONO, BOBBY CHAPMAN, RUSSELL DOUGLAS MATTHEWS and JIMMY VOURIS. He also stated that he was of the opinion RUBY was acquainted with known Dallas police character MARVIN RALPH PRESTRIDGE. He also stated that he had never observed RUBY at any time "flash" the money he was carrying. CAMPISI estimated that the receipts from RUBY's club would easily total over $2,000 in any one week.

CAMPISI advised he would attempt to ascertain the name of RUBY's former girl friend and immediately furnish same to the FBI.

Mr. BILLY CHESTER CARR, 6027 Ettrick, telephone PA 9-0891, advised that he telephoned JACK RUBY, owner of the Vegas Club, Dallas, Texas, on November 18, 1963 to book a band called the "Impellas". He said that the operator was unable to reach RUBY at the Vegas Club and subsequently reached him at the Carrousel in Dallas, at which time he described the "Impellas" to RUBY and told him that their services could be obtained for $500.00 a week. CARR stated that the "Impellas" have recently made a fast selling record called the "Continental Whip" and are due to have another record released in the first week of January, which they anticipate being a possible hit. CARR advised that RUBY was interested in the band and stated that he would be in touch with CARR.

CARR advised that the only other contact he had ever had with RUBY was in August, 1958 when he appeared one night at the Vegas Club as a singer under his stage name of BILLY COSTA. He stated that RUBY remembered him from this appearance.

CARR advised that his dealings with RUBY were of a business nature and could furnish no information concerning RUBY's political, social or other business contacts.

CARR advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

BENNY H. BICKERS, 1031 Kessler Parkway, Dallas, Texas who has owned and operated night clubs in the Dallas area for the past 20 years, advised from 1953 to 1962 he owned and operated the University Club approximately one block from the Carousel Club which is owned by JACK RUBY.

BICKERS has known RUBY for approximatdy 20 years at which time RUBY came to Dallas from Chicago where RUBY had connections with several clubs. At the time RUBY came to Dallas he was known as JACK RUBENSTEIN. On several occasions RUBY came to the University Club and discussed with BICKERS about buying the University Club but BICKERS believed that RUBY was just "snooping" to see who was at the club and to see if he was doing any business. In the past BICKERS has known of numerous occasions where RUBY could not pay the girls who were stripping at the club, his master of ceremonies and his managers, and when they would ask for the pay RUBY would get mad and beat them up.

BICKERS could not recall the names of the employees who had trouble with RUBY, as most were entertainers who were only in Dallas, employed at the Carousel for one or two weeks at a time. After these occurrences BICKERS told RUBY that he was barred from the University Club and did not want him at the University Club at any time.

BICKERS stated it was common knowledge that RUBY spent time almost every day at the Dallas Police Department and was furnishing information to several Dallas policemen regarding the operations of other clubs in Dallas. For this reason when RUBY was arrested for violation in his club he was released without any conviction.

BICKERS advised his opinion of RUBY was that he was a publicity hound and attempted to be a hoodlum but did not know how and enjoyed taking advantage of girls and people employed by him when he beat them up, knowing they could do nothing about it

BARNEY L. WEINSTEIN, 3815 Northwest Parkway, owner and operator of the Theater Lounge, 1326 Jackson Street, advised he has known JACK RUBY for approximately eight or nine years but does not know him well. He stated although RUBY operates a similar business he does not approve of the way he operates it. He stated on occasion he had heard people say that RUBY has for no explainable reason hit somebody in the nose or knocked them down the stairs at his club, and he has also heard that RUBY has loaned his girls for private parties without going through ACVA.

WEINSTEIN stated he has been contacted in the last forty-eight hours by CBS, ABC, Life Magazine and Look Magazine for pertinent information concerning RUBY, but he was unable to supply any. He stated he has no pertinent information concerning the loyalty to the United States or connections with any organization of RUBY and knows no one other than officials of ACVA who might be able to furnish information concerning him.

He stated RUBY formerly had an MC by the name of EARL NORMAN who worked at RUBY's club for approximately six months, December, 1962 to June, 1963, and is now employed at the Largo Club, Los Angeles, California, who might be able to furnish information concerning RUBY.

Dallas, Texas

ABE L. WEINSTEIN, 11028 Westmere Circle, owner and operator of Abe's Colony Club, advised he has been in the club business for thirty years and that JACK RUBENSTEIN is a competitor of his, operating the Carousel next door for the past two or three years. WEINSTEIN stated he does not speak to RUBENSTEIN because he does not approve of RUBENSTEIN's ethics. He stated that on some occasions when he has a crowd waiting to get in his place of business, RUBENSTEIN will come over and pass out cards and offer free drinks to get the customers to come to RUBENSTEIN's club.

He stated he really knows nothing about RUBENSTEIN, but understands that he originally came from Chicago to Dallas in approximately 1950; that he is single; that he has a sister named EVA GRANT, who owns and operates the Vegas Club in Dallas.

WEINSTEIN stated that he has received long distance calls, November 24, 1963, from WALTER CRONKITE; Life Magazine, The Kansas City Star, and the Houston Post, making inquiry concerning JACK RUBENSTEIN, and he has advised each of those sources that he knows nothing about RUBENSTEIN. He stated that approximately three weeks ago RUBENSTEIN had a fight with one of the strippers working at RUBENSTEIN's and she had him put under a peace bond, and he was arrested and had her put under a peace bond. He stated he also recalls hearing that when RUBENSTEIN formerly operated the Silver Spur, he got into a fight with a man, name not now recalled, who bit RUBENSTEIN's finger off.

He stated the only persons that he can think of who may know something about RUBENSTEIN would be JACK COLE, theatrical agent, now at Houston, who formerly officed in the Interstate Building in Dallas; TOM PALMER, District Manager of AGVA, Dallas, and Lieutenant JIM GILMORE of the Dallas Police Department, who is in charge of dance halls, and is in his place of business, as well as RUBENSTEIN's every night they are open.

WEINSTEIN stated that he knows nothing about LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated the photograph of OSWALD, New Orleans, Louisiana No. 112723, looks almost identical with JACK RUBENSTEIN.

CLEEVE DUGAS, night manager, 500 Club, Bourbon Street, New Orleans, states JANET M. CONFORTO is identical to JADA, a well known stripper, formerly of Bourbon Street and who departed the New Orleans area approximately six months ago. On the evening of November 24, 1963, he stated he saw a television program from Dallas during which JADA appeared and was described as working for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Lounge in Dallas.

DUGAS staes JADA used to work for him and in about August, 1962, RUBY had been in New Orleans two different times over about a three-week period making business inquiries concerning strippers to utilize at his Carousel Club. At that time, he had inquired about hiring JADA.

DUGAS said that while RUBY was in New Orleans, it was apparently a business trip and he knew of no difficulties RUBY might have had. He said he is familiar with photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and at no time while RUBY was in New Orleans did he see OSWALD and RUBY together.

DUGAS stated that the only other place RUBY inquired of him was inquiry as to whether strippers might be available at a cheaper price in Phenix City, Alabama.

WILLIS G. SHORT, Secretary-Treasurer, Merchants Retail Credit Association, advised he was unable to locate any record for JACK RUBENSTEIN.

JACK L. RUBY has been known since September 13, 1950, when his residence was 1717 South Ervay, rear, (probably rear of Silver Spur, located that address).

On June 13, 1951, RUBY was reported to be the owner of the Ranch House and Silver Spur. He refused to furnish any information when contacted on that date.

On June 18, 1958, RUBY was in the Merchants Retail Credit Association (MRCA) office, at which time he informed he was born in 1911, was single and had no dependents. He claimed to have been in Dallas for 11 years, had an income of $600.00 a month, and rent of $400.00 a month. Claimed to have been in the Air Force from 1943 to 1946. His business was valued at $7,500.00. His nearest relative was SAMUEL D. RUBY, 11682 Rochelle, Dallas. He came to MRCA to question a disputed hospital account which he stated he would probably pay and also checked on a repossession.

On March 17, 1960, MRCA attempted to contact RUBY without success, but did talk to a person named ANDERSON at the Vegas Club. This individual informed JACK RUBY was the owner of the Vegas Club and the Silver Club. RUBY was reported to be 39 years old, single, and connected with these two clubs for ten years. Telephone number LA 8-4775 was given as that of the Vegas Club. RUBY was then reportedly living at 1719½ South Ervay, Dallas.

Inquiries were received concerning JACK L. RUBY from the following business establishments at Dallas on dates indicated:

"The principals of this business have not been available. Information regarding investment and liabilities of this business have not been determined.

Mrs. CHOLE I. STANSELL, 4160 Hawthorne, Hawthorne Terrace Apartments, advised she became manager of the Hawthorne Terrace Apartments, Dallas, Texas, on October 1, 1957, and at that time one tenant in the apartment located at 4156 Hawthorne was JACK RUBY. Mrs. STANSELL described RUBY as a respectful tenant who never caused any trouble and kept strictly to himself. She stated that for some time three other men lived with RUBY in his apartment. RUBY moved in the last months of 1959 or in the first three months of 1960 and upon moving told Mrs. STANSELL that he was leaving for Chicago as his father recently died in that city.

Mrs. STANSELL advised that residents in the apartment at the time RUBY was a tenant were mainly young people in their twenties. She stated since RUBY was an older man she was certain he had no close associates/or friends in the apartment.

From her records Mrs. STANSELL was able to determine that neighbors of RUBY in October, 1957, were RUTH and NORMA CAMPBELL, 4154 Hawthorne Terrace. The CAMPBELLs were sisters and were either nurses or school teachers. Other neighbors were JO ANN WALKER, MARY SUE BOLING and PHYLLIS BACHREL, all of whom resided at 4158 Hawthorne Terrace and who moved out on November 20, 1957. STANSELL stated that no present residents would know RUBY.

Mrs. STANSELL advised that the Hawthorne Terrace Apartments are owned by her son-in-law, Dr. HARRY R. TAYLOR, 5947 Discell, telephone EM 1-7437, Dallas. She doubted that Dr. TAYLOR would know anything of JACK RUBY. She recalled that Dr. TAYLOR purchased the apartments in 1957 from one RAY WOOD, address unknown.

RUBY GROSS, 7007 Yamini, Dallas, Texas, widow of BENNIE E. GROSS, advised that they formerly owned the Hawthorne Terrace Apartments, Throckmorton and Hawthorne Avenues, Highland Park, Texas, in 1956 and 1957, at which time they sold the unit to RAY WOODS.

Documents Texas B.E. Gross

Mrs. GROSS said that JACK RUBY rented one of her apartments with another white male, approximately the same age as RUBY. She said that RUBY owned The Vegas Club, Oaklawn Avenue, Dallas, and had a 1955 or 1956 white Cadillac. She said she knew he was from Chicago, Illinois, but he did not associate with anyone in the apartment building, other than the individual he was rooming with. She said he seemed to be a quiet individual who kept to himself, and the only trouble she had was on one occasion trying to collect overdue rent. She said she never met any of RUBY's associates or friends and she did not see any girls at his apartment at any time.

Mrs. GROSS advised that the more she thought of it she believed that the man who first shared the apartment with RUBY was a Doctor ALLISON, who had an office in downtown Dallas, but she was not certain of this.

Mrs. GROSS advised LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to her.

Mrs. GROSS advised if she could recall any further information she would immediately contact the FBI.

Mrs. DART advised she knows no friends or associates of RUBY but does recall he had visitors on numerous occasions who "did not look like nice people". Mrs. DART stated that one of these visitors drove a fairly new white Cadillac probably a 1955 or 1956 model. She described the driver of the above car as a middle-aged heavy set white man who at times was accompanied by two or three other men. She further recalled that although she spoke with RUBY on only one or two occasions RUBY did mention at one time that he managed a night club in Dallas. Mrs. DART stated she does not think any tenants of the apartment would know RUBY because he, RUBY, had no friends and kept to himself.

WOODS stated that he is the former owner of the Hawthorne Terrace Apartments located on the corner of Hawthorne and Throckmorton having sold these apartments in 1957 to Dr. HARRY A. TAYLOR. WOODS advised he owned the apartments for less than one year and at the time of his purchase one JACK RUBY was a tenant. WOODS further stated that he did not live in the Hawthorne Terrace apartments so is not well acquainted with JACK RUBY and knows no associates or friends of RUBY. He stated he did have one business dealing with RUBY. This business dealing was in connection with his (WOODS) purchasing the Silver Slipper night club located on South Ervay Street, Dallas. At the time of WOODS' purchase JACK RUBY was renting the Silver Slipper night club and WOODS continued to rent this night club to RUBY on a monthly basis. WOODS stated that RUBY fell behind in his monthly rental payments and he continuously had trouble in collecting the rent from RUBY. This caused hard feeling between him and RUBY. WOODS advised he sold the Silver Slipper night club about one year after its purchase and this was the last association or contact with JACK RUBY.

J. Herman Little

WOODS stated that when he purchased the Hawthorne Terrace Apartments in 1957, HERMAN LITTLE, address unknown, was the manager at that time. After WOODS purchased the apartments he advised he hired MARION DART of the Dorchester House, Dallas, Texas, to manage the apartment building. WOODS stated he purchased the apartment from B. E. GROSS, now deceased, and he recalled that Mrs. B. E. GROSS worked at the apartment prior to his purchase.

GEORGE A. BOUHE, 4740 Homer, Apartment O, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of residence. GEORGE BOUHE

Mr. BOUHE was asked if he was aware of any relationship whatsoever between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY. Mr. BOUHE stated that he met LEE HARVEY OSWALD approximately a year and a half ago through OSWALD's wife. He pointed out that he had made it a point of meeting Mrs. OSWALD since he had become aware that she was from his own home town in Russia. In this connection, he stated that he had left Russia in 1924 and has been residing in the United States since that time.

Mr. BOUHE was emphatic in stating that he had never even heard the name JACK RUBY until the name appeared in the paper following the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY. He said that neither LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor his wife, MARINA, had ever mentioned JACK RUBY in his presence. He likewise stated that in his contacts with the Russian colony in Texas, he had never heard the name of JACK RUBY mentioned.

It was pointed out to Mr. BOUHE that JACK RUBY had within the past few years resided at 4749 Homer Street. BOUHE pointed out that all residences on the Homer Street in the 4700 block are of the apartment building type. He said that the apartment which he occupies rents for $75.00 a month, whereas the apartments at 4749 rent for $200.00 a month. He said he has never been in contact with individuals residing in the apartments across the street from the apartment in which he resides.

Mr. BOUHE said that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had never resided on Homer Street or anywhere in the area of the 4700 block of Homer to his knowledge. He pointed out that when he first met OSWALD, he was residing at 2703 Mercedes in Fort Worth, Texas. When OSWALD first came to Dallas he resided at the YMCA for a couple of years. Following his residence at the YMCA, he said OSWALD secured a room in the Oak Cliff area of Dallas, but he could not recall this address nor did he have a record of it in his papers. At this point, Mr. BOUHE produced a card on which he kept addresses, and this card bore the notation dated November 1, 1963, 602 Elsbeth , Oak Cliff, for OSWALD and a notation dated June 1, 1963, reflecting an address of 4907 Magazine Street, New Orleans, Louisiana (Mr. BOUHE said he received this information second hand).

Mr. BOUHE advised that he was not too well acquainted with OSWALD, repeating that he met him through his wife. According to BOUHE, OSWALD frequently beat Mrs. OSWALD, and he recalled that on one occasion when he and some other members of the Russian colony had visited the OSWALD residence they had found it practically devoid of furniture, with the young child sleeping on the floor. Accordingly, he and other members of the group felt sorry for the OSWALDs and between them secured some child's furniture and clothing, along with milk and other groceries for the family. Even while they were making this material available to the OSWALD family, he said that OSWALD was extremely ungrateful and beligerent, stating that his family did not need such items even though it was very obvious that they did.

Mr. BOUHE advised that to his knowledge OSWALD never had any money of consequence except on those occasions immediately after he had cashed his weekly pay check.

ALONZO "LONNIE"/GEORGE HOPKINS, Room 209, Marsala Place Apartments, 223 Ewing Street, advised he had lived at these apartments since they were built in approximately November, 1962. He stated he currently shared the apartment with LOWELL GAYLOR, JR., and JACK ROOKER. HOPKINS advised he was currently employed by Davis & Associates, Consulting Engineers, in Dallas.

Dallas, Texas

HOPKINS stated he had known JACK RUBY for some time, both as a fellow occupant of the apartments and as the Manager of the Carousel Club. He stated RUBY maintained about four or five dachshunds in his apartment, despite management regulations to the contrary. He said RUBY appeared to be "a nice fellow" and frequently gave many free passes to both him and his friends to the Carousel Club. HOPKINS advised he never saw RUBY in possession of a gun, nor did RUBY ever mention ownership of one. HOPKINS stated that he knew RUBY's sister, EVA GRANT, of The Vegas Club. He stated EVA had a very quick and violent temper; she acted as the "club bouncer" at The Vegas Club, and he had observed her on many occasions throwing out drunks. HOPKINS said he had heard that RUBY also had a very quick temper but he, personally, had seen no evidence of such. HOPKINS advised that RUBY frequently had various strippers at the Carousel Club at his apartment, but he knew of only two of these girls who were there frequently. He stated these two strippers, one a brunette and one a red head, had lived in Room 208 of the apartment during the Summer of 1963. He stated he could not recall their names.

HOPKINS also advised that two Dallas police officers who occupied Room 208 after it was vacated by the strippers appeared to be on very good terms with RUBY. He stated he believed one of the officers was named FRED SEXAUER, but he could not recall the other one's name.

HOPKINS also advised that another very good friend of RUBY was the former manager of the Marsala Apartments, a man he knew only as JOE. He said that JOE and JACK RUBY were drinking buddies and he felt that JOE would be able to furnish a good deal of information about RUBY.

HOPKINS further advised he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor had he ever seen him at RUBY's apartment or at the Carousel Club.

Glenn Davis

Mr. GLENN MARSHALL DAVIS, 2717 West Jefferson, Dallas, Texas, stated he was Manager of the Marsala Apartments from February, 1963 to July, 1963.

Mr. DAVIS stated he rented Apartment 207 to JACK LEON RUBY sometime in February, 1963, and that he was not acquainted with RUBY prior to that time. Mr. DAVIS described his acquaintance with RUBY as casual. On two or three occasions, RUBY invited DAVIS to have a social drink with him, but in each instance DAVIS declined to accept. DAVIS stated he had on one occasion accepted an invitation from RUBY to go to the Carousel Club, where they each had a few drinks, and left. DAVIS indicated he and RUBY did not develop a real close friendship.

DAVIS described RUBY as a good, cash-paying tenant, who was friendly and courteous to all apartment house occupants. RUBY was especially fond of children and would frequently give special attention to the small children residing at the Marsala Apartments. DAVIS indicated RUBY was a sloppy housekeeper, leaving money lying around the house and generally not doing any cleaning. Because of this situation and at DAVIS' request, RUBY hired a maid by the name of ELNORA PITTS in April, 1963.

DAVIS stated that RUBY was especially friendly with GEORGE SENATOR, who resided in Apartment 206, Marsala Apartments. RUBY and SENATOR would usually eat supper together. DAVIS indicated he thought SENATOR to be "odd," but could not elaborate on this point. RUBY was known to frequently have female guests and on a few occasions he would have parties. The parties were always quiet and orderly. DAVIS could not identify any of the female guests referred to above.

DAVIS stated he knew RUBY to have a gun which was kept in a living room closet. He has never seen the gun, nor could he describe it. DAVIS indicated RUBY advised him he had the gun because RUBY frequently had large sums of money around the apartment.

DAVIS stated he has not seen RUBY since July, 1963,

He stated that he and his wife separated and that he moved to the Marsala Place Apartment House, 223 S. Ewing Street, Dallas in July and August with another policeman, FRED SEXAUR, and that they lived there together during July and August, 1963. He advised that shortly after he had moved to this address, he learned that RUBY lived in an apartment across the hall from the one he occupied. He advised that he saw RUBY around the apartment house swimming pool occasionally, but did not see him very often, as RUBY slept during the days and he, STREBECK, during this time was on a day shift. He stated that so far as he knew, RUBY had no close friends other than the man who worked at the Carousel Club with him, named PAUL and who lived as a roommate with him at this address.

STREBECK stated that he knew of no connection RUBY had with OLSWALD and stated that during all of his contacts with RUBY, he had never seen OLSWALD and RUBY together.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date November 25, 1963

Mrs. REX B. GOODMAN advised she has been manager of the apartment house at 3929 Rawlings since January 12, 1963. She informed that Mrs. EVA L. GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, has occupied Apartment 1 in that apartment house ever since Mrs. GOODMAN and her husband began managing the house. She said the records reflect Mr. GRANT has been a tenant in that apartment house since May 29, 1961. Mrs. GOODMAN further said she is aware of the fact the name of JACK RUBY has appeared on the mail box for Apartment 1 ever since she has managed the apartment. She said Mrs. GRANT had told her that RUBY used this only to receive mail. She stated she is sure JACK RUBY has never lived at that apartment as she has only seen him a very few times.

Texas

Mrs. GOODMAN informed that in approximately July, 1963, Mrs. GRANT left an envelope with her to be delivered to JACK RUBY. She informed that Mrs. GRANT saw fit to describe JACK RUBY to Mrs. GOODMAN so that she would know him when he called for the package. Mrs. GOODMAN informed that RUBY would come and pick up the envelope on this occasion. Mrs. GOODMAN said that Mrs. GRANT had often mentioned her brother, JACK RUBY, in casual conversation, and she knew he operated the Carousel and Vegas Night Clubs. She said he came by the apartment on an average of approximately once every 30 days, but usually would only sit in his car and honk the horn and Mrs. GRANT would go to the car. Mrs. GOODMAN pointed out that only on the one occasion mentioned above, when he called for the envelope, does she recall having seen him until the past two weeks. She said in the past approximately two weeks Mrs. GRANT had an operation and JACK RUBY has come by to see her quite often since that time. She said that she understands he is a bachelor but that his business is "pretty good." Mrs. GOODMAN informed she has become quite attached to Mrs. GRANT and likes her very much. She said Mrs. GRANT has visited in Mrs. GOODMAN's apartment on numerous occasions and had coffee with her.

Mrs. GOODMAN informed that Mrs. GRANT is a "strong KENNEDY woman." She said she does not know whether Mrs. GRANT is a Republican or Democrat or what other political belief she holds but that she has certainly been very strongly in favor of President KENNEDY and that she was "real torn up" about the President's assassination.

She advised a woman named PAULINE, last name unknown, called her, Mrs. GOODMAN, a very short time after the President was assassinated and told her that Mrs. GRANT was hysterical about the assassination and asked Mrs. GOODMAN to go to Mrs. GRANT's apartment and see if she could be of assistance. Mrs. GOODMAN said she went to Mrs. GRANT's apartment and talked with her for approximately ten minutes. She said Mrs. GRANT had obviously been crying because her eyes were red and she kept repeating how tragic for this country the assassination was.

Mrs. GOODMAN described Mrs. GRANT as a very emotional person. She said that she was in a very emotional state on the occasion when she went to the apartment to help calm her down.

Mrs. GOODMAN stated she had learned through her association with Mrs. GRANT before the assassination through various conversations that Mrs. GRANT thought President KENNEDY was a wonderful person and was extremely enthusiastic about him as President. Mrs. GOODMAN stated that she would guess that JACK RUBY is highly emotional and very possibly was very pro-KENNEDY. She stated she is basing this belief more on Mrs. GRANT's outlook than on her actual contact with RUBY.

A picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (New Orleans, Louisiana, #112 723, 8/9/63) was shown Mrs. GOODMAN, and she advised she has never seen him at the apartment house to her knowledge.

JOSEPH RAYMOND COURTNEY, Lazy Acres Apartments, advised that he currently occupied Apartment 210, Building 8602. COURTNEY stated that he was the Resident Manager of the Marsala Apartments, 223 Ewing, for approximately a four-month period in the Summer of 1963. During this period, he had occasion to become acquainted with the tenant of Room 207, JACK RUBY.

COURTNEY advised that he and RUBY saw a great deal of each other. COURTNEY felt that RUBY was "extremely emotional." COURTNEY elaborated by saying that he felt that RUBY became extremely upset about even the smallest problems in his personal or business life.

COURTNEY advised that he knew RUBY owned a gun, which he described as a small .38, and that RUBY had shown it to him on a few occasions. COURTNEY felt that the reason RUBY maintained possession of a sidearm was the fact that he carried a lot of money on his person and that RUBY wanted protection while carrying around the nightly receipts of the Carousel Club. COURTNEY stated that he was in RUBY's apartment on numerous occasions on a social basis and felt RUBY to be well-mannered during these occasions. He stated he only went to the Carousel Club on one occasion and that time upon invitation of RUBY.

COURTNEY stated that during the Summer of 1963 two strippers from the Carousel Club occupied Room 208. One of these was TAMMI TRUE and another, whose name he could not recall. COURTNEY advised it was his impression that the girls were on a friendly basis with RUBY but that RUBY had a "falling out" with TAMMI.

COURTNEY advised that he had numerous complaints from other tenants about TAMMI TRUE and he cautioned her about her behavior in the apartments. He stated she became extremely upset and threatened to kill him if he gave her any trouble. During this period of time when COURTNEY was experiencing these difficulties with TAMMI TRUE, RUBY told COURTNEY it would be a good idea to evict her. COURTNEY stated that upon the recommendation of his superiors because of Miss TRUE's behavior and the fact that she had fallen behind in her rent payments he evicted her. He stated that at the time of the eviction TAMMI TRUE threatened him with a nickel-plated .32 revolver. COURTNEY stated he reported this incident to the Dallas police.

COURTNEY stated that the only close friends he believed RUBY to have who visited him frequently at his apartment would be two men who lived in the apartment next to RUBY. They were GEORGE SENATOR and STANLEY, whose last name COURTNEY could not recall. COURTNEY stated that all three men had free access to each other's apartments. COURTNEY recalled that he had considerable difficulty in collecting the rent from GEORGE and STANLEY on numerous occasions.

COURTNEY further advised that he knew of nothing concerning RUBY's political beliefs, nor did he know of any close association with local law enforcement officers.

Mr. BILLY D. BATEMAN, Apartment 223 Hawthorne House, 400 Andrews Street, Patrolman, Dallas Police Department, advised that he has known JACK RUBY for about 3½ years. He stated that he worked as a patrolman downtown Dallas and stopped in almost nightly at the Carousel and saw RUBY. He stated that he also lived at the Marsala Place Apartment at 223 Ewing next door to the apartment occupied by JACK RUBY. He stated he lived there from approximately February, 1963, to June, 1963, and again from September 1 to October 15, 1963. He stated that so far as he knows RUBY lived there with his dog, Sheeba, and he never saw JACK RUBY accompanied by any female at the apartment house. He stated he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never saw him in the company of RUBY. He stated that he knew of no friends or associates of RUBY although there were a few men around forty years of age who occasionally visited RUBY. BATEMAN stated that he worked the morning shift and went off duty at 7 a.m. on the day of November 22, 1963, and was not on duty when President KENNEDY was shot and likewise he was off duty on November 24, 1963, when RUBY shot OSWALD.

Billy BATEMAN volunteered that his divorced wife works at the telephone company and has told him recently that she has been receiving numerous long distance telephone calls from irate citizens complaining about the Dallas Police Department and told him that if he knew what they were saying he would put his badge, gun and credentials on the mantle and leave Dallas.

Officer SEXAUER states he was not on duty at the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963, at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shot by JACK LEON RUBY. He stated he was attending church at the "Dallas 4-Square", 1240 S. Oak Cliff Boulevard, Dallas.

Officer SEXAUER stated he knew RUBY as an apartment owner at Marsalis Place, 223 S. Ewing, Dallas, Texas, at the time he, SEXAUER, was also an apartment owner at 223 S. Ewing. He states he did not attempt to become friendly with RUBY, inasmuch as he considered him repulsive and so overly friendly, that he made people suspicious. He further states RUBY did not at any time visit in his apartment, but on one occasion, RUBY did offer him tickets to his night club, but he cannot recall whether or not he used the tickets.

Officer SEXAUER states RUBY frequently had girls at his apartment, presumably girls who were employed at his night club as "strippers."

Officer SEXAUER stated it was rumored at the Marsalis Place Apartments that JACK LEON RUBY was homosexual and had on occasion been a partner in homosexual activities with the roomer at Room 206, Marsalis Place Apartments. Dallas, Texas

ELNORA (NMN) PITTS, 1316 East Jefferson, advised that she was a cleaning woman for various apartments in Dallas, Texas. She stated that one of her customers, Mr. JACK RUBY, Apartment 207 Marsala Apartments, 223 Ewing Street, Dallas, had been her customer for over six months.

She stated she usually cleaned his apartment on Sundays. She always telephoned him first before she came over, in order to insure that he would leave the key for her and that he would make arrangements for his dog to be out of the apartment.

She never saw RUBY in possession of a gun, although she knew that he carried plenty of money on both his person and in his car.

The only friends she knew that RUBY had were GEORGE SENATOR, who formerly lived next door to RUBY, but had recently moved in with him, and a man she knew only as ANDREW, who frequently telephoned RUBY's apartment while she was cleaning it.

On only one occasion did she see any women in RUBY's apartment. This occasion happened at a date unrecalled when she was cleaning the apartment and two women, whom she assumed to be strippers from the Carousel Club, knocked at the door and told her RUBY was expecting them. PITTS said the two women could stay in the apartment until RUBY arrived, which he did shortly thereafter.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, she telephoned RUBY in his apartment at approximately 8:30 AM. She told RUBY she had some washing to do and would not be able to clean his apartment that morning. RUBY asked her if she could come over and clean at about 2:00 PM. PITTS stated she would be there between 2:00 and 2:30 PM. RUBY agreed to this, advising PITTS that he intended to be back about that time. He told her he had planned to go out that morning. He did not indicate where he was going or what he had planned to do. At no time during this telephone conversation did he mention anything about President KENNEDY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD. PITTS stated that around noon she heard the news of the OSWALD shooting on the radio and she did not go to RUBY's apartment that day.

PITTS advised she saw RUBY rather infrequently and his

Curtis Warner

Mr. and Mrs. CURTIS L. WARNER, Managers, Texas Marsala Place Apartments, 223 South Ewing, Dallas, advised they have known JACK RUBY since RUBY moved into Apartment 207 about November 15, 1962. RUBY lived alone in Apartment 207 until approximately one month ago when GEORGE SENATOR who had resided next door to RUBY in an apartment moved in with him. They advised they did not see too much of RUBY as he usually left his apartment about 8:00 p.m. and did not return until early in the morning. He usually returned to his apartment sometime between 3:00 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. each day.

Doris Warner

They stated they were not acquainted with LEE OSWALD and have never seen RUBY with anyone who resembles OSWALD. Frequent visitors of RUBY included a Mr. SKAGGS who formerly rented No. 307 at this apartment project. They believe that SKAGGS is an employee of a Shell Service Station which is located at the corner of Sanes and Marsalis Streets, Dallas. Another visitor was a BOB DOUGLAS whom they believe operates the Lazy Hour Club, 1324 Commerce Street, Dallas. He also had a fairly young man visit him on occasions whose first name was TOM. His last name is unknown but they believe him to be in his 20's, about 5'7", brown hair and medium build. They could furnish no further information which would assist in identifying TOM.

RUBY also had a man sometime ago who owned a club in Little Rock, Arkansas, visit him for one night. They could not give this man's name or describe him, but they believe he was driving a Cadillac.

RUBY, on occasions, brought several of the girls from the Carousel Club to his apartment. The only girls they could identify from the Carousel Club were GAIL RAVEN and TAMMIE TRUE. They could not give the names of any other associates and said they did not know anything about his family other than he does have one sister whose

L. F. DAUER, Apartment 106, Marsala Place Apartments, 223 Ewing Street, Dallas, Texas, who is the Market Manager of Charley's Ranch Market, 6100 Luther Lane, Dallas, furnished the following information:

JACK RUBY moved into the apartment a few weeks after its completion in November, 1962, but outside of casual meetings on the street, he did not know RUBY. They did not discuss RUBY's business or what he did, but he was aware that RUBY managed the Carousel Club in downtown Dallas. RUBY conducted himself like a gentleman around the apartments. He swam in the pool mostly by himself and acted as though he were taking exercise, because he would never stop at the edge of the pool and talk. He also took sun baths on the roof of the apartments alone.

DAUER stated he noted he had been quoted in the newspapers, but wanted to correct this, since he had been misquoted, and what he actually said was that he had never known RUBY to have any parties in his apartment and if he did he never heard them.

He did see RUBY leaving about 5:00 or 6:00 PM to go to work, but did not see him return and did not know what time he actually returned.

The last time he saw RUBY was last Monday when RUBY was coming down the stairs with his dogs. At that time they stopped and talked about the dogs that RUBY kept in his apartment. He has never seen anyone other than RUBY and GEORGE, whose last name he did not know, but who formerly lived in another apartment until about three weeks ago, when he moved in with RUBY, go in this apartment.

DAUER stated he could only recall one female visitor who came during the Summer of 1963. He recalled her because her car was hot and she asked him to look at it. She then saw RUBY, who was sitting at one corner of the pool, and seemed to know him, and they later went upstairs together. He has never seen her again around the apartments.

DAUER stated he has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD around the apartments and did not know him.

LEON CORNMAN, Branch Manager, American Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA), 1107 Maison Blanch Building, New Orleans, advised that he recalled that he was contacted by a white male who identified himself as JACK RUBY, operator of the Carousel, Dallas, Texas. At this time of contact which was while on Bourbon Street, RUBY was alone and advised CORNMAN that he, RUBY was interested in obtaining the services of JADA (JEANETTE CONFORTO) who was then working at the Sho Bar on Bourbon Street. CORNMAN advised he does not specifically recall the date of contact but it was just three to five days prior to her terminating her contract with the Sho Bar and he has no way to specifically identify this date. He advised that JACK RUBY was alone at this time and he received no information as to his mode of travel to and from New Orleans or where he may have been staying at the time he was in New Orleans. RUBY indicated that in addition to being interested in hiring JADA, he was also interested in any of the show girls who may want to go to work for him in the Carousel in Dallas, Texas.

During this contact JACK RUBY presented one of his business cards for the Carousel which listed the address of the Carousel as corner of Field and Commerce, with telephone number RI 7-2362. On the reverse side of this card RUBY wrote his name in ink "JACK RUBY" with notation "WH 1-5601 home" CORNMAN advised he believed this was the home telephone of RUBY in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. CORNMAN advised he has had no further contact with RUBY nor is he able to identify any of the club owners or entertainers with whom RUBY may have had contact while in New Orleans. CORNMAN suggested that since he understands that JADA did go to work for JACK RUBY a short while after leaving the Sho Bar, he believed the date of contract with the Carousel could be obtained from the Branch Manager of the AGVA, TOM PALMER, 1500 Jackson Street, Room 510, Inter-Urban Building, Dallas, Texas, telephone number RI 2-8292. He believes that this contact would probably be able to give the approximate date that JACK RUBY was in the New Orleans area.

Mr. CORNMAN advised that at this time he has no record by which he could specifically state the date on LEON CORNMAN, Branch Manager, American Guild of Variety Artists, Maison Blanche Building, advised that the only determination he has been able to make as to date of contact by JACK RUBY was some time during the week of June 6, 1963. He advised that the way that he determined this date was from the Union Insurance Records on JADA (JEANETTE CONFORTO) explaining that the week of June 6 was the last week in which she paid these fees and that the week of June 13, 1963, another entertainer was listed in her place on these records, therefore, because of this record he believes that he was contacted by JACK RUBY on Bourbon Street during this week of June 6, 1963.

PAUL CASCIO, Manager of the Blue Angel Club, 231 Bourbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised Special Agents JAMES E. SCHMIDT, JR., and FRANK A. SASS, JR., that approximately six months ago an individual identifying himself as JACK RUBY, owner of the Carousel Lounge, Dallas, Texas, came to the Hotsy Totsy Bar, located at 232 Bourbon Street, wherehe was working as a bartender. RUBY introduced himself and claimed to be inquiring in New Orleans as to the amount of money paid to "strippers" on Bourbon Street in New Orleans. After getting a general idea of the amount of money being paid these girls and after being referred to "JADA", a dancing girl at the 500 Club on Bourbon Street, he apparently made some contact and tried to contact this "stripper".

CASCIO had no knowledge of any further contact that RUBY had with anyone in any of the other clubs on Bourbon Street.

He stated that he saw RUBY on only one occasion in the evening and at that time he was alone and no conversation ensued other than that concerning strippers.

He told DUGAS to tell this man that he knew of no dancers available other than CONFORTO. He told DUGAS to tell this person to go to the Sho-Bar and talk to CONFORTO. CLEEVE DUGAS, Night Manager, 500 Club, Bourbon Street, New Orleans, stated JANET M. CONFORTO is identical to JADA, a well known stripper formerly of Bourbon Street, New Orleans and who departed the New Orleans area approximately six months ago. On the PM of November 24, 1963, he saw a television program from Dallas during which JADA appeared and was described as working for JACK LEON RUBY at the Carousel Lounge in Dallas.

DUGAS stated JADA used to work for him and in about August of 1962 JACK LEON RUBY had been in New Orleans two different times over about a three week period, making business inquiries concerning strippers to utilize at his Carousel Club. At that time he had inquired about hiring JADA.

DUGAS said that while RUBY was in New Orleans it was apparently a business trip and he knew of no difficulties RUBY might have had. He said he is familiar with photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and at no time while RUBY was in New Orleans did he see OSWALD and RUBY together.

DUGAS stated that the only other place RUBY inquired of him was an inquiry as to whether strippers might be available at a cheaper price in Phenix, Alabama.

HUGH AINSWORTH, Reporter, Dallas Morning News, called and said he has known JACK LEON RUBY for a long time and RUBY had been observed by him around the Dallas Morning News building about noon, November 22, 1963. Also, RUBY was seen there by other employees of the newspaper but was missed for a period of about 20 to 25 minutes and AINSWORTH had no information as to where RUBY had gone during this interval of time, nor did other employees.

Shortly after having been missed, people began to come to the office of the newspaper announcing the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, and RUBY appeared shortly thereafter and feigned surprise at this announcement and gave some show of emotion over the news that had been received.

AINSWORTH advised in view of the fact the Dallas Morning News building is removed only about four blocks from the point where the Presidential Motorcade passed, he could not understand why if RUBY had a love and devotion to the President as he claims he has, he had not walked this short distance for the purpose of seeing the President pass by.

MARGUERITE VEA RIEGLER, in care of Smith Hall, SMU, Dallas, Texas, advised that on Friday night, November 22, 1963, she was at Phil's Delicatessen, 3531 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas, in the company of RITA SILVERMAN, a friend. BILL NICHOLS, DENNIS MARTIN and BOB SINDELOR (phonetic), sophomores at SMU. She advised that they went to Phil's Delicatessen at approximately 10:30 p.m. to have a coke and as they were sitting at their table a man walked up to the table and took their newspaper. The man opened the newspaper, began looking at it and very rudely asked if he might look at their paper to which they replied, "Yes". She advised he looked at the amusement section of the newspaper and immediately went to a telephone located approximately 25 to 30 feet from where they were sitting and dialed a number. She advised none of the group paid any attention, and she could not state whether or not he actually talked on the telephone but that approximately ten minutes later he returned to their table and again asked if he might look at the paper. Miss RIEGLER stated permission was again given and he repeated his former action and about ten minutes later again returned to the table this time somewhat embarrassed and pointed out to them in the paper advertisements for the Carousel and Vegas Clubs. He asked them if they knew of these clubs and stated that he was the owner of the clubs. He made conversation concerning some musicians who had played at the clubs and then proceeded to make a third telephone call. She said that after he finished the third telephone call he returned to the table to talk with one of the boys in the group about musicians who had played at the club. As he left the table he turned to the front page of the paper which was covered with news and photographs concerning the shooting of President KENNEDY and made the remark, "Wasn't that a horrible thing". Miss RIEGLER advised that on Sunday when the news concerning the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was broadcast on television she immediately recognized the photograph of JACK RUBY as being the person who had been at Phil's Delicatessen on Friday night and talked with her and her company. She said while he was at the delicatessen RUBY was alone but appeared to be very familiar with the store and with the persons working in the store. She described him as appearing as though he were at home.

Miss RIEGLER advised she could furnish no information concerning the telephone calls or attempted telephone calls made by RUBY.

Detective RICHARD E. SIMS, Homicide & Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, residence, 8483 Sweetwater Drive, Dallas, Texas, was contacted for the purpose of verifying a telephone call JACK RUBY claimed to have been made to Detective SIMS during the evening of November 22, 1963.

Detective SIMS recalled answering the telephone in the Homicide & Robbery Bureau, Dallas Police Department, during the evening of November 22, 1963, on one occasion, when the person calling said, "This is JACK RUBY. I know you are busy. I've got some sandwiches for you." SIMS said he told RUBY the Homicide & Robbery Bureau Officers had already eaten (in relays) and that the sandwiches would not be needed. He recalled he thanked RUBY and that RUBY said, "Alright."

SIMS said he did not recall RUBY mentioning anything about Radio Station KLIF, Dallas, during the conversation, and he (SIMS) did not know what disposition RUBY made of the sandwiches. SIMS advised, however, he gained the definite impression during the course of the telephone conversation that RUBY had already bought the sandwiches and had them with him at the time he made the call to the Homicide & Robbery Bureau. He further related that RUBY gave no information as to his whereabouts at the time he made the above telephone call.

SIMS advised it is his best recollection the above telephone conversation with RUBY occurred sometime between 9:00 PM and 10:30 PM, November 22, 1963. He said it is also his definite recollection this call was made sometime prior to taking LEE HARVEY OSWALD to an assembly room in the Dallas Police Department Headquarters for a "show-up," attended by Dallas County District Attorney HENRY WADE, law enforcement officers, and representatives of the press, radio and television media. SIMS said he helped escort OSWALD to the assembly room where the above "show-up" was held; however, he does not recall seeing RUBY during the time he was escorting OSWALD to the assembly room. He said, in fact, he does not recall seeing RUBY in or about the premises of the Dallas Police Department at any time Friday night, November 22, 1963. SIMS volunteered, however, it would have been quite possible for RUBY to be somewhere around the Dallas Police Department Friday night, November 22, 1963, without his, SIMS, having seen RUBY.

SIMS volunteered he knows RUBY by sight, and has known him for approximately fifteen years, having been assigned to the South Dallas area approximately fifteen years ago when RUBY operated the "Silver Spur" in that area of Dallas. SIMS said he has never been employed by or worked for RUBY and has never associated with him on a social basis.

Number two and three lines, RIverside 7-9039 and RIverside 7-9030, are known as hot lines and known only to station personnel and newsmen in the area. Number four, RIverside 7-9319 is known as "Jock line" and known to the disc jokeys and all personnel of the station relative of station employees and a few select friends of station employees.

He advised that on the morning of November 23, 1963 at about 1:00 A.M. this jock line rang and McCURDY answered. The caller said, "Are you RUSS", believed to have reference to RUSSELL MOORE (RUSS KNIGHT), another disc jokey who works from 7:00 P.M. to 12:00 midnight. McCURDY advised he informed the caller of his identity and the caller identified himself saying, "This is JACK RUBY and I have some sandwiches and drinks for the guys at the station". McCURDY stated he told RUBY to wait at the front door at the foot of the stairs which is kept locked. McCURDY advised RUBY stated "I had rather lose $12,000 to $15,000 than not be able to live with myself later on".

McCURDY advised that this ended his conversation with RUBY, that he re-entered the disc jokey room. McCURDY advised that RUBY seemed to be slightly upset and stood looking at the floor, however, did not seem to be extremely emotional. He advised RUBY was dressed in a business suit and wearing a hat. He noted nothing unusual about his body that would indicate he was wearing a gun and he saw no gun.

McCURDY advised RUBY visited and talked with the other individuals in the news room but he has no idea as to their conversation. He advised RUBY was at the station for about one or one and one-half hours. McCURDY believed that RUBY's express purpose was to bring them something to eat. He advised, however, RUBY has never, to his knowledge, been at the station before nor since. He advised he had met RUBY one time before, some weeks ago at RUBY's club. So far as McCURDY known, RUBY is not a personal friend of anyone at the station.

GLEN DUNCAN, News Announcer, KLIF, Dallas, Texas, advised he was on duty the evening of November 22, and early morning of November 23, 1963, and recalls receiving two telephone calls from JACK RUBY sometime during the early morning of November 23, 1963, probably between 1:00 a.m. and 2:00 a.m. He stated RUBY said he was going to bring some sandwiches over to the station and inquired as to whether they wanted to interview HENRY WADE, District Attorney Dallas concerning the OSWALD case and indicated he would endeavor to locate WADE and put him in touch with DUNCAN. He stated RUBY indicated he was at the Police Station and apparently HENRY WADE was there also. He stated in the second telephone call RUBY put WADE on the phone and DUNCAN taped an interview with WADE. He stated shortly after these calls, RUBY came to the station with sandwiches and soft drinks. He stated he had never met RUBY before and would describe his condition as being animated about OSWALD being charged with the assassination of the President and the fact that the evidence was shaping up. He stated he knows nothing about the background, associates or activities of RUBY.

DUNCAN stated it is his understanding that when RUBY first called on the early morning of November 23, 1963, he had obtained the telephone number which is a semi-private line from DANNY McCURDY, Aka., Danny Patrick, who was on duty at the radio station at the phone number listed in the Dallas Telephone Directory for KLIF.

DUNCAN stated RUBY did not ask for or receive a press pass from him or from Station KLIF to his knowledge.

CHANEY advised he is acquainted with JACK RUBY, the owner and operator of several clubs in the Dallas area. He advised that on the day after the assassination of President KENNEDY, which would have been Saturday, November 23, 1963, he was called to return to duty shortly after noon and dispatched to the area of the assassination scene to assist in controlling the crowd of spectators.

CHANEY stated that, at approximately 3:30 PM, JACK RUBY came by the scene of the assassination on foot and stopped and talked with him. RUBY seemed to be solemn and made comments as to the tragedy of what had happened to the President. He remained about four or five minutes, then walked off in the direction of town. CHANEY advised that a few moments later RUBY pulled up to where he was standing, at which time RUBY was driving his 1960 white Oldsmobile. RUBY asked him if two men who were standing in the area several hundred feet away were not Captain FRITZ and Chief CURRY, of the Dallas Police Department. CHANEY said he looked at the men to which RUBY referred and said they were, to which RUBY replied, "Good, I just told reporters up the street that they were down here." STANLEY F. KAUFMAN, 1520 Mercantile Securities Building, advised that he has known JACK RUBY since 1954 and has represented him in several civil matters pertaining to his night night club business in Dallas.

KAUFMAN stated he knows nothing about RUBY's activities while in Chicago prior to coming to Dallas, but knows that for the past nine or ten years he has attended the same synagogue as he attends and he considers RUBY one of the most active Jewish bachelors in the synagogue.

KAUFMAN stated he knows of no trips that RUBY has made, with the exception of a vacation trip to Cuba some years back prior to the time CASTRO took over, at which time he went down to visit some acquaintance, name not now recalled, who worked in a casino there, as well as a trip to Chicago some years back in connection with the death of his father. He stated he does not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never heard OSWALD mentioned by RUBY. KAUFMAN stated he heard over TV that RUBY had asked for three attorneys and that his name was mentioned, but he has received no contact from RUBY since his arrest and, since he does not handle criminal cases, he would not represent RUBY in connection with this pending charge against RUBY. He stated RUBY has never had a bank account to his knowledge and has always paid for his services in cash. He stated he knows of only two persons who might be able to furnish pertinent information concerning RUBY, one RALPH PAUL, of Dallas, who has or had some business connection with RUBY, and ALICE NICHOLS, a girl friend or former girl friend of RUBY, who resides at 8707 Redondo.

KAUFMAN stated that on the morning of November 23, 1963, RUBY called him, appeared to be very upset, and asked him if he had read the article placed in the Dallas News by a BERNARD WEISSMAN. KAUFMAN stated that he told RUBY he had seen it and RUBY asked, "Did you notice that this ad was bordered in black, which makes it look like a death tip?" KAUFMAN stated that RUBY wanted to know who WEISSMAN was and how he could get in touch with him and if Mr. FREEDMAN, of the Anti-Defamation League, could furnish him any information as to the whereabouts of BERNARD WEISSMAN. He stated RUBY also told him that he had tried to locate this WEISSMAN through the Post Office Department, but was

THOMAS J. O'GRADY, 939 Bluewood Drive, Dallas, who is employed as a guard at the General Motors Parts Division, 10788 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, furnished the following information:

He formerly worked as a patrolman for the Dallas Police Department from about 1946 to 1950. During this period, while patroling on South Ervay Street, he became acquainted with JACK RUBY, who was at that time, operating the Silver Spur on South Ervay. Mr. O'GRADY left Dallas in 1950 and did not return until about 1955. About 1956, he first ran into RUBY again at the Vegas Club. He began working for RUBY on Saturday nights at the Vegas Club as a bouncer and continued working in this capacity until about 1958 or 1959. Since 1959, he has seen RUBY only on infrequent occasions. He would occasionally go to the Carousel Club with a group of people on a party and he was always welcomed in a friendly manner by RUBY. He recalled that about two years ago, he worked for RUBY on only one night at the Carousel Club, at the time of the Oklahoma - Texas football game. He did not visit RUBY socially and did not call upon him. They had no discussions about political matters and so far as he knew, RUBY was not intently interested in political matters. He did not seem to be more than a normal admirer of President KENNEDY. There was never any indication that he was affiliated with any particular political party or group of persons interested in political activities.

O'GRADY advised he had no knowledge of trips that RUBY may have made away from Dallas, except for two trips to Chicago to visit his ailing father, and to subsequently attend his father's funeral.

O'GRADY advised to his knowledge, he had no affiliation with gambling or booking interests in Dallas or elsewhere.

He had no knowledge of the identities of persons who may have been affiliated with RUBY in the operation of various clubs in Dallas.

O'GRADY advised RUBY's closest friend appeared to be

RALPH PAUL, who worked with RUBY in the operation of the Vegas Club.

At approximately 8:30 PM, on November 23, 1963, RUBY telephoned O'GRADY and talked to him for approximately five minutes. He did not seem unusually agitated or emotional during these conversations and at no time mentioned the name of OSWALD. He seemed to be particularly interested in two points, first, he told O'GRADY that he was closing the Carousel Club since he did not believe there should be any revelry in the City of Dallas because of the assassination of the President. He complained because some of his competitors were keeping their places of business open, and secondly, he complained about a poster on a building in Dallas, which was critical of Chief Justice WARREN. O'GRADY said that it was unusual for RUBY to call him by telephone and the only reason he believes RUBY called him was that O'GRADY came originally from Boston and is of the Catholic faith, and also, that he has always been able to exert a calming influence on RUBY when the latter became agitated. He advised that RUBY is very hot tempered and would occasionally shout at people when he became angry, however, on the occasion of his telephone call, he did not seem to be agitated and gave absolutely no indication that he intended to do physical harm to OSWALD.

Mr. O'GRADY advised that he had never seen OSWALD in person and had no information indicating a prior connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

RUBY used the name EARL ROBERT RUBY when he made application for a dance hall license in the Club Vegas, on July 17, 1953. At that time he gave residence address as 1719½ South Ervay Street. On February 11, 1954, upon making application under the name JACK RUBY, residence 1717 South Ervay, he listed as his partner as IRVING ALKANA, 5706 Belmont, Dallas. He stated the club was owned under the name "Show-Biz Enterprises", which listed ALKANA as the president and treasurer and RUBY as the vice president.

On March 17, 1954, the application for the dance hall license carried only RUBY's name as owner and operator. It also listed the fact that RUBY had an interest in and was operating Hernando's Hideaway, 6854 Greenville Avenue, Dallas.

In the application for dance hall license dated February 29, 1956, RUBY listed his residence as 4130 Hawthorne, and stated that his full name was JACK LEON RUBY and was also known by the name JACK RUBENSTEIN. The application dated March 18, 1957, carried the same information but added that his home telephone number was LA 8-3248.

Following RUBY's submission of an application in March, 1957, the Police Department conducted a record check and ascertained the following arrests for RUBY in Dallas:

2/4/49 - Disturbing peace

7/26/53 - Carrying concealed weapon

5/1/54 - Carrying concealed weapon - pistol and peace bond

12/2/54 - Violation State liquor law, dismissed.

Captain GANNAWAY said that RUBY had subsequently been arrested on June 21, 1959, for violation of a dance hall ordnance which was dismissed and August 21, 1960, for violation of the dance hall ordnance for which RUBY was fined $25.

Captain GANNAWAY advised that in March of each year, RUBY has made application for, and received a dance hall permit which is still in effect. These applications show that in 1958 and 1959, RUBY listed residence as 4956 Hawthorne. In 1960 and 61 and 62, RUBY listed residence as 4727 Homer, Apartment 105, telephone TA 7-9883. The application for 1961 also states that RUBY could be contacted at his business phone of LA 1-0203 and could also be contacted through RI 7-0025. RUBY is also the listed owner and operator of the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street. The application states this club owned by the S & R Corporation which lists RALPH PAUL as president and RUBY as vice president, and also SAMUEL D. RUBY, 11616 Jamestown, Dallas, as the treasurer and secretary.

In these applications for beer licenses and dance permits, RUBY has stated that as of 1955 he was residing 1719½ South Ervay and had been for the past two years. He claimed he had been operating as of that date, the Silver Spur at 1717 South Ervay Street for the past eight years. He listed a prior address of the YMCA, Dallas, for 1½ years and was claimed to have resided at 3508 North Central Expressway for 1½ years. He claimed his prior residence was in Chicago, where he was born, March 25, 1911.

He has listed as references, STANLEY M. KAUFMAN, 1320 Mercantile Securities Building, Dallas, ALICE NICHOLS, 8707 Redondo Street, Dallas, HAL COLLINS, JR., 4510 Glenleigh, and JACK RUSSELL, Musicians Union, St. Paul Street, Dallas.

Captain GANNAWAY noted that the Carousel Club was formerly known as the Soverign Club.

Captain GANNAWAY had information that in April, 1952, RUBY was working for HYMAN FADER as the manager of Bob Will's Ranch House, a dance hall (now known as The Longhorn), located at Corinth and Industrial Streets. The Police Department received information that FADER had dismissed RUDY because RUBY had "beated FADER out of several thousand dollars".

Captain GANNAWAY stated that as of November 24, 1963, RUBY was residing in the Marsalis Apartments on South Ewing Street, Apartment 207, where he had telephone WH 1-5601. RUBY's sister, EVA RUBIN, also known as EVA GRANT, resides at 3929 Rawlins, Apartment 1, where she has telephone LA 6-6258, which is listed in the name JACK RUBY.

Captain GANNAWY advised that RUBY had purchased Hernando's Hideaway from W. I. BURNS in Januay, 1955, but had no information subsequent to that time that RUBY had any interest in this tavern. Captain GANNAWAY advised that the last address known for RUBY on February 12, 1963, at which time he was arrested for simple assault and claimed has age as 41, having been born March 25, 1921. This assault occurred in the Burgundy Room at the Adolphus Hotel. The complainant was listed as DON TABON, 8546 Forest Hills, phone DA 1-2917 and a witness was listed as M. T. STINSON, 7717 Northhill, Richardson, Texas, telephone AD-5-7660. The complaint states that RUBY had a fight with a complainant and hit him several times with his fists. RUBY was found not guilty on February 27, 1963.

Captain GANNAWAY has information received from informants that RUBY is acquainted with JOE CAMPISI, JOHNNIE ROSS PATRONO and MARVIN RALPH PRESTRIDGE.

DON TABON, 8546 Forest Hills, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information.

In early February, 1963, one night, about 8:00 P.M., TABON was at the Burgandy Room at the Adolphus Hotel. He was sitting at a table with two friends, salesmen from out of town.

TABON knows JACK RUBY by sight having seen him on several occasions at various hotels in Dallas passing out cards advertising the Carousel Club. On this particular night, a short time earlier, TABON had seen JACK RUBY in the Adolphus Hotel accompanied by an "exotic blond". While in the Burgandy Room, JACK RUBY passed the table where TABON was seated and as he passed, TABON made a remark to the effect "what became of that crazy blond you had". JACK RUBY turned around and began beating TABON savagely about the head. After RUBY had beaten TABON to the floor, he immediately left the Burgandy Room. TABON was taken to the hotel office for first aid and while there, a police officer came in and TABON made out a complaint against RUBY. TABON was able to walk out of the hotel, however, the next day he found after going to a doctor that he had received serious injuries from the beating, necessitating his going to a neurosurgeon and eye surgeon.

Subsequently, this matter was brought into Corporation Court in Dallas and after TABON testified, JACK RUBY was found not guilty.

TABON recalled that on the night he was attacked by RUBY at the Burgandy Room about midnight, he received a telephone call at his home from a Detective whose first name he believed was TOMMY and this Detective suggested that he drop the complaint against RUBY since if he were found guilty on a charge of assault, he would probably be fined only about $15.00.

TABON said he had considered a civil suit against RUBY in connection with the assault on him, however, his attorney had determined that RUBY did not have a bank account or other property and even if a judgment were obtained against him, it would not be possible to collect the judgment.

Mr. MARION T. STEENSON, 717 N. Hill, Richardson, Texas, furnished the following information:

In early February, possibly about February 15, 1963, STEENSON was in the Burgundy Room at the Adolphus Hotel, this was sometime early in the night. As he was sitting at the bar, he heard a disturbance at his back and turned around and saw two men fighting between tables adjacent to the bar. STEENSON was not acquainted with either of the men who were fighting, however, he recalled that one of the men was a short heavyset man, and this man was doing most of the "slugging" while the other individual appeared to be trying to get away. The fight lasted two or three minutes and sometime later the police contacted STEENSON and asked him for information concerning the fight. He told them at that time he was not acquainted with either of the men and did not know the cause of the fight or any other pertinent information. The man who was being beaten by the short, heavy, fat man, appeared to have been badly beaten and was taken to the Adolphus Hotel Office. There were a number of other persons in the Burgundy Room at this time, however, during the discussion following the fight, no one seem to knowthe reason for the fight.

STEENSON was told after he went to the hotel office that the short heavy man involved in the fight was JACK RUBY from the Carousel Club in Dallas. The police had indicated to STEENSON that he would be called later as a witness, however, he was never called and he assumed there had been no trial in connection with this altercation at the hotel.

STEENSON said he is not acquainted with JACK RUBY and does not recall ever having seen him except at the time the fight occurred.

PAUL DORFMAN, former head of Scrap Iron and Junk Handlers Union Local 20467, AFL, is quoted in IRV KUPCINET's column "Chicago Sun Times" dated November 25, 1963 as advising RUBY worked as an organizer of the union for a short period but was unsatisfactory.

JOE JACOBS, Labor attorney and attorney for Local 20467 Scrap Iron and Junk Handlers Union, until five years ago, advised SA C. LEONARD TREVIRANUS on Novmeber 24, 1963 that he does not know RUBY nor does he recall his being associated with the union during late thirties or early forties.

An extensive search of the records of Chicago Police Department did not reflect any reference to JOHN MARTIN, JACK RUBY or JACK RUBENSTEIN or to murder of LEON COOK.

IRVING SCHOENWALD, former boxing promoter, 1313 West Randolph, Chicago, advised SA JOHN R. BASSETT on November 25, 1963, that HAROLD RYAN, who is believed to be working for the Illinois State Athletic Commission, is currently on a cruise and will visit Europe. He is expected to return to Chicago in December, 1963. RYAN has telephone number MErrimac 7-1254. This number is listed to NAOMI RYAN, 1704 North Melvina, Chicago. SHOENWALD did not know JACK RUBY, "SPARKY", or JACK RUBENSTEIN.

SAS PETROS A. KOTSOS and JOHN E. DALLMAN attempted on November 25, 1963, to contact RYAN through telephone number ME 7-1254 with negative results.

ART WINCH, member, Illinois State Athletic Commission, 160 North La Salle Street, Chicago, advised SA KOTSOS on November 25, 1963, that HAROLD RYAN is no longer with the commission. RYAN was an office administrator for over ten years and was let out when the political administration of the state of Illinois changed approximately two years ago. RYAN is currently employed with the Metropolitan Sanitary District, Chicago. WINCH had no knowledge or information regarding subject RUBY.

Mr. TED LAUGHRAN, guard, Metropolitan Sanitary District, 100 East Erie, Chicago, advised SA DALLMAN on November 25, 1963, that Mr. HAROLD RYAN, secretary to Mr. MAHONEY, who is in charge of construction there, was presently on a mediterranean cruise and would not return to Chicago until about December 1, 1963.

He could furnish no additional information.

On November 25, 1963, Miss MARIE O'CONNOR, Chicago Tribune Morgue, 435 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, advised SA BRYCE S. PLESNER that a check of their records reflects an article stating that LEON R. COOK died on January 5, 1940. He resided at 1135 South Sacramento, and was the founder of the Iron and Junk Handlers Union, even though he held no office with said union. On December 8, 1939, COOK went to the office of the Iron and Junk Handlers Union, 3159 South Roosevelt and while talking to JOHN MARTIN, president of this Local, was shot as a result of an argument involving amount of pay given to union members. The article points out that COOK went to the hospital under his own power and gave a statement to the effect that while talking with MARTIN he had complained that the union members were not receiving adequate salaries and MARTIN became angry and pulled a gun and shot him. The article pointed out that MARTIN resided at 8023 South Wolcott, Chicago, and that after COOK's death, MARTIN and his secretary, Mrs. GLADYS WALSH, thirty-five, 409 Walnut, Hindsdale, Illinois, could not be located. The article stated that they subsequently did appear at the police station and that in the trial MARTIN maintained that he shot COOK in self defense as it was COOK who had the gun at the time he appeared at MARTIN's home on December 8, 1939. Mrs. WALSH testified that she saw the two men artuing and struggling, but could not see who had the gun or how it was fired.

This article states that much of the information about this matter was received from JACK RUBENSTEIN on December 9, 1939. RUBENSTEIN, secretary of this union, stated that he was only a collector for the union.

Miss O'CONNOR stated that a second article reflected that on January 16, 1940, union president JOHN MARTIN was freed of the charge of murdering LEON R. COOK. She stated that no other information is available concerning this matter.

On November 25, 1963, LOUIS E. SCHNITZ, 2270 Garrison, Evanston, Illinois, advised SA JOHN E. DALLMAN that he does not know JACK RUBY or those allegedly associated with him. SCHNITZ stated that he has a cousin named LOUIS SCHNITZ, 10104 Wyton Drive, Westwood, California, who might know RUBY.

On November 25, 1963, JOSEPH M. KRASNO, Proprietor of the Highland House, a bar and restaurant, stated that he had read newspaper accounts and had seen a newspaper picture of the subject, but did not recall him. KRASNO also said that he had no recollection of ever being arrested with RUBY. Detective RICHARD E. SWAIN, JR., Dallas Police Department, advised that shortly after the shooting of JACK RUBY of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 24, 1963, he had been instructed to proceed to a parking lot located on the northwest corner of Main and Pearl Streets where RUBY had parked his vehicle, described by SWAIN as a 1960 white, two door Oldsmobile. After arriving at the place where the vehicle was parked, SWAIN and other detectives proceeded to examine the vehicle and located the key to the trunk in the glove compartment along with identification papers for JACK RUBY as well as other items, and on opening the trunk found the ignition key and numerous other papers belonging apparently to RUBY as well as a paper sack which contained $837.50. In addition, there were located in the trunk two pair of aluminum knuckles and various items of advertising and SWAIN advised such items were brought to the Homicide and Robbery Division of the Dallas Police Department and subsequently lodged in the property room of the Dallas Police Department under lock and key.

"Dear Jack:

"I don't know why you have to prove to me that business is not too good in your place. I never doubted your word. However, Mr. Irvin Mazzei and Tom Palmer are handling your situation and they will not do anything to hurt you. This is the story, that there are rules "and regulations - and we have to adhere to the rules and regulations. Nobody is trying to hurt anyone, and we, particularly don't want to hurt anyone who hires our people.

"I am sure you will come to an equitable understanding with Mr. Palmer and Mr. Mazzei."

ALLEGATIONS OF ASSOCIATION BETWEEN JACK L. RUBY AND LEE HARVEY OSWALD

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

BILL DE MAR, presently residing at Shady Oaks Motel, Cabin 8, located at 1512 Fort Worth Avenue, RI 7-0065, advised he is employed as a ventriloquist and for the past two weeks has worked at the Carousel Club located at 1312 1/2 Commerce Street, this being the fourth time he has worked at this spot. He, before coming to Dallas, has worked at the T-Bone, Wichita, Kanaas. He advised his whereabouts would always be known to his mother, Mrs. W. D. CROWE, 824 West Idlewilde Drive, Evansville, Indiana, HA 3-7245.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, New Orleans Police Department No. 112723, taken August 9, 1963, was exhibited to DE MAR, and DE MAR said he believes this is the man he saw seated among the patrons of the Carousel Club "one night last week." DE MAR advised he works seven nights each week and, therefore, is unable from his recollection to determine which particular night of the week he observed OSWALD seated in the group around the runway in the club and due to the seating arrangement at this club, he, DE MAR, would be unable to say whether or not OSWALD had a party or group with him at the time he was seen.

DE MAR stated he, in addition to his ventriloquist act, puts on a memory demonstration and he believes OSWALD was among a number of persons at the club that was used by him in performing this memory demonstration.

DE MAR advised to the best of his recollection he had never seen OSWALD at the club previously and had no information as to any associations that OSWALD might have at the Carousel Club, Dallas.

MARGIE NORMAN ETHIER, who resides at 2215 Cunningham, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, at which time she furnished the following information:

Mrs. ETHIER has been working at the Carousel Club since sometime in June as a waitress. She first met JACK RUBY several years ago through her sister, JANICE JONES, who worked for RUBY as a cocktail waitress. Mrs. ETHIER described RUBY as an excellent, friendly boss who was always ready to offer a helping hand to his employees who were in financial difficulty. She last saw JACK RUBY on Thursday evening, November 21, 1963, at the Carousel Club and talked to him sometime around noon on Saturday, November 23, 1963, on the telephone concerning whether or not the club was going to open on Saturday night. RUBY during this conversation seemed to be completely broken up over the death of President KENNEDY.

Mrs. ETHIER was exhibited a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at which time she advised that OSWALD was unknown to her, and she was positive that he had not been in the Carousel Club. She stated that she worked seven nights a week as a waitress, and she feels quite certain that she would have remembered OSWALD had he been in the club. Mrs. ETHIER advised that numerous uniformed policemen stopped at the Carousel Club from time to time to have coffee and sit with the employees, but she has never observed any particular policeman with whom RUBY was particularly familiar. She also stated that RUBY was acquainted with many newsmen in Dallas, but she had never observed any newsmen with whom RUBY appeared to be particularly friendly.

BONNIE LOUISE HETHCOAT KELLY, 3500 Armstrong, Highland Park, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1213½ Commerce Street, Dallas, where she is employed as a cocktail waitress.

Texas Bonnie Kelly Bunny Kelly

KELLY advised she was hired by JACK RUBY in March, 1963, as she answered an "ad" in the newspaper. She stated that RUBY was good to her; that he advanced her money on occasion, and appeared to be genuinely concerned regarding her welfare and the welfare of her children. She stated she never dated him and he never asked her to do so. She heard him make a statement at one time that the girls in the club probably would not go out with him if he asked them.

KELLY stated that everyone at the Carousel Club knows that the Master of Ceremonies, BILL DE MAR, lied when he said he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Carousel Club. She said that if OSWALD had ever been at the club one of the waitresses would have remembered him; also, that from the Master of Ceremonies' position on the stage, one cannot see into the audience, due to the lighting arrangements in the club.

KELLY was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she advised she had never seen him at the Carousel Club or associating with JACK RUBY.

KELLY advised she knows none of the policemen by name with whom JACK was friendly by name; that JACK liked all policemen and many of them came to the club.

BECKY JONES, 115 North Adams Street, was interviewed at the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, where she is employed as a cigarette girl.

JONES advised that she has known JACK RUBY for the past four months as he hired her to go to work in his club at that time.

JONES stated that she last saw RUBY on Thursday, November 21, 1963, and therefore had no opportunity to talk with him regarding the death of President KENNEDY. She advised that the Master of Ceremonies at the Carousel Club had made the statement that he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel Club strictly for publicity reasons; that no one else in the club has said that they saw OSWALD there. JONES viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that she had never seen him before.

JONES stated that RUBY was friendly with numerous policemen and that he liked the police. She knew of no specific police officers or newsmen with whom he was particularly familiar or friendly.

Mrs. WILLIAMS was born and grew up in Dade City, Florida, and lived in Dade City until June 8, 1963, at which time she came to Dallas and married BILLY DON WILLIAMS. Her husband up until November 15, 1963, was employed by Melnik Construction Company in Dallas and is presently unemployed. On Tuesday evening, November 19, 1963, Mrs. WILLIAMS and her husband went to the Carousel Club in answer to an ad which appeared in a local newspaper and applied for a job as a strip-tease dancer. Mrs. WILLIAMS talked to RUBY on that evening, and he hired her for $90.00 per week.

The last time Mrs. WILLIAMS saw JACK RUBY was at closing time on Thursday night, November 21, 1963, and she has not seen him nor heard from him since that time.

Mrs. WILLIAMS was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at which time she stated that OSWALD was unknown to her, and she was certain that she had never seen him in the Carousel Club. She stated that it is almost impossible to recognize anyone in the audience due to the brightness of the lights on the stage. Mrs. WILLIAMS knows nothing concerning RUBY's personal life or political beliefs as her brief acquaintanceship with him has been on a strict employer-employee basis. Mrs. WILLIAMS advised that she dances under the name of FELISA PRELL as she did not want it publicly known that she was working as a strip-tease dancer. During her previous stay at the Carousel Club she has not noted any specific police officers or newsmen with whom RUBY was particularly friendly.

4617 Samuels Blvd., Dallas, Texas

WALLY WESTON was interviewed at the Theatre Lounge, 1326 Jackson Street, Dallas, Texas. He advised at the present time he is filling an entertainment contract at the Kings Club in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and he is visiting in Dallas only temporarily. He maintains an apartment in Dallas at 4617 Samuels Boulevard, Apartment 131. WESTON stated he and his wife SHARI ANGEL WESTON, who is an exotic dancer known as SHARI ANGEL, are both acquainted with JACK RUBY, owner of the Carousel Club on Commerce Street in Dallas. WESTON continued he has known RUBY intimately for three or four years and worked for RUBY at the Carousel Club for fourteen months as master of ceremonies. He said he presumed that his continued friendship with RUBY has come about as a result of his respect for RUBY'S eccentricities and temper. He said over his period of acquaintance with RUBY, he has known when to discontinue an argument with RUBY before RUBY had an opportunity to become violent. He has known RUBY to become so infuriated at a person in an argument, RUBY would strike the person with whom he was arguing. He stated RUBY was a very impulsive person who would make a statement at a time of one of his temper tantrums and later he would have completely forgotten the incident which provoked such a remark. On one occasion he became extremely angry at a drummer in his orchestra and threw him down a flight of stairs and two days later he asked the drummer why he hadn't reported for duty, having completely forgotten that he told the drummer, "you can't quit because I fired you", at the time he threw him down the stairs. WESTON stated this was typical of RUBY'S impulsiveness. WESTON said he has never known RUBY to have any particular interest in politics nor has he been a member of any organizations that WESTON could recall. WESTON said he has never heard RUBY express any Un-American sentiment and he had no reason to believe RUBY is not a loyal American citizen in every respect. He advised RUBY has always had a strong desire to be somebody and he is a "publicity hound". WESTON pointed out when the United States was swept by the 50-mile hike craze, he and RUBY conceived a plan for WESTON to make a 50-mile hike for publicity purposes for the Carousel Club. RUBY was to contact the news media in Dallas and create as much publicity on WESTON'S hike as possible; however, RUBY failed on the publicity part and the hike did not receive the publicity they both anticipated.

on 11/24/63 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639

by Special Agent ARTHUR E. CARTER & CHARLES T. BROWN, JR./cjr Date dictated 11/25/63

WESTON said RUBY is continuously seeking to promote business for himself at the Carousel Club and because of this he is friendly and tried to be friendly with persons he thinks will be good for his business. RUBY has spent much time around the Police Department in Dallas, the Sheriff's Office and other public places handing out business cards entitling the person receiving same to admittance to the Carousel Club and free drinks as a guest. WESTON said he knew RUBY had many friends at the Dallas Police Department as a result of promotional activities. He stated it was his personal opinion and belief that RUBY possibly murdered LEE HARVEY OSWALD for two reasons. He felt one reason could have been RUBY'S strong desire for national publicity which would result from his act or RUBY, because of his violent temper, could have become angered at the murderer of a member of the Dallas Police Department, whom he felt were his friends. WESTON said he did not believe OSWALD'S murder was connected in any way with RUBY'S political beliefs or because of RUBY'S sympathy for some foreign Government. He added he has never heard RUBY criticize the American form of Government, the leaders of this country, nor has he ever expressed any radical ideas. WESTON recalled RUBY was extremely sensitive about his being of Jewish extraction and for that reason WESTON had received specific instructions from RUBY that in his job as master of ceremonies he was to stay completely away from any jokes or comments of a racial or political nature.

WESTON said he knew RUBY did have a gun in his possession based on the following instances. About eight months ago there was an attempted burglary at the Carousel Club, which was discovered by RUBY upon his entrance into the club. RUBY ran down the back stairs of the club to his automobile, which was parked on a nearby street, secured a gun from the automobile and returned to the club, thinking the burglars still might be in the club. About six months ago two customers arriving at the club were approached by one of the club employees to pay their $2.00 fee for entrance into the club. These customers reported they had paid $2.00 to two young men who were standing at the downstairs entrance to the club as they entered. RUBY ran down the stairs just in time to see the two young boys running up the street. RUBY ran to his automobile which was nearby, got his pistol out of the trunk of the car, put it in his shirt, and began looking around for the boys. Shortly thereafter the two boys were apprehended by officers of the Dallas Police Department, at which time they were returned to the Carousel Club. When the officers took the boys to RUBY to inquire whether he wanted to file charges against the boys, RUBY hesitated and then instructed the officers to forget the whole matter because there was so little money involved.

RUBY instructed the police to admonish the boys for their actions and then to release them.

WESTON concluded by advising because of RUBY'S peculiar personality and violent temper, RUBY has no close personal friends. WESTON stated he felt he was possibly closer to RUBY than anyone else he knew, because over the period of three or four years, he has learned how to get along with RUBY. He added with regard to the incident when entertainer BILL DE MAR who is presently appearing at the Carousel Club reported he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the club, WESTON did not feel DE MAR could have recognized OSWALD because of the difficulty experienced in recognizing persons in the audience from the stage. WESTON pointed out a performer has a spotlight shining in his face while he is on stage and it would be very difficult for the performer to recognize anyone looking into the audience from the stage. He felt DE MAR had made the claim he saw OSWALD in the audience because of DE MAR'S desire for publicity.

Mr. WESTON said he has not seen RUBY since the President's assassination on November 22, 1963 and he is unable to account for his whereabouts since that time.

WAHRMUND, 4637 San Jacinto Street, Apartment 1, was visiting in his home and informed him that his son, KARL WAHRMUND, is a musician and piano tuner.

Texas Dallas, Texas

While watching television, WAHRMUND remarked, "KARL lost two accounts over RUBY shooting LEE HARVEY OSWALD." He explained KARL serviced the pianos in the two night clubs owned by RUBY and, since RUBY had been arrested for the murder of OSWALD, assumed that the two night clubs would close.

WISE continued that WAHRMUND remarked that his son, KARL, was in the Carousel Club, 1312½ Commerce Street, approximately two weeks ago and observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the club. KARL assumed that OSWALD worked there, but did not speak to OSWALD. I. T. (TROY) ~~RUCKLEY~~ RACKLEY, Emory, Texas, was interviewed, at which time he was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents. RACKLEY then furnished the following information: Rackley

On Friday night, November 8, 1963, he was on his way back from Wichita Falls, Texas to Emory, Texas when he stopped in Dallas, Texas with intentions of doing some work on Saturday, November 9, 1963 at the Standard Oil Company of Texas offices. He said he stopped at the Baker Hotel where he planned to register then "see some sights". On the way into the Baker Hotel lobby, he said he met a "man from the Texas Company" whose name is something like "FARRAGUS" and that this man told him the company offices would not be open on Saturday. RACKLEY asked him where he could see some of the sights and this man told him to go to the Carousel Club which is northeast of the Baker Hotel and about two blocks away.

RACKLEY said he walked to this club and entered some time between 9:30 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. RACKLEY stated he had had about two drinks before he went to the club and that when he entered his waitress, who was blonde and wearing a "negligee type dress over very little else" served him bourbon and water. At this time RACKLEY said he noticed two men sitting about 15 feet from him at a table and he asked the waitress who these men were. She said the big guy was her "boss" and she referred to him as "JACK". RACKLEY explained that JACK was the same man known to him from television pictures as JACK RUBY, the Manager of the Carousel Club, and the man who shot "the assassin of President KENNEDY". However, RACKLEY stated the waitress called the other man "~~VEPTIT~~" or "~~PEPTIT~~", he couldn't recall which name she used. He continued by identifying the waitress as the blonde-haired girl who was on television Sunday night, November 24, 1963 from a Dallas television station and the one who said she did not like RUBY and did not get along with him very well. He said that "~~VEPTIT~~" or "~~PEPTIT~~" was the man who was shot by RUBY Sunday morning in Dallas, Texas.

RACKLEY could not describe the Carousel Club other than there was a bar, many tables, and that when he went in the lights were all bright and later they were dimmed. He stated he had to leave before the show started because the drinks hit him and he recalled having only three bourbon and waters at $1.00 each. RACKLEY also recalled paying an unrecalled cover charge to get in and that there were pictures of girls displayed outside the Carousel Club.

RACKLEY stated after he left he drove his pickup truck to what he believes was the Hillside Tourist Court on old Highway 67 where he spent the night.

RACKLEY further described the Carousel Club as being "near the new telephone building past the Continental Bus Station". He described "JACK", the waitresses "boss" as being a white male, age 40, 5' 10" or 5' 11", but nothing else noted except he was identical with the television picture of JACK RUBY.

RACKLEY could not describe "~~VEPTIT~~" or "~~PEPTIT~~", other than being a white male except that he was identical with the "killer of President KENNEDY."

HARVEY LAWILL WADE, 818 Donaldson Road, Chattanooga, Tennessee, employed as a building inspector in the City of East Ridge, Tennessee, furnished the following information:

WADE attended Southern Building Congress Convention, Dallas, Texas, November 10-14, 1963. He arrived the afternoon of November 10, 1963, and stayed at the Baker Hotel, Dallas. At 11:00 PM, November 10, 1963, WADE visited the Carousel Night Club alone and remained until 1:00 AM. The entertainment consisted of three strippers and emcee BILL DEMERIS (PH). A stripper wearing a platinum wig invited a customer to dance with her on the stage as part of her act at about 12:00 midnight. A Carousel employee, a young white male wearing a white waiter's jacket, took two flash photographs with a Poloroid-type camera. From the angle the photograph was taken, three men seated at the bar connected to the stage on the right side of the night club were between the photographer and the stage and possibly in the photographs. WADE believes one of these three men was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who was dressed in a coat-length jacket, light colored white dress shirt, open collar, no tie, and dark colored pants.

The person believed OSWALD was accompanied by two unknown men. The number one man is described as a white male, early twenties, 5 feet 8 inches, 140 pounds, long black hair, very fair pale complexion, and slender build. He had no unusual characteristics and wore a dark colored suit. He resembled OSWALD in appearance.

The number two man is described as a white male, 30-32 years old, 200 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches, stocky build, long black hair, dark complexion, oval face, and Mexican or Spanish in appearance. He had numerous bumps on his face and was believed to have a one-inch scar in the eyebrow of his left eye.

The customer on the stage with the stripper was a white male, 5 feet 10 inches, 35 years old, 180 pounds, flat-top dark hair, dress not recalled, and was at the table with one girl and three or four men.

BILL DEMERIS, emcee, made the statement, following photographing, they were for blackmail purposes. JACK RUBY, manager, walked over to the photographer, talked to him, and yelled that the photographs did not turn out. The emcee had a memory skit. The person believed OSWALD and his two companions took part in the skit. The person believed OSWALD and friends were in the club when WADE arrived and still at the table at WADE's departure. WADE was seated within ten feet of the person believed OSWALD and his group. WADE alone did not see anyone during the visit known to him. He believes he could identify photographs of the men accompanying the person believed OSWALD.

The person believed OSWALD and his friends were not observed talking to anyone outside their group while at the club. He estimated 75 to 80 customers were present when he arrived and 25 or less when he departed. WADE had no further information.

Mr. LEON H. WORTH was reinterviewed at the Galaxy Club, located at 2707 McKinney, concerning his association with JACK RUBY.

Mr. WORTH again stated he did not consider himself a personal friend of RUBY and had never loaned him any money or made arrangements for RUBY to obtain financial assistance for the operation of his Carousel Club.

Mr. WORTH repeated that the only business venture he was ever associated with with RUBY was in the sale of an arthritic preparation, which RUBY was trying to promote a year or two ago. Mr. WORTH stated the arthritic preparation could not meet high standards prescribed by pharmaceutical houses and he sold his preparation to chiropractors and other "faith" healers who did not need a license to practice medicine.

ROBERT KERMIT PATTERSON, commonly known as BOB PATTERSON, appeared at the Dallas Field Division at approximately 1:00 PM on November 26, 1963. PATTERSON advised he resides in Room 511 at the YMCA located at 605 North Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas.

PATTERSON stated that at the present time he is unemployed and is dissolving a partnership which he formerly had with DONALD C. STUART in a business which they operated under the trade name Contract Electronics at 2533 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas. He stated their business was the repair of televisions, radios and other small appliances. He stated that he and STUART employed one CHARLES ARNDT, age 18, who resided at Room 516 of the YMCA, as a helper.

About two weeks ago PATTERSON stated he returned to his place of business at approximately 3:00 PM. On his arrival in addition to STUART and ARNDT he found JACK RUBY and a man believed by PATTERSON to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that he could not recall being introduced to the man with JACK RUBY but has a vague recollection that the other man was introduced as being from Chicago.

PATTERSON estimated that RUBY and the man he believes to be OSWALD were at the Electronics Shop for approximately one hour during which time their general conversation was generally about the buying and selling of electronics equipment. PATTERSON recalled that RUBY questioned STUART about installing some speakers in the Carousel Club where amplifiers were already present.

Sometime during the discussion RUBY told STUART and PATTERSON that he would give them passes to his club. RUBY pointed out that he did not give passes to everybody but that he would make them available to these two men. RUBY then handed what he referred to as a guest book to the man who was with him and instructed that individual to put the names of STUART and PATTERSON in this notebook. PATTERSON stated that he personally observed the man with RUBY write in this notebook.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The book which RUBY referred to as a guest book was described by PATTERSON as having the appearance of a small address book or small notebook, approximately 4 x 5 inches in size. He could not recall the color of the book nor could he recall whether it had a spiral back. PATTERSON stated he could not recall whether the man with RUBY handed the book back to RUBY or kept it himself.

About two days after the visit of RUBY and the man PATTERSON believes to be OSWALD were at the Electronics Shop, RUBY again appeared about 5:00 PM. On this occasion JACK RUBY was alone and brought with him a microphone and cable for repair. PATTERSON was instructed by RUBY to have the microphone and cable ready by 9:00 PM that night. PATTERSON stated he actually returned the microphone and cable to the Carousel at approximately 8:00 PM, and handed it over to a Negro boy employed by the Carousel Club. This individual paid PATTERSON in cash for the work and also paid PATTERSON a 50 cents parking fee which PATTERSON had incurred having parked on a nearby lot.

PATTERSON stated he could not recall seeing anyone else at the club on this occasion other than the Negro boy and possible the Master of Ceremonies.

PATTERSON stated that it is his belief on the basis of the photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which he has observed in various newspapers that OSWALD was in fact the individual present in the Electronics Shop with JACK RUBY on the occasion described above.

PATTERSON stated he has discussed this matter with his partner DONALD C. STUART and employee CHARLES ARNDT and he stated they are likewise of the opinion that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was the individual with JACK RUBY on the occasion described above. According to PATTERSON the man with RUBY in his shop on the occasion set out above was described as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	20's
Nationality	American

Height 5'8 - 5'9
Build Not to heavy, not to thin

He was believed to have a tattoo on the left forearm; was wearing blue jeans (very tight fitting) and possibly a white shirt. He was not wearing a hat nor was he wearing a jacket.

PATTERSON stated that at the present time he is a student at the Metropolitian Technical Institution, 402 North Good-Latimer, Dallas, Texas. He stated he was born on January 24, 1930 at Lincoln, Nebraska, and had the rating of ED-3 while in the US Navy. His US Navy Serial No. is 4278665.

PATTERSON advised that at the present time he is a student at the Metropolitan Technical Institute, 402 North Good-Latimer, Dallas, Texas.

According to PATTERSON, he was born on January 24, 1930, at Lincoln, Nebraska, and had the rating of RD-3 while in the U. S. Navy. His U. S. Navy Serial Number is 4278665.

PATTERSON informed that he is a homosexual and as such has access to the so-called "gay" bars and lounges in the City of Dallas, Texas. He said that although he has only been in Dallas for approximately two years he is acquainted with many of the "gay" people in Dallas.

PATTERSON stated that on the evening of November 26, 1963, he was at one of the "gay" spots in town, specifically The Villa-Fontana, 1315 Skiles. PATTERSON said that he was broke and prevailed upon JERRY, the bartender at the Villa-Fontana, to set up some beer for him. While at the bar drinking, JERRY, the bartender, introduced him to another chap named JERRY, who was also sitting at the bar. JERRY, the bartender, who is a member of the "gay" set in Dallas, vouched for PATTERSON's standing with the "gay" set to the other JERRY, and the conversation thereupon flowed freely. During the conversation, the unknown JERRY, the customer, whom PATTERSON described as about 33 years old, heavy set, approximately 5 feet 7 inches, dark hair and round face, made the statement that he is the former lover of JACK RUBY. PATTERSON also heard one or the other of the JERRYs mention that GEORGE SENATOR, roommate of JACK RUBY's at the time of RUBY's arrest, was also a "gay" person.

PATTERSON likewise stated that he heard it mentioned at the Villa-Fontana on November 26, 1963, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been seen at the Holiday Bar and also in Gene's Music Bar, both of which PATTERSON described as hangouts for the "gay" crowd.

PATTERSON stressed that he did not overhear the full conversation concerning this matter and was merely trying to repeat that portion which he had heard. He said he did not understand the full significance of it.

In this connection, PATTERSON stated that he, himself, did not know GEORGE SENATOR or JACK RUBY to be members of the "gay" set but pointed out that he would not necessarily be aware of their being members of the "gay" set due to the fact that they did undoubtedly travel in different circles.

According to PATTERSON, an individual whom he merely knows as "LS", the owner of the Lavender Lounge, located at Main and Carrol Streets, Dallas, Texas, is acquainted with most of the "gay"people in Dallas, although he is not believed to be "gay" himself. PATTERSON said that "LS" is crippled and uses crutches at all times.

PATTERSON further related that an (FNU) KELTY, a Texas member of the Chance-Vought Company or of the Link-Belt Company, commented to him on the preceding evening, that JACK RUBY formerly resided at the YMCA approximately twelve years ago. PATTERSON said that he did not know KELTY to be a member of the "gay" set and said he has asked KELTY if he had known that JACK RUBY was a member of the "gay" set. KELTY said that he knew very little concerning RUBY, since they had lived at opposite ends of the building when JACK RUBY was then residing at the YMCA. PATTERSON said that Mr. KELTY still maintains a residence at the YMCA.

When questioned, PATTERSON said that the following could be considered the hangouts of the "gay"crowd in Dallas, Texas:

Gene's Music Bar

1 Mrs DONALD C. STUART, 121 Pleasant Drive, Dallas, Texas advised that he has been associated with ROBERT K. PATTERSON in the operation of Contract Electronics at 2533 Elm Street in Dallas, Texas. Nancy Stuart

Approximately four weeks ago, JACK RUBY accompanied by a younger man whose identity was unknown to STUART, came to the shop at 2533 Elm Street to discuss the possible revamping of the public address system at the Carousel Club, operated by RUBY. CHARLES ARNDT, one of STUART's employees, was present at the time. ROBERT PATTERSON also came into the shop while RUBY and his companion were there. RUBY told STUART and PATTERSON that he wanted to give them some passes to the Carousel Club. When he asked for STUART's name, the latter took out his driver's license and handed them to RUBY, who immediately wrote STUART's name in a small notebook, which he believes was approximately 5" by 4" and black in color. He is positive that RUBY did the writing in this notebook, inasmuch as it was done directly in front of him after he had handed his driver's license to RUBY. He noted that there were additional names written in this notebook with what appeared to be pass numbers beside them. He then gave STUART and PATTERSON temporary passes and told them that they would be issued a permanent pass. He has not yet received permanent passes.

While RUBY was in the shop he discussed an exercise device which he had in his automobile and had his younger companion go to the automobile to get the device which he demonstrated to them.

STUART examined a photo of LEE HARVEY OLSWALD and advised that he cannot be sure at this time whether or not OLSWALD is identical to the person who accompanied RUBY. He believes this person may have had thicker hair than OLSWALD. He further described this individual as a white male, age in his 20's, about 140 lbs., slight build, dark brown hair. He did not say much and stayed very close to RUBY. He believes RUBY introduced this man, but he could recall the name. He also believes RUBY stated this man worked for him.

STUART stated that he has been told by PATTERSON that RUBY returned later on the same date to have a microphone repaired but he was not present on this occasion. He stated he did not have in his possession at the shop any type of a receipt which would show the date of the microphone repair. However, there is a possibility he may be able to locate some type of a record at his home which would provide this date. He will make an immediate check and in the event such a record can be located, he will notify the FBI Office.

CHARLES ARNDT, Room 516 YMCA, 605 N. Ervay, Dallas, Texas, advised that he is employed at the Contract Electronics Company, 2533 Elm Street, Dallas. Approximately four weeks ago while he was at the shop with DONALD C. STUART, JACK RUBY entered the shop accompanied by a younger man. He discussed with STUART the possibility of installing a new public address system in the Club Carousel. While he was there, ROBERT PATTERSON, one of the owners of Contract Electronics entered the building. RUBY told STUART and PATTERSON that he wished to give them passes to the Club Carousel and wrote their names in a small notebook. ARNDT stated he recalled that STUART gave RUBY his driver's license and RUBY copied his name from the driver's license into a small notebook he was carrying in his pocket. He does not recall specifically seeing RUBY write PATTERSON's name in the notebook.

ARNDT examined a photo of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that he could not definitely state whether or not OLSWALD is identical with the younger man who accompanied RUBY.

He described the younger man as a white male, in his 20's, 5'7", 140 lbs. or possibly a little more, slight build, dark brown hair, of average thickness. This man had very little to say. ARNDT could not recall that his name was ever given, but did recall that RUBY stated he worked for him.

ARNDT advised that he was at the shop later in the day when RUBY accompanied by the younger man again returned to the shop with a microphone which needed repairing. He believes it was about 6:30 p.m. at this time and RUBY specified that he had to have the microphone no later than 9:00 p.m. The microphone was repaired and PATTERSON delivered it to the Carousel Club.

HAROLD GORDON ALDERMAN, 6232 Delord Street, Tulane University Graduate Student. advised that in the past he has participated in Fair Play for Cuba activities in New York City, Washington, D. C., and Seattle, Washington. He said he has never been a member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee but that during the approximate time of the Bay of Pigs Invasion he picked up literature from the Fair Play for Cuba Committee Office in New York City, and a lapel button with the words "Hands Off Cuba." Also, at the approximate time he participated in a picket line sponsored by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee in the area of of Central Intelligence Agency Office Building in Washington, D.C. Later, he was in a Fair Play for Cuba Committee picket line which picketed former President JOHN F. KENNEDY in Seattle, Washington.

ALDERMAN said that he has engaged in no activity in New Orleans in furtherance of the aims of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, with the possible exception of the stand he took in a debate at Tulane University with writer ALEXANDER KORKE in October, 1962. He said that he is in sympathy with the aims of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee but was disappointed with the people who constituted the membership. He said that in the main, in his opinion, they are motivated emotionally rather than politically. He said he knows of no Fair Play for Cuba Committee organized activity in the New Orleans area, now or in the past.

ALDERMAN said that in the summer of 1963, possibly in July, 1963, a graduate student at Tulane, HUGH MURRAY, mentioned to him that he had picked up a Fair Play for Cuba Committee handbill being handed out on the Tulane campus, possibly in the library. ALDERMAN informed MURRAY that he would like to see the literature and later shortly thereafter, MURRAY gave it to him.

ALDERMAN said that he tacked the handbill on a door in his apartment and was surprised when the name A. J. HIDELL figured in the assassination of the late President KENNEDY. He said that this name, which he learned from the newspapers was an alias of LEE H. OSWALD, was stamped on the Fair Play for Cuba Committee literature which he had in his possession. Also, the address " P. O. Box 30061, New Orleans, Louisiana", appeared on the handbill. He said that when he read about this in the New Orleans newspaper, he called the local FBI Office and volunteered to furnish the handbill but was advised that the FBI Office already had this handbill and did not want his copy.

ALDERMAN said that he did not follow up receipt of the literature with the contact of OSWALD and he knows no one who did. He said that he doubts that there is any organized Fair Play for Cuba Committee activity in New Orleans at this particular time He does not know JACK RUBY, LEE H. OSWALD, or O. H. LEE.

1 HUGH T. MURRAY, 8928 Dixon Street, advised that in about May, 1963, he was a graduate student at Tulane University in New Orleans. At that time, a pile of handbills were found to have been left in the foyer of the Tulane Library at Tulane University. MURRAY picked up one of the handbills and noted that it was captioned "Hands Off Cuba", and that the handbill was under the sponsorship of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. He said he recalled that the handbill had a name and post office box stamped on it. He does not remember the name of the individual or the box number.

MURRAY stated that he never saw the individual who left the handbills at the Library, and knows no one who saw this person. He said he did not follow up by correspondence with the individual at the box number. He knows no one who did follow up receipt of the literature.

MURRAY stated he does not know LEE H. OSWALD, JACK RUBY, A. J. HIDELL, or O. H. LEE.

VERN A. DAVIS, 6120 S.E. 6th Street, advised that he was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on May 27, 1917, and was employed as an income tax accountant and salesman, his last occupation being with the Midwest Publishing Company, Midwest City, Oklahoma, in advertisement sales. DAVIS stated that he phoned the managing editor of The Daily Oklahoman concerning the information reported in an article in The Daily Oklahoman on November 25, 1963. He said that he went to Dallas, Texas, on November 17, 1963, his purpose being to join the Lone Star Showman's Club which he described as a club consisting of carnival and concessionnaire people. He said while in Dallas, at about 7 or 7:30 P.M., at what used to be Jack's Bar, now believed to be Ed's Bar at 813 Exposition Street, he was discussing various topics of conversation with some "carnival people." He said while there, an individual joined the group and began making derogatory statements about then Vice President LYNDON JOHNSON and his forthcoming trip to the Trade Mart. He said at no time was President Kennedy's name mentioned by this individual.

He said he believed this individual to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose picture he saw both in the newspaper and television. He said he then left the bar for a short period of time and when he came back he noticed the individual he thought to be OSWALD had left and JACK RUBY was standing at the bar. He said he had met JACK RUBY about ten years ago in Dallas, Texas, and he said JACK RUBY was a gambler who followed the fairs and carnivals throughout the country "hustling" poker games. He said he asked JACK RUBY if he knew anyone at the Lone Star Showman's Club and RUBY told him he knew an individual named COTTON WHEELER. He said COTTON WHEELER later sponsored his application for the Lone Star Showman's Club. He said further he did not know RUBY as a night club operator but only as a gambler going from carnival to carnival.

DAVIS said specifically that in further reflection about the identity of OSWALD, he was not really as sure that OSWALD was in the club as he had been the day before.

AT OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA

WILSON McCULLY, Oklahoma Bar Association, advised on November 25, 1963, records of the Oklahoma Bar Association show GIBSON's name to be ARTHUR HUBERT GIBSON, known by nickname of "HOOT". He was born July 8, 1914, at Grove, Oklahoma, attended public schools there, was President of junior and senior high school class, Grove, attended Northeast Oklahoma Junior College, Miami, Oklahoma, 1932 to 1933, and attended University of Oklahoma thereafter. He received his A.B. degree in 1936, and his LL.B. degree in 1938. While attending the University, he was a member of Fraternity Pi Kappa Alpha and was described by acquaintance who attended law school with him as having married shortly after his graduation from University, but his marriage ended in divorce within a short period of time, and he has remained a bachelor since.

He was admitted to the practice of law in Oklahoma on September 13, 1938, as result of a bar examination. He has served as an Assistant County Attorney for Oklahoma County, about eight years ago, and according to individuals with whom he is presently acquainted, he has been mentioned prominently as a possible candidate for County Attorney for Oklahoma County at the time of the next election for this post.

It is noted that current directories record that one HUBERT GIBSON is an attorney in the Cravens Building, Oklahoma City, telephone CE 2-2419, and his residence is listed as 2516 Northwest 35th Street, telephone Wi 2-5449, Oklahoma City. The Oklahoma Bar Association records record he has occupied an office in the Cravens Building since 1957. He is presently listed as being in partnership with one MORRIS FLYNN, was previously a partner of HOWARD K. BERRY, Attorney. Oklahoma Bar Association records reflect no pertinent derogatory information concerning FLYNN or BERRY. According to individuals acquainted with these attorneys, all are engaged in the practice of law, defending in criminal type cases.

Lieutenant N. B. COOPER, Detective, Stolen Goods Division, Oklahoma City Police Department, advised he was personally acquainted with GIBSON. Lieutenant COOPER recalls in 1959, GIBSON defended three individuals who were charged with burglary second degree by the Oklahoma City Police Department. These individuals were identified as FRANK CARMICHAEL, JR., JOHN ERNEST LUCAS, JR., and GEORGE ELDER WILLIAMS, all of Fort Worth, Texas. COOPER said there was no significance to these particular cases except they were examples of specific cases defended by GIBSON. He is thus known as a criminal attorney.

This man may have been RUBY. She is certain, however, that she has never seen RUBY and OSWALD together.

Mrs. ALLEN LEWIS, 2514 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas, furnished the following information:

Upon viewing a photograph of JACK RUBY, she stated she has never seen this individual to her knowledge and has no information concerning him.

Upon viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she advised she had seen this individual on one or two occasions under the following circumstances: Several weeks ago, she learned a woman of foreign birth began residing with her child across the street from Mrs. LEWIS at 2515 West 5th Street, the home of RUTH PAINE. She understood that her husband was working somewhere in Dallas and sometimes came to visit his wife. On October 27, 1963, she noticed a man resembling OSWALD's photograph, whom she presumed was OSWALD, sitting in a lawn chair in the yard of Mrs. PAINE. Some children were playing in the yard and she does not recall any other individuals in contact with him at that time. She believes she had seen him previously sometime in October, 1963, date unrecalled, one morning when he came out of the house and entered an automobile which had just pulled up, which car was driven by a man who in no way fits the description of RUBY. This car was an old car, a black Chevrolet. The men drove off and she has not seen the driver since. She presumed the man picked OSWALD up to take him to work. She is not sure the man who left the house was OSWALD, but is sure he was not Mr. PAINE.

When she and Mr. LEWIS began residing here in May, 1963, she learned that Mrs. PAINE and her husband were separated. Mr. PAINE came back on several occasions to visit her during the week ends. She talked to him only on one occasion, namely, during the afternoon of November 24, 1963, shortly after the murder of OSWALD. PAINE stated he wanted to talk with them, but did not specify his purpose. She surmises that he wanted to apologize for the events which had occured at Dallas relative to the assassination of President KENNEDY, inasmuch as OSWALD had been visiting in his home and OSWALD's wife had been living there. He did not mention OSWALD or the tragedy.

MICHAEL PAINE, 2377 Dalworth Street, Apt. 217, Grand Prairie, Texas, telephone AN 2-7976, an employee of Bell Helicopter, Arlington, Texas, telephone CR 5-5211, was interviewed at the home of his estranged wife, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, Irving, Texas.

PAINE advised after examining a photograph of JACK RUBY that he had never seen this person in the company of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or MARINA OSWALD and that he had never heard either of them mention RUBY's name.

He stated that LEE OSWALD had no interest in cafe society, night clubs or burlesque clubs and he doubts very much that OSWALD was ever in an establishment of this type in Dallas, Texas.

She stated that he never exhibited any interest in night clubs or in striptease joints and recalled that on one occasion in September 1963 RUTH PAINE was in New Orleans and she exhibited a curiosity about the striptease joints along Bourbon Street. She and MARINA OSWALD with their children toured Bourbon Street together but LEE OSWALD was never interested and stayed home and did the dishes.

mrs. Michael Hyde Paine

She examined a photograph of JACK RUBY and stated that she has never seen this individual in the company of LEE or MARINA OSWALD and has never heard either one of them mention his name.

She advised that LEE OSWALD showed very little interest in drinking and she does not believe he drinks at all and thus she is of the opinion he would not be in a night club or beer joint.

Date November 25, 1963

Dallas, Texas

Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON, 1026 North Beckley Street, advised that she and her husband owned the building at that address in which she rents several rooms on a regular basis. Mrs. JOHNSON furnished the following information:

On October 14, 1963, a young man using the name O. H. LEE rented a room at that address, which room is a tiny room opening out onto the dining room and living room of the building. Mrs. JOHNSON was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD whom she identified as the individual renting this room. The man told her that he came there to rent a room in order to be near his work. He stated he would be returning to Irving, Texas, each weekend.

Mrs. JOHNSON advised that OSWALD regularly left the house early during the morning hours to go to work and would return about 6:00 p.m. from work. He usually made one or more telephone calls from the telephone located in the dining room section of the house. All of these calls were local calls and he made no long distance calls. In each instance, he made the calls himself and at no time did he receive a telephone call. She could not follow the conversations inasmuch as he always spoke in a foreign language which she could not identify.

While residing there, OSWALD carried on practically no conversation with her or with the other individuals living there, and to her knowledge, never had any visitors. He spent most of his time, in fact about 95 per cent of the time, in his room where she believes he did quite a bit of reading. Occasionally, he would come to the living room and watch television with others for a few minutes at a time, during which time he would not converse with the other people. She said OSWALD appeared to be a hard working man, neatly dressed, and to the best of her knowledge, neither drank alcoholic beverages nor smoked. He appeared to be a timid type of individual but, in her opinion, not a good mixer. She stated she never knew he was married since he furnished no information concerning his background. He usually brought food to the house where he would prepare and eat his meals in his room. Practically every weekend he would be away from the house. He would leave his room on Friday morning and would return to the house after work on Monday evening. There were two exceptions to this routine. On the weekend of Sunday, November 17, 1963, he remained at that address over the weekend. He was absent from his room on the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963.

Mrs. JOHNSON was shown a photograph of JACK RUBY. She stated she is sure she has never seen this individual and that he has never been in her house. She repeated that to her knowledge OSWALD never had a guest at this house.

Mrs. EARLENE ROBERTS, 1026 North Beckley Street, advised that she is employed as housekeeper at this address and due to this employment and to the fact she resides on the premises, she has had occasion to be acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, a roomer who has been there since October 14, 1963. She was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she stated this is a photograph of the individual residing at that address in a room to himself since October 14, 1963, under the name of O. H. LEE.

Mrs. ROBERTS stated that OSWALD kept to himself all the time and never had any company while living at that address. She stated his habits were usually to leave the house early in the morning to go to work and would return about 6:00 p.m. each day during the week. He practically always made a telephone call right after returning from work but would always speak in a foreign language which she believed to be possibly German or Russian; however, she recalls that on a few occasions he ended his conversations with the word "Adios." During the weekends, he would leave, according to OSWALD, to go to Irving, Texas. He would leave the house Friday morning to go to work as usual and would not return until the following Monday evening after work.

While living at that address, OSWALD did not talk to other people living there and did not have any visitors to her knowledge. She added that it would, in her opinion, have been impossible for him to have had a visitor in his room without her knowledge inasmuch as her room is adjacent to the one occupied by OSWALD, and she could have not only seen any visitor but could have been aware of same by hearing footsteps and conversations and also she is a very light sleeper.

Mrs. ROBERTS stated that when OSWALD first arrived and registered, she requested him to furnish a name of someone, preferably a relative, who could be notified in case of an emergency but he refused to do so and only stated "It doesn't matter."

Mrs. ROBERTS was shown a photograph of JACK RUBY whereupon she advised she has never seen this individual and is sure he did not ever appear at her residence during the time OSWALD was living there.

Mrs. ROBERTS advised she never saw a gun of any type in OSWALD's room nor does she recall seeing any books. She recalls seeing a map of the City of Dallas, which may is a common type and did not appear to be anything to attract her attention.

In connection with OSWALD's telephone calls, she stated she had no way of knowing whether the individual to whom he talked was a man or a woman and also that she knows he did not make any long distance calls he may have made from this telephone. She added that OSWALD never at any time received a telephone call, visitors or any mail while residing at that address.

JERRY DUNCAN, operator of an Enco Service Station, 1030 North Zangs, Dallas, advised that OSWALD lived at 1026 North Beckley just across the street from his station. Although he had no automobile, he came to the station on occasion. He secured change with which to make long distance telephone calls from DUNCAN at least twice. He believes this was approximately six weeks ago. The calls were made from a coin telephone booth located at the side of his station, telephone number WH 3-0062.

Approximately six weeks ago, OSWALD went out with one of DUNCAN's employees, JOHN L. FORD, to drink beer. So far as DUNCAN knows, they were out together only on the one occasion. FORD has left Dallas, and his whereabouts is unknown to DUNCAN. He could not supply his last Dallas address or the identity of anyone who might supply background data concerning him. He did recall that FORD's home address is Monroe, Louisiana, but could not supply a street address. He advised that FORD is a white male, age 24.

DUNCAN advised he has never observed JACK LEON RUBY in the neighborhood or associated with OSWALD.

JOSEPH H. KOHL, 2540 Stoner Avenue, Los Angeles, California, by letter dated November 25, 1963, advised the Honorable ROBERT KENNEDY, Attorney General of the United States, of circumstances which he considers suspecious which he observed as a private patrolman at Bel Air, California, prior to November 22, 1963.

JOSEPH H. KOHL, Bel Air Patrol, 100 North Bel Air Road, Bel Air, California, a private patrol service, advised on December 4, 1963, that he has been a private patrolman for the past ten years but has never been a police officer.

On November 9, 1963, he saw a red-haired woman and a man come out of the Bel Air Hotel, and leave in separate autos. About one block away a man in a 1960 Plymouth drove away about the same time. On November 21, 1963, a woman came to the back door of KOHL's residence, 2450 Stoner Avenue, Los Angeles, and asked if an "ESTHER" lived there. This woman then walked away from his house.

On November 21, 1963, KOHL observed a man in a 1963 Lincoln Continental give something to another man standing beside the Continental. The recipient got in another car as KOHL approached and drove away at a high rate of speed. Photographs of JACK RUBY were exhibited to KOHL. He said that the individuals he saw on November 9, 1963, and November 21, 1963, are not RUBY.

All information he had including license numbers and vehicles observed and descriptive data of the individuals has been furnished by him to the Los Angeles Police Department.

COPIES DESTROYED
21 DEC 19 1972

KOHL was unable to state what correlation he thought existed between the various individuals he observed and the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

KOHL said that he wrote his letter to Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY in an attempt to be helpful in some way.

Mr. REINHART stated that he is not aware of anyone connected with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee or the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace having been on the Red Benson Show during the past summer. He advised that the Red Benson Show is an interview-type program carried over radio station WPEN from 11:30 p.m., to approximately 2 a.m. He advised that people expressing viewpoints from the ultra-right to the ultra-left are permitted to expound their views on the program and an endeavor is made to give everyone a chance to air his ideas. He stated at times panel discussions and debates are held between persons holding opposing viewpoints. He added that there have been one or more representatives of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) on the program at times past but that because of unpleasant past experiences, these persons have been avoided for the last year or more. He further advised that he knows of no reference having been made on the Red Benson Show to the FPCC or the Walk for Peace during the past summer.

Mr. REINHART advised he had discussed the matter with RED BENSON and the writer of the card with the initials "[illegible]" was likewise unknown to BENSON. He added that BENSON also could not recall any reference to the FPCC or the Walk for Peace having been aired on the show during the past summer.

Detective FRANK MORRIS, Intelligence Unit, Philadelphia Police Department, 7th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., made available his file on the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace. The peace walkers came through Philadelphia en route to Cuba and spent August 13 through 16, 1963, in Philadelphia, departing early August 17, 1963, for Wilmington, Del.

The peace walkers were sponsored by the Committee for Non-Violent Action, with headquarters in New York City, and their stated goals were universal peace and non-violent solutions to the Cuban conflict and opposition to all military power, including nuclear weapons and all other forms of mass destruction.

The Police Department file on the peace walkers and numerous photographs taken by the Police Department of the peace walkers at several rallies held in Philadelphia, plus pictures taken as they marched into the city, were reviewed on December 3 and 4, 1963. Numerous individuals, including BRADFORD LITTLE, who claimed to be the leader of the group, were interviewed and/or identified by the police department. A careful review of the photographs taken failed to identify LEE OSWALD as being a member, participant, or on-looker at the demonstrations put on by the peace walkers. Further, the review of the file failed to mention anyone identifiable with LEE OSWALD and likewise failed to identify anyone with the initials "JHC."

Inspector PHILIP CELLA, Fairmount Park Guard, Philadelphia, Pa., advised that a review of Park Guard records reflects that the only affair held in Rittenhouse Square during the summer of 1963 which could in any way pertain to Cuba, the Cuban situation, or the Fair Play For Cuba Committee, was a demonstration on August 15, 1963, put on by the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace. He noted that this Walk for Peace was sponsored by the Committee for Non-Violent Action (CNVA) with headquarters in New York City. The demonstration was led by one ROSS ANDERSON, a white male, 63 years of age, from Albany, Ga., and a member of the CNVA.

According to the Park Guard records, other members of the CNVA participated, plus DENNIS JAMIESON of the Friends Peace Committee, 1500 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Inspector CELLA advised that the demonstration took place in Rittenhouse Square from 12 noon to 2:15 p.m., on August 15, 1963. The records failed to reflect any further identifying information.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

A review of Philadelphia file 105-9421, entitled "Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace" reflects that this Walk for Peace was sponsored by the Committee for Non-Violent Action (CNVA), 325 Lafayette Street, New York 12, N. Y.

The peace walkers were in the Philadelphia Division twice during the summer of 1963. On the first occasion they were crossing from north central to northeast Pennsylvania en route to New York City. On the second occasion they were en route from New York south and stopped in Philadelphia from August 13 to the early morning of August 17, 1963. They held a rally at Rittenhouse Square on August 15, 1963. Their route of march was from Quebec, Canada, to the U. S. Naval Base at Guantanamo, Cuba, and stated purposes were to develop non-violent solutions to the Cuban conflict, help forestall future crises and to oppose all military power, East and West, and to oppose all nuclear weapons and all other forms of mass destruction.

A review of the file, names of members of the peace march who were identified, and review of the photographs taken failed to effect any identification of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as having been a member of the march, a participant of any of their rallies and demonstrations, or as a bystander who might have been included in the photographs. Likewise, a review of the file failed to reflect the identity of anyone with the initials "JHC."

A number of confidential informants of the Philadelphia Office who are familiar with some phases of pro-CASTRO Cuban activities and related matters in the Philadelphia area, have advised on various occasions that there have been no meetings, rallies or other activities of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) in the Philadelphia area since early spring 1963. They have further noted that the FPCC has fallen into complete inactivity and that all efforts of the only two motivating persons in Philadelphia to reinstill interest in the Philadelphia Chapter of the FPCC have met with negative results.

The only activity in which the FPCC participated during the summer of 1963 was the maintenance of a booth at the Sixth Annual Bucks County World Peace Fair, August 24, 1963, at Newtown Square, Pa., as reported by confidential informants and established sources.

These informants have further advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD is unknown to them and to the best of their knowledge, has not been in Philadelphia nor participated in local FPCC affairs, the Sixth Annual Bucks County World Peace Fair, or the Quebec-Washington-Guantanamo Walk for Peace.

These informants have further advised that they are not acquainted with anyone formerly associated with the FPCC, the July 26th Revolutionary Movement (7/26 RM), the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), or the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), with the initials "JHC."

Memorandum

TO THE DIRECTOR DATE: 12/4/63

FROM A. H. Belmont

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

Attached are the two reports we have prepared concerning the assassination of the President and the subsequent killing of the assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, by Jack Ruby.

ASSASSINATION REPORT

This report, in Part I, briefly relates the assassination of the President and the identification of Oswald as his slayer. Part II sets forth the evidence conclusively showing that Oswald did assassinate the President. Part III is in two sections, the first setting forth what the FBI knew about Oswald prior to the assassination; and the second section setting forth the results of our investigation of Oswald's background, activities, associates, et cetera, subsequent to the assassination.

Three sets of exhibits accompany this report. The first sets out evidence tying Oswald in with the assassination of the President; the other two set out documents relative to Oswald's contacts with the Soviets, the Communist Party, et cetera.

We are continuing to receive leads concerning Oswald, and consequently at the end of the report we state that investigation will continue until every piece of relevant evidence has been developed and examined.

The Dallas Office has read and approved the first two parts of the Assassination report. The third part of the Assassination report was sent to Dallas for reading after completion during the early morning hours of December 5, 1963.

REPORT OF KILLING OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The report on the killing of Oswald by Jack Ruby covers the actual killing; the information developed concerning Jack Ruby; the interview of Ruby; Ruby's whereabouts from 11/22 to 11/24/63; and the investigation by the Bureau under the Civil Rights Statutes to determine whether there was any conspiracy involved in the killing.

Attached to this report are two exhibits, one a photograph of the actual killing, and the other a diagram of the police department building basement where the killing occurred.

Due to the fact that no records were kept of the police officers or news media representatives in the basement at the time of the killing, we have not been able to identify, locate and interview all persons who were present when Ruby killed Oswald. We state in the report that persons identified to us have been or are being interviewed. We have interviewed 88 Dallas police officers, and are attempting to identify any others who were in the basement and interview them. An estimated 150 news media representatives were in the basement. We have been able to identify and interview 36 so far, and leads are set out throughout the country to identify and locate others who may have been present. We have no reason at this time to believe that the stories of these people, when we locate them, will be at variance with the facts developed so far, but we do want to locate them so that all possible questions can be resolved.

We say at the end of this report that the investigation will continue until every possible source of pertinent information has been exhausted.

The Dallas Office has read and approved this report on the Killing of Lee Harvey Oswald.

[redacted] a columnist for the "Dallas Morning News," who writes an [redacted] column captioned [redacted] was in touch with one of the Dallas Agents today and advised on a confidential basis (with the understanding no release would be made of this information) that he had received a telephone call from Ruby this afternoon. He advised that according to Ruby, he is permitted to make one telephone call per day from the Dallas County Jail and that Ruby talked to [redacted] for approximately thirty minutes. [redacted] stated there was considerable going in circles but the general drift of the conversation was concerning the reasons that he shot Oswald. [redacted] advised that reducing the conversation to his actual purpose, Ruby stated he shot Oswald to show the world the "Jews" had a love for Kennedy. Ruby did not believe any Jew would have the nerve to go to bat for Kennedy and felt he, Ruby, had to do this for the Jewish people.

[redacted] asked Ruby what was his last thought before and after shooting Oswald. Ruby told [redacted] that he would consider answering but would first want to talk to his attorney. [redacted] asked Ruby if he came over to the jail with a photographer would Ruby talk to him and permit photographs. Ruby stated he would.

[redacted] advised the Dallas Agent that he, [redacted] was contacting Sheriff Decker to see if he would be permitted to interview Ruby. [redacted] states that if he is successful in interviewing Ruby today and obtaining photographs, he will give the results of the interview that he is planning for this afternoon, as well as photographs, to other news media because Sheriff Decker would not permit such an interview unless he furnished the information to other news media.

[redacted] again stated, however, that he did not want the information as to the reasons Ruby shot Oswald disclosed, and that he did not intend to print this information. [redacted] also advised that before furnishing anything as a result of his contemplated interview today he would furnish the Dallas Office any information he obtains from Ruby. UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Mr. Tolson DATE: December 7, 1963

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

On afternoon of December 6, Deputy Attorney General Katzenbach advised that CIA representatives had looked at our report on the assassination of President Kennedy and the report on the Ruby killing of Oswald and that CIA concurred fully with the report, said it was accurate according to any information they had and were complimentary of the report. State Department representatives had looked at the report and agreed with it. Secret Service representatives were coming over to look at the report.

Mr. Katzenbach said he had talked to Mr. Sorenson at the White House who had talked to the President, and the President wants the report transmitted direct to the Presidential Commission headed by Chief Justice Warren. Katzenbach wanted to know whether the Bureau wanted to transmit the report and I told him that we had given it to the Department and if the President wanted it to the Commission, the Department should handle. He said he would furnish it personally to Chief Justice Warren on December 7 with a very short cover note merely transmitting the report.

Mr. Katzenbach said that he was not in favor of making any statement regarding the report at this time but the President wants a statement, therefore, he has drawn one up which he would like to have approved by Chief Justice Warren and the White House and would like any views of the FBI. Mr. DeLoach and I looked over the proposed statement which set forth that a preliminary report had been rendered by the FBI and then went on to relate the findings of the report including the statement that Oswald was not involved with anyone else, there was no foreign country influence and that Ruby had operated by himself in the killing of Oswald.

Mr. DeLoach and I talked to Mr. Katzenbach regarding this and advised him that the Director felt that basically the first paragraph was all that was necessary merely relating that the report had been submitted. We recommended that the word preliminary be stricken as this was more than a preliminary report. We pointed out that it is basically dangerous to make statements beyond that contained in the first paragraph because continued allegations are being received and we are continuing to run them out and this is a situation where the fewer comments that are made the better.

Mr. Katzenbach called Mr. Sorenson at the White House and advised of the Director's feelings on this and stated that he agreed that any report should be limited to the first paragraph plus a sentence to the effect that the Bureau was continuing investigation. Mr. Sorenson felt that it was desirable to show that at least so far there was no indication of involvement of a foreign country in this matter. We reiterated to Mr. Katzenbach our feeling that the less said the better and we did not object to saying that the FBI was continuing investigation but otherwise we thought the statements should be limited to the first paragraph. I told Mr. Katzenbach we had expressed our views and the rest was up to the Department. Mr. Katzenbach said that any statement made would be made by the White House.

I furnished Mr. Katzenbach a new set of reports and exhibits inasmuch as we had added a preface and had included an index to the reports. We had numbered the reports and the set furnished the Department is number two. I brought back the reports we had previously given the Department and they have been returned to Mr. Rosen's Office.

Investigation by the Indianapolis, Chicago, Cincinnati, New York, Los Angeles and Miami Offices, set out in referenced communications, fails to substantiate that JACK L. RUBY, born JACK RUBENSTEIN, is identical with the person [redacted] has in mind. Investigation did not establish that the meetings referred to by [redacted] were in fact Communist Party meetings. An individual with whom JACK RUBENSTEIN (Ph.)--identified by [redacted] as RUBY on the basis of newspaper photos--allegedly traveled from Chicago to Muncie, Indiana, for the meetings in question has stated positively that RUBY did not travel with him to Muncie, Indiana, from Chicago on any occasion.

No further inquiries are intended in the above regard. Information in referenced communications is not being included in a report in the captioned case.

EDWARD TUBACH advised knew a JACK HOLFORD whom he had introduced to MARIA LUISA GARCIA SILVA about three and a half to four years ago and about whom he had probably spoken about in front of the other individuals mentioned in anonymous letter in Mexicali, B. C., Mexico. LLOYD HORAL identified individuals mentioned in anonymous letter; that he became acquainted with MARIA LUISA GARCIA SILVA about four years ago in Mexicali, introduced her to EDWARD TUBACH, attended parties at her home in Mexicali where he first met NORMA GUTIERREZ and subsequently SILVIA GARCIA VIRGENES, with whom he established a relationship for three or four months and dropped her for excessive money demands, and IRMA GUTIERREZ, with whom he is currently friendly; that GARCIA VIRGENES might have written letter and also that GARCIA SILVA might have written letter since HORAL had attempted to have TUBACH terminate relationship with GARCIA SILVA. HORAL denied knowing personally or having ever met with JACK RUBY or having anything whatsoever to do with assassination of the President or the subsequent killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Date 12/9/63

EDWARD TUBACH, Rancher, 152 "G" Street, voluntarily contacted the FBI to state he did know a "JACK" whom he might have mentioned to those individuals set forth in the anonymous letter. He identified "JACK" as JACK HOLFORD, 4835 Vista Del Monte, El Paso, Texas, a salesmanager for Proctor and Gamble.

TUBACH has known HOLFORD since they were both boys. HOLFORD formerly resided with his parents near TUBACH in Organge County, California. TUBACH remained in contact with HOLFORD and has visited with HOLFORD on an average of once a year, the last visit at El paso, Texas, being in about July, 1963.

About three and a half to four years ago, HOLFORD visited TUBACH at Brawley, California. During this visit, TUBACH took HOLFORD to Mexicali, B.C., Mexico. MARIA LUISA GARCIA SILVA had been in an auto accident and was in a hospital in Mexicali. TUBACH and HOLFORD visited her there at which time HOLFORD was introduced to her. HOLFORD did not meet any of the other individuals in Mexicali.

TUBACH said it was quite possible he had mentioned HOLFORD to the others in Mexicali since he was quite fond of HOLFORD.

TUBACH again stated the only individual whom he believed might have written a spite letter and who would know of the identities of all mentioned in that letter would have been SILVIA GARCIA VIRGENES. He again denied knowing JACK RUBY, or having anything to do with the assassination of the President or the subsequent killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

LLOYD HORAL, Irrigation Foreman, EDWARD TUBACH Ranches, was advised he did not have to make any statement but any statement made could be used in a court of law against him, and that he had the right to have an attorney, by SAs ARNOLD C. DOLDE and JAMES W. PRICE who identified themselves as Special Agents of the FBI.

HORAL said he was acquainted with REMEGIO AGUILAR, whom he knew as the owner of cattle shipping yards in Mexicali, B.C., Mexico; NORMA GUTIERREZ as the "girlfriend" of AGUILAR: IRMA GUTIERREZ as his, HORAL's, "girlfriend"; MARIA LUISA SILVA as MARIA LUISA GARCIA SILVA, the "girlfriend" of EDWARD TUBACH, and EDWARD TUBACH as his employer.

HORAL first became acquainted with GARCIA SILVA at the El Prado Bar, Melgar Street, Mexicali, where she was employed as a manager about four years ago. He had frequented this bar previously and had become acquainted with the former manager, whom he knew only as "TONY". "TONY" introduced him to GARCIA SILVA. About a month later he introduced TUBACH to GARCIA SILVA. At that time GARCIA SILVA was residing in Pueble Nuevo, Mexicali, where he and TUBACH attended social parties. At one of these parties, HORAL became acquainted with NORMA GUTIERREZ.

Sometime later, TUBACH rented an apartment on Ave. Compuertas in Colonia Alamitos, Mexicali, where GARCIA SILVA established her residence.

In about the first part of 1963, he met SILVIA GARCIA VIRGENES at a party at GARCIA SILVA's and commenced a relationship with her which lasted about three or four months. He dropped her when her money demands became too much and shortly afterwards began a relationship with IRMA GUTIERREZ, whom he had also met at GARCIA SILVA's. When GARCIA VIRGENES learned of this relationship, she became angry and threatened to have both HORAL and TUBACH expelled from Mexico.

HORAL had become acquainted with REMIGIO AGUILAR at one of the parties about a year ago but had not become closely acquainted.

HORAL stated he knew JACK HOLFORD of El Paso, Texas, a friend of TUBACH and was aware that TUBACH had introduced HOLFORD to GARCIA SILVA on one occasion sometime ago. He said that HOLFORD had never been to one of their parties and was not known to others in Mexicali.

HORAL indicated GARCIA VIRGENES might have written a "spite" letter because of his dropping her but added it was possible that GARCIA SILVA might have written such a letter since she was angry with him. He had attempted to convince TUBACH to terminate his relationship with GARCIA SILVA in that GARCIA SILVA was too demanding with respect to money and was not being "true" to him. GARCIA SILVA had learned of his attempts.

HORAL indicated it appeared that the JACK mentioned in the anonymous letter referred to JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas. He said JACK RUBY was unknown to him personally and the only information concerning him had been obtained from the news media. HORAL specifically denied having ever met with JACK RUBY or having anything whatsoever to do with the assassination of the President or the subsequent killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HORAL also furnished the following descriptive information:

It is to be noted that during the interview of Mrs. NONA HELEN ALEXANDER, 2614 LaSalle Gardens Boulevard, Lansing, Michigan, she appeared extremely nervous and emotionally upset.

Detective Lieutenant LAWRENCE W. MURPHY (NA), Lansing, Michigan Police Department, who arranged the interview, based upon information received by him from [redacted] Lansing, Michigan, advised that prior information received by him from Mr. HOWARD ALEXANDER, husband of Mrs. ALEXANDER indicates that she believes that she has been followed, that someone put "glass crystals" and household cleanser and in her sitz baths and that she previously advised her priest that she has been emotionally upset since her operation for a female disorder.

Mrs. NONA HELEN ALEXANDER, 2614 LaSalle Gardens Boulevard, Lansing, Michigan, was interviewed and she furnished the following information:

She advised that she is the Senior Clerk at the Shaw Hall Men's Dormitory, Michigan State University (MSU), which hall is divided into two units--Shaw Hall East and Shaw Hall West--each having it's own Head Resident Advisor, Assistant Advisors, and Reception Desk. Both units are supervised by Mr. PEER G. HOLTKAMP, 1731 Linen Street, East Lansing, Michigan, Manager of Shaw Hall, in whose office she is employed, together with Mrs. NORMA E. JOHNSTON, 3257 Hepfer Drive, Lansing, Senior Department Secretary. She has been so employed for some twelve years.

She related that she had been absent from her position during the period October 2, 1963, to November 4, 1963, recuperating from a serious surgical operation for a female disorder performed on October 3, 1963, and that on her return to work on November 4, 1963, or a day or two later she noted the name "LEE OSWALD" written in NORMA JOHNSTON's handwriting on the corner of her (Mrs. ALEXANDER's) desk blotter. She asked Mrs. JOHNSTON what it meant and Mrs. JOHNSTON said that Mr. HOLTKAMP wanted to know if OSWALD was a student or former resident of the hall. Mrs. ALEXANDER searched the records back to 1954 but found no record.

She then tore off the corner of the blotter with the name on it, changed blotters and stuck the torn slip under the new blotter.

She could not state why she retained the slip but a few days later she located it again and asked Mrs. JOHNSTON why Mr. HOLTKAMP had inquired about the name. Mrs. JOHNSTON said that OSWALD had come to visit with a friend and Mrs. ALEXANDER believes that Mrs. JOHNSTON indicated that the "friend" was a student residing in Room G-035, East Shaw Hall, but she cannot be certain.

On 12/9/63 at Lansing, Michigan File # Detroit 100-31965

by SA FRANCIS J. PRASEK /cc Date dictated 12/10/63

She stated that Room G-035 is occupied by four students:

JACK F. GILBERT, 15610 Woodvale,
Encino, California

STANLEY N. DURST, 1543 West First Street,
Brooklyn 4, New York

KENNETH S. SASS, 6708 198th Street,
Flushing, New York

EDUARDO G. VARGAS, Foreign Student from Costa Rica

She also noted that on Mrs. JOHNSTON's desk calendar pad, on the October 5, 1963, sheet, was a notation "JACK GILBERT asked for key for a friend--OK'd by HOLTKAMP". Mrs. ALEXANDER stated that she then threw away the slip of paper but it "bothered" her and she retrieved the slip from the waste basket and filed it in a folder she maintains for miscellaneous items relating to her work.

Mrs. ALEXANDER related that it is permitted for a student to have an over night guest in his room if one of the students is away and allows his bed to be used for the guest. The hosting student then executes a guest slip showing the name of his guest; his own name, and room number. This slip is executed in multiple with the reception desk receiving a copy, the Advisors a copy and one for the student. In addition, the Host executes a request for linen to be used by the guest with one copy of the request being given to the student, one to the Administration Building and one remains in the book.

She recalls seeing a guest slip for LEE OSWALD when she returned from leave on November 4, 1963, since it is her responsibility to file these slips when they are returned to the Manager's office by the Reception Desks. This particular slip was erroneously executed since OSWALD's name was in the space intended for the student's name and the student's name (which she cannot now recall) was in the guest's spot. She believes that the name was one in the end of the alphabet but she cannot state if was VARGAS. She filed this slip with other guest slips in the folders of the appropriate host students.

After the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, which she states bothered her terribly, she searched both her miscellaneous file and guest file but both slips were gone. She did not mention this disappearance to anyone in the office because "they have been strangely quiet" since November 22, 1963, and have not mentioned the name of OSWALD at all.

Mrs. ALEXANDER further advised that this fall, the exact date she cannot recall but believes it was after November 4, 1963, Mr. HOLTKAMP walked through the outer office where Mrs. ALEXANDER has her desk and said "that JACK RUBY is quite a guy--he invited me to visit his place in Texas" or words to that effect. Mrs. ALEXANDER stated he made the statement to no one in particular and continued on into his office. She stated she overheard him telling someone in his office that "JACK RUBY has a strip bar in Texas and invited me and my wife to come down". Mrs. ALEXANDER does not know to whom he was talking. Mrs. NORMA JOHNSTON also heard this conversation and said something to the effect that "that is Dallas for you--those Texans are quite the spenders" or similar words indicating that Texans entertained their guests lavishly. Mrs. ALEXANDER stated that she replied "JACK RUBY is a funny name--sounds like a gem".

She stated that she walked into the lobby and Mrs. ALICE BUSH, Receptionist for West Shaw Hall, said to her, "I don't know what to do--Mr. HOLTKAMP lent the Shaw Hall club pool table equipment to this man". Mrs. ALEXANDER stated she inquired what man and Mrs. BUSH showed her a slip of paper with a name written on it. Mrs. ALEXANDER stated she read the name as RUDY but Mrs. BUSH advised her that it was in fact RUBY. Mrs. ALEXANDER stated that she then told Mrs. BUSH that HOLTKAMP was the manager and could loan the equipment to anyone he wished. Mrs. ALEXANDER stated she did not see the man known as RUBY nor did she her anything further regarding him.

Mrs. ALEXANDER stated that she would be willing to testify to the above were she to be issued a subpoena since she does not wish anyone to know that she had voluntarily furnished this information.

This group consisted of SAM JAFFE, MAX PRITZKER, PHILLIP and SONIA JASSER (PHILLIP JASSER is deceased), HARRY PAZOL, and his sons, MORTON and HERBERT PAZOL. To his knowledge, no meetings of this group were ever held in the second floor office of SAM JAFFE, or in any union hall in the Muncie area.

LAWSON JAFFE advised that he was formerly married to ETHEL STANDT, sister of MORTON STANDT. MORTON STANDT was for a short time his business partner in the operation of his jewelry stores in the Muncie area. He felt that STANDT was not a member of the above mentioned group, nor did he feel that he was sympathetic toward Communism. JAFFE is currently married to RUTH JAFFE nee ARMSTRONG, age 46, who was born at Albany, Indiana.

LAWSON JAFFE stated the names MORRIS ADELMAN, JACOB RUBENSTEIN, JACK RUBENSTEIN or JACK RUBY were not familiar to him, and to his knowledge, neither PRITZKER or CHAZIN ever brought friends on visits to the Muncie area from Chicago. He recalled no one by the name RUBENSTEIN visiting the Muncie area during the period he resided there.

He stated he was not acquainted, nor did he have any information concerning JACK RUBY, also known as JACK RUBENSTEIN or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, the person who assassinated President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

LAWSON JAFFE stated that the only person he recalls having been employed by SAM JAFFE in the Muncie area was REX JELLY, a jewelry repairman and watchmaker, who would now be about 70 years of age. The name GEORGE WILLIAM FEHRENBACH was not familiar to him, and to his knowledge, this person was never employed by SAM JAFFE.

He stated that he was of the recollection that he had been committed to the Bergen Pines County Hospital following his arrest.

On 12/3/63, [redacted] Postal Carrier, U.S. Post Office, Leonia, N.J., advised that he formerly carried the mail covering the address 219 Vreeland Ave., Leonia, and recalls the name [redacted] but he had no personal knowledge of him.

He stated that [redacted] is married, has several children, to his knowledge is in his 40's, but he had no information as to where he was employed. He stated that in his opinion he and his family are respectable people.

On 12/5/63, [redacted] Medical Records Room, Bergen Pines County Hospital, Paramus, N.J., made available their file on [redacted] An Admission Record disclosed that he was admitted on 11/24/63 at 2:35 p.m., at 2:35 p.m., Admission #63-28,006 P. He was listed as born in Jersey City, N.J., age 38, a U.S. Citizen, male, white, Veteran - U.S. Navy, wife [redacted] home address [redacted] Leonia, N.J., telephone WI 4-3303, occupation gasoline dealer, employed. He was brought to the hospital in a North Bergen Police Car. His hospital insurance was listed with Colonial Life and was described as group insurance. His parents were listed as [redacted] both living.

The medical file on [redacted] disclosed an affidavit dated 11/24/63 signed by Dr. [redacted] of the Psychiatric Division, to a Certificate for Temporary Admission to the Hospital. Therein he stated that it was the first such attack suffered by [redacted] that it was rapid in its onset, precipitated by the President's assassination, but that he was not dangerous or homocidal. He indicated that [redacted] on admission said that he had the impulse to go down South and kill the assassin and CASTRO and that he took a gun and made a reservation to go South. He was described from facts accumulated by Dr. [redacted] and as communicated to him by others as a gambler, a former alcoholic, as one who possesses the ability to function as a family man, but who has been deteriorating for the past 2 or 3 years.

His final primary diagnosis on his Admission Record signed by Dr. [redacted] was "emotionally unstable personality".

[redacted] was in the Bergen Pines Hospital from the above date until 11/26/63 at which time he was discharged. His History Record and Physical Examination Record disclosed that he was a 38 year old man, that he was a heavy drinker until 2 months ago and that his mental state has been deteriorating for the past 4 years. He had purchased a plane ticket to go South to kill the person who assassinated the President. He was stopped by police who brought him to the hospital for treatment. He was listed as married, had 4 children and, when admitted, was incapable of executing the voluntary application for admission.

On 11/26/63 under a discharge notation, Dr. [redacted] stated that "No behavioral, affective or thought disorder noted today of immediate consequences. Patient is not depressed. He has accepted the death of President KENNEDY". The final diagnosis of Dr. [redacted] was that he was an "emotionally unstable personality".

On 12/7/63, [redacted] was telephonically contacted and agreed to appear at the Hackensack RA on 12/9/63.

On 12/9/63, [redacted] did appear voluntarily at the Hackensack RA. He advised that on 11/23/63 when he left his home in Leonia, N.J. for his place of business, an [redacted] Service Station located at [redacted] North Bergen, N.J., [redacted] he carried with him a German Luger revolver plus a loaded clip of ammunition. He stated he was in a highly agitated state of mind having been completely overwhelmed with the death of President KENNEDY by assassination. He stated when he left his home that morning his wife, [redacted] was not aware that he was carrying a gun nor did he apprise any of his employees in the [redacted] Service Station, of his intentions upon his arrival for work. He stated that he went directly from his home to his place of business, and he now is of the opinion that one or more of his employees, on his arrival, became aware he was carrying a gun and appeared to be visibly upset. At about 10:00 A.M. he left his service station and went to Sandy's Tavern, located at 67th Street and Smith Avenue, located directly behind the North Bergen PD. He is of the opinion that one of his employees alerted the PD because approximately ten minutes he was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon. He was taken to the PD where he was questioned and placed in jail for the night. He apparently was not rational in the PD but did inform them that he had made a reservation for 11/23/63 an Eastern Airlines flight for Mexico City. Looking back, he stated his purpose was not to go to Cuba but was to travel to Mexico City and from there to go to Dallas where he hoped to avenge the assassination of the president; however, he agreed to a decision in the PD that he be committed to the Bergen Pines County Hospital for observation rather than be brought before a Grand Jury for carrying a concealed weapon.

On 11/24/63, he stated he was committed to the hospital and after treatment for a few days regained control of himself and his desire to go to Dallas for any purpose vanished. He explained that he has taken various tranquillizers for years to combat his nerves, which he stated are in a bad state, the result of service in WW II when he served in the U.S. Navy in the South Pacific, the result of years of drinking, and one or two operations he has undergone for a bad back and plebitis in one leg.

[redacted] stated that he is now under the care of a family physician and was scheduled to meet with Dr. [redacted] identified above, for psychiatric help. He stated that he is confident his health will improve and under the care of both physicians does not believe he will be subject so emotionally again.

The Newark Office is furnishing this to Dallas for its information. No 302 will be submitted and no further action is being contemplated by Newark.

A description of [redacted] as secured from the records of the Bergen Pines County Hospital and as result of above interview is as follows:

MR. MOHR

C. D. DE LOACH

ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

Nick Katzenbach, the Deputy Attorney General, called me at 11:00 A.M., this morning, and asked that I come around to his office.

Upon seeing Katzenbach, he made reference to the proposed press release which the White House had originally planned to issue over the weekend in connection with the captioned matter. (The Director instructed we advise Katzenbach that we strongly felt that only the first paragraph of this release should be issued, or the first three paragraphs of the revised release which Mr. Belmont read to the Director on Saturday.) Katzenbach told me that there was a stalemate at the White House in connection with this release. Abe Fortas strongly felt that the entire release should be given to the press. Ted Sorenson agreed with us that only the first three paragraphs of the revised release prepared Saturday should be given out. Fortas believed that speculation, rumors and gossip should be disspelled right now. He claimed it made no difference that the Presidential Commission would present findings to the President and the general public. He felt rumors concerning collusion between Ruby and Oswald, also those concerning international conspiracy, should be hit hard now.

As a result of the disagreement between Fortas and Sorenson, there will be no press release from the White House. To get his point across, however, Katzenbach has prepared a letter to Chief Justice Warren and each Commission member transmitting a copy of the report. The report will be delivered today. In his letter, Katzenbach states that the report is being delivered at the instructions of the President. He also calls upon the Commission to quickly issue a statement concerning its findings so that rumors, gossip and speculation can be eliminated. He goes on to point out that investigation thus far has nailed down the point that Oswald assassinated the President and had no assistance. He further mentions that Ruby operated strictly as an individual and had no assistance. He points out there is no evidence of collusion or international intrigue.

Katzenbach asked me if the FBI could deliver these reports. I told him we could not, that it was our position that the reports are now out of our hands and delivery should be handled by the Department. He asked if we could package them for him inasmuch as he had no facilities for doing this. I told him I thought our Mail Room could handle this chore for him. He then stated that he had no way in which to deliver the report to John J. McCloy, the Commission member in New York. He wondered if the FBI could handle this for him. He added that each report would, of course, have his letter transmitting the report as an attachment to the package; therefore, the package actually would be coming from him and not the FBI. I told him I would check on this angle and let him know.

Katzenbach has requested 11 copies of the report from us. Seven of these copies will go to Presidential Commission members, as he promised last Friday, 12/6/63. One copy of the report will go to the Chief Counsel of the Commission, presumably Lee Rankin. The Department desires two copies and Katzenbach wants to give Secret Service one copy, making a total of 11 copies needed.

ACTION:

(1) That we package the copies for Katzenbach and have them delivered to his office. (Mr. Belmont advises there are sufficient copies.)

(2) That we turn over to Katzenbach ten copies of the report, it being noted that the Department already has one copy.

(3) That we tell Katzenbach that we are charging him with the safety and handling of these reports inasmuch as we have discharged our duties, other than the continuing investigation. It is further suggested we tell him that we have no objections to the Secret Service receiving a copy of the report; however, this, of course, is up to Katzenbach inasmuch as he is charged with the safety of a specific number of reports.

Re: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

ACTION (continued):

(4) That we tell Katzenbach that under the circumstances we will have our New York Office deliver a copy of the report to John J. McCloy.

December 6, 1963

The Chief Justice
The Supreme Court
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Chief Justice:

At the direction of President Johnson, I am transmitting herewith to you and to the other members of the Commission copies of the report of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on the assassination of President Kennedy and on the subsequent shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. You will note that in some aspects the investigation is continuing and further information will be made available to the Commission as it develops. The Secret Service and the Department of State have also prepared reports with respect to the precautions made to guard the President and certain background information in the hands of the State Department with respect to Oswald. You will have these promptly.

This report is not a classified document since it does not contain defense information. However, we have been treating it as a highly classified document and I trust that you and the other members of the Commission will do likewise until such time as you determine to release matters contained within it. Within the Government it is being read by a very limited number of people on a "need to know" basis.

You will recall that at the time of announcing the Federal Bureau of Investigation investigation, and prior to the appointment of the Commission, President Johnson announced that the FBI report would be made public. I have,

However, inasmuch as it is your request that this report not be released until the Commission has had time to review all of the facts and evaluate them. At the same time I am sure you are aware that there is much public speculation and rumor in this connection which would be desirable to allay as quickly as possible. For example, the latest Gallup poll shows that over half the American people believe that Oswald acted as part of a conspiracy in shooting President Kennedy, and there is considerable rumor in this country and abroad to the effect that Ruby acted as part of the case or a related conspiracy.

I think, therefore, the Commission should consider releasing--or allowing the Department of Justice to release--a short press statement which would briefly make the following points:

(1) The FBI report through scientific examination of evidence, testimony and intensive investigation, establishes beyond a reasonable doubt that Lee Harvey Oswald shot President Kennedy on November 22, 1963. The evidence includes ballistic tests, fingerprints and palm prints, clothing fibers and other technical data which places Oswald at the scene of the crime and establishes that he fired the shots which killed President Kennedy and wounded Governor Connally of Texas.

(2) The FBI has made an exhaustive investigation into whether Oswald may have conspired with or been assisted by any organization, group or person, foreign or domestic, in carrying out this dastardly act. In this regard, the FBI has questioned hundreds of persons and checked out numerous rumors and reports. To date this aspect of the investigation has been negative. No evidence has been uncovered indicating that any organization, group or person, including Dallas night club owner, Jack Ruby, was involved with Oswald in the assassination of President Kennedy, or that the subsequent shooting of Oswald was part of a conspiracy.

him the necessity of reporting the matter to the proper authorities. He told her he would report the matter and insists he reported the incident to the Texas Department of Public Safety, Dallas, the following day.

Contact with the Texas Department of Safety, Dallas, on December 6, 1963, failed to locate any record or anyone in a position of authority who had knowledge of the call [redacted] claims he made.

SHIRLEY ANN MAULDIN was interviewed on December 8, 1963, at Omaha, Nebraska, and she stated she worked for RUBY as a dancer for one week at the Carousel Club shortly after it opened in 1962. About two and one-half months ago, believed to be the night of her release from the Dallas City Jail, where she was held on drunk and disorderly charges for two days, she dated a Dallas attorney whom she knew only by the first name of [redacted]. They visited clubs, including the Carousel Club, and were accompanied by no one. They stayed at the Carousel Club for about forty minutes, during which RUBY came to their table, greeted her, and she introduced RUBY to [redacted]. This visit by RUBY was brief and was an apparent attempt to get her to work for RUBY again. MAULDIN claims OSWALD was not known to her and she overheard no conversation between RUBY and anyone in the club.

She could recall hearing no discussion in reference to the shooting of the Texas Governor. MAULDIN did not believe RUBY served as master of ceremonies at the club or made any introduction to the audience of anyone. She was definite in her recollection that she and [redacted] did not engage in any conversation in reference to reporting anything they had overheard to the proper authorities. She claims that had she had any information of the nature mentioned by [redacted] she would not have hesitated to report same to authorities because of her hate for RUBY and she would like to see him in trouble.

MAULDIN stated she and [redacted] were drinking at the Carousel but not to excess. She believed [redacted] to be intelligent and found no reason to question his mental condition. She claimed she and [redacted] parted company on leaving the Carousel Club when he put her in a cab. She claims the only other conversation she has had with [redacted] took place the following day when she telephoned him to thank him for a night out.

Records of the Dallas City Jail reflect SHIRLEY MAULDIN was released on September 21, 1963, which she believes is the date she accompanied JARNAGIN to the Carousel Club. [redacted] is of the opinion they were in the Carousel Club on October 4, 1963, and fixes this date through office notes on a telephone call to Mrs. MAULDIN.

On December 7, 1963, [redacted] Dallas, ex-wife of [redacted] advised that she was forced to divorce him because of his heavy drinking. She stated he appeared to be completely sane when he was not drinking, but when drinking heavily he was not a sane person and imagined all kinds of things.

The report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated 11/30/63 at Dallas, entitled "LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka; ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, 11/22/63", reflects that on 11/21/63 OSWALD was in New Orleans, Louisiana, and on 10/4/63, he was at the home of Mrs. RUTH PAINE in Irving, Texas, all evening.

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

[redacted] (protect identity), owner of [redacted] Chicago, advised SA'S JOSEPH G. SHEA and WILLIAM A MEINCKE, on November 25, 1963, that he has known RUBY for many years. He stated RUBY, when in Chicago, was a small-time salesman and ticket scalper. He said that RUBY had never engaged in any major gambling ventures, nor was he a bookmaker. In 1946, RUBY was associated with a novelty firm called Ruby Products.

[redacted] recalled that RUBY had a sister, name unknown, in Dallas who was operating a tavern in that city. In about 1946, RUBY left Chicago to assist his sister in the management of this tavern.

[redacted] indicated that he has had infrequent contacts with RUBY since 1946 but is aware that RUBY had many close friends among the Dallas Police Department personnel. He recalls RUBY making trips to Hot Springs, Arkansas, with the Dallas Chief of Police but indicated that he did not recall when these trips were made and would not know if the trips were with the present Chief of Police. According to [redacted], RUBY had a hot temper and was very quick to engage in fights. He stated that RUBY had absolutely no connections with the criminal element in Chicago. He recalled that two of RUBY's closest friends were HERSHEY and SEFTKE SHER. These brothers operate a wholesale meat business in the Chicago Fulton Market area.

[redacted] advised SA DENNIS W. SHANAHAN, on 11/25/63, that he overheard a conversation on the evening of 11/24/63, to the effect that the individuals from Chicago who attempted to take over the gambling interest in the Dallas area in 1947 had conducted their meetings at RUBY's bar in Dallas on the second floor. This informant did not know the identity of the individuals conducting this conversation and had no knowledge of his own as to its veracity.

During the course of this conversation, this informant learned that one Deputy Sheriff (FNU) TOMACELLI (PH), of the Cook County Sheriff's Office, was a person who was well acquainted with subject RUBY.

Investigation at Cook County Sheriff's Office reflects no one named TOMACELLI is an investigative Deputy Sheriff.

Records are now being obtained at Chicago reflecting roster of civilian process servers of Cook County Sheriff's Office in effort to identify TOMACELLI.

[redacted] advised SA CLARK S. SMITH on November 27, 1963 that AL CHARLES, Proprietor of the Stardust Club at St. Louis, Missouri, advised him that he has known JACK RUBY for 15 years. Informant stated that RUBY, according to CHARLES has a business partner, name unknown, who is 70 years of age and who formerly was in business in Dallas, Texas, with an individual named JOE BOND. Informant stated that CHARLES advised that BOND and RUBY's present partner operated a bar and burlesque house in Dallas, Texas, which was in competition with a similar establishment operated by an unnamed individual who had an "in" with the Police Department. Informant advised that CHARLES related that subsequently a rape charge was filed against BOND who then fled from Dallas, Texas, to Washington, D. C., where he opened a similar business. BOND according to CHARLES was later "fingered" and arrested at Washington, D. C. However, no dates of occurrance were given in relating this story. Informant advised that CHARLES stated RUBY then went into business in Dallas with JOE BOND's, former partner, name unknown.

The indicies of the St. Louis Office failed to reflect any derogatory information on AL CHARLES.

[redacted] on December 1, 1963, furnished the following information with the request that the source of the information would be kept strictly confidential.

[redacted] advised that he had heard that officers of the Dallas, Texas Police Department frequent the Carousel Bar and other night clubs owned by JACK RUBY. The only officer that [redacted] could identify as frequenting JACK RUBY's establishments is Sergeant JERRY HILL. [redacted] stated that he had heard that HILL had been bragging about going out with and having an affair with a girl who is employed as a stripper at the Carousel Bar. [redacted] further advised that he does not know of the strippers employed by RUBY working as prostitutes although if such were the case they would be extremely high paid prostitutes.

[redacted] recalled that he had heard on the late news emanating from Station KLIF on the night of the President's assassination that KLIF had learned exclusively from a source which [redacted] could not definitely identify but believes was the Dallas District Attorney or the Chief of the Dallas Police Department, or possibly some other authority, that night club owner JACK RUBY had taken a newsman whose name [redacted] was not sure of, to the authorities with information that RUBY had obtained.

[redacted] stated that he is not sure but he believes that the newsman from Station KLIF that went with RUBY to the authorities was RUSS KNIGHT.

HYMAN RUBENSTEIN is the older brother and considered the head of the family ad has a "family apartment" in Chicago where he presently resides. He stated that prior to the present location, the "family apartment" was considered to be at 3650 Lexington Street, Chicago, Illinois, and that his uncle JACK RUBY has lived in both apartments off and on during the years.

Mr. MAGID advised that his earliest recollection of his uncle JACK RUBY is when he and his mother traveled to San Francisco in 1933 or 1934 with JACK RUBY. His uncle and mother worked for a newspaper obtaining subscriptions and he believed they lived in an apartment in or around the Powell and Eddy Street area. He recalls that his uncle left the newspaper subscription business and went into the linoleum laying business while in San Francisco and believes that he worked for himself. He does not recall how long JACK RUBY stayed in San Francisco and his memory of JACK RUBY until JACK "went into the Army"is quite vague. Mr. MAGID stated that his mother while residing in San Francisco married FRANK GRANT in 1938 and divorced GRANT in about 1940. He advised that his knowledge of GRANT was that he lived in Los Angeles. Calif.

Mr. MAGID stated that JACK RUBY served in the U. S. Army Air Force as an enlisted man and was quite proud of the fact that he had obtained a "set of wings" which he sent Mr. MAGID to wear at the time.

After military service MAGID recalls that his uncle came back to Chicago, Illinois, and went into partnership with his brothers SAMUEL and EARL in a business known as Earl Products Company, 701 North Sangamon Street, Chicago, Illinois. This was a novelty manufacturing business which made premium merchandise for sales incentive type programs. SAMUEL and EARL bought JACK out of the business in about 1948 when JACK moved to Dallas, Texas. He believes that during the time his uncle JACK RUBY resided in Chicago from his discharge from the military service until 1948 he resided in the Congress Hotel.

MAGID advised that his mother during the 1940s had moved from Los Angeles, California, to Dallas, Texas, and owned and operated the Singapore Supper Club in 1948. Prior to this she was in the import and export of steel and other raw materials in Dallas, Texas, under the name of Grant Sales. Immediately before this he advised that his mother was in the novelty distributing business under the name of Berger - Grant Sales which was also located in Dallas, Texas.

He advised that the reason JACK RUBY moved to Dallas in 1948 was to help his mother manage the Singapore Supper Club which was failing at the time. He stated that his uncle felt that Chicago had nothing to offer him. He advised that he does not know what the financial arrangements are between JACK RUBY and his mother. He advised that he believes that they changed the name of the Singapore Club to the Silver Spurs and advised that his mother and uncle have owned numerous clubs over the years in Dallas, Texas. He advised that the Carousel Club which JACK RUBY presently runs was formerly the Sovereign Club which was a membership type club. He advised that his mother EVA GRANT has some business interest in these clubs. He advised that to his knowledge there is no "outside money" involved in the ownership of these clubs.

MAGID advised that the last personal contact he had with his uncle was during a vacation visit to Dallas for five days in May 1963. He stated that his prior contact with his uncle was during the funeral of his grandfather in Chicago in 1959.

Mr. MAGID advised that he knows of no contacts with the hoodlum element on the part of JACK RUBY except that his uncle grew up in a touch Chicago neighborhood from which many gangsters originated. He does not know of any direct association with this type of element however.

Mr. MAGID further stated that he would sincerely doubt any subversive associations or activities on the part of his uncle JACK RUBY because of his patriotic attitude and also the fact that JACK liked money too much to embrace a communist philosophy. He further advised that he has no knowledge of the Fair Play for Cuba organization and was not aware of its existence until the publicity it received as a result of the assassination of the President.

He advised that most of the RUBENSTEIN family are Democrats in their political outlook. He advised that his uncle HYMAN RUBENSTEIN to his knowledge was the most active in political circles and knows of no political activity on the part of JACK RUBY.

Mr. MAGID further stated that his uncle JACK RUBENSTEIN has always been on friendly terms with policemen. He advised that at one time the law made it mandatory in Dallas, Texas, to have a policeman on the floor of any club while the club was open. He advised that the clubs were required to close at midnight and that at that time the policemen assigned to the club would have only worked four or five hours. Since the police had no place to go he advised that his uncle used to keep his club open strictly for the use of police officers after the 12 o'clock closing. He believes that this was at the Supper Club which later became the Silver Spur. He advised that he also knew quite a few policemen in Chicago and use to park his car when on business in downtown Chicago and was never given a ticket.

MAGID advised that he had no knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the news broadcasts of the assassination of the President. He stated that he knows of absolutely no connection between OSWALD and his uncle JACK RUBY. He also advised that he had no knowledge that his uncle carried a gun.

He advised that his uncle has a close friend IRVING or ISADORE KAPLAN whose wife's name is SYLVIA who live in Los Angeles. He believes that KAPLAN lives possibly on Beverly Glen Boulevard in Beverly Hills, south of Pico Boulevard.

Mr. MAGID stated that he has always liked his uncle JACK RUBY and has nothing bad to say about him. He advised that when he talked to his mother on the telephone after the shooting in Dallas she said that JACK had been very upset about the President's assassination and had been crying. He further advised that JACK idolized a lot of people and right after World War II originated a copyrighted placard which consisted of a blue background with the Statue of Liberty printed in silver ink and the words "Remember Pearl Harbor." He advised that his uncle sold busts of President ROOSEVELT with an excerpt from his 1932 inaugural speech and also busts of General MacArthur during this time. He advised that he is sure his uncle saw the opportunity for making money on these but also commented that he thought they were a good thing. He further advised that he considers his uncle a very patriotic, honest man. He stated that his uncle respected the office of the President and believes his uncle wished he could be President but knew he did not have the proper background. He advised that he believes his uncle's actions were motivated by emotional factors.

JUDY PROCK, 334 Noe Street, Apartment 4, San Francisco, advised that she is a first cousin to JACK RUBENSTEIN. JACK RUBENSTEIN's mother, FANNIE, was a sister of Mrs. PROCK's father. Mrs. PROCK was born and reared in Denver, Colorado, and moved to San Francisco, in September, 1939. In 1940, EILEEN RUBEINSTEIN, sister of RUBY, visited with Mrs. PROCK for approximately two weeks. Mrs. PROCK was aware that RUBY also was living somewhere in San Francisco, although she did not know his address. She understood that RUBY was employed as a salesman, but did not know the details of this employment.

EILEEN CAR 9/47 ILL; CALIF

4724 N. DAMEN, CHICAGO

She has not seen RUBY since approximately 1940. She remembers him from her childhood days when she visited Chicago with the entire RUBENSTEIN family. She described him as being soft-spoken, and a gentlemanly person. On a visit to Denver some years ago, she overheard from one of her relatives that RUBY was in Dallas and in the night club business. She was unable to furnish any additional information regarding RUBY.

She has also met RUBY's brothers, HYMIE, SAM and EARL. She has met RUBY's sisters, EILEEN, ANN, MARIAN and EVA, but has little or no information concerning any of these individuals. She stated EVA did reside in San Francisco with her son, RONNIE. She vaguely recalls hearing that RONNIE, who is probably known as RONNIE GRANT, may be employed in some capacity in the motion-picture industry.

The following investigation was conducted November 29, 1963, by SA RICHARD L. CAMPBELL at Denver, Colorado:

Denver Colo. telephone number 388-1249 listed to MORRIS RUTLAND at home address 300 Elm Street. Current Denver City Directory reflects RUTLAND's wife, JUANITA D. RUTLAND, and that MORRIS RUTLAND is an Attorney at Law, with offices in the University Building.

The files of the DENVER, FBI Office, reflect no record on MORRIS or JUANITA RUTLAND.

BRAD WILSHIRE, Retail Credit Men's Association (RCMA), advised RUTLANDS have a satisfactory credit rating and he has been self-employed as an attorney for twenty-five years. RUTLAND, in the past, has refused to give information to RCMA.

MELVIN WALBRIDGE, Denver Police Department, advised no record could be located for JUANITA or MORRIS RUTLAND.

[illegible] CHICAGO, ILL.

MORRIS RUTLAND advised SA'S RICHARD L. CAMPBELL and DAVID W. YATES that he is a first cousin of JACK L. RUBY, however, does not recall ever having met RUBY and has definitely had no contact with him for the past twenty years. RUTLAND advised he has kept in contact with MARIAN CARROLL of Chicago, Illinois, sister of RUBY, and that CARROLL visited in his home in Denver in September, 1963, while attending his son's Bar Mitzvah ceremony. RUTLAND stated it is possible CARROLL may have been in contact with RUBY from his home in Denver during one of her visits there. RUTLAND was unable to speculate on any reason RUBY might have for shooting OSWALD except possibly grief over President JOHN F. KENNEDY's death. He stated further that he has no knowledge of any un-American views held by RUBY and could furnish no additional information concerning this matter.

All 12-19-63 - Change at Bureau

B. 4-16-1915
CHICAGO, ILL. EARL R. RUBY, 29925 Woodland Drive, Southfield, Michigan, advised he arrived in Detroit, Michigan, from Chicago, Illinois, at 11:30 AM, November 25, 1963, via air line, being met by his wife, MARGE, and cop, MILTON G. SACKETT, Southfield Police Department, and held a press conference at his residence from 2:30 PM to about 3:30 PM (verified by Chief SACKETT). EARL RUBY was very cooperative during the interview and welcomed any further inquiry in this matter.

MRS. EARL R. RUBY

RUBY NEE GREENE

EARL advised that his parents are deceased, has no living aunts or uncles and the only surviving immediate members of his family are his brothers and sisters. Following are the brothers and sisters with accompanying background data plus pertinent comments regarding his brother, JACK RUBY:

JACK RUBY, bachelor, approximate date of birth May 15, 1911, at Chicago. He was in World War II, exact dates unknown. He was employed by Earl Products, owned by EARL RUBY, in Chicago, approximately six months, 1946-1947. Prior to World War II, he was employed by Spartan Novelty Company, Chicago, now defunct, dates not known. He cannot recall the places of employment prior to Spartan but worked various places as a salesman. After leaving the service, JACK and his brother, SAM, were given equal shares in Earl Products. Shortly after this arrangement EARL and SAM RUBY decided JACK was not giving his full share of time in the partnership, and a personality conflict existed between SAM and JACK RUBY. SAM and EARL bought out JACK's interest in the business. Shortly thereafter, JACK had an offer from his sister, EVA GRANT, to help her operate a night club in Dallas, Texas. JACK departed for Dallas for this purpose approximately 17 years ago, and has been in the night club business in Dallas ever since and has made infrequent visits to Chicago, for deaths, marriages and the like.

ILL. JACK's closest associates in Chicago are BENJAMIN KAYE, owner, Rogers Park Ford Agency, 6600 block of North Western Avenue, Chicago, a life-long friend (former Chicago policeman); HARRY EPSTEIN, who resides at the north end of Chicago and believed to operate the Lakeview Sales, Chicago (a firm selling business gifts); MIKE NEMZIN, owner, Weiners

Department Store, West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, home address unknown. Dallas close associates are RALPH PAUL, residence and business address unknown but in restaurant business, and (FNU). believed FRANK HOWARD, business and residence unknown. TEXAS

JACK RUBY went to grammar school, name unrecalled, but in 1100 block of Mozart, Chicago, with LENNY PATRICK. LENNY PATRICK is known by EARL RUBY from publicity to be an infamous hoodlum in Chicago. EARL has no knowledge of JACK's association with PATRICK, except on one occasion, date unknown, that JACK mentioned he had gone to grammar school with PATRICK. PATRICK was not generally known to the RUBY family. He recalls that LENNY PATRICK was the black sheep of the family. PATRICK's father was a Chicago policeman. JACK PATRICK, brother of LENNY, who is allegedly respectable, married a distant cousin (about four times removed) of the RUBY's. Her name is (FNU) WEINBERG. EARL had no knowledge of this family. ILL. ILL. MRS JACK PATRICK

B. 12-8-1901

EARL believed ART PETACQUE, a reporter, Chicago "Sun Times", knew JACK but does not know under what circumstances. EARL advised he first met PETACQUE on November 24, 1963, when PETACQUE came to the HY RUBENSTEIN residence in Chicago seeking an interview regarding the OSWALD shooting. EARL claimed they were keeping out all reporters; however, when PETACQUE mentioned JACK personally and mentioned the names BENNY KAYE and IZZY HORWITZ as mutual friends, he admitted PETACQUE and gave him a formal press interview. EARL said this is the only indication he had ever had that JACK knew PETACQUE. ILL.

1044 Loyola CHICAGO, ILL.

Relative to IRVING WEINER, EARL said he did not know of any individual named IRVING; however, he knew an ERWIN WEINER, a bondsman and insurance salesman, who went to high school with him, EARL. EARL had no knowledge that WEINER knew his brother, JACK, but may have had a speaking acquaintance. ILL.

Regarding GUS ALEX, EARL advised that as far as he knew JACK did not know ALEX in any shape or manner. EARL said ALEX is evidently well known in Chicago from the news media, but he, EARL, does not know him and reiterated he has no knowledge that JACK knows him.

EARL stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD is absolutely unknown to him, even after viewing photographs in press and on television and felt safe to say that OSWALD either by name or photograph is unknown to his entire family including JACK. He stated OSWALD is "a complete stranger" to entire family.

EARL had no knowledge as to why JACK should have shot OSWALD. EARL said JACK is very emotional. EARL said he talked to his sister, EVE GRANT, November 24, 1963, at which time she advised JACK, after hearing of President KENNEDY's death, proceeded to the synagogue, cried afterwards and was very depressed. EARL said JACK is definitely a patriot and would defend any President of the United States, Democrat or Republican, if challenged verbally, even to the point of fisticuffs. EARL said JACK hated anything unAmerican.

He said that JACK had never been convicted of any crime he knew of, although he was aware there had been several charges (exact data unknown) of fighting and possession of a concealed weapon. EARL said so far as he knew the fighting charges were dismissed since he was evicting unruly customers from his business establishments. EARL said the only time he knew JACK to carry a gun was when he was carrying large sums of money as a result of business. The only knowledge of this was during the times EARL spent in Dallas with his brother, which was for about ten and seven days, respectively, about four years ago. Caliber, make, etc., of weapon carried by JACK on these occasions unknown by EARL.

CIR,JGW:mam

EARL stated the only reason he can think of concerning the incident is JACK's patriotism and his grief over the President's death. EARL advised he could not state why JACK had a gun in his possession on this occasion, when, as far as he knew, JACK carried a gun only when he had sums of money. Therefore, EARL could not make a determination whether this might have been premeditated.

EARL furnished the following background information concerning existing relatives:

EARL R. RUBY, 29925 Woodland Drive, Southfield, Michigan, telephonically advised that when he was interviewed at his residence on November 25, 1963, by Bureau Agents, he stated JACK PATRICK, brother of LENNY PATRICK, an infamous hoodlum from Chicago, Illinois, married (first name unknown) WEINBERG, a distant cousin about four times removed of the RUBY family.

RUBY stated he was in Chicago over the Thanksgiving holidays and discussed this particular point with various members of the family. he said he was mistaken as to WEINBERG, whose first name is ETHEL, being a distant cousin of the RUBY family. RUBY advised ETHEL WEINBERG did, in fact, marry JACK PATRICK, however, she is not related in any way to the RUBY family. He said the WEINBERG family were close friends only. Ill.

Mrs. HAROLD KAMINSKY, Nee Rubenstein, 6724 North Talman, Chicago, advised she has no knowledge of her brother, JACK RUBY, having any serious physical illness or being under psychiatric care at any time. She has no knowledge of him ever being confined to a hospital nor does she have any knowledge that he has a metal plate in his head as a result of an injury suffered in the 1920s. Mrs. KAMINSKY said she has no knowledge of any psychiatric history of any member in her immediate family. Her mother, FANNIE RUBENSTEIN, deceased on April 11, 1940, from heart trouble, and her father, JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN, deceased on October 27, 1958, from cancer of the bladder. EVA GRANT, her sister in Dallas, Texas, underwent major abdominal surgery for a tumor about a week or so before November 22, 1963, and is still recuperating.

Mrs. KAMINSKY related that when JACK called her on November 22, 1963, he was extremely emotional and worked up. He repeated a number of times, "My God, my God, did you hear about the President?" He sounded crushed and it seemed to effect him more due to the fact he was in Dallas, Texas. Mrs. KAMINSKY said she believed JACK called her from the Carousel Club which he runs. During the telephone call he mentioned he might fly to Chicago.

According to Mrs. KAMINSKY, JACK is very sentimental especially around the Holiday season. He has always been a good brother. She said that for JACK to have committed the alleged shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he must have become emotionally unstable and temporarily insane.

Mrs. KAMINSKY stated she wished she could help or aid her brother in this time of need. She said perhaps she would testify as to her brother's emotional state on November 22, 1963, when he called if it would help him.

Mrs. KAMINSKY advised that as best she could recall, the last family residence of the RUBENSTEINs was at 3650 West Lexington, Chicago, in about 1947. She said there has been a complete turnover in the residents of the neighborhood and no one would recall members of the RUBENSTEIN family having resided there.

Mrs. J. MOSSELL, Records Librarian, Michael Reese Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, advised as follows:

FANNIE RUBENSTEIN was first admitted to the Michael Reese Out-Patient Clinic, on September 25, 1933. Her date of birth was indicated as March, 1878, and her residence was shown as 739 Kostner Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Her treatment was not indicated. There was no record of FANNIE RUBENSTEIN in the Psychiatric Division of Michael Reese Hospital.

It is the procedure at Michael Reese Hospital to destroy records for out-patients if the patient is not treated within the last five-year period.

It was indicated that FANNIE RUBENSTEIN was admitted as an in-patient at Michael Reese Hospital on April 4, 1944, with arterio sclerotic heart disease, followed by complications of terminal bronchial pneumonia. She died at Michael Reese Hospital at 7:20 PM, on April 11, 1944.

Microfilm copy of her death certificate indicated she was a white female, born on an unspecified day of March, 1878, at Lonzer, Poland. Her maiden name was FANNIE RUTKOWSKY. Her residence was shown as 3650 Lexington, Chicago; also, she had been the wife of JOSEPH RUBENSTEIN. Her attending physician was shown as Doctor J. MEYER.

FANNIE RUBENSTEIN was previously admitted to Michael Reese Hospital on July 19, 1943, for treatment of arterio sclerotic heart disease. She had been discharged from the hospital on October 24, 1943.

It was indicated her physician had difficulty in obtaining her medical history from her. This history showed that she had suffered from a thyroid condition and had a thyroidectomy performed thirteen years previously. Her medical history indicated that she had told of no record of diabetes or nervous or mental conditions.

It was also reflected that FANNIE RUBENSTEIN was the mother of JACK RUBY, who was then serving in the United States Army. Mrs. MOSSELL also advised she believed that FANNIE RUBENSTEIN's attending physician, indicated as J. On November 29, 1963, Lieutenant General STONE, U. S. Air Force, Pentagon, W shington, D. C., made available JACK RUBY's military record.

The record was reviewed by SA RICHARD W. KAISER and contained no medical history showing that RUBY has a steel plate in his head or that he has service connected injuries or disability.

On November 27, 1963, Miss E. B. AMBROSE, Veterans' Administration, Central Office, Washington, D. C., advised SA ROBERT F. MILNE that Master Index shows no VA record on LEE HARVEY OSWALD under his true name or known aliases.

AMBROSE advised JACK LEON RUBENSTEIN, born March 25, 1911, has no VA claim number. RUBENSTEIN's insurance number is 11-146-651. World War II insurance lapsed. It was noted that RUBENSTEIN's correct Army serial number is 36666107.

Mrs. EVA GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, 3929 Rawlins, telephonically contacted SA JACK B. PEDEN on December 2, 1963. She made reference to a previous conversation between SA PEDEN and herself. She talked in a rambling manner, and very fast, regarding her past. She stated that she was in Los Angeles in the fall of 1943 and referred to her mother's death in April 1944. The purpose of her call appeared to be to assure the Agent that she had been trying to cooperate with the FBI and she was afraid she had furnished previous information which might not be exactly correct as to the date. In her conversation she referred to the fact that she had run a kitchen for a FRANKIE DOLAN in Los Angeles, California, and had at one time gone from door to door selling magazines.

Mrs. GRANT apparently wanted to assure the FBI that she would be happy to cooperate in any way with the FBI. She was advised that if any information was desired from her she would be contacted.

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

The area of the 24th Ward, where subject RUBY is known to have frequented has been the subject of intensive saturation-type investigation, including interviews with all logical storekeepers, police officers, and others who might have known RUBY. It should be noted that this district, in 1946, was inhabited primarily by white Caucasians of the Jewish faith. At the present time, this district is now occupied, almost 100%, by Negro Americans. Because of this, the political leadership, business persons and police officers in the district have changed drastically since RUBY's residence in this area.

He stated that each salesman used various sale pitches, including giving away cups and saucers and a 50 cent rebate to the subscribers. He continued that they also would sell the same subscriber a different paper the preceding month as the salesmen themselves would switch from one newspaper to another and that during this time, they worked for all three San Francisco newspapers. JOHN BINTZ, counterman, New Lawndale Restaurant, 3714 West Roosevelt Road, advised that he has worked here for over 30 years starting in the year President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT was elected. During the 1930's, he knew JACK RUBY as a young man everyone called "Sparky", as a customer at the restaurant. He stated he knew "Sparky" only as a customer and recalls he entered military service in the early part of World War II, returning to Chicago for a short time following the war. He does not recall exactly when "Sparky" left Chicago following his return from the service or the reason why he left. It happened that he just did not see him in the restaurant anymore. He did not know "Sparky's" home address in Chicago but recalls he worked as a ticket scalper and "hustling" anything for money.

During Mr. BINTZ's acquaintance with "Sparky", he never knew him to have a violent temper or to cause trouble of any kind when in the restaurant. Mr. BINTZ concluded this was all the information he could furnish regarding "Sparky". He could furnish no information concerning any other members of RUBY's family or any connections he may have had in Dallas.

JIM CAIRNS, 5719 North Eighth Place, Phoenix, Arizona, no telephone, an employee of the Medical and Dental Finance Bureau, First Street and Willetta, Phoenix, furnished the following information:

CAIRNS advised that between 1942 and 1947 he was the operator of a juke box route in Chicago, Illinois for the Universal Automatic Music Company. He stated the latter concern was owned by a JOSEPH PESKIN. He stated this route extended from north of the Chicago River which would be approximately Grand Avenue to North Avenue and was between Michigan and Franklin Avenues. In this area there were many second-rate bars, strip-tease clubs and bookie joints. He stated among the establishments serviced by him on his route was the place known as McGovern's which it was his recollection was operated by a brother of the former prize fighter, TERRY McGOVERN. He stated McGovern's was a bar and bookmaking establishment that was frequented by gamblers and hoodlums.

He stated he generally arrived at this stop on his route between 2:00 and 3:00 PM; at which time, it was crowded with horseplayers who were either waiting the results of races run or placing bets on races to be run. He advised that among these horseplayers was an individual who he knew as JACK RUBENSTEIN. He stated his acquaintance with RUBENSTEIN was very casual, but he learned from either RUBENSTEIN or other patrons of McGovern's that RUBENSTEIN either had an interest in or was employed in some managerial capacity at a strip joint known as the French Casino located between Sixth and Seventh Streets on North Clark Street. He advised RUBENSTEIN was well known to others frequenting McGovern's and it was rumored that he was also a connection for narcotics traffic in the area.

He advised it was his recollection that he last saw RUBENSTEIN in about 1946 or 1947. He stated he cannot now recall whether RUBENSTEIN disappeared while he was still operating his route or whether the termination of his employment with Universal Automatic Music Company did away with the necessity for him to visit McGovern's and thus did not see RUBENSTEIN. He stated he left Chicago in 1948 and he has neither heard nor seen RUBENSTEIN since that time. He stated he had no knowledge of RUBENSTEIN leaving Chicago for Texas nor did he know of any connections that RUBENSTEIN might have in the latter state.

He stated he had thought nothing more of this individual in fact until viewing the November 25, 1963 issues of Phoenix newspapers which carried photographs of JACK RUBY as the killer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, murderer of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He stated that upon viewing these photographs, he felt in his own mind that RUBY was identical with the individual he knew in Chicago as JACK RUBENSTEIN. Additional newspaper photographs of RUBY were exhibited to CAIRNS and he advised he still was of the opinion that RUBY is identical with JACK RUBENSTEIN.

He stated he knew nothing of RUBENSTEIN's background other than the fact he frequented McGovern's. He stated he did not know where he lived, whether he was married or whether he had ever been arrested.

He stated that to the best of his recollection, RUBENSTEIN would be described as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	30 to 35 years (1946-47)
Height	5' 6-7"
Weight	180
Build	Chunky
Hair	Black (not receding)
Dress	Flashy

He stated photographs of RUBY contained in Phoenix newspapers revealed his hair to be receding to a much greater extent than it was his recollection of RUBENSTEIN.

CAIRNS stated he knew nothing of RUBENSTEIN's political philosophies, nor did he know him to be emotionally unstable. He stated his contacts with RUBENSTEIN were limited strictly to his appearances at McGovern's and the sole interest of all patrons on these occasions were the results of horse races being run on that particular day rathern than any political discussions.

IRA COLITZ, 1000 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois, Owner, folding chair concern, Green Bay Wisconsin, with offices in Furniture Mart Building, Chicago, furnished the following information:

JACK RUBY grew up in Halsted Street, Roosevelt Avenue area of Chicago and in 1930's moved to the Roosevelt, Kedzie, Independence Avenues section of Chicago along with other Jewish people from the former area. BARNEY ROSS was a prominent boxing figure in the area and COLITZ met RUBY there due to mutual friendship with ROSS. Due to ROSS' notoriety, he attracted a group of people with like interests in that these individuals gained a livelihood from various endeavors involving sales and promotion of a legitimate but somewhere "shady" nature. RUBY was no exception and was a promoter of various sales products. He could have been described as a "hustler" and interested in anything to make a "buck." He was also a "ticket scalper" and if he was ever arrested it was probably in connection with ticket scalping.

COLITZ knew RUBY from the early 1930's until 1946 when he last saw him. At that time, RUBY was in business with his brother, EARL, and was selling salt and pepper shakers. During the latter 1930's, this same crowd, who were all of the Jewish faith, but not necessarily staunch subscribers to same, congregated in the vicinity of the Sherman Hotel, Chicago.

RUBY never exhibited an interest in political matters; however, he was somewhat overbearing regarding the rights and feelings of others. He was greatly upset at slang language, phrases made about people's origins and was ready to fight or protect in some way the recipients of same. RUBY had a strong feeling regarding civil rights and was extremely proud of his country. Following his discharge from military service, he carried a chip on his shoulder, so to speak, in that if anyone spoke in a derogatory nature of the military service of the United States he immediately was ready to fight or receive apologies. He was not so strong, however, regarding his religious convictions.

RUBY could not agree with his brother in the operation of their business and this prompted him to leave Chicago in 1946 or shortly thereafter. He supposedly took over his sister's bar business in Texas. His sister whom he, COLITZ, had met, was strictly a businesswoman and unlike her brothers. COLITZ also knew RUBY's other brother, HY, who was employed by the city or state in an unknown capacity. He did not know RUBY's parents.

COLITZ is certain RUBY was never connected with the rackets or with hoodlum matters in Chicago. Due to various promotions in which RUBY was involved, it is possible that they could have been assumed as being somewhat shady but he, COLITZ, was involved in some capacity and only a living was obtained, which is unlike the financial success usually attributed to the rackets. He never knew RUBY to make other than a normal type living. Several years ago he heard that RUBY was still in the bar business in Dallas, Texas, and had not heard of him until the most recent publicity given him.

Their only mutual friend is (FNU) FEINGOLD, who operates a novelty shop on the northwest corner of State and Randolph Streets, Chicago. COLITZ has lost all contact with other common associates.

According to COLITZ, RUBY's killing of LEE OSWALD was unbelievable from his past knowledge of him. He could easily understand, however, the possible emotions felt by RUBY toward OSWALD and his desire to inflict pain on him but would never have believed he would resort to such drastic action.

ILL.

MAURICE KAHN, also known as Maury Cahn, 20 East Delaware, was reinterviewed, at which time KAHN advised he first met JACK RUBY, whom he knew as SPARKY RUBENSTEIN in about 1931. At that time, RUBY was employed as a clerk at a clothing or shoe store on West Roosevelt Road near Halsted Street in Chicago. He believed this store was operated by a LOUIE SCHNITZ.

In about 1932, RUBY's family moved to the vicinity of Independence Boulevard and Roosevelt Road in Chicago, which was in KAHN's neighborhood. He and a group of young men, all of high school age, frequented the Lawndale Restaurant located in the 3700 block of West Roosevelt Road. Included in this group were BARNEY ROSS, famous prize fighter, who now resides somewhere in New York City; IRA COLITZ, now a furniture manufacturer with offices in the Chicago Furniture Mart and Vice President of the Lake Shore Synagogue, Chicago; JOE and MORRIE KELLMAN, who now operate the Globe Glass Company in Chicago; JOHN MC DONALD, who later became a bookmaker and is now deceased; SOLLIE SHULMAN, a prize fighter who is now deceased, and FRENCHY and DON MEDLEVINE. FRENCHY MEDLEVINE was operating a saloon in Los Angeles, California, since moving there some years ago and DON MEDLEVINE is now operating the new Chez Paris Night Club in Chicago.

Between the years 1931 and 1939, various members of this group went to the prize fights almost every Monday night at the Marigold Gardens, Grace and Broadways Streets, in Chicago. Prize fights have not been held there for some years. A HAROLD RYAN was the Chief Inspector for the Illinois Boxing Commission at that time and became well acquainted with the group.

He believed that RUBY attended Marshall High School in Chicago; however, he did not recall seeing him there during the time he was in attendance. During the time he was well acquainted with RUBY, which was up until 1939, RUBY was employed by the clothing store previously described for a short period of time, and like the rest of the group, later "hustled" to make a living. This included such activities as scalping football tickets in South Bend, Indiana, and Chicago, selling carnations and other flowers at night clubs and on the streets of Chicago's Loop, selling song sheets for 5¢ a piece at factories and in The Loop, and any other type of job that was available. He never knew of any other employments RUBY might have had.

A favorite haunt of the group was the lobby of the Sherman Hotel in Chicago during the latter 1930's.

In 1939, KAHN was married and RUBY was invited and was in attendance at the wedding. After his marriage, KAHN moved to 6930 South Lake Shore Drive in Chicago. He saw RUBY only a few times after that, possibly either at the Sherman Hotel Lobby or at the Clover Lounge in Chicago operated by IRA COLITZ.

The last time he saw RUBY was five or six years ago in Chicago. He could not recall whether this was at the Clover Lounge or in the lobby of the Sherman Hotel. RUBY told him at this time that he was living in the southwest and possibly gave him his business card, which he is certain he no longer has. He had heard prior to that time that sometime after 1946 when RUBY was discharged from military service he had left Chicago to operate a saloon somewhere in Texas for his sister. He could recall nothing further concerning RUBY's activities since his departure from Chicago.

During 1939, he vaguely recalled that RUBY may have dated his former wife's cousin a few times and possibly double-dated with him. He could not be sure of this and he would have no way of verifying it, since he is no longer in contact with his ex-wife or her family.

He never personally knew of RUBY living anywhere but in Chicago. He has never heard of any mention of RUBY living in Chicago Heights or any other Chicago suburb. He never met any member of RUBY's family and could not recall any woman RUBY was romantically involved with.

As concerns the character of RUBY, he recalled him as being an extremely quiet individual, who avoided arguments and clashes of any kind. He, therefore, had no idea of how RUBY picked up a nickname of "SPARKY." RUBY was emotional to the extent that when discussing his readings of sports events or current issues he would take them very seriously. He would earnestly discuss these matters with his acquaintances and would often inquire as to their feelings or attitudes on the subjects discussed. He was not the least bit vicious and he is the last person he would suspect of committing murder. He never carries a gun to his knowledge. RUBY almost always had a big smile on his face and was always immaculate in appearance.

He never knew of RUBY being arrested and if he had been it would probably be for scalping tickets or peddling without a license. He doubted records would be kept of these arrests, as when such arrests were made, the men would usually be brought to the police station and released shortly thereafter.

RUBY never gambled to his knowledge, drank very little, did not smoke, and if he had any vices it was women. At that time he knew RUBY was anti-communist and he believed he may have been one of the members of his group who broke up what was thought to be a communist meeting in his neighborhood during the late 1930's.

He could recall nothing further at this time concerning RUBY, his associates, or activities.

KAHN advised he is the editor of a weekly news publication containing information relative to events of the week for the convenience of Chicagoans and visitors, called "Night Life in Chicago."

From a review of this publication, it appears that ads are solicited and published from various night clubs, restaurants and "strip tease clubs" in the Chicago area. KAHN stated he has numerous friends and contacts among Chicago saloon keepers, liquor store owners and night club owners, and public officials.

MICHAEL LEVIN, Attorney, 30 North LaSalle, Suite 614, advised that he has known the RUBENSTEIN family, also known as, RUBY, since 1919. Due to the age factor, he was closer to EARL RUBY, SAM RUBY and HYMAN RUBY than he was to JACK or the sisters, however, feels that he knows JACK RUBY well.

LEVIN and RUBENSTEIN family grew up on "East side of Chicago", which he said was generally the Roosevelt and Maxwell Street and Halsted areas. As youngsters, the boys, including JACK RUBY, engaged in street brawls and were members of gangs, however, JACK RUBY was not prone to pick fights or go out of his way to find trouble. Conversely as a youngster and even more so as he matured, JACK RUBY was more inclined to make friends.

During the years RUBY was in Chicago, he was employed by his brother, EARL RUBY, as a salesman for a while and was characterized as a "promoter" pushing whatever he could find to make money with. LEVIN characterized RUBY's personality as friendly, volatile, and industrious.

EARL RUBY was characterized as the most intelligent member of the family and LEVIN indicated that the other members of the family including JACK RUBY, appeared to be mentally slow, but not retarded or necessarily deficient.

Concerning the political feelings of JACK RUBY, LEVIN stated that he was not strongly inclined toward either Democrats or Republicans, Socialists or Communists, but due to the circumstances and environment of the 24th ward wherein he was raised, JACK RUBY was probably a Democrat.

LEVIN stated that neither JACK RUBY nor any member of his family have, to his knowledge, been affiliated with any party or organization which would be deemed subversive. It was his opinion that the family was not of sufficient intelligence or interest to be politically involved.

LEVIN said JACK RUBY was not connected with any "hoodlum" element nor did he owe allegiance or ties to any known "hoodlums". He flatly stated that RUBY was not "run out of town", but left some 16 years ago of his own accord for Dallas, Texas. He could not explain why he selected Dallas, but stated that after JACK RUBY went to Dallas other members specifically EVA and SAM RUBENSTEIN followed JACK RUBY into the Dallas, Texas area.

LEVIN stated that the family life afforded the RUBENSTEIN children obviously left much to be desired indicating that the mother was not particularly bright and the father drank heavily. He stated that prior to the mother's death, she became senile.

LEVIN stated that he is completely unaware of any evidence of insanity or mental illness in connection with any members of this family and has no knowledge of anyone being treated by or admitted to a hospital by a psychiatrist. He has no knowledge or information other than newspaper accounts concerning an injury to JACK RUBY's head.

LEVIN said that his opinion of JACK RUBY would be to sum his personality up into a statement of "desire for recognition" elaborating further that RUBY had always attempted to seek recognition, but until such time as he became affiliated with the entertainment field, he has never achieved the recognition he wanted. Apparently after his moving to Dallas, he found the recognition so vital to his personality and that this could have been a motivating factor for the action which RUBY tood toward OSWALD. In his opinion, RUBY acted on impulse and without meditation or malice aforethought. LEVIN stated that he felt RUBY would pursue the line of defense claiming temporary insanity and that in LEVIN's honest opinion, he feels this may well have been the case.

DAVID ELATKIN, Olympic Hotel, 230 Eddy Street, former fight manager, advised he knew RUBY in Chicago in the late 1920's and early 1930's as JACK RUBENSTEIN. RUBY did odd jobs to make a buck. He does not know why he left Chicago. He advised he last saw him in Cuba in 1959, when both met there accidentally while on a five-day vacation tour. ELATKIN stayed at the Capri Hotel. RUBY invited ELATKIN to Dallas and he went there in 1960 and visited the Commerce Club and the Vegas Club. He states RUBY is 100 per cent American and liked by everyone. RUBY became emotionally upset on occasions when conversations would become sympathetic, such as regarding poor people or the like. ELATKIN saw RUBY's sister EVA in Los Angeles in 1960. Telephone number HA 7-3172 is listed to Mar-Din Company, 404 South Wells Street, Chicago, according to a Public Service Telephone Operator.

On November 29, 1963, HENRY KENTER, President and Treasurer, Mar-Din Company, home address 1428 Madison Street, Evanston, Illinois, was interview and stated that he has headed the firm for the last 25 years and the firm was incorporated in 1956. Mr. SIDNEY KOLLER, 1900 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, is the Vice President and Secretary. The firm is engaged in the business of selling promotional items, executives/ gifts, dealer loading items, safety awards and incentive gifts. Up until about five years ago, his firm did business with Earl Products Company, which was orginally operated by EARL, SAM, and JACK RUBY. A sister was also connected with the firm, but he did not know her name. As he recalled, the first business he had with Earl Products Company was concerning the sale of Aluminum salt and pepper shakers, which was probably about twenty years ago. He recalled meeting JACK RUBY on only one occasion about that time, however, knew nothing concerning his personal life or the personal lives of other members of the RUBY family. As he recalled, JACK RUBY sold his share of the business about 18 years ago and moved to Dallas, Texas, however, he did not know the reason behind his leaving Chicago. He believed that EARL RUBY sold the business about five years ago and he has had no contact with him since that time.

Sometime between November 1, and November 5, 1963, a telephone call was received from JACK RUBY at his place of business, however, he was out to lunch at the time and did not speak with RUBY. On about the fifth of November, he spoke with RUBY over the phone from Dallas, and JACK RUBY advised him that EARL RUBY had told him to call Mar-Din Company as concerns the sale of a twist waist exerciser. RUBY was very enthusiastic about this item and he understood RUBY to be the sales agent for it. When he learned of the price RUBY was asking for the item, he told him that he would not be interested. At a later date, RUBY mailed a twist waist exerciser and promotional material bearing the name Earl Products Company, Post Office Box 5475, Dallas, Texas. He believed that he called RUBY after RUBY had attempted to call him in Chicago, and this therefore, would have been the first conversation he had had with JACK RUBY in the last 17 or 18 years. The New York Office has advised as follows:

BARNEY ROSS, former prize fighter, New York City, on November 25, 1963, advised as follows:

He has known RUBY as "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN since about 1927, as ROSS and RUBY grew up in the same area of the 24th Ward, Chicago, Illinois. RUBY used to hang around Lawndale Restaurant in Chicago, which ROSS frequented. RUBY also was usually present when ROSS boxed as an amateur and later as a professional fighter. RUBY was never on ROSS' payroll and never borrowed money from ROSS. RUBY did not have any employment, but acted as a free-lance salesman selling small items of jewelry. RUBY has telephonically contacted ROSS several times a year over the past ten or twelve years from Dallas, Texas. The purpose of these calls was attempts made by RUBY to secure talent for RUBY's club in Dallas, as ROSS is associated with a talent agency in New York City. ROSS last heard from RUBY telephonically about three months ago. ROSS never did secure any talent for RUBY.

ROSS last met RUBY accidentally about two years ago in Chicago. ROSS described RUBY as well-behaved, quiet, an individual who was never a troublemaker, and who was never involved with any law enforcement agency, and never involved in any subversive activities.

Investigation by the New York Office reflects JACK RUBY, giving address 223 South Ewing, and Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, checked into the New York Hilton Hotel, 10:59 PM, August 4, 1963, and departed 4:40 PM, August 6, 1963. RUBY told registration clerk he was in New York City to look for "talent" for his club in Dallas. Interview of other hotel employees concerning the purpose of RUBY's visit to New York City was negative.

While at the hotel, RUBY made the following long distance telephone calls:

Los Angeles, Area Code 213, 5230930, 8/4/63;
Two calls to Area Code 213, 2740043, 8/4/63 & 8/5/63;

JACK KEISTER KELLEY, BORN APR 30 1909, age 54, operator of the King Kurl Drive-In Restaurant, 2020 Court Street, advised that he was the individual who had been contacted by newspaper reporters yesterday, and had indicated that he had known JACK RUBY several years ago. He stated he knew RUBY primarily in Chicago. He stated that the information he furnished the newspaper reporter was substantially the truth as it appeared in the press.

It was noted that he had indicated to the press that he was a former entertainer and night club master of ceremonies and an ex-comic in Chicago, that he had known RUBY in 1944 and had scoffed at the idea of a patriotic motive being involved by RUBY in the slaying of OSWALD. He reportedly stated that he "could not see RUBY as pushing a thing through like this out of patriotism. That he might do it for publicity or might do it for money."

JACK KEISTER KELLEY advised that he had been a club comic and entertainer and master of ceremonies in night clubs and taverns in Chicago for most of the years of the 1940's and that he has been employed in various night spots, actually throughout the Nation, for short engagements of a week or two, and that he has used the stage name of "M. T. HEAD."

He related that he is actually only a casual acquaintance of RUBY, that RUBY first came to his attention in Chicago about 1943. He stated he first knew JACK RUBY as JACK RUBENSTEIN and that he believed that RUBENSTEIN had legally had his name changed to RUBY, and believed that one or two of his brothers and sisters had done likewise. He recalled that he first knew of RUBY, who was subsequently to be referred to as "SPARKY" RUBY when he was playing as an entertainer in the Famous Door, Broadway and Diversey Streets in Chicago. He stated that "SPARKY" RUBY was employed there as a bouncer. He stated the Chicago Famous Door was owned by PAT MC CLAREN. He stated he heard a year or two ago that Mr. MC CLAREN had suffered a heart attack and may now be deceased. He related that Mr. PAT MC CLAREN apparently owns several night spots and could not have them all actually in his own name, under various state or Federal laws, and that he recalled the Famous Door, at the time he was there, was managed by SAMMY HAAS, whom KELLEY now believes to be deceased. During the time he first knew of "SPARKY" RUBY at the Famous Door, KELLEY related that he noticed that at times, RUBY was seen by him to be wearing a hearing aid. At times, he was not wearing the hearing aid, but seemed to hear alright without it. KELLEY stated that at the time he did not know RUBY well, but inquired of persons who apparently had prior knowledge of RUBY, as to RUBY's wearing the hearing aid, and he received replies to the effect that RUBY's hearing was not impaired but that RUBY was evading service in World War II or the draft.

KELLEY related he next knew of RUBY at the Club Aloha, on West Madison in Chicago, beyond Western, in 1944 or 1955. This club was operated by JOHNNY MEROLA. KELLEY was not sure if RUBY was employed there or just hung out there.

KELLEY next recalls seeing RUBY about 1945 or 1946 in the Gaiety Club, on northwest side of Chicago near the elevated tracks, where RUBY was selling combination gambling tickets on a horse race, the race being referred to as the "Stars and Stripes Race" at a local Chicago track. KELLEY could not recall the name of the owner or the manager of the Gaiety Club at that time.

About 1946, KELLEY stated he next knew of RUBY in the Argyle Lounge. He stated that this was a Mr. EPSTIN's place, and was located under the elevated tracks in Chicago, where RUBY was either hanging out or was possibly employed as a bouncer. Mr. KELLEY related that EPSTIN was shot in his place about four or five years ago and he believed that he was shot dead at the time or died as a result of the shooting.

KELLEY related that he next knew of "SPARKY" RUBY about 1948, when he (KELLEY) was engaged to act as master of ceremonies by a man from Hammond, Indiana, who had previously owned or did own at the time, the Zig-Zag Tavern in Calumet City, Illinois. KELLEY stated this man, whose name he cannot now recall, bought a small night club in Calumet Heights, Illinois, and engaged KELLEY to act as master of ceremonies. Mr. KELLEY recalled that this club was closed in ten weeks because it was losing money, but that during two weeks of this ten weeks, RUBY was employed there as the bouncer.

KELLEY related that he had not seen or heard of RUBY since 1948, until about 1958 or 1959. KELLEY related that he was seeking employment and was looking up "show people" in Los Angeles, Las Vegas and other points, and happened to run into RUBY in Dallas, Texas.

KELLEY related that he was not only seeking employment by visiting various cities and stopping in at taverns and small night clubs having entertainers, but was also stopping by these places to merely say hello to the "show people" and hoping that he might run into someone he knew. He stated it was by this activity on his part that he accidentally entered the Carousel Club in Dallas, and happened to run into "SPARKY" RUBY again. KELLEY related he did not know that RUBY was in Dallas, Texas, that he visited with him for a few minutes and drew the conclusion at the time that RUBY was either the owner or manager of this club.

KELLEY recalls that "SPARKY" RUBY was a rather quiet man, that he had no particular male associates or friends. He stated, however, that he was always interested in girls and that he almost always had a girlfriend with him but had never went steady with any one girl. He stated these girls were always of the caliber found in small night clubs, acting as entertainers or hostesses in these type places. KELLEY stated that since he had heard of the assault on OSWALD, that this had been the first he had heard of RUBY since he had seen him in Dallas about 1958 or 1959.

KELLEY stated that he would actually know of no person in Chicago or elsewhere who would be considered to be a friend or associate of RUBY and that he certainly has no information regarding the recent activities or associations of RUBY.

KELLEY related that he certainly could never consider RUBY as being a person overly patriotic and that he would base this opinion on what he had learned about RUBY back in 1943 and 1944 when he drew the conclusion that apparently RUBY was a draft dodger. KELLEY stated that neither could he consider RUBY to possess any un-American sympathies. He stated he did not believe that RUBY was at all interested in politics of any kind and certainly that he had not displayed any un-American sympathies in any way at the times he had known him.

KELLEY related that he does not believe that RUBY would therefore kill OSWALD out of sheer patriotism, but stated that he might do it for publicity or that he might do it for money or might do this due to his temper when overly excited.

KELLEY stated that RUBY was usually a quiet man, that in acting as a floor-walker or bouncer in the night clubs, he was usually quiet and easy to get along with, but that when RUBY lost his temper, he would do things that he might not ordinarily do if he could control his temper. KELLEY related that apparently it is due to his hot temper that he gained the nickname of "SPARKY" RUBY.

Mr. KELLEY stated that he has, himself, spent considerable time in small Chicago night spots, and has been in Peoria, Illinois, on several occasions, working as an entertainer. He stated he had never heard of RUBY in Peoria; however, he recalled on one occasion, and he was not able to recall the exact night club, that while he was entertaining, he believed that he had noted this man, RUBY, to appear in the audience with what appeared to be a show girl, that he noted the man momentarily and thought it was RUBY, and after he had finished his performance, he was seeking out RUBY in the audience but did not locate him. Mr. KELLEY related that apparently, RUBY was merely passing through Peoria, and insofar as he can ascertain, RUBY would not be known to anyone that he could think of in Peoria, as he had never known RUBY to be in Peoria, other than possibly just passing through.

Mr. KELLEY related that these particular clubs in the Chicago, Illinois, area where he had known of RUBY to either hang out or to be employed occasionally as a bouncer, were, to the best of his knowledge, clubs that were independently owned and were not in any way that he knew of, connected with any of the alleged organized crime outfits or syndicates in Chicago. KELLEY related, therefore, that he would consider that RUBY had no connection with any organized crime in the Chicago area. He stated, of course, he would be unable to relate what his associations have actually been over the years, as he did not know him well, other than as a casual acquaintance and certainly would not know of his associations in Dallas, Texas.

On November 26, 1963, PHIL UDELL, also known as "FIEFEL", owner of Lakewood Iron and Metal Company, 1305 West Belmont, advised he had known "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN for approximately thirty-years. UDELL described RUBY as a clean-cut individual who did possess a hot temper andwas good with his fists but who was, however, 100 per cent patriotic. UDELL stated RUBY was a ticket scalper and all around "hustler" who was not, however, connected with organized crime or the "syndicate" in Chicago. UDELL recalled RUBY was partner of HARRY EPSTEIN in a punch board business. TEMS

UDELL admits knowing LENNIE PATRICK, West Side hoodlum and stated RUBENSTEIN also knew PATRICK, claimed, however, neither worked for PATRICK. He recalled RUBY obtained a job with Scrap Metal Union from a man who was later killed and replaced by PAUL DORFMAN. UDELL recalled during approximately 1940, he and RUBY and others were en route to a boxing match at White City, Illinois, when they approached a small Nazi bund rally consisting of uniformed bund members. UDELL recalled this irritated the group and they broke up the meeting.

UDELL concluded by describing RUBY as a sports fan, a lady's man, who enjoyed dancing and a clean living individual who neither dranknor smoked. He stated he was shocked over the murder of OSWALD by RUBY and stated it was his opinion that RUBY was simply overwhelmed with sorrow at the President's death and inasmuch as he had easy access to the Dallas Police Department, he committed an act which "a lot of us would have liked to have done".

Telephone number NE 1-1489 is registered to DEWEY ASTON, 7708 West North Shore, according to a Public Service Telephone Operator.

CHERYL ASTON, 7708 West North Shore, advised that between June, 1963 and the end of August, she was a waitress at Henrici's Restaurant, Mannheim and Higgins Roads, Rosemont, Illinois, (near O'Hare International Airport). Late in July or early in August, she served a table of six, including three men and three women, one evening and later in the evening after they had left, she was called to the telephone at the restaurant. The individual on the line was JACK RUBY, who was calling from O'Hare Airport and who stated that he was in the party of six whom she had served and he was struck by her beauty and her resemblence to ELIZABETH TAYLOR. He said that he was the owner of the Carousel and the Vegas Clubs in Dallas, Texas, and did not have time to talk to her at this time, but would call her again. He then hung up.

She stated she thought it was just another "nut" who was trying to date her. The next day at home, however, she received a long distance call from RUBY in Dallas, and on this occasion, he again stated that he thought she resembled ELIZABETH TAYLOR and told her that he had film connections and could get her a screen test if she desired. She declined and stated that she was only working to obtain money to go to college and was not interested in any offer he might make. She told him she is 18 years old, was determined to go to college and told him definitely that she was not interested in coming to Dallas. He explained the nature of his night clubs and told her that she was too nice a girl to work as a waitress and he would certainly not want her to work in one of his clubs, and that he was sincerely interested in helping her out, even to financing her education. She again told him she was not interested and discontinued the conversation.

She stated that subsequently, he called once or twice and on one occasion she was not home and he left a message. She called the Carousel Club in Dallas, obtaining the number through information, talked to RUBY and told him she was not interested in anything he had to offer and would appreciate him not bothering her or her family as she was going away to school. She stated she has had no further contact with RUBY since that last phone call, which was probably in the first week of September.

CHERYL ASTON stated that her opinion of RUBY was that he was "giving her a line" and yet he seemed to be interested in a more fatherly way because he was not at all suggestive in his conversations and had he been, she would have immediately hung up on his telephone calls. She also stated that she did not know how he had obtained her last name and home telephone number, but recalled that after getting the call at home the next day, she asked the night manager of Henrici's, Mr. PAUL STRAND, who is a part time manager and part time college student at the University of Illinois, about RUBY. He stated he knew nothing about him and he might have called and obtained her last name and/or telephone number from the switchboard operator. CHERYL believed that might be the case and did not check further.

She stated that during their conversation there was no mention of politics or anything connected with politics, but does recall that he bragged a lot about Dallas and when talking about having film connections, mentioned MIKE TODD in a manner which would lead one to believe that he knew MIKE TODD, although he never said that directly. She stated that this week after learning that OSWALD had been shot by one JACK RUBY, the owner of the Carousel Club, she knew that it was the individual who had called her and thereafter looked at his picture in the paper and vaguely recognized who he was. She stated that her only thought about his personality was that he was very personable and friendly and seemed a happy type indivudual. CHERYL advised that she is presently attending Clark College in Dubuque, Iowa, and is home for the holidays.

Mr. IRWIN BERKE, 5807 Alcove, advised that he is the owner of Irwin Berke's Charcoal Broiler Restaurant, 5338 Laurel Canyon Boulevard, North Hollywood and that his home telephone number is PO 6-2952 and his business telephone number is 769-9280.

Mr. BERKE advised that he is originally from Chicago, Illinois and that in 1936 he began the occupation of song plugger in Chicago. He advised that he worked for Shapiro-Bernstein Music Publishers, 54 West Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois. He stated that in this connection he has a vague recollection of some association with an individual by the name of JACK RUBY, whose true name could be JACK RUBINSTEIN.

Mr. BERKE advised that he could not recall what this man looked like, but believes he was possibly associated with JACK HOWARD. Mr. BERKE explained that JACK HOWARD was also a song plugger and also had an office in the 54 West Randolph Street Building. He stated that he does not know where JACK HOWARD would be at the present time, but does know that in about 1945 JACK HOWARD had a music store in the Loop End Building, next to the Chicago Theater Building on State Street. Mr. BERKE stated that this business in no longer in existence. BERKE further stated that HOWARD had a brother, whose name he cannot recall, and who he believes was connected with the hoodlum element in Chicago. This brother was also associated with JACK HOWARD as a song plugger. Mr. BERKE stated that he believes the JACK RUBINSTEIN that he has reference to was connected with the HOWARD brothers.

BERKE advised that he has seen pictures of JACK RUBY from Dallas, Texas on both the television screen and newspapers and does not recall him as anyone whom he knew in Chicago. He advised that possibly if he saw a picture of JACK RUBY taken during the 1930's or 1940's he would be able to state definitely whether he had had any contacts with this man or if he was the JACK RUBINSTEIN whom he connects with the HOWARD brothers.

Mr. BERKE advised that he married his wife, ROSYLIN, in Chicago, Illinois in 1939. About one year after their marriage, Mrs. BERKE's parents, Mr. and Mrs. SAM JAFFE moved from Chicago, Illinois to Muncie, Indiana. Mr. JAFFE went to work for his nephew, LAWSON JAFFE, who owned a jewelry store in Muncie, Indiana. LAWSON JAFFE owned both the jewelry store and the building in which the jewelry store was located. After World War II, LAWSON JAFFE sold the jewelry store and SAM JAFFE opened up a small jewelry store on the second floor of the same building. He further advised that SAM JAFFE also managed this building and collected the rent for LAWSON JAFFE after LAWSON JAFFE sold the jewelry store business.

Mr. BERKE advised that he and his wife, during the 1940's prior to his entry into military service in about 1944 and for several years after his discharge, during the period approximately 1946 and 1947, did travel on numerous occasions from Chicago, Illinois to Muncie, Indiana to visit Mrs. BERKE's parents. He advised that on none of these occasions was he ever accompanied by a JACK RUBINSTEIN or JACK RUBY. He stated that he has never traveled from Chicago, Illinois to Muncie, Indiana with such a person.

Mr. BERKE did advise that there was some type of hall on the third floor of the building owned by LAWSON JAFFE and that this was a rather "miserable place". He stated that he knows of no meetings held in this hall that he ever attended or that LAWSON or SAM JAFFE attended.

Mr. BERKE advised that the names PHILLIP JASSER, MORTON STANDT and HERBERT and MORTON PAZOL are familiar to him as business associates of SAM and LAWSON JAFFE in Muncie, Indiana. He advised that he is not aware of any Communist Party activities on the part of any of these people or any communist type meetings ever attended by any of these people.

Mr. BERKE suggested the name of MARTY BRIN, who he believes is presently a salesman for a beer company in Chicago, as a person who knew many of the people in and around Randolph Street, Chicago, Illinois during the late 1930's and early 1940's. He advised that BRIN during that period operated a tavern on the main floor of the 54 West Randolph Street Building.

He stated he has not seen RUBY since that time and refused to comment further, stating that he does not know anything and does not want to "get involved". BAER tried to reach his attorney before talking with Agents, with negative results, and became incensed to think that the FBI would come to him concerning RUBY.

He could not associate RUBY with any political group and did not believe he had ever heard him mention national or world affairs. He stated that he did recall that RUBY was an admirer of police officers and employed several in his club primarily as "bouncers."

Mrs. BARBARA MESSINA, 2605 Forsythe Avenue, Monroe, Louisiana, furnished the following information:

TEXAS

Mrs. MESSINA has resided at Monroe, Louisiana all of her adult life, she is married to JOE M. MESSINA, JR., a local man, and has four children by him. In the period from prior to November, 1962 to July, 1963, she was separated from her husband. She was living part of this time at 2213 Diane Street, Monroe, Louisiana, telephone number FA 5-7464.

In November, 1962, BARBARA MESSINA visited a cousin WYLIE ERDWURM and his wife, BARBARA in Richardson, Texas near Dallas. ERDWURM works as a physicist for a company in Dallas, possibly with the name Collins in the name of the company. When visiting ERDWURM about November, 1962, BARBARA MESSINA and Mr. and Mrs. ERDWURM went out one evening and happened to go to the Carousel Club operated by JACK RUBY who prior to that time was unknown to them.

RUBY apparently developed an immediate romantic interest in BARBARA MESSINA, and he treated her and Mr. and Mrs. ERDWURM to an evening of entertainment at the Club free. BARBARA MESSINA and RUBY talked a great deal. She told him about her four children and about her separation from her husband. She also told him she was interested in finding employment of a clerical nature. She gave him her telephone number FA 5-7464 in Monroe. He introduced her and Mr. and Mrs. ERDWURM, to various persons at the Club, and he urged her to return to the Club and bring her friends. She returned to Monroe without further association with RUBY and he telephoned her and had a long conversation of a general nature, shortly after her return to Monroe in 11/62.

BARBARA MESSINA and a cousin, ANDY BLOOMER, and his wife, then visited ERDWURM in Richardson, Texas for a weekend around the last of November, 1962. BLOOMER is a fireman of the Monroe, Louisiana Fire Department. Mr. and Mrs. BLOOMER, Mr. and Mrs. ERDWURM and BARBARA MESSINA visited the Carousel Club and everything was provided free by RUBY who took them to breakfast at Ramona's Pancake House, after the Club closed. A man about 60 or 70 years of age, with a white Cadillac, driven by RUBY and also "MICKEY", who claimed to be from Hollywood, California and his date, accompanied them to breakfast, but Mr. and Mrs. ERDWURM went home.

BARBARA MESSINA then returned to Monroe, Louisiana after that weekend with no further association with RUBY until on some later trip Mr. and Mrs. ERDWURM and BARBARA MESSINA and her date, ROY HOLLOWAY went to the Carousel Club, and again everything for them was provided free by RUBY. HOLLOWAY resented this attention to BARBARA MESSINA by RUBY. HOLLOWAY resides in Dallas, but he is not known to have had any other contacts with RUBY.

In July, 1963, BARBARA MESSINA again visited WYLIE ERDWURM, and she was accompanied by her aunt, Mr. B. B. ERDWURM, who is WYLIE ERDWURM's mother. All of them went to the Carousel Club and again RUBY provided everything free. RUBY was always busy running the club but he had different club personalities including EARL NORMAN visit their table, and he was most attentive to BARBARA MESSINA. After the club closed, they went to RUBY's apartment. Those going to the apartment included RUBY, EARL NORMAN, who recently appeared on a television program and made comments about RUBY, Mr. and Mrs. ERDWURM, and his mother and BARBARA MESSINA.

RUBY mentioned a doctor who was on a trip to Europe who had a dog that he had left with RUBY and he thought this doctor might be of assistance in getting BARBARA MESSINA a job. She gave RUBY her grandfather's telephone number FA 2-7654, Monroe, Louisiana, as the number through which she could be contacted. RUBY seemed a little odd and he had a poem entitled "This is My Beloved", or a similar title, and he had different ones reading aloud from the poem which dealt with a man on a desolate island and his detail thoughts on an imaginary woman who was his "beloved".

BARBARA MESSINA returned to Monroe, Louisiana after that week end in July, 1963 and she had no further contacts with RUBY, who telephoned her grandfather a short time afterwards with a message about a possible job for her.

She had resumed living with her husband and she never returned RUBY's telephone call.

BARBARA MESSINA observed that RUBY appeared to have an unusual number of nice looking young men among his associates; he never talked politics but confined his remarks to comments about operation of his club and his personal interest in BARBARA MESSINA. He mentioned his sister in Dallas and said he would like BARBARA MESSINA to meet her, but she never did. BARBARA MESSINA feels that RUBY developed a romantic interest in her from their first meeting, as exhibited by his attention to her and the free entertainment provided for her and her friends, but their association was limited to that indicated above. She never saw OSWLAD to her knowledge, and she does not feel that her knowledge of and association with RUBY could provide any information pertinent to his shooting OSWALD.

BARBARA MESSINA does not recall seeing any police officers at RUBY's Club and does not recall his ever mentioning the police. She stated that her association with RUBY was so limited that she could not form an opinion as to his basic personality traits, except that he appeared to be friendly and generous.

Mr. LACY C. BROOKS, Manager, Ramada Inn, Midland, Texas, advised as follows:

He was acquainted with JACK RUBY and met RUBY during the time that he, BROOKS, was the Food Manager at the Holiday Inn Central in Dallas, Texas, which was in about December, 1961. BROOKS probably did not see RUBY more than four times during 1962. On such occasions, RUBY had been hired to furnish entertainment for parties at the Holiday Inn Central, Dallas, and contacted BROOKS to advise him of this. At the time the strip tease girls arrived at the Inn, BROOKS advised them the room in which the party was to be held and the room they were to use as a dressing room. BROOKS did not make arrangements for the entertainment with RUBY, this being done by the persons sponsoring the party.

BROOKS had no business dealings with RUBY, knew nothing concerning RUBY's past or present activities other than knowing that RUBY was a well known night club operator in Dallas. BROOKS knew nothing regarding the political beliefs of RUBY and knew of no political connections of RUBY. BROOKS had no knowledge of any connection between RUBY and OSWALD.

BROOKS said RUBY had the reputation of knowing more policemen on the Dallas Police Department by their first names than did the Mayor of Dallas, this being purely hearsay as far as BROOKS was concerned. RUBY was generally known as a "good Joe".

Inasmuch as RUBY was such a well known character in Dallas, BROOKS wondered why Dallas police let a night club operator of the reputation of RUBY in the area where they were moving a person who had killed the President of the United States.

To the best of BROOK's recollection, he had approximately four contacts with RUBY during 1961 and 1962, this being his only association with RUBY.

JACK R. CHANEY advised that he is the manager of the El Antonio Motor Hotel, San Antonio, Texas, and has been in this position since February, 1963. He stated that from October, 1955, to April, 1957, he was the administrative assistant to the general manager of the Statler Hilton Hotel in Dallas. From April, 1957, to November, 1960, he was manager and had a part interest in the Lido Motor Hotel, Dallas, Texas. From November, 1960, to January 5, 1962, he was employed as sales manager of the Holiday Inn, Dallas, and from this employment he went to Houston where he was Food and Beverage Manager for the Continental Houston Hotel from April, 1962, to February, 1963.

He stated that it is possible that he has met JACK RUBY while working in Dallas but he cannot recall any such meeting. He based this on the fact that he is connected with many people who are in the entertainment field. He advised that he has done a great deal of promoting work for the various motels that he has worked for and in view of this it is possible that RUBY could have called him while he was employed with the Continental Houston Hotel. By the same token he said that just because a call came to CA 5-1781, it does not necessarily mean it was for him as numerous people had access to that telephone.

CHANEY said that he has been in the Vegas Club, Dallas, Texas, on several occasions and in his opinion it is operated to the letter of the law. He said that he knows that they close promptly at curfew.

The following was obtained through observation and interview:

WALTER C. CLEWIS, Manager, Municipal Auditorium, Mobile, Alabama, advised that he had met JACK RUBY in Dallas and had known him over a period of several years. CLEWIS stated that RUBY had a partner, name not recalled, who was in partnership with RUBY in The Carousel and booked rock and roll shows throughout Texas. CLEWIS stated that in his business as Manager of the Municipal Coliseum Auditorium, San Angelo, Texas, he knew the partner of RUBY first, and was subsequently introduced to RUDY at The Carousel. CLEWIS stated it was his opinion on the basis of information he had obtained from unrecalled sources, that RUBY booked striptease shows for smokers through the State of Texas.

CLEWIS stated that although he had tried, he had been unable to recall the name of the individual who contacted him and identified himself as RUBY's partner, but he is sure that the name appears in the files of the Municipal Coliseum Auditorium at San Angelo, Texas as they had much correspondence with this individual since the individual wrote them a check which bounced.

CLEWIS stated that he did not personally like RUBY as RUBY always attempted to be the big shot and boasted not only to him but to other people in his presence that he could do anything he wanted in Dallas as he had enough information on the Police Department and judges that he could not be convicted.

CLEWIS stated that while in San Angelo, Texas, he had a secretary named JEAN PIERCE, nee OLSON, who resided with her parents, the C. H. OLSONS, 121 Howard Street. He stated this secretary did not have a particularly good reputation as she was alleged to have dated Negroes in addition to numerous individuals. CLEWIS stated that in October, 1961, he fired his secretary and then permitted her to resign. She then, through the above mentioned unrecalled partner of RUBY, obtained a position working for RUBY at one of his clubs in Dallas. He stated he subsequently met JEAN PIERCE and she advised that she did not stay long in her position as there was something "funny" about the place and that she was dissatisfied with the costume

BOB K CRAVEN

ROBERT CRAVEN, residence 2977 Santa Ana Street, South Gate, California, telephone 585-4217, business address Craven Contracting Company, 407 East Pico Street, Los Angeles, California, telephone 747-5866, telephonically furnished what he knew about JACK RUBY of Dallas, Texas, as follows:

In September and October, 1963, CRAVEN and others produced a show called "How Hollywood Makes Movies" and put the show on at the Dallas State Fair, Dallas, Texas, from October 5, 1963, to October 15, 1963. The show first arrived in Dallas on Sunday, September 29, 1963, with a company of eight individuals.

Inasmuch as CRAVEN had met JACK RUBY about the year previous in November, 1962, he called upon RUBY to assist him in obtaining props and other things needed for the show. RUBY was very helpful and loaned CRAVEN's show a few props, such as a mirror and a fan, and told him where certain materials could be purchased and even furnished a few of the girls from RUBY's club, the Carousel, to participate in CRAVEN's show.

When CRAVEN first met RUBY in November, 1962, he was introduced to RUBY by a chain store manager, name not recalled. CRAVEN at the time was in Dallas only a week and had very little contact with RUBY at that time. He knew that RUBY had two clubs in Dallas and that is about all.

In October, 1963, CRAVEN had considerable contact with RUBY because RUBY came to the fair grounds and was given passes to CRAVEN's show and introduced CRAVEN to many people that RUBY knew in Dallas. He introduced CRAVEN to various news media people, police, and others.

CRAVEN described RUBY as an emotional person who was easily excited. For example, CRAVEN noted that RUBY became annoyed when his club show did not operate smoothly. He became upset with his theatrical union people in Dallas when they threatened to fine one of RUBY's girls, JOYCEDALE, also known as JOYCE MC DONALD, $200.00 for participating in) TEXAS

CRAVEN's show, "How Hollywood Makes Movies." RUBY was angry with the union because RUBY was only helping out CRAVEN temporarily and did not feel it was right for the union to assess a fine.

CRAVEN does not know of any criminal connections of RUBY. RUBY told CRAVEN he was from Chicago, and CRAVEN gathered that RUBY still had friends there as on about October 9, 1963, RUBY told CRAVEN that a man from Chicago was in RUBY's club, the Carousel, and RUBY described the man as a "real swinger." RUBY did not name the man but CRAVEN thinks JOY DALE might know who this person was.

RUBY ran a clean club and was very conscientious about not violating liquor laws, such as serving drinks after closing time. CRAVEN thought this was unusual because RUBY knew every police officer in Dallas, but still he would not let even his friends have drinks on their table at closing time. RUBY told CRAVEN that there was some woman in charge of the liquor licenses in Dallas who was very strict.

RUBY did not appear to CRAVEN to have very much money. He told CRAVEN that it was a struggle for him to keep ahead because of other competition in Dallas. He loaned CRAVEN $100.00 and when CRAVEN repaid it a short time thereafter, RUBY mentioned how pleased he was to get it and said that he needed it. RUBY told CRAVEN he had a nice apartment which he rented for about $150.00 to $200.00 a month. CRAVEN was never there but was invited. He did not know with whom RUBY lived but understood he was a bachelor. He thought that RUBY had several girl friends, including JOY, but he did not know the names of the others.

CRAVEN had no political discussions with RUBY and does not believe that RUBY had radical beliefs of any kind. RUBY apparently knew that CRAVEN was a New Englander from Boston because CRAVEN has a New England accent and possibly mentioned that CRAVEN had once campaigned for President KENNEDY and had attended the inauguration ball. CRAVEN does not believe that RUBY ever discussed this nor seemed particularly interested in politics.

CRAVEN had no knowledge of LEE OSWALD. CRAVEN had no knowledge of any relatives of RUBY, except he knew that he had a sister in Dallas who also owned a night club.

The last contact CRAVEN had with RUBY was on about Monday, November 18, 1963, when CRAVEN telephoned RUBY in Dallas about some lumber purchases that CRAVEN had made for his show at the fair. RUBY at that time mentioned that he had problems with the theatrical union and wondered if CRAVEN could do something about it in Hollywood for RUBY.

CRAVEN had no knowledge that RUBY carried or owned a revolver. He thought of RUBY as a rough individual insofar as maintaining order in his club, but he did not see any violent actions on the part of RUBY.

DEROSTUS MC COLLOUGH MILES, also known as "Deke" Miles, 4102 Shadyglade, Studio City, California, telephone Poplar 1-7302, was interviewed in a Bureau car in the vicinity of his former business establishment, the Great Valley Nursery, 9500 Sepulveda Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. DEROSTUS "DEKE" MILES furnished the following information:

He was the director of the show "How Hollywood Makes Movies," which show appeared at the State Fairgrounds in Dallas, Texas, for approximately a week during the latter part of September, 1963. He first met JACK RUBY about September 24, 1963, at the Carousel Bar in Dallas, which bar MILES frequented as a patron approximately four times. He was also visited by RUBY at the State Fairgrounds in Dallas on about three occasions. RUBY evidenced considerable interest in show people and loaned MILES some props and furniture for the show. During their meetings most of the conversation pertained to show people and RUBY's dogs and bar. RUBY never discussed his background, politics or his associates. However, on one occasion RUBY made a statement to the effect that he had a reputation for being a rough guy years ago and laughed about having bluffed people because of his past.

RUBY never mentioned his connections, if any, with the Dallas Police Department, but he did observe RUBY talking to plain clothesmen, believed to be from the Dallas Police Department, at the State Fairgrounds. He also recalled that CATHY, last name unknown, a stripper at the Carousel, whom he described as a blonde from England, allegedly was dating an unknown Dallas police officer.

MILES stated he is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he never heard RUBY mention OSWALD's name, nor did he ever see anyone resembling OSWALD in the Carousel Bar.

MARVIN GARDNER, Electronic Technician, 7223 Melrose, telephone WE 1-2070, WE 5-0373 and WE 5-1442, telephoned the FBI Office in Los Angeles on November 27, 1963, and stated that he had seen the interview of AL DAVIDSON on television and DAVIDSON had made it appear that he knew JACK RUBY very well, but this is not true. GARDNER said that he and other individuals were part of a group that put on a show at the Dallas State Fair in October, 1963, called "How Hollywood Makes Movies." DAVIDSON was connected with the group in that he was to handle the publicity, but he did very little work, and met RUBY only casually. GARDNER stated that he talked to RUBY probably more than DAVIDSON did, and GARDNER would be happy to furnish any information he knew, if the FBI was interested.

GARDNER on November 27, 1963, furnished the following information:

GARDNER was employed by ROBERT CRAVEN and DEROSTUS "DEKE" MILES, who produced the show "How Hollywood Makes Movies." A group of eight persons went to Dallas on Sunday, September 29, 1963, and the show opened at the Dallas State Fair on October 5, 1963. It was about October 3 or 4, 1963, that GARDNER first met JACK RUBY, who had met CRAVEN previously.

CRAVEN is a promoter who has lived in Los Angeles about three years but originally was from New England. CRAVEN's wife, RITA CRAVEN, has a clothing business known as Craven Contracting Company, 407 East Pico, Los Angeles.

RUBY was very friendly with this Hollywood group and assisted them by loaning articles needed as props in the show. He was given a pass to the show and invited the members of the group to come to his night club, the Carousel, in downtown Dallas.

GARDNER does not know any background of RUBY, except that RUBY said he came from Chicago several years ago. RUBY was friendly with JOY DALE, a stripper at the Carousel. GARDNER was never at RUBY's house. He does not know any of RUBY's associates. GARDNER described RUBY as having nervous drive but did not think him to be an emotional individual. GARDNER never heard of LEE OSWALD and knows of no connections between OSWALD and RUBY. GARDNER does not know of any police connections of RUBY, but he heard that RUBY knew everyone on the Dallas Police Department.

The Hollywood show closed on October 15, 1963, and those in the group left that city on October 16, 1963, to return to Los Angeles. The show was a financial failure and the members of the cast did not get paid. While they were in Dallas, they stayed the first few days at the Baker Hotel and then moved to a rooming house on Gaston Street, possibly 3900 block. The rooming house was operated by a DOC (last name unknown), a retired auctioneer, and a man named HENRY (last name unknown), who ran a beauty shop in Dallas. DOC and HENRY and the Hollywood group were the only persons staying in the rooming house at the time.

Those persons in the Hollywood show were, in addition to CRAVEN, MILES and GARDNER; HARRY LOVEJOY, a part-time actor, 15325 South Freeman, Lawndale, California; JOE RADULA, an insurance man who was the cameraman in the show, residence 2415 North Gower, Hollywood, California, Hollywood 3-7724; SAM DAUGHERTY, an actor and beautician, 635 30th Street, Manhattan Beach, telephone FR 2-9093, FR 2-5077; JANE SMITH, an actress, address unknown, who has left Hollywood and returned to her home in Connecticut; and CARYN MURPHY, an actress, address unknown, who has left Hollywood and gone to New York.

RADULA knew RUBY slightly. GARDNER did not think DAUGHERTY knew RUBY at all. LOVEJOY became acquainted with RUBY, and the two women met him.

MARVIN GARDNER telephonically informed SA WILLIAM W. COLBY on November 29, 1963, the following:

There was an individual by the name of LARRY (last name unknown), age about 20, who worked as a carnival worker around the tent of the show "How Hollywood Makes Movies" in October, 1963, at the Dallas State Fair, Dallas. LARRY told GARDNER that he once used to work in rodeos but was injured so was then doing carnival work. LARRY had a nervious twitch in his eyes. GARDNER believes that LARRY was from the State of Washington. He does not know LARRY's present whereabouts.

After the show closed on Tuesday, October 15, 1963, LARRY continued working in the same tent for the show that followed. The show that followed was a rock and roll show produced by JESSIE SEAY of Dallas. SEAY was in charge of the rides on the midway. GARDNER understood that SEAY was a friend of DEWEY GROOM, owner of the Longhorn Ranch Night Club, Dallas. The rock and roll show lasted only about two nights because of trouble with the musicians. Where LARRY went after that GARDNER does not know, but he heard that JACK RUBY may have given him a job. GARDNER thinks it was CRAVEN who mentioned this.

LARRY knew a lot of the carnival people working at the fair. One person he knew was a man named BULL, white male, American, age in the thirties, husky build, 6 feet. LARRY and BULL had previously worked in some other show, possibly the Memphis Fair. Between Tuesday, October 15, 1963, 12:00 midnight, and 2:00 a.m., October 16, 1963, LARRY and BULL had a fist fight in the tent. the Dallas Police came to the tent to investigate the matter. LARRY told the police he fell over a chair so did not involve BULL.

Another person who knew LARRY at the carnival was a girl named "JOHNNIE." She is a thin-looking blonde who follows the carnivals. Her whereabouts are unknown to GARDNER.

GARDNER does not know of any subversive, hoodlum or gambling connections that RUBY might have.

Mrs. VIVIAN CURRY, 4855 Elmwood Avenue, Apt. 1, Los Angeles, California, advised that she believes JACK RUBY purchased some Minifon (brand name) recording equipment from her when she was employed by either Adair Engineering Company, address unknown, or Ernstroms Record Shop, on Lovers Lane, both Dallas, Texas. She recalls selling him a telephone attachment and other pocket recording devices in the amount of approximately $500. She added that from the records of the above companies at the Minifon Home Office in Chicago, it would be possible to verify or eliminate possible purchase of this equipment by JACK RUBY, since allserial numbers are kept of each recording device sold by them.

CURRY further stated that RUBY had bragged about having trained the well-known stripper, "Candy Barr".

CURRY was employed by Adair from July, 1958 to about April, 1959 and with Enstroms Record Shop from June, 1959 to May, 1960.

DaMOMMIO advised he has known JACK L. RUBY, who is presently charged with the murder of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, for 12 to 14 years but that the last time he saw RUBY was 6 or 7 years ago in the B and B Restaurant in Dallas, Texas.

DaMOMMIO stated he never socialized with RUBY, but knew him as a customer during the time he operated Pop's Spaghetti House, next door to the Aldophus Hotel on Commerce Street in Dallas, Texas, around 1947 or 1948. DaMOMMIO further stated he considered RUBY to be nothing but a petty hoodlum, a loud talker, who killed OSWALD for the publicity. DaMOMMIO did not believe RUBY had the intelligence to belong to any extremist organization, but was merely an emotional man who went to extremes either for good or for bad. To DaMOMMIO's knowledge RUBY did not personally know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

DaMOMMIO advised RUBY was acquainted with numerous Dallas police officers with whom he came in contact through his place of business. He stated that RUBY was frequently at the Dallas Police Department and officers frequently checked his business establishment in connection with their official duties. He advised he had never received information to indicate RUBY was "paying off" to any members of the Dallas police and he was of the opinion this was not the case. DaMOMMIO stated RUBY was not a close associate of any member of the Dallas Police Force to his knowledge.

He informed that to his knowledge, RUBY had never been to Las Vegas and was not considered by those who knew him in Dallas to be interested in gambling. DE ANGELO claimed RUBY was more interested in show business and was always energetic in his promotion of the Vegas Club, which RUBY owned in Dallas. He described RUBY as a person who liked talent and the entertainment field, in general, and whenever he frequented the Hilton Hotel, he would make it a point to inform DE ANGELO of persons appearing at the Vegas Club. DE ANGELO stated he liked RUBY personally, even though he had a very boring personality and was extremely hard to get rid of. RUBY was known to DE ANGELO to be very arrogant at times and considered him very tempermental. He claimed he avoided RUBY since you could never determine what type of reaction you might get from the simplest of statements to him.

DE ANGELO stated that although he had played cards with RUBY on a couple of occasions at the Artist Club, Dallas, he did not know him well enough to even guess at the motivation behind OSWALD's murder. He recalled that RUBY used to employ Dallas Police Officers at the Vegas Club as "door watchers" but knew of no other association between RUBY and the Police Department with the exception that he seemed to know all policemen.

JACK ETHERIDGE, Merchants State Bank, 5217 Ross, Dallas, Texas, advised that inasmuch as JACK RUBY is a customer of the Merchants State Bank, he has had occasion to discuss business with him on numerous occasions and has assisted him in securing loans at this bank secured by liens on automobiles belonging to RUBY.

Mr. ETHERIDGE stated that his contact with RUBY had revealed no indication of his political beliefs or the identities of his friends and contacts. He examined a photograph of OSWALD and stated he cannot recall ever having seen OSWALD.

Mr. ETHERIDGE advised that approximately one month ago RUBY brought a paper sack to his desk and asked that he exchange $4,100 in $5, $10 and $20 bills into $100 bills. Mr. ETHERIDGE stated this request did not seem particularly strange to him, inasmuch as he knew that RUBY did most of his business on a cash basis. He said something about RUBY having so much money and RUBY cautioned him about speaking so loudly, inasmuch as he did not want anyone to know that the money was his. He does not know what disposition RUBY made of this sum of money. This is the only instance in which he, personally, has exchanged smaller bills into larger bills for RUBY.

ROBERT FRANKLIN, also known as Bobbie O'Dowd, 429 Wrightwood Avenue, advised that he was on a business trip in the State of Texas approximately four weeks ago selling stamp machines. He stated that on approximately October 25, 1963, while in Dallas, he had lunch with a former heavy weight prize fighter known as J. D. TURNER. He advised that as they walked from the Baker Hotel to FRANKLIN's car, TURNER stopped an individual near the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas and introduced FRANKLIN to a person whom he identified as JACK RUBY. FRANKLIN stated they talked for approximately two minutes and it was apparent that TURNER and RUBY were well acquainted. As they departed RUBY's company, TURNER described RUBY as a good guy and the owner of a strip joint located across the street from the Adolphus Hotel.

FRANKLIN stated he has no personal knowledge of RUBY, but advised that TURNER resides on Prairie Street in Dallas, Texas, and is listed in the local telephone directory as J. TURNER, Prairie Street.

(1) Date December 5, 1963

Mr. L. M. TURNER, 2015 Prairie Street, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

TURNER first became acquainted with JACK RUBY approximately eight or ten years ago when RUBY started operating clubs in the Dallas area. TURNER has known RUBY only casually during that period and the only times that he has seen him are when he has visited RUBY's clubs in Dallas. TURNER has seen RUBY on several occasions during the past two years at the Carousel Club. TURNER is a former fighter; however, he stated that he has never accompanied RUBY to purchase a gun at any time.

According to TURNER, RUBY had a close associate who was a boxer by the name of BUDDY TURMAN, who is presently fighting out of Los Angeles, California. TURMAN can be located at the American Legion Gymnasium which is located somewhere in the vicinity of Los Angeles. TURMAN is presently managed by WILLIE KETCHUM.

TURNER last saw RUBY sometime around the end of October, 1963. He recalls this meeting very specifically because on this occasion he bumped into RUBY on the street and introduced RUBY to a companion by the name of BOBBY O'DOWD who was visiting in Dallas at that time. TURNER recalls telling O'DOWD that RUBY operated a strip joint by the name of Carousel, and believes that he pointed out RUBY's club to O'DOWD.

TURNER could furnish no information concerning RUBY's associates or personal life, nor could he furnish any information concerning RUBY's political beliefs.

TURNER was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, after which he stated that he had never seen OSWALD.

JOHN C. JACKSON, 201 Delphine, Lafayette, Louisiana, who is employed as Vice President of the National Research Corporation, advised that he became acquainted with JACK L. RUBY in November, 1956 in Dallas. JACKSON stated he had gone to Dallas to attempt to obtain financial backing for some experiments that he was conducting on degenerative diseases. He stated that his connections in Dallas had fallen through and that the man he had contacted had turned out to be a promoter who had no money and he was in Dallas then broke, and not knowing which way to turn. At about 3:00 AM, he was in Phil's Delicatessen when RUBY came into the delicatessen. RUBY spoke to practically everyone in the place, both individuals with whom he was acquainted and strangers and as a result, he and RUBY became engaged in conversation. JACKSON stated that he told RUBY his problems and RUBY insisted that JACKSON go to his apartment and gave him the key to his apartment, which was located at about 310 Hawthorne in Dallas. JACKSON said he accepted the key and went to the apartment and ended up living in RUBY's apartment until the end of 1957. During this period, JACKSON stated that he was engaged in trying to raise capital to continue his experiments and his acquaintance and association with RUBY at the Vegas Club provided him with contacts in this regard. JACKSON stated that he worked some at the Vegas Club, usually on weekends, but spent most of his time trying to raise money for his experiments. He stated that he spent quite a lot of time with RUBY during this period, but had had no contact with RUBY since May, 1958. He described RUBY as a "very complex person". He stated that RUBY was a proud person, proud of his Jewish background and became very angry if anyone made any uncomplimentary remarks about Jews. He was a neat dresser, but his apartment and his club were both messy and not well maintained. RUBY sometimes would take two or three showers a day, but his automobile, a 1951 Buick was a dirty "rattletrap" and RUBY would drive this car anywhere.

RUBY did not like violence and could not stand to see people suffer, but engaged in many fights, some that he was responsible for starting. RUBY liked to be recognized and liked to appear in a good light and seemed to have a need to be before people. He would often go on the stage at the club to introduce star performers, lead the applause or introduce prominent guests or customers. RUBY seemed to like people and talked to almost everyone. JACKSON related that RUBY seemed to have trouble reaching a decision and related that on one occasion he was with RUBY when RUBY went to buy some toothpaste, at a drug store. RUBY solicited the opinions of all the employees in the drug store and of the customers also before purchasing the toothpaste. On another occasion, JACKSON accompanied RUBY to purchase flashlight batteries and RUBY again went through the same procedure of soliciting opinions before purchasing the batteries.

When RUBY went to downtown Dallas, he would usually walk through the lobby of the Hilton Hotel, which was usually out of his way, just to see people and to be seen.

RUBY had what JACKSON described as a "defender complex" RUBY seemed to like to picture himself as a protector of good from evil and in the operation of his club would let some of the customers go too far in getting drunk, rowdy and creating a scene. After letting things go too far, RUBY would then become abusive with the customers and force the customer to either "crawl" or fight. RUBY was very strong and agile and a very good fighter and usually the customer would have to crawl. RUBY apparently pictured himself as protecting his customers from the rowdy individuals.

RUBY always carried a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson snub nose revolver when at the club and had this pistol in a bank bag when he went to the bank.

RUBY told JACKSON that he was from Chicago and had been raised on Maxwell Street, a tough area in Chicago, had grown up with and had been a lifelong friend of DANNY THOMAS, the television star. RUBY still maintained contact with

THOMAS and they occasionally talked to each other on the telephone. RUBY had a brother in Chicago whose name was not known to JACKSON, but who, from comments of RUBY, apparently had a lot of money.

While in Chicago RUBY advised that he had been instrumental in organizing the Junk Handlers Union and in this venture, had taken as a partner a "huge" man, whose name JACKSON did not recall. RUBY and his partner were contacted by "The Syndicate" and informed that the organizing of the union would proceed much more smoothly if they would permit the syndicate to furnish the secretary. They agreed to this and as a result were forced out. RUBY and his partner fought back and as a result the partner was killed by a machine gun and RUBY apparently got out of the picture for fear of receiving the same treatment. JACKSON advised that RUBY always seemed to be apprehensive when Sicilians would come to his club or would hang around. JACKSON stated that he felt that RUBY was fearful of harm or trouble from Sicilians either in Chicago or in Dallas, but that he did not know why RUBY had this apparent fear.

JACKSON advised that RUBY was, in his opinion, a poor night club operator who had an income of about $150.00 to $200.00 a week during the time that he was in Dallas. JACKSON stated that RUBY gave away a lot of money, and drinks which prevented him from making more money at the club. He stated that he did not believe that anyone who knew RUBY would finance him in a night club venture. There was a question in his mind as to the source of the money and the financing of the Carousel Night Club which RUBY was reported to own. He advised that if the financing of the Carousel Night Club could be satisfactorily explained, then it would be his opinion that RUBY had murdered OSWALD in an effort to put himself in a good light in the eyes of the public as an avenger and defender of good from evil. He stated that as RUBY seemed to be quite fond of policemen, it seemed entirely possible to him that RUBY shot OSWALD because OSWALD had shot a policeman and not because he was alleged to have murdered President KENNEDY.

JACKSON advised that RUBY did not, to his knowledge, have any underworld connections. He related that RUBY's friends were very few, though he had lots of acquaintances in all walks of life. In addition to DANNY THOMAS, he mentioned that RALPH PAUL, who worked at the Vegas Club was a friend of RUBY as was GEORGE SENATOR, who hung around the Artists Club and (FNU) MC WILLY, who resided in the Maple Terrace Apartments.

JACKSON stated that he did not recall RUBY ever exhibiting any interest in or discussing politics, communism or the racial situation. He related that RUBY did not have any homosexual tendencies to his knowledge, though he did have some slightly effeminate characteristics, bathing several times a day and being immaculate in his dress. He stated that RUBY had girl friends, but was peculiar in that after he had gone to bed with a woman, he was scornful of her and would not go out with her again.

JACKSON advised that Miniron was composed of mineral water with enzynes added. He stated that this product had been created by him and that he and RUBY were going to try to market it, but that they were unsuccessful in doing so, as Miniron was not a marketable product.

JACKSON advised that he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never heard of him before his name appeared in the news in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated that he knew of no connection or association between RUBY and OSWALD.

JACKSON advised that RUBY had been in the Army Air Corps during World War II and seemed to take a great deal of pride in this fact. He said that RUBY had said that he was glad that his family had decided to come to the United States when they immigrated to this country.

JACKSON advised that in 1958, he had been arrested in New Mexico and incarcerated in the County Jail at Aztec, New Mexico in connection with the rental of an automobile which he had kept for a period of time considerably in excess of the rental agreement. While incarcerated in Aztec, New Mexico, JACKSON stated that he had been interviewed by an Agent of the FBI in connection with the matter.

Mr. TRAVIS KIRK was interviewed on the street at 400 California Street, San Francisco, California. He was questioned regarding his knowledge of the activities and acquaintances in Dallas, Texas. Mr. KIRK said that he had practiced law for 23 years in Dallas, Texas, and was very well acquainted with the District Attorney's Office, the Police Department, and the Sheriff's Office. He said that he had worked in the District Attorney's Office for about six years, and then went into private practice as a defense attorney.

His clients included a great many prostitutes and other unsavory characters in the area. In conjunction with many of his cases, he had had occasion to go into the night club owned by JACK RUBY, and he was personally acquainted with JACK RUBY only as a night club owner. He did not recall ever having actually met RUBY, but felt that RUBY would probably know him by name because of his reputation as a defense attorney.

He remarked that in his years of practice in DALLAS, TEXAS he had developed quite an animosity toward the Police Department, particularly toward Mr. FRITZ who was the Head of the Homicide Detail of the Dallas Police Department. He advised that FRITZ was the type of character who would stop at nothing to make his point. He remarked that he believed that it is entirely possible and probable that FRITZ had deliberately arranged to have OSWALD shot in order to close the case. Mr. KIRK based this on the fact that FRITZ and JACK RUBY were very close friends, and that JACK RUBY, in spite of his reputation of being a "hood," was allowed a complete run of the Police Station and particularly the Homicide and Inspectors Bureau.

Mr. KIRK said that he had not heard anything from any of his acquaintances in Dallas regarding this particular incident, and based his opinions solely on his knowledge of methods used by Mr. FRITZ.

Mr. KIRK said that he was also personally acquainted with the deceased Officer TIPPIT, and that at one time he had a lady asking his advice about a proceeding against TIPPIT, in that he had apparently raped her during one of his investigations. KIRK said that he did not believe TIPPIT was necessarily involved in this situation, but he did question the motive for shooting.

Mr. KIRK related that he would not like to testify in Dallas. He also said that he had left Dallas because he "liked California atmosphere much better."

He stated that he had been politically involved with all of the persons connected with this case, including Defense Attorney HOWARD, who is representing JACK RUBY. He said that at one time HOWARD had several prostitutes working for him and, as far as he, KIRK, was concerned, HOWARD is still a hoodlum himself. He stated HOWARD had been prosecuted in Federal Court for the Mann Act several years ago, but that the matter had been hushed up and attempted action against him by the Texas Bar Association had been dismissed.

Mr. KIRK reiterated his statement that he had no direct knowledge of the incidents in Texas, but based all of these assumptions on his past experience in Dallas and on information obtained from news items.

HERBERT B. KRAVITZ, 4039 Cole Avenue, advised he is a salesman for Supada Cravats Neck Wear Company; that he has lived in Dallas, Texas, for one and a half years.

KRAVITZ advised that he first met JACK RUBY when he and a friend, EARL BARKER, a musician, were at a Chinese restaurant in Dallas called Yee's. He said RUBY introduced himself to them as RUBY had seen BARKER playing at a club earlier in the evening. RUBY invited them to come to his club (Carousel Club), which they did the following evening. RUBY "picked up the tab" for all of their expenses at the Carousel Club during that evening. After the club closed, they went to a restaurant where they talked until about 4:00 or 5:00 a.m. KRAVITZ said RUBY told them his life's story, which story was the same as recently set forth in the newspapers.

KRAVITZ advised he went back to the Carousel Club on two later occasions, the last of which was on November 20, 1963. He was with a date, ELAINE ROGERS, and recalled that he won a stuffed cat at the drawing for the door prize at the club. He said he did not particularly want to go to the club on that date as RUBY had earlier asked him to attend Jewish church services with him, and he had declined. However, he went to the club as Miss ROGERS wanted to see a friend of hers who was dancing at the club.

KRAVITZ advised he never discussed any political beliefs with RUBY and had no real close association with him. He advised that from his knowledge of RUBY he did not believe RUBY to be a "homosexual."

KRAVITZ advised he has never been arrested; that he is 25 years of age; that he has never been married.

BOBBY GENE MOORE, 865 43rd Street, Oakland, California, was interviewed at his home. He stated that he desired to furnish information regarding JACK RUBY, who he had known in Dallas, Texas. He stated that he had observed an interview on television with an associate of RUBY in which the associate said that RUBY had no gangster connections. MOORE furnished the following information:

He was raised in Dallas, Texas, having been born in that city on December 12, 1927. About 1951 or 1952, he was living at a rooming house at 1214 Boll Street, Dallas. This house was at the rear of Hill's Liquor Store at the corner of Ross Avenue and Boll Street. This liquor store was a front for a bookie-type operation where bets were taken on all types of athletic events and horse races. It was operated by a man named HILL, first name unknown, and his son. This gambling place was patronized by most of the gambling element in Dallas and RUBY was a frequent visitor. MOORE did not know whether or not RUBY was actually connected with the operation of the gambling place or was merely a participant.

During that time MOORE was employed by Cirello and LaMonte Italian Importing Company, 3400 Ross Avenue. MOORE suspected that his employers, JOSEPH CIRELLO and FRANK LA MONTE, were engaged in racket activities because on occasion they would not allow him to open certain cartons containing cheese imported from Italy, although that was his alleged job. It was his opinion, based on this, that they might be importing narcotics. He had no additional information to substantiate this. RUBY was also a frequent visitor and associate of CIRELLO and LA MONTE.

TEXAS

B. APPROX 1923

Two officers, CHARLIE SANSONE (PH), white, male, American, about 40, a detective in the Dallas Police Department, and MARVIN BLUNT, a Texas State Policeman, were regular patrons at Hill's Liquor Store and MOORE felt that they were obviously either aware of the gambling action if they were not actually involved.

Judge O'BRIEN, a Municipal Judge in Dallas, was a friend of CIRELLO and LA MONTE and MOORE frequently put hams and other food stuffs in O'BRIEN's car at their request.

RUBY was also friendly with PHIL BOSCO, TEXAS owner of the Gulf Service Station which was across the street from Hill's Liquor Store, and MOORE felt that BOSCO was also engaged in criminal activities in Dallas, although he had no specific information to substantiate this.

In about 1952, RUBY hired MOORE as a part-time piano player and he played periodically after hours at the Vegas Club from 1952 until 1956, when MOORE left Dallas and moved to California. While at the Vegas Club, he saw RUBY on numerous occasions with a revolver. RUBY was friendly for awhile with CANDY BARR, a well-known Dallas stripper. He is also well known to JIM JOHNSON, leader of a quartet who played at the Vegas Club regularly from 1956 until January, 1963, when MOORE last visited Dallas.

MOORE felt that from RUBY's association with (FNU) HILL, CIRELLO, LA MONTE, and PHIL BOSCO that he was connected with the underworld in Dallas.

MOORE had no information regarding any connection between RUBY and Dallas Police Officers. MOORE did not know OSWALD, and knew of no connection between RUBY and OSWALD. He knew of no radical extremist views by RUBY or any racial extremist views. He had no information concerning RUBY being in California. He knew RUBY between approximately 1952 until 1956, when MOORE left Dallas and went to California. He saw RUBY again previously on a visit to Dallas in January, 1963. He had no additional factual information.

CHESTER ARTHUR MYERS, JR., who resides at 3920 Travis, Apartment D, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

CHESTER MYERS is an employee of the Cabana Motel, Dallas, and he assists in the operation of the lounges and clubs at the Cabana Motel. He was born August 3, 1929, at Sherman, Texas.

He first became acquainted with JACK RUBY during the period 1950 - 1953, when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club in Dallas which he, MYERS, frequented. In about 1955, MYERS became acquainted with EVA RUBY GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, who was then operating the Vegas Club, Dallas, Texas.

In 1957, MYERS returned to Dallas, Texas, from Sherman, Texas, where he had been attending Austin College. Since 1957, MYERS has been employed at various night club establishments and, through his employment, has maintained contact and association with JACK RUBY and EVA RUBY GRANT, on both a professional and social basis.

MYERS recalled that EVA GRANT once told him that she started the Silver Spur Club for the purpose of having her brother, JACK RUBY, take over the club operation when he returned from military service.

MYERS could recall only one instance when RUBY displayed a violent temper and physically ejected a patron from his club. MYERS stated that he recalled other instances when patrons became obnoxious and belligerent at RUBY's club at which time, in MYERS' opinion, RUBY would have been justified in ejecting them from the establishment; however, on these other occasions, RUBY did maintain his composure and did not eject them physically.

MYERS described RUBY as a person who, at times, is highly tempermental and excitable. He described RUBY as a person who could not be termed a big spender or a flashy dresser, or one who would try to impress people. According to MYERS, RUBY is the type of person who, upon accepting a person as his friend, will do anything for that person, conversely, if RUBY takes a disliking to a person, he will express his sentiments and will go out of his way to avoid any contact with such a person. MYERS feels that RUBY considers him as a friend.

RUBY once offered MYERS a job as floorman or manager of the Sovereign Club at the Carousel Club. RUBY advised MYERS that he, RUBY, would give him the food concession if he would take the job. MYERS felt that RUBY was, at the time of that offer, making a sincere offer to him, as RUBY stated MYERS would have the final say in the operation of the Sovereign Club. MYERS turned down the job, as he felt that RUBY subsequently would not be able to refrain from injecting his, RUBY's, ideas into the operation of the Sovereign Club. MYERS was of the opinion that RUBY, at that time, had ideas of capturing the "carriage trade" and he, RUBY, did not feel he had the personality to cope with this type of clientele.

Approximately three or four years ago, MYERS heard what he termed "gossip," from now unrecalled sources, that RUBY was a homosexual. MYERS stated he had no specific information that would substantiate this allegation. MYERS recalled that RUBY liked to have big, athletic-type men in his employ and, at the same time, liked to have young, good-looking boys in his employ.

In all the years MYERS has known RUBY, MYERS can recall only one instance when RUBY had a date with a woman. In approximately 1957, when MYERS was a waiter at the Twin Tree Club in Dallas, MYERS received a telephone call from RUBY. RUBY told MYERS of his date for that evening and he had called MYERS to ask MYERS the type of wine he should order with the dinner and for any other general information, in an apparent effort to impress his woman companion. RUBY, on many occasions, would take his female employees out to coffee or lunch but, in MYERS' opinion, RUBY had no social interest in any of them. According to MYERS, RUBY's sole interests were in his club and his dogs. RUBY did not appear to be interested in politics nor did he appear to be a religious man; however, MYERS did recall that EVA GRANT, RUBY's sister, once mentioned that JACK was a religious man.

MYERS stated that prior to approximately six months ago RUBY, from time to time, had periods of financial stress at the Carousel Club. EVA GRANT had mentioned to MYERS that JACK RUBY, on occasions, would come to the Vegas Club, which she operated, and take money from her receipts in order to pay the salaries of his employees at the Carousel Club. Within the last six months, RUBY has indicated to MYERS that his business at the Carousel Club had improved.

MYERS is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor does he have any information which would indicate RUBY and OSWALD knew each other.

MYERS stated he was at a loss to explain why RUBY shot OSWALD as he did.

ROBERT L. NORTON, TEXAS, owner, Pago Club, 4611 Cole, telephone LA 6-5710, advised that at about midnight, November 23, 1963, JACK RUBY came by his place and sat at a table near the orchestra.

When he observed RUBY, he sat down at the table with him, commented what a terrible thing for the President to have been assassinated, and asked RUBY if his place was closed. He replied that it was, and after drinking a Coca-Cola, RUBY complimented NORTON on the operation of his club, and left.

NORTON commented on how calm RUBY appeared to have been during this visit and RUBY had not made any specific comment about the assassination.

ANDREW ORBAN, retired former Inspector Detective Bureau, South Bend, Indiana Police Department, advised that approximately 12 to 14 years ago while he was working in the Detective Bureau as a Detective Sergeant, with Captain FREMONT LEMMLER, former Chief of Detectives, deceased, they interviewed JACK RUBENSTEIN at South Bend Police Department. RUBENSTEIN was suspected of scalping Notre Dame University football tickets. RUBENSTEIN was from Chicago and was working the local hotels apparently trying to sell tickets. Insufficient evidence was obtained to arrest RUBENSTEIN and no report was made relative to this interview.

In either Fall of 1953 or Fall of 1954, ORBAN made a trip to Texas to return an auto thief to South Bend, Indiana, from an unrecalled town located about 80 miles northwest of Dallas. After picking up this individual he stopped at the Dallas Police Department where he left subject overnight on a Friday night. Detectives from Vice Squad, Dallas Police Department, names unrecalled, after taking ORBAN to a hotel, later took him to a "after-hours joint" to get a drink. Detectives did not enter this club. He did not recall the name of the place but was of the opinion it was in the outskirts of Dallas. ORBAN described this as a rough place and crowded with theatrical-type people. Upon entering, JACK RUBENSTEIN saw him and called him by name. He then entered in conversation with RUBENSTEIN for approximately 30 minutes and sat with him at a table. During this conversation, RUBENSTEIN admitted he had scalped Notre Dame tickets at South Bend.

Several showgirls came in and RUBENSTEIN asked them to sit down at their table but did not introduce them to ORBAN. ORBAN described RUBENSTEIN as "fast buck operator."

RUBENSTEIN mentioned nothing which would permit ORBAN to evaluate his loyalty to the U.S.

The following morning when ORBAN picked up his prisoner,

MEYER R. PANITZ, Apartment 21, 140 Albert Street, furnished the following information concerning JACK RUBENSTEIN:

PANITZ has been employed in the gambling profession most of his life. He obtained gambling work when he moved to Dallas, Texas, in 1944. PANITZ is presently employed as a box man in the casino at the Thunderbird Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.

PANITZ met JACK RUBY in 1947. He knew RUBY's true name to be JACK RUBENSTEIN. PANITZ considered himself a good friend of RUBY's during the time he knew him, which was from 1947 to the summer of 1958, when he left Dallas.

RUBY was the type of person that wanted people to agree with him and he would get into arguments with persons who disagreed with him. RUBY was not a violent person, however. RUBY always had ideas about discovering a new entertainer. RUBY would promote or back some entertainer but never was successful, to PANITZ's knowledge, of discovering a star.

RUBY made a good living operating the Vegas Vic Club in Dallas. Because of this employment and business, he was acquainted with many people in Dallas. RUBY hired off-duty Dallas policemen on weekends as bouncers at his club. RUBY was acquainted with a good many of the Dallas Police Officers and the Dallas police knew RUBY.

RUBY was an honest business man and had a forward type of personality. RUBY had a bug for attending public events, and he was always trying to meet people.

PANITZ has no knowledge as to the politics of RUBY.

PANITZ has not seen RUBY since 1959 in Miami Beach, Florida. PANITZ talked with RUBY about five or six months ago by phone while passing through Dallas, Texas.

POTTER and his group were entering the Old Spanish Trace dining room of this motel when a waitress dressed in a red toreador costume (presumably the hostess) informed his group that OSWALD had just been shot. This girl informed POTTER that she used to work for JACK RUBY, and during the time she was working for RUBY she was living with a Detective of the Dallas Police Department who told her that RUBY was a "shady character." She also volunteered the information that RUBY had at one time told her, "You don't know how many Communists there are in the United States."

Mrs. DONNA RAPKIN, wife of DAVE RAPKIN, 412B Broadway, San Francisco, advised she visited Dallas, Texas, in 1961 to look for entertainers and talent for her club. She said she was in the Theater Lounge, a Dallas night spot, with JACK COLE and was introduced on this occasion to JACK RUBY. JOSEPH P. ROSSI, Real Estate, 231 Mercantile Continental Building, Dallas, Texas, voluntarily advised as follows at Brownsville, Texas, on November 25, 1963.

ROSSI stated that he and JACK RUBY, whose real name is RUBENSTEIN, were both born in the 24th Ward in Chicago; however, they did not know each other until about eleven years ago when they met in Dallas. RUBY had the Silver Spur Club and later the Vegas Club. ROSSI said that he does not know any of RUBY's family but knows that they are Jews and that JACK RUBY observes Jewish religous customs.

ROSSI knows of no connection between JACK RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ROSSI described RUBY as having a bad temper and as being highly emotional. ROSSI said that he had heard that RUBY cried when he learned of the death of the late President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT at Warm Springs, Georgia. RUBY was described as being very anti-Communist but not a member of any "right wing hate groups". In politics, ROSSI described RUBY as being "a 24th Ward Chicago JAKE ARVEY Democrat". ROSSI knows of no connections on the part of RUBY with gamblers or organized crime except to know some of these "characters" personally. ROSSI said that he knows of no close friendships or relations that RUBY ever had with anyone on the Dallas Police Department.

ROSSI last saw RUBY in Dallas on November 20, 1963, at which time RUBY discussed opening a new club and wanted ROSSI to invest money in the club and perhaps help in the management of the venture. RUBY talked of future plans at that time in a manner to indicate that he did not anticipate getting into any sort of trouble.

ROSSI said that when RUBY was identified over the television as the man who killed OSWALD that ROSSI's first thoughts were that RUBY was the type emotional enough to do that sort of thing. ROSSI believes that RUBY's motive in killing OSWALD was the over simplified solution of a simple and emotional man for obtaining justice in the case.

BROTT, a widower, is between 75 and 80 years old and has retired from the decorating and contracting business. He has a daughter, AUDREY SEDER, wife of MORT SEDER, of Dallas, Texas.

The files reflect that AUDREY and MORT SEDER are known to the Dallas Credit Bureau. They were married March 9, 1963, in Dallas. MORT is the son of Mrs. MOLLY SEDER, Chicago, Illinois.

MORT at one time was self-employed as a manufacturer's representative. His most recent employment was that with GINO PAOLI - not further identified but believed to be in Dallas, Texas.

The SEDERs' Dallas address was listed as 3328 Bowser Street and a recent address was 30 Judson Street, Gloversville, New York.

H. SCOTT SHURIAN, 11717 Darlington Street, West Los Angeles, telephone No. GR 8-1752, telephonically contacted the Los Angeles Office on November 29, 1963, and gave the following information:

He is presently a news reporter for radio station KMPC, Los Angeles, California, and in 1958 was a news reporter for radio station WFAA, Dallas, Texas. This station was around the corner from the Carousel, an establishment owned by one JACK RUBY. He was introduced to RUBY by DICK MC GRUDER, who was a news writer at that time for station WFAA. He secured a membership card for the Carousel Club but did not pay any initiation fees. He explained that this was because RUBY liked to surround himself with radio personalities.

He knew of no political connections of RUBY but advised that he read that RUBY could be convinced to assist either right or left wing extremists if this would make him a "big man."

RUBY is a close associate of LOUIS MACWILLY, a gambler in the Dallas area, who is reputed to have "syndicate connections." MACWILLY is also alleged to have gambling interests in Cuba. RUBY was also a close friend of the owner of the University Club in Dallas, whose name he cannot recall. He stated that this was in 1958 and the owner was a small-time gambler in the Dallas area.

He could not envision RUBY having any political notions one way or the other and knew of no connections with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

He knew of no police connections with the Carousel Club and could not recall other associates or girlfriends of RUBY.

His impression of RUBY was that he was not exactly an emotionally stable person but constantly felt inferior. RUBY demanded that his employees respond instantly to any commands.

He was unaware of how RUBY's night club activities were financed in that business was always very poor and people in the news media were always wondering where RUBY got the money to purchase his clubs.

SHURIAN left Dallas in 1959 to come to Los Angeles and has not seen RUBY since that time but has maintained contact with other people in Dallas since leaving the area.

RUBY had a night club across the street from the Adolphus and invited SIMMONS on two or three occasions to visit it, but SIMMONS never did. SIMMONS stated he did not know RUBY other than to "say hello."

ABE WEINSTEIN, owner of the Colony Club, 1322½ Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed relative to an alleged meeting in approximately 1946 in Dallas between himself, PAPPY DOLSEN, operator of Pappy's Showland, (FNU) GAULDIN or GAULDING, a former Dallas County Prosecutor, JACK RUBY from Chicago and (FNU) FREEMAN, operator of a restaurant at the corner of West Commerce Street and Forth Worth turnoff, relative to the purchase of a night club in Dallas by RUBY who reportedly produced a roll of $100 bills totaling $40,000.

WEINSTEIN stated he had no recollection of any such meeting in 1946 or at any other time.

TEXAS

WEINSTEIN recalled that CECIL GAULDING, deceased, was in the mortgage loan business in Dallas, that PAPPY DOLSEN is still in Dallas and that the FREEMAN referred to, based upon location of the restaurant on West Commerce Street and the Fort Worth turnoff referred to, is BEN FREIDMAN. FREIDMAN, who resided at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas died at the hotel in 1960.

(On December 2, 1963, PHELIA MARTINEZ, Clerk, Dallas County Bureau of Vital Statistics, 1936 Amelia Street, stated official records reflect BEN FREIDMAN, white male, age 71, died in Dallas, Texas, on September 29, 1960).

PAXTON H. GRAY, 3315 Westminister, Dallas, furnished the following information:

PAXTON H. GRAY, who is employed as an independent oil operator, was unable to recall any acquaintance or associate by the name of BEN RUBY. He checked an address book that he has maintained for many years and was unable to come up with any information in the name of BEN RUBY. He advised that he had been married to NONA GRAY for a period of 13 months in 1957-1958, He lived with her for a period of three months. He stated that she is an alcoholic and, who when drinking and when coming out of her periodic drunks, suffers from hallucinations and consequently her information cannot be considered reliable. He stated the posibility exists that NONA GRAY has associated the name BEN RUBY with that of an associate and friend of PAXTON H. GRAY by the name of PHIL STEIN. Other than the above misassociation, PAXTON H. GRAY can think of no one whom NONA GRAY may consider being a BEN RUBY. He again reiterated that the name BEN RUBY is not known to him. PAXTON H. GRAY advised that he does not know JACK LEON RUBY, nor does he know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

VIRGINIA MARIAN BELASCO was interviewed at her residence, 1587 35th Avenue, San Francisco, and advised she received a telephone call from EVA GRANT, from Dallas, Texas, about a month ago. It was just a social call concerning mutual acquaintances including JACK RUBY. She has never met EVA GRANT personally. BELASCO advised she first met JACK RUBY in about 1936 at a dance at the Jewish Community Center in San Francisco. She saw him socially as a young teenager perhaps six times from 1936 until 1941. In November, 1941, she went to New York City with her mother and RUBY entertained her socially every weekend in November, 1941, in New York. She last saw JACK RUBY on Pearl Harbor Day, December 7, 1941. In November and December, 1941, when RUBY would visit her in New York on the weekends, he was employed with his youngest brother, EARL RUBENSTEIN, in Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania. RUBY and his brother, EARL, were running a "punch-board racket" in the industrial area around and in Wilkes Barre. She has heard RUBY refer to his relatives as a sister, EVA GRANT, his youngest sister, EILEEN, and an older brother, SAMMY. She also understands that RUBY has a cousin by the name of JUDY, who is employed as a waitress at Blum's Restaurant in San Francisco. She described RUBY as a young man who dressed very well and was a personable date.

When EVA GRANT called Miss BELASCO, she just chatted and talked about JACK RUBY's night club and requested that Miss BELASCO visit them. Miss BELASCO stated her telephone number is SE 1-2789.

RAYMOND T. STROUD, part owner, Star Tobacco Company, 39 South Pennsylvania Avenue, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., furnished the following information:

Mr. STROUD recalled a punchboard salesman with the last name of RUBENSTEIN who made business calls in the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., area sometime between 1935 and 1939. He said he had intermittent contact with RUBENSTEIN for a period of approximately three years. RUBENSTEIN carried his merchandise in his personal car and was described by Mr. STROUD as being a "floater" and a "fast operator."

Mr. STROUD further advised that RUBENSTEIN did not to his knowledge represent any specific company and he was of the opinion that RUBENSTEIN did not reside in the Wilkes-Barre area. He said he never purchased any merchandise from RUBENSTEIN; however, RUBENSTEIN always made it a point to call upon him when he was in Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. STROUD described RUBENSTEIN as being a white male of Jewish extraction. He could not recall any further description; however, he stated he would estimate his present age to be approximately 63.

Mr. STROUD, based upon his past recollection, could not connect RUBENSTEIN with JACK RUBENSTEIN who has recently received nationwide publicity concerning the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. STROUD further advised that RUBENSTEIN was a competitor of SAM BERGER, who formerly manufactured and sold punchboards. BERGER's place of business was formerly located at 108 South Charles Street, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. STROUD said he was contacted three or four years ago by SAM BERGER, at which time he learned that BERGER was a member of a stock brokerage company in New York City. BERGER allegedly held a seat on the New York Stock Exchange.

Mr. STROUD said that he was of the understanding that SAM BERGER was still maintaining a residence at Baltimore, Md.

HERBERT BOBROW, liquor store operator, 794 McAllister Street, San Francisco, California, residence, 560 Arlington, San Francisco, advised as follows: I.L.L.

BOBROW said that he was acquainted with RUBY, whom he knew as "SPARKY," having met him sometime in the early 1930's in San Francisco. They were both from the same neighborhood in Chicago but were not acquaintances in that city. BOBROW resided with RUBY and his sister, EVA GRANT, for about one year when theylived in an apartment located at 345 Jones Street, San Francisco. This residence occurred approximately 1936.

BOBROW worked with RUBY as a newspaper subscription salesman for the San Francisco "News," a daily newspaper. RUBY may have been employed in a similar capacity by other San Francisco newspapers. They were part of a group of young men who came from Chicago to San Francisco at approximately the same time and did similar work in San Francisco. His immediate circle of friends numbered about fifteen.

At the time of his residence with RUBY at the aforementioned address, RUBY's sister, EVA, had a son named RONNIE, approximately five years of age, residing with them.

He said that RUBY was a well-mannered, likeable individual who was soft-spoken and meticulous in his dress and appearance. He has never known RUBY to have engaged in any illegal activity, and RUBY never expressed an interest in any type of political activity, particularly anything of a "radical" nature.

BOBROW identified RUBY with the Dallas killings as a result of reading news articles concerning these incident. He said he probably never would have recognized RUBY's photograph in the newspaper, since he has not seen or heard from RUBY since approximately 1939. He advised he was aware that RUBY was in Dallas, having heard this from some of his San Francisco acquaintances. He stated that RUBY was known only as JACK RUBINSTEIN when he was in San Francisco.

RE: RUBY's SAN FRANCISCO RESIDENCES AND EMPLOYMENT

The following investigation was conducted by SAs JOHN F. BRESLIN and FRANKLIN S. BURROUGHS at San Francisco: Calif.; I.I.

JACK KANT, SAlesman for Baruh Liquor, 6001 Bay Street, advised on November 27, 1963, that he met RUBY in 1932 or 1933 at San Francisco after RUBY had come from Chicago. He states RUBY was close friend of BENNIE BARRISH, who was being managed at the time by KANT. KANT only knew RUBY casually, recalled he lived in Tenderloin Area, San Francisco, and attained income from hustling fight tickets and selling watches. RUBY lived with his sister in San Francisco and departed San Francisco in the late 1940's. His whereabouts thereafter unknown to KANT. KANT stated no indication of any un-American leanings or beliefs on part of RUBY.

ART POSNER, Patrolman, San Francisco Police Department, home address 35 Wanda Street, San Francisco, California, advised SA WILLARD E. BASEMAN on November 27, 1963, he recalled meeting JACK LEON RUBY, whom he knew as JACK and "SPARKY" about 1935 when he, POSNER, worked on a newspaper circulation crew. RUBY, BENNIE BARRISH and BILLY VEPRIN (phonetic) all came to San Francisco from Chicago together at the same time and all were in the newspaper circulation business. He recalled RUBY was a circulation crew manager but he did not recall which San Francisco newspaper RUBY was affiliated with. In those days, there were four newspapers in San Francisco,"The Evening Call", "The News", "The Chronicle" and "The San Francisco Examiner" and a good circulation man, although working for one newspaper, could sell a subscription to another paper and still receive the commission. He was only a casual acquaintance of RUBY and believes that he saw him around San Francisco until around 1936 or 1937. BILLY VEPRIN, he believed, went to Guam prior to World War II and became quite wealthy in the laundry business, returned to San Francisco and was a partner in Tommy's Joynt, a Hoffbrau Restaurant, in partnership with TOMMY HARRIS in San Francisco. This restaurant was sold subsequently to SAM GORDON, a former friend of RUBY from Chicago. He has not seen RUBY since the late 1930's and had not heard anything of him until November 24, 1963.

On November 27, 1963, Mr. REUBEN ARIAN, residence 3789 Fillmore Street, San Francisco, owner "Supply Sergeant", a surplus store at 1550 El Camino Real, Redwood City, California, advised SA WARRENT W. RICHMOND as follows:

Mr. ARIAN in the 1930's resided in San Francisco and worked as a circulation supervisor for the "San Francisco News". He stated that in this capacity, one of the people that worked for him was EVA GRANT. He said that also working off and on for the "San Francisco News" during the Depression was a person he recalled as EVA's brother and known to him as "SPARKY" RUBENSTEIN. Mr. ARIAN stated that SPARKY, as he knew him, was then a good looking, well liked young man with a good personality who was able to earn two or three dollars a day by door-to-door sales of newspaper subscriptions. Mr. ARIAN advised that he was not particularly close to SPARKY at that time and knew EVA GRANT much better since she worked directly under him attempting to get newspaper subscriptions for the "San Francisco News". Mr. ARIAN stated that RUBENSTEIN was nicknamed SPARKY because of his short temper, but none the less he was well liked and a good. door-to-door salesman. ARIAN recalled that EVA GRANT, when he knew her, lived on Jones Street in San Francisco between Ellis and Eddy in an apartment above Foster's Cafeteria. At that time she was married, lived with her husband and son RONNIE, then six to eight years of age.

Mr. ARIAN recalled that SPARKY, whom he recognized from recent newspaper articles and pictures as JACK RUBY, resided nearby, perhaps on Eddy Street in The Herald Hotel. ARIAN recalled EVA to be an excitable person, always talking and agitated. ARIAN stated that to his recollection SPARKY had no interest whatsoever in politics and did not recall that SPARKY had ever expressed admiration for President ROOSEVELT or any criticism or any other person or any other philosophy of government. According to ARIAN, although he did not know SPARKY well, SPARKY was never arrested while in San Francisco. ARIAN advised that he has not seen or heard of SPARKY until the events of the last week end.

AS far as ARIAN could recall, SPARKY was not married and principally associated with a ~~JACK~~ STEVENSON and ~~HARRY~~ SOLLIVANT (phonetic). ARIAN recalled that like SPARKY, SOLLIVANT came from Chicago. It was ARIAN's recollection that SOLLIVANT indicated he had known gangsters in Chicago prior to coming to San Francisco and he did not recall that SPARKY had ever professed knowing any gangsters in Chicago.

127

ARIAN reiterated that although RUBENSTEIN was known as SPARKY when in San Francisco, and was given that name because of a temper he knew of no occasion when that temper had caused any difficulty for SPARKY. ARIAN recalled SPARKY as using the name of RUBENSTEIN and did not know him as RUBY.

ISADORE SILVER, 318 East Gaston Street, Savannah, Georgia, employed at the Cue Stick Poolroom, State and Abercorn Streets, Savannah, Georgia, advised that during World War II he was a bartender for his brother at Bo Peep's Bar and Poolroom in Savannah. Sometime during this period, he became acquainted with JACK RUBY, who came to the bar on a number of occasions during the time that he was stationed in Savannah with the Air Force. He stated that he could not recall whether or not the Air Force Base at that time was known as Hunter Air Force Base.

He stated that RUBY drank soft drinks and engaged in conversation frequently. He stated that possibly RUBY was drawn to him because they were both Jewish. He could not recall over what period of time RUBY was stationed in Savannah. Sometime later RUBY sent him a cigarette lighter as a present.

About 1954, SILVER went to Chicago on business with a friend, JOE GARVIN, and while there, he decided to look up RUBY. He believes he knew that RUBY was in the novelty business with his brother and that he called the business, which he presumes was known as Rubenstein's Novelty Company. He stated that he failed to reach RUBY or his brother, but learned from someone that RUBY was in Texas.

He stated that he has had no other contact with RUBY nor has he heard anything further about RUBY until RUBY was arrested in connection with the slaying of LEE OSWALD. He stated that when he saw RUBY's picture on television he immediately recognized it, although RUBY had apparently gained some weight. He stated that when RUBY was in Savannah he was quiet; didn't drink alcohol; didn't gamble, and didn't chase women. He stated that he firmly feels that RUBY was loyal and he described him as a good clean fellow.

He stated that he knew of no hoodlum or subversive associations by RUBY.

HAROLD TANNENBAUM, 6027 Chef Menteur Highway, Tropical Tourist Courts Trailer Park, Lot 32, advised he is presently unemployed. He said around May 15, 1963, when he was manager of the Old French Opera House, Bourbon Street, a night club with a strip show, JACK RUBY came by the club between 11:00 PM and 1:00 AM in the morning, carrying a small attache' type suitcase which was tied with wrapping twine. He said he was out in front of the Old French Opera House at the time and when RUBY came by, he gave him a pitch to get him to come into the club and spend some money. RUBY, after a short conversation, told him he was in the same business in Dallas and after some time, TANNENBAUM realized that RUBY was in this type business. RUBY told him he had come to New Orleans to look around as he had not been here for some time and would be leaving for Houston, Texas and then to Edna, Texas, the next morning. He said RUBY stayed with him at the club the entire night discussing the night club business and methods of booking girls for the shows and other things of mutual interest in this business. TANNENBAUM said RUBY never left during the night except to go out for a cup of coffee and he, himself, took RUBY to Moisant Airport that morning to catch the plane to Houston. RUBY told him he had an appointment to meet a man in Houston and then he was going to Edna, Texas to see CANDY BAR and bring her a daschund puppy. TANNENBAUM said to the best of his recollection, he believes RUBY was flying on Delta Air Lines. TANNENBAUM said he had never met JACK RUBY before that night when he came to the Old French Opera House.

TANNENBAUM said he cannot determine the exact date RUBY was here in New Orleans but that the day after RUBY left for Houston, he, TANNENBAUM, made a telephone call to Edna, Texas from his phone 242-3401, to speak to RUBY about his hiring JEANETTE CONFORTO (JADA).

TANNENBAUM said the calls made from the Old French Opera House Club, 601 Bourbon Street, New Orleans number 523-0930, were made by him to RUBY on June 5, 14 and 19, 1963, to discuss the hiring of JADA and JADA's contract on July 6 and 24, 1963 were as he recalls in connection with his possible employment with RUBY in Dallas. calls from his own phone, New Orleans 242-3401 and the call from the Tropical Tourist Court, 242-5431, on July 24 and August 4, 1963, were calls he made to RUBY to discuss the possibility of he, TANNENBAUM, being employed by RUBY, as the manager of the Vegas Club. TANNENBAUM said he and RUBY had discussed the possibility of his being employed as manager of the Vegas Club as far back as July, inasmuch as he left his employment as manager of the Old French Opera House on July 30, 1963. TANNENBAUM said the last phone call on October 30, 1963, was one he made to RUBY to tell him he would not work for him inasmuch as they could not agree on the money RUBY wanted to pay him. TANNENBAUM said he made some of these calls collect and on the other calls he paid the basic rate and reversed the charges on the overtime.

TANNENBAUM said he made two trips to Dallas to see RUBY, the first time was in June, 1963, at which time he stayed at the Holiday Inn outside of Dallas with his wife and baby. He said he went to Dallas again on September 6, 1963 by himself and stayed with RUBY.

TANNENBAUM said he never heard RUBY mention LEE HARVEY OSWALD nor had he himself seen this individual before.

TANNENBAUM said from what he knows of RUBY from his contacts with him, he believes RUBY has a "fanatic belief in fair play" and would believe the ambush of the President was morally wrong. In addition, the policeman OSWALD shot and killed was possibly a good friend of his and for the above reasons, RUBY, who was highly emotional, might be capable of killing OSWALD.

TANNENBAUM said on his visits to Dallas he met at least six or more Dallas Policemen in the Carousel Lounge. He said he met a Sergeant in uniform and a couple of patrolmen in uniform who came into the Carousel when TANNENBAUM was present, and two men in plain clothes who stopped at the Carousel.

TANNENBAUM said he also met two or three more men in plain clothes who RUBY introduced as Policemen..

TANNENBAUM stated he remembers one policeman told him that RUBY had helped him out of a scrape one time. TANNENBAUM did not know the names of any of the policemen and could not further identify them. He speculated the above described relationship between RUBY and the police was probably the reason the police thought nothing of RUBY being in the basement of the Dallas, Texas Police Station at the time OSWALD was being transferred to another jail.

ROSCOE K. ROBINSON, 4415 South Lamar, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed concerning his business connection and personal knowledge of JACK RUBY.

ROBINSON advised he has known RUBY since about 1950, but has had little contact with him since 1955, when ROBINSON purchased the Silver Spur from him. ROBINSON sold the Silver Spur Club about a year later and has not been in the night club business since that time. He states that as a result of leaving the club business he has lost contact with RUBY and has seen him only rarely since 1955 and then only casually.

ROBINSON states he took HOWARD MC LAUGHLIN and a woman, VIOLA (LNU), to the Carousel Club about a month ago to try to get VIOLA a job. He introduced both MC LAUGHLIN and VIOLA to RUBY and the four of them had a brief conversation. He recalls no specific conversation except the introduction and states they just talked club business and made small talk "about things in general." VIOLA did not get a job at the Carousel so far as ROBINSON knows.

A few days later, he and "SLIM" ELMO MILLER stopped at the Carousel for a drink. On this occasion, RUBY greeted them at the door, but they had no other conversation with him. ROBINSON states he has no recollection of RUBY ever stating any political views or even discussing politics.

ROBINSON had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to President KENNEDY's assassination and does not recall ever having seen him. He further states he knows many of the officers of the Police Department in Dallas and has never seen any of them around the Carousel Club. He was of the impression RUBY knew many of the officers but does not know how RUBY met them or what their relationship was. ROBINSON said RUBY went to Chicago sometime between 1952 and 1954 and was absent from Dallas for almost a year. He described RUBY as short-tempered and very unpredictable, but feels he shot OSWALD for some personal gain. He stated he has nothing to base this theory on, aside from his opinion of RUBY's character.

JOE HOWARD LINTHICUM, Texas Department of Corrections Number 171455, was interviewed in the Warden's Office, Texas State Prison, Texas Department of Corrections.

He advised that he has been a resident of Dallas, Texas, for many years. In about 1950, he frequented the "Silver Spur Club" in Dallas and became acquainted with the owner, JACK RUBY. In 1952, LINTHICUM received a prison sentence at the Federal Correctional Institute, Seagoville, Texas, and was not released until April, 1954. After returning to Dallas and while again frequenting the "Silver Spur Club", he witnessed JACK RUBY engage in a fight with three customers, and LINTHICUM went to RUBY's assistance. Afterwards, RUBY offered him a job at the club and he worked for RUBY for about eight months and then another month at RUBY's "Vegas Club". He then terminated his employment but continued his association with RUBY until 1962.

LINTHICUM stated RUBY was "hot headed" and would brawl at the slightest provocation. He never discussed politics and evidenced no indication that he was a "patriot". His primary concern was in "making the dollar". RUBY dated some of his "strippers" and occasional female customers of his clubs. He was friendly with members of the Dallas Police Department and would permit them to have "drinks on the house".

REAGAN "BUDDY" TURMAN, Apartment 103, 7220 Hollywood Boulevard, furnished the following information:

TURMAN believes that RALPH PAUL was the principal owner of S & R, Inc., which owned the Carousel in Dallas, Texas. JACK RUBY owned an unknown percentage of S & R, and on one occasion, RUBY discussed the possibility of giving TURMAN a 10 per cent interest in the Carousel, however, this deal did not materialize. TURMAN never owned any stock or any part of S & R, Inc., the Carousel, or the Vegas Club. JACK RUBY once asked TURMAN if it would be agreeable to use TURMAN's name as an officer of the S & R, Inc., and TURMAN said he was agreeable. TURMAN does not recall signing any papers or conducting any activity as an officer of S & R, Inc., and merely allowed the use of his name.

TURMAN believes that JACK RUBY originally was the sole owner of the Vegas Club, however, he believes RALPH PAUL now has an unknown interest in the club. He stated he could furnish no information concerning the actual ownership of the above clubs and S & R, Inc.

Mr. CURTIS LA VERNE CRAFARD, also known as Curtis LaVerne Craford, Larry, C.L. and Smoky, was located at the cabin of ROY PARKS in rural Antrim County, Michigan. He was visiting his sister, Mrs. CORABELLE INGERSOLL. This individual volunteered the following information: OKLA; OHIO

He was born at Farwell, Michigan, on March 10, 1941, raised in Michigan and California, until his family moved to Dallas, Oregon, in 1958. The family were fruit harvest people. In September, 1958, he enlisted in the United States Army and served until November, 1959, when he was given a general discharge under honorable conditions. He married WILMA JEAN TEANNEY, June 16, 1962, and she was from Dallas, Texas. He first went to Dallas, Texas, in March, 1963, to attempt a reconciliation with his wife, but finally they separated in June, 1963, as his wife was a lesbian. SOCIAL SECURITY # 511-54-9651 U.S. ARMY SERIAL # RA 19628241

During August, 1963, he started to work with a carnival and followed this work, which accounted for his being at the Texas State Fair in Dallas, Texas, on or about October 15, 1963.

He joined a carnival show which was named "How Hollywood Makes Movies." This was run by a BOB CRAVEN, of Hollywood, California, and he performed the duties of a roustabout. He lived in a tent on the fairgrounds and stayed with this show and another show which was a rock and roll outfit until the fair closed on approximately October 30, 1963.

During the time he was employed with the "How Hollywood Makes Movies", he ascertained that JACK RUBY had approximately $150.00 invested and on or about October 21, 1963, at closing time, he was introduced to RUBY by a "DEEK" MILES, another one of the backers. He saw RUBY two or three times during the Texas State Fair, as RUBY would check on the progress of the show. When the fair closed about the end of October, 1963, RUBY hired him to tear down the stage and take it to the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas. He worked with a man named HOWARD (Last Name Unknown), a Negro, who had been employed by RUBY for approximately 18 years. After completing this job, RUBY asked him to stay at the club and work for room and board. He had the room in front of RUBY's office. This would be approximately November 1, 1963.

His job at the Carousel Club consisted of being a handyman, clean up man, part-time bartender and also answering the telephone. It was his duty to take down names and addresses of people calling the club for RUBY. RUBY ran almost an ad every day in the local paper for waitresses and performers. He also had a financial interest in a Twist Board Company at Fort Worth, Texas. Telephone calls in a number of twenty to forty would be received daily and these calls were placed in a stenographers notebook, which he kept on RUBY's desk.

The only odd incident concerning telephone calls was that about three or four times a day during the time he was at the club, a call would come in and the man would ask if Mr. RUBY was there. If RUBY was not there, the man refused to leave his name and on every occasion during this period of time, it was the same person who called. He brought this to RUBY's attention on numerous occasions and RUBY told him to forget about it; however, RUBY was not alarmed.

CRAFARD would stay at the club and eat his meals at the Eat Well Cafe and the drugstore across the street from the club. Money for these meals was taken from the cash register. RUBY also purchased his clothes from the Good Will Store and gave him some spending money.

RUBY had an apartment with an individual named GEORGE (Last Name Unknown), who sold Christmas cards and worked part time on the door at the club. He did not know where RUBY's apartment was located, but had the telephone number, WH. 1-1050.

He would see RUBY every day for about one to two hours and this usually occurred between 12:00 PM and 3:00 PM, at the Carousel. Other than that, RUBY would telephonically contact him almost every hour for any calls. He has no knowledge where RUBY spent his time outside of the club. Usually, RUBY would then return to the club at about 10:00 PM each evening and stay until closing time, which was 1:30 AM during week days and 2:00 AM on the weekends.

He stated RUBY trusted him and he would handle anywhere from $300.00 to $400.00 daily; however, ANDY ARMSTRONG or ALEXANDER, the Assistant Manager and bartender, would handle the money until Midnight and, thereafter, he would close up.

Most of the time at about 5:00 PM, RUBY would call in from his home and, if needed, he told him he would be available there until he came to the club later. He said most of the affairs of the club were handled by ARMSTRONG, who performed paper work, etc., and this individual was with RUBY for approximately nine years.

Continuing, he said that on a few occasions during the daytime, he would accompany RUBY around the Dallas area. He recalls one day, time unknown, that RUBY went to various companies in regards to the purchase of a safe for the club, as RUBY had the habit of carrying all his money in his pocket. On another occasion, approximately three weeks ago, he went with RUBY when RUBY checked about some sound equipment for the club. This was at an electronics company in about the 2200 or 2300 block of Elm Street. They were there ten or fifteen minutes and did not purchase anything. On this occasion he, CRAFARD, was wearing a suit and he feels they were there at about 3:00 PM or 4:00 PM. He said that when they entered the place of business, the electronic equipment, speakers, public address systems, etc., were on the right and left-hand sides in between a counter and a stairway that went to a storeroom on the second floor. He related that most of RUBY's time at the club was spent talking business and he had the habit of always telling the employees who they could talk to. RUBY was somewhat outspoken, had a quick temper and when mad would use loud language in his relations with the employees,

On November 17, 1963, he recalls telling RUBY that he would desire to cease his employment there on the 18th. He said that RUBY then told him he would put him on a salary and persuaded him to stay indefinitely. CRAFARD said he was not too fond of the work and was not busy enough at the club. He also said RUBY had a .38 caliber revolver which he kept in a money sack locked in the trunk of his car. He said that when transporting money, RUBY kept his money in the trunk with the revolver and always kept the revolver with him when moving money.

In regards to RUBY's temper, he said that one night, approximately November 14 or 15, 1963, RUBY was having trouble with an M.C., EARL NORMAN at the Carousel and about 1:30 AM he, RUBY, sent CRAFARD out to the car to get the gun. That was the only time he ever handled RUBY's gun and on that occasion did not take it out of the sack. He said that the gun was believed to be the property of HOWARD, the Negro employee.

On November 20, 1963, he recalls RUBY coming in at approximately 4:00 or 5:00 in the afternoon and requesting CRAFARD to go work at the Club Vegas. RUBY stayed at the Carousel until approximately 6:30 PM. ANDY, the bartender, was there, along with GEORGE, RUBY's roommate. At the latter time, RUBY returned to his home and came back to the club at about 8:00 PM, when he transported CRAFARD to the Club Vegas. That evening, he called three or four times in regards to the crowd and Mrs. EVA GRANT, RUBY's sister, also called in regards to the crowd. At closing time, which was 2:00 AM, RUBY called and said he would be late as the "law was at the place" and LITTLE LINN, one of the strippers, was sick and he had to take care of her. He waited there until approximately 3:45 AM, at which time RUBY met him and they had breakfast at the Lucas B and B Restaurant, next door to the club. On this date, RUBY was accompanied by a girl named GLORIA, who did not work at the club and who was about 22, white female, 5'6", 125 pounds, blond hair. This girl would be known to MARGIE (Last Name Unknown), waitress at the Carousel. He said that RUBY returned him to the Carousel at approximately 4:30 AM, on November 21, 1963.

On November 21, 1963, RUBY called the club to wake him up at about 11:00 AM, and then came in later in the afternoon, sometime between 12:00 and 3:00. ANDY was at the club at this time and he recalled there was a woman, along with her husband, who desired a job. Thereafter, RUBY left and later in the afternoon called him again to go to the Vegas as the bartender. At about 7:30 PM, RUBY picked him up and took him to the Vegas Club, and he did not see RUBY again until approximately 2:30 AM, after closing, at which time they again had breakfast at the Lucas B and B, returning to the Carousel at about 3:30 or 4:00 AM.

On November 22, 1963, he said he was awakened by ANDY, the bartender, at 11:30 AM, by way of telephone. He then dropped back to sleep and shortly after Noon, ANDY came to the Club, personally woke him up and stated that the President had been shot. He had not heard from RUBY previously that date and at about 1:30 PM, RUBY came into the club and said the club would be closed that night and the entire weekend. He told ANDY to notify the personnel and, thereafter, called the paper and placed an ad to that effect. CRAFARD said that he was much surprised by this action as the club could not financially stand to be closed and it was strictly his opinion that RUBY did this as a gesture to make good will on behalf of the public. After that RUBY said that he was going to his sister's home and asked CRAFARD if he desired to accompany him, which offer was refused.

RUBY left the Carousel at about 3:30 PM, being described by CRAFARD as "pretty well shaken up." They knew at that time there was an arrest of a suspect, but he cannot recall the name of any person being mentioned; however, the name of TIBBITS, the policeman, was mentioned and RUBY said he was acquainted with him. Upon leaving, RUBY was what CRAFARD termed being emotionally disturbed. He told CRAFARD to call Mrs. GRANT's home before he went to dinner and upon his return. This was not an ordinary request and CRAFARD had no knowledge of RUBY's reason.

RUBY then came back to the club or called CRAFARD about 7:30 PM that evening. He did not discuss the assassination, he did not mention being at the police department or anything else. He just wanted to check in regards to telephone calls. He did not see RUBY again until the next day.

On Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, at about 5:30 AM, RUBY called him and told him to meet him downstairs with the Polaroid camera and some film. RUBY was very excited and, in a matter of minutes, a telephone call was received from the fellow at the All Wright Parking Lot, telling him that JACK was there and to hurry up. When he got to the car, GEORGE, RUBY's roommate, was also there and they drove out on the Stemmions Freeway, where RUBY showed him a sign "Impeach EARL WARREN." On the end of this sign it said for further information write Post Office Box 1744 or a similar number.

RUBY instructed him to take three pictures of the sign and they then drove to a waffle shop near the Carousel for coffee. RUBY and GEORGE were talking about the sign and the Post Office Box and they had very little conversation concerning the assassination. RUBY then dropped CRAFARD off at the club at 6:20 AM and said that he and GEORGE were going down to the Post Office to look at that Post Office Box. CRAFARD said that he was completely puzzled, as EARL WARREN was unknown to him. This was the last time he saw JACK RUBY. He also recalled that while being at the waffle shop on Commerce Street, RUBY was reading about LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the newspaper. He, at this time, did not express any previous knowledge or acquaintance with this individual and he (CRAFARD) had never, to the best of his knowledge, heard RUBY or anyone else at the club previously mention this name. He said that it seemed odd to him that RUBY was more excited about the EARL WARREN sign than about the assassination. RUBY, at this time, made no threats or other comments concerning OSWALD.

After being dropped off at the club, CRAFARD called RUBY at approximately 8:00 AM, at RUBY's apartment and told RUBY that they needed food for the three dachshunds that were kept at the club. CRAFARD said that RUBY berated him for waking him up and he then decided to pack up and leave the club as he did not want to take any other verbal abuse. He did not say anything to anyone about leaving and just packed his clothing, left the club, at about 12:00 Noon that date and started hitchhiking north. He proceeded north on 77 to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and on to Clare, Michigan, where he arrived on Monday, November 25, 1963, at about 9:30 PM, at the home of a cousin, CLIFFORD ROBERTS. His main reason for coming north was to recontact his sister who had not written him for some time. He had no other explanation for his hasty departure, but said that it is just the way he does things.

Returning to RUBY, he said that he can never recall this individual making any statements concerning revenge on OSWALD. He, CRAFARD, saw RUBY's picture in the newspaper the day after his arrest and said that he never saw OSWALD in the Carousel or Vegas Clubs and he definitely knows that he never took this name down from a telephone call. He said that he first found out that OSWALD had been killed on November 24, 1963, at about 8:00 PM, and did not know RUBY was responsible for it until Monday, November 25, 1963.

In regards to RUBY's contacts, CRAFARD said that most of them were recorded in the stenographer's notebook on the desk and that the only other ones would be MICKEY RYAN, who was a bartender in a gun club located in Dallas, TEXAS. He termed RYAN as a very close friend. He cannot recall RUBY ever saying he had any contacts with the underworld, and the only illegal activity that he could recall RUBY speaking about was that each night at the Carousel, as a promotional stunt, they would have drawings and give away champagne to the ladies and Wilkinson swart edge razor blades to the men. RUBY stressed the fact that these razor blades were a blackmarket product and he had no knowledge from where they were obtained.

Concerning RUBY's relations with the police, CRAFARD said that on the average, two men in uniform would visit the club nightly at about 11:30 PM and receive free coffee. CRAFARD said that he had no knowledge himself of any Dallas policemen, but RUBY claimed to know the majority of men on the force. He said he was advised that off-duty policemen could come into the club without paying the $2.00 cover charge and that the ordinary price for beer and set ups was 60 cents and the policemen were to be charged 40 cents. He knows of no police contacts on RUBY's behalf, but said RUBY did keep a police card in the cash register at the Carousel with a name, unknown to him, on it.

Another close friend of RUBY's was a BILL WILLIS, TEXAS who is the drum player at the Carousel.

He said at no time did RUBY ever demonstrate any homosexual tendencies and that he specifically recalls on one occasion an individual, who was a female impersonator, made a request for employment at the club and RUBY became infuriated and stated that type of act was repulsive.

In closing, CRAFARD said that he intends to stay in the Bellaire, Michigan, area until Friday, December 6, 1963, and his address will always be known to Miss GALE EATON of Harrison, Michigan, and he will advise the Traverse City Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation by card of any moves.

FRANK H. FISHER, 2377 Dalworth Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, voluntarily furnished the following information:

FISHER advised he worked for JACK RUBY at the Carousel Club from May 1, 1961, until August 13, 1963, as a musician and band leader. He stated he knew RUBY only in a business way, but once attended a party for all employees at the club on July 4, 1962, at RUBY's home.

FISHER further advised he knew RUBY to be a real fine fellow at times, and on other occasions he showed a very nasty temper. He stated RUBY was a conflicting personality with both friends and employees at times.

FISHER stated he never heard RUBY discuss politics or make any statements about the President of the United States or the Governor of Texas. He stated he had no information that might connect RUBY to any of the recent happenings or to LEE OSWALD. He advised that RUBY seemed to be known by many of the police officers in Dallas, and that they seemed to have a good relationship existing.

FISHER advised he could furnish no further information of value.

JOE GARCIA, 1938 Las Cruces, Dallas, Texas, advised he has known JACK RUBY for about 7-8 years, having met him in the Silver Spur Club in Dallas. He said RUBY is a hot headed individual who believes in dominating other persons by the use of his fists. He further advised RUBY is the type of person who would perform a favor for an individual and then alienate that person's friendship because of his hot temper. GARCIA has never known RUBY to take any interest in politics and he is not known to harbor any interest in political or civic matters. GARIS has never discussed politics with RUBY and stated RUBY has never shown any hostility toward the President of the United States or any political figures. He said RUBY is mainly interested in making money and in operating his night clubs.

GARCIA recalled incidents when RUBY would appear at the Artists of Dallas Club at which time RUBY would bring the day's receipts from his club with him. On these occasions RUBY would be carrying a gun and he would leave the receipts and the gun with the Artists of Dallas Club operator. GARCIA said this club closed in Dallas about 2 years ago and he knew RUBY was carrying a gun for quite some time prior to the time the club closed. GARCIA advised he recently talked with the band leader at the Carousel Club in Dallas which club is owned by RUBY, at which time they wondered how the entertainer BILL DEMAR could have remembered seeing OSWALD in the Carousel Club. GARCIA said he and the Carousel Band leader were perplexed by this information because DEMAR went through his act so fast in the audience it would be almost impossible for him to remember a particular individual he contacted in the audience in connection with an act. GARCIA said he has worked for JACK RUBY at times in the past providing music for RUBY's night clubs. GARCIA recalled RUBY as being a very unusual person in that RUBY would physically beat someone and then apoligize later to the individual he had beaten. GARCIA said this could only be explained by RUBY's inability to control his hot temper. GARCIA said at the present time RUBY is receiving hair treatments at the McLean's Hair Treatment Parlor located in the Dallas Athletic Club building. GARCIA said persons at the McLean Hair Treatment Parlor would possibly be acquainted with RUBY on a daily basis. GARCIA concluded by advising he knows very little concerning RUBY's background except that RUBY came from Chicago to Dallas.

JUNE HOLLIDAY, 19½ Franklin Street, advised that she is presently unemployed. She stated that she was a part-time employee for JACK RUBY in Dallas, Texas, as a barmaid for approximately six to eight months during 1949 and 1950. At that time she was utilizing the name JUNE SMITH. Also during this period, she was employed full time at Titche-Goettinger Department Store in Dallas. She could not recall the name of the club owned by RUBY or the address, but it was in the southwestern section of Dallas and had a western-sounding name, such as "Lone Star."

She advised that RUBY appeared to be a man of good character who worked very hard at his job. He did not associate with any people. His best friend was his partner, MARTY, last name unrecalled, but it could have been HAMMOND. She heard later that MARTY had died and the partnership had been dissolved. She stated that RUBY was a member of the Bachelor's Club in Dallas. She could not recall the names of any close associates of RUBY. She stated that she knew of no reason to doubt his loyalty to this country. She knew of no underworld or criminal connections. She has not seen RUBY since leaving Dallas the latter part of 1950. She stated that she visits her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. KINSEY, Duncanville, Texas, occasionally, but has not seen RUBY.

Miss. MILLY PERELE, hostess, Hut Lounge, El Paso, Texas advised the following: She was employed by Ruby as a strip tease artist at Carousel Club in Dallas for eight months in 1961, and for two months in 1962. Ruby was quick to admonish employees for wrongdoing but was just as quick to praise them for good work. Ruby had a bad temper on occasions when employees violated contracts or when patrons got out of hand. Ruby operated a very strict burlesque show and did not allow mixing of the performers and the customers. No negroes were allowed to patronize Ruby's two clubs, not because he disliked negroes but for business reasons. Ruby had no outside relationships with his employees.

Ruby was very passionate in his beliefs; whatever he believed he believed violently and whatever he disbelieved he disbelieved just as violently. On several occasions Ruby was known to have arguments with persons who had criticized the President of the United States.

Ruby never discussed his past but had told people that he was from Chicago. He was a democrat and was very active in his synagogue. Many police officers, both in and out of uniform, patronized Ruby's clubs but were not known to have any dealings with them.

Perele had no reason to doubt Ruby's patriotism or loyalty to the United States. Ruby was never known to make any disloyal statements or to have any subversive connections.

Perele worked at Carousel Club with Kathy Kaye, Cherry Kelynn and Najada. Ralph Paul of Dallas, was known to be a business associate of Ruby. Ruby obtained his exotic dancers from Jack Cole, Talent Agency operator, Dallas, Texas. Ruby had a widowed or a divorced sister in Dallas who was much like Ruby. TEXAS

SUE PEPPER, employed Gayety Theater, Cincinnati, Ohio, was interviewed and furnished the following information:

Her legal name is SUE PEPPER. She dances under the name of PEPPER PAYNE. She may always be reached through Mike Riaff Booking Agency, 818 Olive Street, St. Louis, Missouri, as she has no permanent residence.

She worked as a waitress for JACK RUBY, operator of the Carousel Night Club in Dallas, Texas, for two weeks in February, 1963, and then as a dancer until the latter part of August, 1963. She formerly worked as a billing clerk for Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, & Smith, Stock Brokers, Dallas, Texas, before working for RUBY.

She saw RUBY daily during that period but was not intimately acquainted with him and only once went out socially with RUBY to the Cabana Motel, which she described as a private club in Dallas, Texas. She does not remember the date.

She has no information regarding RUBY's organizational affiliation, background, associates, or possible acquaintance with LEE HARVEY-OSWALD. She never saw or heard of OSWALD before the recent newspaper publicity. PEPPER advised that RUBY was only interested in "making money" and never indicated sentiments for or against the United States or any foreign power.

PEPPER stated that RUBY was erratic in behavior and furnished the following examples:

He gave her a day off while she was a waitress and the following day told her that she was discharged because she was not at home on her day off. He told her she could only work thereafter as a dancer, which she did. She once complained to RUBY about her dance costumes being disarrayed in the Carousel dressing room where they were stored. RUBY became very angry and told her to take care of her own costumes. She had heard RUBY had been using her costumes for other dancers' tryouts, which RUBY denied. In the latter part of August, 1963, she telephoned RUBY for a day's sick leave and he agreed unconditionally, but the following day when she reported for work, RUBY told her he had a replacement and discharged her. Miss JULIE TAYLOR, Aka. Mrs. Julie Case, Mrs. Ricky Case, who is presently engaged in a performance as an Exotic Dancer at the Civic Theatre and who is temporarily residing at Onondaga Hotel, Syracuse, permanent residence 144-70 41st Avenue, Flushing 54, Long Island, New York, advised as follows:

She was booked by her agent, EDDIE CAPLAN, New York City, through JACK COLE, an agent at Dallas, Texas, to play at the Carousel, Dallas, Texas, for five weeks, from the middle of July, 1962, to August, 1962. She played the date as an Exotic Dancer with her husband, RICKY CASE, as Master of Ceremonies. She was the sole out-of-town talent at the club at that time, all other talent being local talent of JACK RUBY. She became acquainted with RUBY during the above run. He appeared to be very good to his employees, protective, concerned for their welfare, and his business was operated in accordance with good taste and for the protection of his employees. He did not allow people to drink with his employees since that is against the union rules.

RUBY did not run an after-hours joint at that time. All liquor was removed from the tables of customers at 12:55 AM. His customers were mainly conventioneers. None of RUBY's customers or associates with whom she saw him speaking at length impressed her as being either hoodlums or anything but businessmen. She did not note any great number of Dallas policemen in the place, at least in uniform. She did observe the Vice Squad to come to the place at intervals, as she understood they did at all the other clubs, to check to see if there were any violations of codes regarding scanty dress on stage. The policemen did not get familiar with any of the employees, to her knowledge, nor did they appear to be overly friendly with JACK RUBY.

She recalled that she never saw RUBY ever making a play for any of the employees, he did not appear to have a favorite, and she does not ever recall seeing him at any time alone with any of the girls. She always saw him with a group. RUBY did have a party at his home for the employees while she was there. Only the performers and other employees were present, to her knowledge. RUBY and his bartender, name not known, did all the preparation of the food. She referred to them as "looking like 'old women'". She stated that she had never received any indication that RUBY was homosexual and had never received any such information from any of the employees. She believed him to be a gentleman at all times, even when throwing someone out of the place, not given to any temper, violent acts or any other action which was at all questioned. She never had any conversation with him or in his presence concerning politics.

Miss TAYLOR advised that she had observed an interview on television which indicated that one of the performers had observed OSWALD in the audience at the club. She stated she did not believe this because she knows from experience that any such act would have bright lights on stage. She cannot see anyone to recognize except for the first row and she works under soft lights.

Mrs. BILLY CHESTER CARR, 6027 Ettrick, telephone PA 9-0891, was interviewed in the presence of her husband. She advised that she and her husband manage a band called the Impellas. She and her husband telephonically contacted JACK RUBY on November 18 and 20, 1963, in an effort to book the band at the Vegas Club, Dallas, Texas, in the near future. RUBY telephonically contacted her on November 19 and 21, 1963, in an effort to agree on a price for the band's appearance. She advised that she and her husband mailed a package containing a recent recording of the Impellas along with photographs of the band to JACK RUBY at an unrecalled address on Oak Lawn Street, Dallas, which will probably be delivered on November 26, 1963. In a telephone conversation, RUBY indicated he had a partner in the Vegas Club, whom he did not name. She stated that her and her husband's only other contact with RUBY was in August, 1958, when they had a one-night appearance at the Vegas Club to promote a recording.

Mrs. CARR stated that her and her husband's contacts with RUBY were entirely of a business nature and that she and her husband are unable to furnish any information regarding RUBY's social, political, romantic or other activities. Mrs. RUTH E. BONDS aka Mrs. Joseph Bonds, Dale Belmont, 11736 College View Drive, MD was interviewed at her residence. She was advised that she did not have to make a statement, that anything she said could be used against her in a court of law and she had the right to consult an attorney if she wished. She volunteered the following information:

She said that she and her husband, JOSEPH BONDS, owned and operated the Skyview Club, also known as the Sky Club, located on Palmer Street just outside of Dallas, Texas, during the period 1948 to 1953-54 and that during part of this time she and her husband had known JACK RUBY as the owner of another night club.

Mrs. BONDS said she knew RUBY only as another club owner and that she had never worked for him as a stripper or in any other capacity. She said as a matter of fact she had never worked as a stripper but she had worked in the entertainment field and had used the name DALE BELMONT. She said that she was not an associate of RUBY and her contact with him was limited to occasional visits she and her husband made to his night club and similar visits he had made to their night club. On these visits RUBY would come to their table and talk to them usually about the night club business in general. She said she knew of no personal friends or associates of RUBY but named "HAPPY" BOLSON, owner of Happy's Showland Club, and ABE WEINSTEIN, owner of the Colony Club in Dallas, as other club owners who could have known RUBY at least in business contacts. TEXAS

Mrs. BONDS denied that she knew LEE OSWALD and stated she had never heard his name mentioned prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 23, 1963.

Mrs. BONDS said she recalled that RUBY originally came from Chicago, Illinois, and that from conversations she had had with him she regarded him as very poorly educated and a very quiet man. She said RUBY reportedly was a good fighter and acted as his own club "bouncer". She had no information regarding any trouble in which RUBY might have been engaged and she would consider his mental condition normal.

The following investigation was conducted by SA DANIEL B. FLEMING on November 26, 1963:

AT GREAT FALLS, MONTANA:

CARMEN PITRELLO, 4802 South Westshore Boulevard, Avenue A 20, Tampa, Florida; and PAUL SALOS, 4802 South Westshore Boulevard, Avenue B 19, Tampa, were interviewed at the Park Hotel, where they are presently engaged as entertainers at night club operated by hotel. Both readily admitted to knowing JACK LEON RUBY as the owner of a strip tease night club near the Theatre Lounge Night Club, Dallas, Texas, where they were employed for 40 weeks, beginning Labor Day, 1962. Both stated they met RUBY through the night club he operated, as their club closed an hour before RUBY's did and after quitting work they went to the club operated by RUBY.

Both PITRELLO and SALOS stated that they were fond of RUBY, but described him as emotional, quick-tempered, and an employer who was interested in his help and entertainers. Neither PITRELLO nor SALOS ever worked for RUBY, but stated they observed his treatment of his entertainers, all of whom spoke highly of RUBY's treatment of them. According to the two, RUBY would not permit any rough stuff or abusive treatment of his strippers or entertainers, would not permit prostitutes or "B" girls to work in his club, and maintained good control of the patrons and activities in his club. RUBY would not permit jokes about "Jews" and, if he liked a person, he would do anything for him. Both stated RUBY, they recall, has a terrific memory and could remember behavior of patrons who had been there before, even if a long time had elapsed between their visits.

PITRELLO and SALOS both stated that they had been to RUBY's apartment. He had invited them and their families to come and told them to bring their children, so that the children could swim in the pool nearby, none being available where PITRELLO and SALOS resided. Both stated that RUBY is a weight lifter and extremely proud of his good physical condition, which he achieves by constant exercise. According to them, RUBY does not drink, gamble, or disipate in any manner. Both described RUBY as a lonely man, fair in his dealings with the public, and employes; and they are shocked that he shot OSWALD.

CARMEL PITRELLO said that he remembered RUBY was an avid follower of former President KENNEDY, never missing a broadcast or TV appearance, but not given to making any public remarks about the policies or programs of KENNEDY. PITRELLO said that RUBY is well known to Dallas, knew many people, and is well known to the Dallas Police Department. PITRELLO said that he did not think this unusual, as the clubs are checked each night by the Dallas police.

In regard to TRUITT WALTON, TEXAS Dallas Police Officer, PITRELLO stated that he had seen WALTON at the club on several occasions, checking the club while on duty, and said that WALTON had been there off duty with a girl. PITRELLO said he did not think any unusual relationship existed between RUBY and WALTON, and said that he knew that another Dallas Police Officer, known to him as "TEX," had been there several times. He added he knew of no privileges given RUBY by the police, not afforded other club owners.

PITRELLO said he had joked with RUBY about criminal syndicates and remembered that RUBY had remarked that he did not like them or think them funny, but never mentioned to PITRELLO that he knew anything about them. RUBY had indicated to PITRELLO and SALOS that he had been in Chicago, Illinois, in the past, but did not discuss it with them, telling them that it was a "hard life" and to "knock it off" referring to his Chicago life.

PITRELLO said that RUBY had told him that in the past, he had been heckled by a patron who called him a "Jew Boy," but he avoided trouble with this person, until by chance they met at another club, where this same person made the remark, "Look, Jew Boy with a girl." RUBY told PITRELLO that at this point he lost his temper and floored the man with his fist. PITRELLO said that he knew of no girl friend of RUBY, but RUBY frequently took the girl entertainers to dinner and was known as the type of club owner who would go out of his way to help entertainers to get a start or to make good. PITRELLO said that in his opinion, RUBY's only interests in life were his club, his help, and his dogs.

PITRELLO said he knew of no organizations that RUBY belonged to, and he never gave any indication that he was allied with any group opposed to the United States.

PITRELLO said that he and SALOS had put on a show one night at the Vegas Club, second club owned by RUBY, which they stated was an after-hours club, selling only beer. This club was operated by a sister of RUBY, whom PITRELLO said he knew only as "EDNA," but did not know anything about her. PITRELLO said he remembered that RUBY had told them that he had started his club with but $3,000. Both PITRELLO and SALOS said that they were shocked at remarks attributed to a business associate of RUBY's, known only to them as "ABIE," who was reported as saying RUBY had shot OSWALD because of "financial loss to his club, and his patriotism was based on the dollar." Neither knew of the true association existing between RUBY and "ABIE," but were perturbed over "ABIE's" remarks.

PAUL SALOS stated that the Dallas Police Officer named "TEX" is GLEN D. NEAL, and he could not think of any friends or associates who were close to RUBY, stating that he thought RUBY to be known to many people, but essentially a lonely man. SALOS also said that he did not know of any groups that RUBY was associated with and knew of no underworld associates or hangerson at RUBY's club.

Both PITRELLO and SALOS said they were thoroughly shocked that RUBY had shot OSWALD, and both said they did not recognize the photograph of OSWALD as that of anyone they had seen at the club operated by RUBY. Both stated they knew of no foreign element that frequented RUBY's club, and described it as a typical Dallas strip tease night club.

PITRELLO and SALOS said that they would be in Great Falls, Montana, at the Park Hotel until December 7, 1963, after which they hoped to go to Calgary, Alberta, Canada, for an engagement and thereafter go to Vancouver, British Columbia. They have an agent who represents them, JACK COLE, 515 Interurban Boulevard, Jackson Street, Dallas, Texas. He advised that to his knowledge RUBY has no gangland connections and is not involved with any hoodlums. He stated that the Club is a legitimate business and is run "very clean." He further advised that he has no knowledge concerning any possible subversive activities or connections on the part of RUBY. He further stated that he had no knowledge of any connections RUBY might have had with the Fair Play for Cuba. EDEN further advised that the Dallas police officers whom he met through RUBY seemed very friendly to RUBY. He believed that RUBY knew everyone of importance on the Dallas Police Force. He stated this was due to the fact that RUBY is a very "outgoing guy" and because of his position as a club owner would come in contact with many police officers.

EDEN advised that prior to the President's assassination, as part of an act he did quite a bit of topical political type jokes in which he would poke fun at the present administration, the President JOHN F. KENNEDY and his wife JACQUELINE KENNEDY. He advised that JACK RUBY told him on one occasion that the jokes were funny but that only idiots would laugh at them. He stated that RUBY prohibited any of the entertainers from saying anything or using any material that would reflect adversely against "Negroes, Jews or the Kennedys." He commented to EDEN that he did not appreciate commedians "knocking the President or his wife JACQUELINE KENNEDY."

Mr. EDEN stated that from his acquaintance and knowledge of JACK RUBY he believes that his action in shooting HARVEY LEE OSWALD was the result of a "brooding sick man." He advised that RUBY was able to change moods in an instant and recalls one evening he was sitting in the back of the club with RUBY and they were having a very jovial conversation. During the conversation one of the waitresses came up to RUBY and told him that entertainer BILLY DEMARS, a ventriloquist, was getting a bad time from a customer who was calling DEMARS names. In a flash RUBY's attitude changed to a very rough gruff man and he immediately went to the customer and in very quick fashion removed him from the club. At that time RUBY came backstage where the actors and singers in Dallas were putting on a show to raise money for GRANT. At that time RUBY had contributed the services of an orchestra which he had playing in his night club to be utilized in the show raising money for GRANT's widow.

MITCHELL advised that he at no time has ever actually worked for RUBY, but that RUBY had offered to hire him to entertain in his club but MITCHELL had never had any sparetime in which to accept such an engagement. He advised that he is on very friendly terms with RUBY, and considers him a personal friend. He referred to RUBY as a very, very emotional man and pointed out that he has seen RUBY fire a girl in his night club whom RUBY suspected of "soliciting" in the club.

MITCHELL knows RUBY to own the Vegas Club in Dallas, Texas, and to have some sort of working interest in the Carousel Club in Dallas. He pointed out the Carousel Club was previously known as the Sovereign Club. MITCHELL stated that RUBY at one time invited him to purchase an interest in the Sovereign Club when RUBY was running the club under that name. He advised that RUBY has a sister, ROSE (last name unknown). MITCHELL has no knowledge of RUBY's activity prior to his coming to Dallas, Texas, and has never heard him speak of any activity prior to his arrival in Dallas. He pointed out that he has never known RUBY to be interested in, or crusade for, any particular cause and has never heard him mention th Fair Play for Cuba movement or any Communist Party activity of any type.

MITCHELL advised that he does not know definitely, but does not feel that RUBY was acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised that RUBY was a 100 per cent American and that if a fellow like OSWALD, who was of a reputation of having been active in the Fair Play for Cuba, had been in the audience in RUBY's night club, RUBY no doubt would have asked him to leave due to the fact that RUBY is a man of strong likes and dislikes.

MITCHELL further pointed out that RUBY was not an individual who had any racial bias or prejudice and that RUBY hired the first Negro "limbo entertainment" to come to Dallas and that he had Negro performers in many of the shows in his club.

MITCHELL advised that due to the fact that RUBY was running a club where beer was sold and where people did considerable drinking, it was natural that RUBY would be friendly with the Dallas Police Department and that it was his feeling that RUBY had numerous friends among the policemen on the Dallas Police Force. He does not know specifically any individual on the Dallas Police Force who were friendly with RUBY, but has been in RUBY's club on numerous occasions and observed policemen talking to RUBY.

He was engaged at the Adolphus Hotel for about six or seven weeks and then entertained at various hotels and clubs in Dallas for about a year thereafter. He has not entertained at any of RUBY's clubs, and he last saw RUBY about eight or nine months ago when he met him on a street in Dallas.

ROSENBERG stated RUBY was merely an acquaintance and was not a personal friend. He said MICKEY SCRIMA, an old-time musician in Dallas whose home telephone in Dallas is FLeetwood 1-5271, told ROSENBERG that RUBY came to Dallas from Chicago, Illinois. ROSENBERG felt that SCRIMA may know RUBY quite well, and believes SCRIMA may have known RUBY in Chicago.

He said he never considered him to be mentally unstable and never received any indication of possible homosexual tendencies on the part of RUBY. He knew of no political feelings of RUBY, no groups or organizations with which RUBY may have been affiliated, and no close personal friends which RUBY had other than (it was reported) GEORGE SENATOR.

He said he had no idea who may have backed RUBY or whether or not RUBY was currently backing anyone else.

MCA acted as theatrical agents and McELROY negotiated with JACK RUBY on a number of occasions between 1959 and July, 1962, regarding furnishing acts for RUBY's Club Vegas. McELROY stated the negotiations would start off friendly, but when all the details were brought out about union rules, salaries, etc., RUBY would state he could get everything taken care of as he "had friends in Chicago" or "had connections in Chicago". McELROY advised he did not know whether MCA ever booked any acts to the Club Vegas. JOHN ALBERT HITT, owner Hitt Attractions, Dallas, was McELROY's assistant at MCA and dealt with RUBY more than did McELROY.

McELROY also stated he recalled DEWEY GROOM, Texas, owner of a hillbilly type night club, and RUBY had promoted hillbilly dances in Dallas. According to McELROY, RUBY did not appear to have any money and was considered a borderline operator. McELROY also advised one (first name unknown) PAUL, who backed a number of small night clubs in Dallas, may have put up some backing for RUBY. PAUL reportedly can be located through one CHRIS SEMOS at Semos Restaurant located in the industrial area of Dallas.

RUBY said that he had been referred to O'LEARY by one BUDDY KING, a singer and impressionist, who, according to RUBY, had worked for RUBY for many years and was very friendly with RUBY.

RUBY told O'LEARY that he was having trouble booking acts into the Carousel Club because ABE WEINSTEIN, owner of the Colony Club, and his brother, BARNEY WEINSTEIN, owner of the Theater Lounge, both located in Dallas, controlled theatrical booking in the Dallas area and RUBY was unable to obtain good acts for his club.

WAYNE M. KELLER, 1406 Paul Brown Building, 818 Olive Street, St. Louis, Missouri, telephone number CEntral 1-7766, advised he is the owner of Wayne Keller Theatrical Agency at the above address. He furnished the following information:

KELLER has not met JACK L. RUBY of Dallas, Texas, in person, however, has had several long distance telephone conversations with RUBY. During December of 1961, RUBY telephoned KELLER in an attempt to locate a comedian for the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas. Since that time he has had three or four telephone conversations with RUBY concerning talent for his club.

Approximately three or four weeks ago, probably during the first of November, 1963, he received a long distance telephone call from RUBY wanting to book a comedian by the name of BILL DEMAR, and who is currently playing at the Carousel Club in Dallas.

R U BY talks fast in machine gun-type language, meaning he talks swiftly. A lot of times the telephone conversation would last thirty to forty minutes, during which time they discussed various theatrical talent. RUBY would be talking swiftly and almost in the middle of the sentence would change the throught of the conversation and begin talking about something entirely different. In talking to comedians who had played in RUBY's club in Dallas, RUBY would instruct the comedians not to tell any Jewish jokes since RUBY stated "my people have suffered enough." RUBY would often heckle comedians during their act by shouting at them, "don't tell that joke."

KELLER did not have any knowledge concerning the friends or associates of RUBY. KELLER volunteered that prior to coming to St. Louis he was manager of the Louisville Office of Pinkerton Detective Agency for five years.

IRVIN CHARLES MAZZEI, 12231 Hesby Street, North Hollywood, California, advised that until November 19, 1963, he was Western Regional Director of the Associated Guild of Variety Artists (AGVA) with an office at 6513 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California.

IRVIN

Mr. MAZZEI advised that he met JACK RUBY for the first time in Dallas, Texas, during March of 1958 shortly after the Dallas area had been included in the Western Region of AGVA. He was introduced to RUBY at RUBY's nightclub by JAMES DOLAN, the Branch Manager of the Dallas office of AGVA. RUBY wanted to buy drinks and dinner for MAZZEI. However, MAZZEI declined and remained in the nightclub for only about ten minutes. DOLAN said RUBY was a chronic complainer and hot-tempered. No business was transacted on this meeting.

TEXAS

During March of 1961 MAZZEI journeyed to Dallas to address the membership of the Dallas branch of AGVA, the Executive Committee members and to meet various nightclub operators in the Dallas area. He stayed at the Adolphous Hotel one and one-half days, during which time a cocktail party was held at the hotel in his behalf, hosted by Mr. CHARLES HOFFMAN, a national board member of AGVA, and ALTON SHARP, the branch manager of the Dallas office. At the party he again met RUBY and had a runin with him because RUBY tried to monopolize MAZZEI's time. RUBY claimed that his competitors in Dallas nightclubs were putting on amateur shows the same night as RUBY, causing too much spread in the customer potential. RUBY wanted the union to get the competitors to change nights or have the union eliminate amateur shows completely.

RUBY stated he had labor connections in Chicago, that he could pressure MAZZEI. RUBY alleged to be a personal friend of the Midwest Regional Director of AGVA at that time, one ERNIE FAST, who is presently on the Interim Committee of AGVA. RUBY said he would take care of MAZZEI if his demands were not met. MAZZEI stated he did not take the threat seriously, as he frequently receives this type of action from nightclub owners.

RUBY showed MAZZEI an honorary Dallas Police Department membership card and displayed a small gun which he carried in his belt. RUBY claimed he was well known in Dallas, had good contacts and had "ins" with the Dallas Police Department. MAZZEI stated that in his opinion RUBY was attempting to impress him, and RUBY was advised that the matter would be looked into, and that RUBY could do whatever his competitors were doing.

At this same time RUBY insisted that MAZZEI come to his nightclub, and on that evening MAZZEI and HOFFMAN went to RUBY's nightclub. They remained at the nightclub for about twenty minutes with RUBY wanting to buy them drinks and beginning to complain about the same subject. MAZZEI told him that he preferred not to talk about it, that he had made his comments and would look into it further.

MAZZEI did not have any contact with RUBY until about October 1961, at which time he dropped into RUBY's nightclub while in Dallas. He remained about twenty minutes, during which time RUBY complained about the same thing. On this occasion RUBY made the statement, "If you don't help me, eventually I'm going to blow my top and go over and bust up the joints", referring to competitors' nightclubs. MAZZEI again told him there was nothing he could do at that time, and RUBY became quite angry.

MAZZEI had no further contact with RUBY until about October of 1962. From October 1962 until November 16, 1963, RUBY has called MAZZEI about eight times on the telephone. Two of these calls were made during the latter part of 1962 and pertained to the same complaint RUBY had previously expressed.

In February 1963 a directive was issued by AGVA ordering the elimination of amateur nights in nightclubs which maintained membership in AGVA. During the first part of March 1963 RUBY called MAZZEI on the telephone and stated he was happy with the decision and stated that he would comply by cutting out his amateur shows completely.

About this same time one ABE WEINSTEIN, a Dallas nightclub owner, flew from Dallas to Los Angeles and contacted MAZZEI. WEINSTEIN requested an extension of the deadline for stopping amateur shows due to previous commitments. MAZZEI granted a two-week extension to WEINSTEIN.

On this same date MAZZEI called TOM PALMER in Dallas, who was the representative for AGVA. He advised PALMER of the extension granted to WEINSTEIN and directed PALMER to contact RUBY and advise him he would be granted the same extension.

On the next day MAZZEI received a telephone call from his boss in New York City, one BOBBY FAYE, National Administrative Secretary of AGVA. He learned from FAYE that RUBY was dissatisfied and had flown from Dallas to New York to see Mr. FAYE and was, in fact, sitting in FAYE's office when the call was made by FAYE. MAZZEI discussed the matter with FAYE and advised him that the amateur shows would be eliminated no later than the latter part of March 1963.

During April of 1963 RUBY again called MAZZEI concerning his nightclub competitors in Dallas. RUBY alleged that the other nightclub owners had influenced the amateur artists to join AGVA and were allegedly paying them at the accepted wage scale set by AGVA. RUBY claimed they were utilizing these amateur performers on the same nights and calling them auditions. RUBY alleged that, in fact, they were not paying the performers the scale set by AGVA, and that the performers were kicking back some of the money to the nightclub owners. He alleged that this action was merely a subterfuge to continue amateur nights. RUBY claimed that he had newspaper advertisements of his competitors proving this and would send them to MAZZEI. MAZZEI later learned that he had sent the advertisements to BOBBY FAYE.

In April or May of 1963 MAZZEI received a telephone call from a WILLIAM MILLER. Mr. MAZZEI knows MILLER personally as a person active in show business and promoting entertainers. MILLER stated that he was a friend of RUBY's and was calling on behalf of RUBY in an attempt to straighten out the matters of amateur nights in Dallas nightclubs. He explained the problem to MILLER, and MILLER agreed there was nothing that could be done concerning the situation.

From April 1963 to November 16, 1963, MILLER received about four telephone calls from RUBY, who always complained about the same matter, auditions and/or amateur nights in Dallas nightclubs.

On November 16, 1963, MAZZEI received a telephone call at his residence, telephone number 7661193, at about 9:00 P.M.

On all previous occasions RUBY had called MAZZEI at his office, telephone number HO 4-8281. MAZZEI's home telephone is unlisted, and he asked RUBY how he obtained his home telephone number. RUBY stated that he had connections, and that he hated to bother MAZZEI. RUBY claimed that he had two striptease girls who would say they did not get the AGVA approved pay scale for performing at the auditions in other Dallas nightclubs. MAZZEI told RUBY to get this information in writing; however, RUBY stated the girls would not put it in writing. RUBY then offered to pay MAZZEI's transportation expenses to Dallas so that he could talk to the girls. RUBY did not mention any names. MAZZEI told RUBY he would be unable to come to Dallas for about a week and a half.

RUBY then complained that one of his girls under contract with him was working in Abe's Theater Lounge on her off nights, and this was a breach of contract with RUBY. MAZZEI agreed the practice was unethical, improper, and he would look into it and contact him later. RUBY made the statement, "You had better, or I'll break her head."

RUBY related to MAZZEI that he had just squashed a complaint against him for beating one of his dancers. RUBY stated that his friends in the Dallas Police Department had advised him that he would get the worst end of a court hearing. He stated that he paid the girl $150.00 and got the thing squashed. MAZZEI is of the opinion that RUBY was attempting to impress him with his toughness. MAZZEI promised RUBY that he would look into all of these matters and, if necessary, take them before the union if the allegations proved true.

On this same evening MAZZEI placed a call to ABE WEINSTEIN at the Colony Club in Dallas regarding the allegations by RUBY of a girl working for WEINSTEIN who was under contract to RUBY. WEINSTEIN assured him that this was not true; that she had completed her obligations to RUBY. MAZZEI agreed that they could straighten the matter out on his next trip to Dallas.

On November 18, 1963, BOBBY FAYE called MAZZEI on the telephone regarding RUBY's making the same complaint to FAYE.

On another occasion, exact period unknown, RUBY made the statement that he needed no bouncing at his nightclubs; that he took care of anybody who got out of line. He said that he always had "his baby" and patted his side to indicate a weapon.

MAZZEI stated that on November 25, 1963, a New York Times reporter called him direct from New York City requesting information about RUBY. He also received a call from a Dallas newspaper on the same date. He furnished both callers a statement that in his opinion RUBY was a very excitable, neurotic type of individual who never thinks a problem out and does things on impulse. He stated this was still his opinion, and added that he thought the only possible motive RUBY could have for shooting OSWALD was that he felt he had suffered a loss of business due to OSWALD's act and, further, RUBY might have felt he could gain some notoriety by shooting OSWALD, thereby becoming publicly known in the nightclub business.

MAZZEI stated he had no knowledge concerning any association of RUBY with OSWALD; knew nothing of his background, hoodlum or gambling connections or Police Department connections, other than those mentioned by RUBY. RUBY had mentioned that he had connections with the "Syndicate" and labor in Chicago and used to work for the "Syndicate" in Chicago. MAZZEI stated he does not recall the exact occasion this was mentioned, and RUBY did not go into any detail concerning these connections. MAZZEI has no information concerning possible subversive connections, radical or extremist views, relatives, associates or girl friends of RUBY. He has no information of his own knowledge concerning any previous violent actions by RUBY.

WILLIAM MILLER, 6675 Whitley Terrace, Hollywood, California, telephone HO 4-4785, advised at his residence on November 29, 1963, that he is currently unemployed, has in the past been the operator of various night clubs, and in addition, has been one to obtain entertainment for night clubs.

MILLER related that he did not know RUBY personally and to his knowledge had never seen him in person or had any contact with him except for one telephone conversation sometime in 1963. He stated that he did not know the exact date but believed it to be sometime in the spring of 1963. He stated that he had received a telephone call from Dallas, Texas, from RUBY in which RUBY had asked MILLER if he could obtain some girls to help sponsor an amateur striptease contest in his Dallas clubs. MILLER stated that he would be unable to do so. For any efforts on the part of MILLER in obtaining the girls, RUBY was to send MILLER some Wilkenson razor blades, a new type of blade made in England. This was never done.

MILLER stated that RUBY advised that he was acquainted with one MC WILLIE who had worked for MILLER as a pit boss at the Riverside Hotel in Reno, Nevada, at a time when MILLER had an interest in the hotel.

MILLER advised that RUBY stated he was having trouble with the Union in Dallas regarding amateur nights. RUBY said that the Union would not let him run the amateur strip nights, but that his competitors were doing so. RUBY asked MILLER if he could help him by virtue of his contacts with show business. MILLER stated he called IRVIN MAZZEI, Regional Director of Associated Guild of Variety Artists in Los Angeles and told MAZZEI he was calling for a friend, JACK RUBY, in Dallas concerning Union trouble and problems with RUBY's competitors in Dallas. MAZZEI told MILLER he would look into the matter further.

MILLER added that the original call came to his residence, but at the time he was at the home of TED LEFF in Beverly Hills and subsequently had the call transferred to the LEFF phone CR 1-9722.

MILLER said that he had recently talked to MC WILLIE at the Thunderbird Hotel in Las Vegas where MC WILLIE is employed,

DEAN M. JENNINGS was telephonically interviewed at his employment, Gallo Wine Company, 225 Shaw Road, South San Francisco, California, telephone JU 9-6802. He advised that he lives on a houseboat in Sausalito, California, and uses Box Office Box 591, Sausalito, as his home address.

He was questioned about his acquaintance with JACK RUBY, the man who was alleged to have shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Dallas Police Department. JENNINGS stated he had met RUBY while he, JENNINGS, was employed as a branch manager of the American Guild Variety Artists (AGVA) in Dallas, Texas during 1956 and 1957. JENNINGS stated he may have contacted RUBY in his official capacity, but he was mainly acquainted with RUBY socially. Both he and RUBY belonged to the Musicians Union Club, located in the Musicians Union Building, Dallas, Texas. RUBY, together with JENNINGS, BILL HARRIS and a NORMAN SMITH used to play poker regularly there. JENNINGS stated that he had an honorary membership card but that RUBY appeared to be a regular member although he was not a musician. BILL HARRIS is the President of the Musicians Union and would be very well acquainted with any other persons who might know RUBY. NORMAN SMITH had something to do with Little Theater groups in the Dallas area.

JENNINGS' impression of RUBY was that he was "a night club character." By this, he meant that he was a small time operator who was always on the fringe of going broke but liked to leave the impression that he was a big shot. RUBY had the reputation of being somewhat of a tough guy and had a very bad temper. He appeared to always be playing the part of a junior version of MICKEY COHEN. JENNINGS stated that he had heard that RUBY used to own a night club in Chicago before he moved to Dallas. If this were true, the AGVA in Chicago would be able to tell more about it.

When questioned about OSWALD or any radical inclinations or acquaintances which RUBY may have had, JENNINGS stated that as far as he knows, RUBY was not smart enough to have any radical ideas. He, JENNINGS, did not know OSWALD.

When questioned about the family of RUBY, JENNINGS stated he had never met any family and assumed that RUBY was single inasmuch

LEWIS J. MC WILLIE, 3627 Eastern, Las Vegas, Nevada, was interviewed on November 25, 1963. MC WILLIE formerly worked for FRED BROWNING at the Top of the Hill Club between Dallas and Ft. Worth, Texas, in Tarrant County. This was an illegal gambling operation where he worked during the 1940's. He stated that he has known JACK RUBY since 1947 or 1948, and that RUBY formerly operated the Vegas Club and now also operates the Carrousel Club in Dallas. He said that he has known RUBY for somewhere between 15 and 20 years, first getting acquainted with him in Dallas, but knew him only as an operator of a night club. He stated that to his knowledge, RUBY has never been involved in any other kind of enterprise, and to his knowledge no one else was associated with him in the Vegas Club. He said that as far as he knew, RUBY operated this establishment within the law and was not known to him to be involved in gambling, prostitution, or illegal liquor sales. He said that he did know that RUBY had come to Dallas from Chicago, but did not know of any particular associates of RUBY. He said RUBY had visited the Top of the Hill, but was not a frequent visitor there. He said he would think that RUBY probably knew most of the members of the Dallas Police Department, simply because of the type of establishment that he ran, but felt that this would be the only basis of any association with the Dallas Police Department since he felt that the operation was a legal one.

CUBA FLA; MEX.

L. J. MC WILLIE said that he had gone to Cuba to work at the Tropicana in Havana, Cuba, and while there sometime in 1959, RUBY had been in Cuba for about a one week's vacation and he had seen RUBY there at that time. He said he knew of no interests RUBY might have had in Cuba.

MC WILLIE said that he returned from Cuba on January 2, 1961, on the same plane which carried some other passengers, at least one of whom expressed a dislike for President EISENHOWER and America's actions in regards to Cuba and it was his recollection that this individual was a member of the Fair Play for Cuba organization. He stated that he had become highly incensed over the remarks this individual made while waiting for the plane in Havana and during the travel to the United States, but that he had controlled his emotions concerning this man's remarks until after the plane's arrival in Miami, whereupon he had physically attacked this individual because of the remarks he had made concerning the United States. He said that this matter received local publicity in Miami press and that he was also interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Miami concerning this situation. He stated that it would be his belief that JACK RUBY would also be very much opposed to any such organization and also pointed out that he had talked to JACK RUBY following this incident and RUBY had remarked to him that he had done the right thing in attacking this man.

He stated that he had correspondence with RUBY and maintained contact with him principally through this means and sometime in early 1963 had felt that he needed some type of protection around the house and had requested RUBY, believed by letter, to obtain a gun for him. He stated he did not specify what kind of gun he wanted but that he had subsequently learned that a COD package awaited him at the Post Office. He stated that he had discussed this matter with his wife and they had decided not to pick up the gun which had been mailed from Dallas, Texas, as they were afraid their children might find the gun. He stated he was sure that this gun was sent to him through RUBY's efforts based upon his initial request. He stated he does not know what disposition might have been made of the gun.

He said his last contacts with RUBY were about two months ago when RUBY contacted him via telephone concerning some trouble he was having with a show, as a result of which he referred RUBY to BILL MILLER, the owner of the Riverside Hotel in Reno, where MC WILLIE had formerly been Club Manager. Their discussion on this occasion had to do only with the club's act with which RUBY was concerned.

MC WILLIE said that since RUBY's name had first come to his attention in connection with the killing of OSWALD, he had searched his mind concerning a possible motive and had come to the conclusion in his own mind that RUBY must have been brooding over the death of the President and that this was an insane act on the part of RUBY. He stated that he is certain in his own mind that RUBY has no underworld connections, although he might be acquainted with some figures in gambling and other illegal activities and stated that the only person that he could suggest who might be on a more intimate basis with RUBY other than the members of the immediate family, was a girl he went with in Dallas, Texas, for about four years by the name of ALICE.

He stated he has never known RUBY to visit Las Vegas and is certain that if RUBY did he would have been in contact with him, as RUBY knows where he works and how to contact him. He also feels that their acquaintance is such that RUBY would not pass through Las Vegas without being in touch with him. He stated he does not know RUBY to have ever been involved in any bookie activity, or in any gambling of any nature other than as a player.

MC WILLIE advised that ELAINE MYNIER is a Dallas girl who worked at the Avis Rental in the Dallas Airport Terminal Building and is acquainted with RUBY. He recalled she visited Havana, and stayed for about two weeks. He denied having used her as a courier between RUBY and himself, explaining that there was no restriction at the time and had he wanted to get a message to RUBY, he would have telephoned him.

MRS. JACK MYNIER

A woman identifying herself as ELAINE MYNIER, Room 301, Spaulding Hotel, San Francisco, California, telephone GA 1-2715, contacted San Francisco Office and identified herself as the person who had recently been raped by two San Francisco Police Department officers, a case which has received considerable local publicity. MYNIER stated that she came to San Francisco from Dallas about a year ago, had lived in Dallas for many years prior to that time where she was employed at National Car Rentals, Dallas airport. Presently she works for same concern in San Francisco. She stated she was well acquainted with JACK RUBY and did not believe he had courage enough to kill anyone and did not believe he had enough patriotism to be upset with reference to the President's assassination. She said that in May following the January when CASTRO took over Cuba, she took a pleasure trip to Cuba; said that RUBY saw her at the airport and gave her a short written message in code consisting of letters and numbers and including the work "arriving". This was to be delivered to L. J. MC WILLIE who was then operating the gambling at the Tropicana Hotel in Havana, prior to the time U. S. gamblers had to leave. She stated she delivered the message to MC WILLIE who made some comment regarding RUBY to the effect that "he is nuts". She stated she has known MC WILLIE for many years and has dated him in the past. She says that prior to going to Cuba, he was a well-known Dallas and Fort Worth gambler and is certain he paid off local police. She says his wife, JUANITA MC WILLIE, still lives in Dallas area and she last knew him to be operating the gambling in the Riverside Hotel, Reno, Nevada, prior to the time the hotel went bankrupt about one year ago. She described MC WILLIE as white, age 56, stocky build, 5' 9", grey hair, blue eyes, distinguished looking and well dressed.

ELAINE MYNIER, also known as Mrs. JACK MYNIER, Spaulding Hotel, San Francisco, California, was interviewed and described L. J. MC WILLIE as a big-time gambler who has always been in the big money and operated top gambling establishments in the United States and Cuba. He has always had a "torpedo" living with him for protection. She frequently saw RUBY in the company of MC WILLIE and described RUBY as a small-time character who would do "anything" for MC WILLIE and that MC WILLIE was in the habit of being surrounded by people who he could "use". She states that as described previously, when she delivered the message from RUBY to MC WILLIE in Havana, Cuba, RUBY gave her the message in Dallas and stated "tell MC WILLIE that SPARKY from Chicago is coming". He mentioned about five letters and numbers which was a coded message. MYNIER wrote down these numbers and letters and when she saw MC WILLIE in Havana, she gave him the message and read the numbers and letters to MC WILLIE from a small note on which she has written them but did not actually give the note to MC WILLIE. MC WILLIE responded that RUBY was "nuts".

In about 1955, RUBY operated the Las Vegas Club on Cedar Spring Road near Lemmon Ave. in Dallas. She frequently saw RUBY and MC WILLIE at the Dallas airport, where she was employed, coming and going on their frequent trips. MC WILLIE owned the "Top of the Hill" in Rockwall, Texas, and the "Four Duces", in Fort Worth, Texas. He ran the Tropicana Hotel in Cuba for about five years. The Tropicana was owned by PEDRO FOX.

MYNIER could furnish no further information concerning RUBY.

The Honolulu Office advised as follows on November 25, 1963:

The Honolulu "Advertiser", November 25, 1963, carries a story indicating JACK RUBY while in Honolulu in June, 1961, tried to recruit entertainers for his Dallas burlesque house, The Carousel. He went to the Barefoot Bar, a respectable night club at Queen's Surf, Honolulu, and approached STERLING E. MOSSMAN, who is the leader of the Barefoot Gant Entertainers, about coming to Dallas. RUBY was interested in girls, not musicians, and told MOSSMAN, "The more they shake the better," and that he could use six Tahitian dancers. MOSSMAN later went to Fort Worth and stopped to see RUBY at The Carousel. MOSSMAN, who is a former Honolulu police officer, but now a singer, musician, Master of Ceremonies, decided none of his entertainers would sign a contract with RUBY. MOSSMAN quoted as saying RUBY stayed at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and was accompanied by two out of four friends. MOSSMAN is currently at the Knickerbocker Hotel, Los Angeles.

FBI Honolulu check at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel reflects no record of RUBY or RUBENSTEIN as a guest at the Royal Hawaiian or other Sheraton Hotels, 1960, 1961, or 1962, and identity of two traveling companions unknown.

Investigation by SA J. STERLING ADAMS on November 25, 1963, further revealed QUE MARTIN, a local Negro musician, met RUBY during 1961 visit and two male companions, both Caucasians, early 30's, one a Mexican type, but names unknown and no pertinent background known. HAWAII; ILLEGIB

Honolulu "Star-Bulletin," on November 25, 1963, carries a story that FRANK PEPI, a member of Topnochers Entertainers Group now at Copacabana, Honolulu, knew RUBY slightly when they played the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas, across from RUBY's Carousel. PEPI stated, "He dropped in one night to catch the show, and after we were off, bought us a drink and invited us to drop in at The Carousel. His place stayed open later than the club we were playing, and I guess we went over a dozen times or so. Sometimes he'd send us over a drink. The Carousel wasn't a very nice place, but RUBY tried to give

"the impression it had real class. He was a typical night club owner. RUBY dressed well and was amiable. He would take a drink, but if he was a heavy drinker, I don't know."

PEPI advised SA ADAMS he had only casual contact with RUBY at Dallas in 1961, but no associates or other pertinent information known.

HENRY JOSEPH MORICI, Day Manager, Sho-Bar, 228 Bourbon Street, informed Special Agents FRANK A. SASS, JR., and THEODORE R. VIATER, that he is not personally acquainted with JACK RUBY and knows nothing of him except what he has heard in the past four or five days.

In this regard he has understood that the FBI had been making inquiries concerning the fact that JACK RUBY had come to New Orleans about five to six months ago to interview "JADA", a stripper, who worked at this club. He stated that he personally knows nothing of the contacts between RUBY and "JADA", except that "JADA", after leaving the Sho-Bar, went to Dallas, Texas, allegedly to work for RUBY at a night club, the name of which he could not recall.

He knew nothing of any phone calls made by RUBY to the club and has heard no conversation among the few employees to this effect.

He stated that it was not uncommon for patrons of the Sho-Bar to answer the pay phone, which he stated happens with considerable frequency and for this reason would have no knowledge of who if anyone had contact with RUBY.

JOHN LEIF FRICKSTAD, employed as counterman at Phil's Delicatessen, 3531 Oaklawn, residence, 8631 Turtle Creek Boulevard, phone EM. 3-1288, furnished the following information:

He has known JACK L. RUBY by sight for about two years. He has had very little conversation with him, but does recognize him readily.

On the night of November 22, 1963, sometime after 8:00 PM and probably about 10:00 PM, RUBY came into Phil's Delicatessen and ordered eight corn beef sandwiches with mustard and ten cold drinks, eight Black Cherries and two Celery Tonics. He also ordered three cups of butter, one-half loaf of bread, and some extra pickles. Potato salad and pickles were provided with each sandwich. RUBY stated he was taking these sandwiches to the disc jockies at Radio Station KLIF, since they were working late. He said he didn't know how he would get in with the sandwiches, since the radio station was locked up, but he stated he was sure he could get in since he was bringing them sandwiches. He mentioned they were working late on "this case," apparently referring to the news coverage of the story of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

During the time that he was waiting for the sandwiches to be made, FRICKSTAD stated that the assassination of the President was a terrible thing and RUBY agreed with him, although he did not discuss it to any extent. Much of the time while waiting for the sandwiches to be prepared, RUBY was on the telephone and, from what he said, FRICKSTAD was of the opinion he was talking to a secretary or business associate, since he mentioned New York and told the party on the phone he was leaving the delicatessen to go to KLIF and if anything should come up he could be called at the radio station.

As he left, FRICKSTAD carried the order out to RUBY's car, which he recalls was a white, four-door automobile, possibly a Chevrolet. As he recalls, the total bill was $9.50, plus tax, and as a tip RUBY gave FRICKSTAD one of his cards on which he wrote a notation, and told FRICKSTAD that this card would admit him free to either of his clubs,

MATTIE MORRIS, Cashier, Phil's Delicatessan, 3531 Oaklawn, residence 1319 Templecliff, furnished the following information:

She has known JACK L. RUBY for more than ten years, having first met him when he ran a club on South Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas. She last saw him sometime after 8:00 PM, on November 22, 1963, when he came to Phil's Delicatessen and bought $8.00 or $9.00 worth of sandwiches. While waiting for the sandwiches, he made a call to an individual unknown to MORRIS and during this conversation mentioned something to the effect that he would try to "slip back" to the club later that night.

When he was not busy on the phone, he mentioned to MORRIS that he had closed his club for three days and MORRIS asked him why. He replied to the effect that there are some things more important than money and did not further elaborate. When his sandwiches were ready, he paid for them with a $20.00 bill and received the change therefrom.

As MORRIS recalls his dress, RUBY was wearing a soft gray felt hat and an overcoat. She stated everytime she has seen RUBY he has been wearing this soft gray felt hat, or one similar to it.

ROBERT BASKIN, Chief of Dallas Morning News Bureau, 620 Albee Building, 1426 G Street NW, Washington, D. C., advised he had observed something which might or might not have any significance in connection with this case, but which he wished to pass on for any value it might have.

BASKIN stated he had observed that the Saturday, November 23rd edition of the Dallas Morning News, which came out at 8:00 PM, Friday, November 22, 1963, carried, on Page 19 of Section 1, advertisements of Carousel and Vegas Clubs, stating these clubs would be closed Friday, Saturday and Sunday. BASKIN said he wondered about the closed notices having been placed so quickly after the assassination of President KENNEDY, and also about the mention of Friday in the advertisements. He stated JACK RUBY might have placed the ads in the paper sometime Friday afternoon. BASKIN said he thought the pages carrying the advertisement might have been matted as early as 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM, Friday. He stated the exact time the advertisements were placed would have to be ascertained, if possible, from the office of the Dallas Morning News in Dallas, Texas. BASKIN noted that the Carousel and Vegas Clubs were the only establishments of their kind that carried closed notices in the same edition of the paper.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs GLENN E. SILVEY and DAVID S. BYERLY:

AT OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA

On November 25, 1963, the morning edition of The Daily Oklahoman, November 25, 1963, contained the following article captioned "County Man Tells of OSWALD, RUBY."

"LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY were both in a downtown Dallas bar last Sunday, but did not meet a Midwest city man who spoke to both, said Sunday.

"Vera Davis, TEXAS B: 3/27/1917, OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA. who went to Dallas to join a Showman's Club, said OSWALD entered JACK's bar in the 800 block Exposition. I was buying, so I called him over, DAVIS said.

"DAVIS quoted OSWALD as saying, 'LYNDON JOHNSON was a nothing senator who got to be a big shot.'

"He was real bug on JOHNSON, DAVIS said. The Midwest city man said he spoke to OSWALD for about five minutes. Soon after, RUBY, an old friend of DAVIS, entered the bar.

"DAVIS said OSWALD spoke of the upcoming trip of JOHNSON and KENNEDY and specifically mentioned the trip to the Trade Mart where the President was to talk.

"DAVIS said he met RUBY ten years ago when he was a night clerk in a Dallas hotel and RUBY was running some gambling upstairs. DAVIS described RUBY as a very calm man. DAVIS said he was attempting to get admission to the Lone Star Showman's Club, a club of carnival people, and RUBY introduced him to a COTTON WHEELER, an old Texas showman, who sponsored him to the club.

"OSWALD was in the club at the time, DAVIS said, and everyone thought he was kind of a pest and could have done without him.

GES & DSB/cah
DL 44-1639
CC 44-430

"DAVIS said OSWALD, who was out of place in his sloppy dress, kept saying, JOHNSON is a nothing. He was very animated in his conversation which nobody was particularly impressed by.

"The general impression was that he, OSWALD, did not belong there and was not welcome, DAVIS said.

"DAVIS pictured RUBY, whom he originally met ten years ago in a Dallas synagogue, as soft spoken business man, moderate and business-like."

VERN A. DAVIS was located at 6120 S.E. Sixth Street, and DAVIS advised that he was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on May 27, 1917, and was employed as income tax accountant and salesman, his last occupation being with the Midwest Publishing Company, Midwest City, Oklahoma, in advertisement sales. DAVIS stated that he phoned the managing editor of The Daily Oklahoman concerning the information reported in an article in The Daily Oklahoman on November 25, 1963. He said that he went to Dallas, Texas, on November 17, 1963, his purpose being to join the Lone Star Showman's Club which he described as a club consisting of carnival and concessionnaire people. He said while in Dallas at about 7:00 or 7:30 p.m. at what used to be Jack's Bar, not JACK RUBY, now believed to be Ed's Bar at 813 Exposition Street, he was discussing various topics of conversation with some "carnival people". He said while there, an individual joined the group and began making derogatory statements about then Vice-President LYNDON JOHNSON and his forthcoming trip to the Trade Mart. He said at no time was President KENNEDY's name mentioned by this individual. He said he believed this individual to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD whose picture he saw both in the newspaper and television. He said he then left the bar for a short time and when he came back he noticed an individual he thought to be OSWALD had left and JACK RUBY was standing at the bar.

He said he had met JACK RUBY about ten years ago in Dallas, Texas, and he said JACK RUBY was a gambler who followed fairs and carnivals throughout the country "hustling" poker games. He said he asked JACK RUBY if he knew anyone at the Lone Star Showman's Club and RUBY told him he knew an individual named COTTON WHEELER. He said COTTON WHEELER later sponsored his application for the Lone Star Showman's Club. He said further he did not know RUBY as a night club operator but only as a gambler going from carnival to carnival. DAVIS said specifically that in further reflection about the identity of OSWALD, he was not really as sure that OSWALD was in the club as he had been the day before.

He said he saw JACK RUBY at the Topeka Fair abut two years previous, but he did not know anything about his background other than he was a gambler. RUBY's picture was exhibited to DAVIS and he said he believed this was the same JACK RUBY that he had seen in Jack's Bar.

DAVIS said he had served time for burglary in the Oklahoma State Penitentiary at McAlester, the burglary having been committed at Chickasha, Oklahoma, in 1945. He said he also served time at Folsom Penitentiary and at the penitentiary in Tracy, California, for burglary in Sacramento, California. Warden L. P. GOLLAHER, Federal Correctional Institution, Seagoville, Texas, telephonically advised on November 26, 1963, that inmate OTHO D. HOWARD had requested an interview with an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as he was positive he observed OSWALD and RUBY at the Vegas Club two months ago, and that photographs of OSWALD and RUBY were taken at that time.

GOLLAHER was subsequently interviewed on November 28, 1963, at the Federal Correctional Institution, Seagoville, by SA's GARY S. WILSON and RICHARD T. RABIDEAU, at which time he made available for review the prison record on inmate OTHO D. HOWARD.

Records reflect OTHO D. HOWARD, 3103 Poinsetta, Dallas, Texas, date of birth November 1, 1925, was admitted to the Federal Correctional Institution at Seagoville on October 30, 1963, for conviction of perjury and conspiracy, Title 18, Section 1621, total sentence 18 months. He had no prior record and pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge T. WHITFIELD DAVIDSON, Northern District of Texas. HOWARD had alleged injury by a Southwestern Bell Telephone Company truck and filed suit for damages, naming as witnesses WALTER D. DONALDSON and ROBERT L. THOMPSON. These men originally upheld HOWARD's claim of injury but later stated they had done so as part of a conspiracy and knew nothing of such an injury. Noted in HOWARD's records were four previous claims of conspiracy for physical injury against various companies during a period from 1954 to 1961.

HOWARD's medical history includes a report by DR. JOSEPH KNAPP, 1353 North Westmoreland, Dallas, dated November 13, 1963, and covering a perid from July 10, 1962, to July 10, 1963, in which DR. KNAPP diagnosed HOWARD as paranoid schizophenia, schizo-affective. Records also reflect HOWARD's FBI Number to be 514 462 K.

Also shown in this record is an attempted visit November 28, 1963, by LINDA SUMRALL, Tyler, Texas, and SHERRY GRAY, no address given. The visit was denied since HOWARD was still in admission section.

OTHO D. HOWARD, inmate, Federal Correctional Institution (FCI), Seagoville, furnished the following information:

He states he believes, but is not positive, he saw JACK RUBY and LEE OSWALD together at the Vegas Club 3508 Oak Lawn, Dallas, Texas, sometime during the first two weeks in September, 1963. HOWARD states on this occasion he was at the Vegas Club at 8:00 or 9:00 in the evening, date unknown, with DAVID CONN (Phonetic), street address unknown, Dallas, Texas, and one other male companion whose name he did not recall. They were seated at a booth near the entrance with himself and DAVID facing the door. RUBY and the man he believes was OSWALD, came in together and walked in his direction. RUBY was greeted by an unknown party and then sat down with OSWALD and a woman and two other men, one of whom was a well-dressed Mexican who talked rather loudly in either Spanish or French. HOWARD stated he was of the impression the man was speaking in Spanish but that one of his companions stated the Mexican was speaking French. The woman with them appeared to be a friend of RUBY's.

HOWARD heard none of the conversation that he can recall but remembers that the man he thinks was OSWALD appeared to say little during the course of the evening and/the group as a whole seemed to be enjoying themselves in that they were laughing and talking.

Sometime during this period, a woman was taking pictures with a Polaroid camera with a flash. HOWARD had never seen her before and did not think she was a club photographer. He believes she gave the pictures to RUBY but is not sure. He can definitely remember only that someone was taking flash pictures nearby.

About an hour after the entrance of RUBY and OSWALD, HOWARD left his booth for a few minutes. When he came back, there was a fight in progress in the area of his booth and he, HOWARD, was hit in the nose with a bottle by an unknown party, causing a slight cut. He was then asked to leave by a heavy-set woman who was taking tickets at the door.

HOWARD then left the Vegas Club and went to a grocery store nearby and got a box of Band-Aids. He stated the cut on his nose was slight and he does not think the clerk at the store would remember him. He does not remember the name of the store but thinks it was a 7-11 or Cabells. He then went to the rest room at a nearby service station and bandaged his nose. He saw no attendant at the service station. He then went to the Idle Hour Bar in the same area and had "a beer or two". From there he went to a Mexican cafe, again in the same area, and while eating, he observed RUBY and the man he thinks was OSWALD a second time. He believes the time of the second observation was sometime between 11:00 and 12:00 midnight. RUBY and OSWALD came into the cafe with the woman who had ordered him from the Vegas Club and the Mexican previously mentioned, and sat down at a nearby table.

HOWARD left after finishing his meal and did not see them together again. HOWARD states that he does not know positively that the man he saw with RUBY was OSWALD, but that after seeing pictures of both individuals on television, he was positive of RUBY's identity and quite certain the second man was OSWALD. He restated this opinion when shown separate pictures of JACK L. RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He also stated that he had drunk a moderate amount of liquor on the night in reference. He was not sure of any definite time other than as previously stated.

When questioned as to the amount of liquor consumed, he replied that his best estimate would be "several beers". He does not feel that he was intoxicated. HOWARD states that at no time during the entire evening did he overhear any conversation that he can recall.

He also states that he had never seen either JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD prior to this evening but that he did see the man he believes was OSWALD about one week later at the Branch Office Lounge on South Industrial in Dallas. On this occasion, HOWARD saw the man come in the front door and walk toward the lounge in the rear of the building. HOWARD states he paid no particular attention to the man and heard him say nothing.

JOHN W. MASHEK, Washington Correspondent for the Dallas Morning News (Dallas, Texas), 620 Albee Building, 1426 G Street NW, Washington, D. C., stated that he had been interested in trying to find out if there was any possible connection between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and/or JACK RUBY and gambling and racketeering activities. MASHEK stated that any information he had in this regard was hearsay, based on either information in the various news media or rumor.

MASHEK stated the person who would be best able to furnish information concerning JACK RUBY would be TONY ZOPPI, Amusement Editor, Dallas Morning News.

MASHEK said he had heard on the news, what he considers at present to be a rumor, of OSWALD having been in Mexico in the latter part of September, 1963, about the time President KENNEDY made a trip there. MASHEK stated he was trying to locate the file references in his office to ascertain the dates of the visit.

MASHEK said he had heard or read something about JACK RUBY or RUBY's brother having made trips to Chicago, but this was rumor as far as MASHEK is concerned, and he could not furnish any factual information in this regard.

MASHEK said in conversations with newsmen he had heard what he considered at the moment to be a "wild rumor," mentioned by a Chicago Daily News man who was working in Dallas at the office of the Dallas Morning News, to the effect that a payoff was made to OSWALD or RUBY in Chicago, two weeks before the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. MASHEK said the rumor or information supposedly stemmed from an informant in Chicago, who reportedly told the Federal and Police Reporter for the Chicago Daily News about it.

MASHEK said he could not recall the name of the Chicago Daily News reporter in Dallas who had mentioned this alleged "payoff," but he had the name written down at home. He said he would find out the name and advise interviewing Agents of same.

C., advised he had not yet located the name of the Chicago Daily News reporter who had been in Dallas, to whom MASHEK had previously referred in an interview on November 25, 1963. MASHEK said the name was in his voluminous notes at his home, and he would try to locate it and advise.

MASHEK stated that he wished to be entirely cooperative and to furnish all information he could in this case. He stated he would not want to cause any recriminations against newsmen whose names he mentioned or to whom he referred, who were only doing their job in running down news leads. Accordingly, he requested that no specific reference be made to such individuals in any investigation which might be conducted based on information which he furnished.

MASHEK advised that MIKE QUINN, who works on the City Desk of the Dallas Morning News, was in Dallas, Texas, on Friday. QUINN came to Washington, D. C., Saturday night and on Sunday mentioned to MASHEK something which QUINN had heard in Dallas. This was something to the effect that there had been a payoff on the assassination of President KENNEDY.

MASHEK stated that he called the Department of Justice on Sunday afternoon, November 24, 1963, and talked to Assistant Attorney General HERBERT MILLER in charge of the Criminal Division, and to JACK ROSENTHAL, and told them about the rumor he had heard.

MASHEK stated that he telephonically contacted the City Editor of the Dallas Morning News in Dallas, Texas, who told him they were running down a rumor which had been heard from a Chicago Daily News man working in Dallas, Texas, according to which there had been a payoff in Chicago in connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

MASHEK stated that he had no information as to the amount of this rumored payoff, who supposedly made it or who received it.

MASHEK said he had assumed the supposed payoff would have been made to LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY, but upon reflection, he thinks the rumor would have referred to OSWALD at the time because RUBY was not publicly connected with the assassination until midday Sunday.

MASHEK stated he had no factual information whatsoever in connection with this rumor. He stated he would advised the Federal Bureau of Investigation if any factual information in this regard should come to his attention.

1 Date December 2, 1963

JACK WILLNER, reporter, "Chicago Daily News", was contacted by Assistant Special Agent in Charge WILLIAM B. WELTE. WILLNER admitted that he was source of rumor which got around wherein a payoff was allegedly made to OSWALD and/or RUBY in Chicago in connection with assassination of President KENNEDY. WILLNER advised that no one person was source of this information. After the assassination of President KENNEDY, a number of people, including patrolmen on Chicago Police Department, contacted him with tidbits of information and ideas. He stated he received information that there had been a Cuban committee that had been active in Chicago and one individual, whose identity he cannot recall, suggested to him that perhaps the Cuban committee had been behind the assassination.

According to WILLNER, as a result of all the information he had gleaned concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY, he concluded there was a good possibility there had been money paid to OSWALD or RUBY to provide for the assassination. He did nothave any facts to back this up and he passed this analysis of his own to HANSEN, "Chicago Daily News" reporter covering the Dallas story, to see if he could secure any corroboration of the theory that there had been a payoff in Chicago.

WILLNER stated he was unable to get any corroboration of his theory and therefore did not print this story. He stated he still feels, although he does not have facts to back it up, that there could very likely have been such as he does not believe that either OSWALD or RUBY acted spontaneously on their own. He stated he had secured anything to corroborate this theory of his he would have published it in the paper. He could not give the identity of any person who suggested this theory to him and feels that this conclusion was arrived at by him as a result of all of the information reaching him.

TO : Mr. Mohr

DATE: December 3, 1963

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

A story in the "Washington Post" this morning is headlined "FBI Warned Dallas Police of Threats to Kill Oswald." The Director has inquired, "Can we find out who the 'Justice spokesman' is?" Jack Landau, who wrote this story, called my office yesterday at which time he had the entire story. The only question he asked was whether it was true the FBI had advised the Dallas Police Department. Wick, who talked with Landau, told him that Sheriff Bill Decker of Dallas had made such a statement, that Chief Curry had admitted it, that this information was carried in Dallas newspapers as well as broadcast on TV and radio early the week following the assassination. Landau said he knew that but he just wanted to confirm positively that his source was all right. He stated he had been talking to Rosenthal in the Department and other "sources" there.

In analyzing the Landau story, it appears he has rewritten much of the information already stated by police officers and has attributed it to Justice sources.

This office, of course, has adhered strictly to a "no comment" and will continue to do so in accordance with the Director's instructions.

FBI Warned Dallas Police of Threats to Kill Oswald

By Jack Landau
Staff Reporter

A Justice Department spokesman disclosed yesterday that the FBI had twice warned the Dallas police of threats that Lee Harvey Oswald would be killed while he was being transferred from the police station to the County jail.

The spokesman said the first warning was given at 2:15 a.m. on the Sunday of Oswald's murder and the second was given personally to the Dallas police chief less than three hours before Jack Ruby shot Oswald in the police station hallway.

The FBI refused to comment. The Dallas police confirmed the 2:15 a.m. call but did not comment on the later call.

The Justice Department spokesman said that the FBI in Dallas had received an anonymous call at about 2 a.m. on Sunday. J. Gordon Shanklin, special agent in charge of the Dallas office, relayed the message to Washington.

Washington headquarters, the spokesman said, told Shanklin to warn the Dallas police and the sheriff.

Dallas Police Captain Glen L. King confirmed the 2:15 a.m. call.

The Justice Department spokesman said that at 10:15 a.m. Shanklin personally called Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry and told him of the phone threat Ruby killed Oswald one hour, five minutes later.

The Dallas police said that the FBI warning had not mentioned anybody's name.

In the face of increasing inquiries into Oswald's killing the Dallas police refused to comment yesterday on how Ruby managed to obtain entrance to the City Hall basement. Captain King said the Dallas police would make no more statements on Ruby's part.

"We are conducting an investigation to determine it," he said. "It would be germane to the trial. We have passed the information we have on to the District Attorney's office."

However, Ruby's attorney, Tom Howard, was quoted as saying that Ruby had said he just walked unchallenged past two officers guarding the basement entrance.

The FBI hopes to send to President Johnson this week its report on the shootings of President Kennedy and Oswald. It will be a narrative account in minute detail of the events, surrounding the two deaths.

President Johnson will have to decide how to make the report public, in keeping with his promise to make every detail known. It is not known now whether the President will turn the report over to the Presidential Commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren or wait until the Commission makes it own report.

Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr, after meeting with the wounded Texas Gov. John Connally, said that a State Board of Inquiry into President Kennedy's murder will begin as soon as the FBI completes its investigation.

"At that time," Carr said,

"I have been told that the FBI will make its evidence and witnesses available to the Texas Court of Inquiry."

In another development, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, 56, said yesterday in Dallas that the FBI came to her house the Saturday after the President's death and showed her a photograph of what she said was a snapshot of Jack Ruby. She said she told the agents she had never seen the man in the snapshot before.

A Justice Department spokesman said that Mrs. Oswald's statement was completely erroneous.

The spokesman said that the FBI had no evidence to connect Ruby to Oswald. He said Mrs. Oswald had been shown a snapshot but that it was not of Ruby.

Can we find out who the "Justice spokesman" is? Certainly we should take "no comment" position. Do Hoover know we have sent but our report & didn't contain the above -

DALY DIARY

By Maggie Daly

DIGGING IN DEEP . . . An Italian writer and former member of the Italian counterpart to our FBI has been doing his own investigation of the Kennedy assassination. His views, at variance with published reports, are the following:

MRS. FRANK J. LEWIS

That Jack Ruby knew Lee Harvey Oswald and the Dallas policeman, J. D. Tippit; that Oswald was supposed to have been killed in the warehouse and because he got out unscathed the timetable was upset and he became a threat to the plotters' security.

That Tippit was not assigned to the police beat on which he discovered Oswald, and that Tippit's own beat was actually on the other side of town on Nov. 22; that Oswald had no fear when he was called over to the patrol car but panicked when Tippit got out of his car with a drawn gun, because Oswald then knew he had been double crossed.

That Oswald requested security in transfer from the police lockup to the city jail; that the gun scope was put on the gun at Klein's and sold as a unit; the scope was not put on by a Fort Worth gunsmith as claimed.

That meetings were held in January, February, and March by a militant group from Cuba who posed as dissatisfied exiles; that the rivalry between the FBI and secret service was well known to the Dallas police, and as a consequence they did not give either organization any pre-parade coöperation.

This Italian informant is convinced by his investigation that there was a plot and that the roots are very deep. He plans to cover the trial in February because he is convinced it is going to be mishandled in Ruby's favor.

QUESTION . . . Is there to be a shakeup in the Chicago police department? There is a rumor that a new chief of detectives will be named.

LATE . . . Look magazine's Dec. 17 issue carries an untimely article entitled, "JFK Could Lose," and it is all about elections.

TOO MUCH DEPT. . . . Robert L. Green, the fashion editor of Playboy magazine, has been asked to sketch some designs for the uniform of the New York City police.

44-24016-(1)

SIGHTS AND SCENES . . . Mrs. Frank J. Lewis is making plans for her annual Christmas tea for new members of the Illinois Club for Catholic Women Sunday in Lewis Towers and also making plans to leave for her Palm Beach home the next day.

A writer for a national sports magazine scouting Wrigley field looking for "character" Bears fans and not having much luck. Most season-ticket holders are staid working people.

Party lovers eagerly searching for tickets for the Life [magazine] Goes to a Party [the Mannequins ball] in the Sarah Siddons Dec. 13 with Chicago's top models . . . but it's been sold out for almost 3 months.

WELCOME TO . . . Harry Sheer, former Daily News sports writer and former publicity director at Arlington-Washington Parks, who has joined CHICAGO'S AMERICAN. You'll like it here, Harry.

TRAVEL TRAUMA . . . The Vagabonds are some of the funniest and most talented performers we know, both on the Chez Paree stage and off, but they weren't laughing very much aboard a plane en route to Chicago. The plane's hydraulic fluid system wasn't registering, and it was supposed that the landing gear had locked. O'Hare was alerted, and fire trucks were standing by. Al Torre, one of the comedians, was sitting in another section of the plane at the time and the man next to him started pulling down all the shades, explaining, "If the plane catches fire I don't want to see it." Said Mr. T., "I got back to the boys in a hurry. I didn't want to be with that stranger." But the gear was cranked down, and it was a happy landing after all.

CONGRATULATIONS TO . . . The Mert Silbars [he's publicist for the State of Israel bonds] on the birth of a son in Lutheran General hospital in Park Ridge.

QUOTE OF THE DAY . . . Carson's Christmas windows have revolving Christmas trees which open and close and have a mannequin inside. A little boy staring in awe suddenly gasped to his mother, "The tree just swallowed her up."

INVITATION . . . Latin American consulate members will be the guests of the Headline club Tuesday when Chicago Tribune reporter Jules Dubois is guest speaker in the Sheraton-Blackstone. Mr. D. just returned from Venezuela.

ROMANCE? . . . There may be a romance blooming between Judy [Miss Illinois] Schlieper and young lawyer Maurice [Morrie] W. Coburn, who is a Republican candidate for nomination for auditor of public accounts. The couple were spotted in the Pump Room recently, and Judy has promised to do volunteer work for his nomination.

FINIS . . . Filming of the movie, "The Night of the Iguana," has just about finished in Mexico without bloodshed. Ava Gardner heads for New York and then Spain, Deborah Kerr and husband Peter Viertel, go to Los Angeles, New York, and home to Switzerland; John Huston goes home to Ireland, Sue Lyon and her boy friend, Hampton Fancher III, return to Los Angeles; but Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton will stay on in Mexico in Casa Kimberly, the magnificent villa Burton recently purchased. The couple will stay until January, when he begins "Hamlet" rehearsals in New York.

Sheriff J. E. Decker, Dallas County, Texas, has advised that it is a problem to furnish security to Ruby in the County Jail because he cannot be placed in close proximity to other prisoners in view of threats which other prisoners have made and which have been overheard by Ruby.

Sheriff Decker has furnished the names of persons whom Ruby has requested be permitted to visit him as well as the identity of all persons who have been permitted to visit Ruby in the past. During the course of investigation, the nature of Ruby's connection with these people will be determined. Sheriff Decker does not contemplate allowing news media representatives to visit Ruby although Ruby has requested that two news media representatives be admitted to see him.

Jack Ruby

Mr. Lee Rankin called from New York to check in with me on the matter of the Commission. He wanted to work out an arrangement with me which he thought might be satisfactory. He said he understood Mr. Belmont handled the investigation.

I told Mr. Rankin that Mr. Belmont, Mr. Rosen and I handled the preparation of the report and will handle additional leads as they come in.

Mr. Rankin asked how he should handle anything that comes up, things the Commission will want developed further, in regard to the FBI - whether they should be handled directly with me or somebody I would designate.

I replied that I will designate someone. I explained that I sent Mr. Malley down to Dallas to handle all of our angles down there; that he was on the ground there; and that I think he probably would be the man who would be more familiar with things Mr. Rankin should further explore. I stated Mr. Malley is in Dallas at the present time but will be ordered back tomorrow; that he will be available; and that we will be glad to run out any additional matters he may want.

I advised Mr. Rankin of the difficulty [illegible] about the Department's desire to issue certain conclusions; that they wanted to issue a statement before the report went to the Commission reaching conclusions Oswald was the assassin, no foreign or subversive [illegible] involved, and Rubenstein and Oswald had no connection; that I flatly disagreed; they took it up with the White House and the President agreed with me that we should reach no conclusion; nevertheless the report does reach two conclusions in substance.

I said I personally believe Oswald was the assassin; that the second aspect as to whether he was the only man gives me great concern; that we have several letters, not in the report because we were not able to prove it, written to him from Cuba referring to the job he was going to do, his good marksmanship, and stating when it was all over he would be brought back to Cuba and presented to the chief; that we do not know if the chief was Castro and cannot make an investigation because we have no intelligence operation in Cuba; that I did not put this in the report because we did not have proof of it and didn't want to put speculation in the report; that this was the reason I urged strongly that we not reach conclusion Oswald was the only man.

As to Rubenstein, I said I did not want a statement about Rubenstein and Oswald; that we have no proof they were ever together. I stated Rubenstein is a shady character from the hoodlum element of Chicago, has a poor background, runs a nightclub in Dallas, and is what would be called a police buff; that the police officers in that precinct have been able to get food and liquor from him at any time they drop in; that while I think there was no connection between him and Oswald, I did not want the report to be 100% sure on that.

Fourth, I stated I did not believe any conclusions concerning Rubenstein should be reached at this time because he has not been tried; that was why I suggested to the Attorney General of Texas - and understood the Chief Justice did too - that his court of special inquiry be held in abeyance until after the Commission makes its findings. I said I thought they would go ahead with the Rubenstein trial in February; that was why I felt our report should name merely the facts we have established.

I further stated there may be some aspects Mr. Rankin will want to have run out further; that there may be letters written to members of the Commission; that we have letters from people who claim to have seen Oswald; that up to the time we submitted the report we had cleared up all these angles except the Cuban thing which I discussed generally and explained that the informer recanted and blew that angle out of the window; that sort of thing may be popping up all the time. I advised Mr. Rankin if he wanted any leads followed out or any implementation of what we have already done we will give him 100% cooperation.

Mr. Rankin stated he knew we would; that he just wanted to establish liaison; that he does not want to bother me until properly establishing it as a matter I should know. I told him not to hesitate to call me; that I will designate Mr. Bailey and he will advise me at once of anything. Mr. Rankin then said he would get in touch with me if he thinks there is anything which should be taken up on that level.

I mentioned to him the actions of the Soviet Embassy, the Communist Party in New York, and John Abt in making available to us their information on Oswald.

I also discussed the operations of the Dallas Police Department in the case which led to the murder of Oswald.

I told Mr. Rankin the Department held the report about five days and then began to look items from the Department on it, items such as the shooting of General Walker, things not known in Dallas; that I kept pressing them to get the report to the Commission; that a debate was going on between the Department and me; that I did not want any conclusion drawn but I thought a conclusion had been made in the letter of transmission to the Commission; that there would have been no purpose in appointing a Presidential Commission except to evaluate the facts; that it was the duty of the FBI to get the facts and let the Commission reach a conclusion.

I told Mr. Rankin we would want to do anything we can here to make his job easier. He said he has always had complete confidence in that and in me.

Mr. Rankin inquired if anything had been done about seeing that the films would be preserved and available for the Commission. I answered that we have them ourselves; that we have films taken by private individuals; that the President was not being covered by a car with television people as they do here in Washington; that there was not a professional photographer where this took place; that the Secret Service car immediately in back had already passed the building, which was at an angle, with the result they couldn't tell where the shots were coming from. I mentioned the comment by former Chief of Secret Service Baughman that he could not understand why the Secret Service men did not open fire with machine guns at the window. I said the Secret Service men did not see where the shots came from and would have killed a lot of innocent people if they had done so.

In connection with stories indicating Oswald could not have done this alone, I stated he was a marksman and it wasn't anything he could not do; that we have tested it on our rifle range and were able to get shots off even faster than he did; that there is no question in my mind about it; that we also found the fingerprints and the bullets so conclusively fired from the gun; that we have all this and we have all the photographs.

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Mohr, Conrad, DeLoach, Evans, Rosen, Sullivan

December 12, 1963

Mr. Rankin inquired if we also have the television film run off of the shooting of Oswald, and I told him we have this.

Mr. Rankin said Mr. Malone delivered to him a copy of the report and also offered to help in any way possible; this was very kind of Malone; but he will not deal with Malone in anything unless it is some emergency and he has to handle it locally. I told Mr. Rankin this was all right and if he should need to call upon Malone, Malone would be available.

I also told Mr. Rankin there is a direct wire between the New York Office and here; that he can always place any calls to here over our wire; and that I will arrange for this.

I told Mr. Rankin to let us know if there is anything we can do.

Very truly yours,

J. E. H.

Enclosed is one copy of a clipping from the "Boston Globe" 12-5-63 indicating that Eva Grant has stated Ruby was well acquainted with Officer J. D. Tippit.

As you have been previously advised, the investigation should fully resolve the question of the degree of relationship between Ruby and Tippit.

It is also noted that the enclosed news article suggests there may be some confusion regarding allegations that Ruby and Tippit were acquainted and indicates that the officer whom Ruby knew well may have been G. M. Tippit, a member of the Special Services squad.

Ruby Knew Tippit, Killer's Sister Says

By DOM BONAFEDE and STUART H. LOORY

WASHINGTON—Jack Ruby, the strip joint proprietor who murdered Lee Harvey Oswald in the Dallas Police Headquarters before a live television audience, knew the dead patrolman J. D. Tippit well.

"Jack called him Buddy," Mrs. Eva Grant, Ruby's sister, said in a telephone interview. "Jack knew him and I knew him. He used to come into both the Vegas Club and the Carousel Club. He was a fine man." Ruby and his sister owned both clubs—the Carousel strip joint downtown and the other, a suburban rock-'n'-roll hall.

Mrs. Grant said the patrolman—a 37-year-old six-footer who weighed 190 pounds and had a pleasant sense of humor—visited the clubs in the line of duty. He made routine checks while patrolling a beat. "We liked him," she said. "This one was a very good cop. He was in and out of our place many times."

One of the still unanswered questions in the assassination of President Kennedy, the killing of Patrolman Tippit and the subsequent slaying of Oswald is why the patrolman stopped Oswald on East 10th st. in suburban Oak Cliff at 1:18 p.m., 48 minutes after Oswald apparently shot the President four miles away.

The surmise is either that Patrolman Tippit picked Oswald out as fitting the description of the suspected assassin broadcast over the Dallas police radio or that he recognized the ex-Marine and Marxist as a suspicious looking character.

Whatever the reason, he stopped Oswald, questioned him from his radio car and then got out of the car, perhaps to ask more questions. Oswald drew his .38 caliber revolver and fired, killing the policeman.

Records at the Oak Cliff police substation show that patrolman Tippit was not patrolling his regular beat the day of the presidential assassination. He had been ordered closer to town to be in a good position to respond to emergency calls in the downtown area.

At Police Headquarters, Capt Glen King said Tippit had been assigned to the Oak Cliff station ever since it opened in 1956. He was well known in the area.

The dead policeman—a former paratrooper with the 82d Airborne Division and the father of three—had belonged to the force 11 years. His name, Capt. King said, had never come up for promotion as a result of Civil Service examinations but he had received departmental recognition certificates twice. In 1956, he was commended for disarming a drunk who was brandishing an ice pick. The patrolman suffered a knee injury in the tussel but did not injure the drunk. The following year he was commended for general good police work.

Although Mrs. Grant insisted that the slain patrolman was well known in the clubs, the Dallas police roster also contains the name of G.M. Tippit, a member of the special services squad whose responsibility includes vice and narcotics investigations as well as other criminal work.

King shed some light on the police activities just prior to the President's visit in a telephone interview. He said the department had checked out a number of possible trouble-makers in the city and had "some of them" (he would not say how many) under surveillance during the visit.

The department had compiled a list of possible agitators before the city desegregated its schools in September, 1961.

ADMINISTRATIVE

This report constitutes results of investigation since receipt of BUtel to all SACs dated 11/29/63 which stated that all information received at Dallas by teletype was being incorporated in reports at Dallas.

Milwaukee teletype to Bureau and Dallas dated December 9, 1963 set out information about a man, possibly subject, who, when in the Air Force, allegedly was close to Colonel ROGERS, who was rumored to have solicited memberships in the Communist Party. As Milwaukee does not know subject's military background, Dallas was informed in the same teletype that leads were being left to the discretion of Dallas.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS

Synopsis: Mrs. RAE RYAN, Madison, Wis., former friend of OWEN HOWARD REIERSON, JR., who was committed for mental observation after celebrating the assassination of President KENNEDY at Madison, Wis., stated that he had no known Dallas connections. Mrs. MARGARITA REYES, Milwaukee, who said she has been receiving treatment at the Milwaukee County Hospital, stated she saw men resembling OSWALD and RUBY in Milwaukee on several occasions over the past year and she associates them with the unsolved murder of ANTHONY J. BIERNAT, Kenosha, Wis., who was killed in January, 1963. Some of her observations have been proved inaccurate. WALTER JAMES CARLSON, JR., Superior, Wis., formaly in U.S. Air Force, recalls enlisted man named RUBY, possibly subject, was in Communications Section, 521 Fighter-Bomber Group at various AFBs in Florida during latter part of World War II and was rumored to be associated with Col. ROGERS, a base commander who allegedly tried to solicit Communist Party memberships from officers. CARLSON said footlockers of men in Communications Section were searched in 1945 by alleged intelligence officers and RUBY protested vigorously.

O. H. REIERSON, JR. AND ATTEMPTED PHONE CALL FROM DALLAS, TEXAS TO MADISON, WISCONSIN ON NOVEMBER 18, 1963

A report of the Madison, Wisconsin Police Department, made available by the Chief of Police, disclosed that on November 22, 1963 OWEN HOWARD REIERSON, JR., age 24, of 50 Koster Street, Madison, was arrested for disorderly conduct when found celebrating the assassination of President KENNEDY in the State Capitol Building, Madison, Wisconsin.

On November 26, 1963 ROBERT OLSON, State Parole officer, Madison, Wisconsin, advised SA ALEXANDER D. MANSON that REIERSON had been committed to Central State Hospital for the criminally insane for sixty days mental observation. This commitment grew out of the disorderly conduct charge referred to above. OLSON also said that Mrs. RAE RYAN had been a close friend of REIERSON until the incident of November 22, 1963. He said that Mrs. RYAN recalled that on the evening of November 18, 1963, upon returning home, she received information that there had been a long distance call for her from Dallas, Texas. No further information was given and the call was not repeated. Mrs. RYAN said that she knew no one in Dallas and she suggested to OLSON that the call might have concerned REIERSON.

On December 4, 1963 Mrs. RAE RYAN, 1409 Reetz Road, Madison, Wisconsin advised SA ALEXANDER D. MANSON that on November 26, 1963 she received a letter from GEORGE DE HAVEN of Empire Produce Company, Dallas, Texas which stated that he had tried to call her on the phone on the 18th. Mrs. RYAN said that DE HAVEN was her former employer who had been in Los Angeles and had moved to Dallas without her knowledge. Mrs. RYAN also said that REIERSON had no Dallas connections of any kind to her knowledge.

PERSONS RESEMBLING RUBY AND OSWALD SEEN IN MILWAUKEE DURING THE PAST YEAR

On December 3, 1963 Mrs. MARGARITA REYES, 713A South 6th Street, Milwaukee, advised SA EDWARD F. FARRINGTON that she had observed a number of men in the alley behind her house about a year ago and three of these resembled RUBY and OSWALD. She placed the time shortly before the murder of ANTHONY J. BIERNAT, Kenosha, Wisconsin, a jukebox operator who was killed in gangland style in early January, 1963. She said the men were at a garage which was located next to the alley behind her house and which bore certain markings which she claimed resembled a clock on which the time read 20 minutes to 11. She said she saw these men again after the BIERNAT murder and she associates them with the murder. Two of the men who resembled RUBY and OSWALD were seen again, according to Mrs. REYES, on several occasions - the last time on September 14, 1963.

Mrs. REYES said that she was receiving treatment at the Milwaukee County Hospital and was receiving a prescription for pills that would make her "feel happy." An examination of the markings on the garage in question, made by SA FARRINGTON, disclosed that they did not resemble in any respect the clock described by Mrs. REYES.

MILITARY SERVICE

WALTER JAMES CARLSON, Jr., 2103 North 24th Street, advised that he was a technical sergeant in the U.S. Army from November, 1939 to September, 1945, under the Army Serial Number, ASN 693 7723, but was on duty with the U.S. Air Force during the latter part of his service time. He stated after he came back from overseas duty, he was assigned in about September, 1943 to the Alachua Air Force Base at Gainesville, Florida with the 521st Fighter-Bomber Group, in the Communications Section. He stated he does not recall the Squadron number. He stated he was then transferred with his unit to the Kissimmee Air Force Base, Kissimmee, Florida arriving there about December, 1943 and probably in about February, 1944 he was transferred with his unit to the Pinecastle Air Force Base, Orlando, Florida, where he stayed until about September, 1945. In his Communications Section, probably beginning at Kissimmee Air Force Base, was a man named RUBY, whose first name may have been JACK. He stated this man may have been at Gainesville, too, but he does not specifically recall it. He stated the man named RUBY was an enlisted man, possibly a sergeant or a staff sergeant in the Communications Section, purporting to have knowledge of radio and/or telephones. He stated some of the photographs of JACK RUBY, the man who shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD, appear to him to resemble the man named RUBY in the 521st Fighter-Bomber Group at the bases named above. He stated the man in his unit was short, stocky build, dark hair with bald spot on top and the man gambled a lot, having talked about betting on sulky races in Detroit, Michigan, on his furlough. He stated the man was from Chicago, Illinois as he recalls. He stated the man smoked cigars a lot. He stated the man had not been overseas, and appeared to be in a clique at the 521st Fighter-Bomber Group, along with a Master Sergeant BUMPAS (first name not recalled), and a Technical Sergeant CALLAHAN (first name not recalled), and they seemed to have their own way in the Communications Section. He stated the man called RUBY was rumored to be associated with a Colonel ROGERS, base commander of Pinecastle Air Force Base, who he heard had tried to solicit Communist Party Memberships from officers at the Officer's Club there. He stated he has no specific knowledge of this but he had heard rumors about this matter. He stated that in September, 1945, he recalls the footlockers of the men at the Communications Section were searched by men who he heard were from the intelligence branch of the service, and they were supposed to be looking for subversive material. He recalls vividly that the man called RUBY protested vigorously the search of his locker. He stated he inferred from such activities that perhaps the man named RUBY was associated with subversive elements at the base.

VICTIM - DECEASED

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS

Synopsis: MARY J. WALKER, student, Florida Southern College, Lakeland, Florida, advised FBI Tampa on 12/1/63 she was in receipt of information that FRANK CORTELLI, Buffalo, New York, had told SALLY KRUCKEBERG, his girlfriend, allegedly that JACK RUBY was known to him and at one time made a statement that something should be done about Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY, who is putting so much pressure on the "rackets" as he was closing down a lot of the "rackets' businesses." CORTELLI located at Buffalo, New York, and interviewed; denies knowing JACK RUBY. Also denies making statements alleging comments made by JACK RUBY concerning Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY. CORTELLI also stated he is presently unemployed. Investigation reveals current employment at Park Lane Restaurant, Buffalo, New York. Pertinent information set forth. SALLY KRUCKEBERG, girlfriend of CORTELLI, interviewed and states CORTELLI told her he had met JACK RUBY and had made a reference to ROBERT KENNEDY, but stated this appeared to be a theory of CORTELLI's and not a statement of RUBY. BETTY FRIES, roommate of KRUCKEBERG, confirms information furnished by KRUCKEBERG. Details included. Physical description of CORTELLI set out. Information received telephonically indicating an entertainer currently appearing in Buffalo has had previous dealings with RUBY. JOHN GIACCIO, night club entertainer, identified and interviewed. Results set out. Information received from one JAMES LOUIS LA BELLE, Jamestown, New York, also set out.

DETAILS: On December 1, 1963 FBI Tampa advised that MARY J. WALKER, student, Florida Southern College, Lakeland, Florida, contacted SA CLYDE B. GENTRY, JR. and furnished the following information:

A friend, whom WALKER refused to identify, advised that she, the friend, had telephonically contacted SALLY KRUCKFBERG in Buffalo, New York. KRUCKEBERG related that FRANK CORTELLI, her boyfriend, had told her he had talked with JACK RUBY in Miami, Florida, some time ago and CORTELLI said he had heard JACK RUBY make a statement to the effect that something should be done about Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY putting s much pressure on the "rackets" as he was closing a lot of the "rackets' businesses." It was also indicated that WALKER was of the opinion the information was unreliable as CORTELLI, who is known to WALKER, had attempted to impress KRUCKEBERG in the past, claiming he knew persons who were "gangsters" in the Buffalo, New York, area. CORTELLI was last known to be employed at Chin's Chinese Restaurant in Buffalo according to WALKER.

On December 2, 1963, DANNY WONG, 188 Grape Street, Buffalo, New York, owner of Chin's Chow Mein, 888 Main Street, Buffalo, advised that FRANK CORTELLI had been employed by him as a bartender about two years ago. He said CORTELLI left his job and departed for Florida. His records indicated that CORTELLI at that time resided at 257 Whitney Place, Buffalo, New York, and Mr. WONG was of the opinion that CORTELLI is presently employed at the Park Lane Restaurant, Buffalo, New York.

On December 2, 1963, Mrs. EDNA RICHARDSON, Personnel Office, Park Lane Restaurant, Delaware Avenue and Gates Circle, Buffalo, New York, advised her records indicate that FRANK ANTHONY CORTELLI, JR. is employed as a waiter and has been employed in that capacity since October 9, 1963. His Social Security Number was listed as 122-05-0277 and his residence was listed as 474 Busti Avenue, Buffalo.

On December 2, 1963, JERRY PRIORE, Identification Division, Buffalo Police Department, advised there was no record identifiable with FRANK ANTHONY CORTELLI, JR.

FRANK ANTHONY CORTELLI, JR. was interviewed at his residence, 474 Busti Avenue, and in the presence of his wife, JOSEPHINE. Mr. CORTELLI said that he had traveled from Buffalo, New York, to Miami, Florida, in October 1961 and worked and resided in the Miami Beach, Florida, area until about April 1963 when he returned to Buffalo. He volunteered that the reason he departed Buffalo was domestic difficulties and said he had returned home in an effort to effect a family reconciliation and for that reason was desirous of having his wife present.

Mr. CORTELLI stated that he resided at 223½ 23rd Street in Miami Beach during the entire period of his stay. He said he was initially employed at Piccuilo's Italian Restaurant, Washington and 3rd Streets, for about two weeks. He subsequently worked at Pacini's, 79th Street Causeway at 10th Avenue, and at the Lighthouse Restaurant at Bal Harbor, Florida. He said that each employment was for a short period of time and late in 1961 he obtained a job as a waiter at the Fountainbleau Hotel, where he remained employed until about April 1963. He said he was suffering from sun poisoning at this time and he returned to Buffalo.

CORTELLI stated that during his stay in the Miami Beach area he had no associations and referred to himself as a "loner." He said on occasion he patronized the Tahiti Bar at 23rd Street and Liberty Avenue and was acquainted with a barmaid by the name of CHARLOTTE and a male employee called "CHEESY." He said he had no associates and very little conversation other than the above two individuals. He also advised that he did not have a car while he was in Miami, admitted that on occasion he would attend the dog races, and volunteered that he spent a good deal of his free time on the beach at 22nd Street.

In response to inquiry CORTELLI stated emphatically that he is not at all acquainted with JACK RUBY, has never met the man in Florida or anywhere else, and further denied that he had ever made any statement to anyone to the effect that RUBY had told him that something would have to be done about Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY because he was cracking down on the rackets.

In response to further inquiry concerning personal background, CORTELLI said he has not been gainfully employed since his return to Buffalo as he had been sick during part of this time and presently his family and he are receiving welfare aid. At this time CORTELLI was asked whether or not he actually was employed as a waiter at the Park Lane Restaurant in Buffalo. He admitted having worked there "on occasion" serving "banquets." He said this was only part time. CORTELLI said he has no information concerning JACK RUBY or any of RUBY's associates and further stated he has no personal acquaintance with hoodlums either in the Buffalo or Miami Beach areas.

SALLY KRUCKEBERG, 32 Janet Street, Buffalo, was interviewed at her place of employment, the Buffalo General Hospital, where she is employed as an x-ray technician. She advised that she has known FRANK CORTELLI for about three years. She said she dated CORTELLI once a week for a period of about six months during that time and has had infrequent contact with him since his return to Buffalo.

Miss KRUCKEBERG stated CORTELLI had left Buffalo and went to Miami Beach, Florida, where he remained for more than a year, however she said she did not know where he may have worked other than the Fountainbleau Hotel. She stated that during the entire period of time of their acquaintanceship, their association had been friendly but never has been intimate and she said to her knowledge he is not married and she considered him only as a friend.

Miss KRUCKEBERG stated on those occasions when she dated CORTELLI he took her to dinner, patronizing the better restaurants in the Buffalo area. She said he always seemed to know a lot of people in these places and always bought drinks for his friends. She estimated that an evening out would cost from approximately $30 to $50. She described him as a very moderate drinker. She said she could not remember the identity of any specific individual and although she was introduced to many of CORTELLI's friends it was always a fleeting introduction. She stated that since CORTELLI returned to Buffalo she has only seen him on three or four occasions and said that he presently is working at the Park Lane Restaurant as a waiter. She said he also had worked for a short period of time as a waiter at Augustine's Restaurant, Buffalo.

SALLY KRUCKEBERG was questioned concerning the telephonic conversation she had with FRANK CORTELLI on the night of November 24, 1963, the date of the shooting of LEE OSWALD by JACK RUBY. She related that CORTELLI telephoned her and in the conversation asked "What do you think of that meatball?" She asked which one CORTELLI meant and he said "RUBY." She related that CORTELLI advised that it was his opinion that something was wrong with the setup and that OSWALD was shot to "shut him up." She said that she asked CORTELLI if he knew anything about JACK RUBY and CORTELLI told her he met RUBY in Miami Beach and referred to RUBY as being a "bum." She said she asked him if RUBY might be involved in the assassination of President KENNEDY and she said he said he did not know but at one time he heard RUBY say that something had to be done about ROBERT KENNEDY as he was cracking down too hard on the "rackets." She stated it was her opinion that CORTELLI was expressing a theory, however he did tell her he was acquainted with JACK RUBY. She said she also had discussed this conversation with her roommate, BETTY FRIES.

Miss KRUCKEBERG said that she has not been to Miami, Florida, and has no knowledge of any associates or acquaintances of CORTELLI who may be a part of the hoodlum element either in Buffalo, New York, or Miami, Florida.

Miss BETTY ARLENE FRIES, 32 Janet Street, Buffalo, was interviewed at her place of employment, Roswell Park Memorial Institute, where she is employed as a psychologist. She stated that on the night of the day that LEE OSWALD was shot by JACK RUBY both SALLY KRUCKEBERG and she were at home and they had been discussing the terrible events of the weekend. She related that during this time FRANK CORTELLI telephoned the apartment and had a conversation with SALLY KRUCKEBERG. Miss FRIES said that after SALLY completed her conversation with CORTELLI, she, SALLY, commented that "maybe you were right." Miss FRIES said that in discussing the assassination of President KENNEDY and of LEE OSWALD she had the feeling that there was something to these incidents that had not been revealed and said this was merely a feeling that she had and had expressed this feeling to KRUCKEBERG.

Miss FRIES said SALLY KRUCKEBERG after her conversation with CORTELLI told her that CORTELLI said he had met JACK RUBY in Florida. She said it was her recollection that KRUCKEBERG said that RUBY apparently operated some business place which had been closed according to CORTELLI. She also recalled KRUCKEBERG related that CORTELLI had told her that RUBY had made some reference to ROBERT KENNEDY at one time as being the cause as he was cracking down hard on the "rackets."

Miss FRIES said she was of the opinion after conversing with KRUCKEBERG that CORTELLI merely expressed a theory that possibly the underworld element might have had some connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Relative to FRANK CORTELLI, she said she has only met him three or four times since he came to Buffalo from Miami, Florida. She said she knew of no associates or acquaintances of CORTELLI's other than SALLY KRUCKEBERG. In response to inquiry she said that BETTY MC BEE, former roommate of KRUCKEBERG, is now living in Lakeland, Florida, where she is employed in some bank. She further stated that MARY J. WALKER, who is also a mutual acquaintance, is in Lakeland, Florida. She said she did not know if either of these girls had any association with CORTELLI while he was in the Miami, Florida, area as she was not acquainted with him at that time.

The following information was received by SA B. HARRY WYNN at Buffalo, New York, on December 3, 1963, from JOHN H. JEWELL, 142 East Amherst, Buffalo, telephone TF 4-2858, who telephonically advised that one of his co-workers advised that the piano player and singer currently appearing at Jim Foster's Supper Club, 191 Delaware Avenue, Buffalo, was formerly employed at Las Vegas, Nevada, as an entertainer. While in Las Vegas this entertainer was contacted by JACK RUBY and was advised by RUBY that he had two night clubs in Dallas, Texas, and requested the entertainer come to Dallas and appear in his clubs. In addition, RUBY advised that he would guarantee the entertainer (whose name is unknown to Mr. JEWELL) at least six months' employment.

Mr. JEWELL continued that the entertainer contacted several co-workers during the intermission after being contacted by RUBY and attempted to determine the character and worth of RUBY. The co-workers advised the entertainer that RUBY is vicious, difficult, and suggested that the entertainer not become involved with RUBY in any capacity. The entertainer was further advised that it would be better for him not to discuss his appearance in Dallas with RUBY and that he should stay in his dressing room rather than become more closely associated with RUBY.

Mr. JEWELL concluded by stating that he did not want to get involved in any capacity and refused to furnish the name of the co-worker but felt that the entertainer would not be reluctant to discuss the above event if contacted.

The following investigation was conducted by SA PAUL A. JOENSEN at Buffalo, New York, on December 3, 1963:

SAL RIZZO, Business Agent, Local 43, American Federation of Musicians, 1391 Main Street, Buffalo, advised that the entertainer presently appearing at Foster's Supper Club, 291 Delaware Avenue is JACKIE/JOCKO. RIZZO furnished JOCKO's true name as JOHN GIACCIO, 61 LeBrun Drive, Eggertsville, New York.

GIACCIO was located at 65 Sidney Street, Buffalo, New York, where he stated he lives with his mother when appearing in Buffalo. GIACCO stated he and his brother, JOSEPH, have traveled extensively for several years as entertainers, he being a piano player and singer and his brother a drummer. He also advised his stage name is JACKIE JOCKO.

GIACCIO stated that about four years ago he played an engagement in the University Club, located on Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas. According to GIACCIO, he was introduced to JACK RUBY by TONY ZOPPI, a columnist for the "Dallas News," and throughout his engagement at the University Club he saw RUBY as a patron of that club and occasionally would speak to RUBY at the club. GIACCIO said ZOPPI told him RUBY either owned or fronted for the "Soverign Club" in Dallas. His only association with RUBY at that time was in the University Club where RUBY was a patron.

Subsequently in 1961 while he was filling an engagement at the Sahara Club in Las Vegas, GIACCIO said TONY ZOPPI came to see him at that club. ZOPPI told him he was in Las Vegas to cover the Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament then in progress. ZOPPI also told him that RUBY had mentioned at one time that he liked GIACCIO's act and any time GIACCIO wanted to appear in his Dallas clubs RUBY would hire him. ZOPPI also gave him RUBY's address as the Soverign Club, 1312 Commerce Street, and home address as 4727 Homer, Dallas, telephone TA 7-9883. GIACCIO showed this entry in his address book.

GIACCIO denied ever being contacted by RUBY in Las Vegas, and he denied making any inquiry in Las Vegas concerning RUBY. GIACCIO explained he allows the union to negotiate his contract with the clubs and they take care of all the guarantees thereby relieving him of any worries with being paid and so forth.

GIACCIO stated he is signed to appear at Foster's Supper Club in Buffalo until January 12, 1964. He insisted that the only offer of employment by RUBY came through TONY ZOPPI, who appeared to be closely associated with RUBY. At no time had he made any inquiry regarding RUBY and no one has ever advised him regarding employment at RUBY's club in Dallas, Texas.

JOSEPH GIACCIO, 65 Sidney Street, was also interviewed concerning the above matter. He corroborated all statements made by JOHN GIACCIO and stated he had no other information than that furnished by his brother.

BU 4-214

JAMES LOUIS LABELLE, 12 Collins Avenue, Jamestown, New York, advised on December 2, 1963, that he is a former Western Union telegrapher and was employed in a Western Union office on the North Side of Chicago, Illinois, from 1926 to 1934. He stated that in 1928 and 1929 he worked in Valparaiso, Indiana, while attending a telegraphy school.

LABELLE stated that he recalls JACK RUBY coming into the Western Union office on the North Side of Chicago during 1930, at which time he sent numerous telegrams, the contents of which he has no recollection. He stated that in his opinion RUBY was associated with the hoodlums in the Chicago area but has no information about him, his associates, or his background. He stated he never had any conversations with RUBY except over the wires he was sending, and the only thing he recalls about him is the fact that he was a neat dresser.

LABELLE further stated that on November 26, 1963, while in the Ranch Restaurant, 219 Washington Street, Jamestown, he overheard a conversation between two unknown individuals at the bar. This conversation centered around President KENNEDY's trip to Dallas and one of the persons stated that he was killed by the underworld. He stated the conversation took place between 12:00 noon and 6:00 PM, November 26, 1963, but he would be unable to recall the individuals involved and is unable to describe them in any manner.

LABELLE stated his date of birth is January 6, 1908, at Hamtramack, Michigan, and added that he is presently retired.

With regard to LABELLE, a review of the 1960-1962 Jamestown City Directories reflects that he is a homeowner at 1 Collins Avenue, Jamestown, and his wife is GENEVIEVE. The 1958-1959 Directory indicates that he was a janitor at the G. C. Murphy Company, Jamestown, at that time.

HOWARD FISH, owner, and THELMA SMITH, Manager, Ranch Restaurant, 219 Washington Street, Jamestown, New York, advised that LABELLE is unknown to them. They stated that both would have been in the restaurant at noon on November 26, 1963, but that SMITH would have worked in the afternoon. Both stated they do not recall any conversation concerning the persons involved in the shooting of the President, but do recall several of the customers talking generally about the shooting. They stated they cannot recall anyone in particular who was in the restaurant on November 26, 1963, adding that they have a steady flow of customers, both drinking and eating, and it would be impossible to ascertain who might have been at the bar at a given time two weeks ago.

[redacted] Credit Bureau, Jamestown, New York, advised on December 2, 1963, that JAMES L. LABELLE and wife GENEVIEVE, 12 Collins Avenue, Jamestown, have been on file at her bureau since 1942. She stated his file indicates she has been employed at numerous plants in Jamestown, the most recent one being Art Metal, Inc., prior to 1957. He was a janitor at the G. C. Murphy Company building in 1957, and was on City Welfare in 1960. The file shows that in February 1960 he was arrested for "Fraudulently Obtaining Welfare Funds" and was sentenced to serve 60 days in the Chautauqua County Jail, suspended, providing he repaid the funds.

She stated that his first employment in Jamestown dates back to January 30, 1942, and the file indicates that he came to Jamestown from Cleveland, Ohio.

Lieutenant RICHARD THOREN (NA), Jamestown, New York, Police Department, advised on December 2, 1963, that JAMES LOUIS LABELLE, 12 Collins Avenue, Jamestown, date of birth January 6, 1908, was arrested by the Jamestown Police Department on January 6, 1960 for violation of the Social Welfare Law, Section 145, sentenced to 60 days in the County Jail, suspended, and placed on probation, no time shown.

DETAILS:

Re: Rumor that JACK LEON RUBY was in Greensboro, North Carolina, November 21, 1963

On December 12, 1963, Mrs. OLIVER RANSON, Box 196, Huntersville, North Carolina, telephonically contacted the FBI at Charlotte, North Carolina, and advised Special Agent in Charge, JOSEPH L. KISSIAH, that she had a second or third-hand rumor that RUBY had cashed a $700.00 check at the airport branch of some Greensboro, North Carolina, bank on Thursday, November 21, 1963. Mrs. RANSON stated that she did not know how valid the rumor is or whether it is important, but she believed the story originated at a family-type dinner party attended by persons unknown to her, except a woman teller of the bank, also whose name she does not know. Mrs. RANSON stated that she heard that this woman was asked why she did not report the matter and apparently it was not reported since the bank reportedly has a rule that they will fire any employee who discloses bank information.

The following investigation was conducted by SA G. DARGAN FRIERSON:

AT GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

On December 3, 1963, Mr. C. M. VANSTORY, JR., Chairman of the Board, North Carolina National Bank, had a check made at the airport branch of their bank and could locate no record of any $700.00 transaction during the pertinent period. Later, Mrs. VIRGINIA PEARMAN, Manager of that branch, called Mr. VANSTORY's office and advised it was she who had had the contact with the individual whom she thought might be RUBY.

Mrs. PEARMAN was interviewed December 3, 1963, and advised that at approximately Noon, November 22, 1963, the date President KENNEDY was assassinated, a man came to the branch at the airport. He said he had too much money on him and he wanted to open an account. She started questioning him relative to opening the account and the man said his name was JACK RUDDY. She does not remember the town he said he was from but she knew he said he was from Oklahoma. He claimed he was a furniture wholesale salesman and exhibited a check for $782.00 made payable to Maryin Furniture Company and signed by two individuals named BASSETT. RUDDY pointed out that these were the BASSETTS of Bassett Furniture Company, whom she recognized as furniture manufacturers in Bassett, Virginia.

RUDDY stated he was on his way to Hudson, North Carolina, which was near Hickory, North Carolina, and he wanted to rent an automobile. He had a National Car Rental Credit Card and she had called this company but no one answered. She told him she would have to hold the check and he could not withdraw any funds on this check and at this point he said "Forget it." He opened up his wallet and she saw a number of $100.00 bills and suggested he might want to purchase a cashier's check or some travelers checks which he declined to do and walked out.

She saw RUDDY talk to the Eastern Airlines counter where Mrs. CHRIS LOFLIN was stationed and she did not see him again. She saw on TV on Sunday the photograph of RUBY and said the photograph did not resemble RUDDY, but she thought his general description did fit. She described RUDDY as white, male, in his 50's, 6', dark complexion, large nose, heavy set - probably at least 200 pounds, black topcoat and was wearing black homburg, was of "Jewish" extraction.

Mrs. PEARMAN had discussed this with Mrs. LOFLIN on Monday, November 25, 1963, and Mrs. LOFLIN did not remember the man talking with her. She had also checked with Piedmont Airlines about the possibility of RUDDY taking a flight to Hickory, the only airlines that goes there, and they had no record of RUDDY making a flight there.

Upon her specific request, Mrs. MARIE STEPHENS, 568 Hedden Avenue, Akron, Ohio, was interviewed at her residence by SA RICHARD G. PETERSON.

She stated at approximately 7:30 P.M., November 28, 1963, she got off the bus at the intersection of Main and Market Streets, Akron, Ohio, directly in front of the Portage Hotel. She advised she observed two "Cuban males" standing along the curb by a "late 1964 Buick." When asked why she was sure it was a "late 1964," Mrs. STEPHENS replied, "Because it had new white wall tires and an Ohio license, number unknown."

As she was passing by these two individuals, Mrs. STEPHENS claimed she heard the one man say to his companion, "RUBY fouled things up. We'll pick up EDDIE in Chicago, head for Dallas and meet CLARA at the club. We've got to do away with RUBY 'cause he fouled things up. When we get back to Cuba, CASTRO will give us a medal."

Mrs. STEPHENS described these two men as both being about 5' 6" to 5' 8" tall, medium build, dark complexions, black hair with high pompadour in front, both dressed in dark trousers, zipper type jackets with red and yellow plaid shirts. She did not hear them mention the name of the club they were to go to in Dallas but did hear them say "CLARA" was a stripteaser and also heard them refer to her by her Spanish name, "CLARISA."

Mrs. STEPHENS also claimed that just after the assassination of President KENNEDY, she called FBI Headquarters, Washington, D. C., and warned them, "If LEE OSWALD was not guarded very closely he would be killed." She said that at the time she called she gave the FBI the descriptions of the above mentioned two "Cubans," however, she was unable to give a logical explanation of where she observed these two individuals prior to the evening of November 28, 1963.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. STEPHENS further claims she is the individual who tipped off the "head of the FBI, Washington, D. C." in the early 1950's, that an attempt was going to made by Puerto Ricans to assassinate former President HARRY S. TRUMAN while he was temporarily living at Blair House, Washington, D. C. She said she is the individual who is responsible for Mr. TRUMAN not being killed at that time. Mrs. STEPHENS added that her name is on file with FBI headquarters for furnishing this information.

When questioned as to how she knew the two unknown males she observed were Cubans, Mrs. STEPHENS replied, "Cubans look more starved than Puerto Ricans."

Concerning her own background, Mrs. STEPHENS advised she is 66 years of age, a widow, and lives alone at 568 Hedden Avenue, Akron, Ohio.

On November 29, 1963, efforts to locate Mr. W. F. HICKMAN, B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company, 500 S. Main Street, Akron, Ohio, former place of employment of MARIE STEPHENS, determined Mr. HICKMAN not available.

On December 2, 1963, Mr. W. F. HICKMAN, B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company, advised SA RICHARD G. PETERSON that MARIE STEPHENS was employed by B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company from April 5, 1927, to May 31, 1962, the effective date of her retirement. She was born May 15, 1897, and currently resides at 568 Hedden Avenue, Akron, Ohio. He suggested that [redacted] and [redacted] both of Department 7500, be contacted for additional information regarding Mrs. STEPHENS.

On December 2, 1963, [redacted] B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company, advised he knew MARIE STEPHENS for several years prior to her retirement. He described her as a very odd person and on several occasions doubted her mental stability. He said she is a very "flighty" individual, "you can never tell what she will do from one minute to the next nor what she will say." He advised he recalled one time she went out to buy a new car without knowing how to drive. When the salesman took her out for a demonstration ride, she got behind the wheel and proceeded to run into a pole, wrecking the car. He stated she later unsuccessfully tried to sue the automobile agency.

On December 2, 1963, [redacted] B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company, advised that MARIE STEPHENS worked [redacted] He stated that towards the end of her employment she began to act very strange and made "weird" statements. As an example, he recalled when Mrs. STEPHENS' dog died she had a regular funeral for it and called a florist and ordered flowers in the names of some of her friends. These friends were then billed for the flowers without their knowledge. [redacted] also recalled that Mrs. STEPHENS' husband CHARLES, now deceased, moved to Las Vegas for his health not too long before his death. Mrs. STEPHENS used to tell [redacted] when she came to work in the morning that she received telephone calls from "eagles" informing her that her husband was running around with other women and that he was going to die. She also told [redacted] that she did not believe this, as she did not think eagles made telephone calls.

In conclusion, [redacted] advised that based on his association with MARIE STEPHENS he considers her a very unstable person, strongly inclined to imagine things, and he would not believe anything she said.

JACK LEON RUBY

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is a loan to your agency; it and/or its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

[redacted] formerly known as [redacted] advised she met JACK RUBY in about 1957 when she worked as a strip teaser for him at the Carousel Club in Dallas, Texas. She said that RUBY is definitely queer or homosexual; that he was known to the burlesque dancers as a "queen"; that he was considered the aggressor in his homosexual activities and that since he was over 30 years of age, he was also known as an "auntie," meaning that he had to buy his sexual associates or "trade." She explained that by trade she meant that he recruited young boys in the teenage group who were not necessarily homosexual to engage in homosexual activities with him and had to pay them money or provide other types of favors as a consideration. She said that these recruits were referred to as "trade" due to the fact that after tiring of them, they would be traded to other aggressor type homosexuals who would then associate in these activities with these recruits.

[redacted] stated that RUBY resented women because he was not a woman but apparently wanted to be a woman. She said that he was a very moody individual and that if he did not agree with a person, such as one of the strip teasers, he would frequently strike them during agruments. She said that she never saw him fight a man, never saw him with a gun, nor heard of him threatening to kill anyone.

[redacted] said that she did not know any of RUBY's close associates; that she had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD until the recent publicity concerning the assassination of the President, but that MAYBELLE BROWN, a theatrical booking agent in Dallas, would know the identities of strip teasers who have worked for RUBY at his night club recently and who might know more of his recent activities.

[redacted] said that since she had not seen RUBY in quite sometime, that she could provide no additional information concerning him. She added that she had never heard of him associating with any communists, Marxists or persons interested in any way in Cuba.

PAUL SISCO was interviewed at the Chicago Office of the FBI on November 30, 1963. SISCO advised that he is an employeee of the News Film Department of UPI. He stated that, in this capacity, he was present in the basement of the Dallas Police Department Building on the morning of November 24, 1963. SISCO advised that he entered the basement area through the ramp entrance on Main Street at about 9 a.m. On his initial entry he was required to exhibit his Chicago Police Department press card to a police officer on duty at the entrance. He stated that there was only one policeman on duty at this entrance. He had noticed several officers on the Commerce Street side of the Police Department building. During the next few hours SISCO departed the ramp via the Main Street entrance on two occasions. On both occasions he told the officer on duty that he was going out to get equipment and would be back momentarily. He stated that on these two occasions the policeman let him re-enter the ramp without again showing his press card. SISCO stated that he felt that this was due to the fact that the police officer recognized him as having identified himself on his intial entrance. SISCO could describe this officer only as about 6'3", husky, probably dark complected. SISCO stated that he did not notice any other police officers on the Main Street side at this time. SISCO stated that he had no knowledge of any unauthorized persons in the basement area.

SISCO stated he had no knowledge or reason to believe that any person conspired with JACK RUBY in the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. SISCO related that he had no knowledge that any police officer or other official conspired or permitted the unauthorized presence of anyone in the basement. SISCO said that he cannot positively say that he saw RUBY until after OSWALD had been shot and RUBY was in custody of the Dallas Police Department in the basement area. SISCO said that during the press conference held at the police station about 1 a.m. Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, which SISCO attended, he remembers some unrecalled person point to an individual standing on a table and say,"What's a night club owner doing here". SISCO said he looked at the person standing on the table and recalls only that the person was wearing dark glasses. SISCO stated that he cannot definitely say it was RUBY, but feels in retrospect that it must have been him. SISCO said that before OSWALD was brought from the elevator into the basement about six police officers armed with rifles came out of the interior area of the building and went out the Main Street entrance, presumably, according to SISCO, to take up guard on Main Street.

SISCO stated that he was one of a three man UPI team from Chicago present at the Dallas Police Department on November 24, 1963. He identified the others as OLIVER OAKES and ISADORE BLECKMAN. BLECKMAN was with SISCO in the basement until after the shooting. OAKES left about 10:30 a.m. to cover the press conference being held by the wife of Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY. SISCO stated his UPI team got good film of the shooting and also possibly film of the police department exterior area as it appeared a few hours prior to the shooting. He stated some of this film may have been cut or edited as a part of the normal routine. This film was sent to UPI News Film Department 448 West 56th Street, New York 19, New York.

SISCO stated he had retained a Yellow Cab to stand by outside the Main Street entrance of the Police Department building for expedite transportation of the film. He believes the cab number may have been 932. The driver was described as probably in his 50's, gray hair, no hat. This cab stood by on Main Street from about 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on November 24, 1963. SISCO recalls the meter for the waiting period was about $8.50 and he gave the driver $10.00.

ISADORE BLECKMAN, Apartment 101, 6002 North Kenmore Avenue, Chicago, on November 30, 1963, advised:

He has been employed as a photographer by UPI for a little over a month. BLECKMAN stated that he was sent to Dallas, Texas, Friday, November 22, 1963, immediately after news of President KENNEDY's death was received.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, he stated that he went to the Dallas, Texas Police Department about 8 a.m. His reason, he added, for being at the police department was because of the department's announcement to the press that LEE HARVEY OSWALD would be moved from the police department to the county jail at 10 a.m., November 24, 1963. He said he entered the police department through the main entrance doors and took an elevator to the third floor of the building where heretofore the press, photographers, etc. had previously been accommodated. As he emerged from the elevator BLECKMAN said he was asked by a uniformed armed policeman to identify himself which he did by exhibiting his press credentials before he was permitted to enter the third floor. He said he remained a little while on the third floor before taking the elevator to the booking room in the basement where he remained until ten or fifteen minutes prior to OSWALD being brought out of the elevator by police.

About ten to fifteen minutes prior to OSWALD's appearance he said he and other photographers and newsmen were all asked to vacate the booking room, which they did. BLECKMAN said he then took up a position in front of a window in the booking room so he could photograph OSWALD as OSWALD emerged from the elevator. As OSWALD emerged he said he got his photographs and then raced to the far side of the ramp so he could continue to photograph OSWALD as he emerged from the booking room and presumably would be led from there to the waiting armored car which would be used to transport him to the county jail. BLECKMAN stated that he was in this position as OSWALD was led out of the booking room and that he had his camera going from that time on.

On 11/30/63 at Chicago, Illinois File # CG 44-645

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

An individual later identified as JACK RUBY cut through photographers, television cameramen, etc., a short distance to BLECKMAN's right and proceeded to shoot OSWALD. BLECKMAN said he continued to take action photos throughout. This film which BLECKMAN stated recorded all activity from the time OSWALD emerged from the elevator into the booking room and from that room to where he was shot is presently in the hands of his employer, UPI, in New York City or Washington, D.C.

BLECKMAN stated that between 9 to 10 a.m. the same morning he proceeded from the booking room to the ramp and left the police department premises and was permitted to do so only after identifying himself. His reason for leaving he told the officer at the Main Street entrance of the ramp was that he had to leave to get equipment. On his return he was permitted to re-enter the police department premises by the same route without identifying himself but that he presumed the armed officer on duty recognized him as having left the ramp shortly before. BLECKMAN said he saw no one in the police department or in the ramp who was not believed by him to be a member of the department or the working press. He said he had no knowledge of anyone permitted to gain entry to the police department on Sunday, November 24, 1963, without properly identifying himself, and neither did he have any knowledge or indication that any police officer or official conspired or permitted the unauthorized presence of anyone in the basement.

BLECKMAN said that to his knowledge he had never seen RUBY prior to RUBY's actual shooting of OSWALD although on Friday evening, November 22, 1963, when OSWALD was brought to the lineup room of the police department, according to various persons, identities unknown, RUBY was alleged to have been present and allegedly asked a question of OSWALD. The exhibition of OSWALD in the lineup room was apparently for the convenience of the press and photographers than for any police function, according to BLECKMAN.

BLECKMAN stated that at Parkland Memorial Hospital later on Sunday, November 24, 1963, an individual described as in his early thirties, 5'8", 180 to 200 lbs., sturdy build, blond hair who was either a director of a television station in Dallas or in charge of a television crew from a Dallas television station told him in the presence of HENRY A. KOKOJAN, 9009 Freeport Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone DAvis 8-1043, that an upper window of a building on either Main or Commerce Streets overlooking the police department ramp was open Friday after the President's assassination, all day Saturday and Sunday but that shortly after OSWALD's murder the window was shut. BLECKMAN stated that he could recall being told nothing additional by this individual but that the above caused speculation among themselves as to whether RUBY had an accomplice or whether others besides RUBY were interested in doing away with OSWALD.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

OLIVER OAKES was interviewed on December 1, 1963, at his residence, 5514 Monroe Street, Morton Grove, Illinois. He advised that he is employed by UPI News Film as a sound engineer and in this capacity was sent with a news team comprised of PAUL SISCO, ISADORE BLECKMAN and himself to Dallas, Texas. He departed Chicago on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, by plane and arrived in Fort Worth, Texas after 5 p.m. This news team rented an automobile and drove to Dallas. During the week end of November 22-24, 1963, he was in and out of the Dallas Police Department building on numerous occasions and on several occasions had to exhibit his press pass to gain entrance to the police department building. However, after a while he was recognized and permitted by the policemen to enter without exhibiting his press pass.

OAKES stated, however, that he was always carrying his news equipment with him which is contained partially in suitcases and which is all marked with the initials UPI. On occasion when he entered the police officers would look him over, recognize him, note the initials UPI on his press gear and would not request that he exhibit a press pass. He stored his equipment on the third floor near the elevator right next to the police guards and because of this he believes they came to recognize him on sight.

On Sunday, November 24, 1963, he arrived at the Dallas Police Department at approximately 9:30 a.m. and entered the basement of the police department building by way of the Main Street ramp. It had been previously announced by the chief of police that if newsmen arrived at the police department by 10 a.m. on Sunday it would be early enough to cover OSWALD's transfer to the county jail. When he entered the police department basement he was carrying several pieces of equipment clearly marked UPI and he does not recall whether or not he was requested to exhibit a press pass. He believes he was possibly admitted based on the UPI identification on his news equipment by a young, neatly dressed uniformed officer. At this time there were approximately 12 newsmen present and everything appeared to be orderly and there was no confusion. At approximately 10:20 a.m. on November 24, 1963, PAUL SISCO, who was in charge of the news team, instructed OAKES to go to the Parkland Hospital to cover a news conference which was to be held by Governor CONNALLY's wife and he left the police department building at approximately 10:20 am.

While at the Parkland Hospital he was advised of the fact that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been shot and he waited at the hospital for a time in an effort to cover OSWALD's arrival at Parkland Hospital. However, he received a telephone message from SISCO to return to the police department and did so. Upon returning to the police department he attempted to enter the Main Street ramp entrance to the basement at approximately 1 p.m. and a police officer demanded that he exhibit his press pass. He did so and this officer was about to permit him to enter the basement when a second uniformed officer walked up to the ramp and also demanded to see his press pass. The first officer told the second officer that he had already seen the pass and that OAKES was a newsman but the second officer demanded to see the press pass for himself, not taking the word of the first officer. Upon exhibiting his press pass he was permitted to enter the basement.

OAKES stated that during his presence at the Dallas Police Department he felt that they employed strict security measures and he was not permitted entrance to the police department without specifically showing his press pass or unless he was carrying equipment clearly marked UPI. He had no knowledge of unauthorized persons in the basement of the police department on November 24, 1963, or other days who did not have proper identification. However, he was informed by PAUL SISCO that JACK RUBY was in attendance at the press conference held at approximately 1 a.m. on November 23, 1963, with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

In addition, at a news conference held with the Chief of Police, Dallas, Texas, on Tuesday, November 26, 1963, SISCO mentioned to the chief of police that RUBY was in attendance at this press conference on November 23, 1963. The chief of police did not acknowledge or deny the fact that RUBY was there.

It was his understanding that RUBY was passing out tickets for free drinks at his night club to news personnel at the Dallas Police Department. However, he did not see him do this nor did he receive any free tickets and could not furnish the names of any reporters who did obtain these free drink tickets.

OAKES stated that he has no knowledge of anyone conspiring to kill OSWALD nor did he have any knowledge or indication that any police officers or other officials conspired or permitted unauthorized persons to be present at the police department.

OAKES stated that he saw JACK RUBY during the afternoon of November 24, 1963, on the third floor of the Dallas Police Department after the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This was the only time that he saw RUBY.

OAKES stated that the only film that he shot in Dallas was of the wife of Governor CONNALLY and this was given to PAUL SISCO and forwarded to New York.

Date December 1, 1963

PAUL SISCO, News Film Photographer for UPI was interviewed on December 1, 1963. He advised that he interviewed the Dallas Chief of Police on November 26, 1963, and that during this interview he may have mentioned to the Chief of Police that JACK RUBY was present at a press conference at the police station on November 23, 1963, at approximately 1 a.m. However, if he did refer to this individual as RUBY it was strictly an assumption on his part based on the fact that he saw an individual standing on a table at this conference and an unrecalled individual stated, "What's a night club owner doing here". It was the opinion of all newsmen covering the press conference on November 23, 1963, that this individual was actually JACK RUBY and that he was of the strong opinion that this was JACK RUBY. However, he stated that he could not definitely say it was RUBY and that any reference to this individual as RUBY by him was strictly based on an assumption on his part.

The name of JACK RUBENSTEIN, not otherwise identified, reportedly appears in files of HCUA.

WFO has advised hearings of HCUA which included name of JACK RUBENSTEIN concerning Young Communist League (YCL). WFO files reflect one JACK RUBENSTEIN, organizer for CIO Textile Workers Union in New Jersey in 1951, was a member of the National Board of Young Communist League. Springfield teletype indicates information based on a review of HCUA reports at the University of Illinois Library to the effect that one JACK RUBENSTEIN was active in "Revoluntionary Youths", an organization to contribute further to "Marxian Drive" in America.
